Warden sees trouble ahead as result of elections

Noticed along the way

A lot of people "put on the dog" as they venture forth into the New Year all decked out in the gifts of a Christmas past. . .They give that new tie or shirt a trial run, slip in and pick up the new hat for which they received a voucher, and otherwise put on a good front for the occasion. Right in keeping with the spirit of the season, the dog seen above - "Nick", a handsome American Cocker Spaniel owned by Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hawley, sons Robert and Richard of London - showed up in Lindsay for the Yuletide holiday bedecked with a beautiful red bow designed especially for him. He and his masters spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hawley of 37 Melbourne St., E. A clever and obedient three-year-old, "Nick" performed several of his stunts for those he visited

If we had lived about 400 years ago, we would still have a long way to go before New Year's Day. . . January 1st became generally accepted as the Christian's New Year's Day with the establishment of the Gregorian calendar in 1582. Previously, March 25th was generally regarded as New Year's Day throughout most of the Christian world. . . .

The unusual winter being experienced in Britain has produced some unexpected developments. A Kingston-on-Thames milkman will probably think twice now before accepting a cup of tea to take the chill out of his bones while making his rounds. He was fined $28 in court for driving his electric milk cart while drunk. . . .He pleaded that sympathetic customers had given him "spiked tea" to help him on his snow-bound rounds.

"It's an ill wind that blows no good" and a British construction worker will probably be able to see something good in cold weather from now on. He was saved from death by the cold when he fell into a hopper just as tons of gravel were to pour into it. The gravel had frozen and wouldn't pour.

LIKENS NEW CONTROL TO HITLER'S POWER

"If Metro Toronto is going to control all municipalities of the Province of Ontario, we might as well be under the yoke of Hitlerism." Victoria County Warden John Alton made this declaration following Saturday's election when the four seats of Carden council were filled by cottagers, Gordon McGhee, Stanley Rollings and F. L. Hobbs and summer resort operator Harley Fulson. "Reeve Edward J. Murphy, returned by acclamation for his 23rd time will have nothing to say now in Carden lgislation - he will be completely overruled by these cottagers and there will be no local government," the Warden continued.

"Metropolitan Toronto has now one representative on County Council — newly elected Deputy-reeve Russell Doyle for Eldon Township and if the present law isn't stopped Metropolitan Toronto could take over all Victoria County, north of the Ops boundary," Warden Alton warned.

"Formerly the law held that a voter must reside within a five-mile limit of the municipality where he was eligible to vote but a recent judgement changed that and has led to this control being instituted from outside the municipality.

"We are now in the same position as Czechoslovakia and Austria when they were run by Berlin after Hitler took over the Warden declared, adding: "We are going to be run by Metro Toronto and Metro Toronto has to have local government to make sure they have representatives in every ward. The different towns won't amalgamate under one leadership and yet they can unite and take over our rural municipalities.

"We might as well be under Hitlerism - the only way to change this unfair decision (re the five-mile residence clause) is to take the matter to higher court," he summed up.

Over 200 cottagers came by special buses and private cars more than 70 miles to Carden municipality elections Saturday to sweep the council clean with their own representatives. Of about 1,000 eligible voters, 803 are not year round residents.

Cottagers in Carden have been advocating a dam for Dalrymple, a new township hall and a bigger school, states a resident adding "but what they don't know is that the dam, which would flood adjacent farmlands comes under the jurisdiction of the Department of Lands and Forests, and such a school under the High School Area Board. They just don't understand and it is going to make it hard for Reeve Murphy", she said.

Another victory for the ladies!

New Year's first baby is a girl

Another victory for the ladies . . . The first baby of the New Year at Lindsay was a girl! . . . A seven-pound, seven ounce beauty today lays claim to being the only baby born at Lindsay's Ross Memorial Hospital on New Year's Day. Arrival time 8.20 p.m.

The distinguished little miss has already been named Cynthia Michelle and is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tengesdal of Oakwood.

Both the little newcomer and her mother are reported in fine condition, this morning and needless to say the parents and four year-old sister Sharlene Ellen are overjoyed.

Her father, for a time on the staff of "The Post", is now associated with the Lindsay Singer Sewing Machine Co. Her mother is the former Helen Hill of Little Britain.

"Many Happy returns of the day", Miss 1963!

Unplaced job seekers down 65 on the month

Unplaced applicants at the local National Employment office for the month of December, were down 65 as compared to December 1961, and applicants on claim dropped 63.

Manager Clare Kirkness reports unplaced males at 504, and females 220, a total of 724 against 789 in December '61.

On claim were 481 males, and 194 females, a total of 675, as against 768 December '61.

Claims taken over the month were also down about 100.

Hot election predicted in Somerville township

A hot election is predicted in Somerville on January 7th, with two contestants for the reeveship, five for three council seats and seven for the office of three school trustees. Monday nominations resulted as follows:

Fire threatens Murphy farms twice in day

Lindsay firemen ended the old year on a note of achievement when they prevented what might have been a serious fire at the Murphy farm on the Verulam Rd. around 2.00 o'clock Monday afternoon.

It is understood the fire followed the thawing of some pipes in the milk house with a blow torch. Damage was estimated at about $250.

A second fire was reported a little while after on the same day at another Murphy farm at R. R. 2 Lindsay where a chimney caught fire.

This too was quickly brought under control with minor damage.

Church women donate $50 to fund

Cambridge St. United Church Women have donated $50 to the Santa Claus Stoking Fund making the total to date $1,359.05.

EDITORIAL....

AN INTERESTING SITUATION

Two Victoria County Townships have witnessed an unusual development in municipal politics . . . . There has been an almost complete change in the personnel of their councils. This change has been brought about by the unity of purpose displayed by cottagers associations in the affected townships, notably Eldon and Carden, where urban candidates have almost totally replaced the rural candidates. This is an interesting situation and one which will be closely watched to see how it works out.

Can the cottagers representatives think in terms of rural needs? . . . How will they fit into the county council picture? . . . Will they be able to keep the interests of cottagers and rural residents in proper persepective?

These are just some of the many questions which arise as the predominately cottage representation takes office in 1963. The answers, of course, will come with the passage of time. We look on with interest.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 2, 1913

Negotiations have been pending for some time between the Industrial Commission and the Boraine Co., of Sweden, an immense concern which manufactures all kinds of hydraulic machinery. On New Year's a cablegram was received conveying the pleasing intelligence the Company had accepted the Commissioners' proposition and were now making arrangements with their financial agents in London, England. The industry is one of the largest of it kind in existence and its location in Lindsay will mark an epock in its history. Further details concerning the industry cannot be given at present, but will be forthcoming in a few days.

Concert this evening

The St. Mary's Catholic Club will hold a concert and lecture in the Parish Hall, this evening at 8 o'clock. Prof. E. J. Kylie of Toronto University will lecture on "Western Canada." Tickets—25c.

JANUARY 2, 1938

A large number of men and trucks have been engaged recently clearing snow from Kent Street. Tons of snow which drifted on to Lindsay's main street in the terrific storm were removed by a crew of men and trucks. The truckloads of snow are being taken to the Lindsay Street Bridge and are being dumped over onto the ice. The snow has piled up to the bridge and the men are seeking new places in which to pile the snow. Fourteen men and six trucks were engaged for the work but at noon today a further crew of men had been hired. Hundreds of truckloads of snow have been taken from the street and it is becoming passable again. The men are receiving 30 cents an hour for their services and the trucks are bringing a dollar an hour for their owners. And the men and trucks made Kent Street anything but the holiday street one would expect on New Year's Day. It was a picture of industry as men with shovels loaded truckload after truckload of snow and saw it disappear over the side of the bridge. The work will continue until the snow is cleared away, and the men will have benefited considerably.

Reports and Remarks..

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"Though little, the master word looms large in meaning. It is the 'open sesame' to every portal, the great equalizer, the philosopher's stone which transutes all base metal of humanity into gold. The stupid it will make bright, the bright brilliant, and the brilliant steady. To youth it brings hope, to the middle-aged confidence, to the aged repose. It is directly responsible for all advances in medicine during the past 25 years. Not only has it been the touchstone of progress, but it is the measure of success in everyday life. And the master word is work."

Sir William Osler, M.D., 1849-1919.

Modest Item

A new product doesn't always have to be revolutionary. Usually, it's a modest item that solves a pesky problem. For example, a Chicago firm has a new easy-on-easy-off non-skid emergency chain for winter drivers. The link chain is made of hardened steel and can be fastened to the car wheel in moments, anywhere, and with no tools. The ladies in particular should like this easy-to-use emergency car chain.

Vinyl Floor Mats

Another item of interest to the woman driver. A new set of vinyl floor mats for autos are designed specifically to withstand the danger of punctures from stiletto-like heels. The mats have a non-skid pattern on the underside to hold them securely in place, and are said to remain resilient and supple — even at sub-zero temperatures.

Outmoded

That none-too-sanitary bathroom glass becomes outmoded, thanks to a special compact paper cup dispenser. It's made of tough white polystyrene and economy size cups in a silver is only five inches high. New star pattern make it possible to use paper cups at a cost reportedly less than that of toothpaste.

Lifetime Candle

Candle drip and unsightly stubs go out the window, with a new aluminum lifetime candle. It consists of an outer casing of aluminum into which a wax candle is inserted. A spring device supports the taper at a permanent height until the last bit burns away. Available in 12 and 15-inch lengths in a variety of colors.

New Bottle

A new vacuum bottle is claimed to do away with breakage. The bottle retains heat or cold with an insulation space of polyurethane microform. The inner bottle and odor-free and unbreakable. outer case are stain-resistant,

No Need

There's no need to struggle with awkward boxes of waxed paper, plastic wrap and oil if you have a wall-mounted kitchen caddie. The caddie can be mounted on wall surface or builtin and has room for three rolls of wrappings. . .each separately controlled. The units can be lifted out for use in other parts of the home, too.

Announcements

Birth Notice

TENGESDAL — Sharlene is delighted to announce the arrival of a baby sister Cynthia Michelle. (H9684)

Cards of Thanks

CHARTER — I wish to sincerely thank everyone who sent me cards, plants, gifts and those who visited me during my stay in Ross Memorial Hospital. A sincere thank you to nurses and staff of Ross Memorial, also Dr. Woodman and Dr. Hollows, Pinedale U.C.W. and Sunderland UCW. Thank you all very much. Ursula Charter (H9669)

McINNIS — I wish to sincerely thank everyone who sent me cards, gifts and flowers, also Drs. Gorman, Cramer and Anderson, and nurses and staff of Ross Memorial Hospital for their kindness and care while I was in the hospital. A sincere thanks to all. Helen McInnis. (2903)

KOBERSTADT — We wish to thank all our neighbours and friends for their kindness and help in finding our boy who was lost recently. A very happy New Year to you all. Mr. and Mrs. Koberstadt. (2914)

BRADAMORE — I would like to sincerely thank all my friends and relatives for remembering me with cards, gifts and flowers also to the many who visited me while in the hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Service. Dr. Watson and Dr. Jamieson, Rev. Greenan, Rev. Grew and Rev. Griffin for their prayers. Mrs. Harry Bradamore (Coboconk) (H9676)

In Memoriam

DAVEY — In loving memory of our dear father who passed away June 26, 1942, and our dear mother who passed away suddenly Jan 6th, 1962.
There is a link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance last forever.
Ever remembered by Preston, Ruth, George and families. (2939)

SCRIVER — In loving memory of our dear son and brother Cecil Earl Scriver who passed away Dec. 26, 1955.
When evening shadows are falling,
And we sit in quiet alone,
To our hearts there comes a longing
If he only could come home,
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
But they little know the heartache,
Our smiles hide all the while.
Always remembered by Mom, dad, sisters and brothers. (2862)

FERGUSON — In loving memory of a dear son and brother Wm. Neil Ferguson who departed from this life on Jan. 3, 1960.
Three years have passed since that sad day
When one we loved was called away,
God took him home, it was His will,
But in our hearts he liveth still,
You gave us years of happiness,
Then came sorrow and tears,
But you left us beautiful memories Bill,
We'll treasure throughout the years.
Lovingly remembered by mother, sisters and brothers.

JOHNSTONE — In loving memory of my dear husband Lorne Johnstone who passed away on January 3, 1961.
Two years have passed,
And in my heart your memory lingers,
Always tender fond and true
There is not a day dear Lorne I do not think of your.
Lovingly remembered by wife Lila. (2934)

Cameron couple celebrate 64th wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harris, of Cameron, celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary recently at the home of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Russell Goodhand. Their grandson, Ronald Goodhand and his wife were also present for the fowl dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris were married on December 27, 1898 at the Methodist Parsonage, Fenelon Falls, by Rev. Leach. Mr. Warren Hill and Mabel Harris were the attendants. The day weatherwise was somewhat the same as the day on which they celebrated their anniversary which was December 27, 1962. They are both in fairly good health and Mrs. Harris is quite active in church societies, also Women's Institute and her hobby is making quilts and braided mats.

Their son Earnest Harris and his wife live in Sunderland.

Rotarians here hear paper on citizenship

Lindsay Rotarians listened to a paper in connection with the role of Rotary International in citizenship.

The meeting was held last Monday and the paper was presented by Rotarian Rev. Robt. McLean. Lindsay Rotary decided to promote good citizenship in its many aspects during the year 1963.

100 couples dance year out at "The Embassy" dance hall; band's 25th New Year dance

At least 100 couple braved the cold weather New Year's Eve, to attend the dance party at "The Embassy," on Highway 36.

Manager Peter Bakogeorge told "The Post" it was the quietest, and most orderly New Year's party he had ever seen.

"It was a good crowd," he said, "and it was also kind of a double celebration as it was Tommy Langley's Orchestra 25th New Year's dance."

There were door and floor prizes, and nearly everyone stayed until the 1.30 closing, he said.

Christmas tree pickup set for Saturday

Citizens are asked to have their Christmas trees out ready for the "Tree Burning" pickup Saturday morning January 5th.

Secretary Carroll Sergeant askes that all citizens oblige by having their trees out by 9.00 a.m. when the Cubs and Scouts will pick them up with trucks kindly furnished by local merchants.

The "Tree Burning" will take place at 7.00 p.m. that evening just south of "Riverview" (Durham St. park) off Sioux St.

New Year rated one of quietest by police here

Provincial and local police report what was considered to be one of the quietest New Year holidays on record.

No serious road accidents, petty thefts, or the usual disturbances were recorded.

Police attribute this to below zero weather, storms, and considerable fog, making driving difficult, also the fact that the holiday came in the week, instead of at the weekend.

Ski school for youngsters starting again

Lindsay's Recreation Commission through Director Harry Johnson announce the organizing of their regular ski school for the youngsters from five years to teen age.

Beginning Saturday, January 5, the skiers will leave the rink at 9 a.m. sharp for the Omemee ski tow.

General instruction will be given by the ski tow regular instructors, "Herb" Berkman, Don Weese, and "Bud" Phiper after which refreshments will be served.

The trips will continue every Saturday, weather permitting, Mr. Johnson said, and it is hoped that sufficient skiers will turn out to make this year as successful as last.

There is a charge of fifty cents per person, he noted, to cover refreshment and transportation costs.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

PROSTRATE TROUBLE AMONG MEN JUST SEEMS PROBLEM OF AGING

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: What is meant by hypertrophy of the prostrate gland and is it serious? Does it always require an operation? Mr. T.

Comment: Hypertrophy means enlargement. In men over 60 who have increased frequency of urination, there is at least an 80 per cent likelihood that the prostrate gland is hypertrophied.

Contrary to what many laymen think, heredity or sexual habits play little part in causing this enlargement. It just seems to be a part of the aging process in some men.

I don't know how it can be prevented. In about three out of every four men who have prostatic enlargement, it is likely that the obstruction around the neck of the bladder (interfering with normal urinary outflow) will be severe enough to bring the patient to surgery.

The main symptoms of hypertrophy are increased frequency of urination (especially at night), and difficulty in starting the stream (which is usually thin and weak). In some cases there is a complete and sudden shut down, in which case the doctor must pass a catheter (tube) into the bladder to allow the urine to flow out.

HOW DIAGNOSED

The doctor diagnoses prostatic hypertrophy in many ways. He does a rectal examination and feels the enlargement. He checks his patient's ability to void. He measures the amount left in the bladder after the patient voids (this is called residual urine). He examines the urine for blood and pus cells which would indicate that the residual urine has become infected. He performs an intravenous pyelograpy which gives him an X-ray and functual picture of the kidneys and bladder.

If the patient has a simple, or chronic prostatitis (inflamation of the enlarged prostate), the doctor may prescribe sulfonaides and antibiotics in addition to daily hot sitz baths and massage of the prostate at least once a week.

However, is the prostatic hypertrophy causes increasing trouble in the urinary bladder and evidence of weakening of the kidneys — or if there has been a history of sudden stoppage of urine — the patient had better have one of the four main methods of prostate surgery I mentioned in another column.

Otherwise, increasing weakness in the kidneys and in the bladder may lead to complications and interfere with a normal recovery. Another reason for the need for routine examinations of the prostate in men over 60 is to rule out cancerous changes in the gland. As with all other growths, early discovery and treatment give the best chance for complete recovery.

LUMP IN THROAT

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: What is meant by globus hystericus? Lrs. W.

Comment: This is quite common but essentially harmless. A patient who has been under a nervous strain for months may complain of a "lump in the throat" or "choking sensations." Examination usually reveals no organic cause for these symptoms.

I have observed them often in women, who are having their menopause. The treatment is to assure the patient that the symptom is no serious Sedatives or tranquilizers may be prescribed to lessen the tension causing the symptoms.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: If your doctor discovered your asthma attacks were definitely brought on by allergy to a dog you've owned for eight years would you get rid of him as I was advised to do? Mrs. H.

Comment: Loss of pet or continued discomfort? What a difficult choice to make. However, with severe asthma, there's only one choice.

Christmas trees decorate church for Scobbie-Ruhback wedding

Zion-Fenelon United Church was decorated with two decorated Christmas trees on December 15, 1962 at 2 p.m. when Ursula Ruhback, of Toronto and James Scobbie, RR3 Woodville were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Ruhback, of Toronto and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Scobbie, of R.R.3 Woodville.

Rev. James McCartney officiated and the organist was Mr Douglas Copp, who played appropriately during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was charming in a full-length gown of white faille which was styled on princess lines. Her headdress, a coronet of pearls, held a tulle illusion, shoulder-length veil and she carried a beautiful bouquet of red roses and tiny white bells.

Miss Doris Ruhback, sister of the bride, of Toronto, was bridesmaid. She was gowned in a copen blue velvet cocktail-length dress and a small hat to match.

The best man was Paul Kennedy, of R.R.1 Cameron.

For the reception at Zion United Church the bride's mother received wearing a beige wool sheer dress which was trimmed with a mink collar. She had a corsage of brown and yellow Baby 'mums. The groom's mother was in a brown toned printed silk brocade dress with a hat to match and a corsage of yellow and brown Baby 'mums.

The happy couple will reside in Peterboro.

Out-of-town guests were present at the wedding from Toronto, Buffalo, Woodville and Fenelon Falls.

"Aw, that ain't nothin' I seen George Laidlaw do all them tricks—"

The above remark, made by a young man some nine years of age, led to a most interesting interview with Mr. Laidlaw.

Some six weeks ago we were visiting friends and a 8 o'clock this young lad came in and turned on the "idiot box" and we settled down to watch the Ed. Sullivan show. There was an illusionist (they don't call them magicians any more,) as he performed, the young man made the above remark.

Do you know something? He was quite right!

For the past ten years of his retirement George has been entertaining the children's night at the Minden Rotary Club Christmas party.

Saturday morning I drove up to Mr. Laidlaw's snug, comfortable home just south of Minden adjacent to the Wagon Wheel Motel. The next couple of hours were about the shortest I can remember. Seemed like only a few minutes. Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw were enjoying their retirement—I say "their" because before her marriage to George she was his assistant.

The outside bally for George's show was the "Burning of She" and sleight of hand tricks to get the crowd inside; Mrs. Laidlaw was the "She" who George kept "burning up".

As I write this I'm reading an issue of the "Talladega Daily Home" for February of 1931. This is the local paper for Talladega, Alabama.

Pot Shots

By

Fenwick Finch!

From an advertisement in the paper we now see who George Laidlaw really is. In large black type—"The Great Zanoni" (I must ask George how he arrived at his name).

Now—let us have a look at the background of the "Great Zanoni".

Zanoni (George Laidlaw) is a member of the "Hat and Rabbit Club Ring 17", of Toronto.

His first performance was given at the age of nine years when he entertained his school chums in England. He was so successful at this he set up a deal at his Sunday School and charged his class a penny each and he was well on his successful career. He continued doing shows all through his schoo lyears and early youth.

Leaving England in 1912 and coming to Canada, he launched himself into show business. He travelled with Rajah Ba-O-Bab and his medicine show. (Remember how they used to come into Lindsay, on the old market square? They sold Indian Remedies, snake oil, cures for tapeworms, in fact no matter what you had, they cured it.) At 16 years of age George was in blackface, doing a little banjo pickin' and singin'.

"It rather threw the audience, what with the black face and my English accent," smiled George as he remembered it.

"I finally got a stock answer," laughed Zanoni, "whenever anyone questioned my coming from the South I always replied, Yaas, rawther, South of England."

Leaving Canada, the next four or five months saw George touring the United States. In 1914 he returned to Canada and joined the Canadian Army which was to be his showcase for the next four years.

Arriving in France he organized a group that entertained the soldiers in the camps and base hospitals. This was along the lines of the "Dumbells" which was formed later. He and his group spent every moment they could when out of the front lines entertaining with songs, dances, magic and mind reading.

Discharge dfrom the army in 1919, Mr. Laidlaw returned to Canada and continued to build and expand his magic career. His first big show was at the Canadian National Exposition with the Johnny J. Jones Shows. From Toronto he went on the road with the Jones Show and with T. J. Crawford, Winter Quarters were in Orlando, Florida. The Great Zanoni has played practically every town and village throughout Canada and the United States. Gorden Parties and Strawberry Festivals were the big thing in those years and George played them all.

Zanoni's act consisted of mentalism and he had 17 people on his payroll. His sideshow consisted of a 125' tent with about a dozen four foot stages on it. Starting at one end of the ten they would go from one stage to the next doing an act on each one. Some of his acts consisted of illusions, including, levitation, sword box, shooting through a woman, spider on the staircase, sawing a woman in half and escapes from handcuffs and shackles. There was a fortune telling booth where he told fortunes and sold horoscopes. His show required 2 railroad cars and he always supervised their packing following each stand.

His average working day was from 12 to 14 hours — (did I hear anyone say "show biz" was easy)?

Engagements with Rubin-Cherry Shows and Harry G. Melville Shows during 1927 and 1929 took him through Canada and the United States. The year 1929 took its toll of the Great Zanoni as it did so many other top flight acts. Between the depression and "the new" talking pictures, stage shows were folding all over the country.

Following the first War George had learned the trade of ladies suit and cloak making and had used this to augment his slowly fading business. During the "Hungry Thirties," George still did shows but he worked more steadily at his old trade of "suit and cloak."

Slowly but surely show business was being strangled and with it went the "Great Zanoni." During the last years George had applied for a post in the Civil Service and his appointment came in 1934. He held this position until 1953 when his doctor advised him to get out of the city or his life wouldn't extend much further.

Well, that's a quick thumbnail sketch of a showman's life. All his efforts, painstaking work, heartbreaks and thrills and happiness — all summed up in about four pages of print.

George Laidlaw or ZANONI has given me a wealth of material — I regret that I can't pass it on to you at the minute— but from time to time I'll give you a flashback on "show-Biz" as it was some 30 or 40 years ago—it will be all from material saved and catalogued by ZANONI.

One experience stands out in George's Career. He enjoyed telling me about it as if it had happened just the other night.

The story is this. During a show in Nashville, Tenn. he was doing a Levitation in which his wife was floated in air.

"I can still see it" chuckled George. "There I was in the act, my wife floating some five feet in the air. I was dressed in black velvet nickers with elastic around the waist and knees; a black velvet coat with Chinese characters on it. Black stockings and black pointed-toed shoes completed by costume."

"In the wings," he continued "I had hung the hoop that I used to pass around my wife to show there were no wires holding her up. The hoop fell off the hook and rolled onto the stage, as I stooped over to pick up the hop the elastic in the waist of my pants broke and down they came. The audience roared. However we got everything under control again and finished the act."

"Tell me, George," I queried, "How did you come to retire to Haliburton County."

"My next door neighbour in Toronto," he explained, "Was Art Hodgkinson, he and his wife had just purchased a restaurant and some land south of Minden on Highway 35. Art got me to come up for a visit and I liked it so well I asked Art to sell me a piece of the property for my home. Art good friend that he has always been, sold me the property and here I am."

ZANONI has retired but genial George Laidlaw lives on. He no longer does any shows and it hurts him deeply to have to refuse those who ask him—he has only one exception—the Christmas party for the Minden Rotary Club.

"This year," said George, sadly "Was my last show for them, or for anyone else. My health is such now that I am unable to stand the strain of working in front of an audience. To the many children who have enjoyed my work be assured that I enjoyed working for you and I sincerely regret being unable to carry on."

Before I close off for this week. I had a very interesting letter and "beef" from a Lindsay lady who signed herself "Fed Up To The Ears."

Dear, "Fed Up To The Ears," I'm sorry that I've run out of space but if you'll be patient with me the next column or so will carry your letter. I may not be able to solve your problem but possibly one of the readers may come up with something. Thanks for writing and I'll be with you just as soon as I get the space.

Next week, join me for a visit with Al. Perrin, of Haliburton. Al., as you know, owns the Golden Slipper just outside of Haliburton and is the surviving brother of the Perrin Brothers, Al. and Jimmie. Plan to be with us.

UNCONFIRMED REPORT

According to an unconfirmed report, Katanga President Tshombe wants to meet the British High Commissioner Lord Alport in Southern Rhodesia. A Radio Katanga broadcast said Tshombe asked Lord Alport to send a plane to his stronghold in Kolwezi to pick him up. The radio added Tshombe is willing to enter cease-fire talks if he is guarantted "total liberty."

CALL UNITED NATIONS

East Germany's Communist newspaper has called for the United Nations to take over what it terms "agreed duties and responsibilities" in West Berlin. The paper called the presence of foreign troops in West Berln "The most important question still in dispute" in settling the Berlin problem. The most important tasks for 1963, said the paper, are disarmament, a ban on nuclear testing and "the German Peace Treaty."

PAT EACH OTHER ON BACK

The Soviet Union and Communist China have patted each other on the back in New Year's greetings made public today. Russia's Premier Khrushchev spoke of (fraternal friendshpi" . . . and China's Mao Tse-Tung called for a strengthened solidarity. However, western observers note that Khrushchev stressed preventing thermonuclear war . . . while Mao said his people would fight imperialism "persistently."

"Who says this isn't a LEAP YEAR...?"

"Maybe you can't divide 1963 by four—but in my book it still adds up to a Leap Year.

"I'm starting the New Year with a big leap forward. Tomorrow I take delivery of a brand-new car, and there's a modern stove for Mollie on the way to replace that monstrosity in the kitchen.

"Mind you, we did a whole lot of looking before we decided to leap. That's why we settled on the B of M Family Finance Plan in buying our New Year presents to ourselves. HIGH POINT TOTAL

The highest point total in Rose Bowl history highlighted the traditional New Year's Day football bowl action yesterday. Southern California and Wisconsin combined for a total of 79 points, with Southern Cal's coming out on top, 42-37. In the Sugar Bowl, Mississippi edged Arkansas, 17-13 . . . Alabama shut out Oklahoma, 17-0, in the Orange Bowl, and Louisiana State blanked Texas, 13-0, in the Cotton Bowl. The four games drew a total of slightly more than 330-thousand fans, with the largest crowd—nearly 99-thousand—at Pasadena, California, for the Rose Bowl.

CAP CAREERS

Several players who capped their Collegiate Football careers in yesterday's bowl games signed with professional clubs immediately after the games. Arkansas fullback Danny Brabham signed with Houston of the American Football League. Braham's teammate—tailback Jesse Branch—signed with Calgary of the Canadian Football League. Missippi quarterback Glynn Griffing came to terms with New York of the National Football League. Also joining the N-F-L . . . all-American halfback Jerry Stovall of L-S-U, with St. Louis, and Texas and Tommy Lucas, with Dallas Cowboys.

LEAFS VISIT RANGERS

The Toronto Maple Leafs visit the New York Rangers in tonight's lone National Hockey League game. In two games last night, Boston shut out Toronto, 3-0, and Chicago beat Detroit, 4-2, to widen its first-place lead to four points.

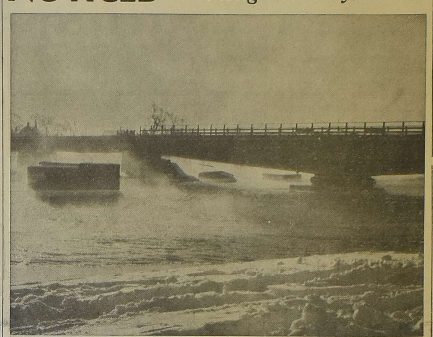
"The Big Fish" begins off Beaverton's shores

NOTICED . . . along the way



Even open stretches of water could "see their breath" when the mercury plunged to its lowest level of the early winter season on the New Year weekend. Clouds of vapour rising from the river at Penelon Falls made an interesting sight Sunday in the brilliant sunshine and sub-zero temperature.

Kiwanian Gerald Phelps had the second last word at the Lindsay Kiwanis Club luncheon today . . . He told members he had heard a report to the effect that they might expect to get a preferred rate on haircuts now that barber Herb Hardy had been duly installed as 1963 club president. President Herb had the last word . . . . He said he was unable to confirm the report.

A lot of people in Lindsay are going the limit when it comes to leaving up their beautiful outdoor Christmas decorations . . . right through to the "Twelfth Night," traditional time for dismantling the trees and other decorative effects. It's nice that they are because they add a colorful touch to the winter landscape which comes under the cover

Weather outlook

Lake Ontario, Haliburton regions, Lindsay area: Cloudy and mild today with periods of light snow or freezing drizzle Friday partly cloudy and turning colder with a few scattered snowflurries. Winds light southerly today becoming north 15 Friday morning, decreasing to light by evening. Low tonight and high Friday at Hamilton 26 and 28, St. Catharines 28 and 30, Trenton 25 and 30, Peterborough and Killaloe 20 and 25. Summary for Friday. . .partly cloudy, turning colder, scattered snowflurries.

No ice fishing in highlands for about 2 weeks . . . L&F

There will be no ice fishing in the Haliburton area for at least two more weeks, the Dept. of Lands and Forests at Lindsay discloses.

Senior Conservation Officer P. Swanson told "The Post" it was possible the heavy snowfall in that area had kept the lakes from freezing deeply.

Commenting on the possibility of ice fishing in "The Kawarthas," he said there had been no word of any change to date, but if any changes were considered in the future there was a chance that Stoney Lake would be excluded owing to the large number of muskies there.

Defiant fox dispatched, rabies check being made

An Omemee farmer called on the Dept. of Lands and Forests today to destroy a fox that had been seen wandering around the barnyard.

Mrs. J. McKinnon, of R.R. 1 Omemee, told "The Post" that they had seen the fox earlier and considered it unusual that the animal would not go away even though stones were thrown at it.

A call was put in to the department for fear it may be rabid and might have bitten some of the cattle.

"As far as we know," Mrs. McKinnon said, "there was no stock or any of the poultry injured but, as we also have a dog and cat, we thought it better to have the fox killed and examined."

"We should know within a few weeks," she added.

Conservation Officer Robt. Dyke went to the farm and found the fox in the poultry house where it was dispatched.

The head will be sent to the examination branch for rabies tests.

Burnt out during Xmas season, Donald families re-located

Two Donald families, burnt out during the Christmas season are now reported to be comfortably re-established.

The fire, of unknown origin, completely destroyed the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Downer, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shellingberg.

It is believed to have started in the Shellinberg home, later spreading to the Downer house which was only divided by a ten-foot laneway.

Voluntary Fire Chief Sid Roberts, told "The Post" that his department had been called to the fire at about midnight Thursday, December 20, but owing to the below zero temperatures he and his men were unable to save either of the dwellings.

However, he said, they were able to keep the fire from spreading to other nearby homes, two of which were slightly burned at the sides.

Miss Anne Downer told "The Post" that the Shellinberg home had got "pretty well started" before the call was put in to the Haliburton fire department.

"It was a very cold night",

Lake Simcoe ice fishing $5 million industry

With an estimated $5,000,000 business potential annually, the winter ice-fishing industry is getting underway close to the Beaverton shoreline of Lake Simcoe. The start of the erection of the more than 4,000 fishing huts which by the end of January and early February usually dot the lake from the south eastern shore to that of Barrie, is now claiming the attention of Beaverton and district. And it is giving a respite from village "digging operations" of the past year . . digging for the elusive cause of liquid gas leakage, digging for water extensions and digging for tourist promotion, Clerk Fred McMillan relates.

Lake Simcoe's ice-fishing industry, the largest in Ontario, is described by Supervisor J. C. Armstrong of the Department of Lands and Forests as a great boost to the economy of the bordering districts. Considering the rent of fishing huts, transportation costs, gas purchases, grocery sales and many other incidentals, the estimated five-million-dollar boost to the region is not hard to conceive, he said.

Ice-fishing is primarily a sportsman's operation with lake trout, lake herring and whitefish being taken. Only

C of C reports 101 paid-up members

Lindsay Chamber of Commerce Manager Harry MacDonald reported today that the paid-up membership for 1963 had reached 101 by Dec. 31st, 1962, with over $2,000 received.

"The response has been very satisfying", he said.

Two contesting reeveship at Woodville

Woodville's incumbent Reeve, J. W. (Jack) Campbell has been challenged by Councillor Garnet Day for the top 1963 village post. Election date will be January 7th.

The reeveship of the village has been held by Mr. Campbell for four years and Mr. Day is a five-year council member.

The four member council, elected by acclamation, includes Gordon English, James Nicholls, Andrew Jewell and new member, restaurant owner Ray Burton.

EDITORIAL....

"JUST IN TIME"

There's a song title which applies very nicely to the Ontario Attorney General's decision to restore something of the dignity attending the awarding of Queen's Counsel appointments in the province . . . It is "Just in Time".

A traditional New Year function of the Attorney General's Department, the QC appointments have, in recent years, come to be regarded as a "political handout" rather than a meritorious award based on a significant contribution to the legal profession. This is not to suggest that many deserving members of the profession were not so recognized during the "handout" period but it was obvious in many instances that only by stretching the imagination almost to the breaking point, could a link between merit and the appointment be established.

The Queen's Counsel appointment, long held in high regard by the profession and those who received it, was indeed in danger of being irreparably cheapened by wholesale distribution. In order to have any significance, either in the eyes of the recipient or the public (and the local public is usually aware of merit), the appointments should be restricted to lawyers who have earned recognition and the appointment should be accompanied by a citation setting forth the reason for the award.

The Attorney General is getting there "Just in Time" with his proposed reforms in connection with this matter.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 3, 1913

The open bar advocates are distributing a circular in Lindsay headed "Campbellford citizens protest against Local Option." Underneath was published what was claimed to be a copy of a statement, signed by what was prported to be 18 representative citizens of Campbellford, stating that Local Option in Campbellford was a failure. The Citizen's Local Option Committee of Peterboro sent a representative to Campbellford with the following resolution: It was found that the petition in question was four years old. That it was the same petition that was published in Lindsay three years ago, at the time of the fight held then. Two of the 18 parties whose names were published had never lived in Campbellford; one has been dead for 14 months and one is living in Toronto. One man was convicted of selling liquor illegally. Two are bankrupt having lost their business through drink. One, who was formerly a bus driver for the hotel is now out of business.

JANUARY 3, 1938

Tuesday night was a great night for taxi-drivers of Lindsay. Those who weren't stuck in the snow were enjoying the greatest "cab harvest" that the town probably ever saw. Walking was practically impossible nad the fact that a big dance was in progress at the Armouries contributed to the biggest night of business most of the drivers can recall.

Garages Have Busy Time

Lindsay garages experienced one of the busiest evenings in years when the heavy storm struck Lindsay. From early evening until the small hours of the morning the garage tow trucks were being called to remove cars from snow drifts in Lindsay and on the highways surrounding the town.

Reports and Remarks..

HOME SECOND TO TRAFFIC AS LOCATION FOR ACCIDENTS

The home, where everything seems so safe, rated second only to motor traffic as the location for accidents. In co-operation with the Bureau of Statistics, the National Safety League of Canada reports accidents, poisonings and violence took 11,229 lives in Canada in 1961. Violence alone was responsible for 1,583 deaths.

Following the home as accident locations were water transport and resident institutions.

The six leading causes of accidental death, after motor vehicles, were falls, drownings, suffocations, fire and explosions and poisonings, in that order. Among children under one year of age, accidental suffocation claimed the highest number of lives, the League reports. Drownings occurred more requently in the 15-24 age group.

Receive Honors

At least two British women have received their Queen's New Year honors for outstanding services to the crown, country and community, the women include 90-year-old Mrs. Selina Hammond. She has been collecting since 1916 for a cooperative savings corporation. Another woman recipient is Mrs. Annie Harrison of Bronington, Scotland. She has devoted much of her time over the past 25 years to caring for the sick and aged in her area.

No "Has Been"

The wringer-washer reportedly is no "has-been" in the Home Laundry industry. One Philadelphia manufacturer says estimates call for more than 700-thousand unit sales, compared with almost 680-thousand units sold in 1962. What's more, the wringer-washer still is basically the same unit it was a decade ago.

At Least 72

Current life expectancy tables show that today's average fifth grader will grow to be at least as old as 72.

Fashion Hint

The tone of your stockings should be coordinated with the color of your dress. Wear nale hosiery with pastel outfits. . dark. or even black stockings with dark dresses.

Beauty Tip

For sensitive skin — a new gelatin that reportedly washes the skin without drying, or detergent sting.

Leather-Spray Treatment

The usually messy job of applying neats-foot oil or other liquid compounds to leather garments is a much cleaner task if the oil is applied with a household sprayer, preferably of the continuous-spray type. Mildew spots that are not too deep can be removed by spraying them heavily, letting the oil soak in, then rubbing the spots lightly with a soft cloth.

In Memoriam

FERGUSON — In loving memory of a dear husband and father William Neil Ferguson who passed away Jan. 3rd, 1960.
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.
Ever remembered by wife and family. (2979)

LEACH — In loving memory of my dear husband Herbert James Leach who passed away Jan 3, 1958.
There is a dear and hallowed spot
In the cemetery so green;
Where sleeping lies our loved one
From the human eye unseen.
The winds of heaven flow softly
O'er the dear hallowed spot
For amid the changing scenes of life
He will never be forgot,
Sheltered by the Rock of Ages,
Anchored on the golden shore
In the loving arms of Jesus
He is safe for ever more.
"Constantly in our thoughts".
Lovingly remembered by his wife Edith. (2975)

LEACH — In loving memory of a dear grandfather Herbert James who passed away Jan. 3, 1958.
Your presence is ever near us,
Your love remains with us yet
You were the kind of Grandfather
Your loved ones would never forget.
Ever remembered by Marilyn and Margaret. (2969)

LEACH — In loving memory of a dear father Herbert James who passed away Jan. 3, 1958.
Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face
But you lift us to remember,
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Always remembered by Eddie and Elaine. (2970)

Scout Doings

The Big Burn

The Tree Burning Committee requests that all Cubs, Scouts, leaders and group committee men turn out in full force Saturday morning to do our "good turn." The Cubs are requested to cover the same area of the town as they did for Apple Day; dragging the Christmas trees to the street corners, where they will be picked up by the scouts, and trucks supplied by various town merchants. The Scouts are requested to meet the trucks at 9.00 a.m., at the burning site, which this year is south of Durham St. Park and the CNR tracks and adjacent to Sioux Street. Scouters and group committee men are also asked to meet at the site at the same time to assist in unloading the trucks and piling the trees. It is anticipated that with a good turnout the job will be completed before noon and ready for the big bonfire at 7.00 o'clock the same evening. The various Tree Burning Committee members are as follows: Trucks and site - Al Houghton, Advertising and Promotion - Gord Stringer, Bonfire - Ed. Waterhouse, Liaison - Jack Beal, Truck Allocation - Carroll Sergeant. Let's everyone get behind the first big "good turn" of the year and make it a successful one!!!

Registrations Due

All groups are reminded that Registrations are due January 31st and should be forwarded without delay to Carroll Sergeant, 44 Angeline St. S., Lindsay.

Boy Scout Week

Many Groups are proceeding with big plans for Boy Scout Week. Scouter Bill McNeil is completing plans for a camp out in Victoria Park. If your group is interested in this camp please contact Scouter Mitchell without delay. The camp is scheduled for the weekend of the 24th of February.

1st Lindsay

The Scouts recently enjoyed a Saturday hike at Emily Park. The weather was good and a full day of games and instruction was enjoyed by all.

5th Lindsay

Scouter Lorne Jones and six of the Legion Scouts journeyed to Gooderham for two days of skiing and snow-shoeing during the holidays, meanwhile the Cubs were enjoying a swim at the Tops Motel in Peterborough last Saturday!!

Police Chief John Hunter is back on the job and he's convinced. . .convinced that fighting the flu bug takes more out of a man than tangling with a Mexican bull. The chief made headlines in Canada and United States a few summers ago when he took a hand in persuading a reluctant bull to quit the ring at the end of one of Lindsay's Bloodless Bullfights. A dramatic picture of the chief and the bull in hand-to-horn combat was flashed across the nations and drew widespread attention. The chief's recent battle with the flu bug, while less dramatic, lasted longer and he admits it took more out of him.

"If only . . ."

Rome, Jan. 3. (UPI) — David Niven said here today that Dick Powell's death was "awful and tragic."

Niven said he was deeply shocked by the death of "a great friend". The two actors had been partners in a television film company.

The British-born actor said he had gone to see Powell a few weeks before coming to Rome to start work on the "Pink Panther."

Niven told United Press International — "Powell's last words to me were these — If only they would stop trying to get to the moon and put all that money into cancer research it would save millions of lives."

Falls onto drive shaft, sustains compound fracture

A Haliburton man was rushed to Ross Memorial Hospital on Wednesday afternoon suffering from a badly injured leg when he accidentally slipped and fell onto the drive shaft of the "high car" he was driving.

Arthurs Sisson, 38, R.R.1 Haliburton, told "The Post" today, that the accident happened "just five minutes before the noon whistle" on Wednesday as he was bringing the high car (a tractor equipped vehicle for drawing logs on railway trucks) into the Hay and Co. lumber yard.

He was rushed to the hospital and treated for a compound fracture to the right leg.

Past President Haliburton YPCs among 95 Q.C. appointments

A past president of the Haliburton County Young Progressive Conservative Association was included among the 95 new Queen's Counsel appointments contained in the Ontario Lieutenant-Governor's New Year's list. He is Minden lawyer J. Earl Palmer, an ex-RCAF pilot instructor, a forestry graduate of the University of Toronto and a former assistant to the deputy minister of highways.

Mr. Palmer, 39, born in London, Ont., received his secondary education in Woodstock before joining the RCAF during the war.

He took a forestry degree from the University of Toronto, graduating in 1949, then went to Osgoode Hall from 1949 to 1953 in the first four-year course offered. He practised in Toronto and Woodstock where his mother still resides, and in 1955 became the assistant to the deputy minister of Highways.

In 1958, with a desire to get out of the civil service and back to private practice in a country town, he bought the Minden practice of Hugh Nichols. He said he likes the country, hunting, fishing and curling.

He is also a Mason, member of the United Church of Canada.

He met his wife, Marilyn, in Toronto and they have two boys, Tom 3, and John 1½.

the sale of lake trout is disallowed, the supervisor disclosed.

"Three aerial surveys of Lake Simcoe ice-fishing are made during the winter and the picture of the myriad fishing huts is very arresting. No danger of depletion of the fish population is anticipated," the supervisor added.

As the ice thickens and fishing operations extend to Thorah Island vicinity, many will visit the great blue heronry centred in the faulty section of the 1,800 acreage. This too draws naturalists from a wide area to view the huge breeding nests of the great blue herons (commonly known as cranes) constructed of sticks in the treetops.

VILLAGE PROJECTS

Village projects which held Beaverton's attention during the past year included the enlargement of the water system to twice its size. This was done under contract to the Gaffney Construction Co. at a contract price of $80,000. Completed December 20th, it included an addition to the pumphouse, the installation of a second feeder main to the village and the extension of water services to that part of Cedar Beach which lies in the village.

In disclosing the above information village Clerk Fred McMillan also reviewed the puzzling village dilemma which caused the Beaverton Hotel to be closed and vacated by owner Frank McMillan due to the leaking of liquid gas in the hotel basement.

"Digging operations to ascertain the cause of the leakage have now been discontinued," he said, "with the hotel owner entering a lawsuit against the village of Beaverton, the Imperial Oil Co., George Bowen, tenant of the Imperial Oil Service Station and the Department of Highways. The Ontario Fire Marshall ordered many digging operations but no one wants to assume the cost of same," Clerk McMillan summed up.

Everett Bertram Smith

Couple lose lives in highway crash

The death of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram (Bert) Smith of 47 Silvo Avenue, Scarboro, occurred on December 23, 1962, during a severe blizzard on Highway 12.

Mrs. Smith died at the scene of the accident and Mr. Smith shortly after admission to Oshawa Hospital.

Mildred Lillian Archer-Smith born in Minden Township, April 22, 1919, was the only daughter of Florence Vincent and Wibert Archer. The Archers moved to Cartwright in 1927 and Mildred received her education in Cadmus and Blackstock schools. During the war she was employed at the D.I.L. Ajax and later in Toronto. She was a certified nursing assistant and nursed in Toronto General Hospital for four years. In 1954 she married Bert Smith. The following summer they took a trip to Newfoundland and visited his relatives and home town. She resigned from the hospital and worked in industry in order to have the same free time as her husband. She was a valued employee of the valve department of Honeywells of Canada.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wibert Archer, Blackstock; two brothers Vincent of Bowmanville and Elmer of Whitby; a niece Marilyn and two nephews, Ronald and Jim Archer of Whitby.

Marilyn and Ronald had planned coming to Blackstock with Mr. and Mrs. Smith, as was their custom, but fortunately decided to spend Christmas eve at home with their parents and younger brother.

Everett Bertram Smith was born in South River, Newfoundland in 1925, the second son of Blanch Andrews and the late William Smith. Bert has been a resident of Toronto since 1944 and working for the Frankel Steel Construction Co. For some time now he had been a foreman of the above company.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ford, Newfoundland; two brothers - Lamer of Edmonton, Alta, and Jack of South River and three sisters all married and living in Newfoundland.

The double funeral service held in McDermott-Panabaker Chapel, Port Perry, was conducted by Rev. Philip Romeril of Blackstock. Interment was in Cadmus Union Cemetery.

Pallbearers for Mrs. Smith were Orville Hick and Carl Dugan of Lochlin; Vinton Loucks, Minden; William Grace, Beaverton; all cousins, Maurice Samells, Peterboro, school chum, and Steven Neary, Downsview. Pallbearers for Mr. Smith were: Messrs Augustaus Perry, Chesley Maichal, Gregory Doyle, Ralph Boone, Charles St. John and Henry Hall. all originally from Newfoundland.

The streets in which both Mr. and Mrs. Smith were held was manifest by the large attendance at the funeral and the display of flowers amongst which were tokens from Honeywells of Canada; Valve Dept. of Honeywells; Frankel Construction; Steele Union Construction; Chemical Workers Union; The John Manville Co. Port Union No. 346, neighbors of Elmer, neighbors of Vincent and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Archer.

Singer closing out store after 15 years operation

After 15 years of uninterrupted service at one Lindsay location, Singer Sewing Machine Co., 127 Kent St. West. is closing its doors.

Three employees, two ladies (one with 15 years service in the same store) and one man will be affected by the closing.

Manager Ted Notten, told "The Post" that the company was centralizing their operations" from the Peterboro store and from now on, all servicing and sales would be carried out from his home, he acting as their Lindsay area representative.

"We will have no outlet for notions, etc, but all servicing and selling will be carried on as usual by myself".

"Our Haliburton representative will still operate as in the past", he added.

The store will hold a closing-out sale of all stock in the store this Friday and Saturday.

45th resuming training schedule

Members of the 45th Field Battery will be "back in harness" come Tuesday night.

After a short lay-off over the holidays, the men will report back for regular two-nights a week training, beginning next week.

she said, "and the fire truck arrived about three quarters of an hour after we had called but all the lines were frozen, and by the time the firemen had them thawed out, our home and Mr. Shellinberg's were gone".

"They were able to save the adjoining homes however" she added, "although I feel that if we had had help a little sooner we might have saved our place, but as I said, the weather was very bad".

The two families lost everything, having to flee the fire in only their night attire.

Mr. Downer was able to locate a home nearby, and Mr. Shellinberg moved to a home at Kennisis Lake near his place of employment, Hay and Co.

Curling

The activities and din of festive parties having subsided, more action can be noticed at the Peel Street rock garden. Wednesday afternoon the girls from St. Mary's school resumed their games and in the evening mixed curling was resumed.

Girls and boys of the Collegiate Institute will resume their schedules Thursday and Friday.

On Saturday next the annual Walkwood Mixed Bonspiel will carry on with an expected 24 rinks. It will be an all day event.

On the following Saturday the annual competition for the Fee Cup will take place. This event usually attracts many good rinks. The 'spiel is sponsored by Fee Motors.

Lindsay and Fenelon Falls will be represented at the annual High School Bonspiel, next Saturday. Peterborough, Belleville and Bycroft will have two teams in the event.

New Year hog sales brisk at Lindsay

The first day's trading in hogs being shipped from this area was fairly brisk ... A 1,000 head moved to market from the Community Sale Barn at Lindsay.

Prices ranged from $29.25 to $32.40 for Grade A hogs; light sows brought $26.20 with those in the heavy bracket selling at $24.20 per hundredweight.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST By Hal Sharp
CAST SPIN-TACKLE LURES UPSTREAM

A DOWN-STREAM CAST MAY BE DESIRABLE WITH LIGHTWEIGHT LURES IN SHALLOW WATER, OR HEAVY LURES IN SLOW, DEEP POOLS, OTHERWISE, UPSTREAM CASTS WILL USUALLY TAKE MORE FISH.

AN UPSTREAM CAST WORKS LURES DEEPER BECAUSE THEY SINK WITH THE CURRENTS, INSTEAD OF WORKING AGAINST IT TO BUILD'EM THEM AT MEDIUM DEPTHS. RETRIEVE JUST FAST ENOUGH TO AVOID SNAGGING.

HOME ICE VICTORY

Montreal can tie Toronto for second place in the National Hockey League with a home ice victory over Boston tonight. Last night, New York shaded Toronto 3-2 as Andy Bathgate equalled a league record by scoring a goal in his ninth straight game.

2-2 DEADLOCK

Pittsburgh edged Quebec 3-2 and Cleveland and Springfield battled to a 2-2 deadlock in overtime in American Hockey League action last night. The league is idle tonight.

DOESN'T KNOW ANYTHING

Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi says he doesn't know anything about a 250-thousand dollar trust fund set up to kep him from accepting an attractive offer with the Los Angeles Rams. The report from New York said the Rams had offered to assume Lombardi's contract and cut him in for 10 per cent of the club ownership.

CONTACTED BY PACKERS

Rose Bowl star Ron Vanderkelen of the University of Wisconsin was contacted by the Packers yesterday. Vanderkelen, passed up in the National Football League draft, set a number of passing records in Wisconsin's loss to Southern Cal. A Packer spokesman said "Vanderkelen's reaction was very good."

BETTER REGULATION

The American Boxing Writer Association wants better regulation of the fight game in New York State rather than see the sport abolished. Copies of an unprecedented two-thousand word statement were sent to the seven members of the New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Professional Boxing.

TOP GOLFERS CELEBRITIES

All the top golfers and a number of celebrities tee off in a pro-amateur tourney at Los Angeles today. Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Doug Sayer head the field for Friday's opening round of the 55-thousand dollar Los Angeles open.

STOP! . . . killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

OBSCURE AFTER-MEAL PAINS MAY BE ABDOMINAL ANGINA

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have been having pain and discomfort after meals. I am 65 and have lost about 20 pounds during the past six months because I am afraid to eat as I know I will have these pains about an hour afterwards. My doctors have taken all kinds of X rays but these reveal no gall bladder trouble, ulcer or abnormal growth of any kind. They are stumped. Can you make any suggestions? Mr. Y.

Comment: I'd probably be stumped, too, if I made all sorts of diagnostic tests and couldn't find the cause. However, I recently came across an article in the "Annals of Internal Medicine" that might (or might not) throw a little light on your trouble. It was written by Drs. Watts R. Webb and James D. Hardy of Jackson, Miss.

OVERLOOKED POSSIBILITY

It seems that we may have been overlooking the diagnosis of abdominal angina in patients who have abdominal symptoms for which we cannot find an evident cause.

You have heard of angina pectoris in which the patient gets chest pain after exertion, due to trouble in his coronary (heart) artery circulation. Well in abdominal angina, there is trouble with the blood circulation of the large artery which supplies the stomach and intestines with nourishment.

After a meal, more blood and oxygen is required. If there is complete or partial blockage of the large artery due to atherosclerosis (hardening of the artery), then the stomach and intestines begin to complain with pain, cramps and diarrhea.

The Mississippi doctors cited case history of a man of 63 in which they made the diagnosis by taking abdominal arterial X rays and "aortograms." These showed definite interference with the circulation to the stomach and intestines.

Because of the wonders of modern arterial surgery, they were able to insrt a "bypass graft" from the aorta to the superior mesenteric artery (which supplies the gastrointestinal tract with blood). Within a year, the patient had gained 23 pounds and developed a fine appetite. He no longer complained of pain, nausea and vomiting after eating.

In their final summation, the doctors write: "Mesenteric vascular insufficiency should be considered in any older patient with obscure gastrointestinal complaints."

You will recall, Mr. Y., that I never venture to make diagnoses from way back here. But everyone down your way seems to be "stumped" and you continue to suffer discomforts of unknown origin. So I believe it wouldn't hurt at least to consider that you may be having some trouble with the blood circulation to your stomach and intestines.

Bethany couple celebrate Golden Anniversary

On December 28th in the afternoon and evening, Mr. and Mrs. George Waddell of Bethany celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary with their friends and relatives.

The wedding of 50 years ago took place on Christmas Day, December 25, 1912 at noon when Gladys Muriel Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Anderson of West Lake, near Picton, was united in marriage to George W. Scott Waddell of Orono, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Waddell of Orono. The Rev. H. Spence of Bloomfield performed the marriage ceremony assisted by the Rev. J. A. McKeen of Orono. Miss Helen Waddell of Orono was the bridesmaid and Victor Walker, then attending Knox College who later became the Rev. Victor Walker of Bethany and now residing in Belleville, was the groomsman.

When first married they lived at Orono, moving to Bethany to make their home here 24 years ago and where they still operate an Electrical Appliance store.

Their four daughters were all home for this happy occasion, Miss Agnes Waddell of Orono; Mrs. Bruce Hancock (Margaret) of Orono; Mrs. Gordon Smith (Eunice) Colborne; and Mrs. Mel McGee (Betty) Greenbank. Their only son Flying Officer Alfred Waddell was killed in action with the R.C.A.F. in 1944. There are 15 grand-children and ten great grand-children, most of whom were present.

Since coming to Bethany Mr. and Mrs. Waddell have played a very active part in the community. Mr. Waddell is one of the senior elders in the United Church, a member of The Oddfellows and Orange Lodge. Mrs. Waddell has been past president of the Women's Missionary Society, The Women's Association, a valued member of the choir and taught in the Sunday School for over 20 years. Their four daughters assisted in receiving the many guests who attended to offer their congratulations during the day. The guest book was in charge of the granddaughters.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the house with the Christmas tree decorated with gold and white lights. Pouring tea were Mrs. T. J. Jackson, Mrs. Clarence Rowan and Miss Kate Waddell in the afternoon and Mrs. Henry Jakeman and Mrs. Herman McGill in the evening. Serving the guests were granddaughters Judy Hancock, Mrs. Nancy Dennis, Mrs. Carol Lycett, Mrs. Janey Boughen, all of Orono, and Miss Vivian Smith, Colborne; Mrs. Douglas Reynolds and Mrs. Herb Coppins with the United Church Women catering. Among the many lovely gifts were a fireside chair upholstered in gold brocade from their children. The grandchildren's gifts of gold candlesticks, candles and gold vases with flowers which were used in the table decorations. The United Church Women presented teacups and saucers done in gold design and the Elders of the Church represented by Henry Jakeman presented a Carafe and tray with gold decorations.

Telegrams of congratulations were received from many friends including the Hon. Lester B. Pearson, Mrs. Bertha Brown and Mrs. Mary Milligan of Calgary.

Guests from a distance were from Oshawa, Raglan, Greenbank, Orono, Bowmanville, Montreal, Colborne and Port Hope, including also Russell C. Honey, M.P. and Mrs. Honey, Alex Carruthers, M.P.P. and Mrs. Carruthers; Garnet Rickard, Reeve of Darling twp. and Mrs. Rickard; Henry Jakeman, Reeve of Manvers twp. and Mrs. Jakeman; Rev. A. W. Harding of Bowmanville; Rev. R. H. Bonsteel and Mrs. Bonsteel, Bronte, former ministers at Bethany.

Mr. Waddell, who is now 78 years of age and Mrs. Waddell, 71, thoroughly enjoyed all the celebration planned by their family and reminiscing over the events of the past 50 years. All extend congratulations and the wish that they may celebrate many more anniversaries together.

Somerville reeve-aspirant attacks Voters' List

SAYS 1961 LIST IS POSTED

A candidate for Somerville Township's reeveship charges that the township's Voters' List is out of date. With the election coming up on Monday, Reeve-Aspirant Norman Taylor of Coboconk says there is only a 1961 Voters' List in the Clerk's office and none whatever in the Coboconk Post Office.

"There are many irregularities in the dispensation of Somerville business which should be straightened out and which if straightened out, will make for the betterment of all this township." So declared Norman Taylor who has challenged incumbent Reeve Boyd Austin for the top Somerville post and will meet him in a two-way contest in the Monday election.

Continuing, Mr. Taylor (a Coboconk resident salesman) stated, "After listening to the Court of Revision held in 18-hour session and comprised of Somerville Council and inspecting the assessment rolls for the better part of two days, I came to one conclusion - that the Somerville assessment for 1962 has not the consistency of equalization that it had in 1961.

"The first thing needed to straighten out these assessment appeals and irregularities is to get the school area boundaries clearly defined. . . this is the key to straigtening out these irregularities.

"After opening at 10 a.m., December 28th., the court of Revision continued in session until 10.30 p.m. and resumed Friday night to finish at 2.00 a.m. in the morning. The completed list of appeals numbered 116, not 80 as before published.

"Several of the appeals heard had to do with taxpayers claiming they were wrongly placed on the roll as to their school section. Union School section was enlarged by absorbing part of the Somerville School Area and in 1961 I paid 84 mills to this while eight other ratepayers in the immediate vicinity only paid 18.7 mills to Somerville section. Then in 1962 all in the Union School section was assessed 29 mills and I claim this correction was due in large part to my probe into the matter. It is understandable if the assessment is increased the tax rate goes down Any of the 1961 assessment irregularities which have not yet been taken care off due to the illness of the county judge should not be further discussed at this time. This school area assessment is sure a mix-up!

"For the above reasons and in an endeavor to straighten

Under wraps

Work on the single lift canal lock at Fenelon Falls went right ahead despite the onset of winter. The project was literally put "under wraps" — blanketed under a polyethelen and lumber covering — for the winter phase of construction. In the top picture about all that can be seen is vapour oozing out of gaps in the protective covering which is heated (lower picture) by a boiler unit seen at the bottom of the drained canal.

Noticed

along the way

The "good old days" when "the butcher, baker and candlestick maker", not to mention scores of other tradespeople, distributed calendars to their customers at the year's end are gone — at least to a large extent. The calendar-giver is now the exception and not the rule and householders nowadays really treasure an attractive calendar. Everett Hanna Lindsay

Reeve, wife fly to Barbados

Reeve and Mrs. L. G. Found flew south Wednesday for a short holiday in the Barbados. They were accompanied from Lindsay to Malton by Mrs. Nell McConnell who also embarked on a flight taking her to the southern islands for her annual vacation.

Weather outlook

Eastern Lake Ontario, Halliburton Regions, Lindsay area: Cloudy with light winds and not much change in temperature today and Saturday. Occasional light snow today and chance of snow again late Saturday. Low tonight and high Saturday at Trenton 25 and 32, Peterborough 25 and 30, Killaloe 20 and 28. Summary for Saturday: cloudy.

Lindsay businessman becomes Kiwanians 1963 president

Herbert Hardy, widely known Kent Street businessman was installed as the president of the Lindsay Kiwanis Club on Thursday. His elevation to the presidency of the club marks many years of faithful service.

Installation of 1963 officers was handled by Lt.-Governor Harold Mitchell of the Dunbarton club who has under his jurisdiction clubs in Uxbridge Markham, Bay Ridges (Pickering), Whitby, Oshawa and Westmount in Oshawa, Lindsay and three clubs in Peterboro.

Past President Arthur Patterson and President-elect Hardy were presented with lapel buttons and the incoming president was handed the gavel of authority.

Other officers installed included: Merve Courtemanche as 1st Vice-President; Percy Ploss-2nd Vice-President; Len Eason as treasurer and Harry Peirce as secretary. Seven directors were also installed.

Lt.-Governor Mitchell referred to the Lindsay Club as being one of the senior clubs in the division and to the fact that it has one past governor and two past lieutenant-governors as well as more active past presidents than any other club in the division.

The new president, who was referred to as a sincere and dedicated Kiwanian, called on all members for their support in the current year.

Annual pre-sale inspection made of Shorthorn herds

Annual livestock inspection for the 53rd consecutive Victoria County Purebred Shorthorn sale, to be held in Lindsay on March 19th, got underway this week.

County Agricultural Representative L. Brown, and County Livestock Inspector Edward Starr, of Toronto, were out most of the week, checking, listing and classifying the livestock for the coming year.

"We have inspected some pretty good stock to date" said Mr. Brown, "but have listed only 20 up to the present time as standards are high for breeding stock."

He said that the department hoped to have about 25 head for sale when the time arrives.

EDITORIAL....

THERE ARE SOME THINGS WE LOOK FORWARD TO WITH PLEASURE

We all have some things in life we look forward to with pleasure . . . It may be the night we have beefsteak for supper, the late movie on TV, a Sunday afternoon drive, going tobogganing, skiing or any of a dozen other things which appeal especially to us. Here at the paper we look forward with eagerness to the weekly arrival of a publication put out by the British Broadcasting Corporation called "BBC London Letter". A most informative mimeographed production, it never fails to contain several articles of world-wide interest, many of which are particularly helpful to readers on this side of the Atlantic. The letter is without counterpart in Canada although the CBC does put out several publications, most of which deal only with program schedules and some of the people featured thereon.

Judging by the contents of these BBC London Letters, many programs produced by the broadcasting corporation must prove beneficial to listeners at home and abroad. Take this item from a recent "letter" for example:

NEW TEACHING MACHINES

In a recent edition of the 'New Ideas' programme broadcast weekly in the BBC General Overseas Service, Allan Murray gave some details of a new teaching machine, the 'Grundytutor', which goes on the market this month (January 1963). About eighteen inches square with a screen in front, the 'Grundytutor' is a back-projector using 35 millimetre film.

"There is a row of buttons in front of the screen", explained Murray. "When you press the appropriate button to start the lesson up comes a question on the screen. If you give the right answer — which means pressing the right button — you are told which to press for the next question. If your answer is wrong the machine will explain why. It's a case of learning by question and answer. And if you get really out of your depth the machine perseveres until you see where you went astray. It does this by taking you on a carefully phased detour away from the main subject and bringing you back to it only when it has cleared up your difficulties."

By the time the 'Grundytutor' was on the market, Murray said, there would be at least sixty films available covering all sorts of subjects from algebra to zoology, all of them specially programmed by teams of British educational experts.

Reports and Remarks..

THE VANISHING SURNAME

It may be because of the service-club rule about calling fellow-members by their given names or nicknames under penalty of a light fine, or it may be because of the growing informality of modern manners, but the use of surnames in ordinary life is noticeable on the decline. Perfect strangers, after their introduction to each other, will immediately on a first-name basis. The interviewer on a television programme will call the celebrity he has met for the first time by his given name and expect a reciprocal mark of intimacy.

There are some exceptions to the rule. One cannot imagine the brashest interviewer calling Sir Winston Churchill "Winnie" to his face "Good old Winnie" was frequently cheered in that style when he was the inspiration of the world during the last year; and it is doubtful whether anyone has ever dared to address Dr. Schweitzer as "Al".

One explanation of the modern custom is the equally modern habit of slovenly enunciation. Surnames are frequently unusual and sometimes difficult to pronounce clearly, while first names are not. The introducer may be unsure of the pronunciation, and is inclined to disguise the fact by saying something like "Betty Mumble, this is Harold Mumble", and Betty and Harold are immediately known that way to each other for the rest of the evening. If friendship ripens from the introduction or a romance develops, it is to be presumed that the surnames are eventually revealed. Issuers of marriage licences and inclined to be sticklers for formality.

Matters were different in the nineteenth century. Jane Austen's Mr. Bennett was so addrssed even by his wife. The father of a family was entitled to respect and received a taken of it in the formal mode of address. Nowadays he is fortunate if he receives the respect without the token. —The Printed Word.

Rev. and Mrs. Glen McKinley and Miss Catherine Hynes have returned to their home in Buffalo, N.Y., after visiting her mother Mrs. Marie Vansickle, her sister Mrs. S. Kennedy, Mr. Kennedy and John.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milton, of Winnipeg, Man., visited her mother Mrs. Marion Stewart, Mr and Mrs. Bruce Stewart, and their family Miss Edith Stewart, of Hamilton, visited her mother and brother.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 4, 1913

Another enterprising Lindsay boy has launched out for himself in the business world in the great west in the person of Mr. Archibald D. Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Currie, of this town. He has embarked in the dry goods business on Portage Avenue in Winnipeg under the firm name of Archibald Currie and Co., and has one of the finest business quarters in the metropolis of the west. His many friends will congratulate him on his enterprise and wish him every success. While in Lindsay Mr. Currie was employed at O'Loughlin and McIntyre's. He was in Kenora eight years and went to Winnipeg three years ago.

Timely Gift

The children's Aid Society gratefully acknowledge the gift of five dollars from Mr. H. J. Lytle of town and hopes that many others may follow the good examples set by Mr. Lytle.

JANUARY 4, 1938

Nineteen Lindsay men, 16 of whom were on relief in this town are receiving employment in Folyette,, Ont., in the Baker Lumber Company, situated approximately 150 miles north of Sudbury. The transportation of these men was paid by the company which employed them and it is given to them free provided they remain in the company's employ for three months. If they work less than three months it is taken from their wages. The superintendent of the company wrote to R. G. Lamb recently and on being informed that men could be obtained here, the super came to Lindsay and employed the 19 men. They left on Monoday and will begin work in the bush as soon as they arrive at their destination. The fact that 16 of the men are removed from the relief rolls of Linddsay is a lift for the relief committee of the town.

Much Like Countrymen

The first couple ushered in the new year this week much like many of their countrymen . . . at a midnight party with friends. President and Mrs. Kennedy attended a champagne party in Palm Beach, given by neighbors and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wrightman. This was the second year in a row the Kennedys attended the Wrightman party. It is considered a major social event in the holiday season at Palm Beach.

Honorable Peace

Both sides of a long-standing civil war in Italy have agreed to an honorable peace . . . and the victorious city of Florence has emerged the new fashion centre of the country. Florence and Rome have been battling for the title for Italy's fashion capital since Italian high fashion came about in 1951. The Florence fashion centre has announced an overwhelming majority of 25 high fashion houses to exhibit there in January. About three major designers remain in Rome.

A 13-year-old schoolgirl who would have become one of Britain's richest women in another eight years . . . has died of a long illness. Camilla Samuel and her sister, Felicity, held more than one and one-half million shares of their father's London property firm . . . to be held in trust until they were 21. Camilla and her sister received 28-cents a week pocket money . . . although the day the firm's shares went on the market they earned more than one-million dollars.

Fashion Hint

Now's the time to wear woolen clothes of bright pastel hues . . . to brighten up post-holiday wardrobes.

Beauty Tip

If polish develops bubbles after you've applied it, it's a sure sign the polish is too thick. Thin it with solvent and apply a fresh coat.

Tasty Tabasco Spaghetti Sauce

This luscious meat spaghetti sauce is easily made and can be frozen. Make two or three batches at a time, enjoying some tonight and freezing the balance. The sauce includes the familiar favorite ingredients: tomatoes, mushrooms, garlic, bay leaf, thyme, and, of course, Tabasco, the unique liquid red pepper seasoning so necessary for a good spicy sauce.

Tabasco Spaghetti Sauce

2 tablespoons olive oil or butter
1 pound ground beef
2 medium onions, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
1 can (3 or 4 ounces) mushrooms
1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste
½ cup dry red wine, optional
1 can (1 pound) tomatoes
2 teaspoons salt
1 bay leaf
⅛ teaspoon thyme
⅛ teaspoon Tabasco
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Heat olive oil or melt butter in heavy saucepan. Add meat, breaking up into small pieces with a fork. Add onion and garlic, and when meat is browned, stir in mushrooms with liquid and remaining ingredients. Simmer until sauce is thickened, about 30 minutes. YIELD: 6 servings.

To freeze:

Make 2 or 3 batches at a time. Chill quickly by setting pan in cold water or in refrigerator. Spoon into straight-sided quart or pint freezer jars. Freeze. To serve, run warm water over jar. Slip out frozen block into skillet or saucepan. Heat slowly.

NOTE: Mixture may be kept in freezer 1 to 3 months.

Lindsay Ladies Club hostesses for provincial playdowns

The "Peel Street Ice Palace" will be the scene of one of the curling events of the season on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week when the playdowns for the provincial championship get underway. It will be a highly competitive and colorful event with many of the hand-picked ladies' rinks in Districts 13 and 14 on hand to battle for the right to pass on to the second round to be held in Weston.

Eventually the top winners will move on to Nova Scotia to take part in the Diamond D competition.

Rinks will be on hand from Unionville, Newmarket, Heather Club (Toronto), Richmond Hill, Bradford, Bobcaygeon, Fenelon Falls, Lindsay and Cannington. The Lindsay club will be represented by Mrs Gladys Laidlev (Skip), Mrs. Rita Gay, Mrs. Fern Reynolds and Mrs. Gladys Jordan.

Silver D. winners will represent the Northern Ontario rinks who will playdown at North Bay.

Lindsay ladies are planning for the big event and will arrange playing and entertaining details. A buffet lunch will be served by the Lindsay group Thursday evening.

It is expected that winners will be declared around 7 p.m. Friday.

Lindsay citizens are invited to visit the rink at any hour during the days of competition.

out this school area assessment mix-up, there promises to be a hot election for the three seats for public school trustees. In the seven-way race for the school board Monday are: Charles Brohm, Tom Hodgson, Ray Handley, Eric Morrison, Stan Smith, Gladys Suggitt, Charles Taylor.

"Another irregularity is that no financial statement of Somerville for the year 1961 was available by March 31st, 1962 as is required by statute. Under date of October 1st, 1962, I wrote by registered letter to Somerville council requesting such a statement but have received no reply to date.

"I feel my probe into the irregularities of Somerville has fitted me to protect the interests of all the township if I am elected to the reeveship", aspirant Taylor summed up.

What next?

Blinding flash, thunderous boom startle woman hanging out wash

Mount Horeb (PNS) — "What next?" . . . That's the question a local lady is asking herself in the wake of a startling experience Thursday morning. While pegging clothes on the line around 10.30 she was startled by a blinding flash and a thunderous boom which sent neighborhood dogs whimpering to the doors of their homes to get in.

Recalling the experience, she reflected: "The old year left in the middle of a deep freeze, the New Year arrived on the wane of a cold snap, the second day of the New Year was uneventful but then this on the third . . . What next?" She is consulting old timers to see if they know the answer.

"They do it every year"

Usual last-minute scramble for license plates predicted despite earlier sale date

Passenger and station wagon license plates are reported moving very slowly in Lindsay, only 60 of the estimated 6,000 required in this community have been sold since they went on sale December 10th. "But just wait!", added agent Maurice Collins of the Motor Vehicles Branch here, "the big annual rush will start about one day previous to the March 13th deadline. They do it every year and love it—people come for the annual get-to-gether and it is like the big days at the Lindsay fair.

"We actually sell more plates the day before the last day but it sure makes a rush with five bureau workers working like mad and the customers standing in line. They - - the customers - - enjoy the big reunion but we are rather pressed", he said.

"Then, again, all commercial licenses for trucks, trailers, buses and school buses, not on sale until February 28th and continuing until March 31st, will add to the turmoil. There is going to be a change in the way these are sold next year . . . but details are not available yet," Mr. Collins stated.

"We are here to serve and would be glad if customers would come in when we are not too busy. Mr. Collins summed up.

$750 damage, no injuries

Carl Kirkpatrick and Arthur Carew, both of Lindsay, were the drivers involved in a two-car accident Thursday around 4 p.m.

Police say Mr. Carew was leaving his office lot on William St. to go south, when his car came in contact with the Kirkpatrick vehicle which was going north on William St.

There were no injuries, and damage to both vehicles was estimated at about $750.

Const. G. Dawson investigated.

Mrs. H. M. Crown and group have charge of program

Mrs. H.M. Crown and her group presented an excellent program at the January meeting of the Elizabeth Ryley Mission Circle of Cambridge St. Baptist Church held in the Sunday School Hall.

After the opening exercises and business period conducted by the President, Mrs. C. Suggitt the Roll was called responded to with favou..... Scripture texts.

Mrs. Crown then conducted the devotional period and introduced the slides and topic, entitled "Baptists in Action", one highly recommended for use in Mission Circle meetings and across the Dominion. Rev. Mr. Holmes operated the projector and Mrs. Holmes read the script. Beginning in British Columbia views of the lovely Beulah Gardens Homes for Senior Citizens were seen. Then to Quebec Province where the interesting work of the Grande Ligne Mission was depicted. The Sanatorium in the Maritimes; the Inter-Provincial Home for Women in Moncton, N.B., where the foundation of all the work is religious and the Maritime Home for Girls in Truro, N.S., were seen in various settings.

Mrs. Holmes then read an interesting Christmas letter from a friend Mrs. (Rev.) Wallace in Egypt.

A delightful musical number, a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Holmes accompanied by Mrs. F.A. Reeds entitled "Somebody Else Needs Him, Too" was enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments and a social half hour concluded the friendly gathering.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

ANOREXIA NERVOSA COULD BE RESULT OF BROKEN LOVE AFFAIR

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Our oldest daughter, unmarried and aged 34, will not eat. She has lost at least 40 pounds during the past half year.

I think it all started when my husband interfered with her near-engagement to a boy she loved. They broke up. Since then she has been starving herself.

We have had her to our doctor. Tests show that no serious disease is causing the loss of weight. The doctor says her trouble is due to extreme nervousness. Can you help explain this problem and advise us what to do? Mrs. G.

Comment: Anorexia nervosa — my guess is that's what your daughter is suffering from, though it is only a guess. Whenever all organic causes have been ruled out by tests and examinations in a case like your daughter's, then anorexia nervosa must be considered.

With this condition, the patient simply refuses to eat. In your daughter's case, the precipitating cause may well have been the loss of the boy she loved and the conflict with your husband. In other cases, it sometimes is a "backfire" from overzealous dieting in treating obesity.

INTENSIVE TREATMENT

Is your daughter being treated at home or in the hospital? If she isn't already there, I think it is important that she be admitted to a hospital for intensive treatment.

In the first place, a consultation with a psychiatrist is imperative. Encouraging the patient to increase food intake often requires every bit of experience and help the psychiatrist can offer. It may take weeks before the anorexia nervosa patient's diet can be increased to 2500 or 3000 calories. In very severe cases, where starvation really threatens, the patient's life can be saved only by tube feeding and temporary intravenous feeding.

Injections of vitamin B12 and other vitamins are essential. To combat the nervousness, doctors use tranquilizers and sedatives. Psychotherapy and emotional support must be continued. In stubborn cases, even electroconvulsive (shock) therapy and hypnotism have been used.

Too often the patient with anorexia nervosa slowly disintegrates at home because the family members think of it only as a passing fancy of strict dieting. Basically it is a psychological as well as a physical problem. But early hospitalization is necessary to prevent the possibility of complete starvation.

PLANS TO SEEK FREEDOM

Attorneys for former Venezuelan strongman Perez Jimenez plans to seek his freedom on bond today to the New Orleans Federal Circuit Court on Appeals. Perez Jiminez has been in a Miami jail since December 12th when his 100-thousand dollar bond was revoked. A lower federal court had ruled that the exiled Venezuelan chief must return to his home and face charges of murder and embezzlement.

ARREST THREE MEN, ONE WOMAN

West Berlin police say they have arrested three men and a woman on charges of detonating two explosions along the Berlin Wall last month. Besides blowing holes in the wall, the blasts broke 161 windows in West Germany. The four are all West Germans. Police said they brought the explosives to the divided city in hand luggage carried by air from elsewhere in West Germany.

MILITARY BASE ON MOON

The Soviet army newspaper Red Star claims the U-S is planning to build a military base on the dark side of the moon. A Soviet Colonel wrote–in these words–"much of the research and development work of various agencies is subordinated to the task of 'militarization' of the moon." He said America plans to build military facilities on the moon within eight to ten years.

FIND SECOND CAR

Scuba divers have found the second of two cars that plunged into a break in a Newfoundland causeway, but there is still no sign of the five occupants. Sunday's storm washed out a 100-foot section of the causeway, near Blandford, about 150 miles west of St. John's. The cars plunged into the break one after the other on Wednesday. Strong currents and floating ice have hampered searchers.

EMISSARY RETURNS TO VICTORIA

A British Columbia Emissary who tried to find a country that would accept B-C's Freedomite Doukhobors returns to Victoria today, his mission a failure. Mayor William Evens, of Nelson, B-C has been canvassing embassies in Ottawa during recent weeks–without any luck. He said yesterday that Russia and seven or eight South American countries refused admission to the Freedomites because of their anti-militaristic sentiments. All the countires canvassed by Evens have compulsory military services.

MUST DEFAULT COMMITMENTS

General Lauris Norstad–in a farewell visit to Ottawa yesterday–warned that Canada must default its NATO commitments unless it signs a bilateral nuclear agreement with the U-S. The retiring NATO Supreme Commander in Europe told newsmen that Canada is committed to a nuclear role within NATO. Prime Minister Diefenbaker maintains that the recent NATO nuclear pact between Britain and the U-S does not affect Canada.

THREE IN FIRST

The Montreal Canadiens scored three goals in the first period and held onto the lead throughout the game to defeat the last place Boston Bruins, 4 to 1, last night in N.H.L. action at Montreal. The victory moved the Canadiens into a second place tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs in the National Hockey League. Boston rookie goalie Ed Johnston was on the losing end in the first 11 minutes of play when Canadiens Bernie Geoffrion, Jean Guy Talbot and Donnie Marshall opened the Montreal attack. Boston's Tom William spoiled Montreal goal tender Jacques Plante's bid for a shut out when he slammed in the Bruins' only score of the game on a third-period power play. The win was Montreal's fifth in eight starts against the improving Bruins.

HEAD FIELD

Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus head a field of top golfers in the first big tournament of the season–The Los Angeles Open. Phil Rodgers is defending champion in the field which includes the top 25 money winners of 1962. Billy Casper won yesterday's tuneup event with a six-under par 65.

WILL PICK SITE, DATE

Fight promoter Tom Bolan says former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson will pick the site and date for his return title fight with champion Sonny Liston either today or tomorrow. Bolan says Baltimore, Las Vegas, Miami Beach and a midwestern city are under consideration. A Milwaukee report quotes Liston's advisor Jack Nilon as naming Baltimore as the site.

NAME JOFRE

The World Boxing Association named unbeaten bantamweight champion Eder Jofre as "Boxer-of-the-Year" in 1962. Jofre was the only world champion to make three defenses and scored knockouts in all three fights to run his string to 15 straight.

Say gas seepage mystery is about to be solved

Fresh incident may hold key, informant says

"Beaverton's gas seepage mystery is about to be solved." This was the prediction made by usually reliable sources in the village today. A renewed seepage of liquid gas was detected in the basement of the Beaverton Hotel today to the amazement of owner Frank McMillan who with his Orillia lawyer, are reported to be very busy.

Mr. McMillan was forced to close the hotel and vacate it due to the hazard of the gas leakage in the basement, the cause of which could not be determined. The gas seepage which at one time could be scooped up in six-gallon lots tapered off somewhat lately but renewed its flow partially today.

Digging around the oil tanks located across the road from the hotel and digging ordered by the Fire Marshal around the hotel over the past year, did not reveal the source of the leakage.

Owner McMillan, suffering heavy financial loss due to the inexplicable circumstances beyond his control, has entered into lawsuit proceedings with the village of Beaverton, the Imperial Oil Co, George Bowen, tenant of the Imperial Oil station and the Department of Highways.

"I am sure it will only be a matter of a few hours before the riddle is now solved," the informant told "The Post".

Stiff early winter bites into anticipated budget surplus

Snowploughing and removal has hit into the estimated $3,000 Lindsay budget surplus while hWork Chairman Reeve Lloyd Found had hoped for. "But the town roads and streets have been well looked after," Engineer Eric Booth states.

Residents of the newly-annexed subdivision of Linwood Heights are enjoying the services of town snow ploughing (authorized earlier this year) for the first season.

Difficult portions of the former county road - - Angeline St. S. - - have at times posed a problem for town equipment but with the aid of the county's heavier machines this has been solved.

The town's lighter equipment cannot wing back the steep banks on the country-like portions of Angeline St. S., it is learned.

Installation of new judge, election of new warden scheduled for same day

Victoria County Court House will teem with colorful ceremony on January 15th for on that day two important functions will take place — the installation of the new county judge and the installation of the new county warden.

The installation ceremonies of H. E. Richardson, Q.C., as Judge of the Counties of Victoria and Haliburton, will be held in the county court room on the main floor of the building while that of the chosen warden for Victoria County will be instituted in the council chamber on the second floor.

Court officials, members of the Bar, town and county dignitaries and their wives from here and adjoining municipalities, are invited to the investiture of the county judge and at the same time will be able to look in on the installation ceremonies for the new warden. The public is invited to both functions.

Installation of Judge Richardson will be conducted by Judge Arthur R. Wilmott of Cobourg at 2.30 p.m. while that of the Warden (yet ot be chosen) will be conducted by Clerk F. L. Weldon at 2.00 p.m.

Following the installation of Judge Richardson, a reception will be held in Cambridge Hall for members of the Bar, officials of town and county and other visiting dignitaries and their wives.

Members of the Lindsay Law Association, President Joseph L. Staples and Committee Chairman Arthur B. Patterson are in charge of the ceremony arrangements.

It is reported that contestants in the open vote method of election to the wardenship will include Reeve John Childs of Dalton, situated in the extreme north-west portion of Victoria County and Reeve Max Kennedy of Verulam Township in the southeastern section.

Bound over to keep peace

A 38-year-old Fenelon Falls man, Charles Nichol, charged with assaulting 80-year-old William Griffin, also of Fenelon Falls, was found guilty by Magistrate Moore, and placed on suspended sentence for one year, and bound over to keep the peace in Friday's court.

Griffin told the court of being, kicked, and hit in the chest by the accused (who lived with his wife in part of the Griffin home) when he (Nichols) was asked to open a door which led to the upstairs store room.

Mrs. Griffin corroborated her husband's story, as did another member of the family, stating that Mr. Nichol used "offensive" language during the fight, and threatened Mr. Griffin.

Speaking in his own defence Mr. Nichol told the court Mr. Griffin had threatened him with a stick of wood" and that is the gospel truth."

"I only defended myself" he said "and did not knock him down."

Following a plea from the defence counsel questioning the lack of concrete evidence against his client, the magistrate stated he would accept it as common assault.

It was suggested by the court that Nichol find another place to live within the next week, after he admitted he had been given notice by the plaintiff.

Weather outlook

Lake Ontario, Haliburton, Regions, Lindsay Area: — Cloudy, light winds, not much change in temperature. A few intervals of fine snow. Outlook for Sunday . . . cloudy little change in temperature. Summary for Saturday . . . cloudy.

NOTICED . . along the way

It's quite an occasion when a man gets to be president . . . He has gone "about as far as he can go". That outstanding moment in his association with the Lindsay Kiwanis Club came this week for Herbert J. (Herb) Hardy when Lt.-Governor Harold Mitchell of Dunbarton pinned the president's lapel button on him during the installation of club officers for 1963. Looking on, centre, is Immediate Past President Arthur Patterson. The function took place at the club's meeting place—the Hotel Benson dining room.

Burned beyond recognition in Pefferlaw house fire

The remains of a Pefferlaw area man, burned to death in a home on the Weir sideroad, were charred so badly that identification is impossible. This fact was learned from the office of Dr. Noble Pefferlaw Coroner.

The man is believed to be 88-year-old Wilbert Lee who lived alone in a house which was isolated from neighbours. He was described as a recluse —not associating with his neighbours.

When smoke was seen pouring from the house in the early morning of Sunday, December 23rd, neighbours had to walk five miles to telephone Georgina Township firemen, When the firemen arrived a strong wind had the blaze reportedly out of control.

Firemen were unable to save the house, valued at $15,000, it was learned.

Cause of the fire was thought by Pefferlaw Police Chief Len Donner, to be an overheated stove it was further reported.

PROTECTION FOR PEDESTRIANS

Almost everyone who has done any night driving has had the unpleasant experience of suddenly being aware that a pedestrian is dangerously close to his vehicle. Usually, these people are darkly clad and blend in with the surrounding landscape to such an extent that a motorist has difficulty spotting them. They frequently don't and the unfortunate pedestrian either becomes a statistic or is injured.

There have been numerous appeals to the walking public on the part of safety officials to protect themselves by wearing reflective or light coloured armbands or other distinctive markings on their person when abroad at night. In many instances people heed these appeals but the majority still seem to adopt the attitude towards accidents that "it can't happen to me."

This brings us to a peculiar inconsistency in the matter of traffic regulations: A motorist is required to have his vehicle equipped with certain lighting features for the protection of himself and fellow motorists but the pedestrian, who is really an integral part of traffic, isn't required to display any protective nightime markings . . . It's strictly a voluntary matter. Is this is the best interest of traffic safety? Or should pedestrians be required to wear some universally recognized and easily seen marking on their clothing?

Reports and Remarks..

NEW CHEMICAL SEEDS CULTIVATION

The possibility of cultivation without ploughing seems to have been brought a long step nearer by an entirely new type of weedkiller called Gramozone, produced by Imperial Chemical Industries. "The revolutionary thing about it," reported Paddy Feeny in 'The Farming World' programme broadcast weekly in the BBC General Overseas Service, "is that it has been proved on test that a field treated with Gramoxone can be sown with grass or wheat with only a minimum of cultivation, and even with none at all. This means that the soil doesn't have to be touched, and consequently the chance of soil erosion is cut down to a minimum, particularly in view of the fact that it remains covered with the vegetation the Gramoxone has killed off."

Since Gramoxone was not a very selective killer, he explained, it had to be applied before the crop started to appear. As soon as it touched the ground it became inactive and could not affect any future crop. The weeds took it up extremely quickly, so new seeds could be sown almost immediately. Tests carried out in rubber plantations in Malaya had shown that if the weather remained dry for one hour after application Gramoxone would not be dialoged by any amount of rain.

Gramoxone did not affect the bark of trees, and could therefore be used along the harvesting paths of bush and tree crops, such as rubber and oil palm, without fear of damage. Since it did not "creep', it would not attack the cover crop either.

Feeny went on to mention some instances where Gramoxone is selective. For example, in pasture land it does not affect the stronger grasses like cocksfoot and perennal rye grass, but rather increases their growth by killing off surrounding weeds; with sugar cane it is most effective in killing off leaves and rendering trash in an infallible state so that it can be burnt away; and it has also proved itself against water ferns in the lake formed by the Kariba Dam, and against other kinds of river weeds. It is harmless to animals, fowl and fish.

Remember way back when

Lindsay Intermediates are scheduled to meet the Markham seven in hat town on January 10th and unless Jack Frost gets very busy the boys will enter the contest without any practice. There new hockey uniforms are on display in Gough's west window and are greatly admired by the fans. They are a combination of royal blue and white, with toque and hose to match. Very little is known regarding the personnel of the Markham team. It is reported, however, that they have a couple of very fast fast men on the lineup.

JANUARY 5, 1938

The Hogg and Lytle warehouses and chopping mill at Mariposa Station, two miles south of Oakwood, were the scene of a disastrous fire Wednesday morning which completely destroyed the chopping mill and its valuable machinery and threatened to destroy the two warehouses which are loaded with grain. Damage is unofficially estimated at $15,000.00. The steel covering on the warehouse buildings flanking the blazing chopping mill probably saved them from destruction by the fire. Showers of sparks and burning embers were falling on the roofs of the buildings but were burning themselves out on the steel sheeting. A large tank of Diesel engine oil, buried four feet in the ground below the chopping mill, exploded shortly after the noon hour and the heavy flames ignited the west side of the easterly warehouse but the large number of men in the vicinity were able to extinguish the blaze before it had done any great damage.

The Little Woman

When it comes to designing auto's those men in Detroit ought to consider the little woman. Because of her size — five feet or under — driving is a real chore. Sometimes a small woman can't see over the steering wheel without the aid of a pillow to bolster her. Big women also have some troubles with Detroit's dream cars. Big feet in shoes with skinny heels don't fit a gas pedal easily. Some suggestions for auto designers — a special pull-down centre seat with a safety belt, for infants. An adjustable steering wheel. . . and lower window openings to enable petites to make hand signals more easily.

Key Word Is "Formal"

The key word in describing furniture for 1963 is "formal". That's the word from officials of the International Home Furnishings Market, which opens next week in Chicago. W. O. Ollman says traditional styling is favored this coming spring over contemporary designs. French provincial is expected to be especially popular, with Parquet table tops, marble insets and painted finishes. Fabrics on home furnishings for 1963 will range from classic velvet and silk to modern orlon and fibre glass.

Cross-Country March

Boots are on a cross-country fashion march as ladies bundle up stylishly for freezing temperatures. Women of all ages and sizes are enjoying the advantages of boots — fashionable, and warm. Actually, the word "boot" is an all-inclusive description for winter footgear. Boots are available in heights ranging from ankle to knee, and are made in suede, calf, alligator, grained leather and simulated patent. They can have high heels, stack heels, or no heels at all.

Taller Americans

Better diets, higher incomes and better medical care are credited with producing taller Americans. The United tates Department of Agriculture says today's nine-year-old boy is at least an inch taller than his dad was at that age. At manhood, he stands two inches taller than his counterpart in 1900 — and he weighs about 20 pounds more. Women also are about two inches taller nowadays. But they weigh about seven pounds less than grandma did at the same age.

Household Hint

Lemons won't shrivel or become hard if each one is wrapped in dark paper and then packed loosely in a paper bag. Store in a cool place.

Lindsay airman wed in Germany

Pictured here following their wedding in Gaggenau, Germany, on November 19, 1962, are Flying Officer and Mrs. Robert James Endicott. The bride is the former Ursula Helga Wittman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Wittman, of Gaggenau, Germany and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Endicott, of Lindsay.

The "Red Dean" calls it quits

The Dean of Canterbury to the Church of England — Doctor Hewlett Johnson — has resigned his post. Queen Elizabeth — as head of the Church — imediately accepted his resignation. Johnson, who is 88, has been called the "Red Dean" because of his favorable views toward communism.

Britons retain sense of humor

Britain has been hit by severe winter storms in recent days . . . but Englishmen apparently haven't lost their sense of humor.

A sign under a "drink more milk" slogan on a milkman's delivery truck abandoned in the snow read . . .

"Gone for tea."

Young People attend meet

Cannington (PNS) For the December meeting of the Three-M Club of the United Church, the Hi-C Young People were invited to attend.

The meeting got under way with a rousing carol sing-song led by Mrs. G. Tomlinson. A short devotional period of questions and answers taken from the Christmas story as told in the Gospel of Luke and interspersed with verses of carols further illustrating the story, was then capably conducted by Mrs. Mary Thompson. A brief business period followed with the president, Mrs. Elva Southern in charge. Roll call was taken and minutes of two previous meetings were read by Mrs. Eleanor Tait in the absence of the secretary. Plans are being made to attend a performance of CFTO 'Take a Chance' program.

The meeting adjourned and an invitation from Mrs. Marion Jewell for everyone to go to the Oddfellows' hall for square and folk dancing. A local orchestra of Messrs. Bob Shier, Nels Purvis and Floyd Purvis, provided the peppy music, and Mrs. Floyd Shier of Wilfrid called. A delicious lunch and social half-hour completed the evening, everyone felt that a good time had been had by all.

"Flying High" Butterfly Girl

The upsurge of Britain's swimming youngsters continues. Sixteen-year-old Ann Cotterll, and "unknown" schoolgirl fromWatford, in Hertfordshire, England, whirled those slim arms, windmill-fashion, to edge her way into the British swimming team with a first-class 110-yard butterfly swim during the British trials at Blackpool.

Thorah ranch site chosen for microwave station

Deputy-reeve Duncan Wallace will have a section of modern communication system located on his Thorah ranch—the CPR have taken up an option on a portion of the property and will erect a microwave station there. The location is lot 7, concession 10.

After testing two unsuitable locations, the CPR made decision on the above location. Such stations have to do with the transmission of directions for railroad operation and are used to cut down on the employment of local operators it was learned.

Thorah Township Council has granted the CPR permission to obtain a building permit to erect the station. Deputy-reeve Duncan Wallace disclosed and building is expected to get underway soon.

Union prayer services commence here next week

According to its custom of many years, the Lindsay Ministerial Association is calling the Christian community here to prayer during the first full week of the New Year.

Services of prayer will be held at 8 o'clock, nightly, Tuesday through Friday — (January 8 - 11) in St. Andrew's Church. The association says these meetings will follow a form based on an order prepared by the World Council of Churches, and will allow for the active participation of all who attend. A meditation or address will be given each night by a different member of the association. Scripture readings and prayers will be led by various clergy and laymen; and choirs from the member churches will take turns leading the singing.

As a climax to the week of Prayer, a Union Service for Worship will be held at 7 p.m. on Sunday January 13th, also in St. Andrew's Church. The association says members of the Protestant denominations are invited to join in this ecumenical service at which Dr. Frank Fidler of Toronto will be the preacher. Music of the massed choirs will be under the direction of Mr. William Perry. An association minister said Friday, "It is hoped that this time of united praise and mutual inspiration will be meaningful for those attending and for the churches' witness to the life of their common Lord Jesus Christ through 1963."

Newsmen find Ex-premier Frost less reluctant now

Ex-premier Leslie M. Frost is less reluctant to be interviewed following Cabinet meetings than he was when he was Prime Minister of Ontario. At least that's the conclusion Toronto newsmen have arrived at following an incident there this week.

Newsmen said that before his resignation as prime minister, Mr. Frost would sometimes go to extraordinary lengths to dodge waiting reporters — even to scurrying through back offices and side doors.

This week the same newspapermen were waiting to see Premier Robarts after the weekly Cabinet meeting . . . but he was not available.

Leslie Frost was.

"Here you are boys," he chuckled, "Interview me."

Christmas Seal returns down, official says

Reports on the local T.B. Christmas Seal Campaign are very discouraging, one of the officials told "The Post" Friday.

"The public is getting very complacent over this vital issue", the official said, "and if we are not careful, we will be back where we were 25 years ago."

Only 64% of the $7,000 objective has been received to date or $4,500, as against 1961 with an objective of $6,500 when $6,000 or nearly 90% was donated.

Forced off road, driver claims

Rueben Wilson, of Colborne told investigating O.P.P. Const. J. R. DesLaurier, this week he was unable to control his car, after an approaching vehicle forced him off the road, causing approximately $175 damage to the car.

The accident happened on highway 46 just west of Coboconk.

Wilson was driving east when the car he was driving went out of control, hitting a highway sign.

There were no injuries.

Beaverton residents breath easier as rabies threat subsides

Beaverton residents are breathing easier these days following what was termed a "regular nightmare" recently when a stray rabid dog savagely attacked a number of dogs belonging to the villagers leaving maimed and dying animals in its wake.

Municipal Clerk Fred McMillan told "The Post" that the incident happened just before Christmas, and for a while had the residents fearful they or their families might be attacked.

A number of people were given rabies shots, and warning notices were posted, to keep all dogs in the area under control.

Dr. L. J. Woolsey, Inspector in charge of the Bowmanville sub-district told "The Post" he believed the danger was past and there had been no report of any new outbreak in the area since Christmas.

"I believe it will be alright now for the rest of the winter", he said, "providing of course, the residents keep their pets under control."

He had advised the village and the township, of the necessity of the warning notice, asking all owners and harbourers of dogs to keep their animals under control following the outbreak.

Owners of the affected animals were given rabies shots, and any other person that might have been in contact with the dogs.

Dr. Woolsey said that this was the first serious outbreak since 1958, and that during 1962 (mostly north of Port Perry) 18 foxes were found to be rabid, and 16 head of cattle.

Reluctant Return

Our school drew reluctant crowds of long-faced students on Thursday. We trudged up the slushy Kent St. hill, dreading examination results which were surely waiting for us there.

Principal Breese welcomed us over the public address system. He mentioned the construction program, much of the inconvenience of which was eliminated over the holidays. The dust and cold draughts which had formerly been in evidence in the halls were gone. Mr. Breese reminded us that the Christmas examinations were a test of our ability to absorb what we had been taught in the fall term. This term - the longest one of the year - is the "backbone" of the school year and our whole year he said. Mr. Breese concluded with a wish for a happy and prosperous New Year, and a reading from the New Testament.

Get Well Soon

Students all hope that Mr. Patterson returns to school soon, fully recovered from his recent time in hospital. The study periods which his absence create are hard to use properly so soon after the holiday; so get well soon, Mr. Patterson!

Back To Normal

Probably everyone, in and out of school, will be glad to get back to the normal week - that is, one starting on a Monday instead of Thursday or Wednesday.

Martha Aldrich R.N. describes Sandy Lake

Reaboro (PNS)—"All travel is on foot. A few of the Indians have dog teams. There are about 600 Indians living here and 20 white people. Over half the Indian population are children" was the description of Sandy Lake, Ontario written by Miss Martha Aldrich R.N. in her Christmas Greeting to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Littlejohn.

Miss Aldrich and Miss T. Vanvlite are in charge of the Government Nursing Station in this remote northern country which is 300 miles north of Sioux Lookout. Arriving by plane October 25th to take over their new duties, the nurses found lots of snow and the next week the lake froze over and freezeup began. Planes, which are the only means of transportation, did not start flying in to Sandy Lake again until the first week in December.

Referring to her new surroundings, Miss Aldrich said it was a beautiful spot. The nursing station faces the lake and the south. From the front windows, can be seen the sunrise and the sunset. It is usually quite cold, at the time of writing, it was 28 degrees below zero. When it is warmer, it is usually cloudy or snowing.

The little settlement comprises of a United Church, a Roman Catholic church and a Mennonite Mission. The United Church Missionaries were the first to go to Sandy Lake and have the largest following. There is also a United church, three room school with three female teachers, and a Roman Catholic school with two rooms and a married couple from Halifax as teachers. The priest is Italian and the United church minister and his wife are from Winnipeg.

The chief occupation of the Indians is trapping in the winter and fishing in the summer. Much of the fur trapped is beaver, which is beautiful, they also get mink, lynx, otter, rabbit, squirrel and a few others.

The nurses are enjoying the work and are taking pictures of the people and places. In concluding, Miss Aldrich said, "But you should see their homes, I'll explain them later."

Miss Aldrich is a graduate of Stanstead College, Stanstead, Que., Sherbrooke General Hospital, Sherbrooke, Que., and McGill University, Montreal, Quebec.

Prior to their present position, Miss Aldrich and Miss Vanlite were on the staff of the Sir Wilfred Grenville Mission Hospital, St. Anthony's Newfoundland for five years.

Stocking Fund chairman voices his appreciation

The chairman of the Lindsay Santa Claus Stocking Fund is pleased with the way the public responded to its 1962 appeal for funds.

"I would appreciate it", said Chairman T. H. Stinson, "if you will express through your paper my sincere thanks to all those who have contributed so generously and enabled us to reach our objective."

Mr. Stinson has been chairman of the fund for over 50 years and all work in connection with the fund is on a voluntary basis.

This being the day before Sunday, it might be as good a time as any to recount one of "Uncle Mat's" favorite religious stories.

(Don't read it if you've heard it unless you like seeing stories you've heard in print) . . . Here it is:

A fundamentalist Negro preacher in the deep south was telling his congregation about the birth of the world.

"At first there was just nothing," he said. "Then the Lord, he made the earth and the moon and the sun and the stars and the trees and the water. Then the Lord looked it over and it was good. But the Lord got lonesome. So he took some mud, and he made Adam, the first man, and he put him against the fence to dry."

A voice from the back interrupted:

"Did you all say that Adam was the first man the Lord created?"

"Yes, I did."

"Then who built the fence?"

The preacher gave the questioner a long, dark look.

"Them's the kind of questions that hurts religion," he said.

Most people will go out of their way to avoid paying a visit to a dentist but there are two municipalities in this district which would go out of their way to make the acquaintance of a couple of dentists who would take up permanent residence in their midst. Both Beaverton and Bobcaygeon report they would like to see this come to pass.

IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION

U-N Secretary-General Thant has called for an immediate investigation into the death of two Belgian women civilians yesterday in the Congo. A spokesman for the United Nations says Thant and the U-N command in Katanga deeply regret the incident. United Press International reporter Peter Lynch reports the two women crested a hill entering Jodotville shortly after U-N Indian forces captured the city. Lynch says they stopped their car then suddenly sped up and tried to race by the troops. Machine-gun bullets riddled the European car, killing the two women and wounding a man.

HANDS IN RESIGNATION

Doctor Hewlett Johnson—Nicknamed the "Red Dean" of Conterbury—has handed his resignation to British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. The 88-year-old Johnson has been Dean of Canterbury since 1931, and is apparently resigning to devote more time to writing. Dr. Johnson earned his "Red Dean" title because of his espousal of Communism, and is considered one of Great Britain's most controversial and outspoken churchmen.

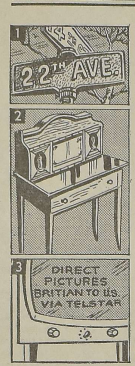
SOMEBODY GOOFED

. . . you may, too, in this test featuring Goofs-of-the-Year.

Puzzles & Pastimes



NOW that the best play, best news story, best this and best that of 1962, have been chosen, let us consider the goof of the year. In running off copies of the Dag Hammarskjold stamp, at right, for instance, printers turned out some with an inverted plate (not evident here). The error is still making headlines. Some other slips of varying prominence are illustrated at left and below. Let's see if you can answer the question posed in each instance.

1. This street sign raised eyebrows in a Midwestern town. What's wrong with it?

2. This desk was discovered to have had a questionable past and was replaced by an 1800 secretary. Can you identify it?

3. A momentous TV occasion was marked on one network by the fluff in this drawing. Can you spot it?

4. Oops! A world leader is shown stooping to pick up medal he dropped while pinning it on a general. Who is the leader?

5. HR 12708 signed into law — first goof of its kind in a century. Tell why?

6. Another stamp [?] that has the philatelic world buzzing was printed in Washington for the Canal Zone. A printing error or human oversight resulted in an unmistakable misprint here. Can you point out the error? Answers are in another column.

YAWS TRULY, MR. ASTRONAUT

IN space flights astronauts report their vehicles sometimes yaw, or effect an unsteady course or sway. Ships at sea and airplanes yaw; so does a tipsy fellow walking down the street. You, too, can experience this feeling to a degree in carrying out the tasks required in the exercise at right.

To begin, fix your eyes on the space vehicle at left. Now see if you can guide the vehicle through the allotted paths, up and down and across, through the center, and to the opposite side.

Remember, this is to be done by eye alone. Your route must thread the maze; shortcuts across paths are against the rules.

After you have orbited this half of the globe, see if you can complete a trip in the opposite direction.

Next, let someone else try and see how the better-skelter trip affects them.

STOP! . . . killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

ILLNESSES PUT ON MASKS THAT TRICK DOCTORS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I should think that in most cases diagnosis is the easiest part of the practice of medicine. For instance, if a patient has enough of the common symptoms of tuberculosis, it must be simple to make the diagnosis. The same with diabetes, hyperthyroidism, etc. Isn't this true? Mr. I.

Comment: Generally true. But oh those exceptions! They make diagnosis the most tricky and difficult part of medicine. Let me give you some examples:

I recall the young man who kept coming back with recurring stomach symptoms that were almost typical of duodenal ulcer—except that his pains didn't disappear after eating. X-rays were negative, yet the only diagnosis I could hang my hat on was a probable ulcer. Nevertheless, he didn't improve with the usual ulcer treatment.

PAIN CURE

Not until many months later did his pain suggest the possibility that he might have something wrong in his kindey. Sure enough, kidney x-ray showed a large stone. Within weeks after his operation to remove the kidney stone, his "ulcer" symptoms disappeared entirely.

Take another example. A girl has been complaining of nervousness for some months. She has not lost weight, her hands don't shake, her appetite isn't tremendous, her eyes don't stare, her pulse isn't rapid (all typical symptoms of an overactive thyroid), so the doctor doesn't take a basal metabolism or do a protein-bound iodine test. She is put on tranquilizers and told not to be so so upset about a broken love affair which the doctor thinks may be contributing to her nervous state. But she doesn't improve. The doctor decided to investigate further and study her thyroid.

The tests show that she is definitely hyperthyroid even though in her case the usual symptoms were not present that would indicate thyroid trouble right away. This underlines a moral—the good diagnostican shouldn't always depend upon a full quota of clues before becoming suspicious of disease.

For Mrs. H.: The term we use for the persisting, stubborn pain after some cases of shingles (especially in the elderly) is posthperpetic neuralgia.

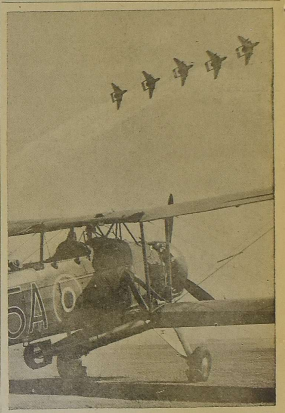
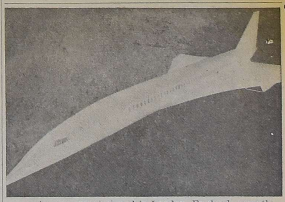
The fastest cable-layer afloat, the British-built and owned Mercury, docks on her first port of call—London. Over 1,000 miles of deep-sea cable were loaded before the cable-ship left for the Southern Hemisphere to lay the next part of the globe-encircling British Commonwealth Telephone Line.

While laying cable from Vancouver, Canada, to Australia, the 8,000-ton Mercury will cover 60,000 miles, returning twice to London for further supplies of cable.



Up-to-the-minute Sea Vixen jet planes of Britain's Fleet Air Arm fly over one of their early predecessors, a Swordfish naval aircraft, during preparations for a display to mark fifty years of military aviation in Britain at Upavon, Wiltshire. The display commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the formation of the Royal Flying Corps in 1912, from which the British Royal Air Force and Fleet Air Arm of the British Royal Navy developed.



An agreement signed in London, England, recently by Britain's Minister of Aviation and the French gave the go-ahead to a project to build an Anglo-French supersonic airliner.

The airliner, which will have a cruising speed of 1,450 miles per hour, will be built by the British Aircraft Corporation and France's Sud-Aviation. Carrying about a hundred passengers it will be able to cross the Atlantic in three hours against the seven hours flight time by current big jets.

ADMITS INVESTIGATION

National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle admitted Friday that he had been investigating rumors concerning the Chicago Bears and "three or four other clubs" but had found nothing at all of a criminal nature. Rozelle—pointing out that the N-F-L retained a staff of 16 former Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents to constantly investigate "these types of rumors"—said that a number of times player personnel on various clubs had been found to be "associating with undesirable types." George Halas of the Chicago Bears had announced in Chicago that the commissioner was investigating rumors of a possible scandal involving a number of N-H-L teams over the last two years.

BREATHE EASIER

The Montreal Canadiens are breathing a little easier. Star right winger Bernie Geoffrion was forced out of Thursday night's game against the Boston Bruins with a severe injury to his right wrist ... the same one he injured last month against the Toronto Maple Leafs. There were fears that Geoffrion—who scored his 18th goal of the season earlier in the contest—might have suffered a fracture. But X-rays showed no break. Forum medical reports say Geoffrion has a bad sprain and is a doubtful starter in both weekend games against the New York Rangers. Center Phil Goyette is sidelined with a broken leg and defenseman Tom Johnson is recovering from a wrist injury.

FACES POSSIBLE SUSPENSION

The most penalized player in the National Hockey League — defenseman Howie Young of Detroit—faces possible suspension for missing practice. A spokesman for the Detroit club says Young missed practice Thursday and was absent again when the Red Wings worked out Friday morning. Young also missed several Detroit practice sessions last January and was suspended by former General Manager Jack Adams. Adams later lifted the suspension but packed Young off to Edmonton of the Western League. In the rules infractions department, Young leads by a good margin over all rivals. His penalties total 124 minutes in 35 games.

DECIDES TO QUIT

George Terlep—who resigned last month as General Manager of the Ottawa Rough Riders—has decided to quit professional football for a job in private industry. Terlep—an ex-Notre Dame quarterback who worked his way through eight football jobs during the past 12 years—told United Press International he has accepted a managerial position with a manufacturing firm in his hometown of Elmkhart, Indiana. He said he would report to work with his new employers by the end of the month.

Cautions cattle owners about rabid animals

A word of caution to cattle owners regarding possible rabid animals has been issued by the Health of Animals Division, Dept. of Agriculture.

Sub-District Veterinarian Dr. J. Higgins told "The Post" that many cattle owners were ignorant of the symptoms of the disease and its dangers.

"Of course", he said, "the first precaution is to be constantly on the lookout for any strange acting fox or shunk, and if any are seen and it is certain they have not bothered any of the stock, they should be destroyed and burned".

"A check of the cattle by your veterinarian should not be overlooked, however, but to call in the department, when the attacking of any animal is not evident, means only additional work, and delay, and also added danger to the department staff handling the rabid animal."

"On the other hand though" he cautioned, "if there is any suspicion whatsoever the one thing not to do is to attempt an examination yourself."

"This is a dangerous procedure, which I cannot stress too strongly, and some owners, suspecting an inflamation in the mouth of the animal will attempt to examine it to find the cause of the soreness,

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Archer, of Blackstock, in the loss of their only daughter and son-in-law, the late Mr. and Mrs. Bertrum Smith, who were killed in a car accident as they were on their way home. former residents of Lochlin Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dugan attended the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Graham and family of Gelert, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Tompson Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hicks and and Noreen, of Carnarvon, also family, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Robertson.

"GOOD SKIPPER" TIPS

NEVER MAKE A SHARP TURN AT HIGH SPEED!

THE OUTBOARD BOATING CLUB OF AMERICA'S SURVEY OF SMALL BOAT ACCIDENTS SHOWED THAT HIGH SPEED TURNS ARE ONE OF THE LEADING CAUSES OF BOATING MISHAPS. THE MOST SEAWORTHY BOATS MAY CAPSIZE WHEN HANDLED THIS WAY. ASIDE FROM RISKING PASSENGERS, HIGH SPEED TURNS MAY DAMAGE BOATING EQUIPMENT, CAUSING EXTRA TION WEAR ON MOTOR AND STRAIN ON BOAT HULL, RESULTING IN SERIOUS LEAKS. SO, ALWAYS REDUCE SPEED BEFORE MAKING A QUICK TURN AND BE SURE PASSENGERS ARE PROPERLY SEATED. ALLOW NO HORSEPLAY!

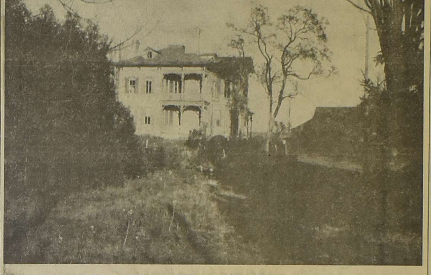
Third industry acquired, commissioner announces

"This old house"...



This old house which stands on Janetville's northern outskirts has seen a good many New Years come and go and, for a time, it looked as though the New Years it might greet in the future would be numbered. But that was before William Davis of Toronto came on the scene and bought it with a view to restoring its original beauty. Mr. Davis is seen below standing between two of the stately trees on the ground and the picture below is of an original oil painting which, along with many other treasures, was uncovered as he reopened and explored the home. He estimates its full restoration will take some time but it has been started and the marks of progress are evident.

Will employ 15 people; start work on factory

Lindsay Industrial Commission has announced the acquisition of its third industry since the organization was formed about a year ago. The announcement comes through Industrial Comissioner S. R. Pitts who says preliminary work on the site commenced today for the erection of a new factory at the corner of St. David and Denniston Sts. in Lindsay's industrial area. Plans for the plant were provided by Wm. Ridpath, Lindsay architect and the building is being constructed by M. Sule Construction Ltd., Peterborough.

Noting that the building is similar to the one being built on speculation by the same construction company, Mr. Pitts said the 6,500-foot struc-

William Cain

Was widely known as blacksmith

The funeral of William Cain, veteran blacksmith who passed away suddenly Saturday morning, took place this morning from St. Marys R.C. Church with interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

A son of the late Andrew Cain, the deceased in partnership with his brother Louis, had carried on his father's blacksmith shop for many years on Lindsay St. S.

Surviving their father is a son, John of New York and daughter, Gertrude (Mrs. Ben Kennedy) of Milwaukee. Brothers Louis and Frank also survive.

Pallbearers were: Louis Kirley, Albert Ashmore, John Walden, Martin Fox, Terry Ryan and James Fitzpatrick.

Oakwood man fractures leg in 3 places

Breaking one of his legs in three places was the unfortunate experience of an Oakwood area trucker preparatory to returning home after visiting neighbors Saturday night.

Lloyd Edwards, sustained the injuries when he slipped and fell as he and Mrs. Edwards were about to leave for home in their car after spending the evening at the home of Clark Trent, a member of the family related.

The injured man was taken to the Ross Memorial Hospital by Mr. Trent and returned to his home after being treated by Dr. T. W. L. Broadfoot. Although he is suffering considerable pain, Mr. Edwards will direct his trucking business from home. Business will be carried on as usual it was learned.

Reports all progress stopped in settling wage grievance

"All progress seems to be stopped in settling the wage grievances of the Victoria County jail guards", stated President Frank Brett of the Lindsay and District Labor Council.

"They (the jail guards) are kind of in a corner since the hearing of the Labor Relations Board in Toronto ruled that a Victoria County Council by-law applied in preventing them from joining the National Union of Public Employees with its ruling re wages, etc. Perhaps county council will deal with the matter", he added.

"Why such judgement was accorded the Victoria County guards right off the bat when judgement is usually reserved in the first hearing of such cases is still puzzling. For instance, other municipalities appearing before the Labor Relations Board at that same time had judgement deferred.

"It may be that the Victoria County jail guards are waiting to see if their wage troubles will be fairly dealt with at the next session of county council opening on January 15th. It is a well-known fact that employees do not seek union

EDITORIAL . . . .

SOME STATISTICS ARE FRIGHTENING

Some statistics are downright frightening and a Toronto writer has produced some which are in this category. Delving into the effects of increasing consumption of alcoholic beverages in Ontario, and recalling the terrible highway slaughter which occurred last summer when a youth who had been drinking heavily turned his car the wrong way on Highway 400, wiped out five lives and injured five others, the writer came up with these statistics;

- Drink was a factor in the deaths of 230 persons on Ontario roads and highways last year.
- Since the end of the war, Ontario's total population has risen 50 per cent. Ontario's alcoholic population has increased by nearly 300 per cent—from about 28,000 in 1946 to 105,000 today.
- These 105,000 Ontario alcoholics cost about $15 million a year in job absenteeism alone.
- There were 93 murders in Metro Toronto during the last five years. Liquor was involved in 69 of them.
- A Salvation Army study in Metro Toronto shows that during the last three years there has been a sharp drop in the average age of alcoholics —from 46 to 41.

It isn't necessary to go away from home to become aware of the disastrous consequences of increased and uninhibited drinking. All one has to do is attend Lindsay's Magistrate's Court on any of the days it is sitting or listen to the proceedings of the average inquest. The court hearings are predominantly of cases involving liquor . . . drunk driving, impaired driving, obtaining, supplying, consuming in a place other than that prescribed by law, and so forth. At many inquests involving traffic fatalities there is evidence that liquor in one of its forms was a factor although it may not be spelled out in the coroner's jury verdict.

These are things we know but so far no one has come up with an effective deterrent. Even suspension of one's driving privileges or a stay in jail seems to have little curative value and even if it does jolt some of us back to sanity, a new crop of victims quickly fills any gaps in the ranks. And the most fearful aspect of the trend is that there never was a time when the need for clear-headedness in the business of living was greater . . . . Applied specifically to the matter of motor travel and transport, it is bad enough to have to cope with "souped up" vehicles but combine them with "souped up" drivers and the potential is awesome to contemplate. Applied to all other spheres of living on the basis of the current trend in over-indulgence and the outlook is devastating. In view of this we believe the manufacturers of alcoholic beverages have a duty to perform: Warn the people that their product is a two-edged sword . . . show them things which can accrue as a result of abuse as well as the temporary pleasures of its use. If they have any difficulty unearthing this side of the story anyone who has been "over the road" could no doubt come to their assistance—They would probably be glad to if they thought it would help others to avoid the pitfalls they discovered through experience. Particular attention should be directed to those just starting out in life so they make their choice in such matters in the light of factual information and not based on glamorizing propaganda.

Reports and Remarks..

EXPENSE-ACCOUNT OTTAWA

"A bunch of the boys were whooping it up in the Malamute saloon." The late Robert W. Service did not say so, but it seems likely that the boys were treating each other. This is a carefree practice with a long informal history of good fellowship.

Grant Glassco and his miners have uncovered a similar practice in the Canadian civil service. Their report shows that treating is carried on among departments. Goods and services are passed back and forth without careful account being kept. In a year, an amount in excess of $110 million is spent.

A difference between affairs on the Ottawa and Yukon rivers is that Mr. Service's roisters were presumably spending their own money. The people Mr. Glassco tells about are not spending their own money. What they are treating each other with, in inter-departmental dealings, are tax funds. In effect, Ottawa is on an expense account.

A bunch of the boys are whooping it up. Their special kind of expense account does not even have to be padded to explain the $110 million, because on this they make no careful itemized accounting of what goes on among departments.

If, after working fairly hard for some years, you have not as much money as you had hoped to have, make a rough calculation of how much went in taxes. Then realize that some of it was swallowed up in this $110 million a year. As a good fellow who knows the pleasure of the treating system, you will appreciate that others are having a carefree time with your money. You will also know that this is what Big Government too often is — a bunch of the boys whooping it up on a non-itemized expense account, which you pay.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 7, 1913

The municipal elections held in Lindsay recently were the most exciting and strenuous in the history of Lindsay. From 9 o'clock until the polls closed at five in the evening the streets were alive with vehicles of all kinds drawing the electors to the polls. The mayoralty contest resulted in a decided victory for Mr. R. M. Beal over his opponent Dr. J. W. Wood.

Local Option Vote

The vote on the local option bylaw in Lindsay was an emphatic protest against the existence of the open bar in this municipality. True those who were favorable to the bylaw were robbed of victory by the three-fifths handicap still there were certain influences prominent in the campaign that made it exceedingly difficult to overcome this obstacle to the success of the measure. The antis predicted that they would defeat the bylaw on a straight vote, where as they were only able to secure majorities in four polling subdivisions.

JANUARY 7, 1938

Salem-Mariposa-Staff Correspondence–The home of William Moore was completely destroyed by fire recently, the blaze starting so suddenly that it was impossible to remove any of the contents of the house. At 10 o'clock overheated stovepipes are thought to have ignited the house and a strong west wind fanned the flames into an inferno in a few moments and the house was shortly reduced to a pile of ashes. Mr. Moore, who recently secured a position in Omemee was not at home when the fire took place, the occupants of the house being Miss Retta Moore and Ivan Moore. When the blaze started neighbours rushed to the scene but were unable to save anything from the house. The home furniture, etc., were a complete loss, no insurance was carried.

To Honour Dr. Logan

A banquet in honour of Dr. Fred A. Logan, well-known Lindsay physician, who leaves shortly to accept the position of Medical Superintendent of Toronto General Hospital, will be held at the Hotel Benson. The committee in charge of this banquet have made it a community affair.

This Day

Today is Monday, January 7th, the 7th day of 1963 with 358 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mars and Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Capricorn. The 13th President of the United States, Millard Fillmore, was born in New York State on this day in 1800.

On this day in history:

In 1789, the first election for a President of the United States took place throughout the U.S with George Washington winning the post.

In 1918, the Communist leader of Russia, Nikolai Lenin, established a dictatorship of the proletariat, abolishing the constituent assembly of his country.

In 1927, regular transatlantic telephone service was inaugurated between New York and London.

In 1960, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan left London by air on a 20-thousand mile tour of British Africa.

Needs old guns to aid training

24 Churchill Crescent,

The Editor,
The People Write,
The Lindsay Post.

Dear Sir:

May I use the service of your paper to write a few lines regarding hunter safety training. This training, in most cases, is sponsored by local conservation clubs for the benefit of the youth of the district. The course consists of instruction in the proper and safe handling of guns and sportsmanship in general. In order to obtain a hunting license today, a beginner must take this training. I believe it is of great benefit for any boy or girl to be able to handle firearms whether or not they ever go hunting and any boy or girl can stand instruction in sportsmanship.

The rudeness and ignorance shown by some elements of our population today on the highways and waterways and in our forests can sure stand some alteration. We all know of the strained relations between the farmer and hunter today. I believe this can be changed in the future by proper training of our youth. As we do not have a conservation or hunt club in Lindsay, a few of us local sportsmen are doing their work. Now, the main reason for this letter is that we are short of equipment. In order to improve this training we could sure use some old rifles or shotguns. I know there are many old firearms stored away some of which are not safe to be fired which could be of great use for training purposes. Condition means nothing as they would not be fired. At present we are using our own guns which are in most cases new and valuable. The boys are not getting enough gun handling and understanding, of the workings of difficult firearms. If anyone would like to help out by donating an old gun please contact the undersigned.

Hot Potato Salad

Would you like to make delicious Hot Potato Salad in minutes? It's easy. . . with brand new packaged Sliced Potatoes from Carnation Foods Company Limited.

Salad Recipe

1 package (6 ounces) dehydrated sliced potatoes; 1-1/4 teaspoons salt; 6 cups boiling water; 1/3 cup salad oil; 1/4 cup tarragon vinegar; 3/4 teaspoon salt; 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder; dash pepper; 1 medium onion thinly sliced; 1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper; 1/4 cup chopped pimiento.

Add sliced potatoes and 1-1/2 teaspoons salt to boiling water. Cover and simmer until tender, about 15 minutes. Drain well. Combine oil, vinegar, 3/4 teaspoon salt, garlic powder and pepper; heat. Toss hot potatoes, onion, green pepper and pimiento with hot dressing and serve.

Careful Thought

Gifts bought for the small fry should be chosen with careful thought to possible injury to children who love to put small toy parts into their mouth, nose or ears. Also, for the up-to-four-year olds, sharp edges should be looked for or any other hazards that could hurt the youngsters.

"Growing Pains"

"Growing pains" should not be regarded as a normal indication that the child is increasing his height. The pains in joints, muscles or bones could be indications of rheumatic fever, and, if there is also loss of appetite and pallor, he should be taken to a doctor.

Extra chlorine with freeze-up blamed for water's odour

"What has happened to the Lindsay water. Did they dump too much chlorine in it?" asked a resident enquiring about the pungent odour, "like that of javel water", coming from town taps.

"It is nothing injurious and nothing to worry about", assured Water Board Superintendent Robert Reynolds, explaining increased use of chlorine was necessitated at the filtration plant since the freezing over of the river.

"The extra chlorine was necessary to counteract the odor of gases dissolved in the water under the ice and brought into the plant. If we did not use extra chlorine we would have a much stronger odour from these gases, he said.

"However, with a thaw and the ice moving out the trouble will be eliminated", he added.

In Memoriam

HUDSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, Laura (Lottie), who passed away January 4, 1959.

What would I give if I could say
Hello, Mother, in the same old way;
To hear your voice, see your smile,
To sit with you and chat awhile
So you who have a mother,
Cherish her with care,
For you will never know the heartache,
Till you see her vacant chair.

Sadly missed by daughter, Helen. (3051)

Good attendance at Sunday School concert

Glenarm (PNS) — The Annual Glenarm Sunday School supper and program was held in the church where a splendid crowd were in attendance. This even is always held between Christmas and New Years so as not to conflict with school concerts in the community.

Prior to the programme a potluck supper was held in the schoolroom of the church where the food was blessed by Rev. MacDonald and after everyone had enjoyed a delicious meal the tables were cleared away and a very interesting programme was held with the minister as the chairman.

Recitations were given by Lorna Mary Brown, Darlene MacMillan, and Allan Webster, interspersed through the progamme while John and Janice Nesbitt contributed piano solos and Johannah Brown a vocal solo accompanied by Mrs. Victor Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sharman of Fenelon Falls were present and showed the most lovely pictures in color of the Santa Claus Parade, scenery in Florida and the Rose Bowl parade in California. From time to time Mr. Sharman commented on the various floats and pictures with the exception of one float with a horse statue the rest were live persons and flowers and all so beautiful there, seemed no pick or choice amongst them.

Rev. MacDonald thanked the crowd in attendance, the best in three years, members and teachers of the Sabbath School, while Mr. Joe E. Nesbitt on behalf of the Session added his thanks particularly to the Superintendent and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Nesbitt for the past two years and the teachers of the various classes. Mr. Nesbitt in replying thanked the children for turning out, without them there would be no Sabbath school and hoped that others would come and find a ready welcome; also to Mr. Sharman for taking the trouble to show the lovely pictures for not many of us, no doubt, will be able to see the parade otherwise.

Certificates were then given by the various teachers which include Mrs. Clifford Douglas to Lorna Brown; Candice Carnegie, Catherine Nicholson and Heather Riley, Bobby Nesbitt, Allan Nicholson and Jimmie and Darlene MacMillan. Mr. Ivan MacMillan to Allan and John Webster, John Nesbitt, David Black, David MacMillan and Jeremy Brown.

As only two of Mrs. Victor Webster's class were present, they being Janice Nesbitt and Johannah Brown.

The Senior boys were commended for their attendance which included John Jamieson, James Brown, Tommy Brown and Wayne Webster.

Robert Raikes Diplomas were presented to Catherine Nicholson, Jimmie and David MacMillan, Bobby and John Nesbitt and Allan Webster received his five year seal and Janice Nesbitt her second for their diplomas.

Rev. McDonald commented on the origin of Sabbath Schools, started in England in Gloucester over 165 years ago by a printer, Robt. Raikes and in telling in his paper of these schools and by 1784 there were schools in London too. The first in Canada was opened by a Mr. James Davidson in Pictou Nova Scotia, around 1778—Robert Raikes died in 1811 — His statue stands in London England and a replica is near the Parliament Buildings in Queen's Park, Toronto.

Allan and John Webster were commended for perfect attendance. They being there 45 Sundays during the year, several only missed a Sunday or so, the children were pretty faithful. Miss Darlene Webster was thrilled to receive a Gold Guard and Pin for 12 years attendance at Sabbath School. Rev. McDonald closed the 1962 concert with prayer.

MD cannisters yield $147

Contributions to the Muscular Dystrophy Fund were increased by $147 over the weekend when the cannisters that had been distributed to various merchants in Lindsay were collected and their contents counted.

Chairman of the fund, Alex McLaren said that the results had been gratifying, except that the drive had been marred by one unfortunate incident — the loss of three collection cannisters.

"This could have meant a sorely needed addition to the fund" he said, "and it is unfortunate it happened, but this seems to be the usual thing with every drive".

Three more areas are still to be heard from, he noted, Kirkfield, Bobcaygeon and Fenelon Falls.

Collection was made at Omemee and netted $15.

Helping in the recent collection were Inspector Norman Thomas, Firemen Harold Armstrong, Alex McLaren, Bill Brackett, Jack Miller, Ron O' Neill and Morris Jones.

MOVES TO TAKE CONTROL

The Central Congolese Government has moved to take direct control of breakaway Katanga Province. Congo Premier Adoula today signed papers delegating an administrative mission to take over provisional authority. The document was put in force in Leopoldville while U-N Under-Secretary Ralph Bunche was conferring with U-N military commanders in Elisabethville.

ADD FUEL

Opposing editorials in Soviet and Red Chinese publications added fuel today to the simmering ideological feud between the two Communist giants. A two-page editorial in the Soviet newspaper Pravda called the Peking Government a backer of "dogmatic, divisive views" within the Communist bloc. Red China's journal "Red Flag" in effect accused Russia of cowardice in the face of Western strength.

CONFIRM ATTACK

The British Air Ministry has confirmed that its 600 mile-an-hour Vilcan bombers staged a successful mock H-bomb attack on the United States . . . but there is a discrepancy over when it happened. London newspapers say it took place a few weeks ago. British officials say it was staged in October 1961, U-S Defense Department officials in Washington say the last such "raid" on the U-S by the British took place in 1960. The British raid—part of an exercise called "Skyshield Two"—reportedly flew over the North Pole and through Canada en route to the mock bombing of New York, Washington and other key cities. There also are unfirmed reports that Canadian Air Force planes took part in the raid.

IMMEDIATE HALT

Deputy Leader David Lewis of the New Democratic Party says Prime Minister Diefenbaker should put an immediate halt to military leaders who have been campaigning in favor of nuclear weapons. Speaking to the Jewish Labor Council in Toronto, he said the lobbying of air force officials for such weapons is undermining the world's desperate search for peace.

PRESIDENTIAL FORM

Early returns indicate Brazilian voters want to return their nation to a strong presidential form of government. Government officials predict 80 per cent of the nationwide total will favor scrapping the parliamentary system set up 16 months ago when leftist President Goulart came into office. A vote for a strong president and against the parliamentary rule would be considered an endorsement of Goulart.

CALLED TO INVESTIGATE

The Ontario Fire Marshal's Department of Arson experts have been called to investigate a 500-thousand dollar fire that destroyed the Palace Pier . . . long a Toronto landmark. The fire reached a storeroom containing two-thousand gallons of oil and the resultant explosion turned the building into a raging inferno.

Fan seizes, smokes; space heater blows

Two minor incidents were reported by the Lindsay Fire Department over the weekend.

A seized fan motor called them out Sunday evening to a Kent St. store. There was some smoke, but no other damage.

Sunday morning an oil space heater at the home of Gerald Kennedy, 16 Colborne St., E., exploded blowing open its doors.. There was no fire damage, only a little mopping up required, said Fire Chief Watson.

Dr. E. R. Birchard

Dr. E. Russell Birchard, son of the late James and Isabella Birchard of Lindsay, passed away at Brant Memorial Hospital, Burlington, on Sunday, January 6th.

Surviving besides his widow, the former Lillian Florence Champion is a daughter Dr. Edna Birchard of Hamilton and a son Dr. James Birchard of Belleville. Mrs. Arthur Tamblyn of Cambray also survives her brother.

Funeral services will be held in the Mackey Funeral Chapel on Wednesday with interment in Riverside Cemetery.

Third Industry

ture on a land area designed to allow for considerable expansion, will be rushed to completion as quickly as possible and will be the Canadian home of a long established manufacturing firm in the New England States with worldwide connections. When in production, the commissioner indicated it would employ some 15 skilled workmen.

Enlarging upon his announcement of the completion of arrangements to have the American firm locate in Lindsay, Mr. Pitts states the decision to build in Lindsay was arrived at following a survey of many municipalities. Many factors, he went on to say, entered into the decision, not the least of which was the fact that Lindsay offered a planned industrial site with services already installed.

"Continuing, the industrial commissioner said:

"Although having no connection with the 11,000 square foot premises being built by M. Sule Construction Limited, construction of the two plants will proceed simultaneously. Every effort is being made by the Industrial Commission and the Industrial Committee to secure a purchaser or tenant for the original plant so that it will be occupied as soon as complete.

"I feel that the decision of this highly regarded New England Company to locate here is an important one for the town of Lindsay. It is further proof that we can compete with the best in this keenly competitive field provided we are prepared to work at it and have the full cooperation of council and citizens.

Asked about the industrial outlook generally for 1963, Mr. Pitts said active negotiations are presently underway with several prospective industrial concerns, both in Canada and the United States, and that there is every reason to believe that Lindsay can look forward to a period of much needed industrial growth.

"One of our first concerns is to make every effort to secure a good industry for the Canadian Arsenals which will be closing at the end of March. Contracts have already been established and negotiations are under way. We are receiving excellent cooperation from the Ontario Department of Economic Development and other industrial placement media," Mr. Pitts said.

The three industries acquired for the town so far include a manufacturer of wire products, already in production; a branch of a plywood processing concern, expected to get going shortly; and the industry referred to above, the name of which has not yet been released for publication at the company's request.

Fish hut operator drowns off Jackson's Pt. Sunday

A professional fish hut operator, father of four children, was drowned about two miles off Jackson's Point in Lake Simcoe about 2.30 Sunday afternoon.

Police say Bruce Thompson, 45, summer gardener and winter operator of an ice hut rental service, was drowned when the auto scooter he had driven out in the lake plunged through thin ice. The ice in this section of the lake varies from five to six inches in depth. Mr. Thompson was drilling bait holes prior to erecting fish huts in that vicinity. At present there are 75 or 80 fish huts already in operation around the shoreline.

A search for the drowned man's body, under Fire Chief Harold Snook of Sutton, resulted in its recovery around 6 p.m. Sutton Police Chief Cliff Mosher was in charge of the investigation and was kept busy keeping a large crowd of onlookers back from the dangerously thin ice.

Pontypool tobacco farm fire destroys $26,000 crop

$26,000 was the loss estimated in a Pontypool barn fire in which the entire 1962 tobacco crop of George Van Dam was destroyed. "It is very discouraging but we can't give up", said Mrs. Van Dam who with her husband has operated the 28-acre farm, one mile south of Pontypool on Highway 35 since 1947. She further disclosed the loss was partly covered by insurance.

The fire which started at 3.45 p.m. last Thursday, was first noticed by a passing trucker. Pontypool fire brigade was called but the building was too far gone to bring the blaze under control.

The storing of a 25-ton tobacco crop all cured and ready for sale to a Delhi warehouse, was completed one week before Christmas, Mrs. Van Dam stated "and the cause of the blaze is still a mystery."

Mayor recovers in time for inaugural meeting

Mayor Joseph C. Holtom is back at work. After a lengthy bout with the flu, he was at his office desk this morning getting things shipshape for tonight's big do — the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's 1963 council.

Mayor Holtom says he is expecting a large attendance at this annual function where citizens have opportunity of meeting their elected representatives in person. The ceremonies will start at 8 p.m.

With the mayor's inaugural address, the appointment of council committee chairmen and congratulatory messages from tonw and county officials past and present, the evening promised much of high interest.

Closing with the serving of refreshments, the evening will take the form of a social get-together.

Missing from the council table will be Reeve Lloyd Found, at present holidaying in the Barbados. Other council members are Deputy-reeve George Finney, councillors Russell Taylor, Joseph Hutton, Leslie Neil, Ernest MacCalder, and newly-elected, Carl Brown Sr., and John Eakins.

Christmas tree pile fired on afternoon of big burn, salvage enough for night

Fire, set by two unknown boys, to the pile of over 2,000 Christmas trees gathered for the big annual "Christmas Tree Burning" south of Riverview Park, was brought under control by the fire department Saturday afternoon after it had burnt about 50 trees.

Fire Chief A. Watson said his department had been called about 2.30 p.m. Saturday and on arriving at the scene found the pile "burning fiercely".

Police were called, after a witness had reported seeing two boys run from the scene but no one was apprehended.

Later in the evening, the "Tree Burning got under way and was enjoyed by about 600 to 700 people.

80 deaf children attend party

About 80 deaf children attended the first Christmas party held by Peterborough District Association for Deaf Children in the USW Hall, McDonnell St., Peterboro.

They were entertained with a lively program emceed by Ray Crary, George Douglas and Leslie Maudsley performed as clowns and Stanley McBride as Santa, giving gifts to all the children. Selected films were shown by Alfred Bowser, and Gordon Hanes was assisting.

The party had to be held after Christmas because the children didn't arrive home from the Belleville school until the 24th. It was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGregor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sicoli.

To raise money for the party the associations held a turkey draw and cleared well over $100.

The winner of the turkey was Harry Jensen of Port Credit, and the consolation prize, a Christmas cake, went to Mrs. Elva Bertrand of 138 Rubidge St.

Noticed along the way

No one need go to bed hungry in Lindsay tonight if they care to attend the Inaugural meeting of the 1963 Lindsay Council upstairs in the Town Hall. After the new council has taken office and the usual speeches concluded, free refreshments are to be served.

Used Christmas trees aren't without uses but sometimes they're useless when put to certain uses. From the trucks making the Christmas tree pickup rounds on Saturday morning provided proof of this when it slipped off the road into a snow-camouflaged ditch. Trees aboard the truck were removed and jammed under the rear wheels but they proved useless as an aid in getting it out of its predicament. It was in too deep. A heavier type truck came to its rescue with a towline.

It sometimes takes mail a long time to get from one point in Lindsay to another. A resident says he was delightfully surprised on Saturday to receive a Christmas card from friends who, he feared, had been neglectful about mailing early. Relating the incident, he said: "I was so pleased about getting the card, however late, that I forgot until afterwards to check the postal marking to see when it was mailed . . in fact, it wasn't until the wife remarked that it had taken a long time to get there that I sat up and took notice. As usual, she was right. The card had been mailed on December 6th., 1962 and this was January 5th., 1963. . . Did you say something about a "slowdown" going to start in Post Offices across Canada?"

Lindsay couple and family tour Maritime provinces

A winter holiday trip by motor to the Maritimes and back provided Mr. and Mrs. Barney Rogers and son Ron and daughter Marlene, Adelaide Street S. with many cherished memories and to the young students, in particular, it was a trip when geography and history "became alive" for them.

Great ocean liners at Halifax were of interest also a great new fishing boat bought from Switzerland. Spring Hill in Nova Scotia was visited because of the great mine disaster of a few years ago. The town is still showing the terrible effects but a new mine has been recently opened. The Lindsay travellers took the ferry across to Prince Edward Island and toured Charlottetown, the capital city and back to the mainland to Fredericton New Brunswick.

The Magnetic Hill in New Ilfeg in the city.

Brunswick still holds its mystery.

In Quebec City en route home they saw hundreds of worshippers coming out of every church on Sunday and because of the steep icy streets car transportation was at a minimum. The conducted tour of the city including the Plains of Abraham and Wolfe's Cove was one of the highlights of the trip because of its historical interest.

Re the weather and the road conditions Mrs. Rogers said "Christmas Day was sunny and lovely, but there were snow storms and the roads were terribly icy all the way there and back but altogether it was a nice experience."

Their visit with Mrs. Rogers' aunt Mrs. Irene Yeadon and husband and family in Halifax here they spent Christmas was ideal and also with cousins and their fam-

Charged following deaths of pups

Ross Heasman, of Omemee is slated to appear before Magistrate Moore, charged that he did "unlawfully, and wilfully cause unnecessary pain and suffering to animals".

The charge followed the questioning of the Omemee man by police after the death of three two-day-old pups on a local garbage dump sometime in December.

Mental hospital reports called "strange summation"

A Bobcaygeon man who recently escaped from the Ontario Hospital in Whitby, where he was committed for observation, by Magistrate Moore some weeks ago, will be returned to Lindsay this week, it was learned today.

A letter read in Monday's court by the magistrate, which he called a very strange summation, stated in part the J. C. Hilyer, committed for investigation and observation was found to be "unstable and has psychopathic traits, but is neither mentally ill nor mentally defective" and signed by T. A. Sweet, M.D., Acting Superintendent.

"I am mystified by the summation", remarked his worship, "as it seems so contradictory".

Hilyer had been remanded to the hospital following assault charges, and complaints from jail officials regarding his actions. Using abusive language, refusing to co-operate, and an attempt to escape from his cell by digging at the bricks with a spoon, while singing to cover up the noise, were further reasons for his removal to the hospital.

He had been found guilty of issuing bad cheques and pointing an offensive weapon, and after the trial, had assaulted a police officer and had to be carried out of the room.

Counsel blames sedatives, court finds impairment

A Peterboro man, Joseph L. Paquette, charged with drunk driving, was found guilty in court Friday, on a reduced charge of being impaired and fined $150 and costs, or 21 days.

Investigating OPP Const. R. McGreggor testified that he had been called to the scene of the accident on highway 7 near Taylor's Corners around 4 p.m. December 30, and had found the accused's car in the ditch, on its wheels, against a fence.

After questioning, the accused was taken to the county jail, he said.

Defence Counsel W. B. Gordon told the court that his client had taken sedative tablets while visiting friends in Lindsay, that same day, and had decided to drive home.

"There were only minor damages to the car, your worship, (the investigating officer estimated damage at about $100) no injuries, and no other persons involved, and I would ask you to consider these points."

STOP! . . . killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

HERE'S A STORY WITH A MORAL, PERHAPS

With all you have been hearing about the dangers of smoking too much and eating high cholesterol-type foods like eggs and milk, I think you will be interested in the quotation from "Lancet," a well known British Medical Association publication. I will not attempt to editorialize or draw any conclusions. I'll leave that up to you.

"Once upon a time there was a very poor country where nobody had enough to eat, and the average expectation of life was 24 years. There was also a very rich country where everybody had plenty to eat, and the average expectation of life was 64 years.

In the very rich country, people used to save up milk and butter and cream and eggs and send them to the very poor country where they were distributed, especially to the children who would otherwise have had none.

"In this way the expectation of life in the very poor country was raised from 24 to 27 years. Meanwhile the expectation of life in the very rich country was rising too and went up from 64 to 67 years, and everyone who did not die of cancer of the lung from smoking too many cigarettes, died of coronary thrombosis.

"Then someone discovered that coronary thrombosis was due to eating and drinking too much milk and butter and cream and eggs in the very rich country. So they sent all these materials to the very poor country might be raised high enough for them to start dying of coronary thrombosis so that they, too, could stop eating and drinking milk and butter and cream and eggs."

So the moral is — well, what is it?

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE AT 22

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have been married to a man of 22 for two years. A few months ago my husband went to a doctor because of suffering severe headaches. He was greatly surprised to learn that his blood pressure is very high. Isn't that unusual for his age? The doctor is giving him some tranquilizers and wants to see him again in a few weeks. Is it serious at his age? Mrs. B.

Comment: In over 90 per cent of the cases of high blood pressure we don't know the cause. We call these cases of "essential hypertension." Usually they begin in later life.

When we come across a patient in his 20's, like your husband, who has a high pressure, it is advisable to make a few tests to rule out the cause.

In his case it may not be essential hypertension; the cause may be due to disease of one kidney; to coarctation (narrowing) of the aorta (large blood vessel leading from the heart); to a tumor we call a pheochromocitoma.

Be sure that your husband returns to keep his appointment. If his blood pressure hasn't returned to normal, the doctor will want to begin taking special tests to rule out the conditions I have mentioned.

Once the diagnosis has been made, removal of the cause often brings the blood pressure down to normal as if by magic. Whereas, in the essential hypertension type, the treatment is long, drawn-out and consists mainly in the use of the new anti-hypertensive drugs.

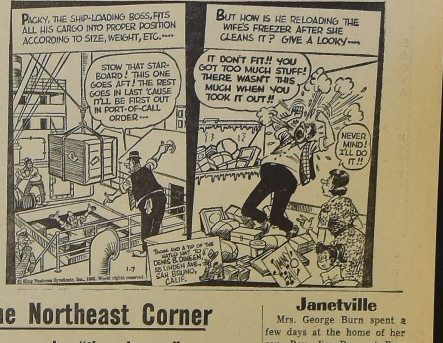
They'll Do It Every Time

Registered U. S. Patent Office — By Jimmy Hatlo



The Northeast Corner

by "the observer"

"Lindsay, the friendly town". This was a designation that Lindsay enjoyed for quite a number of years. It probably originated over 50 years ago when the businessmen of the town got together when they realized that they had to show a real sense of friendship to all those who came from the rural areas. Today, I fear that grand old motto has blown away with the winds and instead of "Lindsay, the Friendly Town" it has changed in the last few years to "Lindsay, the Grab Town".

In the old days travel from outlying points was, of course, by train. It was quite a common thing for trains coming to Lindsay on Saturdays to have three and four extra coaches attached to carry the extra passengers. The horse-drawn cabs would be at the station to meet every incoming train and for 10 or 15 cents carry their passengers uptown to Kent Street or to whatever hotel happened to be their choice. Hotels were quite numerous. The Payne House stood where Woolworths store is now. The Butler House where now stands Fee Motors. The Simpson House at the corner of York and Kent Street and several other hotels have disappeared with time.

In winter time when the farmers drove into town and maybe with a load of farm produce, every hotel had a large stable at the rear so that the farmer could stable and feed and water his team and have them ready for the return journey home. Every hotel had its bar room where the men could gather and enjoy one or two drinks of their favorite beverage. There were always one or two extra stable boys who helped the farmers unhitch their teams and feed and water them and also help them to hitch up to the sleighs when they were leaving for home. All these extras were "on the house" unless the farmer gave a small tip to the stable-boy in appreciation of his help. It also created a friendly relationship between the farmer and the hotel-keeper.

It is generally estimated that about one half the cars parked on Kent Street and on the Parking Lots belong to rural customers that live outside the Corporation of the Town of Lindsay and have come to town to do their weekly shopping. A lot of people living in Lindsay don't even take their cars downtown to carry their groceries home. The inconvenience of finding a place to park and the meter charges make them feel it is just as cheap and handier to give the delivery truck a few nickels to deliver their groceries home for them.

"Lindsay, The Friendly Town". As soon as a customer from Ops or Mariposa or any outside municipality comes to Lindsay and wants to park on Kent Street, (if he can find space) the first sign of friendship to greet him is a parking meter into whose bowels he must deposit a penny or a nickel for whatever time, he wishes to park. If he is unavoidably detained and doesn't get back to his car before the time has expired and the meter man comes along, he gets a ticket for 50 cents and for his convenience he can deposit his fine in a receptacle for that purpose. If he doesn't pay up promptly he gets a summons to appear in court and he will pay extra costs.

In spite of all this Lindsay boasts as being a friendly town. He has come to town to leave five or ten, 20 or 50 dollars with the merchants and businessmen on Kent St. but woe betide him if he does not keep the parking meter full and observe the regulations of the Lindsay Parking Meter bylaw. And this American fad has spread clean across Canada. Any town of any size is afflicted with the curse.

It has always been my contention that any council of any municipality that cannot finance the operation of their municipality by the levy they make for taxes, then there is something seriously wrong with their method of financing.

Again, consider the unfairness of their method of financing. There are approximately 16 municipalities in Victoria County each with different population. The southern townships are well populated while the northern are sparsely populated. Nevertheless every municipality is making its contribution towards financing the town of Lindsay. If the rural municipalities contribute one half of the money raised by the town of Lindsay by way of meter revenue then would it me not be only fair and gentlemanly that Lindsay should rebate to each municipality their fair share according to their population. This might be at least one way of convincing the inhabitants of the rural areas that Lindsay is a friendly town and really wants their patronage. A farmer told me when meters were first introduced that the grass would be growing green on Kent Street before Lindsay would get a nickel out of him.

A lot of people are wondering what will become of some of the lovely stores on Kent Street if and when the new shopping centre is built to the west of the town. The merchants of Lindsay could hardly afford to sacrifice 50% of their trade. If this centre is built it will be ultra-modern in every respect with an abundance of parking space and no parking meters. And we would like to wager that a man in overalls walking down Kent Street would be a real oddity Also a lot of the inhabitants of the town would find their way to the shopping centre where parking was free and no problem.

Today, if the town fathers

Hog cholera spreads in Quebec

Seven more herds have been stricken with hog cholera in Quebec.

The Department of Agriculture reports that almost 900 hogs have had to be slaughtered.

The cases were reported in St. Hyacinthe, Maskinonge and Chicoutimi counties.

Since mid-December, when the disease was discovered on 10 farms in the St. Hyacinthe district, about 13-hundred hogs have been slaughtered and buried in the province. —UPI create a small parking lot, then of course the first thing they do is desecrate it with parking meters. Apparently no one yet foresees the impact the shopping centre would have on the town. If they do foresee the signs of this eventuality then nothing is being done about it.

BONSPIEL MENTIONS

Visitors to the annual Walkwood Mixed Bonspiel on Saturday included a former Lindsay curler in the person of Bud Martin, now of the Toronto Granite Club.

Vern Thurston, a native curler of Bobcaygeon, now a member of the Toronto Globe and Mail, skipped a rink in the bonspiel. Vern, has made it a practice to visit the Lindsay Club two or three times a season.

Jack Mosley of Peterboro, was welcomed back to Lindsay and he was a member of one of the winning rinks.

A seven-end is unusual in curling but it does happen "in the best of regulated rinks". Skip Stan Pitts managed one over on his opponent Stan Edmonds and thereby won a prize.

Jim Anderson, last year's icemaker at the Peel Street rink, played with a Toronto quartet in the event. James is a member of the Avonlee Club in Toronto.

Accepting Entries

Ken Richmond, chairman of the Lindsay Mixed Bonspiel is accepting entries for the annual event to be played February 16, 23 and 24.

Wins Four Cars

Ernie Richardson and his curling stars won four compact cars at Regina Saturday. The Richardson rink defeated all comers in a 32-star-studded entry list.

BACK IN SPOTLIGHT

Football was back in the spotlight again yesterday in the form of three bowl games—one professional and two college. At Miami, the Detroit Lions knocked over the Pittsburgh Steelers, 17-10 in a rough and tumble National Football League runnerup bowl game. The passing of Milt Plum and running of Kenny Webb spelled the difference for the Lions. Plum threw to Webb for one touchdown, and Webb scored another on a run. L-S-U quarterback Lyn (CQ) Amadee passed for one touchdown, scored another and kicked a field goal to spark the East to a 38-10 win over the West in the Crusade Bowl at Baltimore. The passing and play-calling of Wisconsin's Ron Vanderkelen sparked the North to a 20-13 come from-behind win over the South in the Hula Bowl at Honolulu.

REAFFIRMED CONFIDENCE

Chicago Bears' owner George Halas has reaffirmed confidence in his players. Halas said yesterday he was convinced that none of his players ever tried to shave points or otherwise fix football games. Halas expressed his confidence following an incident in which bear star Rick Casares revealed he had taken, and passed, two tie tests in connection with "fix" rumors. Halas said no more lie tests are planned for Bear players, but Casares said he thinks one or two more players will take the tests.

TWO-SHOT LEAD

Art Wall carries a two-shot lead going into today's final round of the 50-thousand-dollar Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament. Wall shot a four-under par 67 yesterday for a total of 205. Grouped at 207 are John Pott, Paul Bondeson, Bud Holscher and Ed Furgol. Ten golfers, including Arnold Palmer, are tied at 208. Following his sub par round yesterday, Wall said, "pretty good for a guy who was shovelling snow in Pennsylvania last week."

ALL TEAMS IDLE

All teams in both the National and American Hockey League are idle tonight. In last night's National League action, Toronto moved into a first place tie with Chicago by downing the Black Hawks 5-1. Elsewhere, Montreal blanked New York 6-0 and Boston fought Detroit to a 5-5 deadlock. American League action saw Providence bump Pittsburgh 4-3, Hershey down Baltimore 7-2 and Buffalo edge Quebec 3-2 in overtime. Rochester and Springfield battled to a 6-6 overtime tie.

Woollard entry wins Walkwood mixed 'spiel second year running

Skip Ab Woollard, of Bobcaygeon, gave a striking example of his ability as a curler when for the second consecutive season he piloted a rink to victory and won first place in the annual Walkwood Mixed Bonspiel at Lindsay, annexed the beautiful trophy and was presented with lovely prizes. Skip Woollard was supported by his wife Jean, Tom Tozia and Mrs. Pearl Ford.

The 24-rink event was played on the points system and the Woollard four went to the top with a score of 47.

Ted Shea of Bobcaygeon had to win the last four ends of his game against Bud Martin's Toronto rink to finish in second place with a score of 45 points. This quartet included Stella Taylor, Bill Shea and L. Pearson.

Veteran Jeff Edwards, Mrs. Jane Edwards and Cliff and Gladys Laidley were close contenders with 44 points and Stan Pitts marked up a 7-end in the second frame to finish fourth against Stan Edmonds, who was nip and tuck in fifth place. The rinks: Stan Pitts, Mrs. Marion Pitts, George Fuester and Mrs. Anne Fuester. Stan Edmonds, Skip, Mrs. Gladys Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Boyse.

Fifth place and prizes for the highest score with two losses went to Reg Rowland-son, Skip, Mrs. Rene Rowland-son, Jack Mosley and Mrs. Grant Mosley.

Prize winners were profuse in thanking President Lou Walker of Walkwoods Ltd., and Mrs. Walker for sponsoring the annual event which was judged a complete success.

Appreciations were expressed to the workers "behind the scenes" which included Miller Shields who handled the draw, Mrs. Jean Ferguson and Mrs. Jean Eberts who looked after the event; Mrs. Velma Mackey Mrs. Chris McElroy and Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, (the latter being the head of the bonspiel committee) as well as to the icemakers.

Presentations of awards were made by Lou and Gussie Walker, Ladies Club President Fern Reynolds, Past President Em Haugh, Jane Edwards, Past President Ken Richmond and Vice-President Don Ferguson. The ladies served a lovely buffet dinner and hospitality was of a high standard.

Lindsay Juvenlies did the right thing at the right time at the Kiwanis Arena Friday night when they put on just about the best game in Lindsay's Juvenile history in appreciation of the best crowd of the season. Incidentally they won the game 6-2 over Orillia Secondary but the score seems secondary in view of the improvement in their game. In contrast to recent games with upwards of 30 penalties going into the records, Friday night both teams excelled themselves. In the clear, hard hitting game, referee Bill Crowley of Peterboro, called but eight penalties. There was one penalty to each team in the first period, one to each team in the second, and two a side in the final session.

Lindsay led 3-2 at the end of the first period, added three goals in the second period and that completed the scoring as brilliant goal tending in the final period highlighted the play. Orillia opened the scoring on a breakaway early in the first period. Lindsay got the tie less than a minute later and went one up just after the five-minute mark. Eight minutes later Orillia tied the score again only to have the local Juevniles go one up again before the period ended. The three Lindsay goals in the second period came after three, ten, and 14 minutes of play. No goals were scored when the teams were shorthanded.

Pat McCabe and Gerry Lywood scored two each for Lindsay, Lozon and Heffernan added one each. Orillia goals were scored by Ego and Micks. The passing plays of both teams were something to see with the Hennessey hustlers being more effective inside the opponents blue-line. The fine play of the Lindsay defencemen gave the Orillia attackers few good chances and alternating goalies Wayne Jackett and Doug Broad took care of all but two of them. The Orillia goalie had some difficulty in the first two periods but was unbeatable the rest of the way. No doubt the well packed south side of the Arena helped the boys in turning in a very commendable game.

SCORING SUMMARY

First Period: Orillia - Ego from Jeremey 1:36; Lindsay - Pat McCabe from Ray McCabe and Frocking 2:10; Lindsay Lywood from Hefferman 5:05; Orillia - Micks from Mitchell and Rankin 13:20; Lindsay - Lywood from Pillsworth 17:03.

Penalties: Robertson, Orillia (kneeing) 10:46; Lindsay R. McCabe (highsticking) 19:29.

Penalties: Orillia - McKelvey (charging) 4:25; Lindsay - Frocking (slashing) 11:50.

3rd Period: No Scoring.

Penalties: Orillia - McKelvey (tripping) 5:45; Lindsay - Bowery (holding) 6:44; Lindsay - Morasse (holding 10:04; Orillia - McKelvey (high sticking) 13:29.

1963 tax cut possible, Mayor says at inaugural

If invasion isn't stopped, '63 warden may be last from county — Warden Alton

"If this invasion is not stopped, this may be the last year you will see a warden elected from the County of Victoria," warned Warden John Alton at the inaugural meeting of Lindsay Council on Monday night. He made the statement after pointing out that in 1963 a resident of Metro Toronto would take seat on county council. Warden Alton was referring to deputy-reeve elect Russell Doyle for Eldon township and also to the fact that the four seats on Carden Township council have been filled by three cottagers and one resort operator.

"A member of council meets local people every day of the week to discuss problems, etc . . . How can that service be rendered by people living in Toronto?" he asked. Referring to the Metro invasion of Victoria County, he said: "I hate to see this. . .people of Toronto controlling the County of Victoria. Local people take part in municipal affairs for the love of the people in the municipality and have their interests at heart.

"I hope it will be seen that we have government by the people and for the people in the County of Victoria", he emphatically summed up.

Woodville returns Campbell for fifth consecutive time

Woodville returned J.W. (Jack) Campbell is its reeve, for the fifth consecutive time at the polls Monday night.

Edging out former councillor Garnet Day by only 26 votes, Mr. Campbell polled 118 against Mr. Day's 92.

Brought in by acclamation were three councillors, Gord English, Andrew Jewell, James Nicholls, and Ray Burton, a former councillor.

Lack of nominations for trustee posts cancelled out their election until such times as others can be nominated.

Hinges on the county and schools

There is a good possibility of a tax reduction for Lindsay ratepayers this year. That's the pre-budget forecast of Mayor Joseph Holtom made at the 1963 inaugural meeting of council.

Qualifying his forecast Mayor Holtom said: "This year I e'xpect the county demands should be down, and if the school boards do not ask too much of an increase, I would suggest that there is a good possibility of a tax reduction this year . . . Now here is a real challenge for the finance committee".

Mayor Holtom was addressing his remarks to both the audience and the town's advisory and finance committee which will again be chaired by Councillor Russell Taylor this year. Explaining its function and stressing the need for constant examination of methods

There's nothing like a bucket partly full of coppers, nickles, dimes and quarters to touch off a little speculation . . . speculation as to how much money there really is in it. When Lindsay firemen had rounded up all their Muscular Dystrophy cannisters on Saturday and emptied their coin contents into a galvanized pail, several guesses were made as to how much would it amount to . . . They were all wrong but they were wrong on the right side — there was more than they guessed there was. The final tally showed the cannisters had $147 worth of coins to help combat the dread disease—muscular dystrophy. Getting set to count the coins in the lower picture are, left to right, Firemen Don O'Neill and Morace Jones and Inspector Norman Thomas. The fire hall pet also was preparing to get into the act.

Reeve Boyd Austin returned by 244 vote majority in Somerville contest

Incumbent Reeve Boyd Austin Kinmount businessman, was returned to office by Somerville Township voters Monday night with an overwhelming majority of 244 over his opponent Norman Taylor.

Mr. Taylor, only opposition to the reeve polled 154 against Mr. Austin's 398.

Deputy-reeve Gardie Grasden was returned by acclamation.

Five contestants for the three council seats, polled as follows, Harold Chynoweth 188; Chester Godwin, 298; Isaiah Reeds, 174; Fred Rumney, 214, and Morris Watson 353, giving the seats to Godwin, Rumney and Watson.

Other runners-up for the Trusteeship were Stan Smith 139, Gladys Suggitt 109, and Charles Taylor 67.

Township Clerk and Assessor Ralph Byrne told "The Post" that there were a few cottagers present but a letter had been received from the Ratepayers' Association President Thos. Rogers of Toronto, that the whole association would be behind whatever council was chosen.

"In fact, if it will help any" (Mr. Byrne quoted Mr. Rogers) we will bring up a few carloads."

Mr. Byrne said it had been a quiet election.

FURTHER CONFIRMATION

A few evenings ago the Ross Memorial Hospital's Board of Governors was told that hospital accomodation was being taxed to the limit and that thoughts of further expansion might have to be entertained at an early date. At this week's inaugural meeting of Lindsay Council, RMH Governor George Hodgson was even more specific—He suggested it was possible that the public might be called upon to support a further expansion program in one or two years' time.

This development isn't entirely unexpected. Almost anyone could see what was likely to develop when more people became eligible for hospital treatment by reason of the Ontario Hospital Plan. Many people who otherwise would never be able to contemplate hospital treatment for a variety of ailments apart from emergency or elective surgery, or other conditions which simply couldn't be treated at home, now take hospitalization as a matter of course for most ailments. This, coupled with the fact that there is a growing population of chronically ill people with no chronic hospital provision (in this area) except of a private nature, has quickly commandeered the space provided by recent additions to most hospitals.

A question which might be raised at this time is: If the need for expansion is either here or fast approaching, how much expansion can the existing hospital stand and in what direction? When the existing expansion was agreed upon, it was (if memory serves correctly) the understanding that future expansion would take the form of upward additions to the present hospital. Does this still hold true or just what is contemplated? These are things the public will be starting to enquire about and the answers will be anticipated with interest.

Reports and Remarks..

THE TRUTH ABOUT FOOD FRAUDS IN ITALY

For some time there have appeared, in the Italian and foreign press, stories concerning fraudulent practices supposedly perpetrated by the Italian food industry. These stories have resulted in an understandable feeling of apprehension, also among those abroad who import Italian foodstuffs, and have led Italian health authorities to intervene in order to ascertain to what extent the press reports were correct.

The reports were often found to be confused, but the alleged frauds have proved to be exclusively of an economic nature, having no harmful effect whatsoever on public health. In one isolated instance a limited quantity of Parmigiano cheese with a fat content below the standard set by law found its way to a number of restaurants. When health inspectors discovered this irregularity, the press promptly capitalized on it by saying that the cheese contained plastic materials. The truth is that hard cheeses, when found to be below the standards set by health authorities, are not made available for general consumption, but are released to factories which utilize the casein content in the manufacture of buttons and combs. —Italian Trade Topics

JANUARY 8, 1913

Mr. J. I. Johnston, the popular superintendent of St. Paul's Church Sunday School and Mr. Alex Timms, ex-superintendent, were the recipients of gold mounted umbrellas. The presentation was made by Rev. Cannon Marsh on the behalf of the teachers and Young Men's Bible Class of the church.. Both gentlemen acknowledge the gifts by brief addresses.

Slide Opens

Lovers of tobogganing will be pleased to learn that Mr. Garnet Corley has built a otboggan slide at the sand pits which will be formally opened tonight. It will be used for togogganing only, and is in first class shape for this favorite pastime.

Results of voting

The Ops municipal election resulted in the election of Councillors Walden, Maloney, Best and Brock.

JANUARY 8, 1938

The heavy snow storm of New Year's Eve cost the town of Lindsay $500.00. That is the amount of wages paid to the men and trucks engaged in clearing the snow from local streets. Hundreds of truckloads of snow were dumped in the river from Kent Street and adjoining thoroughfares. Fifty men and ten trucks were engaged in the work and a total of 990 labor hours were turned in by the men. Pay day is today at the town hall and the men are getting their cheques. Cheques for election work will be available soon.

Thank Mayor

At the close of the meeting of the Lindsay Water Board, a motion of appreciation for the services of Mayor H. D. Logan during 1937 was moved by Stuart Flavelle.

SAVE THE DAY HELP THE CAUSE

A large vote of thanks are due to Mr. E. Junkin and to our local fire department, whose quick action saved the Christmas trees from a premature burning Saturday afternoon. In addition, our thanks to the many merchants who assisted us by providing trucks, drivers, fuel oil, etc. Our thanks also to the Board of Works for clearing the bonfire site. And last, but not least, our thanks to all the Cubs, Scouts, leaders and group committee men who contributed their time and efforts. We were pleased to have D.C. John Joyce and Scouter Ev Corneil up from Omemee for the occasion.

SCOUT WEEK

"A Salute to Scouting Around the World" is the theme of Boy Scout Week, this year from February 17th to 24th. We suggest that all Groups and Sections take full advantage of the suggested activities outlined in the pamphlet mailed earlier to all Scouters.

WOOD BADGE COURSES

The following Wood Badge Training Courses will be held at Blue Springs Scout Reserve, near Acton, next summer.

Pack Scouters — July 7-July 13, July 21-July 27, July 28-Aug. 3, Aug. 10-Aug. 17.

Troop Scouters — June 29-July 7, July 13-July 21, Aug. 10-Aug. 18, July 19-21, 26-28, Aug. 2-5 (weekend).

Be sure to attend the District Council meeting on Monday, January 14th, 7:30 p.m. at the County Court House.

1ST LINDSAY

A six-hour hike has been planned for next Saturday in the vicinity of Hillcrest. The boys, using snow-shoes, will be walking on compass bearings, map reading and estimating distances. Fire lighting and terrain sketching will also form part of the outing.

3RD LINDSAY

Scouter Bill Mitchell plans to show colour slides of the Troop's summer camp at this week's meeting. This ought to be a rare treat!

This Day

Today is Tuesday, January 8th, the 8th day of 1963 with 357 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mars and Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Capricorn.

On this day in history:

In 1815, General Andrew Jackson won the battle of New Orleans, killing some 700 British troops and wounding 14-hundred more.

In 1867, Congress enacted legislation providing suffrage for Negros in the District of Columbia.

In 1917, the United States Supreme Court upheld the Webb-Kenyon Act which prohibited the shipment of alcoholic beverages from "wet" to "dry" states.

In 1918, President Woodrow Wilson spelled out his "fourteen points" before congress on which he hoped to base a "Peace of Justice" after World War One.

Cresswell

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Murray were Miss Rita Truax and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens who recently purchased the Acton property in the village have moved back near their former residence, and the property is again up for sale. The community regrets that they found it impossible to continue on here due to the inaccessibility to Mr. Stevens' employment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Veenhof and four children spent several days visiting relatives in Oshawa.

Very glad to report Mr. Milton Ormerod home from Ross Memorial Hospital, where he underwent surgery. He is now much improved, and many good wishes for his continued good health are extended to him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shields and daughters, Stephanie and Sandra, of Scarboro and Mrs. Fred Carter of Little Britain spent New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brown.

Mrs. Mary MacDonald is frail health and is spending some time in Starr Haven Rest Home in Little Britain. All hope that it will not be too long until she will be able to return to her home here.

Mrs. George Eddy is much improved from her long illness due to burns last August and is now able to be out for short periods of time.

Post-Holiday Slump

This is the season of the post-holiday cooking slump, when many cooks want a rest from holiday chores. Here's a glamorous dinner menu that's easy on your energy and time.

Almond Crunch Chicken

Almond Crunch chicken to serve four. Dip one three-pound cut-up fryer in a mixture of the following: one cup sour cream, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one teaspoon each celery salt, paprika, lemon juice, worchestershire sauce and one-fourth teaspoon pepper. Spread remaining in bottom of shallow baking dish. Dip chicken pieces into mixture of one cup cracker crumbs and one-half cup crushed blanched almonds. Arrange chicken in single layer in dish. Bake uncovered about one hour or until chicken is tender and crust is brown.

Creamy Tomatoes

Creamy Tomatoes are an other dish to serve in separate dishes. Melt two tablesoons butter and blend in two tablespoons all-purpose flour and one teaspoon salt. Stir in one cup light cream and cook over low heat until thickened. Add one-fourth cup shredded parmesan cheese, one-half cup sauturne or water and two large tomatoes cut into eighths. Heat gently and serve in dishes topped by croutons. Serves four.

New Salad

Cranberry-orange mold is a new salad with an old flavor. Wash one pound of fresh cranberries and place in saucepan with two cups each of sugar and orange juice. Cover, bring to a boil, and cook 10 minutes or until skins burst. Remove from heat and add one envelope of unflavored gelatin softened in one-fourth cup cold water. Mix well and turn into five-cup mold or bowl. Chill until firm and serve.

Caraway Cheese Biscuits

Caraway Cheese Biscuits. Heat oven to 425 degrees. Sift together one and one-half cups sifted flour, one-half cup enriched corn meal, three teaspoons baking powder and one teaspoon salt. Cut in one-fourth cup shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add one-third cup grated parmesan cheese and two teaspoons caraway seed, mixing lightly. Add two-thirds cup mild, mixing lightly until mixture is dampened. Turn out on floured board and knead gently. Roll dough to three-eighths inch thickness and cut with biscuit cutter. Bake 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 12 to 18 biscuits.

Lemon Chess Tarts

For dessert, lemon chess tarts. In a heavy saucepan, combine one beaten egg, one-half cup sugar, one-sixth cup bottled lemon juice and one-eighth teaspoon salt. Also one-fourth cup butter. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Add one-fourth cup each seedless raisins and chopped dates and cool. Chill thoroughly until mixture mounds when spooned. At serving time, stir in one-fourth cup chopped walnuts and one-half teaspoon of vanilla and spoon into tart shells. Top with whipped cream. —U.P.I.

Witnesses here plan to attend 3-day convention

The Lindsay congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses is one of seven congregations making plans to attend a three-day training program in the Ajax Community Centre, January 11th to 13th.

Mr. Charles Peacock, presiding minister of the Lindsay congregation, in discussing this announcement, pointed out that only knowledge and understanding of God's purpose can equip one with the means of surviving the consummation of the present system of things. He emphasized that this assembly will assist each and every delegate to have a greater share in doing God's will when returning to their home congregations.

Candlelight wedding at Cameron

Ken Grace Photography, Lindsay

Shown here signing the register following their wedding in St. George's Anglican Church, Cameron, are Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lawrence Delong. The bride is the former Elsie Francis Judith Campbell, daughter of Mrs. George Uhrig and the late Donald M. Campbell and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Delong, of Cameron.

St. George's Anglican Church Cameron, was the setting for a lovely candlelight wedding on Friday November 23, 1962 at 7.30 p.m. when Elsie Francis Judith Campbell and Allan Lawrence Delong were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. George Uhrig and the late Donald M. Campbell and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Delong, of Cameron. The altar of the church was tastefully decorated with tall standards of eight candles and bouquet of white mums.

Rev. James Harrison, performed the ceremony. Mr. Bruce Cooper of Fenelon Falls played the wedding music and Harold J. Robertson, of Lindsay, cousin of the groom, was soloist. Before the ceremony, he sang "The 23rd Psalm" "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register and "The Lord's Prayer" at the reception.

Given in marriage by her stepfather George Uhrig, the bride looked charming in a cocktail-length gown of white lace over tiered double net with an underskirt of white satin. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara of rhinestones and she carried a corsage of red roses and white 'mums with streamers falling from a white prayer book.

Mrs. Karl O'Toole, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honour. She was in a street-length champagne colored gown of double net over satin, with matching accessories. She carried a nosegay of baby 'mums and roses.

Norman Delong, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Stephen Uhrig and Bruce Delong, brothers' of the bride and groom.

The reception was held at the bride's home, 11 Francis Street, Lindsay, where the bride's mother received wearing a coffee brown dress with beige accessories and a corsage of baby 'mums and pink roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a gown of Hunter green with beige accessories and a corsage of baby 'mums and pink roses.

Guests were present at the wedding from Orillia, Fort William, Toronto, Cambray, Cameron, Hartley, Woodville and Fenelon Falls.

Mr. Kenneth Grace, photographer, took pictures at the church and at the home of the bride's parents.

called either "The Boy With The Boot" or "Boy With The Boot". Could you give me any information about this fountain, where it was located, or may be yet, where it came from or any history on it?

"In a conversation lately with a lady, formerly of Sandusky, Ohio, she said there was one of these fountains in that town and that in a newspaper article, it stated there were only three of these in the United States. If this is true and Lindsay is lucky enough to have one, it is most interesting.

"I have enjoyed your paper for many years and it keeps me up to date on the Home Town Happenings."

Unless there are two fountains in Lindsay, and it seems most unlikely, the one Mrs. Flood refers to is still in existence and is now the property of Lindsay Central Exhibition. Exhibition Manager Newton G. Wilson says he believes the history of the fountain is available and he is undertaking to locatae it for the enquiring subscriber.

RETURNS TO CAPITAL

Katanga President Tshombe has returned to his capital at Elisabethville. U-N Undersecretary Ralph Bunche is also in Elisabethville . . . but diplomatic sources say it is unlikely the two will meet. Tshombe said he planned to return to his presidential palace — still under guard of U-N troops. He refused comment on what conferences he plans later. But diplomatic sources discounted any chance that Tshombe will meet with Bunche.

REFUSE TO JOIN IN

High government sources in Ottawa have refused to join in criticism of the way in which the United Nations force has carried out its assignment, informed sources in the capital say the government spports the current U-N military action in Katanga. They point out that, while Canada considers the fighting regrettable collapse of the Katanga operation would be a severe blow both to the world organization and the African nation.

"UNFINISHED BUSINESS"

U-S Secretary of State Rusk says there is "unfinished business in this hemisphere" as long as Cuba remains Communist. But he added in Miami Beach that there is a "fair chance" of progress toward a more stable peace in 1963. Last night, the U-S and Russia reached a diplomatic settlement of the Cuban crisis. However, the joint statement submitted to the United Nations left out the questions of inspection of Cuba and a U-S "no invasion" pledge.

REFUTES CHARGES

The Royal Canadian Navy has refuted charges by a United States electronics engineer that Canada's new Mackenzie Class destroyer is obsolete. John Gregory, presently under contract to the Defense Production Department at the Halifax Naval dockyard, claims the 30-million dollar destroyer uses electronic equipment 10 or more years old. A naval spokesman says the Mackenzie class ships are "at least comparable with the best in any other allied fleet" and the electronic equipment is similar to that used in the British and U-S navies.

Growing list of needy cited as Mayor notes mounting cost of welfare assistance in town

A growing list of needy people was referred to in Mayor Joseph C. Holton's remarks to the Welfare Committee during the 1963 inaugural meeting of council at Lindsay this week.

Mayor Holton, noting that there "is an increasing need for investigating and screening in order that all bona fide needy are supplied with the necessities of life", said: "Unfortunately, this list of needy is growing. In 1957, the Town of Lindsay spent $10,839 on welfare and in 1962 this amount increased to $53,733. Fortunately, the provincial government pays 80% of this amount. We must remember, in these matters of welfare, too, that Lindsay is well-off compared to many other communities where there is a much higher percentage of chronic unemployment.

"This committee will have the task of hiring a new Welfare Administrator to replace Mr. Williamson who has asked that his retirement be effective early this year. Mr. Williamson has given many years of loyal and dedicated service to the Town of Lindsay, and we are sorry to see him go."

Council names 1963 chairman of committees

The following committee chairmen appointments were approved by council at the Monday inaugural meeting:

Board of Works — Reeve Lloyd Found; Finance—Councillor Russell Taylor; Fire — Councillor Ernest MacCalder; Police — Carl E. Brown; Town Property Deputy-reeve Finney; Welfare—Councillor Joseph Hutton; Lighting — Councillor Leslie Neil; Subdivision — John Eakins.

Reeve Lloyd Found, Councillor Russell Taylor and Councillor Ernest MacCalder were thus reinstated in the chairmanships in which they served in 1962.

ice Collins stated during inaugural speeches of town council Monday night. He cited the loss of big users — the railway — and the impending loss of the arsenal.

"We are moving the commission offices to new quarters in the front of the town hall and the efficient courteus staff will be there to serve", he summed up.

Haliburton school girl killed by school bus

A ten-year-old Haliburton girl, Joean Cowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cowen, was instantly killed today when she reportedly slid under the wheels of a school bus, while playing in a school yard.

Investigating OPP Const. Harvey Cook said the accident happened around 8.45 a.m. at the Lakeview Public School in Haliburton when a school bus, driven by Cecil R. Scott, was pulling into the yard in preparation to discharge some children.

It is reported that the little girl had been playing on a nearby slope when she slipped and fell under the wheels of the bus.

Haliburton Coroner Dr. H. E. Good pronounced the child dead on his arrival.

Hodgson says private industry in arsenal buildings employs more than arsenal on standby

At the present moment there are more people employed by private industry located in arsenal buildings than are employed by Canadian Arsenals Ltd. on a standby basis. This declaration was made and repeated by Clayton W. Hodgson, M.P., at the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's 1963 council.

"I tell you", Mr. Hodgson said, "by the first of July there will be lots of modern plants . . not in war manufacture but employing double the present number (at Canadian Arsenals here). We'll get the machines pushed aside and I'll put plants in there and men and women to work in a way satisfactory to the country," he added.

"This is the first time the closure of the arsenal has got by me and I want you to know I worked hard on it and there is nothing I can do about it", he explained, "I have heard the story of the arsenal closing every year for 18 years and I have put in 15 years of hard work keeping the d--- thing running. got to where 15 men were doing nothing. . . . it couldn't stand that."

In stating "you have not heard much from me but a lot about me, good or bad and sometimes to have fault found is good for you," Mr. Hodgson declared, noting that he had for 17 or 18 years given Lindsay the best service a federal member could. There was the new composite school addition to the Lindsay Collegiate Institute with 100% of the cost paid by the federal government. "But I better not say too much . . . I don't know when I have been so misquoted as I was on my speech at this riding's Progressive Conservative Party recent annual meeting. As regards unemployment, I said then and I say now there is no unemployment in Haliburton County and as regards the rest of Canada there are a few people unable to work and some others would rather have unemployment insurance payments.

"There has been more progress in the last five years in Lindsay than in any previous period. I think the elected mayor, reeve and the industrial commission working for Lindsay are second to none. You don't need to worry about Lindsay. It will go ahead — progress with less unemployment.

"I wish the mayor the best and hope I get the best cooperation from him as in the past. With the mayor, reeves and council here going to work and giving the people the best service, I hope to help you not only by building a new school but in any way to make progress for Lindsay.

"As far as the next election date, I am just as far in the bush as anyone - I don't think any political parties are anxious for an election", he observed.

Three hydro men hurt in Fenelon area mishap

Three Ontario Hydro employees from Fenelon Falls, and one from Barrie, were treated for undetermined injuries at the office of Dr. G. C. Johnstone following a one-car accident just south of Fenelon Falls Monday.

Investigating OPP Const. J. R. DesLaurier said that the accident happened around 4:40 p.m. when a hydro truck driven by Ronald Sharman of Fenelon Falls went out of control, careened across the highway, rolled over, and struck a tree. Sharman told the officer, he had been driving north on highway 121, when he was forced onto the shoulder of the road by an oncoming car which kept right on going. He said his truck continued out of control crossing the highway, and into the ditch where it rolled over.

George Hickson, manager of the Fenelon Falls area, and Douglas Sergeant attached to the Barrie area, were the other occupants in the truck.

Const. DesLaurier said the vehicle was damaged to the extent of about $1,000.

1963 tax cut

and procedures, his worship said, quote:

This committee provides the liason between the Town Treasurer and other Committees in all matters of finance — both for those requirements which will affect this year's tax rate as well as for long-term capital financing.

In addition, over the past two years, this committee has studied various matters referred to it by Council, pertaining to methods and procedures and has brought in certain recommendations which when implemented by Council have provided more efficient administration.

I believe that this constant examining and studying of our methods and procedures is very important. Just because we have been doing something a certain way for 25 or 30 years is no reason to keep on doing it that way. We should examine it and determine:—

(1) Is it necessary?; (2) If so, is there a better way of doing it?

This committee working along with the Clerk-Treasurer and other staff can continue to improve our methods and procedures which will in turn produce a more efficient administration.

This year this committee should take under consideration the following items:

(1) The overall effect of discounts and penalties on tax collections; (2) Method of preparation of Voter's Lists; (3) Contract and terms of references of Town Auditors; (4) More modern accounting procedures; (5) Further study of the 5-year capital spending forecast.

This last item is one of increasing importance in order that the debentures debt and the total assessment can be kept in balance.

And I am pleased to report that the assessment of the Town has now reached to $14,000,000.00 —, and with increased industrial growth this figure will increase substantially.

This committee will spend several evenings and many hours along with a great deal of thought in reviewing the budget and setting the mill rate which will determine how much taxes you pay.

Hydro power rates to be reduced

Hydro power rates will be reduced by 2.5 per cent, effective February 1, it was announced today by Premier John Robarts.

The reduction will mean a saving of $15,000,000 to Ontario consumers in a full year.

Ex-Mayor Hick confident of lost industry replacement

Ex-Mayor A. E. Hick is confident that in a period of transition such as Lindsay is now going through, the disappearance of one type of industry will be supplanted by another. Addressing the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's 1963 Council, Mr. Hick said "We are passing through changing times."

"In 1954, when as Mayor I was advised the CNR roundhouse was closing here I found there was nothing we could do about it but find other industries to replace the railway, which at one time nearly 600 families depended on for a living.

"I hope you get industries to replace those you are losing. Since 1954 the change in the railroad came about so gradual we didn't notice the transition. I congratulate the Mayor for reorganizing the industrial committee and taking it out of politics. I am glad to see you are getting industry in that field which we were criticized for buying."

Addressing the Mayor he said: "I think you have a good looking council and we can look for big things in the coming year. New members Mr. Eakins and Mr. Brown will be a great addition.

"Mr. Hodgson has asked me to convey the regrets of Hon. L. M. Frost on his absence tonight due to presence in Montreal. He has made a point to attend every inaugural meeting possible in the past."

Lindsay resident registered as professional forester

Toronto—A Lindsay resident G. N. Crombie has been registered as a professional forester by the Ontario Professional Foresters Association. Mr. Crombie is employed as a timber forester with the Dept. of Lands and Forests in Lindsay.

He is now accorded the right to use the initials "RPF" after his name in any work connected with the forestry profession.

The OPFA serves as the registration body for the profession in Ontario. It is seeks to provide a better knowledge and understanding among the general public of the aims and objectives of forestry, and the role played by members of the profession in the management of our forestlands.

At present, there are more than 600 registered professional foresters in the province engaged in responsible positions in government, industry, education and consulting fields.

The OPFA's 1963 annual meeting will be held Jan. 21 in Toronto and more than 125 members from all parts of Ontario are expected to attend.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

GALL BLADDER-IN OR OUT?

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: For the past year I have been having gall bladder attacks. The past six months have been miserable, with constant pain and nausea. One set of X rays showed a nonfunctioning gall bladder, but no stones. A month later another X ray was taken; it did not show stones and the gall bladder picture was normal.

I had another gall bladder attack and had to be carried into the doctor's office. Now my doctor is undecided about surgery due to the fact that one X ray did not show stones and the other was practically normal.–Mrs. B.

Comment You keep saying you have been having gall bladder symptoms and gall bladder attacks, yet you do not get positive evidence to back up your symptoms on the X rays. From personal experience, I'm sure you understand how important it is to make the diagnosis. Without it, treatment, as in your case, cannot be instituted with any degree of confidence.

Therefore, my opinion is that you must have the diagnosis. Has your doctor called in another good diagnostician in consultation? I think he should. Is it gall bladder disease? Is it ulcer? Is it hiatal hernia? Is it coronary disease or other evidence of heart failure?

My inclination? If I could rule out the other conditions I have just mentioned, and if you still continued to have indigestion and pains as before, I'd suggest surgery. I have seen a number of patients with symptoms whose X rays didn't show up too much, yet their gall bladders at operation were distinctly diseased. Some contained stones that didn't visualize on the X-ray plates.

ALLERGIC TO HUSBAND?

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I need some help and I mean help. I've been married for five years. Lately, every time I eat with my husband I feel like throwing up. I can be eating very peacefully and the minute he comes in, my stomach gets so upset I can't eat any more.

My husband says I must have ulcers. I say I have viles. I think that is what you call them. It only happens when I see him or when I eat with him.

In spite of all this I am fond of him and want to be happy. I have eaten with other men, women and children and I never have these symptoms. I need help. What shall I do? –Mrs. R.

Comment: Because your problem is so personal and makes you so unhappy, you may think me facetious when I suggest that you may be allergic to your husband. But when the term "allergic" is used in its broadest sense here, it indicates there is something in your husband's presence or personality or appearance which sets you off. That's your job to find out as soon as you can if you want to save your marriage.

You say you are fond of him but still all this happens. Some people are fond of strawberries or seafood, but break out all over after taking them. I think it's a marriage counselor's job or your family physician's, to discover the cause of your irritation. It's more important to search your mind than go looking for an ulcer in your stomach.

NOTICED . . along the way

Victoria County's Warden John Alton, whose term of office runs out in a few days has become the centre of a growing controversy in the closing hours of his municipal career. He is seen on the left in the picture above as he chats with Water Commissioner D. A. Sinclair at Lindsay's inaugural meeting of council during which he warned that unless something is done to stem the tide of the "Metro invasion" of Victoria County politics, the county may elect its last native resident as warden this year.

The whole thing started when Eldon Township, of which Mr. Alton has been reeve, voted in an entirely new council of cottagers' as-

More high school girls drink than boys, magistrate notes

Youth fined after LCI incident

Teenage high school girls seem to be worse than boys when it comes to drinking intoxicating beverages.

"It was reported in an article the other day," noted Magistrate Moore during court session here, that about 66⅔ of girls attending high school and 43⅓ of the boys are found to be drinkers."

He made his remark following the conviction of 17-year-old David Musgrave of Toronto, on a charge of "consuming while under age". He was fined $50 and costs after Cpl. R. Bailey told the court of having been called quell a disturbance at the high school November 1st around 11.30 p.m. The officer said he was told by school officials that the accused had tried to get into the dance where he said he had been invited to act as master of ceremonies, but had been told to leave because of his intoxicated condition.

The officer testified that Musgrave had said he was 21 and had purhcased the liquor in Toronto before leaving for Lindsay.

A further check into the school records showed the boy to be 17.

Weather outlook

Suggests price of one dollar, gives reasons

The acquisition by the town of the deed of the Canadian Arsenals Ltd. plant here, for the nominal sum of $1.00, is advocated strongly in a letter received by council from Mr. Dan McQuarrie. Mr. McQuarrie has been credited in large part with the obtaining of much valuable industry in Lindsay when he acted as industrial commissioner several years ago. His letter, which was referred to the Industrial Committee reads:

"It came as a great shock to me last week to read in the local press that the Government was closing down all their operations in the Dominion Arsenal as of March 31st and declaring the property surplus. This only means that the entire property will be sold to the highest bidder.

"I have given the matter considerable thought and I have come to the conclusion that the Council of the Town of Lindsay should lose no time in attempting to acquire the entire plant and property. The depreciation taken on the plant has been so great since it was built 47 years ago that the Dominion Government has now very little or no equity in it and they should be prepared to Deed it to the town for $1.00.

"The Industrial development of the town since its inception has been very spasmodic and in my opinion it will more or less continue to be so. Every once in awhile some one predicts that Lindsay will reach 20,000 in the next 5 or 10 years. To me this is all wishful thinking. Before people flock to Lindsay there has to be work for every man to support his family. If the arsenal were acquired then

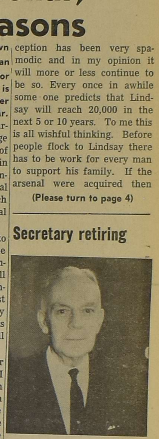
Secretary retiring



Lindsay Parks Board secretary T. R. Price confirmed at the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's 1963 Council that he would be retiring shortly after 15 years service in various capacities. Mr. Price reviewed in detail the various parks projects under development and maintenance by the board.

80 hogs, 17 head of cattle, perish in Blackwater fire

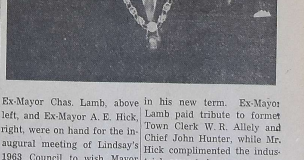
The Allsop farm is about two miles east of Blackwater adjacent to McNeill's Cemetery.

A large barn and its contents - - 3,000 bales of hay, 600 bushels of grain, 80 hogs, 17 head of cattle and all farm implements - - were completely destroyed in a fire at the Blackwater farm of Ross Allsop. The loss has not yet been estimated and there was no insurance coverage, Mrs. Allsop told "The Post".

The fire was first noticed by Mr. and Mrs. Allsop about 9 o'clock Friday morning and a call brought Sunderland Fire Department to the scene. But it all happened so quickly by the time the Sunderland truck arrived the fire was completely out of control. Mr. Allsop hal been choring in the barn earlier and everything was alright then, his wife said. The cause of the outbreak is not known but might of been faulty wiring, she said.

"The only thing we do know is that we are at a terrific loss," she added.

Mayors past and present



Ex-Mayor Chas. Lamb, above left, and Ex-Mayor A. E. Hick, right, were on hand for the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's 1963 Council to wish Mayor Joseph C. Holtom (centre) well in his new term. Ex-Mayor Lamb paid tribute to former Town Clerk W. R. Allely and Chief John Hunter, while Mr. Hick complimented the industrial commission on progress to date.

EDITORIAL....

AN "E" FOR EFFORT AND AN "R" FOR RESULTS

The Lindsay Industrial Commission, now just about one year of age, deserves an "E" for effort and an "R" for Results. In the first year of its operation it has shown consistent efforts in the pursuit of new industry for the town and its efforts are beginning to produce results. This is an encouraging trend on the local industrial front after a period in which there were few indications that the town could anticipate new industry to replace those which were either curtailing or closing out operations here.

Recent developments are encouraging forward steps and, as the saying goes, "one thing leads to another" . . . It is only when there is no effort that no results may be expected, as any salesman will affirm. If the calls are made and made on the right prospects, results are almost certainly bound to accrue if you've really got something to sell and Lindsay's industrial agents certainly have.

Reports and Remarks..

LONGER OUTDOOR CAFE SEASON

Outdoor restaurants in northern climes may soon have a longer season, thanks to a new type of natural gas-fired infra-red heater. They heat not only the patrons who become uncomfortable when the weather turns chilly and damp, but the waitresses, food tables and even the food. Their rays warm the objects they touch but are not wasted on heating the air.

Nine such heaters are already in operation at a deck-side terrace restaurant in Seattle where thy have raised the temperature of chairs and tables to a comfortable 75 degrees when the outside temperature rgistered only 46. They are also being tried in New York City. Fuel costs are low since the infra-red heaters are individually controlled to switch to warm only those areas where customers are seated. —Natural Gas History.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 9, 1913

Yesterday afternoon and evening the first curling of the season of 1913 took place and four good games were enjoyed. Yesterday being the 8th of January, was the latest on the records of the club for curling, to commence. Usually the season starts about the middle of December, and one year it started the last week in November. The ice yestrday was reported in good condition, and the players were very enthusiastic. Following are the results of the games: Roenigk 11, McFadden 9; Thomas 12, O'Connor 8; Little 12, Reesor 10; Tilly 11, Flavelle 9.

Poultry Show

The Poultry and Pet Stock Association held a very successful meeting in Mr. D.A. MacKenzies office. A large number were in attendance. Messrs. G. Corley and Earl Henderson were appointed caretakers for the annual show. Indications point to one of the best shows in the history of the association, as enquiries have been received for prize lists from all parts of the province.

JANUARY 9, 1938

A crowd of goal-surfeited hockey fans piled out of the Lindsay Arena about 10:45 o'clock last night when the final bell rang on an avalanche of scoring by the Lindsay Midgets. The Beaverton Juniors were their victims and the Midgets left no doubt about it. The score then was 19 to 0 and it might just as well have been 30 to 0. A dazed crowd of 500 people saw the Midgets rattle home two goals in the first two minutes of the game and from then on go into highspeed and completely baffle the kids from Lake Simcoe with their passing and skating. The fans were ready to give the Midgets up as a bunch of bush leaguers but they have changed their opinion over night. The local boys played like a hockey team, particularly in the last two periods when their hockey was good all the way and brilliant at times.

GUFF-SCALE TRIBAL WARS

News of full-scale tribal wars in the Congo's Kasai Province reached Elisabethville this morning. Nearly 400 Lylua tribesmen are reported killed in the fighting. Unofficial sources say the toll is much higher. Confirmation of the fighting was messaged to the Central Congo Government Capital of Leopoldville by a Congolese Army official.

READY TO MAKE PEACE

Katanga President Tshombe announced from Elisabethville this morning he is ready to make peace with the Congo's Central Government. The secessionist leader issued a statement saying he plans to restore peace in Katanga. Tshombe pledged to abide by U-N Secretary General Thant's re-unification plan and said he will not make any more declarations against the U-N.

OFFSET HIGHER PRICES

A decline in clothing and transportation costs offset higher prices for food and housing between November and December to leave the cost of living in Canada unchanged. The Bureau of Statistics sets the December consumer price index at 131.9 . . . The same as it was in November. Higher prices were paid in the period for bread, most cereals, sugar and most fresh vegetables while beef and pork prices continued to decline.

EJECTS SPECIAL ENVOY

Trade Minister Hees has ejected speculation that Prime Minister Diefenbaker might call an early election rather than face a defeat in the Commons. Hees told a nationwide T-V audience last night, the government will not step down until it is defeated by a combined opposition vote. Commenting on the trade picture, Hees said the government is "getting close to removing import surcharges" levied under the June austerity program.

CHINK IN ARMOR

The commander of the North American defense system General John K. Gerhart says Canada's lack of nuclear wardheads constitutes a chink in Norad's armor. Visiting the bomarc defense complex at North Bay, Ontario, General Gerhart stressed however that the Canadian policy has not affected the defense system's overall planning, because Canada's position regarding nuclear arms was well known when Norad was formed.

Haliburton

Mr. R. M. Dart has returned home after surgery in the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay.

Mr. Gerald Wood and Harry Brohm motored to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Minaker have returned home after a holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Miller in Oakville.

Mr. Clayton Cruickshanks has been in the Lindsay Ross Memorial Hospital for several weeks where he is doing nicely after surgery.

Mr. Dennis Sims, of West Guilford, is a patient in the Red Cross Outpost Hospital with pneumonia. He was transferred from his home by ambulance.

Would like to see more power vested in local government

Verulam's Reeve Max Kennedy says he thinks local municipal government makes for better administration than Queen's Park, and he would like to see more power restored to the municipalities. Mr. Kennedy was speaking at Lindsay when the 1963 Town Council took office.

"I can't help but think of the small amount of tax dollars that are controlled by municipal councils - 25% with 75% going to such demands as those of the High School Board, the Public School Board, etc.

In all municipal administration, the work of local architects, engineers, auditors, etc. is double checked by Ontario government departments and I hope the time will come when there is not so much overlapping, he declared.

Few Hints

If you are having problems decorating that large room, here are a few hints. Select a large pattern for either draperies, upholstery or wall paper, but use only one large pattern at a time. Warm colors should be used as well as darker shades on the walls. And . . consider using twin beds with a large night table or chest separating them.

Right Ingredients

The cook in the family might be able to predict the load the winter will be . . . if she has the right ingredients. All it takes is a good selection of bears. That's the observation of the owner and operator of a restaurant which specializes in wild game. The owner, Jim Janek, processes between 20 and 30 bears each year. He uses the thickness of the bear's fat as a weather vane — the thicker it is the more severe the winter. This winter, he confidently prognosticates, will be short and mild.

Proud of Purchase

An Industrial design executive says the person who owns a chair that's been recovered once or more . . . should be proud of his purchase. J. Gordon Knapp says — his words — "That person is among the minority who knows how to buy sensibly." Among Knapp's shopping tips — don't be snared by fads or status buying. And stay away from overly-complicated furniture.

Financial Facts

A sad-but-true memo to young lovers — soon after the "I do" financial facts will interrupt your starry-eyed mood. A part of the upset often comes from trying to do too much with the money you didn't spend on the honeymoon — and intend to use for furnishing the nest. But here are a few tips for new homemakekrs on how to get the most out of their money. Shop around and make comparisons. See if the furniture sits level. . how its put together. . whether drawers slide easily.

Household Hint

To remove rust spots from white cotton articles, use a few drops of oxalic acid in a bowl full of water.

New Product

Disposable bedding. A new York City company offers throw-away sheets and pillow cases in several decorator colors. The bedding can be used several times before being thrown out. —UPI

Says P.S. demands will be kept at minimum

Demands of the Public School Board will be kept to the absolute minimum this year. This was the promise made to council by Trustee Don Ferguson at the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's 1963 Council.

Inaugural observations

Former town councillors at the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's new Council included Harry W. Peirce and Robert Payne both of whom have stated they may be aspirants for a seat on the 1964 Council.

F. W. Williamson and T. R. Price are both retiring as Town officials, the former after some 15 years as welfare officer and the latter after some 15 years as a member of the Parks Board.

Two interested township reeves were Roy Morrison of Mariposa and Max Kennedy of Verulam. The reeve of Verulam has tossed his "hat into the ring" for the wardenship of the County on Tuesday next for the year 1963.

Politicians are travelling men! Hon. Leslie Frost was unable to attend as he was in Montreal on business and C.W. Hodgson left for Toronto immediately after the meeting.

Former Deputy-reeve George Gamble of Verulam joined in congratulating Mayor Holtom. Mr. Gamble is the representative of Victoria County Council on the Co-operated Library Board.

The beautiful chain of office worn by Mayor Holtom was donated to Lindsay a few years ago by the Lindsay I.O.O.F. Lodge 100.

Official opening revamped arena expected shortly

It is hoped the official opening of the newly-renovated arena will take place within a few weeks. Fred Emmerson, past chairman of the Recreation Commission, made this known at the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's incoming council.

"Arena operations are carrying on favourably", he reported.

Composite school biggest in region, chairman states

"The Lindsay Composite School on completion of the new wing will be the biggest between Toronto and Kingston and the best equipped at least cost to you," according to David M. Thomson, High School Area Board building committee chairman.

"We can assume with government grants, that the new Composite school will not become too heavy a burden on you. I hope we are able to tax Mr. Alton's invaders (property owners of Victoria County who pay on the High School Area Assessment basis) although they live in other municipalities such as Toronto).

"Our children will have the advantage of the best academic and technical education in the province", he summed up.

Mr. Thomson was speaking at Lindsay Council's inaugural meeting.

sociation representatives and rejected all local candidates. In the wake of the political upheaval, Mr. Alton drew a parallel between the takeover in Eldon by Metropolitan Toronto residents and the invasion of Austria and Czechoslovakia by Adolph Hitler. This, as was expected, drew more fire from the cottagers' associations.

One of the major developments as a result of a growing dissatisfaction among cottagers with municipal administration has been a move to form an Ontario Cottagers Association for political action at the municipal, provincial and eventually the federal level. Speaking at an organization meeting in Toronto this week, Sturgeon Point cottager A. C. Hoad said the evolution of cottagers' associations to a provincial wide organization "has been aided in part by such people as the Warden of Victoria County."

Another cottager sends along a clipping of a Toronto Telegram editorial which is prefaced with the following note: "Ho, Ho: Carden Township, along with Eldon Township, perhaps killed the goose that laid the golden egg by not being satisfied with reasonable assessment for land that was heretofore worthless and thereby have driven cottage owners to desparation so that they organized, believing that "in unity there is strength This is Canada, the land of opportunity, equal rights for all and not just for the townships.

That "Ho, Ho" sounds familiar. . .Hmmmm. . . . . has Santa Claus got a cottage in Eldon or Carden? . . . Or does the writer believe he has license to use the phrase because he feels he has been playing Santa Claus to one of the township treasuries?

To get back to the note from the cottager, here is the Metro editorial he sent along:

Cottagers

"Victoria County Warden John Alton apparently has the quaint notion that taxation without representation is a model form of government.

"His anger knows no bounds at the audacity of 200 cottagers from Metro Toronto who presumptuously journeyed to the resort area where they elected three Toronto men to the Carden Township Council.

"Hitlerism, thunders the outraged warden. 'We are now in the same position as Czechoslovakia and Austria when they were run by Berlin after Hitler took over."

"We're not sure if Mr. Alton proposes to appeal to the United Nations, but it is certain that he makes no appeal to good sense with his ludicrous statement.

"If the warden of Victoria County thinks that democracy shines and triumphs when a municipality milks taxes from cottagers and at the same time denies them the right to a voice as to how the tax money should be spent, he is as frozen as the lovely lakes of his region."

There hasn't been such a hot time in any municipality since a bunch of irate farmers armed with pitchforks, marched on Lindsay and made the powers-that-were remove an extra log or two they had placed in the dam and flooded low-lying lands to the south of the town.

25% federal loan cut holds but Winter Works assistance grants lost on lagoon system

Lindsay has up until two years (March 31, 1965) to complete its lagoon type sewage disposal plant and qualify to write off its federal loan on the project at 75 cents on the dollar. Confirmation of the time extension on the "25% forgiveness" came at the first 1963 meeting of council.

The good news was mixed with bad however, when it was disclosed that the project would not come under the Winter Works Assistance Program and therefore stood to lose 75% of the approved labor costs.

Mayor Jos. Holtom disclosed that word had been received from Ottawa that the grant date in the first instance had been extended from March 31st 1962. He also said that the late start on the project would not affect this grant but due to the expected project completion date, (late summer of 1963), the Winter Works assistance grants would be lost.

A letter read from the Ontario Water Resources Commission re the sewage disposal project stated in part "the required earth-moving part of the project has practically come to a standstill caused by the extremely wet conditions. It seems obvious that the amount of work which the construction company can accomplish during the winter season will be much less than anticipated and desired. Though the the gravity sewer, forcemain and appurtenances will proceed as planned it will be most likely impossible for Lindsay to obtain the desired amount of assistance for the Winter Works Incentive program as anticipated. Weather conditions and the location of the lagoon site may not permit a gainful resumption of earth moving work before the end of May 1963."

40 youths to take course in hunting safety here

Forty young men between 14 and 17, from Lindsay and district will attend a hunting safety course next week through the support of the Department of Lands and Forests.

A spokesman for the department, told "The Post" that the course, now in its third successful year, will be held at the Legion Hall beginning Monday January 14, and will continue for the balance of the week.

The boys, in the capable hands of volunteers Bill Crowley, Ken Reeves and Bill Young will be versed in the handling of a rifle: loading, unloading, proper manner of carrying, and all the necessary requirements for safety while in the field.

They will round the course with instruction on the firing range, and later will take examinations after which, if they have successfully passed their training, they will receive a certificate.

The department official said that new regulations, introduced a few years ago, require anyone desiring a gun licence, and who has not had one before, to take the course and he added that (the department) had found the training to be directly responsible for the drop in the number of hunting accidents over the past two years.

Urges

with some well-placed advertising in Canadian and American Trade Journals an Industry might be induced to come to Lindsay that might conceivably employ 1000 people. This would give the town a real boost and perhaps start her on the way to the dreamed of 20,000 goal.

"My experience has been that no Industrialist looking for a new site wants anything to do with any building in which the Dominion Government is interested. So if the Town of Lindsay owned the plant it should require no great effort to induce a heavy Industry to locate here.

"It is my opinion that your council should seek out about six of the most influential men and women in Lindsay and send them to Ottawa to confer with the Prime Minister and the Minister who has jurisdiction over the Dominion Arsenal. It is also my opinion that no time should be lost in presenting the case to Ottawa."

Industrial Commission Mayor Holtom stated that all steps had been taken so that the highest production possible might be made in the arsenal after closure of its present of its present operation March 31st. He stated he was arranging an interview in this regard with Crown Assets re the matter and he thought making the building available for sale or lease would make for better Industry in Lindsay.

He referred to a letter which he had received from the Deputy Minister of Defence Production, Ottawa, which explained the closing of the arsenal as due to future business prospects being extremely pessimistic for the manufacture of metal component parts that are used in the explosive filling of munitions. The letter stated in part: "Canadian Arsenals Ltd. would soon be forced to place Lindsay arsenal into a standby condition retaining only sufficient personnel to maintain the facilities. To retain the Lindsay arsenal meant that there would be a sharply declining employment level in maintaining a facility for which a requirement could not be justified and which cost the taxpayers of Canada several hundreds of thousands of dollars per year.

Mrs. R. C. Lamb

Mrs. Rexford C. Lamb (nee Clara Stagg) passed away in Niagara Falls, New York, on January 4, 1963.

The deceased was the wife of Rexford C. Lamb, who survives her, and is also survived by one daughter Geraldine, of Niagara Falls and three sons Charles and Ronald, of Niagara Falls and Gerald, of California.

Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery, Niagara Falls on Saturday, January 6th.

Minden all set for its annual Winter Carnival

Plans have all been completed for the annual Minden Winter Carnival.

The event will open on Friday, February 1st. but the Hon. Leslie M. Frost M.P.P. and the Hon. Bryan Cathacrt, Minister of Travel and Publicity will not officialy declare it open until noon Saturday.

Further details on the event will appear in subsequent editions of "The Post".

Bethany

At the meeting of the Bethany school ratepayers Vincent Jackson retired from the school board. The Trustees elected are Harold White for a three year term; Carl Smith two years; Hector Morton one year. Charles Reynolds continues as secretary-treasurer.

Outside wage negotiator not needed, council agrees

Lindsay Council agreed with Finance Chairman Russell Taylor's statement Tuesday that he could see no need of bringing in an outside negotiator to settle such matters as agreements between labor unions and town council.

"With a negotiating committee comprised of the Chairman of Finance, Town Clerk B. Bates, Town Solicitor Joseph Staples (if necessary) and chairmen of the committees which negotiation concerns, there should be no necessity of an outside negotiator being called in of we act in harmony. We can always refer to our solicitor if necessary," Mr. Taylor pointed out.

Council agreed with Chairman Taylor and Mayor Holtom stated the deliberations of the Negotiating Committee should take the load off the elected representatives in consideration of agreements, etc.

Former P.S. inspector

Lindsay lost a highly respect citizen with the passing of Colin W Le.es, B.A., B.Paed former Public School Inspector.

Born in Brampton, Ontario, Mr. Lees attended Peterboro Normal School, later graduating from Queens University with a B.A. and B. Paed degrees from the University of Toronto.

Prior to inspection work in Lindsay where he was appointed for Victoria County West, he was inspector of elementary schools for eight years in Renfrew, Ontario.

Much of his teaching experience, prior to his being appointed as inspector, included work in British Columbia where he was active in bringing about new developments in educational matters.

While in Lindsay, he was asked, for a short while, to take over the duties of the late W. S W. Battersby at the Central High School.

He was an active member, up until the time of his death, of the Rotary Club and Library Board and served on the boards of the Children's Aid Society, where he took a real joy working with children.

He retired in 1959 after serving for over 20 years in the Lindsay areas to continue his many hobbies which included sailing, curling and golfing, and summering at his cottage on Stony Lake where five generations of the Lees family had summered before him.

Surviving are his wife the former Anna R. Hayes of Lindsay, and daughters, Mrs. H. Harwood (Maxine) of Guelph; Mrs. W.H. Ross (Katharine), of Midland; sous Richard of Owasson, and Colin of Lindsay; sisters Mary and Margaret Lees of Peterboro; brothers Dr. Harold of Windsor and Bruce, of Owen Sound which negotiation concerns, there should be no necessity of an outside negotiator being called in of we act in harmony. We can always refer to our solicitor if necessary," Mr. Taylor pointed out.

Council agreed with Chairman Taylor and Mayor Holtom stated the deliberations of the Negotiating Committee should take the load off the elected representatives in consideration of agreements, etc.

Psychiatrist will address Canadian Club

A physician and specialist in psychiatry is to be the first 1963 Canadian Club speaker at Lindsay. He is Dr. John D. Griffin whose early experience in undergraduate medicine in Toronto and post graduate studies in Providence, R.I. and London, England, brought him to commit his life to intensify public support for improved mental health services in Canada.

In 1936 he joined Dr. Clarence M. Hincks, founder of the Canadian Mental Health Association, as his first lieutenant. In 1952, he succeeded Dr. Hincks as general director.

The meeting is to be held at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall on Monday evening.

PATIENT SHORT-CHANGED IN COMPLETE CHECKUP

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I would like to know what should be included in a complete physical checkup. My check was over in less than 10 minutes, and the only test taken was a urinalysis.–Mrs. L.

Comment: You have good reason to be disappointed. We doctors who are preventive-medicine minded keep sounding off on the need for periodic checkups; the least we can do is reserve sufficient time for you to "have the works."

Each doctor has his own idea of what a complete examination entails, but I think most will agree that he needs at least an hour to accomplish his objective at the initial examination.

Taking a fairly complete history requires at least 20 to 30 minutes with a new patient. This leaves only a half hour for the following tests (which is often insufficient time):

Withdrawal of blood for hemaglobin, red blood cells, white blood cell, blood platelet, cholesterol examinations.

Later, other blood tests may be needed. Fluoroscopic, X-ray, blood pressure and electrocardiograms. Proctoscopic examination (lighted tube to explore the rectum and lower bowel) and a Papanicolau test to rule out cancer of the uterus in women.

Then of course, there is the important physical examination itself.

Anyone can see that such a routine physical examination could not possibly be performed in 10 minutes–or even within an hour. In the term "complete checkup" is the promise that the examination will be a thorough one. The patient has the right to expect it and the doctor has the responsibility to perform such an examination.

LEARNS MEDICINE FROM TV

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I saw a show on TV about heart surgery and a discussion of stroke in which the doctors emphasized the importance of a low fat diet. I know that you'll think this silly since I'm only a layman, but I feel that strokes are often brought on by anxiety, frustrations, uncontrollable and violent tempers, and vast frustration in life.

I have an aunt who is all of this combined. She suffered a stroke and even now can't control her temper. I think whether she recovers or dies will depend less on her diet than her ability to control her temper. What do you think?–Mrs. T.

Comment: Diet is important in the control of atherosclerosis, which is a forerunner of stroke. But as you say, it isn't the only consideration. The many characteristics which you think are also important add up to what we call stress.

And this is beyond a doubt also an essential factor in the cause of sudden trouble in the circulation like stroke and coronary thrombosis.

I keep advising people with trouble in their arteries that temper-control is as important as diet-control in managing their sickness.

James Veale

Early Sunday morning, December 30, 1962, there passed away at his late residence, North St., Beaverton, a much loved and highly respected citizen of the Beaverton and Thorah Township communities in the person of Mr. James Veale in his 92nd year.

Born on Lot 16, on the 2nd Concession of Thorah Township, where Mr. and Mrs. Howard Veale now reside, the deceased was the youngest of a family of six sons and three daughters born to the late John Veale and his wife Jane Hawking. Mr. Veale spent the first 48 years of his life at home where he became a very successful farmer and kindly neighbour. During these years he was united in marriage with Miss Cassie Spence, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Spence of Hartley. They later moved to Beaverton where Mrs. Veale passed away 29 years ago. Of a kindly, quiet and hospitable nature, Mr. Veale was the friend of all, young and old alike, and was always interested in everything for the betterment of the community at large. A life long Liberal politically, and a staunch Presbyterian in religion, he was a Manager and Trustee of the Beaverton Presbyterian Church. He is survived by a large number of nieces and nephews, who mourn his loss.

After resting at the Bullock and Pinkham Funeral Home for two days, the funeral service was conducted in the Beaverton Presbyterian Church by his Pastor and friend, Rev. Wm. Fitzsimmons, who brought a message of comfort to the large number of relatives and friends assembled there. He also spoke very highly of Mr. Veale as a Christian citizen and friend.

Interment took place in the Stone Church Cemetery Vault, Thorah. The pall-bearers were all friends and neighbours of the deceased namely-Messrs. Gilbert McMillan, Wm. Ross, Don McCaskell, Charles Ross, Don Smith, and Clarke Calder.

There is no night in heaven;

By

Fenwick Finch!

This week's column was a little hard to get started. For more years than I care to remember I have looked upon Al and Jimmie Perrin as great personal friends. To separate the various things in their lives that would interest me personally and my readers made the decision very difficult. So, you'll have to bear with me, if it gets a little personal please try to overlook it.

The Perrin Brothers from Lindsay were two of the most versatile characters I have ever known. In show business there was hardly anything they couldn't do, singly or collectively they were good at their trade. They were well-trained and skilled in the mechanics of their business. Singing, dancing, composing their own music, writing their own gags and material. A two hour show was nothing to them. Vent acts, sleight-of-hand, fortune telling, mind-reading. You think of it, if the boys didn't have it in their show then give them a few pointers and the next time you saw them, they were using it. On top of that, they did their own staging, booking and management. Now, to anyone in show business, they'll know what a chore that is.

Jimmie Perrin was the better known to me because I had the pleasure of working with him some 25 or more years ago. We ran dances, shows, variety acts, etc. I have always been indebted to "Jolly" Jimmy as he was known, for an education in a great many ways. The things I've learned from both Jimmie and Al have stood be in good stead in the past years.

Don't get me wrong, I'm not trying to create the impression these were white-haired boys, paragons of virtue, without fault, they were human like the rest of us. We all make mistakes of one kind of another.

"Jolly" Jimmie is gone now from this life. But, wherever he is, I'm willing to bet he's giving them a performance "they'll never forget". When he died, I lost a good friend.

So much for personal feelings. Now let's take a closer look at Al. The Perrin brothers, 35 to 40 years in show business. Quite a record. Al was the balance wheel, the man who kept things going, the man who looked after the business. It was a trying job at times, for Jimmie was an artist, temperamental and unpredictable, without Al and his steadying influence they would been nothing.

Al was active from 1910 to 1935 when he played theatres and clubs from Coast to Coast in both Canada and United States. All types of shows and acts were meat to Al. A problem to him was just another challenge to be met and conquered.

The famous and well-known vaudeville vircuits were home to Al in those years:

The Griffin Circuit of Toronto, Swannick of London, Gun Sun of Springfield, Ohio and The Famous Keith Circuit, New York City.

Al covered practically every state in the Union with the Original Williams Stock Company playing everything from juvenile leads to character parts.

Practically every small community saw Al playing their local theatres with the Tom Marks Stock Company, the Ernie Marks Co., and finally the famous Arlie Marks Company.

Lindsay people will long remember the Arlie Marks Company. Every "Fair Week" the Company would play Lindsay. The Perrin boys always had a love for their home town and no matter where Arlie Marks was playing they always changed their itinerery so they were in Lindsay. They were a "Fair Week" institution.

Remember the parades on main street . . . Uncle Tom's Cabin (a standard tear-jerker in those days), the parade complete with band, all the cast, including the big dogs! . . . How they chased little Eva across the ice?

In front of the theatre the band would play before the curtin went up. All the cast got into the act. In those days a company had to do a great many things. They all "double in brass' there were no chiefs, all Indians, and they worked hard.

Al, like his counterparts throughout the show-biz world fell by the wayside in 1929. The talking pictres had taken their toll again. The Arlie Marks Company finished a three months engagement at St. Johns, Newfoundland, in the Spring of 1929. Halifax saw their last engagement. After playing their final engagement of one week, the show closed for good and Al came home.

For the next four or five years Al travelled around staging local talent shows for various communities. He was sponsored by Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs. Hospitals, in fact numerous organizations that used this method to raise money for their favorite projects.

Al produced and staged, "The Show Boat", "Smart Shop Sally", "The Country Girl", "The Royal Chef" and many others.

Returning to Lindsay Al produced the "Show Boat" for the Kiwanis Club. A great many of my older readers will remember this show. In fact a great majority of them probably had parts in it.

There you have it. These few lines covers Al's lifetime in the show world. Like the sketches on Bob Harvey and George Laidlaw, Al's story loses a lot by writing. To visit with these artists, skilled in their trade and perfectionists in technique, makes you wonder what we have today. The secret of success - - they only do one thing - - and not too well at that. All you have to be able to do, is rotate your posterior fundum, screech some unintelligible gobbledegook through your nasal passages, belt the bejunior out of two chords on a guitar and you make more money than these skilled craftsmen made.

The secret of success? The press agent, is the man today. "Talent be damned" they can sell the public anything.

"You know Al", I remarked when I was talking to him last. "I remember standing on the same stage on which Al Jolson had worked."

"Well, I just thought you'd laughed Al. "In the days we worked out, it was impossible not to stand on a stage Jolson had been on. He worked the boards' same as the rest of us."

"Well, I just though you'd like to know. Of course it was after the theatre had closed for good. I was given an opportunity to go through the old Opera House in Kingston."

"How about some goods you made when you were working?" I questioned Al.

"Oh yes, I made a few", remembered Al. "One I think of now happened when we were doing "Uncle Tom's Cabin". As you know, everyone in the cast, played the staged, worked behind the scenes, in fact did everything you could think of. Let me draw you a picture of what happened.

You remember the highlight of the "Cabin" when little Eva dies? I was off stage at the time, when Eva died and went to heaven it was my job to turn the crank that wound the rolling scenery showing Eva passing the clouds on her way to heaven.

Picture this if you will, the stage lights down low, a soft baby spot on Little Eva and Pore Ole Uncle Tom on his knees as she dies and goes to heaven. I'm cranking away when all of a sudden, the stage manager comes to me and in a hoarse whisper said, 'What in Hell do you think you're doing? turn the crank the other way you damn fool, you've got Eva goin' down instead of up'."

"So", concluded Al "I stopped the cranking, reversed my direction and got Eva under way in the right direction."

"Her trip that night took a little longer", he smiled, "but we got her there."

"How did you get into Haliburton County?"

"In 1934 I came back through Haliburton County with Leslie M. Frost on his first political campaign and acting on Mr. Frost's advice I settled here."

"Mr. Frost told me that when he was elected he would make Haliburton County one of the best known Counties in Ontario and he has certainly lived up to his promises. I have always been indebted to him for getting me up here."

Al is now the owner and the operator of the Golden Slipper, has a prosperious taxi business, among other interests, but has always found the time to help in community work. The County, as Al says, "has been good to me." On the other hand Al has done a great deal to boost the County on his trips South.

Last summer Al turned over to the Minden Museum of Dioramas, "Jolly" Jimmie's Vent Dummy along with some old pictures and handbills. They make interesting viewing.

That's it for this week. My personal thanks to Bob, George and Al for making these past three weeks live for me. It's been a privilege talking to you.

New park bandshell urged by parks commissioner

A new bandshell for Victoria Park has been strongly advocated by Parks Board Secretary T. R. Price. He was speaking on parks matters at the Lindsay Council inaugural meeting.

"Such a new bandshell in Victoria Park would give the town some distinction and if possible I think the council should give the matter consideration in 1963," he stated.

He also spoke of three changes which would be necessitated in Parks Board personnel in 1963 due to the resignations of former Chairman Carl Brown, member Earl Ehuttleworth and his own after a 15-year term of service. He also mentioned the valued services of parks superintendent Walter Miner.

He reviewed the Lindsay Parks Board property as follows: Riverview - five acres at the east end of Durham St.; McDonnell Park, Lindsay St. N; East Ward Park, on Caroline between King and Queen Sts.; Three acres, north of St. Paul St. on the riverbank; Seven acres in the north-west corner on the former dump site; Kawartha Park north of the LCI; Victoria Park in central Lindsay "where a new bandstand is needed", the Auto Camp area of three or four acres "which should be purchased now from the federal government on the closing down of Canadian Arsenals Ltd."

The Province of Ontario urge its establishment of trailer camps of this sort and pay 50% of the purchase price, de said.

Mrs. Percy Hill speaks on trip to British Isles

The January meeting of the Glen W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Dixon.

The President, Mrs. Warren Thomas was in the chair and opened the meeting in the usual manner. The minutes were read and reports given from the treasurer Mrs. Neil McLean and the convener of the flower committee Mrs. Carl Hill "Thank-you" notes were read from Mrs. Flett, Mr. Franklin Baker and Mrs. Dix-on on behalf of her father Mr. Oak. Roll call was answered with a mending hint. Mrs. Horace Shaw attended the rug making course held in Lindsay but it was decided not to hook the rug for achievement day.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Neil McLean, Mrs. Allen Anderson and Mrs. Tom Henderson. The Motto for this meeting "Don't walk this year in last year's rut". A reading was given by Mrs. Douglas Gilchrist on "The Founder of 4-H clubs". Following this the old song, "Flow Gently Sweet Afton" was sung. The guest speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Percy Hill. She gave an interesting travelogue on her trip to the British Isles with her husband in 1961.

Mrs. McLean thanked Mrs. Hill for speaking to them and closed the program with a poem, "A Challenge for New Year".

"God Save the Queen" was sung and a tasty lunch served by the hostess and committee in charge.

Christmas tree pickup and lay down

Not all of the Christmas trees which were picked up in Saturday's "Twelfth Night" collection for the Boy Scouts stayed up . . . Some were laid down again. In the top picture a truck driven by Ken McKnight of Lindsay is seen on Lindsay St. South loading a waiting used Christmas tree to be carted away to the bonfire site. In the lower picture, another pickup truck is seen after some of the trees it had picked up had been laid down again — this time under the rear wheels to help get it out of a snow filled ditch. The maneuver didn't work and a tow was necessary.

Sees further RMH expansion needed in year or two

A further expansion of the Ross Memorial Hospital will be needed within the next year or two. Such was the prediction of RMH Property Chairman George Hodgson at the inaugural meeting of Lindsay's Council. "Latest statistics show the hospital is now running at 100% capacity. But we are concerned with the health of the community and know if we roll up our sleeves it (further expansion) can be done," he said.

Grants from the provincial government, Lindsay council and county council and citizens contributing $600,000 made the last wing possible, he stated.

Lindsay Clergyman thinks China could be helped by UN admission

A Lindsay clergyman says he believes China could be helped by admitting her to membership in the United Nations. Rev. O. G. Locke, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, told fellow Kiwanis Club members this in a New Year message to the club this week. People, he declared in his reference to China, need to help others today, even if they are at fault . . . Those in need should be helped even at the risk of extra expense.

In his brief New Year's message, Mr. Locke also referred to a few of the deep and abiding convictions centred around the old year and carried them into the New Year for the contemplation of his listeners. These included the belief that there is a God, that the Bible has its place and should be recognized and that there should also be a recognition of freedom among all people. In accepting the beliefs carried over from the old year, Mr. Locke said there must also be an acceptance of the modern principles in the New Year.

The speaker was introduced by Past. Pres. G. Phelps of the Support of Churches Committee and the opening song was a hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Retiring Treasurer Nleles Bradburn submitted an excellent financial statement showing the projects completed by the Club in the past year, the money raised and how welfare work was aided.

Cleve Dayman, who for many years was an active skip with the Lindsay Curling Club but who relinquished the game a couple of games ago, has acceded to a request that he finish the present season as a vice on Max Perrin's rink.

Pay Last Respects

A number of curlers were among crowd of Lindsay who paid their last respects to the late Colin Lees this week. School Inspector Lees is remembered as a fine exponent of the game. Several years ago he curled with irons in clubs at Renfrew, Pembroke and other places and he was also a competitor when irons were used instead of granites in one of the Montreal rinks. Today the irons have disappeared. The late inspector was wont to relate that "beautiful ends" could be built with irons in the day when irons were expertly handled in drawing from all angles into the rings. Runners were unheard of. Inspectors Lees played many a fine game in the Peel Street rink.

Teams play to 6-6 tie

Sunderland (PNS) — In intermediate Rural Hockey the Haliburton team visited Sunderland recently.

The ice was slow but the play was fast and rugged with the game ending in a 6-6 tie.

The referees kept good control of the game handing out 7 penalties in the 1st period and four in the second and in the last period play was clean and wide open with no penalties being handed out.

Sunderland scored once in the first period, one in the second and four in the third while Haliburton got three in the second and three in the third.

Referees were R. Peters and K. Breughton.

In M.H.A. the Sunderland Midgets were hosts to Little Britain in a game played in Sunderland Arena. The game ended with a score of 11-2 in favour of Little Britain.

MEET AT TORONTO

The Chicago Black Hawks and Toronto Maple Leafs meet at Toronto tonight. In a battle for first place in the National Hockey League. The teams are tied with 45 points apiece. The league was idle last night.

AHL ACTION

Providence visits Cleveland and Springfield plays at Pittsburgh in American Hockey League action tonight. Last night, Quebec and Buffalo battled to a 3-3 tie in overtime and Baltimore shaded Rochester, 4-3.

EITHER TODAY OR TOMORROW

The site and date for the return heavyweight title fight will be announced either today or tomorrow. Promoter Tom Bolan says that Champion Sonny Liston Floyd Patterson tentatively agreed to the site and date last Sunday. One site was ruled out yesterday when the Nevada State Athletic Commission voted down the bout in that state. Baltimore, Cleveland and Miami Beach are he possible sites, but it looks like Miami Beach.

"KNOWN HOODLUMS"

National Football League Commission Pete Rozelle says that some members of the Detroit Lions have associated with "known hoodlums". The Detroit Police Commissioner confirmed Rozelle's charge and named the "notorious gamblers" that Lion players have been seen with. However, police have no evidence of any criminal activity involving the players. In Houston, a newspaper reports that senate investigators are checking American Football League players as well as N-F-L for possible association with gamblers.

TOP CANADIAN

Canada's Linda Crutchfield was the top Canadian in the special slalom of the International Ladies Ski Races at Grindewald, Switzerland yesterday. Miss Crutchfield finished 13th in 141-point-60 seconds, 13-point-39 seconds behind the winner--Germany's Barbi Henneberger. Another Canadian--Nancy Holland--was 21st.

POSSIBLE PRISON TERM

Former Columbia University Basketball star Jack Molinas faces a possible prison sentence of 36 years and/or fines totaling more than 35-thousand dollars for his bribery conviction in New York. Molinas was found guilty on a five-count indictment charging bribery in 25 college basketball games.

Juveniles take 'Caygeon 8-4 maintain their winning pace

Lindsay juveniles maintained their winning pace at the Kiwanis Arena last night when they defeated Bobcaygeon Juvenviles 8-4. After outscoring the visitors 5-2 in the first period, the home team sagged in the second frame while Bobcaygeon scored twice to end the period on a 5-4 count. A three-goal third period clinched the win for the Lew Jr's lads.

Bobcaygeon opened the scoring when Clayt Oliver cashed Dale Junkin's rebound at 2:38. Nine seconds after Ron Oliver was chased for tripping Wayne McLeish tied the score. Gary Hefferman assisting at 3.44. The McCabe, Purdy, McCabe line scored twice in ten seconds just after the eight minute mark with Ricky Purdy scoring first from Ray McCabe, then Ray scored assisted by Pat McCabe. Lindsay's next goal came when our boys were a man short. Ray McCabe getting the gate for charging. Gary Hefferman cashed a breakaway pass from Wayne McLeish. Bobcaygeon repeated the trick three minutes later with Dale Junkin serving time for kneeing. Ron Ingram did the trick, a beautiful unassisted effort. A tripping penalty to Tom Jackson set up Lindsay's final goal of the period at 18.55.

Bobcaygeon rallied in the second period to pretty well carry the play. Ron Ingram scored again unassisted at 13.46, and Len Grills scored from Ken Griffin at 14.24 when both teams were short handed

The third period was just over a minute old when Lindsay got on the main line again, carrying the play to the visitors pretty well through the period. George Morasse banged in Gary Hefferman's rebound in a goal-mouth scramble at 1:08. Joe Junkin, Bobcaygeon's plucky goal-minder, had to retire from the game at 5:45 in the period when the puck flipped in the air and missed his grab at it descended, striking him on the head. Doug Broad who had guarded the twine for Lindsay during the first half of the game, suited up and turned in a solid effort for Bobcaygeon the rest of the way. Two close-in shots did evade him however; one by Gary Lywood from McLeish at 7:23 and a solo effort by Ray McCabe at 10.13. Lindsay kept up the pressure to the end of the period but young Doug was unbeatable.

Treat In Store

A treat for local hockey fans is on the books for to-night at the Arena when 30 or so oldtimers will go at it again in an exhibition fixture and the fans wil be admitted. This corner is not certain if it is the Oldtimers vs. the Grandads or the other way around, anyway it will be fun for all. They had a prep game last Wednesday night, under wraps so to speak but word leaked out and the fans demand action. Drop in to-night and see the Al Burns - Bob Lewis "Rustics" battle the Ralph Wakelin - Cise Gerster "Ousides".

Car struck man on highway, driver fined for impairment

Lawrence Moore, of Coboconk, was found guilty on a charge of impaired driving and assessed a total of $78 in Magistrate Moore's court at Lindsay this week.

OPP Const. J. R. DesLaurier told the court of being called to the scene of an accident on highway 35 around 9 p.m., January 4, and later questioning the accused in the village. Moore had been driving south on the highway, and had struck a pedestrian who was also walking in the same direction.

A doctor had been called and the injured man had been removed to his home by the accused, and it was after he (Moore) had dropped the man at his home that he was stopped and questioned by the constable.

The accused had seemed unsteady on his feet, said the officer, and smelled of alcohol.

The officer spoke in favor of the accused saying that on the night in question the road had been wet, it was very dark and according to the accused there had been a truck approaching at the time of the accident.

The magistrate reminded the officer that the charge would have to be based on the condition of the accused during his apprehension and not during the accident.

The officer agreed, stating that his testimony covered such conditions.

No signs of solution to gas problem, Beaverton hotelman declares

There have been no new developments leading to a solution of the problem created by gas seepage in the Beaverton Hotel basement. In making this known,hotel owner Frank McMillan said Tuesday a fair quantity of fresh gas seepage was detected in the hotel basement on December 30th and Beaverton councillors were called in to inspect same and took a sample for testing.

From then on the seepage continued to come in but in lesser amount, he added.

Mr McMillan has been forced to close and vacate his hotel due to this gas seepage at a considerable financial loss and has entered into lawsuit proceedings.

Riding's PCs sending three to convention

Three delegates from this constituency will be on hand for the annual general session of the Progressive Conservative Association when it meets in Ottawa starting January 17th. They are: Wm. Scott of Kinmount and Mrs. A. C. Mc-Kenzie of Beaverton, and Mr. Glen Hodgson of Haliburton who will represent the YPC's.

Making this known, association secretary Gordon Pepper of Lindsay said there will be approximatey 1500 voting delegates attending this convention at the Chateau Laurier. In addition, many interested observers and supporters will be welcome and are expected to attend. The first day will be largely taken up with the activities of the Women's Association, and the last two days will be devoted to sessions of the National Association.

Plans for LCE coliseum now complete, board told

NOTICED . . along the way

There's a growing interest in "old timers" hockey in this district and few are more interested in promoting it than a former Lindsay resident and defenseman for the Toronto Maple Leafs - Hank Goldup. Seen in the above picture (centre) with Mrs. Goldup and long-time friend Johnny Tozer of the Hotel Benson, Lindsay, he was on his way through town to an "old timers" game at Bobcaygeon. Hank played with Toronto from 1939 through 1942, did a stint with the armed forces, then went with the New York Rangers from 1944 through 1946. A leg injury in 1947 put him out of action for two years. A resident of Lindsay 1949-51, the Goldups now live in Etobicoke and he is employed by Molson's Breweries. The game at Bobcaygeon featured NHL Old Timers lineup: J. Henderson, Bob Goldham, Wally Stanowski, Ivan Irvin, Rags Raglan, Hank Goldup, Murray Henderson, Sid Smith, Tod Sloan, Cal Gardener, Ron Hearst, Herb Cain, Gus Bodner, Jack Hamilton.

Estimate cost at $200,000

Will review them at meeting submit for departmental okay

Draft plans for the new coliseum, proposed to replace present livestock barns at the Lindsay exhibition grounds are completed with the cost of the building estimated at $200,000. This was announced at the annual fair board meeting Wednesday. The board is most anxious to get the project underway, says exhibition Manager Newton G. Wilson, "especially since the recent announcement the Ross Memorial Hospital will soon require further expansion. Our old barns, if left in the present proximity of the hospital, would further add to the problems of such expansion and our livestock accomodation."

Plans for the 200 x 300 foot proposed coliseum were drafted by Engineer Ralph Gregg of the Department of Agriculture here. Featured is a store-away stall proposition which will allow for an open area of 60,000 square feet adaptable for spring shows, garden shows, boat shows and other community projects, Mr. Wilson explained.

The newly-elected L.C.E. board decided on Wednesday to hold a meeting of the Management and Property Committees on January 23rd to study the plans and cost estimate. Definite figures will then be presented to the board for approval.

After the board's endorsement of the plans and price, the plans will be sent to the provincial and federal departments for consideration of special financial assistance. Indication has been given that this will be forthcoming, Manager Wilson said because both departments asked that plans of the proposed building be made available.

The coliseum will be a replacement for the several livestock barns at the south end of the exhibition grounds. These old buildings have been declared by the Ross Memorial Hospital Board and the Lindsay Health Board as a fire and health hazard.

Dr. M. E. Gorman honored with retirement presentation by associates at the hospital

Over 200 members of the Ross Memorial Hospital staff, the Board of Governors and many friends, gathered in the cafeteria Wednesday afternoon to pay tribute to Dr. M. E. Gorman on his retirement and present him with a beautiful silver tray.

The tremendous ovation given the doctor as he entered the cafeteria with his wife, and the many handshakes bestowed on the widely known and highly respected member of the medical profession were visible evidence of his popularity as a man.

"Administrator Eric Freeborn spoke briefly, paying tribute to the doctor and of the fine work he had done at the hospital during his 35 years on the staff.

Chairman of the hospital board Col. R. I. Moore, on his past experiences with the doctor, his war experiences, his friendship, and his experience as one of the doctor's patients.

"It was very fortunate for us, the people of Lindsay, when the good doctor decided to choose our town as his home", observed Col. Moore, "and during my period on the Board of Governors, I have found his gracious way of giving of his time to our many problems invaluable".

The doctor was in fine form as he made a repartee to the speeches in his honor.

"It has been a very pleasant experience to "grow up with this hospital, so to speak", he said, "and I always find my-

KLTA told of plans to improve tourism

Mr. James McHattie, director of Information and Service with the Ontario Travel and Publicity Department, told directors of the Kawartha Lakes Tourist Association Wednesday night, that an experimental tourist promotion program would be put into effect this year in the Kawartha region by the department.

To assist in raising the standards of accomodation, which according to Mr. McHattie, was needed to stimulate the tourist trade, the department will institute an educational program, designed to encourage

Dr. A. F. Codlin '63 president Lindsay Central Exhibition

Dr. A. F. Codlin was elected President of the Lindsay Central Exhibition Board at the annual dinner meeting held in the IOOF Hall, Tuesday. Dr. Codlin replaces 1962 President John F.D. Graham.

Other officers are: 1st Vice-President, John Jenkins; 2nd Vice-President, Alvin Mark; 3rd Vice-President, Grant Benson.

The newly-elected 24-member directorate includes: Mrs. Maurice Collins, Dr. A. F. Codlin, Warren Brown, Joseph Murphy, Herman Buckley, Don McFadden, LeRoy Brown, Lloyd Graham, Alvin Mark, Lawrence Coples, John Jenkins, Gordon Mackey, Joseph Reynolds, Gordon Henderson, Sherman Moore, Grant Benson, Cliff Lillico, Ken Graham, Verdin Mark, Glen Corneil, Roy Neville Martin McGrisken Gary Linton, Dave Elliott.

Both Joseph Murphy and Alvin Mark declined nomination the office of 1st Vice-President in the election of the executive following that of the directors.

"Crash" advertising campaign urged to boost the Kawarthas

A "crash" advertising campaign to try and "put the Kawartha's on the map" was introduced at the first meeting of the year, to the directors of the Kawartha Lakes Tourist Association by Publicity Chairman Michael Scott on Wednesday night, received both encouraging comments, and full approval from all the members.

Asking for a budget of $5,500 for the coming season, Mr. Scott told the group that he would concentrate on the Toronto-Hamilton area this year with a blanket coverage of the two areas through T.V. radio, newspaper, and billboards.

"We are missing a terrific potential in these areas" he said, "and I feel that by concentrating on one or two areas at a time ,we can accomplish more than trying to "spread it thin".

"If the committee find this to be satisfactory, we will take a different area next year."

EDITORIAL . . . .

A WISE DECISION . . .

Lindsay's 1963 Council acted wisely this week in concurring with the suggestion of Finance Chairman Russell Taylor that it deal directly with various town departments in the matter of salary negotiations. It will be recalled that it was suggested by some members of the 1962 Council that this matter be turned over to a negotiator to be appointed outside council. At the time we opposed the proposal on the grounds that it wasn't necessary and that the council should assume the responsibility as part of its duties.

To carry the point a step further in the light of the decision reached this week, we suggest that an "outside" mediator in such matters might tend to alienate relationships between members of council and those in the town's employ. Town employees are not strangers—they are, in most cases, long time residents of the town and known to all members of council. They have shown themselves to be loyal and there is nothing to indicate that they are, or would be, unreasonable to deal with. We believe that by maintaining direct contact with these employees, council will gain their confidence and support with the result that the outcome of any negotiations will be more satisfactory than by any other approach.

Reports and Remarks..

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

By Cholm G. Houghton

A newspaper's more than mere paper and ink;
It's a force and a textbook, a bond and a link.
It's a history that's written as history is made.
It preserves the great moments that memory might fade.
It's a builder of laughter; a catcher of tears.
It can cause great excitement or quiet our fears.

It keeps us advised on the cases in court
Each day it supplies a new market report.
It highlights what's doing in town—where to go.
By reading the ads, we can save lots of dough.
It spells out the truth, for our press wears no muzzle
(Some readers turn first to the day's crossword puzzle).

Yes, our newspaper plays a great many parts;
It opens our minds, holds a place in our hearts.
Like a letter from home, familiar song.
Each edition is welcomed as it comes along.
Be it humble or great, with its pages unfurled,
A paper's a bargain—the best in the world.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 10, 1913

The Academy of Music has announced its next attraction of exceptional worth, Theodore Kremer's intensely interesting play, "The Fatal Wedding" will be presented by a particularly competent company, headed by Miss Geraldine Russell, who won enviable reputation as an artist of proven ability. "The Fatal Wedding" will be seen here on January 14, 1913.

Fenelon Falls—A two storey frame house, situated on the east side of the railway bridge, south of the Fenelon River, was destroyed by fire at 2.30 Sunday morning. The house occupied by James Grant, his wife and two small children, was completely gutted by the flames in a very few minutes. The occupants escaped but they were unable to bring out any of the furniture. Mr. Grant was a tenant of the house, and there was no insurance on either building of contents. Mr. Grant employed in the Standard Handle Co. stated that the stove pipes in the house were in good condition and this has led to the belief that defective wiring caused the fire.

AZALEA

Azaleas are rapidly becoming one of the most popular gift plants because of their wide range of colors in both small and large flowering varieties, makes it a colorful addition to the house.

Placing the plant in an east window at a temperature of 50 degrees to 60 degrees F, will enable it to continue flowering for several weeks. Azaleas are grown in an acid medium (peat) and should be well watered every day. Once a week stand the plant in water for not-longer than half an hour, advise horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

To keep plants for another year, repot them after they have finished flowering. Use an acid medium such as peat and a little soil, but no alkaline sand. The new growths may not be even, but any that are straggly may be pinched back before June 15th.

Choose a shady location and plunge the pots to the rims in peat for the summer. Feed every two weeks with one ounce of iron sulphate to three gallons of water. Before frost in the fall, bring the plants inside and store in a light place at 45 degrees F. In January, move to a temperature of 60 degrees F with good light.

Removing Linoleum

Removing linoleum that has been cemented to the floor depends upon whether it is to be used elsewhere. If the surface is good enough to warrant its use again, it should be taken up by a professional. Otherwise, all of it that can be loosened should be torn off. The cement holding the remaining pieces can be softened by flooding with water for awhile. As the water works underneath, it will soak the cement, allowing the stubborn fragments to be taken up.

Economical Wood Stain

An excellent antique-like stain for pine wood is made of strong tea diluted with a little water. When dry, cover with two thin coats of fresh white shellac, and when that has dried, wax for a fine finish.

TREMENDOUS WELCOME

Katanga President Moise Tshombe is now in the Rhodesian border of Mokambo where he has received a tremendous welcome from the residents of the village. Tshombe was released from U-N house arrest earlier today. He immediately left Elisabethville for a meeting in Mokambo with his Interior Minister, who is said to be leading a large Katangese force massed on the Northern Rhodesian border. As he reached the village swarms of Africans turned out to greet him. Remnants of his scattered army stood to attention in their tattered uniforms, presenting arms with a wide variety of weapons . . . most of them unloaded. A United Nations force is also reported moving in on the village to break up the disrupted Katangese force.

MUST BE RESTRAINED

U-N Secretary General Thant had ordered Tshombe's arrest, saying he must be restrained from what was termed "further irresponsible acts." A U-N spokesman said this meant Tshombe was put under house arrest. Belgian and British diplomats paid a visit to U-N headquarters this morning. Shortly afterward . . . Tshombe was freed. A U-N spokesman said the arrest was all a mistake. He said there had been "a slight misunderstanding."

HIGH LEVEL CONFERENCE

U-S Undersecretary of State George Ball held a high-level conference with American and French officials in Paris today in preparation for the Nato Council meeting tomorrow. Ball will try to convince France and other Atlantic partners to accept a joint nuclear striking force. He will explain the Polaris Pact concluded in the Bahamas last month by President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Macmillan.

DETAINED TWO MEN

Police have detained two men in Montreal and placed a guard over the hospital bed of a third in connection with the December 14th slaying of two policemen in a bank holdup. Police say the detained men—Victor Levesque and Louis Mastrouca—are being held as "important witnesses" in the so-called Santa Claus slayings. The two were arrested at criminal court yesterday. Police say they found 12-hundred dollars in the apartment of the hospitalized man.

RESIDENT FELLOW

Former C-C-F leader M. J. Coldwell has been appointed Resident Fellow at Carleton University's Institute of Canadian Studies in Ottawa. The 74-year-old Coldwell will discuss Canadian politics and history with graduate students at the institution and also work on his private papers and reminiscences.

NEW HIGHS

The Bureau of Statistics reports that new highs were reached in 1962 in Canadian steel ingot and pig iron production. The bureau says steel ingot output rose 10-point-nine per cent from the previous year while pig iron production showed a seven-point-four per cent gain from 1961.

40 INPURED

At least 40 people were injured this morning in a collision between two metro trains near Paris. Police say ten of the injured have been hospitalized. The accident was caused by one of the trains running through block sigals.

Mrs. A. Wilson hostess to UCW

Nestleton (PNS) — The Christmas meeting of the Nestleton U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Allan Wilson, with 16 ladies, one child and Rev. Romeril present. Mrs. Emerson, 1st Vice-President, took the chair in the absence of the president and opened the meeting with a poem and prayer in unison. The worship period, which was conducted by Mrs. Samells, took the form of a Christmas service entitled "Three Wise Men," and several of the members took part in this. Hymns were sung. The scripture reading was given by Mrs. Victor Malcolm. Mrs. Samells read the first verse of a hymn. A hymn was then sung and Mrs. Samells closed with prayer. A number of Christmas readings were given, entitled "Keeping Christmas", "Grandmother's Christmas", "Things That Make Christmas", "The Gift of Madeline" and "The Christmas Feel." A hymn closed the worship service.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the treasurer's report given, showing a balance on hand of $229.52. Copies of "The Upper Room" were distributed and the correspondence read. A "thank you" note was received from Mrs. George Heaslip. Roll call showed 15 hospital and four house calls. This was followed by prayer by Mr. Romeril, who then gave a very interesting talk on "The Courtesy of God". Installation of the newly appointed officers for the coming year was conducted by Rev. Romeril and the meeting closed with a hymn and the Mizpah benediction.

Lunch was then served by the group in charge and a social hour enjoyed. Mrs. Arnold Williams moved a vote of thanks to all for a very pleasant afternoon.

$9,417 operating deficit reported by exhibition; weather slashes receipts

A deficit of $9,417 in the 1962 operation of the Lindsay Central Exhibition was explained by Manager Newton G. Wilson as "what happens when revenue drops and current expenses increase." Manager Wilson was addressing the annual LCE board meeting held in the IOOF hall Wednesday with an attendance of about 80.

"One of the prime factors of the deficit was the weather during our fair week which affected our fair receipts over $4,000 in 1962. Our sundry revenue was down over $5,000 against 1961. Our expenditures on improvements to grounds and buildings exceeded $9,000, of which $4,881 was applicable to capital grants; now the result of all this is the definite deficit which is set out in our statement. I would suggest to our new board that we sit down and analyze our operation and set up a budget for 1963, continued Mr. Wilson.

From the auditor's statement shows that $29,007 was realized from the sale of tickets and comprised - advance ticket receipts, $9,667 and gate receipts of $19,340. Other receipts were grandstand, $5,707 and midway $5,441. Sundry revenue from storage and rentals and grandstand was down another $4,573 and government grants were decreased $913.

Report Lindsay Hydro delegates pressing for lower rate

A reduction in the power rates to the Lindsay Hydro-Electric Commission is reported to have been the object of a meeting between some of the top officials Wednesday.

Three members of the Lindsay Commission, George Baldwin, Hilton Brown, and Hydro Manager J. Lightbody met in Toronto, Wednesday with Chairman of the Ontario Commission, W. Ross Strike, and other top officials to discuss power costs in the area.

It is reported, that the Commission, through its delegates, sought a reduction in the cost of power on the grounds that the cost to Lindsay, according to one of the members, is higher than other places in the area.

A full report of the meeting will be presented to the board members at their next meeting.

Those "light" snows the weatherman refers to occasionally seem to have a heaviness about them when tackled with a snowshovel, either long or short-handled.

One of the current joys of motoring is leaving the entrance to the old driveway shovelled clear in the morning and returning in the evening to find that a snowplow has thoughtfully filled it in again. Some of the comments of unappreciative drivers would probably burn holes in the tape of a tape recording device so the chances of preserving them for the enjoyment of future generations aren't good. What a pity! No doubt when everyone is floating around in private helicopters a few years hence, some of these flashbacks to the good old days of snowbound motorists might prove very entertaining.

There has been a lot of reaction to the letter from an American citizen who enquired about a fountain she remembers seeing in front of a Lindsay home while on her way to Lindsay Central Exhibition many years ago. They will take a bit of sorting out to keep your eyes peeled on this column for a run down on "The Boy With The Boot" fountain story.

operators to improve facilities, and at the same time will be coupled with an educational program for the public.

Commencing sometime in the Spring, said the speaker, the department will conduct six seminars in this region.

In addition, he said, experienced tourist promotion men will be asked to lecture councils and service clubs in the area.

"We must try to establish better relations between the tourist and the public, and must try to remember that food is just as essential as the "sleeping part."

"If the tourist is not properly fed, he won't stay around long enough to try out the accomodation", he noted.

You have more potential in the Kawartha Lakes, than any other area in the province" concluded the speaker.

"Firm" pickerel opening date being considered, KLTA told

For many years a big headache among fishermen and tourist operators, the establishment of a firm date for the opening of the pickerel season, as requested by the Kawartha Lakes Tourist Association, will be considered by the appropriate committee, it was learned this week.

Secretary H. MacDonald told directors of the association, at the first meeting of the year, Wednesday evening, that a letter from the Minister of Lands and Forests stated that the matter was under their consideration. The minister said he would expect the points raised, to be discussed before the Standing Committee of the Legislature on Fish and Game when it meets in February or March for '63.

The reason for the request followed a discussion during one of the earlier meetings of the association, when it was felt that in the past, both tourist operator, and fishermen were left "up-in-the-air" as to when to book for reservations for the opening.

It is hoped, added Mr. MacDonald, that under the new system if and when it is established, both sportsmen and operators will be given a break and be able to plan ahead for the season.

Zone Commander Ian Scott installs Fenelon officers

Zone Commande Ian Scott, President Jack Dames and Publicity Chairman Wm. Dermedy of Branch 67 in Lindsay, the Royal Canadian Legion, installed the new executive of Branch 238, Fenelon Falls, in that town on Tuesday evening. A good turn out was present for the installation.

Zone Commander Scott acted as the installing officer for the vice-president and other officer for the vice-president and other officers. President Jack Dames of Branch 67 was given the honour of installing Comrade Pete Eason as President for 1963 for the Fenelon Branch. Mr. Dermedy acted as Sgt-at-arms for the ceremony.

Zone Commander Scott spoke briefly to the meeting and stressed full co-operation be given to the new President and his executive. He pointed out to the members that "we as Legionaires must attend our meetings regularly and give full support to those who we have appointed to carry on the affairs of the Legion within the Branch.

President Jack Dames of Branch 67, Lindsay congratulated the new executive and wished them every success in 1963.

The slate of officers is as follows: President - Pete Eason, 1st Vice Pres. - Earl Jackett, 2nd Vice-Pres. - A. Watson, Executive - Robt. Bulmer, Ted Mitchell and Fred Worrell. Secretary - Ken Smith, Treasurer - Reg. Dunning, Sgt-at-arms - Norm Miller, Chaplain - Harry Dymond.

Diamond D. Wednesday results

Nine curling clubs from Districts 14 and 15 entered the preliminary round of the playdowns in the Provincial Diamond D competition at the Peel Street rink Wednesday. Hand-picked rinks were present from Richmond Hill, Bradford, Newmarket, Heather (Toronto), Unionville, Cannington, Fenelon Falls, Bobcaygeon and Lindsay. Ice conditions were excellent and hospitality at its best. A Lindsay rink skipped by Mrs. Gladys Laidley was the only competitor to win three ten games in the opening round. Skip Laidley is supported by Mrs. Rita Kay, Mrs. Fern Reynolds and Mrs. Gladys Jordan.

All competing rinks are engaged in a round robin series with three games a day. The conclusion draw of the day takes place at 4:30.

Wednesday's games resulted as follows:

Richardson of Bradford 9, Jewett of Newmarket 13; Vance of Richmond Hill 12, Belfrey of Bobcaygeon 8; Laidley of Lindsay 10, Mabbett of Newmarket 6; Peverley (Heather Club) Toronto 8, Morgan of Cannington 9; Mabbett 12, Morgan 4; Belfrey 9, Moore of Fenelon Falls 5; Vance 3, Richardson 7; Belfrey 11, Mabbett 8; Jewett 4, Vance 3; Mabbett 13, Peverley 1; Laidley 10, Moore 4; Morgan 11, Belfrey, Bobcaygeon 9.

Mrs. A. A. Brodie of Beaverton of District 14 is acting as Umpire.

Little Britain

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kitson of Peterboro, called on his mother Mrs. William Kitson and some of their other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sornberger and family, visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lane at Oshawa and also visited his mother, Mrs. Cora Sornberger at Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Culbert and his brother Paul, of Oshawa, and also their mother, Mrs. R. O. Culbert, of Little Britain, visited at Oakwood where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Cameron.

Treatment "just a few pills", ex-commando tells court

Former Canadian Army Commando John Cecil Hilyer, of Bobcaygeon, said, in magistrate Moore's court here that all he had received as far as treatment in the Ontario Hospital at Whitby, was a "few pills", and that he had walked out of the place because he "did not like it there".

Hilyer, brought back from the hospital, for sentencing after being declared "neither mentally ill, nor mentally defective", told the court that he had escaped and had been headed for Toronto prior to his return to the hospital.

Both Magistrate Moore, and Crown Attorney L. Jordan, showing concern over the accused, questioned the decision of the hospital, and felt that proper treatment was required and Hilyer should undergo further examination.

"How do you feel about this Mr. Hilyer?" asked Mr. Jordan.

"Whatever you think is best for me", replied the accused.

Remarking on the absence of the hospital report, the magistrate told the court "he had heard nothing further to his inquiry to Ottawa regarding Hilyer's war record, and until he was able to examine all the facts, would not pass judgement."

The Crown Attorney, together with Defence Counsel M. J. Cunningham, were instructed to check further into the matter and report their findings at he next court session.

17-15 win for Old Stars over Blue Bomber '39ers

It was a 17 to 15 win for Harry Johnson's Old Stars Wednesday night against Herb Simpson's Blue Bomber 39ers.

Herb's boys loosened up a few lonu unused muscles from last week's game to make the showing they did last night in the second of the season's "Old Timers Classics". They appeared to have it made as team scored against team, running close for the first two periods, keeping goalie Bell of the Stars and Alger of the Bombers so busy they wished they had "stood at home".

the "old guys", the Old Stars put on the pressure in the last hur 19, Perrin 6; Tompkins period, chalking up a close, but winning score.

Remarked one of the Old Stars during dressing period: "Well, if some of thise old chaps (the Bombers of course) can stay off their rocking chairs long enough to take a little more exercise, they might even win next week!"

self, after I have been on a journey, turning towards "home" and having a feeling of comfort when entering the town".

Director of In-Service Education, Mrs. Margaret Mills, speaking on behalf of Miss V. A. Camblin, who was unable to attend owing to sickness, told the group Dr. Gorman's retirement would leave a vacuum.

All the nursing department she said, joined with her wholeheartedly in wishing him good luck.

Speaking for the medical staff, Dr. C. W. M. Service also wished the doctor and his wife the very best of health in their future years.

A gift from the Nurses' Registry, presented by Mrs. Ursula Cresswell, and also one from Mrs. A. Murphy, representing the Nurses' Alumnae who wished the doctor "free sailing", brought the happy occasion to a close.

Sandwiches, coffee, and tea were served to those present.

The retirement presentation took place at 2.00 p.m. during the "shift hours" to allow as many of the staff as possible to attend.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

WHEN A PARENT LOSES HER MENTAL POWERS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My mother who will be 80 on her next birthday is in better general health than most people half her age.

She never drank or smoked, doesn't know what a headache is, has never taken laxatives, can eat salads, beans, or anything else without having gas or distress, never had an operation, no high blood pressure, has never known a stiff joint and wears glasses only for reading. She has the stamina to work in the yard for hours and can outwalk me by blocks.

But, formerly self-sufficient she has become as dependent as a child. She has to be reminded to wash her teeth, wash her hands & keep clean. She reads the same news article half a dozen times and asks the same questions repeatedly.

She has to hunt for the bathroom and can't leave the house without getting lost. She has anxiety, gets depressed and is subject to fainting spells from which she recovers in minutes.

Am I to sit by and grieve myself sick while her mind deteriorates and degenerates? Or until she loses it completely? Isn't there some way to remedy it? How about special diet? I will appreciate any recommendations.–Mrs. H.

Comment: Except for one thing–and a very important one–your mother seems to be in good physical condition. No doubt you have guessed the cause of the underlying trouble: atherosclerosis.

Her mental symptoms are due to a failure of adequate circulation in the brain; because the atherosclerosis has filled some of the artery pathways with cholesterol, fatty acids and lime salts. My guess –and it is only a guess– is that restricting fats in her diet will not help at this time. However, it is important that she get sufficient vitamins. Niacin sometimes helps the brain circulation in the elderly. As for the other symptoms, such patients often show improvement after the doctor prescribes chlorpromazine or similar durgs.

What else can you do but grieve, Mrs. H.? Thousands of children like yourself sit by helplessly and watch their aged parents gradually fade away. If we find the actual cause of atherosclerosis and a remedy for it, at least we will be able to put off such mental deterioration until the age of 100 and over.

Meanwhile, we should not sit idly by. I think that problems in the aged deserve careful evaluation by physicians especially interested in treating the elderly. We call them geriatricians. They would be guilty of saying to a 70 or 80-year-old patient: "After all, what do you expect at your age?"

Janetville UCW meets in church

Janetville (PNS) — The monthly meeting of the U.C.W. of Janetville was held in the church, the President opened the meeting with the theme song. Mrs. Ross Winnicote was in charge of the worship service, the theme being about the disciples following Jesus. Three hymns were sung. The scripture reading was given by Silvia Winnicote.

The secretary, Mrs. Virtle Staples, read the minutes and called the roll, Mr. Donald Fisher, the treasurer, gave a very encouraging report on the years work and Mrs. Harold Moxon gave a report on the cards and flowers sent to the sick and bereaved during the year. Fifty dollars was handed in from the sale of Christmas cards, some of the ladies attended the work shop session that was held in Milbrook last month. Mr. Gordon Staples and Mr. Murray Shea, gave reports on the subjects discussed there.

Mr. John Burn introduced the guest speaker Miss Veal, a missionary who is home on furlough after having worked in Ethiopia for five years. She gave a very interesting story about the work in that country after which she showed a number of coloured slides which were very much enjoyed by all.

The president closed the meeting with prayer, and a very tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Guy McGill and Mrs. Murry Shea.

TAKE SOLE POSSESSION

The Chicago Black Hawks defeated the Toronto Maple Leafs, 3-1, in last night's only National Hockey League game to earn sole possession of first place. The Hawks are now two points ahead of the second-place Leafs and three in front of third place Montreal. The Canadiens are hosts to Detroit tonight at the forum while the Black Hawks visit Boston.

CLEVELAND DEFEATS PROVIDENCE

In American Hockey League action last night, Cleveland defeated Providence, 3-1, and Springfield whipped Pittsburgh, 4-1. In a single game tonight, Buffalo is at Quebec City.

ENTERS MEET

Canada's track sensation, distance runner Bruce Kidd of Toronto, has entered the Los Angelse Invitational Indoor track and field meet, set for January 19th. Kidd of Toronto, has entered the Los Angeles Invitational-years old, will face his toughest competition in Max Truex, top United States distance runner.

APPARENT DISAGREEMENT

The chairman of the Miami Beach Boxing Commission says an apparent disagreement over whether the city will host the Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson rematch may be settled today. Patterson's adviser and the promoter—Championship Sports Incorporated—announced yesterday that the heavyweight champion-ship match would be staged in Miami Beach on April 4th. However, Liston said in so many words that this is news to him. Liston kayoed Patterson in the first round of a title bout in Chicago last September to win the heavyweight championship.

FIRE HEAD COACH

The Cleveland Browns of the National Football League fired head coach Paul Brown yesterday. Brown—one of the most successful coaches in professional football history—had guided the Browns to seven conference championships and three league titles in 13 years as head coach. At one point, Cleveland won six consecutive Eastern Conference crows under his leadership. Team President Arthur Modell said Brown also had been relieved of his duties as General Manager, but would remain with the club as a vice-president.

BURIED TODAY

land won six consecutive Eastern Conference crowns Rogers Hornsby, will be buried today in a town founded by his ancestors. Hornsby's Band, Texas. Hornsby died Saturday in Chicago of a heart ailment at the age of 66. Hornsby's Bend—which is nine miles south of Austin—has a listed population of 20 persons.

Lindsay man will officiate at big bonspiel's opening

Ontario Curling Association Past President E. Neil Gregory of Lindsay, will officiate at the opening ceremonies of Ontario's most colorful mixed bonspiel when it focuses the attention of the curling world on Muskoka during the week of January 15th through to 19th.

Holiday atmosphere takes over as the townsfolk happily welcome curlers from scores of clubs throughout Ontario and Quebec.

The stirring skirl of bagpipes excites spectators and curlers alike as the colourful competitors parade on the ice at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning ... with Bill Currie, President of the Ontario Curling Association, Gordon Aiken, Muskoka M.P., and Robert Boyer, M.P.P., showing their curling form with first rocks simultaneously in Curling Clubs of Huntsville, Bracebridge and Gravenhurst. Officials of the Clubs extend cordial welcome to curlers from Fenelon Falls, Brockville, St. Catharines, Oshawa, Dundas, Dixie, Toronto's Avonlea, Donalda, Granite Club, Toronto Cricket, Skating and Curling Club, Mississauga, St. George's Club, Scarboro, Weston, Hanover, Parry Sound, Orangeville Hornepayne, Elliot Lake, Richmond Hill, Newmarket, Barrie, Orillia, MacTier, Port Carling, Kitchener, Huntsville, Windsor, Bracebridge, Niagara Falls, Fergus, Gravenhurst, Ridgetown, Mount Royal, Quebec, Cobourg, Sutton, Bradford, Lindsay, Port Perry, Peterboro, Unionville, Sarnia and others.

Little Britain Peewees win at Beaverton

Little Britain defeated Beaverton 7-1 in an O.M.H.A. Peewee game on Beaverton ice.

Beaverton took a 1-0 lead when Bill Mitchell scored at the 3.20 mark of the first period. Brian Jenkins tied the score for Little Britain at 10.30 of the same period.

In the second period goals were scored by Ken Anderson at 2.15 and Brian Jenkins assisted by Mike Roche at 3.45 to put the visitors ahead by a score of 3-1.

In the third period Little Britain scored four unanswered goals to win 7-1. Goals were scored by Bill Edwards assisted by Brian Jenkins at the 4.30 mark, Brian Jenkins assisted by Bill Edwards at 5.25, Larry Junkin assisted by Phil Archer at 8.02 and Phil Archer at 18.00 unassisted.

This was a well played game with the Beaverton goalie making some nice stops.

Fundamentally the same, changing style noted by club visitor

The fundamentals of the game are the same as a few years ago but the style and the techinques of the game have changed was the remark heard at the Lindsay Curling Club, while watching the finals in the Walkover Mixed Bonspiel. The remark was made by Clarence (Nick) Telford, of Toronto, who was home for the weekend visiting his father, G. C. Telford, Cambridge Street S.

"I recall", he said, "the days of 1927 when a rink skipped by 'Chippy' Belfour was the first to win the Ontario Junior Tankard. Dr. Laidley was the coach. I also remember the proud moment in my curling career when I skipped the rink which won the Junior Tankard in 1937 and Percy Skitch was the coach. The other players were Milt Endicott as third, Gordon O'Leary as second and Don. McKee as lead."

Continuing, the former Junior Skip said: ' The draw game was the style but the the running game was just coming in. The late Frank Carew was a stalwart with his running shots and he always warned the boys to hop on top of the board walks which were in use those days at each end of the rink and down the middle. I liked the hack shot but as a rule we used to play just enough weight to move the stones out and leave our stones in the circles. There was just as much sweeping but the sliding delivery was not thought of. Ladies playing at the game were unheard of but they have apparently added to the enthusiasm and prestige of the game to-day."

Summing up his observations, Mr. Telford said: "I read the papers and I fall to see the name of Lindsay in print in the curling columns like it was in the old days. Youngsters were encouraged to curl and many fine players emerged from the ranks of the Collegiate. I am told the school boys of to-day do not get the same training as we used to, I would like to see Lindsay go out and win some more tankards and keep the curling name of Lindsay on the map."

BASS WILL SOMETIMES JUMP UPON A SURFACE LURE, PERHAPS TAIL-SPLASHING IT. TO A BEGINNER, THIS LOOKS LIKE A STRIKE, BUT IT ISN'T.

YOU SHOULD ALWAYS GIVE THE LURE A TUG TO SET THE HOOK THE INSTANT A BASS BREAKS WATER—YOUR REFLEXES CAN'T BE TOO FAST. A SLIGHT TUG WON'T JERK A LURE BEYOND FISH'S RANGE IF HE MISSES IT. SO, LET PLUG LIE QUIETLY UNTIL RIPPLES STOP, THEN BARELY TWITCH PLUG. IF THAT DOESN'T MAKE BASS STRIKE, PAUSE A MINUTE, TWITCH, THEN REPEAT.

Sunderland

It was with deep regret the people of the village learned of the passing of Captain Geoffrey Tutty in Sunnybrook Hospital Toronto. The sympathy of the community is extended to his widow in her bereavement.

Mrs. S. St. John had the misfortune to fall in her home and suffered a fractured hip. She was alone for four hours after the accident and finally managed to drag herself to the phone. The operator phoned her neighbours Mr. and Mrs. Hancock who immediately called the doctor and she was moved to Lindsay hospital where she has undergone an operation. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm and family of Dorval visited her sister anad family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hancock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond and family, of Stratford, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morrow.

Hughes and Felt Cups whereabouts sought

Where are the Hughes and the Felt cups?" was a question raised a few days ago.

A long-time Lindsay sports fan recalls that the Hughes cup (donated by the late Sir Sam Hughes) was open for competition among teams from Victoria and Haliburton only. It was a beautiful silver trophy and was played for religiously every winter for several years. Many a great battle took place between teams from Lindsay and district and teams from Haliburton. The details and running of the annual tournament were handled by the late Alex Paton, former Grand Trunk telegrapher, freight agent and once the operator of his own private school of telegraphy which was located in the Academy block. The front top storey of the Academy Theatre was a maize of telegraph poles, wires and instruments but many a fine student was turned out by Mr. Paton.

The rules in the Hughes tournament were strict, especially regarding imports and amateurism. The trophy was played for so often that two bases were completely surrounded with small shields bearing the names of the winners. Where is this cup? What team was the last to win it? Information would be appreciated by this paper.

The FELT CUP

The Felt Cup, which was donated by Arthur O. Felt, a Lindsay jeweller, was also a prized trophy. Mr. Felt operated a store where the Percy Houzer Men's Wear store is now located. The tournament was handled by Ford Moynes, former editor and sports writer. It was the largest trophy in size of all the cups competed for in Lindsay and district. A tournament was held every winter and unlike the Hughes competition, the Felt event was wide open to any team in the world (so speak) and as a result, some of the best and fastest hockey teams from Fenelon Falls, Peterboro, Haliburton, Oshawa Port Hope, Markham and other points were frequent contenders. The entries were sufficient to hold a tournament two or three nights with two and three games a night and the crowds were large.

Where is the trophy today? It is reported that the cup was presented a few years ago to the Lindsay Recreation Committee when John Thorsen was director.

THE FORBERT CUP

Felix Forbert, one time popular shoe merchant in Lindsay now of Toronto, donated the Forbert Cup for hockey competition several years ago. It was for Junior teams and this trophy also created much interest and developed many a good hockey player. This cup is also reported to have been presented to the recreation committee in the days of John Thorsen and was put up for junior competition. It should be around–where?

Incidentally, the two Forbert brothers–Floyd and Ross–were among Lindsay's best hockey players several years ago. The latter has been a merchant in Bobcaygeon for some time.

"Unwarranted reflection", Student Council declares

Lindsay man on sales mission

Monthly operational statement approved by Water Board

On suggestion of Mayor Jos. Holtom a monthly statement of specific operation, plus the bank balance and capital purchases concerning the Lindsay Water Board will be presented at each future meeting of the board.

"First we hear you have lots of money, then we hear you are short and it would be helpful to have a monthly statement from the secretary to know just where we stand in considering such purchases as proposed tonight," stated the Mayor.

Mayor Holtom was referring to the suggested purchase of proper office equipment for the board's new quarters in the front of the town hall and which will soon be ready for occupation. Present renovation financed by the board was estimated in the neighborhood of $3,000 and would allow for a moderate purchase of needed equipment.

Superintendent Reynolds pointed out that for 15 years he had used a table for a desk and lighting of his office was detrimental to his eyesight.

"But I am not saying to throw everything out or sway your decision but suggest a new desk be purchased for the front office, a new desk for my office and possibly two new secretarial chairs and two for customer use", he said. "But I can sit on a box . . don't think I want to influence you," he added.

Mayor Holtom and Chairman Sinclair both stated the superintendents office should be suit ably furnished and equipped and it was agreed the renovation committee be given authority to do so and also purchase a desk for the front office for a start.

The secretary affirmed that the board would in her opinion, be able to handle such purchases. It was pointed out payments had to be made for the office renovation and for a piece of land at a price of $1,300. The town owns the water board $9,000 for the St. David area water extension project", past chairman Maurice Collins casually mentioned.

"Borow on that the, the town's financial position is considered excellent", advised the Mayor.

Weather outlook

Summary for Saturday: Light snow.

Say drinking survey was not conducted in this district

"An unwarranted reflection on ourselves and our school".

That's the position the Lindsay Collegiate Institute's Student Council takes following statements made in magistrate's court at Lindsay relative to drinking among high school students.

A statement issued by the Student Council relative to the matter states, quote:

"Figures quoted in court following the incident, were that 66% of all girls and 43% of all boys attending high school drink. We have no knowledge of where the survey resulting in the computation of these statistics, was taken, or how extensive it was. However, the survey was not conducted in this district to the knowledge of school authorities, and we feel that generalizations of this sort are often erroneous and misleading. Because the statement was made concerning an incident at L.C.I., we feel that the figures quoted are an unwarranted reflection on ourselves and our school.

"We hope that we have clarified the discrepancies in the account, as it appeared in the paper, without being injurious to the court or paper. We felt the article necessitated will attend.

action on our part in order to defend our school's reputation and the character of teenagers in general."

The statement is signed by President Anne Battersby, Vice-President Eleanor Ford, Treasurer Wayne Brumwell and Secretary Michael Longworth.

HSA Board sends two delegates to conference

Two delegates from this area will attend the mid-winter conference of the Ontario Association or School Business Officials. They are J. Stanley Dix, secretary-treasurer, and Morley V. Bell purchasing agent of the Victoria County High School Area Board.

Opening at the Sheraton-Brock Hotel Niagara Falls Sunday, Education Minister William Davis will be among those addressing the four-day conference. Other noted speakers will include Dr. Z.S. Phimister, director of education for Toronto and Dr. Geoge Fowler of the Ontario College of Education. The conference lasts for four days amd it is expected 200 school business officials

People choose many different ways of "making their mark" in the world . . . Some are said to leave their "footprints in the sands of time" but Raymond Sydney Howlett of the Valentia district wasn't interested in erecting a permanent memorial to himself when he chose a snowbank on which to inscribe his name. Planting his two feet firmly at the edge of the drift, and taking stick in hand, he proceeded to spell out in bold letters his full name for his own entertainment . . . An excellent way to get in a little printing practise in the great outdoors. But then, perhaps he is considering entering public life later on and wanted to get an idea of how his name would appear in big letters.

A car eastbound on Colborne St. W. came to a "dead" stop at the Victoria Ave N. railway crossing at noon today. . . and just in time. It was only inches away from a northbound CNR freight train when it came to a halt. The train crew apparently wasn't so sure it was going to be a clear miss because it brought the train to a stop too. The only difference in the two stops was that the train was ready and able to move on its way when it was discovered no harm had been done. Not so the car. . .

EDITORIAL....

THE PRESS NEEDS TO BE KEPT INFORMED TOO...

Most organizations are very public relations conscious these days... They are anxious that the public be aware of their group and the service that they are endeavouring to perform. The Press is equally concerned in the matter... It wants to co-operate with the various local boards, committees, associations and so forth in getting their message across to the public. In order to do this effectively, it too must be kept informed.

The majority of organizations include a publicity officer in their executive appointments and these people are of great assistance in keeping the Press informed of developments which are of public interest. Many, in fact most, public bodies such as council, hydro, the hospital, planning board, etc., see that the newspapers are notified of upcoming meetings in lots of time to arrange coverage. This co-operation is much appreciated and of great assistance in keeping the Press informed so that it, in turn, may be in a position to keep the reading public abreast of the times. There are still some public bodies which do not notify news media of coming meetings but may we suggest that they might find it mutually advantageous to entertain the idea. At the outset of the New Year, is a good time to review public relations policies and this segment of the Press will be pleased to be of any assistance possible in this connection. May we, in turn, expect your co-operation?

Reports and Remarks..

• Road and street budgets for all governments for the year ending March 31, 1963 increased to $1,090 million in 1960-61. This will be the second biggest road-building year on record.

• Provincial governments budgeted for $7227.9 million, an all time high. This amount is equivalent to 66.7 per cent of total budgets for the year; municipal governments budgeted for $258 millions (23.9 per cent of total) which is an increase of $13 million over the preceding year; the federal government budgeted for $103.7 million (9.4 per cent of total), a decrease of 4.9 million from the preceding year.

• Motor vehicles travelled 45.0 billion miles in 1961, an increase of nearly 2 billion over 1960. This estimate, based upon average miles travelled per gallon of fuel, had shown a steady increase each year since the immediate postwar year.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 11, 1913

The regular meeting of the Library Board was held last night in the board room of the Library. Those present were Messrs. F. D. Moore, Dr. Blanchard, J. O'Reilly, R. R. Reesor and A. O'Loughlin. Mrs. F. D. Moore took the chair and the regular reports and monthly business was gone through with, showing affairs of the library to be in very good shape. Last night's meeting was the last one of the year. Next month's meeting will be the annual meeting.

Fail to Qualify

January 14th, a new nomination will be held for the purpose of nominating new candidates to comprise the Woodville Council of 1913. The only member of the council elected was that of Reeve who is Mr. Wm. McKee. The candidates nominated for the council failed to qualify.

JANUARY 11, 1938

Haliburton—It is almost possible that the Haliburton citizens' band will reorganize in a few days and the villagers are rejoicing the idea of having their town band again. The band will have some fine instruments and all they need is new music and their old members back at practice for a few nights. For seveal years Mr. H. B. Feir the bandmaster gave a great deal of time to the work and this was greatly appreciated by the citizens of the North and the members of the band. It is hoped that when the band get together again it will be bigger and better.

A reply to Warden Alton

77 Eastwood Rd.,
Toronto 8, Jan. 8/63.

The Editor,
The Lindsay Post.
Sir:

Enclosed please find a clipping from the Toronto Evening Telegram under date January 3, 1963 re statement made by Victoria County Warden John Alton. (The clipping is of a story re-written from "The Post" covering the warden's drawing of a parallel between the invasion of Eldon Township Council by Metropolitan Toronto candidates and their take over of power, to Hitler's invasion of Austria and Czechoslovakia.)

It would appear that the Warden has given very little, if any study to the Cottager's side of this situation as he failed to state the reason for Cottagers' putting representation on the different councils.

Here is one of the reasons:

In 1962 my assessment was raised by over $400 per lot. True the mill rate came down but I still paid slightly over $200 per lot more in taxes than in previous years and this offer applied to most, if not all, the Cottagers. For this we do not get a single service.

The Warden states that the Cottagers comprise 75 per cent of the voters. Surely then we are entitled to representation on council.

No. Mr. Warden, we are not Hitlerites and Metro Toronto not at all interested in any of the outlying municipalities. If you look at the tax rolls you will find a good percentage of the Cottagers come from cities and towns other than Toronto, such as Hamilton, Whitby, Oshawa, St. Thomas, Etc.

The trend these days seems to be gouge the cottager and this may prove to be the straw that broke the camel's back.

Yours for a square deal,
Leonard Burford.

Little Britain

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald (nee Shirley Shrub) and children, of Smiths Falls, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shrubb at Little Britain.

and also with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McDonald at Oakwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bellamy of Forest, are welcomed as newcomers to the village and Mr. Bellamy will succeed Mr. R. O. Winters as the new manager of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce and fill the vacancy.

Pastor and Mrs. Cecil Dawson and their family of Cannington, near Belleville, who were former residents of Little Britain, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moys Avery and other friends.

Mr. Murray Junkin has resumed his duties on the teaching staff at Peterboro after spending the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Junkin.

Pastor Lorne Norton, Carl Sornberger, Fletcher Gilson, Stanley Peters, Alvin and Raymond Found, David Stevenson, Morley McIntyre, Ross Teel and Harvey Risebrough were in attendance at the regular monthly Fellowship meeting which was held at the Norland Baptist Church and had the privilege of hearing a minister from Peterboro, who was the guest speaker in connection with the same and during the meeting it was announced that their next Fellowship meeting in February would be at Cannington Baptist Church.

Mr. Alan Prouse, of Georgetown teaching staff, and his family visited in this community at the home of his mother, Mrs. G. P. Prouse.

Rev. and Mrs. George Wright and family, of Canton, also Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wright of Lindsay, visited at the home of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Found.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, suggest that you cook enough potatoes today for that meal in a hurry tomorrow. Cold boiled potatoes can always be creamed, fried, hashed-browned, or will make a tempting hot potato salad.

If there isn't time to prepare greens for a tossed salad, home economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, recommend arranging slices of Ontario hot house cucumbers and tomatoes on a plate centered with a small bowl of Russian dressing made with equal parts of mayonnaise and chili sauce.

If you like to keep a late-comer's dinner hot, dish up his plate, cover with an inverted pie plate or aluminum foil and set over a pot of simmering water. However, many vegetables do not hold longer than 15 minutes in this manner.

For an attractive looking party snack, you can color cream cheese pink or green with food coloring, flavor with a dash of garlic powder, and fill a decorating tube with this mixture. Then swirl the cheese onto crisp cracker rounds and top with a few parsley leaves.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

Q. Have you any suggestions for making draperies hang more evenly and thus look neater and nicer?

A. Your draperies will hang more uniformly and their weight will be better distributed if a three-inch strip of cloth is sewed across the back of the drapery near the top edge - - to take a curtain rod.

Q. What can I do when I've finished using a can of paint, but expect to use it again in another day or two?

A. You can preserve it and prevent any thick film from forming on the surface of the paint it you'll pour a little off the water.

Officers installed at meeting

Sunderland (PNS) — The Ladies Legion Auxiliary Brock Branch 141 held their January meeting in the Legion Rooms. Owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. Bennett the 1st vice and president-elect took charge of the meeting.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted and the treasurer, Mrs. Bartley gave the financial statement. There was no new business.

The president of the men's branch, Com. Power assisted by the president-elect Com. Vestby installed the new officers. They were thanked for their service by the president Mrs. Bennett.

As no further business was put forth the meeting adjourned and a social half hour was spent before lunch was served.

Personal

Friends of Mr. Stanley Oliver, Melbourne St. E., will be pleased to learn, he is recovering satisfactorily following surgery in the Ross Memorial Hospital.

Minister addresses WCTU meet

Mr. G. M. Holmes was the gracious hostess to the W. C. T. U. meeting held in the Baptist parsonage, Cambridge St. N. and Rev. Holmes, introduced by President, Mrs. F. A. Reeds, gave an excellent an inspiring address.

After extending his own personal greetings to the fine number of members and visitors present, he launched into his subject in which he encouraged the group to keep up their attacks against evil. "Remember, ladies" he said, "you are on the side of right, you are on the side of the angels." Quoting statistics (which Mr. Holmes said were not in a temperance paper) that there are 105,000 alcoholics in Ontario and that it has been estimated that there are over 1,000,000 problem drinkers in the province", he said. "That is a great crowd of people." "We have an enemy" he continued, "The Word of God speaks out clearly as it says "Thou shalt not" and God has a right to say "No" for a man's own good. If man, however, disobeys these commandments, serious consequences follow as for example, accidents, disease, vice, crime, poverty, etc." Referring to moderation, Mr. Holmes asked the question "Is there such a thing? (Can we steal or lie or be immoral in moderation? The answer is obvious. In conclusion, and speaking evangelistically, the speaker referred to the claims of Jesus Christ for the home, the Sunday School and the church, and to His great declaration "Ye must be born again". Only when the heart gets right with God can a person 'resist 'evil.

Mrs. E. Tompkins' devotional period was so apropos to the beginning of the New Year. A piano solo by Mrs. Dix was enjoyed.

After the meeting, light refreshments were enjoyed and all the members, present; paid the annual dues and three new members joined the organization.

75 turn out for meet

Omemee (PNS) — Some 75 young folk turned up at a meeting of the Lions Club at the arena to sponsor a figure skating school.

Mrs. Keith Sherman, Peterboro, a professional instructor, will be in charge. This is her ninth season and she is a gold medallist.

There will be three hours of lessons and will wind up with a carnival by all the pupils to be staged in March.

Mr. P. Godfrey speaks at WI

Blackstock (PNS) — The first meeting for 1963 of the Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall with attendance of 12 members, two visitors and one child.

The meeting opened as usual. The secretary and treasurer presented their reports. Among the letters of thanks read was one from the adopted boy in Korea and one from the Save the Children's Fund. Mrs. Dalton Dorrell gave a fitting reply to the motto, "Buried Seeds Grow, Buried Talents Never."

Mr. P. Godfrey, who came from near London, England this summer, to teach in Cartwright High School, gave a most interesting talk on "A Town Dweller in an Agricultural Area". Janice Dorrell sang a solo, "Lollipop Tree". The current events were prepared by Mrs. Frank Hoskin and in her absence were read by Mrs. Ernest Larmer. The meeting closed with "The Queen". While lunch was being prepared, Mrs. Roy Taylor conducted a contest on surnames of families in this community.

Private lane snowplowing gets Ops Council approval

Snowplowing of private lanes was a long requested service which was granted Ops residents at the first meeting of the new township council.

For many years new residents of Ops tried to secure this service but former councils did not see fit to have township staff and equipment undertake the work. The charge is set at $4.00 per lane (minimum) or $8.00 per hour.

Allan Ray of West Ops was appointed Hunting Bylaw Enforcement Officer replacing Fred Hore. George Inglis is acting in that capacity in east Ops. Four hunters were recently charged with violating the bylaw which requires hunters secure written permission from farmers before hunting on their property.

Deputy-reeve Stanley Reeds was not present at the council meeting and due to his illness it is expected Ops township will only have one representative on county council, opening in inaugural session next Tuesday.

Mrs. John Kennedy opens home for WI meeting

Zion-Fenelon (PNS) — The January meeting of Pleasant Valley W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. John Kennedy. The meeting was opened by the president Mrs. Wm. Brokenshire, who welcomed the members and visitors. The Ode was sung followed by the Mary Stewart Collect, Lord's Prayer in unison.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. Arising out of the minutes was discussion on rug making course. Mrs Brokenshire to be leader and Mrs. Pearn the assistant leader. Dates for the course to be decided at the February meeting. Its was moved by Mrs. Morley Moynes, seconded by Mrs. Mac Moynes that the decision to discuss the North West Organization be tabled until next meeting. An invitation to the Federation of Agriculture meeting to be held in the I.O.O.F. hall was read, when the subject of taxation will be discussed. Mrs. Mac Moynes, convener of Public Relations Committee, introduced the speaker, Mrs. E. Wessell of Islay Institute, who gave a resume of Public Relations officer's work and how it can be applied to the Branch work. Mrs. Moynes then thanked Mrs. Wessell for her address. The members showing their appreciation by their applause. The Roll Call was answered with a "current event" by 12 members. Four visitors were in attendance. Collection taken was $3.26. A letter of thanks from the Scott Institute in Toronto was read to the group, for assitance during the Christmas season.

The program followed with an article from England, where they are encouraging young people to join the Women's Institutes, read by Mrs. Morley Moynes. Mrs. Wes Webster read a poem entitled "Never Mind". Mrs. E. Moynes read a piece on "Bing Kind". A contest of clue sentences each one to be answered by the name of an animal or bird. Miss Patricia Kennedy favored with a piano solo, "The Stranger of Galilee". A poem read by Mrs. Brokenshire entitled "Through the Years", brought the program to a close.

The Queen and Table Grace were sung and a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and helpers.

A Thank-You was extended to Mrs. Kennedy for the use of her home for the meeting.

D. A. Sinclair 1963 chairman

Majority of staff favors pension plan

Duncan A. Sinclair was named chairman of the Board of Water Commissioners, Thursday and now enters his 18th year of service in this Lindsay utility. He succeeds Maurice C. Collins who has held the top office for the past seven years.

On Mr. Sinclair assuming the chair, Mayor Joseph Holtom expressed his approval of rotating the chairmanship. First order of business was decision to have all 14 Water Board employees fill out applications for or against the newly-proposed pension plan. A poll of the employees had resulted in 12 expressing their approval and two being against the plan Superintendent Robert Reynolds stated.

Authorization was given that plant worker Sproule attend his third course for water operators to be held in the laboratory of the Ontario Water Resources Commission from February 11th-15th. If successfully passing examinations, at that time, Mr. Sproule will be certified as a qualified water-works operator it was pointed out.

The board agree that other plant employees should attend these courses, one at a time Operator Hughes hal adready attended the first in the three series, Superintendent Reynolds said.

It had really stopped "dead" and defied the efforts of its operator to coax it back to life for several minutes after the incident. Eventually, after traffic behind it had backed up quite a bit and some cars were turning out to go around it, life ebbed back into the gas buggy and it took off again.

Belated "Many Happy Returns" are due to Mrs. Loy Rogers, of Mariposa, correspondent for "The Post" for the past 35 years in the Zion district and long-time subscriber, Miss Lillie Hopkinson of Oakwood. Mrs. Rogers has just celebrated her 74th birthday and Miss Dobson her 83rd.

Sam McGee did his share towards putting Tennessee on the map when he went from there to the "land of the midnight sun" but a Lindsay man is also doing something to help the state out. Bill Speer, son of Barber Frank Speer is making a good showing these days with a Tennessee hockey club and his father and mother paid him a visit for a few days last week to watch him perform. In keeping with Robert W. Service's epic ballad in which Sam McGee figures prominently, perhaps this item should have started out: "Now Frank and Mrs. Speer of Lindsay went off to Tennessee, to see their stalwart Bill perform in an American arenee" . . . but writing that sort of stuff takes a lot of time.

Filtoration plant tours arranged for students

Water Board Superintendent Robert Reynolds will conduct guided tours of school students through the new Lindsay water filtration plant as requested. One tour was made today and another is scheduled for January 18.

The tours are being included in the schools' study of "Safe Health". Commissioners at the Thursday meeting were pleased to hear the written request for same by Laurie McLean and Sharon Archer of the King Albert and Victoria Public Schools, respectively.

Chairman D.A. Sinclair asked that the pupils be supplied with explanatory literature re the plant's operation and purpose. Mayor Holtom said such tours not only furthered good public relations but also education.

Thursday's Diamond D games change standing of 9 clubs

Playdown games at the Peel Street rock garden Thursday in the initial round for district clubs in the Ladies Provincial Diamond D. competition changed the standing of the nine clubs considerably. Each of the nine rinks play three two-end games daily in a round robin effort. On Wednesday, Mrs. Gladys Laidley's Lindsay rink caught fire and won three games. On Thursday the same rink had three losses while the rink skipped by Mrs. Ruth Mabbett of Newmarket soared to the top of the procession.

A large number of spectators witnessed the game Thursday and they saw many thrilling shots made and numerous exciting ends.

At the conclusion of two days of hard curling, the standing of the rinks is as follows:

Mrs. Ruth Mabbett of Newmarket, 4 wins and 2 losses; Mrs. Helen Jewett, Unionville 4 wins, 1 loss and a bye; Mrs. Margaret Belfrey, Bobcaygeon 3 wins, 2 losses and a bye; Mrs. Gladys Laidley, Lindsay, 3 wins and 3 losses; Mrs. Jean Morgan, Cannington, 3 wins 3 losses; Mrs. Ruth Richardson, Bradford, 2 wins, 3 losses, 1 bye; Mrs. Dorris Vance, Richmond Hill; 2 wins, 3 losses, 1 bye; Mrs. Gretta Peverley, (Heather, Toronto) 2 wins, 3 losses, 1 bye; Mrs. Jean Moore, Fenelon Falls, 1 win, 4 losses 1 bye.

All visiting curlers and guests partook of a tasty and sumptous buffet luncheon.

Lindsay-born man writes "Foreign Trade" lead article

A Lindsay-born man is the author of the lead article in the December 15th issue of the publication "Foreign Trade", official organ of the Dept. of Trade a nd Commerce Ottawa. He is L.H. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Brown, Lindsay, currently attached to the Latin American Division of the International Trade Relations Branch, Dept. of Trade and Commerce. The article he prepared is captioned: "Canada's Trade With South America."

Mr. Brown obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree from Toronto University and his Bachelor of Letters from Oxford University where he studied for two years prior to returning to Toronto for two years' post graduate work.

$13,500 river spanning line commenced by Water Board

A start has been made on the $13,500 Lindsay Water Board project to stretch a new water line across the river from the vicinity of the Board of Works warehouse, Kent St. East. Superintendent Robert Reynolds told the board meeting Thursday night the work will commence and regular employees are on the jobs.

"The original pipe installed pior to 1891 is full of holes", he stated in recommending a ductile iron pipe (of flexible cost iron) at a cost of just under $9 per foot. One hundred and fifty feet would be required, he said. "The first pump house was down there", he added.

The original agreement concerning the installation of the first pipe line across the river concerned the Sadlers, the Needlers and the Flavelles, lumber mill and storage plant operators in that vicinity at that time. Easements on property were not clearly defined when some of the pipe ran under present buildings there he said.

Mr. Reynolds was authorized to order the pipe he suggested. It was pointed out the project would run the budget slim but he understood and stated the installation would go ahead but not to the extent of the estimated $13,500 expenditures at this time.

Chairman hopes to clear air on contentious issue shortly

Settlement of what was described by newly-elected Water Board Chairman Duncan Sinclair, Thursday, as "a condition which has existed in this commission for sometime," is hoped for at the next regular meeting of the board.

Mr. Sinclair was referring to the status of the Central Ontario Waterworks Conference (of which Superintendent Robert Reynolds of the Lindsay Water Commission is chairman) and its bearing on the local board if any. Mr. Sinclair had expressed puzzlement at past meetings as to the prospectus of this organization which held its annual meeting last fall in the Legion Hall here.

"Who has seen this prospectus. . .there is a lot of misunderstanding", he told the Thursday meeting, holding up the document in question.

Said Commissioner Murray Grant: "I don't think this organization has any connection with the Lindsay Water Commission. It is comprised of Water Board superintendents from different parts of the province."

Mayor Holtom stated that if any Lindsay Commission member belonged to such an organization, "the local board has no jurisdiction over what an employee does in his spare time."

Chairman Sinclair wished to go into discussion Thursday night to finally clarify if this Central Ontario Waterworks Conference should be recognized by the board in any way. He said he was still at a loss in understanding the matter.

It was decided to undertake this detailed discussion at the next board meeting. Mayor Holtom pointing out that Chairman Sinclair had the right to ask that such discussion be made.

LCI students to participate

Estimated $30,000 income from I. E. Weldon estate for prizes, scholarships

An estimated $30,000 annual income from the residue of the late I. E. Weldon's estate will be made available to the Victoria County District High School Board starting this fall to provide prizes and scholarships to LCI students. This information comes from Estates Manager Harvey Forsyth of the Victoria and Grey Trust Co., Lindsay, custodians of the Weldon estate assets. The residue of the estate from which this fund will be made possible is estimated by the Trust Company as upwards of $1,000,000. Executives point out there will be no distribution of the principal . . . This remains under the control of the executors as a trust fund with the income therefrom paid to the high school board every year, said income will revert back to the estate for further disposition as provided in the will.

Prizes and scholarships for students attending the Lindsay Collegiate Institute or successors will come from his estate fund which will be known as the Elizabeth B. Weldon Scholarships and is in memory of the donor's mother.

A former LCI student, I. E Weldon was the son of the late Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Weldon of Bond St., Lindsay. His father was a Methodist minister. A sister Etta resides at the family residence, corner of Cambridge and Bond Sts. A sister Florence who, taught public school in Lindsay for many years predeceased him.

Mr. Weldon was senior member of Weldon and Sproule of Toronto and Weldon and Lacey of Lindsay, where he practised law for 23 years before going to Toronto.

He graduated in civil law from Trinity College, Toronto, and Osgoode Law School. He was called to the bar 64 years ago and apointed King's Counsel in 1928.

After leaving Lindsay in the early 1920's Mr. Weldon became liquidator for the Home Bank which collapsed in 1921.

He owned several properties in Toronto and Lindsay. 50% of his estate comprised stocks and the remainder mortgages. The total of the estate is $1, 208,000.

Victoria County Clerk Frank L. Weldon and developer Ray Weldon of Cambray are cousins.

Christy Harper has charge of meet

Reaboro (PNS) — Christy Harper was in charge of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union meeting which was held in the vestry of the church.

She was assisted with the topic "The Strong Finisher" by several other members. The scripture was read by Bikly Reid and taken from 11 Timothy, chapter 4, verses 1-8. Following the hymn, "Abide with me", the Lord's prayer was repeated. The Roll Call was answered by a verse of scripture from 11 Kings. Mrs. W. C. Veals, BYPU leader gave a very interesting story, "What Hamilton holds for each of us" which was most impressive for the Christmas meeting. A Bible Quiz was conducted when members had to guess animals that are named in the Bible from a scripture reference.

The business included a suggestion to have a Watch Night service New Year's Eve but Mrs. Veals informed the members that the elder members of the Church were holding a service. A social evening was discussed to be held instead of the next regular meeting but this suggestion was also rejected as there was a possibility meeting would be held on that date in the church. It was decided to find out definite information on the other church that the Annual Sunday school meetings.

The meeting closed with the hymn, "Softly and Tenderly" and prayer by Mrs. Veals.

Lindsay Curling Club president recalls lacrosse-playing days, refereeing hockey at Lindsay

President Lou Walker of the Lindsay Curling Club has been a keen contender in curling for a number of years but going back a few years he was known and recognized as one of the finest exponents of hockey and lacrosse to be found in the province. At the time he was a resident of Bradford, one of the hotbeds of Canada's national game of lacrosse. He was a big boy but streamlined himself into condition and went down to 185 pounds. Following a lacrosse career which took him to all parts of the Dominion, he became a referee. One of his last assignments as a player was in what lacrosse players termed, the field.

Mr. Lou Walker was one of the Gibraltar men on the Oshawa senior team. His strong forte was running and he could travel the length of the field, which was the same length as a rugby field today, in a few seconds flat.

The game was rough and tough and field fights were plentiful. A player had to be in the pink of condition to stand the slugging, slashing, and beating, but the joy of winning was thrilling. Lacrosse was the popular summer game at the time. It diminished in popularity with fans and players when indoor or box lacrosse was introduced.

When it came to the game of hockey, Lou Walker, again made his mark and played on many teams in the Barrie, Orillia, Huntsville district. Starting out as a goalie he was prevailed to try his fortune on the line and again his athletic prowess came to the fore and was a stalwart player in the days when every city, town and hamlet in the province boasted of good hockey teams. In his latter years as an active player he started as a referee for the Ontario Hockey Association and, in a casual conversation a few days ago, he recited interesting experiences as an official of the game when he was nightly handling games in different parts of Ontario. Those were the days when good referees lined their pockets with $30.00 and $35.00 a game. Since those days the stipend for referees was lowered. Th $30.00 a game was good pay.

The experiences of Lou Walker as a referee brought him to Lindsay on different occasions and one game in particular he remembers was between Port Perry and Lindsay Intermediates. It was apparently a decisive game and Lindsay won the district honors. Players at the time included Art Carew, Elwood Coombs and others. These were the days of six-man hockey.

"I remember the first game I officiated at in Lindsay," he recalled, "because when I skated out on the ice and the players started playing there was an unusual loud noise. I soon found out that the ice was supported by a wooden floor and there was quite a rumble. I remember such players as Ken Rabdal and Jack Spratt, now Father Spratt but that was before I played the game. I also remember playing Barrie when Hap. Emms was a player. He (Emms) coached the Barrie Flyers for some time and then followed the Flyers to Niagara Falls where he is still the coach and manager.

Taking up the game of curling Lou Walker showed his continued interest in manly sport when he passed up through the ranks to become a skip, then an officer of the club and today is doing a really fine job as president. He has supported the game and has taken his responsibility as a member of the club by attending many out-of-town bonspiels and by sponsoring the Walkwood 'spiel in Lindsay.

PAIR LAST NIGHT

The National Hockey League is idle tonight, but had a pair of games last night. Last-place Boston upset Chicago 5-4, and Detroit edged Montreal, 3-2. In the American Hockey League, Cleveland is at Baltimore and Providence at Rochester in tonight's only action. In last night's battle of division leaders—the only game on the card—Eastern leader Quebec battled to a 1-1 tie with Buffalo, Western division leader.

FIRST DIRECTOR

The Chicago Cubs—the only team in Major League Baseball without a manager—decided yesterday to name the sport's first athletic director. He is 43-year-old Robert Whitlow, a former Army tackle and Air Force Academy athletic director now in the process of being retired from the Air Force as a colonel. Team president Philip Wrigley said Whitlow will be in charge of the Cubs' 12 coaches.

HALTED TEMPORARILY

Plans for a heavyweight title bout between champion Sonny Liston and ex-champ Floyd Patterson in Miami Beach April 4th have been halted at least temporarily. The promoter — Championship Sports Incorporated—made that announcement yesterday after Liston declared the Miami Beach fight is "definitely off." The champion said he wants the rematch with Patterson staged in Baltimore in May. Patterson said he may institute legal action.

TWO YEAR CONTRACT

The Baltimore Colts of the National Football League signed new head coach Don Shula to a two-year contract at an undisclosed sum yesterday. Shula replaces Webb Ewbank, who was fired Tuesday. Another N-F-L coach — Buddy Parker of the Pittsburgh Steelers—agreed to return next season. Club President Art Rooney said contract terms would be discussed in the near future.

MOVING HEADQUARTERS

The American Football League announced last night it is moving its headquarters from Dallas to New York City effective June 1st. The decision was made in the opening session of the league's annual meeting at San Diego, California. The A-F-L also elected Boston Patriot's President Billy Sullivan new league president, succeeding Wayne Valley of the Oakland Raiders.

ONE-STROKE LEAD

Hometown favorite Billy Casper holds a one-stroke lead on three other golfers as the San Diego, California, open moves into the second round today. Casper scored a seven-under-par 64 to grab the lead in yesterday's opening round. Tony Lema, Gary Player and Stan Leonard are tied for second with 65s.

John Callaghan re-elected trustee

Reaboro (PNS) — John Callaghan was re-elected as Trustee for another three year year term of the Reaboro Public School Board, S. S. No. 7 at the annual ratepayers' meeting held in the school.

George Payne was appointed to act as chairman and Max Aldous as secretary for the meeting. The secretary read the minutes of last year's annual meeting which was approved as read. He also read the trustees' report. This was a detailed account of the monthly meetings held by the trustees and the work which had been done during the year at the school. Mr. Norman Sloan had been hired to replace Mr. James Blair who had resigned as janitor in April owing to ill health. A letter of appreciation had been sent of faithful service. A table to Mr. Blair for his many years and two chairs had been bought for the teachers room. Fire extinguishers were installed in the classrooms and the basement. Instructions regarding fire alarm have been posted on the classroom doors. Extensive repairs have been made in the basement and toilets. The classroom ceilings have been cleaned and 300 watt bulbs have been installed for better lighting. The playground equipment has also been repaired and sand bought for the ball diamond. The well was cleaned, the old cover replaced and a sample of water analyzed.

After consulting insurance representatives, a policy was obtained whereby the pupils are covered by insurance while they are at school and coming to and going home from the school. A representative of the Swift's Chemical Co., attended a meeting with the board in regards to obtaining janitor supplies at a minimum cost. A supply teacher, Mrs. H. Crown of Lindsay, taught in the school four days. An Open House for the parents and friends was held in the school in June.

Mr. Gordon Ferguson from Cambray was rehired as principal and senior room teacher for the coming year. Mrs. Dave Milling was rehired as music teacher for both the senior and junior rooms and teach the junior classes. Max Aldous will again act in the capacity of secretary of the board. Donald Norton won the Rea Scholarship in the amount of $50.00.

Inspector Barrett and the teachers were in attendance at a board meeting with the trusteess when several problems were discussed. Mr. Ferguson met with the board in December to discuss the possibility of buying a projector for the school. He explained the various types of films and the benefit which the pupils would derive from them. After due consideration concerning this matter, a slide projector was purchased at a cost of $145.13. Arrangements are being made to exchange films with other schools. The proceeds from the Christmas Concert is to buy films for the new projector.

The auditors' report was read by Robert Reeds. The operating expenses for the year amounted to $10,000.00. Increase in salaries were explained and discussed. The report was adopted.

The general business included a suggestion to have the Rea Scholarship presented to the winner at the Open House in June, if examinations had been completed by that time. The secretary was to secure further information regarding this matter. Mr. Callaghan informed those present that the rink had been flooded and skating would commence soon.

Mr. Clayton Smith was reappointed section auditor for the coming year. There were two nominations for trustee, George Payne and John Callaghan. Victor Reeds and Robert Reeds acted as scrutineers for the election. Mr. Callaghan will be serving his second term on the Board. The other two members of the board are Victor Reeds and Douglas McRobbie.

The meeting was adjourned by Victor Reeds.

The newly appointed board of trustees held a brief meeting after the general meeting to appoint a chairman for the coming year. Mr. Victor Reeds was appointed to act in this capacity.

The 'DO IT NOW' Season is here again

- The season for improvement jobs around your home, plant or business.
- The season when skilled workers are more readily available and, being more productive, give you better value for your dollar.
- The season when many firms offer discounts.
- The season when many other things can be done to advantage—such things as maintenance of lawn and garden equipment, electrical appliances, outboard motors and automobiles, as well as dry cleaning of drapes and rugs and replacement of upholstery, to mention but a few.
- The season when you can help your community to create employment during the traditional winter lull. When everybody works, everybody benefits.

University of Waterloo : Earn While You Learn

Canada's Engineers of Tomorrow Work Today

Co-operative student programs are guided by Industrial Advisory Council composed of representatives of industry and the University of Waterloo. Individual students are interviewed by businessmen and engaged for four-month periods in industry. Over 270 companies offer co-operative employment for engineering students.

Canada's University of Waterloo is using a two-stage booster (academic lectures allied with practical experience in industry) to lift its engineering students past graduation and into the space-age technology of the modern world. Amid the fertile farmland of southern Ontario, the University is expanding its student program of alternating four-month periods in the lecture room with work in Canadian company plants and laboratories. Since the initial engineering co - operative course in 1957 (first in Canada), enrollment has rocketed. Science courses in applied physics will follow this pattern in 1963. The combination of theory and practice is of sound educational value, enables students to pay their academic way with money earned during work periods, brings students and employers together to the benefit of Canadian industry and science.

Chemical engineering student G. R. Branchflower from Blenheim, Ont., studies the fluidization of solids. Between academic terms he works for Brockville Chemicals, Brockville, Ontario.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

DON'T MIND BEING 'SILLY' IF IT KEEPS YOU LIVING!

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: In a recent column you told readers not to feel silly in going to their doctor for what might turn out to be some minor complaint that took up his valuable time. You said that a common failing of people is to wait until a fire becomes a four-alarm blaze before seeking help.

We have a wonderful doctor. But why, after going through the waiting and worrying, do they make you feel like a pest for taking their time if you go back for something that persists?

I certainly don't enjoy running to a doctor to have him tell me to take an aspirin. I hope I have enough intelligence to take them without doctor's advice for minor discomforts. Maybe if I ignore my aches and pains they'll go away or maybe I'll have a four-alarm blaze on my hands — but either way it won't be because I didn't seek help. Mrs. W.

Comment: All doctors should be preventive-medicine minded, no matter what their specialty or interests. The doctor who makes you feel silly because your fears are groundless isn't a good doctor.

For it is true that often the most serious maladies begin as apparently pinpoint flames that don't seem to endanger the patient. When they are allowed to break out into a hot inferno, then everybody is sorry. But under such conditions it is the patient who gets the worst of it.

Many's the case of unsuspected diabetes I have seen whose only presenting symptom was "I had my glasses changed only a few months ago but I can't see like I used to." Or the apparently innocent "indigestion" which is the first evidence of coronary failure. Keep being silly, Mrs. W., and you'll live longer.

ENLARGED HEART

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Will you explain enlarged heart? What causes it? Is there anything to do for it? Can a person live a few more years with it? How should a person take care of it? Mrs. M.

Comment: Instead of answering your questions one by one I'll try to give you one answer which may give you the information you seek.

The first thing to remember is that there is more than one kind of heart disease. People have a tendency to put heart disease into just one classification. That's not right.

To name a few types: rheumatic heart disease, congenital heart disease, hypertensive heart disease, arteriosclerotic heart disease, coronary artery disease, thyroid heart disease, heart disease due to infection (like subacute bacterial endocarditis) etc.

Whatever the type, enlargement of the heart muscle does't usually take place without a cause. It is only after months or years of pumping against the odds of disease, that the heart muscle begins to enlarge and "fail."

During the early stages of enlargement there may be no symptoms. Then, gradually, do we find that the patient complains of shortness of breath, cough, indigestion, fatigue, swelling of the ankles and legs, and enlargement of the liver with fluid in the abdomen.

There is much we can do for these various conditions which cause heart enlargement. Digitalis, quinidine, antibiotics, drugs to remove excess fluid — are only a few of the methods we use to help the enlarged heart. How well he does depends upon how well he cooperates with his doctor: how he takes his medicines, how he lives (work, smoking, drinking, tension, etc.). Does this give you some idea, Mrs. M.?

They'll Do It Every Time By Jimmy Hatlo

Amy Margaret Forman wed in London, England

Muswell Hill Press Photos, London

Shown here following their marriage in Highgate Methodist Church, London, England are Amy Margaret Forman and Keith John Salmon. The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Forman, of Lindsay and the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Salmon, of Dagenham, Essex, England.

A pretty wedding was solmnized in the Highgate Methodist Church, London, England, on Friday, October 5, 1962, when Amy Margaret, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Forman of Lindsay, Ontario, became the bride of Keith John Salmon, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Salmon of Dagenham, Essex, England. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Kyle of Highgate Church.

The attendants were Mrs. Joyce Kellor, of Ottawa, sister of the bride, and Peter C. Elliott of Romford, Essex, friend of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The guests included, as well as the bride's parents and sister from Ottawa, her brother David from Hamilton, Ontario, and other friends and relatives of both bride and groom, from London and other parts of England.

The wedding dinner was held at the Royal Cafe, Regent Street, London, after which the happy couple spent a short honeymoon in Scotland. They will reside in London, England, where they are both employed as Chemical Engineers by the Unilever Company.

SERIOUS RIFT

Sources close to the Katanga government say a serious rift has developed between President Tshombe and his Interior Minister Monongo, an outspoken foe of the United Nations. Tshombe tried and failed to get Monongo to return to Elisabethville yesterday. Instead, Monongo reportedly has gone to Kolwezi, stronghold of Katangese extremists who want to blow up the city and its mining installations. In another development—United Nations forces are converging on two other Katangese towns—Sakania and Jadotville, in an apparent clean-up action.

SCHEDULED TO FLY

The final planeload of ransom medicines and food given for release of Cuban invasion prisoners is now scheduled to fly to Havana Sunday. The plane was to have left today, but it was delayed to allow for completion of arrangements to fly back some of the 250 Cuban-Americans still on the island.

MAKES REPORT

The three-judge board looking into the 35-day old New York City newspaper strikes makes it report to the public tonight after one last meeting. The panel's findings are expected to bring pressure on both sides to settle . . . despite the printers' boycott of the hearings.

MAY FLY TO NEW YORK

U-S Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz may fly to New York City for separate talks with longshoremen and shippers in an effort to end the damaging 20-day-old Maritime strike. Union officials confer with the Red Cross about loading food on ships bound for underdeveloped nations.

CALLS ON ALLIES

U-S Undersecretary of State George Ball reportedly has called on America's Nato allies to support a multi-nation nuclear force. His speech in Paris to the Nato Council has not been made public . . . but sources say Ball reiterated President Kennedy's offer to provide Polaris missiles to equip such a joint nuclear arm. It is believed Ball also asked Nato members to boost conventional forces in Europe to the minimum goal of 30 divisions.

CONFER WITH LEADERS

Premier Khrushchev is conferring with Polish Communist leaders, presumably on the Berlin situation. Khrushchev's special train stopped near Warsaw last night and Polish Communist Chief Gomulka climber aboard. Khrushchev, himself, is en route to the East German Community Party Congress. In Berlin—East German Communist officials expect Cuban Premier Castro to attend the congress. The conclave opens January 15th in East Berlin.

OFT-DELAYED CONFERENCE

Japan and Canada opened an oft-delayed joint Ministerial Conference in Toyko today and expressed how it would help build a "strong bridge" of trade and culture between the two countries. Heading the Japanese delegation is Foreign Minister Masayoshi Ohira. The Chief Canadian delegate is Justice Minister Donald Fleming.

NOTICE

The Manse Grove Telephone Company, Limited. Notice is hereby given that the Manse Grove Telephone Company, Limited intends to surrender its charter.

Dated at Woodville, Ontario this 4th day of January, 1963. Donald A. Smith, Secretary-Treasurer. (H9734)

Oakwood

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moynes Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moynes, Oakwood, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sage, Linda and Cathy, Peterboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Western, of Eden.

Mrs. Alice Lapp of Woodville, visited her cousin, Mrs. Marvin Rogers and other friends.

Unit two of the U.C.W. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Webster. It was in the form of a bountiful potluck Supper, when social and business activities were enjoyed. A short worship service was conducted by the retiring leader Mrs. Marvin Rogers. The different members contributed New Year's thoughts, ending with a contest by Mrs. Allan Rich. The officers for 1963 are Leader-Mrs. Ross Raine. Secretary-Mrs. A. E. Webster and Treasurer-Mrs. Howard Hardy. Plans were made to make another custom quilt and the members were asked to hand in 2½" square print blocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carm Caccovella, of Peterboro, visited at her home in the village.

Two complete 20 years membership in lodge

Cannington (PNS) — At the meeting of Queen Mary Rebekah Lodge, two members, Sister Gertrude Graham and Sister Ruby Shapland, were attributed honours, having completed 20 years of membership.

Conductor Sister Meek escorted Sister Graham to the centre of the floor while Sister Mae Myers, P.N.G., P.D.D.P., very capably and efficiently presented Sister Graham with a Rebekah ring, saying a look forward 20 years, seemed a long time, but having spent those years they were considerably shorter.

Sister Graham answered very fittingly saying that the years had gone very quickly indeed, probably because they were very busy and happy years, however the occasion was saddened by the thought that sister Millie Warner had accompanied her the night of their initiation.

Sister Shapland had chosen the veteran jewel but unfortunately was unable to be present to receive it.

After the closing of Lodge, Sister Helen McIntyre conducted a musical contest every one taking part and Sister Islay Starr delighted the gathering with several appropriate readings.

Small gifts under the Christmas tree were distributed by Bro. Jack Fipher acting as Santa Claus without white whiskers and the proverbial red costume. A social half hour was spent enjoying a dainty lunch served by group one.

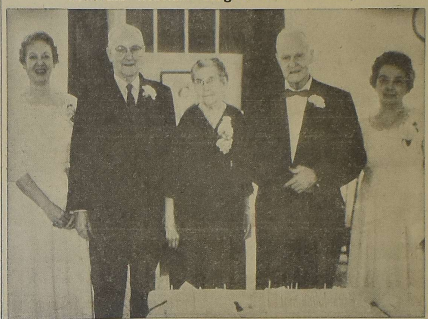
Kawartha Rebekah Lodge's 58th Birthday



The Kawartha Rebekah Lodge, Lindsay, celebrated a birthday this week — its 58th. The occasion was marked with a dinner meeting in the I.O.O.F. banquet room and a highlight of the event came when three veteran members were called upon to blow out the 58 candles atop three king-size birthday cakes. The three members, with combined lodge service of 156 years, are seen above flanked on either side by Noble Grand Almena Goard (right) and Vice Noble Grand Elsie Ferguson (left). They are: Lewis Gordon, left, with 51 years membership; Miss Ida Ferris, centre, 53 years; and William Brown on her right with 51.

NOTICED ... along the way

The identity of the home in front of which used to stand a fountain known as "The Boy With the Boot" has still not been established despite considerable interest shown in the matter.

Interest in it was aroused following receipt and publication of a letter from Mrs. John T. Flood, 38199 Union Lake Road, Mt. Clemens, Mich., in which she said in part: "Many years ago, as a small child, and on our way to the 'Lindsay Fair', we passed a home where there was a fountain called either "The Boy With The Boot" or "Boy With The Boot". Could you give me any information about this fountain, where it was located or maybe is yet . . . Where it came from or any history on it."

After the letter had appeared in print, one of the calls from from Mr. J. Lightbody, manager of the Lindsay Hydro System. He was aware, of course, of the existence of a fountain called "The Boy With the Boot" installed on the Lindsay Central Exhibition grounds but he also knew of another identical fountain in Winnipeg. He had occasion to take a colour slide of it while visiting Rotary Rose Garden in Assiniboine Park. However, he was not in a position to supply background material.

Still later, Mrs. C. Gladman and Mrs. Marion Buckley recalled a fountain which used to stand on the Richard Sylvester property, northwest corner of Victoria Ave. N. and Peel St. The memory was shared by Mr. Gordon Brown of 25 Victoria Ave. N. who writes: "I have been noticing for some nights now enquiries and recollections about a fountain on private property by an American citizen who recalled seeing it as a small child while on her way to Lindsay Fair. There was a very comical type of fountain - - a little coloured boy and girl (pickaninnies) under an umbrella on the Sylvester property. This is a good many years before the introduction of "The Boy and The Boot" fountain which has always been located at the Lindsay Fair grounds and no place else."

The only available historical record as yet available on a fountain in Lindsay known as "The Boy and The Boot" comes from the Lindsay Central Exhibition records. It was presented to Lindsay Central Exhibition by The Evening Telegram British War Victims' Fund as a permanent memorial to the part played by the people of the Dominion in aiding the people of Britain. (In that year, 1941, half of the fair's proceeds were turned over to the fund). Here, then, is the available history of "The Boy and The Boot" fountain at Lindsay:

HISTORY OF FOUNTAIN

"Conceived and designed by B. L. McLean, manager of Lindsay Fair Exhibition, the fountain incorporates a new departure in outdoor fountain construction. Iced drinking water is supplied to six bubblers located around the base, with the supply passing through a 60-gallon reservoir packed in ice to insure cold water at all times.

LONG-FELT NEED

It is believed the Lindsay fountain is the first outdoor drinking device in the Dominion

Lindsay Central Exhibition, at its annual meeting, named its 1963 president and his supporting executive officers. Pictured above, they are, from left to right: 2nd Vice-president Alvin Mark, President Dr. A. F. Coolin, 1st Vice-president John Jenkins and 3rd Vice-president Grant Benson.

First pull is failure

Report Sturgeon yielding well

Experimental carp netting operations are being carried out on Scugog Lake for the first time.

Fish and Wild Life officials told "The Post" that Roy Vancott, the only commercial fisherman authorized to work these waters, had laid about 1,000 yards of net on the lake Thursday under the supervision of two of the department officers but had been unsuccessful on his first "pull up."

Netting in Sturgeon Lake had been fairly productive, they said, adding Mr. Vancott would be working it the balance of the winter. The yield there is reported to be high.

The spokesman for the department said the work was "fairly hazardous" owing to the poor conditions of the ice in some sections of the lake, and the fact that the men must occasionally move their nets to locate the fish.

GREAT MINDS THINK ALIKE

A few days ago, "The Observer", writing under the caption "The Northeast Corner" in this paper, had some things to say about parking meters in Lindsay. In essence, he was of the opinion that they contributed nothing to the slogan: "Lindsay, the friendly town". By sheer coincidence, the current issue of "The Independent Businessman" carries an article which deals very forcibly with the same topic and pulls no punches when it charges that parking meters are driving trade away.

Here are some excerpts from the article which may cause some to pause and wonder if merchants and motorists aren't being led up the garden path by parking meters. We quote throughout:

"There's a monster on Canada's main street. It's taken all the jingle out of the cash register's bell and it's driving Mr. and Mrs. Canada away.

"The monster is one of our own creation — the parking meter. We've lined our main streets with them. Now, there they stand, like sentries, rejecting all who will not pay, and luring all those who will into the parking ticket snare.

"Parking regulations — or lack of them — have long been the bane of urban storekeepers, especially those whose places of business are located on principal thoroughfares just on the fringe of the densely populated areas. Hourly they watch potential customers drive past their stores because of lack of adequate parking facilities. The briefest stop on the road will result in a parking ticket.

"During recent years, parking tags have provided immense tax revenue to local councils. Today parking tag collections have mushroomed into bigger-than-big business... Already, in the Metro Toronto area alone, the tax collectors have set their sights and budgeted for a $1,500,000 coupe in 1963. This sum will be collected by large-size Metro Toronto cops, armed with a club on one hip and a gun on the other and a pen for filling out parking tickets. They'll collect, and that's for sure.

The car owner, lumped into the same league as the drunk or the dope addict, has long been the prey of the tax collectors. He appears to take his whipping without protest. It's pay up these levies and shut up — a philosophy learned after long abuse.

"The police departments, bent on making their quota of parking tickets, have antagonized thousands of motorists — all potential customers of the small, urban businessman whose business operations cannot afford to maintain a parking lot for the exclusive use of his customers.

"As a result of the parking lack and the traffic officers' zeal, these customers are driving out to surburbia where they may park their cars without cost and free from the policeman-turned-tax-collector."

ELECTRONICS AND ULCERS

How electronics are now coming to the rescue of sufferers of peptic ulcers was explained in a recent edition of the BBC General Overseas Service weekly review 'Science and Industry'.

The conventional and somewhat drastic operative treatment for peptic ulcers is gastrectomy—or the removal of a large part of the stomach. But some years ago an operation was designed in the United States to cut the long nerve—the Vagus or "Wanderer"—which runs from the brain to the stomach and intestines. When through worry or by immoderate eating, drinking or smoking this particular nerve becomes over-active, a high level of free acid is produced in the stomach which then becomes a home from home for peptic ulcers. When the Vagus is cut, the acid level falls and the ulcer heals up. However, surgeons have often tended to be unconvinced that this cutting of the nerve was more successful than the more severe gastrectomy operation—probably because in his attempt to cut the Vagus, the surgeon frequently missed many of the small associated nerve fibres.

A London surgeon has now conceived a way of making this nerve cutting operation more certain and more safe. In collaboration with the firm Winston Electronics, he has devised an electrical apparatus which accurately—as it were—guides the surgeon's knife, ensuring a complete section being made of the Vagus nerve. Results have already shown that this new technique considerably cuts down the failure rate of the operation.

When it is realised that each year 5,000 people in Britain alone are actually killed by ulcers, anything that can help to alleviate this affliction of our modern age is especially welcome. Electronics—in yet another of its applications—has now shown a way in which patients can expect to lead normal lives again without having recourse to special and often disagreeable diets or undergoing fairly serious operations.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 12, 1913

The inaugural meeting of the town council was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The following took their declaration of office: His Worship Mayor Beal, Reeve Kylie, First Deputy-Reeve Dobson, Aldermen Adams, Smale, Warren, Irvine, Nicholls, Naylor and Clarke. Owing to the illness of Second Deputy-Reeve McWatters he was unable to be present. Moved by Messrs. Dobson and Adams that Ald. Smale be chairman of Finance Committee.— Carried. Moved by Messrs. Irvine and Smale that Mr. J. E. Adams be appointed chairman of Police and Light.—Carried. On motion of Messrs. Smale and Naylor, Dep. Reeve Dobson was appointed chairman of Town Property. On motion of Messrs. Smale and Nicholls, Reeve Kylie was appointed to deal with the improvements to the town hall, consisting of Messrs. Smale, Dobson, Kylie, Warren and Adams. The question of continuing the work on the Sussex St. storm drain will be considered at tonight's session of the council.

JANUARY 12, 1938

At eight o'clock this evening at Omemee, the fine new arena in that village will throw its doors open for the first time officially and the $13,000.00 building will hold its largest crowd when Bruce McNevin M.P. and L.M. Frost, K.C., M.P.P. head the list of prominent men of Omemee and district who will grace the occasion with their attendance. Two hockey teams that alone are strong drawing cards are scheduled, Omemee and Little Britain. Big Four teams are scheduled to play on the big ice surface of the new arena. Figure skaters from Toronto will do their graceful dips and glides for the audience and pleasure skating will be enjoyed by those present after the above program.

CYCLAMEN

Cyclamen, with their beautiful flowers and nicely marked round leaves, are usually bought from the florist when in bloom. Horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture offer the following hints to keep the plants flowering.

Place the cyclamen in a cool location (55 degrees to 65 degrees F.) where it will receive good light. To prevent leaf and flower stems from rotting, pay special attention to watering. Apply early in the day so that the base of the stems become dry before night.

It is possible to carry plants over for a second year or longer. After flowering do not allow the plants to dry out, but keep the foliage growing by watering regularly and keeping in a cool location with plenty of light.

During the summer the plant should be rested by plunging the pot to the rim in sandy soil and gradually allowing to become dry. In September, repot and slowly bring into growth — this will often make a nice flowering plant for the second year.

HOUSEHOLD SCRAPBOOK

By Roberta Lee

Renewed Walls

When your painted kitchen walls become soiled and dull-looking, and a new paint job isn't forthcoming, wash the walls with soap and water, rinse with clear water, and wipe them dry with a soft cloth. Then you can restore a new look to the paint by going over it with the white, creamy type of furniture polish.

Crocheting

To prevent crochet work from raveling while it is laid aside, pull the last loop out far enough to pass the ball through. This fastens it securely, and it can be easily opened in the same way when you resume your work.

Imitation Leather

To clean imitation leather upholstery, mild soap and lukewarm water are safest and best. To prevent cracking and peeling, follow the washing with a thin coating of petroleum jelly.

HOW CAN I ? ?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I avoid the tedious and exacting chore of painting new strips of putty around my window glass?

A. One good way out of this chore is to mix a little paint of the desired color with your putty before applying it. Use the thick pigment from the bottom of the paint can, and knead it until the color is uniform. Colors in oil also knead well into putty.

Q. How can I keep the drain pipes in my kitchen sink and laundry tubs free of grease and disagreeable odors?

A. Make a practice of rinsing these pipes out at least once every week with strong, hot, salt water.

In Memoriam

SMITH — In loving memory of a dear mother, Cora Smith, who passed away Jan. 11, 1959, also a dear father Samuel D. Smith who passed away Nov. 16, 1955.

A cheerful smile, hearts of gold,
To the dearest parents the world could hold.
Loved in life, they liveth yet,
In the hearts of those who will never forget.

Lovingly remembered by Vernon, Reenie and family.
(H9773)

HARDY — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Emily who passed away Jan. 11, 1961.

God took her home, it was His will,
But in our hearts we love her still.
Her memory is as dear today,
As in the hour she passed away.

Always remembered by Isaac and family.

Guest Preacher For Final Service

Rev. Frank Fidler, Associate Secretary of the Board of Christian Education of the United Church of Canada, will be the guest preacher at the concluding service of the Lindsay week of Prayer. Mr. Fidler is widely known throughout Canada as a Christian Educator. Having served churches in Winnipeg and Ottawa, he was called to his present responsibility where he has specialized in the field of Adult Education in the churches. He has recently been Secretary of the important Commission on Marriage and Divorce which reported this fall to the 20th General Council of the United Church of Canada with far-reaching recommendations. He bears important responsibility for the family publication "The Christian Home". He will preach on the theme "The Body of Christ". Services are to be held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. Sunday evening, and will be conducted by the Rev. O. L. Locke, Minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and President of the Lindsay Ministerial Association. A massed choir from the participating churches, under the direction of Mr. William Perry will assist in the service of worship.

Retiring surgeon honoured

Dr. M. E. Gorman, above left, who was this week honoured on his retirement after long association with the Ross Memorial Hospital by the Board of Governors, staff and many friends, is seen here in an earlier picture taken by Kenlin Studios at the opening of the expanded hospital. Appropriately enough, he is pictured with Col. R. I. Moore who was with him again at the retirement presentation event and who paid tribute to Dr. Gorman's valuable contribution to the expanded hospital in time and advice.

Perpetual Annuity

Our school has received a bequest from the estate of the late Isaac Ernest Weldon. Mr. Weldon practised as senior partner in Weldon and Lacey law firm of Lindsay for 23 years before he moved to Toronto. The bequest is in the form of a perpetual annuity; that is, the interest on the principal sum is to be paid in scholarships to deserving students forever. Mr. Breese stated that the plans for allotment of the scholarships have not yet been made. This will make possible in the future higher education for any student who wins it.

on with this unusual feature. Until last year there was no means of securing cold drinking water at the fair grounds, and the fountain fills a long-felt need in that respect.

"Base of the piece is constructed of pink and red granite, quarried at Head Lake in Victoria County. Mr. McLean secured the services of Ed Valentine, whose work as a stone mason and artisan is widely known, to interpret his design.

"The base is 45 feet in circumference, with six drinking bubblers located at intervals around the rim. The centre forms a reservoir in which ornamental fish have been placed, and a granite column arising out of the pool carries the bronze figure, "The Boy and the Boot'.

"This statue depicts a boy holding one of his boots with a torn shoe, and water drips from the hole in the boot. A spray has been added to the original figure and the water falls into the boot.

ANCIENT DESIGN

"While details of the origin of the design of the statue are not known, it is reported by Harding Scholle, director of the New York Museum that similar statues first made their appearance at the Centennial Fair in Philadelphia in 1876.

"Since that time many copies have appeared throughout the United States, South Africa and South America, and the one now located at Lindsay was cast for the late John Hare by the J.L. Mott Iron Works, New York City, a quarter of a century ago.

"The figure was given by Mrs. Hare, who lives on Edgewood Avenue in Toronto, to Frank Frew, of East York, to be used by him to the best advantage of the Evening Telegram British War Victims' Fund. Mr. Frew is one of the most ardent and active workers on behalf of the fund since its inception and has made a considerable contribution to the cause.

MEMORIAL TO BRITANS

"Through the efforts of Mr. McLean, the statue was donated to the Lindsay Fair Board by Mr. Frew on behalf of the found, and it will remain as a permanent memorial to the work being done by the B.W.V.B. among the residents of Britain.

"Rev. H. C. Wolfraim, president of the Lindsay Ministerial Association conducted a dedication service with Mr. Frew formally turning it over to the fair board and Mr. McLean accepting it on behalf of the exhibition."

Sunday morning practises bring ministerial protests; commission to contact them

The Lindsay Recreation Commission's management Committee will contact members of the Lindsay Ministerial Association immediately, re complaints about Sunday morning practises of Midget and Juvenile hockey teams.

Commissioner Austin Street told this week's commission meeting that members of the Lindsay Ministerial Association had contacted him and voiced their disapproval of these Sunday morning practices. They claimed such practices were keeping children away from Sunday Schools. The Midget teams practice from 8 to 10 o'clock and the Juveniles from 10 to 12 it was disclosed by another commissioner.

Discussion was made re the matter at the meeting and it was pointed out that a lot of these "kids" wouldn't go to Sunday School anyway and the commission were of the opinion many would be found sitting with their parents in cars on Kent St. "We are just trying to give the young lads some wholesome recreation and keep them out of trouble perhaps and make Sunday morning better for everybody if we can. But the whole project is more or less jellied now and the next move is to try and solve the situation in conjunction with the ministerial association", a commission spokesman summed up.

Actually it was revealed in the Thursday night discussion that the commission is sympathetic with not having the young lads playing hockey at the arena on Sundays. But committees change and situations are sometimes taken for granted, said Mr. Street.

"But a policy will be set in the light of the commission's feelings after immediate consultation with the Lindsay Ministerial Association, Commisioner Street assured.

The matter has been referred to the Management Committee and they have been authorized to contact the Lindsay ministers.

Unionville wins Diamond "D" event at Lindsay Club

A Unionville rink has won the classic event among lady curlers in Ontario for Districts 13 and 14. The competition terminated Friday evening at the Peel St. rink.

Following three days of hard exciting curling between nine clubs playing three, tenend games on Wednesday Thursday and Friday, the rink from Unionville skipped by Mrs. Helen Jewett emerged the winner with a standing of six wins, and one loss.

The winning rink will now represent district 13 and 14 in the next round of the Provincial Diamond "D" competition to be held at Weston.

The rink comprised: Skip Mrs. Helen Jewett; Vice Mrs. Lois Lawrie; Second Mrs. Lois Roberts and Lead Mrs. Mary Fleming.

Other rinks taking part in this important and outstanding event included those skipped by Mrs. Mabbett of Newmarket; Mrs. Richardson of Bradford; Mrs. Vance of Richmond Hill; Mrs. Peverley (Heather Club) Toronto; Mrs. Morgan of Cannington; Mrs. Moore of Fenelon Falls; Mrs. Laidley of Lindsay; and Mrs. Belfrey of Bobcaygeon.

The winner was in doubt until the final round when Mrs. Margaret Belfrey of Bobcaygeon was eliminated by the Unionville rink.

This was a keenly contested game and the two rinks went down to the wire neck and neck despite the fact that the Unionville rink marked up a six-counter in the first end of the game.

Mrs. A. A. Brodie of Beaverton who represented the Provincial Organization as umpire told "The Post" that the second, third, and fourth positions were not decided until the final ends in the concluding round.

Mrs. Brodie also stated that the competition was of a high order with many exciting and well curled games.

The gruelling event proved to be quite successful, ice conditions were excellent, and visiting curlers spoke very highly of the hospitality of the Lindsay ladies.

QUEEN ST. LINDSAY

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

WHY WEEK CHECKUP BEFORE AN OPERATION?

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My husband who is 65 needs a prostate operation. The doctors want him in thet hospital about a week earlier for a general observation especially a check on the kidneys. Just what does that means?–Mrs. T.

Comment: Whatever the patient's age, doctors want to know that the patient is a good operative risk. They want to know how each organ functions and be ready for any emergencies that may come up. This is especially true when the surgery considered when the elderly require operation, and when the surgery considered is prostate surgery. If a patient's general physical condition is satisfactory–including his kidney function he can withstand prostate surgery in his 80's.

Your husband probably will have to undergo some or all of the following tests: Doctors will check his urine for the presence of sugar or albumin. They will examine for kidney casts and red blood cells in the urine. They will be interested in the specific gravity of the urine and see how it reacts to increased amounts of fluid intake. They will do concentration studies on the urine if its specific gravity is much below normal. They will measure the 24-hour output of urine.

They will take special blood tests (blood urea nitrogen and creatinin. They may do a cystoscopy (by inserting lighted tubes examine the interior of the bladder, tubes leading to the kidneys and the kidneys themselves). They will want to determine the function of each kidney by injecting dyes (intravenous pyelograph) and then taking X-rays and measuring the output of dye.

You can understand now, Mrs. T., why the doctors want your husband under careful observations before operation.

VARIOUS TYPES OF PROSTATE OPERATIONS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Are there various types of prostate operations? I have a very large prostate. My doctor tells me I need what he calls a "suprapubic prostectomy". I have been having the usual symptoms of prostate trouble like frequency of urination (it disturbs my sleep at night) and difficulty in starting the the stream. What I can't understand is why I have to be operated on from above. A friend of mine recently had a prostate operated on from below. Will you explain?–Mr. N.

Comment: Many of my urologist friends tell me they prefer to do the suprapubic operation through an incision in the lower part of the abdomen) in patients who have a much larger than normal prostate. Perhaps that is why your doctor has chosen this route. Your friend may have had another type of operation because his prostate was smaller and more easily reached by that method.

There are four main types of prostate surgery, and patients would be wise to leave the choice up to their surgeon. He knows the reasons why he wants to do it one way rather than by another. Here are the methods: 2. Suprapubic prostatectomy; 2. transurethral prostatic resection; 3. retropubic prostatectomy; 4. perineal prostatectomy.

I keep reminding patients, whatever their illness, not to compare their won doctor's method or precedure with that of a friend's who was supposed to have the "same thing". There are no identical conditions in medicine.

Doctors must try to treat each patient as an individual problem. It's only when they get into the habit of treating them all the same that they are likely to get into trouble.

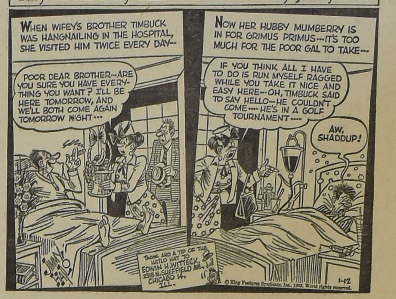
They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo



Mrs. Ronald Vale 1963 president of Pinedale UCW

Pinedale U.C.W. held the first meeting of the year in the Sunday School room of the church.

The new president, Mrs. Ronald Vale, was in charge, and opened the meeting with a poem thought "Life is a Mirror". A hymn was sung and Mrs. Vale led in prayer.

Mrs. Chester Snoddon led the worship service on the theme "O for a closer walk with God". A hymn was sung and the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. H. Puckrin. Mrs. Snoddon gave New Year's thoughts on the topic and led in prayer. The worship was closed with a hymn.

Mrs. Charles Hadden, assisted by Mrs. Don Hadden. Mrs. Lloyd King and Mrs. Norval McAvoy, gave an interesting and informative discussion on "Okinawa" — a tiny island off the east coast of Asia. They dealt with the climatic conditions, natural resources, early history, early religions and present day conditions in Okinawa. Mrs. Hadden closed with prayer for the people of the island.

In the business period, plans were made for making four quilts for the bale. The need for baby clothes, especially diapers, was stressed. Birthday greetings were sung to Mrs. Roy Hoskin.

For the program, Mrs. Chet. Snoddon read a poem, "A Way to happy New Year," and Mrs. Herb Puckrin conducted a contest "Emblems".

A hymn and the benediction closed the meeting.

Mrs. Ken Woodward and Mrs. Teunis Molenaar served a lovely lunch, and all enjoyed a social hour.

The Northeast Corner

by "the observer"

"The first ten days of July, 1948, will be another milestone in the history of Lindsay and Victoria County. For those of us who are living here, it will be our happy privilege to welcome again to our County, many men and women who have gone abroad to make their fame and fortune. Many of these people will find great changes since they went away. The old home on the second or third concession may still be standing, or it may have disappeared with the passing years. The old farm that once grew productive and paying crops may now be used only for grass land. The old harvest apple tree that stood beside the house will no doubt also be gone and only a stump remaining to show where it grew. The old creek and the swimming hole and the sugar bush will still be there, although perhaps changed a little.

All these things will bring back many memories— some happy and some sad. There will be memories of Dad and Mother in the old home. Memories of sisters and brothers. Memories of good neighbours. Memories of school days and school chums and teachers. Memories of church and Sundays School, memories of the old village store and the blacksmith shop. Memories of a thousand things."

The above letter is a Forward written by Neil Wilson for the Lindsay and Victoria County Old Home Week in 1948 and as it appears in the book that was edited and published for that celebration. Mr. Wilson was the Warden of the Victoria County in that year.

No doubt many of the homes in Lindsay and Victoria County have copies of this book in their libraries. Let me suggest to you that they should be carefully preserved. The book was edited by Reg. Cozens who, at that time was head of the Science Department at the I.C.I. It was published by Jack Dwyell and his staff in his plant at 229 Lindsay Street, North. The contents of the book is the result of much study and research by some of the best brains in Lindsay and gives quite an accurate record from the early beginnings of the town up to what it was fifteen years ago.

The first Old Home Week in Lindsay for which there is any record was held in 1924. It apparently was quite a success although not attempted on the gigantic scale of that of 1948.

In 1946 the Council of the town decided that the time had come when another Old Home Week should be celebrated. Necessarily there was a lot of under-brushing and planning that would have to be done so the date was set well in advance. The first ten days of July 1948. This gave the town fathers nearly two whole years to get the machinery rolling and a program of colossal size worked out. Committees and heads of Committees were appointed. Bands were engaged. Special shows were engaged to perform in front of the Grand Stand. Clowns were engaged, dignatories were booked, a beauty contest was arranged, invitations to former Lindsayites were sent out by the hundreds. All in all every committee appointed took a real interest in its work and performed their duties to the very best of their ability.

At last the first of July was drawing near and it appeared from all the work done that Lindsay was about to see the greatest exhibition that was ever attempted. But alas, alas, right from the first of July till it closed on July 10th the show was the greatest flop that anyone could possibly imagine. Not that the performance was not what was expected. In many instances it was as good or better as any performance one could see anyplace in Canada. Either the people of Lindsay had all gone to their cottages around the lakes or they were completely uninterested and didn't feel like spending a quarter to give they admission to the grounds. The attendance was pathetic.

Thursday July 1st was Dominion Day. There were some motor cycle arcs but no crowd. Friday and Saturday were given over to a Horse Show. Lady Eaton, very kindly give her assistance in helping to sponsor the horse show and she brought two of her horses from Toronto—one for herself and the other for her lady-in-waiting. Mr. Frank Proctor, a man over eighty, but a great horseman, also did a great help. The committee gave these distinguished guests a banquet in the Benson Hotel and then Lady Eaton and her entourage rode their horses behind three or four bands to the Fairgrounds. A couple of rows of seats had been roped off and these were covered with red velvet and reserved for the special guests.

It was expected that the Grandstand would be packed full when the guests of honor would arrive, but sad to relate there wasn't a single solitary soul on the grandstand, either male or female and a very small smattering of people, strolling about on the grass.

Men and women with well-trained horses were there from Toronto, Kingston, Belleville, Hamilton, St. Catharines and Guelph. The performance these people put on all afternoon was one that would delight the hearts of almost anyone— but the good people of Lindsay. They sure demonstrated that afternoon that they had no desire whatever to see a beautiful horse either in action or out of it.

The next day—Sunday — all the churches were prepared for overflow congregations. Ministers who were here years ago were booked as special speakers. However there were no overflow congregations and the committee were not responsible for any deficits.

When the committee was arranging the programme they decided to give each day a name so that those in charge for that day could arrange an appropriate program. Monday July th was called "American Day" and Don Rennie the Manager of Brakeshoe was chairman for program. He called the White House in Washington and through an assistant to the President he was able to have him agree to send a top Militaryman to Lindsay for American Day. Our local member was to arrange to have the Minister of National Defence attend from Ottawa. However it being summer holidays all the Ministers had made other plans and our member finally had to settle for a Junior from the Defence Department.

Saturday afternoon, when the Old Home Week Committee, and Don Rennie in particular, saw the terrible attendance for the first three days, they got into a huddle and began to think what would be the repercussions if this big Lieutenant General and his four attendants from Washington should arrive and no counterpart from Canada to greet him except a Junior from Ottawa. Don Rennie had arranged for four cars of Provincial Police and a car of R. C. M. P. officers to meet him at Malton and escort the American friends to Lindsay. It was hurriedly decided that the whole show should be cancelled. They retired to Rennie's office and called Washington. It took a long time to locate the Washington man as it was Saturday afternoon and he was out of his office. Finally he was located and he was advised that a terrible tragedy had struck Lindsay. Our great-est citizen had passed away and the funeral was Monday afternoon and since a day of mourning had been declared for Monday the whole town would be at the funeral and the committee felt that in all justice to the High ranking militaryman from Washington, the simplest thing would be to cancel the performance. He was most exhubberant in his expressions of regret at our great loss in Lindsay and agreed toontact his Lieutenant General and give him the message. Shortly afterwards a telegram arrived advising that he had been able to deliver the message and all arrangements would be cancelled. A telegram to Ottawa and one to the R.C.M.P. and another to the Provincial Police cleared the slate.

On Monday--American Day —there was hardly a Corporal's' Guard sitting in the grandstand so the committee felt they had acted wisely and well.

As we recall there was only one day out of the total ten that had any semblance of a fair crowd. That was Friday July 9th—Scottish Day. Practically every lad and lassie with any dancing ability in Toronto found their way to Lindsay to take part in the big Highland Dancing and practically every man and woman in Victoria County with any Highland blood in them were present to see the show. And it was a wonderful show. Every colour of kilts seemed to be the order of the day. Our Lieutenant Governor and his wife and three young boys were present and all in Kilts. All in all it was probably the most colourful day that was ever seen in Lindsay. And it was all topped by the 48th Pipe Band from Toronto.

The Executive of Lindsay and all who gained any part, it will long be remembered for its success and its failure. Although it cost the Town of Lindsay $22,000.00, to pay all the bills it should not be considered as a failure. It taught many long and lasting lessons as to what entertainment people want when a town is considering a program for an "Old Home Week."

U.S. CAUTIONS COUNTRIES

The United States has cautioned several countries that American aid may be cut off if their ships continue to do business with Cuba. The State Department says nations trading with Cuba have been informed of a provisions in the new U-S Foreign Aid Act that prohibits assistance to countries whose ships carry goods to Cuba. The department declined to name the countries involved.

STEPS INTO QUARREL

Secretary General Thant reportedly has stepped into the quarrel between Congo Premier Adoula and Britain and Belgium. Adoula has ordered the British and Belgians to pull their consulates out of Elisabethville . . . because the two countries reportedly intervened to get Katanga president Tshombe freed from house arrest. Thant is said to have asked Adoula to take back the order. Thant is also to meet today with his Congo deputy, undersecretary Ralph Bunche.

EXAMINE POSSIBILITY

Sources in Washington say the United States and Russia are examining the possibility of a new round of nuclear ban tests. The projected talks would take place sometime before the middle of next month when the Geneva disarmament conference reconvenes. Officials in Washington are also downgrading reports that Russia has made a "new venture" to the U-S on a test ban

FAVORS DEFICIT BUDGET

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce says it favors a seventh consecutive deficit budget in the next fiscal year. But the chamber urges in its pre-budget brief to the government that personal and corporate tax rates are reduced. The brief also calls for a maximum implementation of the proposals in the Glassco Royal Commission on government spending.

WON'T LIFT SURCHARGES

Justice Minister Donald Fleming has told Japanese trade officials Canada will not lift any of its import surcharges until the government considers them no longer necessary. Fleming was speaking at the conclusion of the first day of talks of the two-day conference on trade between Canada and Japan in Tokyo.

COMES FROM AUSTRALIA

A grain market report issued in Winnipeg says Canada's toughest competition for the Chinese wheat market comes from Australia. A Winnipeg grain merchant says Australia has sent some 190 million bushels of wheat to Communist China during the past two years. The Canadian wheat agreement with China provides for the sale of 185-million bushels of wheat between April 1961 and the end of the current year.

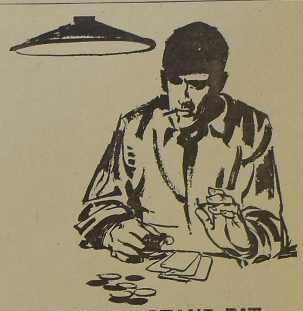
Lloyd Hart presides for district meeting

Omemee (PNS) — District of Emily convened in Orange Hall, Omemee, with District Master Lloyd Hart presiding. Reports from the three lodges showed the district to be in a healthy state financially and numerically. One death (late W. Bro. W.E. Faulkner of LOL 294) was the only loss claimed.

Invitation was extended to the County of Victoria to hold their annual church parade in Omemee this year. Delegates from the district will attend the County Lodge session in February in Lindsay.

All officers were re-elected: District Master-L. Hart; D.D.M. A Renout; Lecturers-R. Roberts, D. Acreman; Rec.-Sec.- N. Wilson; Treasurer-R. Moncrief Chaplin-R. Veals.

District Lodges will likely attend the Battle of the Boyne Commeroration in Port Hope this July.



THERE'S A TIME TO STAND PAT

Most men know how to say "no thanks" at the right time. This is called discipline and it's hard to come by.

Take drinking.

It's easy to keep saying "yes". After all, you haven't got a problem. You're a social drinker.

But it's amazing what happens to some social drinkers: they can get into car accidents; they can neglect their families; they can cause all sorts of trouble at work. They can even become alcoholics.

In 1949 the Province of Ontario decided to learn more about these problems. They discovered that 3% of Canada's "social drinkers" become alcoholics. They learned that there are more than 90,000 alcoholics in Ontario.

It can happen to anybody: bank managers, nurses, truckers, clergymen, housewives .

The Province created a group called the Alcoholism and Drug Addiction Research Foundation. Not a group of charity workers; a team of seasoned doctors and research scientists.

Their job is to investigate the effects of alcohol and other drugs, and to educate people toward a better understanding of them. It is recognized that they do their job well. Their reputation is international.

The Foundation tries to help before that danger line between social drinking and addiction is crossed. If you'd like to find out more, write: Addiction Research Foundation of Ontario, Box 1699, Terminal A, Toronto.

The Addiction Research Foundation is a Resource of the Province of Ontario.

Donald Burns

The funeral of Donald Joseph Burns, of 7 Melbourne St. E., Lindsay was held January 7, 1962. Service was from Stoddarts Funeral Home to St. Mary's Church for Requim Mass. Rev. R. Hart officiating.

Mr. Burns in his 46th year died January 3rd after a lengthy illness.

He was the son of the late Hiram Joseph Burns and Gertrude Mitchell and was born in West Ops. He was educated there also at St. Dominics School, Lindsay.

Surviving are his mother and two sisters, Mrs. Cleve Smith (Marie) of Peterboro and Mrs. Frank Callaghan (Margaret) of Lindsay.

Present in the Sanctuary were Rev. P. J. McQuire and Rev. J. D. Curtin, cousins of the deceased.

Pallbearers were Edward Burns, Victor Burns, Robert Burns, Francis Roche, John Roach and Simon Kirley.

Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery. Graveside prayers were said by the Rev. P. J. McGuire.

Edward De Finney

Kinmount community and the surrounding district were shocked to hear of the death of Edward De Finney, who passed away suddenly at the Minden Red Cross Hospital on December 21, 1962 in his 72nd year.

A lifetime resident of Kinmount, he received his education there and was the son of James De Finney and Mary Ellen Allen, who predeceased him several years ago. He was the husband of Margaret Mary Watson, who passed away two years ago. The deceased was a devout Roman Catholic and was a member of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Kinmount and was also a member of the Holy Name Society. The late Mr. De Finney was employed at J. Austin and Sons for several years and will be greatly missed there.

He leaves to mourn his loss his two daughters, Patricia (Mrs. Gordon Lawrence), of Willowdale and Mary (Mrs. Jim Theckton) of Scarboro; four sons, Thaddeus, of Toronto, Jim, of Ottawa, Jack, of Syndeham, Ontario and Peter, of Coboconk and ten grandchildren. One brother Jim, of Peterborough and three sisters Ella (Mrs. J. J. Hickey) of Lakefield, Mary, of Lakefield and Kate (Mrs. Bradamore) of Coboconk, also survive.

Funeral services were held on December 24th at 9.30 a.m. from his residence to St. Patrick's Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs H. Gardiner, P. Sherman, S. Welch, G. Brown, A. Watson and L. Anderson.

The many floral tributes and numerous mass cards told of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mrs. D. H. Lowes

Mrs. David Henry Lowes, 72, a former resident of East Emily, died in Peterboro recently.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Irwin, of Emily, she was the wife of David Lowes, who passed away a few years ago.

Surviving are daughters, Miss Albert Lowes, Mrs. Stewart Cuminskey (Olive), of Peterboro; Mrs. Lloyd Clarke (Derena) of Bethany; sons — Milton, Martin, Nelson, David and Jacob, of Peterboro and Thomas, of Lakefield; sisters - Mrs. Blewett, Grimsby; Mrs. Samuel Fitch, Omemee; Mrs. Bertha Stewart, Kincardine; Anndrew of Peterboro and 21 grandchildren.

The funeral from the Ray Funeral Home with Rev. Donald Elmslie officiating and interment was in Emily Cemetery.

Evelyn Mabel Bell

Evelyn Mabel Bell, of 82 Durham St. W., Lindsay, passed away at the Ross Memorial Hospital on January 3, 1963 following an illness of two years. The deceased was 59 years of age.

Wife of Wellington C. Bell who survives her the deceased had resided in this district for 45 years. She was educated at Waubashene Public School and was a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay.

Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by three daughters, Jeanne (Mrs. Ken Stacey) of Prestwick, Scotland, Ruth and Brenda, at home; one brother Harry, of Lindsay. Two sisters, Helen (Mrs. C. Corbett) of Port Hope and Isabel (Mrs. Clare Johnston) of Odessa and five brothers Raymond Eberts, (FPCLI Band) Edmonton, Alta., Noble, Lloyd and Gordon Eberts, of Lindsay and Jack, Kingston, also survive. One son James Murray is predeceased and one brother Frank Eberts, predeceased her.

The funeral was held on January 7th from the Mackey Funeral Home at 2 p.m. and interment was in Riverside Cemetery. Rev. D. Lemon, of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay, conducted the service.

The pallbearers were her five brothers, Raymond, Jack Lloyd, Noble and Gordon Eberts and Frank Speers.

Fingerboard

Mr. Howard Foster recently made a business trip to Toronto.

Miss Josephine English has returned to her home in Toronto after spending a couple weeks with her sister, Mrs. Alf Dowson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Nicholls visited in Port Perry, calling on Mrs. Jim Cairns whose husband was killed in an accident a short time ago.

A STICKY SITUATION

PLAYING WITH BLOCKS

STICK-TO-IT-IVENESS is a desirable trait in more ways than one in the task of the gentleman above. This fellow's aim is to glue together a number of different cubes to form one large mosaic cube identical with the one on his left (at top). To do this, the joiner must place glue on all adjoining sides; that is to say, glue each side of a facing pair. Accordingly, the man's early progress is noted below. Glue-bearing sides tally 12 in step A. Now, you are asked to determine the number of sides requiring glue in each of the other groupings—AND, as a grand finale, to state the number in all of glue-bearing sides in the completed figure (E) above.

Remember, facing sides are glued individually. No fair peeking at answers.

Answer: A Tallies 12—B Tallies 16—C Tallies 20—D Tallies 24—E Tallies 48

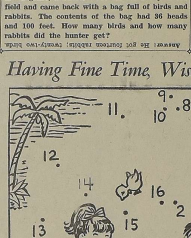
Hunter's Take Is in the Bag

IN THE days when there were no limits placed on game, a hunter went out for a day in the field and came back with a bag full of birds and rabbits. The contents of the bag had 36 heads and 100 feet. How many birds and how many rabbits did the hunter get?

Answer: He got fourteen rabbits (twenty-two birds).

Having Fine Time, Wish You Were Here



YOU can bet that Billy and Nancy are enjoying their winter vacation under a warm tropical sun. But they often think of their playmates back home, and wish they could be there, too.

Speaking of sun reminds us that something besides the youngsters' playmates is missing from this scene. To see what it is, simply draw a continuous line from dot 1 to dot 2, dot 3, etc., until you have used up all of the dots.

CRYPTARITHM

Answer: Place BCE between BE and BBEE

SWEETIE PIE?

SOME women keep them constantly in hot water or freeze them. Others put them in a stew. When cooking if they should sputter and fizz don't be anxious. Just add a little sugar but never vinegar or pepper. A little spice improves them, but it must be used with judgment. Do not try them with anything sharp to see if they are becoming tender. Stir them gently lest they lie too long in the kettle and become fat and tasteless.

If you follow these directions you will find them very digestible, agreeing with you nicely. You will be able to keep them as long as you want.

What's cooking?

Answer: A Tomato

Wisdom Seeker

THERE is wisdom for both young and old in this line from Whittier, presented as a cryptogram for you to solve.

E D G B O E C U Y L S G D M
G M Y U L T W S G D B,
D U A G Y J S C M G I-
L G T M T U F Y E.

It's a substitution crypt, meaning that the letters of the alphabet have been shuffled, with letters substituted for each other. That single letter word provides a starting clue for, as you know, there are only two single-letter words in the language, I and A.

Answer: "Tradition wears a hood, Custom a gown."

ANSWER'S BEFORE YOUR EYES

IN this pictorial spelling puzzle you are asked to identify the objects by name, and subtract letters as indicated, and discover the one word that is the solution.

The answer in this case is something in the very room with you. There are nine letters in this object's name.

After you have discovered the answer, see if you can identify the example cited — that is, the specimen which appeared in the U. S. on Sept. 21, 1784.

Here's a clue: It was founded in the city of Philadelphia by John Dunlap.

What're the 3-Letter Words?

CAN you name six three-letter words spelled with two letters and pronounced as if spelled with one? Time limit: two minutes.

Answer: Ebb, see, ess, ewe, owe, ooze

Heads or Tails?

IF YOU toss up three coins they are just as likely as not to come down alike (all heads or all tails). For two out of three coins MUST be alike. Suppose the two that are alike are heads. Then the third coin may just as well be a head as a tail, so the chance is an even one.

Is the reasoning stated above correct?

After you have discovered the answer, see if you can identify the example cited — that is, the specimen which appeared in the U. S. on Sept. 21, 1784.

Answer: The reasoning is not correct. Suppose the two coins that are alike are heads. Then the third coin may just as well be a head as a tail, so the chance is an even one.

3 - Finger Exercise

LAY a wooden match or toothpick across the nail of the middle finger of either hand, and raise the two adjacent fingers over it. Now try to break the match by exerting pressure on it with the three fingers only.

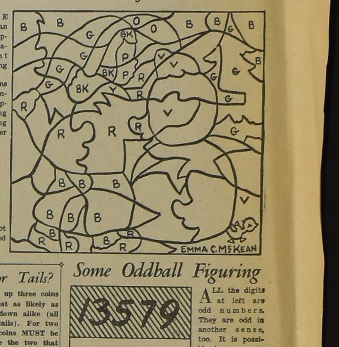
COLORGRAPH FOR JR. READERS

A SURPRISE picture can be made to appear in the diagram at right simply by adding colors.

Using crayons or colored pencils, carefully apply the following hues according to these letter indicators:

B—Blue
O—Orange
G—Green
V—Violet
R—Red
Y—Yellow
Bk—Black
P—Pink

If pink is not handy, use red lightly.



Some Oddball Figuring

ALL the digits at left are odd numbers. They are odd in another sense, too. It is possible to rearrange these five figures so that when the first two are multiplied by the last two and the center figure is subtracted from the result, the remainder will be a number composed of the same four digits.

How quickly can you comply? (Use lower box, above, for answer, if you wish.)

EMC² SCIENCE FUN

OFTEN we say that we can see through a person, meaning of course, that we understand his motives. But there is a way to see through a person, or yourself, for that matter, and again an X-ray or other machine is not required. This method is demonstrated in the illustration at right.

Employed as a sighting device in a rolled sheet of paper. Peered through as shown, that is to say with both eyes open—one peering through the tube and the other fixed upon the object itself—the other person's arm will appear to have a hole through it.

The illusory effect is created by a slight diversion of the line of sight of one eye.

To conduct this experiment upon yourself, sight the tube at a hand or wrist; again peer through with both eyes open, attention fixed on target. Hand or wrist will appear penetrated.

Good Sound Logic?

IT HAS been suggested more than once that one of the greatest of all puzzles is the English language. As one verse of anonymous authorship puts it—

When the English tongue you speak

Why is break not rhymed with freak?
Can you tell me why it's true
That you say sew, but not likewise few?

Why can't the maker of a verse
Rhyme the word horse with worse?

Beard does not rhyme with heard
And cord is different from word.
Dose is rose and lose is lose
But the shoe is never rhymed with hoe.

Now there's hose and dose and lose.

Think of goose and again of choose.

What about comb and tomb and bomb,

Doll and roll and home and some?

So, in short, it seems to me
Sounds and letters disagree.

AIM TO ESTABLISH OR BREAK

Several Canadians aim to establish or break existing records tonight at the Knights of Columbus track meet in Boston. One of the big events is a two-mile rematch between Canada's record-holding champion Bruce Kidd and veteran challenger Pete McArdle of New York. In polevaulting, Al Groom of Summerside, Prince Edward Island, will vault against several top U-S contestants. The one-thousand yard run is favored as the hottest race. This time he's running against 1961 winner and Boston Garden record-holder Ernie Cunliffe. Meet officials say in addition to sprints and hurdles, top runners are entered in the 600-yard run and that at least five club relays a women's 880-yard run and a brave of 500 yard races will be staged.

About the Wellington St. bridge

Lindsay, Ont.,
January 10, 1963.

The Editor,
The Lindsay Post.

Dear Mr. Editor:

One of the controversial subjects which will probably confront the 1963 Town Council will be in connection with the Wellington Street bridge. It is understood that the Department of Transport at Ottawa has decided that if the Town presses for a new bridge across the Scugog River at Colborne Street that the Department will not consider rebuilding or widening the Wellington Street bridge.

It seems to me that Council could do well to see a new bridge at Wellington Street for reason that the bridge is much too narrow, is very old and, today is quite hazardous.

Would it not be wise to make a complete survey of the bottle neck situation at the Queen Street junction as it approaches Lindsay Street South to the east and also to widen both sides of Wellington Street from Lindsay to William Street. No one can deny that an artery of transportation which the town can ill afford to be without. I am of the opinion that a bridge at Colborne Street would lighten the traffic on Queen Street but the latter would still be the main course for thousands of motorists.

Widening Colborne Street might be considered at the intersection of Caroline and Colborne and the present open creek, which is dangerous, might be covered in with reinforced concrete sufficiently to widen the road through the C.P.R. viaduct or tunnel.

To place a bridge across the river at Colborne Street whether an overhead structure or one on the level, would cause considerable hardship to industrial concerns in the neighbourhood.

Town Council might be well advised to proceed with a new bridge at Wellington Street, the matter could then be surveyed.

POLICYHOLDERS

The Mutual Life of Canada policyholders are accustomed to big dividends. The company is famous for its outstanding dividend record.

The increased dividends that will be paid to policyholders in 1963 will further reduce the low net cost of their insurance. The Mutual Life has been providing policyholders with insurance coverage at the lowest possible cost since 1869 and has been applying the same principles to group insurance since the company entered that field.

You can share in the dividends that go with Mutual Life of Canada policies. Your nearest Mutual Life representative will provide complete information on the advantages of Mutual Life of Canada protection.

OMEMEE MAN CLEARED OF ANIMAL CRUELTY

Find no evidence to support charge

Ross Heasman, was completely cleared of a charge of cruelty to animals by Magistrate R. I. Moore today.

Defense counsel J.S. Staples said in his summary, that he felt unnecessary publicity had been given the case prior to the trial, and that owing to the seriousness of the charge, his client had been subject to uncalled for criticism from his friends and neighbours.

The charges followed the findings of some puppies on the Omemee dump by two boys, one of the pups still being alive but later dying.

The boys-Ted McGill, and Gary Whitney–told the court of finding the animals while looking for Christmas trees December 16 around noon.

They had heard a whimpering they said, and on investigating had found the three puppies, one of them still alive.

There were no immediate flames around the animals they said.

One of the boys had put the puppy under his coat he and his companion continued their walk, later, (about two hours) taking the pup home and trying to feed it. It died later, and they had called the police.

"Was the pup whimpering when you put it under your jacket the magistrate.

"Yes."

"Why did you not take it immediately home when you knew it was hurt?"

"I don't know".

"I just cannot understand why you would keep the pup like that, when it was in pain, and I think it might have been saved with quick action on your part" further remarked the magistrate.

Veterinarian Dr. A. F. Codlin told of being called by Chief Whetham to examine the pups and stated to the court that he believed two of them were dead when placed on the dump. He said he did not feel fire was responsible for their deaths, he said.

Mr. Heasman, in his own defence (later co-oborated by his father), told the court that he and his father had taken the three puppies, females from a litter of eight, and had placed them in a cream can connected to the exhaust of the car, and after 20 minutes, had put them on the ground where they had laid for about 15 minutes before he took them to the dump. He said they could not bury them as the ground was frozen and if they (the pups) had been buried in the manure pile the mother dog would have dug them up. He also told the court that he had been sure the animals were dead, and that there had been no sign of life when he placed them on the pile of rubbish at the dump.

News items often stir up memories of things almost forgotten. Take, for example the one in "The Post" the other day which announced that the cost of transporting students in the Victoria County High School Area would be about $130,000 when all the bills for '62 were totalled up. This item brought back memories of those school days when it was up to the kids to get themselves to school.

Those were the days of Continuation Schools when places like Little Britain, Woodville, Bobcaygeon, Omemee and so forth, were centres of this form of "higher education". Youngsters living in Oakwood, say, would attend Continuation School at Little Britain, three miles or so to the south. They were also the days when you had to really want this "higher education" to get it. And you either got yourself there or you didn't get it.

In summer you had two choices of transportation — hoof it or ride a bicycle. In winter you also had two choices — hoof it or chip in to ride in a horse and cutter. Few walked.

The bicycle ride to and from Little Britain in summer was considered just a nice daily workout and served as an inspiration for exploring and taking sidetrips. Lunch in the great outdoor cafeteria attached to the school was a much looked - forward - to period, one which was hurried through in order to get in some of the fun of which there was no shortage and which generally kept students in fine physical shape, eliminating the need for P.T. The trip home after school was usually made in leisurely fashion, no one being in any great rush to tackle the chores which were prescribed as a sort of end-of-the-day conditioner and appetite builder.

In winter it was a 'horse of a different color — often it was white with hoar frost and flying snow after a brisk trot pulling its scholarly cutter-load over the drifted road, packed with over the pitch holes. But no one considered the trips a hardship — They were looked on as outings, sometimes even as adventures or challenges . . . There was both adventures and challenge for young minds in braving and defying the winter elements. They served as inspirations — too and actually imparted knowledge. What pupil, for example, could be better equipped to write a composition on subjects such as "a cutter-ride" or "a blizzard" than one who had experienced them?

Of course times change and how they change! Nowadays things are different for school students. Where there was once half a dozen Continuation Schools, now there is one, perhaps two, huge district high schools. There's no problem about getting to school for

Lindsay Officer promoted

Air Force Headquarters has announced the promotion of Flying Officer M.F. White, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. F. White, of Lindsay, to the rank of flight lieutenant, effective Jan. 1. Flight Lieutenant White, who joined the RCAF as an airman radar technician in 1952, was commissioner as a radio-navigator in 1956. Since September last year, he has been a staff officer in the Directorate of Communications at AFHQ, Ottawa. F/L White and his wife, the former Margaret Atkins, of Innisfree, Alta., live at 11 Domus Crescent Lynwood Village, Ottawa.

Duplicate Bridge winners visitors from Peterborough

Lindsay's Duplicate Bridge Club has had another round of play employing the Howell Movement system. Winners and runners-up in the latest competitions are: First with 39½ points - Mrs. C. Every and Mrs. Hildenbrand, both of Peterborough; second - Dr. C. Laidley and N. G. Bradburn, 39; third - Dr. D. C. Pitt and B. R. Howard, 37; fourth - B. Snodden and W. J. Snodden, 36. Second, third and fourth place players are all of Lindsay.

Next games: January 2nd., same place. . .Legion Hall.

Marinas are envisioned for riverfront parks

Marinas are being envisioned in future development of Lindsay's three riverfront parks. The three-acre tract, purchased for parkland along the Scugog, north of Colborne St. E., would lend itself to an ideal marina but for the presence of the Parks Board cannot afford to carry the development as far as that." In making the above observation retiring Parks Board Secretary T. R. Price disclosed cutting of shrubs and trees and levelling was getting this acregae in shape and with the purchase of land for a right of way from St. Paul St., made last fall, from the John O'Reilly estate, there was promise of a splendid park there. The shoreline too would allow for the tying up of boats but the establishment of a marina ther eis a dream of the future.

As regards Riverview Park at the east end of Durham St.

EDITORIAL....

AND STILL NOTHING HAS BEEN DONE . . .

It is now several months since the Beaverton Hotel was forced to close its doors due to the presence of gasoline fumes attributed to seepage into the hotel's basement. It will be recalled that the Ontario Fire Marshal's office ruled that it would be unsafe to light the hotel's furnace until the problem has been cleared up. As a result of the situation, the hotelkeeper has been virtually put out of business and has lost the revenue gained from business which rented space in the hotel block . . . And still nothing has been done to correct the matter.

We have all witnessed what happens when there is a big fire or an explosion in some of the metro areas . . . There is a great flurry of excitement as the Fire Marshal's deputies and heaven knows how many other agencies take a hand in trying to determine the cause. But do we have to experience an explosion or fire before we act when we know in advance that a potentially dangerous condition exists such as is apparently the case at Beaverton? Let us suppose that due to circumstances beyond the control of the hotel owner, something does happen to touch off an explosion and possible fire, then what happens? . . . Will the authorities then proceed to move in in droves to ascertain the cause?

We believe this situation is fraught with danger, not only to the hotel but to adjacent properties and that no stone should be left unturned to determine the source of the gasoline seepage and resulting fumes. This is now a matter of public safety and no longer just a private problem. Gasoline is not a "ghost" substance and since its presence is easily detected, tracing its source shouldn't be an insurmountable task. Indifference or procrastination on the part of authorities will no doubt be met with heightened public indignation. Can you imagine the furore if this situation results in actual property damage or loss of life, or both?

Remember way back when

JANUARY 14, 1913

At the Friday night council meeting Reeve Kylie introduced a resolution appointing a committee consisting of His Worship Mayor Beal, Ald. Naylor, Warren and Mayor to see the co-operation of the G.T.R. in improving Victoria Ave. from Kent St. to the freight sheds. The plank sidewalks along the thoroughfare was in rotten condition and was a source of danger to pedestrians. If the stretch referred to was repaired, the extra material could be used to fill up where the old plank walk now exists. Some time ago the G.T.R. put about 30 loads of gravel on this stretch, but it has all disappeared.

Light out before daylight

Ald. Nicholls at last night's council session stated that complaints had been to the effect that the street lights were out in the morning when the girls employed in the factories were going to work. It was sometimes difficult to see very far ahead with the lights out. The council will take action.

JANUARY 14, 1938

Nestleton–What might have been a most disastrous fire occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Edgerton. A few neighbours were first on the scene and were almost beaten until the phone calls brought scores of men from all directions. The fire seemed to run along between the sheeting and shingles on the south side of the roof and burst out in several places at once. Sure-footed men on the roof tore shingles off and chopped holes with axes as each new danger occurred and with ample water supply, which was indeed fortunate as so many wells are dry in the district, and plenty of willing helpers, a disaster was averted. A temporary covering was made as so much water had destroyed the plaster inside.

Reports and Remarks..

WHERE IS THE RULE OF LAW?

Governments and their servants are as subject to the law as are people. This year Ontario established a three per cent sales tax levy. At the outset it was stated that tax would not apply to services, yet, on another page, one man tells of a tax inspector who has said that "from now on" the tax will apply to watch repairs and engraving.

Such a seemingly arbitrary decision either by the government or by this particular tax inspector is of vital importance to every reader of this newspaper.

Such actions could endanger the future of dozens of types of business tomorrow.

At the outset the government announced that the returns from the tax were far more than they had anticipated. But we know that Parkinson's law applies to money, just as it applies to people.

If there is too much money today, tomorrow there would be too little. The cost of administering the tax is, no doubt, increasing faster than the tax itself.

If the tax can be increased by arbitrary rulings at some level, then the tax that is applied today on watch repairs can be applied tomorrow on dry cleaning, on dish washing, on waiting on table, on funeral directing.

This Day

Today is Monday, January 14th, the 14th day of 1963 with 351 to follow. The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Capricorn. Medical missionary and philosopher Albert Schweitzer was born on this day in 1875.

On this day in history:

In 1914, Henry Ford revolutionized the manufacture of automobiles by inaugurating the "assembly line" method.

In 1943, President Franklin Roosevelt and Prime Minister Winston Churchill began a 10-day conference in Morocco to plan allied offensives aimed at the "unconditional surrender" of the axis powers.

In 1962, scores were slain in a terror wave which swept Algeria.

GOOD FOOD PROMOTES SOUND DENTAL HEALTH

Good strong teeth may be inherited, but the diet of young children and teenagers greatly influences the composition of the teeth.

The Foods and Nutrition Department at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, says that Calcium, Phosphorous and Vitamins C and D are the critical nutrients. Vitamin D has to be present for the teeth to properly use the calcium and phosphorous, and Vitamin C builds healthy gums to support teeth.

Dental caries are believed to be caused by bacteria in the mouth and these bacteria are produced by carbohydrates. Eskimos who live on a very low carbohydrate diet have a very low percentage of dental cavities whereas those on a white man's diet have a higher percentage of cavities.

Carbohydrates which cling to the teeth, such as toffee, are the worst offenders. White flour products cause more decay than whole wheat products and if the teeth are not cleaned immediately after eating, the bacteria develop and the damage begins.

It is recommended that between-meal snacks for children consist of fruit and raw vegetables or whole wheat and cheese instead of cookies or white bread and jam. In this way we will be supplying nutrients that build as well as eliminating those that cause damage.

Sealing Plastic Bags

You can make a good job of sealing plastic bags by folding some aluminum foil along the top edges of the bag, then running a hot iron over the aluminum. The plastic bag's edges will seal effectively, and the foil will prevent the plastic from melting on your iron. Let the bag cool before removing the foil.

Baking Bread E

When baking bread, if your oven is too hot and the loaves brown on top before the bread is baked, place a pan of boiling water on the top grate. The steam will keep the bread from scorching while the heat thoroughly bakes the rest of the loaf.

The Ice-Cube Tray

When returning the ice-cube tray to the refrigerator after removing the cubes, refill it with hot water. This will help the defrosting to a minimum.

Saturday's Cryptoquip: INDUSTRIOUS INDUSTRIALIST CHASTENS HIS INDOLENT DIRECTORS

Mr. J. Hall speaks on "Emergency Measures"

The chapter meeting of the Women of the Moose was held with a good representation of co-workers present. Senior Regent Joyce Townsend presided. The meeting opened in due form.

Co-worker Ruth Bovie, chairman of child care committee, was escorted to the alter where she introduced her committee and thanked them for their support. She was then escorted to the Senior Regent's station where she gave a short regime of her committee work. Mr. committee's work. Mr. Jim Hall of the provincial police, was guest speaker for the evening.

Lillian Bovie was then enrolled into the Defending Circle of the Women of the Moose.

Then co-worker Ruth Bovie introduced the speaker for the evening, Jim Hall, whose topic was "Emergency Measures". Mr. Hall gave a clear picture of what a nuclear war would mean to Canadians. He took this further to show exactly what it would mean to people in this area. Then he proceeded to tell how all can prepare now to protect themselves in case of a nuclear war. He explained how the siren sounded and how long we would have to take cover, depending on the warning it gave. The key cities that would be the main targets in the event of an attack. How the police and army work together to retain and restore order, and about radioactivity and its effects. Questions from all co-workers were answered in the fullest detail after clearing up special questions and problems in their minds.

Co-worker Vera McLean thanked Mr. Hall for taking his time to come to address us on such a vital subject.

A short business period followed. Minutes from the last meeting were read and approved. Co-worker Faye Bell read the audit report for the first quarter of the year. Many letters of thanks were read, which had been received from those who had been remembered by the chapter at Christmas time.

Plans were made to attend the annual mid-winter conference held the last Sunday in January.

The meeting closed in due form.

A delicious lunch was served by the child care committee. It consisted of fancy sandwiches, relishes and a variety of delicious layer cakes. A favour of a cornflower corsage was at each co-worker's plate.

Collegian Lena Barnsley won the gift of the evening which was a potted mum.

Co-worker Greta Henderson thanked co-worker Ruth Bovie and her committee for the evening, the delicious lunch and interesting speaker.

Says "Boy With Boot" fountain once located on Albert St. N.

"I see you're still worrying about a "Boy With The Foot" fountain that an American woman remembers seeing as a young girl while on her way to the fair . . . Well, sir, I can tell you where she saw it". So declared tobacconist and jewelry repairman Laird Gamble of Lindsay over the weekend adding: "The Boy With The Boot" fountain stood for years in front of George Chamberlain's house on Albert St. N., just north of the house in which Dr. Wood lives.

Various pieces of information on this particular type of fountain have come to light following a request for particulars about it from Mrs. John T. Flood of 38199 Union Lake Rd., Mt. Clemens, Mich. Mrs. Flood says the fountain she has reference to stood in front of a private home. She is specific in her "Boy With The Boot" description.

Search for missing boys find them safe in Ottawa

Two 13-year-old Lindsay boys were apparently full of adventure over the weekend, despite the cold weather.

David Imrie, of John St. and Allan McLean, of St. Patrick St., reported missing from their homes Friday were finally located in a Ottawa home.

Police say that an intensive search was carried on over the weekend for the boys, by them and the parents but the boys were not located until Sunday evening about 9.30 when Mrs. Imrie received a phone call from a boarding home in Ottawa saying that the two boys were there.

The parents left immediately, to bring them home.

Dalrymple

Mr. Hunter addressed the congregation at the regular service on the top "The Joy of being a Christian". At the conclusion of the service, a dedication was held for the new heating system. Mr. Chapman, who was contacted during the installation was present, as was Mr. Fulsom who installed the units. A great deal of appreciation is due to the men who assisted at the time of installation, and to Mr. Fulsom, who has shown such interest in the project.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. T. Walter Deverell and family in the loss of husband and father. Mr. Deverell was one of the best known men in the district having lived all his 87 years in Dalrymple where he established a fine farm and lumber business in early days. His accomplishments in church and community affairs particularly as co-founder of the Sebright Telephone Company were many and varied. Mr. Deverell was known as a man of good principals and sound judgement, who enjoyed the friendship of a large circle and the respect of all acquaintances. Mr. Deverell's health remained remarkably good, and his interest in all events both local, and world wide never lessened. He will be missed in this community.

Omemee Council holds inaugural, makes appointments

Omemee (PNS) — The inaugural meeting of the village council was held on Friday evening with Reeve George Stephenson presiding. New councillor William Fisher was welcomed and Rev. R. S. Mansfield read opening prayers. Councillors C. R. Vaughan, Leonard Jones, Max Free and W. Fisher all spoke.

Clerk Ronald Pogue and Treasurer Horace Hill were complimented on their work, and finances were reported in a satisfactory condition. The budget will be announced in the spring, following the auditor's report.

C. R. Vaughan and Leonard Jones were appointed to roads committee, Max Fee and Wm. Fisher to property.

Membership fees will be paid to the Good Roads Association and the Association of Rural Municipalities with delegates to attend annual meetings of both. Ten dollars was voted to the St. John's Ambulance Society and it was decided to provide transportation expenses for firemen and police attending the course in Peterboro.

C. J. Whitmore was appointed to the Victoria County High School Area Board and George Bannon and Wilbur Morrison to the Board of Health.

Fire Chief Charles Evans described the uses of foam in fire fighting and said he would include estimates in his budget.

five acres of riverfront land is under development. A playground, which is well-equipped and a ball diamond have already resulted and perhaps a dockage for boats will materialize in the future Parks Board members state.

In the meantime Councillor Russell Taylor goes ahead with tearing down old buildings purchased at the Lindsay St. N. bridge. He is planning a private parking area to the rear with access from Kent St. E. He has also plans for a riverfront park there extending from the bridge taking in the old stone mill, proposed as a museum. With the improvement of the shoreline boats could tie up at this spot or an under the bridge access could be made to the park from the present wharf on the other side of the bridge. Plans for a marina here were suggester by Mr. Price but it is as yet only a suggestion, he said.

Faced head-on chose rear-end, driver declares

Richard A. Graham of R. R. 2, Lindsay and Mrs. Alice M. Carew, of Lindsay, were drivers of two cars involved in a rear-end collision Saturday night.

Both cars are reported to have been proceeding east on Kent St. W. with the Carew car in the lead. Mrs. Carew told police afterwards she was slowing down on account of the slippery pavement when the accident happened. Mr. Graham told investigating officer PC Douglas Thompson he noticed the Carew car slowing and tried to get around it but was faced with the choice of a head-on collision with a westbound car or a raer-end collision with the latter. The impact drove the Carew vehicle over the curb and into a snowdrift. An estimated $500 damage was done to both vehicles. Mrs. Carew complained of a sore neck.

Thomas Nesbitt

Had previous attack

Widely known Norland resident Thomas Nesbitt, a Department of Highway's employee for over 27 years, died within 20 minutes of a heart seizure Monday, January 7, at the age of 66.

Mrs. Neshitt told "The Post" that Mr. Neshitt had been enjoying "fairly good health" since his last attack about four years ago.

"However", she said, " he was unable to walk very far, or be able to do even light work, and on the morning of the attack, had been getting his equipment ready to go to work, when he came in complaining of a terrible pain in his chest."

He was dead within 20 minutes", she concluded.

Oakwood

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tribe, of Meleca, Man., paid a short visit to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Weldon, and other members of the Weldon family.

Mrs. J. E. Lownsbrough and their cousin, Mr. Peter Harkiss Lizzie Harcus, visited their cousin, Mr. Peter Harcus and other friends in Toronto.

Hearty congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Taylor. They will celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary soon.

Janetville

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McMullen were visitors in Bowmanville with their daughter and family, the Sam Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Vine Cane, of Toronto, were recent visitors of friends and relatives in the district.

Miss Sharon Dube, of Carrying Place, visited Pat Moxon at her home.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Goslin were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reid, of Pickering Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Larry McGinnis and family of Ajax and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Howlett and family of Valentia.

Which twin has the pink toe? Mrs. Janice Chalmers, 18, of Lynn, Mass., called in a fingerprint expert to tell her who's who between her four-months-old identical twin daughters, after they outgrew their hospital identifying bracelets, and Momma mixed up their colored diaper pins. Police straightened out the problem through footprints. Now Momma keeps pink nail polish on Kelly's big toe.

$350,000,000

GOVERNMENT OF CANADA BONDS

Bank of Canada is authorized by the Minister of Finance to receive subscriptions for a loan, to be issued for cash as follows:

—1 year 3¼% non-callable bonds due February 1, 1964
Issue price: 99.25%
Yielding about 4.02% to maturity

Interest payable August 1 and February 1
Denominations: $1,000, $5,000, $25,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000

and

—3 year 3½% non-callable bonds due February 1, 1966
Issue price: 97.25%
Yielding about 4.49% to maturity

Interest payable August 1 and February 1
Denominations: $1,000, $5,000, $25,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000

Bank of Canada has already agreed to acquire $75,000,000 of the new Bonds, open as to maturity.

Proceeds of the offering will be used in part to make advances to the Canadian National Railway Company in connection with the retirement of $250,000,000 of Canadian National Railway Company 2¾% bonds due February 1, 1963 and in part for general purposes of the Government of Canada.

Both new issues will be dated February 1, 1963 and will bear interest from that date. Principal and interest are payable in lawful money of Canada. Principal is payable at any Agency of Bank of Canada. Interest is payable at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank without charge. Bonds may be registered as to principal or as to principal and interest. Definitive bonds will be available on or about February 1, 1963 and thereafter in two forms: bearer form with coupons attached (this form may be registered as to principal) and fully registered form with interest payable by cheque. Bonds of both forms will be in the same denominations and fully interchangeable as to denomination and/or form without charge (subject to Government transfer requirements where applicable).

The new issues are authorized under authority of an Act of the Parliament of Canada and both principal and interest are a charge on the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada.

Subscriptions, subject to allotment, may be made to Bank of Canada, Ottawa, through any investment dealer eligible to act as a primary distributor or through any bank in Canada.

The books of the loan will close at 6.00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, January 15, 1963.

An official prospectus may be obtained from any Agency of Bank of Canada.

YOUNG CAN IN THE ROCKING CHAIR

Many an older executive can take a lesson from the young man in the rocking chair at the White House. No man is better known for his preachments of physical fitness; yet no man has ever so philosophically resigned himself to physical inactivity as President Kennedy.

He is an integral part of that rocker when he graces it. For a time, at least, it seems that touch football, golf and other active involvements are not to be a regular part of his daily schedule. It requires grit and realignment for such a normally active man to accept physical inactivity — yet, I think that our country is the gainer.

For years I have been advocating the rocking chair for middle-aged athletes who go running off in all directions to keep fit. I have been saying that after 40 it makes more sense to conserve heart beats than to spend them like a profligate.

When you consider the trials that the President has had to undergo since he took office, you can be thankful — although I am sure he isn't — that the spade work (laying a foundation in Canada months ago) caused an exacerbation in an old back injury.

It gives him time to rock; and contemplate — unhurried and under no pressure — the many problems he must solve. Otherwise, he might be hurrying to a foursome appointment on the golf course, or out spending his physical energies on the touchball field.

During these days of supreme trial and tribulation it is reassuring to know the President is within reach of his padded, comfortable rocking chair — and not running somewhere with golf club in hand. He inspires confidence as he sits there; you feel like a child walking across a crowded street who is comforted by the hand of his father.

I have agreed with the President that physical fitness is essential for growing youngsters and young adults. But I continue to draw the line for those after 40; I am glad that the oldsters are, for the most part, a nation of spectators.

For fitness in those over 40, I recommend — as I first did in a book over 20 years ago — the rocking chair technique of relaxation. Your muscles need not be as firm and hard as the acrobat's or the footballer's.

Occasional swimming, walking, bowling, nine holes of unhurried golf, tennis doubles with people your own age, exercising the green thumb for an hour a day: such are the only physical requirements for fitness. (And for those of you who are completely allergic to exertion, even these muscular activities are not necessary.)

All you need to do is keep your diet within bounds so that your weight is normal; learn how to relax (develop the ability to take a daily snooze); take frequent short vacations; interest yourself in a hobby; work hard but not too hard; and develop an optimistic outlook on life.

This is all you need for fitness after 40. However, you might take a tip from the life of our first citizen: get yourself a rocking chair. No home is a home without one.

They'll Do It Every Time By Jimmy Hatlo

In homes where there are children constant care must be taken with cleansers, cosmetics and medicines.

Dymond Discusses Health in Ontario

Accidental Poisoning

Matthew B. Dymond, MD, CM.
Ontario Minister of Health

It may come as a surprise to many to discover that we all keep a vast number of poisons in our homes. Some we use every day, and others only occasionally, but in the average home the medicine chest, kitchen cupboard, basement and garage offer hundreds of possible death traps to the unwary child.

The Ontario Safety League warns that the most innocent household commodities — headache tablets, liquid detergent, paint—can all turn into killers if a curious youngster swallows them.

The main problem of accidental poisoning lies largely in the under-five age group, when children are old enough to experiment and too young to understand the harm in tasting strange fluids and pills. Parents should never take it for granted that potential poisons are out of reach of a child if placed on a high shelf.

In homes where there are children constant care must be taken with cleansers, cosmetics, medicines and gasoline, etc. stored in the garage, and some may have to be locked away.

Parents themselves may unwittingly encourage a child to swallow poison, if they are in the habit of placing leftover turpentine or other poisons in a soft drink bottle for storage. A child who is used to finding a pleasant drink in the container will be even more likely to drink the toxic fluid.

Taste does not seem to deter many children, who will even drink corrosives such as lye and drain-cleaner, or sample an insecticide containing arsenic.

Your Ontario Department of Health makes available a booklet called "Is Your Home Free from Poisonings?" and parents wishing to learn more about preventing these accidents may request a copy from their nearest Public Health Unit or by writing to the Publications Branch of this Department, Queen's Park, Toronto.

Car hits pole, hospitalize driver

A 28-year-old Little Britain man, David Imrie was admitted to the Ross Memorial hospital Saturday night suffering from concussion, and facial injuries following an accident in which the car he was driving went out of control about two miles south of Little Britain.

Police say the accident happened around 9 p.m. Saturday on county road 6, when the vehicle went out of control, left the highway and snapped off a hydro pole.

There were no other passengers in the car, and property damage is estimated at about $300.

Mr. Imrie is expected to be released from hospital today.

OPP Const. I. Milner investigated.

No injuries

Douglas Ferguson, of R. R. 2, Kirkfield, and Murray Hutchings of Brechin, were drivers involved in a minor accident Sunday evening.

Investigating OPP Const. J. R. Deslaurier says the accident happened in Kirkfield when Ferguson was backing from a parking lot and came in contact with the Hutchings car.

There were no injuries, and damage to both vehicles was about $150 said the officer.

V & G president wins coveted Fee Trophy

Thirty-one years ago Past President E. D. Fee of the Lindsay Curling Club and probrietor of Fee Motors, presented the club with a fine silver trophy for annual competition.

On Saturday last the 31st skip to win the cup and accompanying prizes was Rex. Thomas, President of the Victoria and Grey Trust Company. The Thomas quartet won three games with a score of 37 points and a plus of 4.

Twenty rinks took part in the event. The second prize for 3 wins went to Skip G. Arksey of Cannington with a score of 24 points. Third three-game winner was Skip Elmer Kennedy of Lindsay with 23 points, plus 7. Skip A Widdis of Lindsay won the prize for two games with a score of 25 plus 2 and fifth place. The high one-game winner was skip Joe Gamsby of Fenelon Falls with a score of 22 points.

Ken. Richmond of Fee Motors was in attendance throughout the day and also presented the cup to the winning Lindsay rink.

ARRIVES IN BERLIN

Premier Khrushchev arrives in Berlin today for tomorrow's opening of the East German Communist Party Congress. Speculation persists Khrushchev will lead an attack on Red Chinese political philosophy, forcing a showdown in the Soviet-Chinese dispute.

MEETS WITH ADENAUER

U-S Under Secretary of State George Ball met with Chancellor Adenauer today to discuss U-S ideas on a multi-nation nuclear force. Ball reportedly presented further information about organizational plans. President Kennedy and Prime Minister Macmillan agreed in principle on the integrated atomic force at their Nassau meeting.

FIRMLY CONTROL

Broadcasts from Togo–heard in neighboring Ghana–assert rebels who yesterday assassinated President Sylvanus Olympio firmly control the government. The broadcasts promised a new constitution and elections in the West African nation.

ONE LAST CHANCE

The U-N reportedly will give Katanga President Tshombe one last chance to surrender his stronghold of Kolwezi peacefully. If he refuses U-N forces will attack the mining centre within a week.

CLOSES BORDERS

Syria has closed its borders with Jordan and Lenanon following weekend riots in two Syrian towns. Syrian officials have blamed supporters of United Arab Republic President Nasser for the riots.

OPPOSE MEMBERSHIP

Some British negotiators believe that French President De Gaulle and possibly W. German Chancellor Adenauer oppose Britain's membership in the Common Market for political reasons. But the French maintain they favor British entry if Britain conforms competely to the Treaty of Rome when she enters the market. This means the scrapping of British subsidies to farmers. Britain and the European six meet in Brussels again today to continue negotiations.

30-20 VICTORY

A 17-point rally in the final quarter gave the Eastern All Stars a 30-20 victory over the West in the National Football League pro bowl game yesterday. Fullback Jim Brown of Cleveland scored two touchdowns and set a rushing record of 141 yards to win honors as best player of the game at Los Angeles. Baltimore quarterback John Unitas led the west on a 17-point scoring binge in the third period . . . but fumbles proved costly for the Western stars who booted away the ball six times. Pittsburgh's Gene Lipscomb was named the outstanding lineman.

SECOND ALL STAR GAME

Rookie fullback Curtis McClinton and quarterback Frank Tripucka led the West to a 21-14 victory over the East in yesterday's second American Football League All-Star game. Tripucka passed 20 yards to Denver teammate Lionel Taylor for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. McClinton, of Dallas, scored one touchdown and set up another to win honors as outstanding offensive player of the game at San Diego.

$3,500.00 RICHER

South Africa's Gary Player is 35-hundred dollars richer today because he dropped an 18-foot putt on the final hole of the San Diego Open Golf Tournament. Player's pressure shot yesterday gave him a first place score of 270 for the 72 hole tourney. Tony Lema finished second with a 271, followed by Charley Sifford and Bill Casper with 272 each, Kulins Boros with 273 and Miller Barber with 274. Lema had the best final round–a 67–compared with Player's 70.

NIGHT OFF

The National Hockey League has the night off tonight after playing a full slate last night. The first place Chicago Black Hawks tied Montreal 2-2 and held onto their one-game lead over Toronto, which also played a 2-2 tie game-with Boston. In the other contest, the Detroit Red Wings defeated New York 4-2.

EMPTY SLATE

The American Hockey League has an empty slate on today's schedule. In last night's games, Hershey whipped Baltimore 4-2, Providence downed Quebec 5-3, Pittsburgh edged Baltimore 4-3 and Rochester nipped Springfield 3-2.

BEGINS PREPARING REPORT

A New York Legislative Committee begins preparing a report today on whether to ban professional boxing in the state. The committee ended two days of public hearings last week and is expected to submit its report in about a month. The inquiry resulted from the fatal injury of Benny "Kid" Paret last April in a welterweight title fight with Emile Griffith.

Oakwood Curling Rink running full tilt

Master Feeds 'spiel early season feature

Oakwood Curling Rink has been a hive of activity since the opening of the current season. Besides the regular scheduled games there have been bonspiels and the Master Feeds event a few days ago proved to be another success. The coveted trophy was won by Skip Bob Lowery of Unionville who has been a regular competitor in the event. The Unionville rink tucked away three wins with a score of 26 plus 1. Second place went to the well known curler Alf. Bell of Oakwood who was a close to first winner with 3 wins and 26 points.

Another Unionville rink skipped by Emett Jarper had the high score for two wins, while Ted Gorrill of Oakwood skipped his rink through the day to win the one game win with high score.

The presentation of the trophy and prizes for first place was made by Tibor Szego of Master Feeds.

It is interesting to note that the bonspiel was introduced in 1949 and that Skips E. Harper of Unionville and Lindy Mackey of Lindsay have never missed the event in this period of time.

Rinks taking part in the event included foursomes from Weston, Toronto, Scarboro, Unionville, Little Britain and Oakwood.

Trivial incidents exaggerated, Recreation Commission declares

"Exaggeration of trivial Minor Hockey incidents by the outside press is not fair and serious consideration is being given to barring the reporter responsible from future meetings of the Recreation Commission." This statement was made by Recreation Commission Chairman Herb. Simpson this morning in speaking of an incident during a Midget game Thursday night. It had to do, Mr. Simpson explained, with a little scrape which two of the players got into in a hockey game. The exaggeration the newspaper article put on the story by stating an emergency meeting was to be called to consider banning from the arena a man who had intervened in the fight, "had thrown a bad light on the operations of the Minor Hockey Association here", he said. The man was the father of one of the two boys involved.

"The matter was handled Saturday at a regular meeting of the Minor Hockey Association", Mr. Simpson stated, saying any details would not be publicized and the matter was closed. Association President Robert Bovie also stated no further comments on the matter would be made. . . "the matter is closed", he corroborated.

Phone booth wrecked

$1,000 damage to car, two occupants hurt

Two Scarboro residents -- Andrew Allan, 17, and Samuel Ketcheson -- were taken to the Ross Memorial Hospital Sunday afternoon suffering injuries received when the car in which they were riding went out of control.

Investigating OPP Const. J. R. Deslaurier said the accident happened around 2 p.m. Sunday near Keswick.

Mr. Ketcheson driver of the car told police that he and his companion had been driving north on Highway 35 at the time of the incident, when the car went out of control, striking, and completely demolishing a phone booth that was standing at the side of the road.

As a result of the accident, Ketchison received lacerations to the face, and Allan, a fractured wrist.

Damage was estimated at about $1,000 to the car, and $300 to the phone booth.

Caller says she witnessed attack

A woman who said she witnessed an attack by a man on two minor hockey players Thursday night called "The Post" today to ask why this paper had not reported the incident. She alleged that a man, intervening in a scuffle in which his son was involved, climbed over the boards and attacked first one boy and then another. The caller declared that one boy received a severe blow to the mouth and it was feared at first his jaw had been fractured. The incident reportedly occurred during a Bantam-Midget game.

Having heard of he fracas earlier, this paper contacted recreation commission officials who said reports of the affair were exagerated. (See their findings in separate report in this issue.)

those in outlaying parts of the school area — they're transported by buses or drive their own cars. The advocates of the system claim it offers youngsters "better opportunities for higher education" and to a degree they may be right but has it improved the product. Can students with all the assumed advantages of today's "higher education" system write, spell, add and substract any better? Do they know any more about geography, history or any of the other basic subjects than their continuation school predecessors?

Grasshill W.I. protests municipal election system

Lindsay S.A. bandmaster honoured

Alfred G. Maslen

"Old Soldiers Never Die". This saying is particularly appropriate when applied to Alfred Maslen, 106 Elgin Street, Lindsay, who served Canada and the Empire in the First World War in England, France and Belgium and who also had the proud distinction of being a soldier in the ranks of the Salvation Army practically, all his life-to be exact ever since he beat the drum in the Salvation Army in England when a lad of five years.

Monday night, this widely known Lindsay gentleman was signally honored by his comrades and friends at the Salvation Army Citadel on Peel St. when he was presented with a beautiful easy chair, described as "one of the finest artciles to be found in the W. Moody Kent Street store."

The chair was accompanied by an attractive lamp and a convenient footstool, the latter being a gift from the Canadian Legion.

Mr. Maslen was also the recipient of a coveted certificate from headquarters recognizing his long service as a Salvation Army bandsman.

The reception and presentation proved to be a "red letter night" in the history of the local corps as well as for the honored salvationist. Representatives of the Lindsay de-

Draft petition, want full-time residents only on councils

Municipal politics have become the concern of at least one district Women's Institute . . . Grasshill W.I. has moved to have existing legislation governing eligible candidates for municipal councils changed.

At its first meeting of the New Year, the institute named a special committee to draft a letter to be sent to township and county clerks and government officials asking that only full time residents be allowed to hold seats on municipal councils. On the committee will be Mrs. Black, Mrs. Blatchford and Mrs. Alton.

Retiring Victoria County Warden John Alton has vigorously opposed holding of municipal councils seats by other than year-round residents of the municipality.. He has referred to the situation in Eldon and Carden Townships as "an invasion" and likened the situation to that which existed in Czechoslovakia and Austria when Adolph Hitler's regime took over control of those countries.

Both Eldon and Carden Townships placed in office council candidates named and supported by cottager associations in the municipalities.

Garth Burt of Pefferlaw is all set to go on a flying ice fishing trip Thursday. Seen here displaying a show card announcing the opening of the third annual Lake Simcoe Ice Fishing Derby, Garth is the "chief cook and bottle washer" at his "Open Kitchen Restaurant" in which ice fishing plays a big part. Besides whipping up a tasty morsel for regular patrons, he rents fishing huts, supplies bait and promotes the annual derby.

Must halt raw sewage entering river at Wellington bridge — Reeve

"We have got to do something about the dumping of raw sewage into the river at the Welington St. bridge", Works Chairman Reeve Lloyd Found told Lindsay's Council Monday. And council did. Engineer Booth was instructed to bring in estimates of costs to correct this situation with intent on including such costs in the Board of Works budget.

The Health Board had brought the attention of council to this matter and from a subsequent survey made, Engineer Booth stated his findings by letter read at the Monday council meeting.

The letter stated that buildings involved were those on Wellington St. between Lindsay St. and the river and all the connections from these buildings have been properly made to a sanitary sewer installed by the town; that most of the buildings at the Wilson Welding and Marine yard are too low to be drained to the sewer ruuing north on Lindsay St. from Wellington (and their connection is drained into the river); as for the suggestion that a sewer be constructed through back yards, etc., to hook up to a sewer on Bond St., for emergency medical service and in one case being told "There is no doctor on call" and of another incident in which it was over an hour before help arrived for an emergency case on Kent St.

It was explained by one of the members present, that: "A doctor and surgeon are on call at all times for hospital service only and are not required to answer any calls outside of the hospital."

The member (a doctor) was then asked what a stranger in town would do to obtain emergency service and was told there were a number of doctors in the phone directory to choose from."

Checking with one of the doctors on the Advisory Committee of Medical Board, "The Post" was told that "There must have been a misunder-

Hope to clear up confusion over emergency medical service

Phone book says one thing, but governor says he was told another, wants facts

The Lindsay telephone directory will come under close scrunity at the next meeting of the Hospital Board according to one of the governors. They will discuss, for the second time, procedure for calling the hospital for emergency medical service and their attention will be drawn to two lines on the first page of the 1963 Lindsay-Peterboro phone book under EMERGENCY CALLS which read: For Emergency Medical Service—Lindsay Only —, When your Own Doctor is Not Available Call— 324-6111 (the main number of the hospital)

This information has reported proven misleading, confusing and of little value to some Lindsay residents, two of them being Hospital Board governors. At the last board meeting they told fellow governors of calling the hospital,

EDITORIAL....

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOOD WISHES

This is an important day in the legal life of Victoria and Haliburton Counties and in the life of Mr. H. E. Richardson. On this day the counties had a new judge sworn in and he is former practising lawyer H. E. Richardson.

Since coming to Lindsay a few years ago, Mr. Richardson has demonstrated keen legal ability on both sides of the bench — as a defense counsel and, on occasion, as acting crown attorney. The fact that in a relatively brief period of time as a practising lawyer, he became a partner in one of this district's long-established law firms further compliments not only his ability but the reagard in which he is held.

That the county judgeship appointment was bestowed on a man who had long since chosen to make the county seat his home is a welcome development and his knowledge of local affairs should be of great value in the administration of justice at the county level.

Congratulations and good wishes to newly-installed Judge H. E. Richardson.

Reports and Remarks..

NOT ALL POISONS FOUND IN THE MEDICINE CABINET

A vigorous campaign is being waged through Ontario's pharmacists to reduce the number of accidental poisonings, but the campaign faces two severe handicaps.

First, almost a full third of all accidental poisonings are caused by non-medicinal household items like cleaning agents and other products which are outside control of the pharmacist.

Second, more than a third of all accidental poisonings are caused by ordinary aspirin tablets (acetyl salicylic acid) which are common to virtually all households and allowed to be sold by anyone.

Pharmacists find their only effective course of action is to appeal to parents for greater safety-consciousness. It is a fact, they say, that almost all accidental poisonings are suffered by children, especially inquisitive youngsters aged one to four who think anything they see is good to eat or drink.

Spokesmen for the Ontario College of Pharmacy, licensing and disciplinary body of the province's pharmacists, say too many parents are unaware of the number of poisonous agents in the home and the number of places in which they are stored.

They point to the records of the poison control centre in Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children, a bureau which handles some 1,500 accidental poisonings a year. The records there show that, despite a widespread impression that most poisons are kept in the medicine cabinet, some 85 percent of accidental poisonings originated with products which were stored in other parts of the home.

About 40 percent of all accidental poisonings originate in the kitchen, the cupboard below the sink being responsible for almost all of these; another 28 % occur in the bedroom; while a mere 15 percent occur in the bathroom, a category that is divided between products stored in the medicine cabinet and other poisonous agents in the form of cleansers, cosmetics, etc.

Other sources of dangerous poisons include storage areas of the basement, toolshed and women's purses.

The poisonous agents in a home, many of them potentially lethal, are many: bleaches, disinfectants, furniture and floor polishes, lye, cleaning fluid, rodenticides, insecticides, herbicides, kerosene, solvents, fuel oil, antifreeze, sedatives, laxatives, cough mixtures, antiseptics, liniments, cosmetics, turpentines, and many others. —Ontario College of Pharmacy

Remember way back when

JANUARY 15, 1913

The township of Emily now enjoys the distinction of being thoroughly covered by the rural mail delivery service. Within the past few days two splendid routes have been perfected, the result being that the residents of this enterprising township are served by the rural mail delivery with a daily service. One of the routes starts at Downeyville and runs three miles east, following along the Pidgeon Creek road to King's Wharf, then up the 14th of Emily, south to cheese factory corner, to Fox's corner and then on south to Downeyville.

New Chop Mill

Messrs. Jackson and Scully, two experienced millers, have started a chop mill in the western section of the Victoria Creamery building on Russell St. The firm is well known throughout the district and no doubt will enjoy a goodly share of patronage from the farming community.

JANUARY 15, 1938

Felix Gassien made a rather alarming statement, at hte meeting of the Board of Health which was held recently, while discussing the Lindsay Water. "I was talking to a man who was working around the pumphouse while the repairs and additions were being made there last year and he tells me they found traces of fusel oil in the weeds," Mr. Gassien said. It was explained that fusel oil is the substance that forms in distilled liquors and is said to be poison. This statement aroused some comment at the meeting but chairman H. V. Mercer stated that, if there was some fusel oil in the weeds of the river and he didn't see how it could get there, then it would probably be in such a small proportion to be harmless.

This Day

Today is Tuesday, January 15th the 15th day of 1963 with 350 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus and Mars.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Capricorn.

On this day in history:

In 1919, the famous Polish pianist, Ignace Jan Paderwski became the first premier of the Republic of Poland.

In 1922, the Irish Free State was born.

In 1952, Frank Costello was released when a New York City jury was unable to reach a verdict in his contempt trial for refusal to answer questions before the U-S Senate Crime Investigating Committee.

VARIETY BEST IN SCHOOL LUNCHES

A child's school lunch should be carefully planned and prepared. Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, suggest that you avoid monotony by varying the kinds of bread used, the filling and the shapes. Slice bread thinly so that the sandwiches will be easy to eat and wrap each individually.

Frozen bread is handy for sandwiches. Butter spreads very easily on it and it keeps fillings cool as it thaws in the lunch box. A quantity of different kinds of sandwiches may be made at the beginning of each week — wrapped, labelled, and frozen for storage until lunch packing time. All varieties of bread freeze well and avoid freezing cooked egg white; mayonnaise, raw fruit or vegetables in sandwich fillings. Frozen sandwiches should be packed while still frozen, so they will keep fresh. Don't forget the napkin, salt and pepper, if needed.

A daily surprise will be an appetite tempter. Try neatly wrapped packages of washed raisins, cubes of cheese, devilled eggs, turnip sticks, or whole baby carrots or tomatoes. Everyone will welcome a crisp juicy apple for dessert.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?
By Anne Ashley

Q. What can I do about my stained-looking suede shoes?

A. First brush them to remove all dust particles, then hold the shoes over the spout of a steaming teakettle - enough to raise the nap, but not long enough to get the shoes wet. A steam iron is wonderful for this, too. Then brush the nap with a soft brush, and let the shoes dry before donning them again.

Q. How can I convert one pound of butter into two pounds.

A. Measure out one pint of butter, then add gradually one pint of milk and a small quantity of salt, beating it with the egg-whip until smooth. Place it in a mold, and set in a cool place.

Q. How can I preserve some valuable documents before storing them away?

A. Rub them all over with a gutta-percha solution, obtainable at any drugstore.

Hammering Technique

Here's a tip on the technique of using a hammer which might save you a few smashed thumbs. When driving a nail, first rest the hammer on the head of the nail, then lift the hammer, and give the nail a light tap to start it. Resting the hammer on the nail-head first tends to increase.

Miss Bernice Price, R.N., of Toronto, was the weekend guest or Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Price, 38 Regent Street.

The Hon. L. M. Frost, Q.C., was in attendance at the opening of a new Salvation Army Citadel at Ottawa on Monday and was the guest speaker.

Mrs. N. Bassett, WA hostess

Cannington (PNS) — The combined regular and annual meeting of the W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Norman Bassett.

The president, Mrs. A. Samis, opened the meeting with the members prayer also for the Missions of the Church and blessing was asked for the meeting, concluding with the Benediction. Following the roll call the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and reports given. Two Cancer Kits were completed and handed in and the ladies who assisted with the Red Cross dressings duly thanked for their services. It was felt a great deal of useful work had been accomplished during the year and pleasure expressed at the return of members who had been absent over a long period thru illness but were now able to take an active part in the W.A. Arrangements were made for the distribution of gifts and cards to old church members and shut-ins for Christmas by the Social Services Secretary Mrs. Longworth. Notice was given out of the forthcoming Pot Luck Super and Christmas Party to be held in the Parish Hall, when all members of the congregation would be welcome. Gifts not to be brought for the tree this year as other arrangements have been made, equally pleasant, so it is hoped every one will make a special effort to be there to enjoy the fellowship of a festive evening.

On completion of the business relating to the regular meeting, the minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved together with reports from the various officers. Mrs. Samis then relinquished the chair to Mrs. L. Kirk in the absence of the Rev. L. Kirk, for the purpose of electing new officers for 1963. After discussion and agreement the present executive went in by acclamation, namely, president Mrs. A. Samis, Vice-President Mrs. R. Ivy, Secretary Mrs. N. Bassett, Treasurer Mrs. W. Southern, Social Services Secretary, Mrs. A. Longworth, Dorcas Secretarys Mrs. A. Tomlinson, Living Message Secretary Mrs. V. Mallette, Social Studies and Press reports Mrs. C. Durance. Mrs. Kirk expressed her husbands thanks and appreciation of the valuable work done and financial assistance given by the W.A. to the Church, particularly during the present year. Mrs. Samis then returned to the chair expressing her thanks to Mrs. Kirk and all officers and members of the W.A. for their wholehearted co-operation and good will during her term of office and she hoped it would continue throughout the ensuing year.

Owing to the increased numbers at the meetings it was decided from January 8th, they would be held every second Tuesday (instead of Wednesday) at the Parish Hall, with two ladies acting as hostesses. Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Longworth undertook the provision of the lunch for the January meeting.

Mrs. Samis gave the closing prayer and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Bassett.

Ethel Mailer hostess to Parkview H&S

Mrs. Peter Milner, president presided at the meeting of Parkview Home and School Association. Room attendance cup was won by Miss R. Allan's room. Reports were read and accepted.

Mr. N. Rothwell, introduced Miss Ethel Mailer, superintendant of the Ontario Girls Training School, guest speaker. Miss Mailer gave a detailed account of her work in probation and institutions. It was learned that Galt is the classification centre. Girls are sent from there to the institution that will best fill their requirements. The academic, clinical and psychological aides available at the school in Lindsay were described. In conclusion Miss Mailer explained the need of these young girls, for understanding and employment during their readjustment, from people in their hometowns.

Lunch was served by the Grade three mothers.

Mrs. T. A. Venner hostess to UCW

Fingerboard (PNS) — The January meeting of the Pleasant Point U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. T. A. Venner with a good attendance. The meeting was opened by the President, Mrs. Gordon Gillson reading a poem on New Year's After a hymn, Rev. McNeil led in prayer.

Mrs. Owen Sweetman and Mrs. W. Mortimer were convenors for the January meeting.

Mrs. Sweetman took the chair and called on Mrs. Venner for the Bible reading, which was followed by a topic given by Mrs. W. Mortimer. A short program followed consisting of Readings by Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Venner, Mrs. Geo. Moase, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. A. Nicholls, Mrs. D. Fish and Mrs. Brokenshire, an instrumental by Mrs. Gordon Gillson. Mrs. Fisher (Pat Venner) showed some pictures taken on her honeymoon together with Christmas pictures of her family at home and Lindsay.

The Secretary, Mrs. H. Foster read the minutes and called the Roll. In February the word Holy is to be used in answering the roll and that meeting will also be a Bring and Buy Sale. It was decided to hold the Congregational meeting. Suggestions were made by Mrs. Brokenshire and Mrs. Arthur Hill for ideas in connection with next Fall's Bazaar. The President stated that another quilt was ready to be put in the frames for quilting.

The meeting closed.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Venner, assisted by Mrs. Owen Sweetman and Mrs. Wiliam Mortimer.

Watch those ambulance fees, Mayor warns

"Watch those ambulance call fees," Mayor Holtom warned Fire Committee Chairman Ernest MacCalder Monday. "It is up to you and the clerk to see these are collected", he pointed out.

Chairman MacCalder had submitted the December ambulance report as follows. Total receipts - $202.34 with 23 sickness and four accident calls and a mileage of 429.3. Total expenditure was $184.25 with labor costs $169.50, gasoline $11.13, laundry $3.62. Credit balance $108.09

Councillor MacCalder signified his intention of closely supervising the ambulance fee collection.

Endorses Arsenal suggestion

January 12, 1963.

The Editor,
The Post, Lindsay.
Dear Sir:

I would like to comment, if I may, on Dan McQuarrie's recent suggestion regarding the arsenal property. His is the only comment so far that has made any sense. If anything of this nature is to be done, it should be done now, before the heating and power installations are dismantled. The cost of replacement will not add to the attractiveness of the buildings or facilitate renting to small industries. "Strip to the walls" means exactly that.

I hope the optimistic predictions we hear have some basis. The business community must think so, when they can face the loss of $12,000 weekly pay-roll, affecting some 110 families, without a protest. The merchants of Long Branch and Trenton, N.S., will be very glad to see the business coming their way.

I know the puppeteers who work your strings will not permit you to publish this, but, five years from now, when this property is nothing more than a good place to hunt jackrabbits, you can include it in your memoirs.

Sincerely,
J. Williams,
Eglinton St., Lindsay.

area fathered the idea of having an annual derby and it has been growing in popularity ever since.

Last year, he noted in passing, an Uxbridge man had the winning trout catch which weighed in at 17 pounds, 13 ounces. He is Byron (Bun) Hamilton, Case implement dealer in that town and inventor of a snowplane of which several are now in use. "They're really a slick outfit", Garth declared enthusiastically.

Another enthusiastic follower of the ice fishing derby is Georgina Township Constable Len Donner who happened to be in the restaurant checking up on plans for the derby's official opening. "You see", Garth explained, "we often called on Len to officiate at the weighing in of entries."

Getting back to the flying ice fishing trip on Thursday, a helicopter is coming in then to take Garth out to the "rounds" to officially set the derby in motion.

As a matter of interest this has been a rough season for getting the ice fishing season underway . . . High winds have piled up ice in some spots and in others it had taken longer than usual to freeze to a safe depth, thus making the trips to and from the hut colonies more hazardous than usual. However, with expected continuing cold weather (which has materialized) Garth expected everything to be in good shape for the derby's official opening.

Relief here cost $50,888 in past year

Relief in Lindsay cost a total of $50,888.64 in 1962. Of this amount, $14,106.39 was paid by the town and the other portion by the Ontario government and municipalities.

This was shown in the Welfare report given to council Monday by Chairman Joseph Hutton.

Lindsay recipients in 1962 were: Heads of families 34; dependents 104; single - 19, for a total of 157. In 1961 167 received relief.

Tell them facts about services Mayor advises

"If residents of subdivisions call regarding garbage collection, etc., tell them the facts. If subdivision services are taken over by the town say so. If not refer them to their agreement with the subdivider." This advice was given to Property Chairman Deputy-reeve Geo. Finney by Mayor Jos. Holton at the Monday council meeting.

Councillor Russell Taylor had pointed out that a call had come from a resident of Northlin Park, re garbage collection. The matter would be attended to if Chairman Finey spoke to subdivider Ray Weldon he said. Residents of this subdivision should read their agreement with Mr. Weldon, the Mayor said.

Garbage collection was up to the town on such subdivisions as Linwood Heights where the roads were taken over by the town, the Mayor added.

Lindsay P.S. Teachers' Assoc. sponsoring "Winter Workshop"

The Lindsay Public School Teachers' Association is sponsoring a Winter Workshop consisting of five evening sessions for the teachers of Messrs Anderson's and Barrett's inspectorates.

The first session was held on January 10, in the Central School Auditorium with 108 elementary school teachers present. Inspectors Mr. E. C. Anderson and Mr. B. C. Barrett also were present, along with Miss Lorna Cormel, head of the Guidance Department of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute and a number of her Guidance workers. Teachers from St. Mary's Separate School and the local Public Girls' Training School also were present.

Miss White, of the Lindsay Teachers' Association, opened the session with the singing of "God Save the Queen", Mrs. Hilda Robinson presiding at the piano. Miss White welcomed the teachers to the first session and then called on Mr. S. Brown to introduce the speaker, Mr. C. W. Taylor, Inspector of Guidance Services, Department of Education. Mr. Brown spoke of Mr. Taylor's qualifications and recommended him highly as a most capable and informative speaker.

Mr. Taylor spoke to the assembly concerning "Counselling at the Elementary School Level". In his talk he outlined the purpose of Counselling by saying it is the work of the counsellor to help the pupil and parents make a wise decision concerning the future courses a pupil should take in the Secondary School. He also outlined for the teachers the basic steps that should be followed during a good interview with either pupil or parents. They are (1) Preparation, (2) Rapport (establishing a friendly atmosphere), (3) Establishing the purpose of the interview, (4) Securing information from the interviewee, (5) Giving information to the interviewee, (6) Conclude interview with a summary, (7) Write a report.

The group was then given four examples of pupil records to discuss with an aim to decide what Secondary School courses would be most helpful to each of the pupils.

Mr. Anderson, I.P.S., thanked the speaker for a concise, clear, informative talk.

A light lunch was served by the King Albert School staff to conclude an enjoyable and profitable evening.

Engineer-draftsman sought to assist town engineer

A second engineer - a draftsman is needed in the town engineering department to catch up on the backlog of work and keep the records straight. This decision was made Monday by Lindsay's Council and a motion to advertise for such additional help was given the approval of council.

Works Chairman Reeve Lloyd Found broached the need of this draftsman saying: "There is no draftsman in the town employ and we would like to hire such a man to do survey work, etc. Over the years a great deal of such work has been done by outside consultants on town maps, etc. Engineer Booth can't get it all done.

Engineer Eric Booth, called on to explain the need of such a helper in the work of the engineer's office, said: "A draftsman is needed in survey work to take notes in the field, and to transfer plans for basic designs and estimates, to do preliminary work on construction drawing to inspect construction work while in progress. This is essential to maintain progress."

Councillor Carl Brown: Would any costs of such work be recoverable?"

Engineer Booth: "Yes on such specific work as the rebuilding of Lindsay St. S., which comes under department subsides."

Mayor Holtom: "I think the sooner this position is advertised, the better. There are backlogs of work and such a draftsman would eliminate the hiring of a student in the summer."

Chairman Found: "There are a lot of details of construction which have never been recorded. I suggest we advertise such a man.

Councillor Hutton amended that the matter be discussed in committee, but his suggestion received no seconder. The original motion that a second engineer be advertised for was approved.

Lindsay men among buyers at Canadian Furniture Show

Lindsay shoppers will soon be seeing the very latest in new furniture and home furnishings straight from the Canadian Furniture Show which closes Wednesday after a nine-day extravaganza in the coliseum, the Automotive and Industry buildings of the CNE grounds, Toronto.

Messrs Joseph, Edward and John Tangney and Lloyd O' Keefe of the Tangney Furniture Co. here, present at this . Canada's largest industry convention, purchased many of the items on display and say they will be arriving at the Kent St. store soon for customer inspection.

Lindsay visitors to the show say over 300 of Canada's top furniture manufactures were exhibitors. Increased colonial and provincial styling in living room furniture was noted with an extensive range of colors stressing comfort and durability. Traditional types were also shown.

Even the new wide choice of moderate price floor rugs and carpeting in long wearing synthetic yarns was very worthy of inspection, Lindsay buyers state.

Mrs. G. O'Connor elected Real Estate Board president

The Lindsay Real Estate Board has a new executive. It's members were installed at a meeting Friday.

Mr. Wm. Murchison of Fenelon Falls who has served the Board as President in a most acceptable manner for the past two years declined to hold the office for another year and takes the position of past president where his experience will be of assistance to the new executive. Mrs. Gladys O'Connor of Lindsay was unanimously elected president after having served the board very efficiently as its secretary, and Mrs. Adele Hayne moved into the secretary's position, handing over the treasurer's books to Mr. Stan Henry, Mr. D. Taylor joined the executive for the first time as vice-president with the director's positions being filled by Messrs Geo. Dent, Robert Burroughs and Keith Gordon. Mr. Everett Hanna assisted by Mrs. Maria Kirk is to continue co-ordinating the Photo-Co-Op service which is to be known in future as the Multiple Listing Service or M.L.S.

Announcement was made regarding the Ontario Convention of Real Estate Boards and a number of members who had enjoyed the previous Convention in Toronto apeared keen to attend the next Convention in Ottawa.

Canadian Club here told mental illness victims getting short-changed

There are startling differences between the service and facilities provided for the physically ill and those available for the mentally sick. Dr. J. D. Griffin, general director of the Canadian Mental Health Association, made this statement to the Lindsay Canadian Club meeting at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall on Monday evening. His subject: "Climbing The Walls".

"As an example", he went on to say, "compare the Toronto General Hospital, designed to give best possible treatment to about 1600 patients, with the Ontario Hospital at 999 Queen Srteet — also serving about 1600 patients. In the former, the average per diem patient cost is said to be between $25 and $50. In Queen Street Hospital it averages somewhere around $5. Comparison like this may be a little unfair, but they reveal a dramatic difference in the way we are prepared to think and plan about mental illness.

"At this present time, we know there are about 75,000 patients in Canadian mental hospitals and psychiatric units. Nearly 40,000 patients are admitted or readmitted each year, and almost as many discharged. The great majority of mentally ill people, however are not in hospital at all. Many of these are not recognized and diagnosed as being mentally ill. The damaging effect of this burden of undiagnosed and untreated mental ill health on our industrial efficiency, in domestic and family life and on national vitality must be enormous.

"What can be done? From time to time, governments, both national and provincial have tried to help. In December 1960, the House of Commons devoted a whole day to a debate on mental health and mental illness. Like virtue and sin, every member was in favour of mental health and against mental illness. But there were few practical ideas. It was suggested that a national survey be undertaken. Later, the Prime Minister announced the appointment of a Royal Commission on Health Services with wide terms of reference including mental health. This Commission is currently holding public meetings across the country.

"The Royal Commission will no doubt be very helpful, especially in promoting public interest and understanding but frankly, psychiatrists and their colleagues in the other mental health professions already know far more about what should be done in the way of treatment, rehabilitation and preventative service than they are now able to put into effect. We need to remove the roadblocks to progress and get started. Nothing but a complete new deal, a new vision is needed. Patching up old and obsolete mental hospitals is only a temporary stop-gap."

Over $800 estimated property damage but no injuries resulted from a two-car accident Monday night involving two Lindsay drivers.

Police say that a car driven by Albert Wheldon was proceeding east on Russell St. West crossing William St. when it came in collision with a vehicle driven by Lloyd J. Langdon as it was proceeding north on William St. South.

The accident happened around 7.15 p.m. P.C. Ralph Fountain investigated.

Enlarged separate School Bd. takes office at Lindsay

The inaugural meeting of the enlarged Lindsay Separate School Board was held in St. Mary' School on January 9th. Declarations of office and oaths of allegiance were taken by the secretary from the following trustees: Robert Calverley, Bernhart McGreevey, Walter Humphries and Joseph Becke who will be serving for the 1963-64 term, and LeRoy Polito, Mrs. Verna Konyer, Gerard Plumpton and Paul Skipworth who will serve on the board for the 1963 term.

Due to a change in the constitution of the board from six to eight members, all of the foregoing trustees were elected at the December 3rd elections. This marks the first time in its history that the board has been comprised of more than six trustees, and is the first time that a woman has held a seat on the board.

Balloting was then conducted for the offices of chairman and vice-chairman ,with Robert Calverley being elected chairman, and Walter Humphries vice-chairman. Mr. Calverley, as chairman, will replace John Connolly who retired at the close of the 1962 term after having served continuously on the board for the past twenty-four years; the last five of which he was chairman of the board. Mr. Humphries replaces Austin Kirley who was vicie-chairman of the board of 1962.

The following committees were then formed by the board with the first-named on each committee to act as chairman: Property — Humphries Skipworth and Plumpton; Management — McGreevy, Konyer and Polito; Finance — Becke, McGreevy and Humphries.

Jack Gleeson was re-appointed representative to the Victoria County District High School Board for the 1963 term, and George Hodgson was re-appointed to serve as repre-

Victoria County Naturalists told of unusual owl influx

The Victoria County Naturalists Club held its first meeting of the New Year on the first Monday of the month, as is its practice for the ensuing session, in the High School.

President Gus Yaki welcomed the large audience and spoke of the various items of interest of the past few weeks. He mentioned the unusual influx of the Hawk Owl in the Lindsay area, a bird formally considered rare in these parts but which for some reason had appeared in quite large numbers this winter, groups of four having been observed by some members. Other birds, such as the Evening Grosbeak, had so far not put in an appearance up to now. The results of the Christmas bird count, in which several members had participated, was read a total of 28 species having been noted. Members and others are reminded that should they observe any unusual birds or animals, a prompt report of the circumstances would be much appreciated by the president or by any member of the executive.

Secretary-Treasurer Margaret Goodwin then read the audited financial statement as at the end of 1962 which showed a small credit balance of about forty dollars.

Mr. Yaki then reminded members that this evening was the occasion of the election of executive and directors for the coming year. He could get no volunteers for the post of President which was accepted as an indication of the members wish for him to remain in office for a further period of one year. The following officers and directors were then elected: Vice President, Mr. Chas. Brett; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Margaret Goodwin; Directors Dr. W. Ferguson, Len Thurston, Ab Wheldon, Cecil Hines, Mrs. G. King and Mrs. G. King and Mrs. E. B. Perkins. Cecil Hines, the youngest member of the team was asked to serve so that the junior members should have representation, he still being at High School. It is indead a feature of the Club meetings that there is always a goodly number of young people attending.

The club was fortunate in again securing the service of Mr. Jim Gravestock as field leader for which job there could be no more knowledgable person.

At the conclusion of the business members were treated to a film show of most unusual merit. They had on many occasions had film shows but these were of outstanding excellence and members were quick to applaud such brilliant photography. The meeting closed.

SAY TSHOMBE SURRENDERS TOWN

Reports reaching Elisabethville say Katanga President Tshombe has surrendered the mining town of Kolbezi–his last stronghold. British Consul Derek Dodson said he received the news in a message from the Union Miniere–A Belgian mining concern in Kolwezi According to the report, Tshombe also announced the end of Katanga's secession from the Congo. And he guaranteed freedom of movement for U-N troops in the Congo. Earlier, diplomatic sources in Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia, announced Tshombe had surrendered his troops to the U-N and announced he would reintegrate his nation with the Congo.

"ORIENTED TOWARD WAR"

East German Communist boss Walter Ulbricht has... accussed Red China of being "oriented toward war". At the opening of the East German Communist party Congress in Berlin, Ulbricht called China and its Balkan allay, Albania, "Dogmatists'" and "Dissidents". He charged that both countries are "fundamentally against the policy of peaceful coexistence". The East German leader criticized China for attacking India without consulting other Communist nations.

GOING AHEAD

Britain is going ahead with negotiations to enter the Common Market despite a virtual veto by French President De Gaulle. A spokesman for chief negotiator Edward Heath has made it clear to the six European Market members that Britain is prepared to accept elimination of Internal tariffs and agree to the common customs tariff and common commercial and agricultural policies.

NW CONFIDENCE

Trade Minister George Hees says Canadians can look ahead in 1963 with new confidence. Speaking at Waterloo University in Ontario last night, Hees said there are indications of new gains being made in both domestic and foreign market and that the beneficial effects of these initiatives should be increasingly apparent in the period at ead.

HELPS BOOST

A sharp rise in sales to the United States helped boost Canadian commodity exports to more than five-point-eight billion dollars in the first 11 months of 1962. The Bureau of Statistics reports the total represents an eight-point-nine per cent increase over 1961. The key factor in the rise was a 17-point-seven per cent increase in shipments to the United States.

OFF THE GROUND

Newfoundland Premier Joseph Smallwood hopes that proposed seven-million ton ore shipment to Japan will herald the beginning of a great iron ore development in Labrador. Following a four-day trip to Japan, Smallwood said that if the order goes through, it would be enough to get the Julian Lake Mining Development off the ground.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

CORTISONE FOR ASTHMA PRAISED BY VICTIM

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I will be real interested to know how you feel about the prolonged use of cortisone, in tablet form for the treatment of a combined condition of bronchial asthma and head and intestinal allergies?

At age 42, I suddenly developed the above conditions. I had a series of scratch tests and had taken shots for three and a half years without improving. I have had polyps removed from my nose, but that didn't seem to help.

Then the doctor put me on cortisone pills. I have been on this medicine for 10 months and haven't had an attack of any kind. I take only one pill a day and am constantly under the care of a fine allergist and internist. Although I have experienced no side effects, I stay concerned over having to stay on this continuously. What do you think?–Mr. W.

Comment: Be thankful that cortisone controls your problems so effectively. Under the care of your physicians–and especially without having any bad side effects–there is no reason why you can't continue with the cortisone indefinitely. Not all asthma sufferers are as fortunate as you. For many cortisone isn't the answer to their prayers.

ATOMIC COCKTAIL DANGEROUS?

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: A year ago I was found to have a slightly enlarged thyroid gland. The other day my doctor said he wanted me to report back for an Iodine 131 test (the so-called atomic cocktail) so that a more accurate determination of the gland may be made. Frankly, I'm a little nervous about taking radio isotopes. Isn't this experimental?–Mrs. S.

Comment: It has long passed the experimental stage–and won't harm you. However, if you are still anxious about having this test, perhaps your doctor will be willing to use two other commonly accepted (and efficient) tests for thyroid function: the protein-bound iodine test and the basal metabolism test.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: On my last visit to the dentist, I became faint and my heart raced after he injected an anesthetic into my gums. That happened twice before. I need some more dental work soon, and I am wondering if I should tell the doctor about my reactions to these injections. I don't want him to think I am a sissy and afraid to sit in the chair.–Mrs. D.

Comment: Sissy? Far from it. Chances are that the local anesthetic contained some epinephrine which can send the heart racing in some patients as if someone was standing there whipping it. Tell him about it. There are some new anesthetics which are free from epinephrine. You will at least be able to enjoy your sessions in the dentist's chair without fear or discomfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Hie of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hie and family of Oakville and Mr. and Mrs. Len Ruthey and family of Whitney, recently visited Mr. and Mrs. James Hie.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have never had a check-up for cancer and do not have a regular doctor. Will you kindly inform me where I can get a thorough cancer check-up?–Mrs. E.

Comment: As you live in a large city, I am sure that there must be a cancer detection clinic which is available. Call your local medical society or hospitals for this information. I am glad you mentioned a "thorough" cancer check-up. That's the only kind to get. In some cases what passes for a cancer check-up isn't really complete.

Fair attendance at January meeting

Valentia (PNS) — The January meeting of the Valentia U.C.W. was held in the school room of the United Church with a fair attendance.

The meeting was conducted by the three group leaders for 1963. They were called to worship by Mrs. Ross Snodden reading a poem on "New Year's" Mrs. J. Cockerill had charge of the devotional service. A hymn was sung. The Bible reading was given by Mrs. Bob Snoddon. Mrs. Cockerill gave the topic choosing the theme - "To Repent or Sorrow", and closed by prayer.

The offering was received by Master Rodney Snoddon, and prayer by Mrs. Cockerill. A hymn was sung, which closed the New Year devotional service.

Mrs. L. Snoddon, president, took charge of the business session. A poem "New Year's" was read by Mrs. Snoddon, followed by the theme song "From All That Dwell Below the Skies", was sung, and prayer by Mrs. L. Snoddon. The minutes of the December meeting were read by the secretary. Mrs. Roy Grills, who were approved as read, the roll call was responded to by 13 members and two visitors present. The alternate member on the parsonage committee for 1963 is Mrs. Art Hicks. Mrs. Ken Mark, treasurer gave a good report from the last meeting with a good balance showing. Mrs. Coulson corresponding secretary reported sending three get well cards, during the past month. There were no reports from the visiting or flower committee. The birthday box will be used during the coming year. Mrs. Ben Howlett placed her birthday money in the box, when all sang "Happy birthday". Rev. Armitage was in charge of the Installation service for the officers for 1963. Mrs. Lorne Snoddon then reminded those present of the meeting of the U.C.W. to be held at Fenelon Falls church in January. It was decided that the meeting be held in the homes for the winter. The three group leaders drew for the first four months with Mrs. Joe Cockerill and group in charge of the program, Mrs. Bob Snoddon and group devotional service and Mrs. Ross Snoddon and group the lunch.

A hymn was sung, and prayer was offered by Rev. Armitage. Grace was sung, and lunch of cookies and tea was served by the group leaders, when a friendly and social time was spent. Pianist was Mrs. Art Baker.

1963 UCW Officers

The slate of officers for the Valentia U.C.W. for the year 1963 are: Honorary Presidents Mrs. R. S. Swain, Mrs. Fred Starr; President, Mrs. Lorne Snoddon; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Ben. Howlett; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Art Baker; Treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Mark; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Roy Grills; Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Annie Coulson; Press Secretary, Mrs. Maude Jordan; Group leaders, Mrs. Bob Snodon, Mrs. Ross Snodon, Mrs. P. Cockerill; Christian Education, Mrs. Orr Mark, Mrs. P. Cockerill; Flower committee, Mrs. Orr Mark, Mrs. Boyd Sharpe; Quilt Committee - Mrs. Boyd Sharpe, Mrs. Art Hicks, Mrs. Orville Hicks, alternates Mrs. Ken Mark, Mrs. P. Cockerill; Parsonage committee, Mrs. B. Snoddon, Mrs. Art. Baker, alternate, Mrs. Art Hicks; Community Friendship and membership, Mrs. Mac Glassford, Mrs. Robert Parkin, Mrs. Roy Grills, Mrs. Annie Coulson, Mrs. Florence Hood; Supply and Social Assistance Committee, Mrs. Florence Hood, Mrs. Mac Glassford; Christian citizenship and social action, Mrs. Chas Morris.

Mrs. Garnet Stewart hostess to UCW

Dalrmple (PNS) — The United Church Women held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Garnet Stewart.

The meeting opened with devotional period under the leadership of Mrs. E. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson spoke of the first year of the new organization as a voyage through new waters, and said that the coming year with new crew for the good ship UCW promised to be equally smooth sailing. A prayer of dedication for the new officers was given. Miss Irwin played for the hymns.

Minutes were read and approved. Mrs. Stewart gave the treasurer's report, both monthly and year-end, and Mrs. M. Campbell reported the year's work for the Manse. Mrs. S. Fox read the correspondence. Fees were paid by those present. Mrs. B. Deverell was called to take the chair for the remainder of the business period to deal with new business. It was arranged to serve lunch following the congregational meeting. Mrs. McCaughey was appointed to price the remnants for the bazaar. It was decided to try an hour of two o'clock for meetings to see if it would be more satisfactory.

The program was an introduction to the book, The Word and The Way, currently being used by groups throughout Canada to educate lay people in the doctrine of faith. A flip chart proved a good visual aid, and some discussion on the theme of "Idolatry" was heard from the various members.

Refreshments were provided by Mrs. Radway, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Black and Mrs. Eastcott.

WMS regular meeting held in church hall

The regular meeting of St. Andrew's W.M.S. was held in the Church Hall with a splendid attendance. Mrs. J. Wallace, presiding, opened the meeting.

Mrs. O.G. Locke took charge of the Installation Service of the 1963 W.M.S. Officers which was followed by the singing of a hymn.

Miss E. M. Haugh presented the Treasurer's report. Mrs. G. Laurenson reported an increase in "Glad Tidings" subscriptions.

Two ladies were appointed to audit the Treasurer's books. Mrs. Ritchie offered to look after the used Christmas cards and prepare them for mailing. Mrs. W. Thorne read the minutes. Offering received and Dedicating Prayer by Mrs. D. Smith. Mrs. McMullen presented a resume of the Study Book.

Miss E. M. Haugh led in prayer. A hymn was sung and the meeting closed.

standing as the doctors on call at the hospital are available for outside calls at any time."

"When someone calls in to the hospital", he said, "they are or should be, asked if they have called their own doctor, or if he is available, and if not, are given the phone numbers of the doctors on call at that time at the hospital".

On mentioning this to one of the puzzled governors, "The Post" was told, "You can be sure it will be brought up at the next meeting, and this time I want the proper answers".

Gideon Camp monthly meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Lindsay Gideon camp was held at Millgram Lodge, Kent Street W.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather, members were present from West Guilford, Carnarvon, Fenelon Falls and Reaboro.

President Eldon Smith conducted the meeting and Chaplain Elmer Evans brought the fine devotional message.

The camp is planning a Gideon Sunday and hope to have services in many of the churches in town and district.

tachment were supported by bandsman and songsters from Fenelon Falls, Peterboro and other centre.

Capt. Bowes of the local corps, who was in charge of the ceremony, and many former friends extended a warm welcome to Col. A. T. Simester divisional commander attached to district headquarters in Belleville and a former officer of the Lindsay Corps. A hearty welcome was also extended to Major Rawlins, secretary of Band and Songsters from Toronto Headquarters.

Friends in the audience included representatives of local organizations.

A coronetist and trumpeter, Mr. Maslen has been bandmaster of the Lindsay S.A. for over four decades and a member of the local corps for upwards of 50 years.

During his residence in Lindsay, he also served as bandmaster for the Canadian Legion Band a few years ago and in World War One he enlisted with the 45th Field Regiment as a soldier-bandsman. After being transferred to the 39th Battalion at Belleville, he crossed the Atlantic to become a bandsman in some of the top military units. He saw active service at the front and was wounded during the battle of Courcelette. For a number of years Mr. Maslen served as trumpeter at funerals of Legion members. He also acted in this capacity at numerous Remembrance Day services at the cenotaph.

As a citizen Mr. Maslen has enjoyed his long service as a member of the staff at the Canadian Arsenals Ltd. plant Municipally, he took a keen interest in civic affairs and came within an ace of getting elected in the only bid he made for a seat on council. He was also actively associated with the Community Chest and has worked in connection with other local welfare campaigns.

Fraternally, the retiring Salvationist is a member of Faithful Brethren Lodge No. 77 A.F. and A.M., and is a Royal Arch Mason.

Town acts to improve its industrial site

Lindsay took action this week to make the industrial site in the north-eastern portion of Lindsay more conducive to prospective incoming industry. Its 1963 council approved a suggestion of Mayor Holton that Engineer Eric Booth prepare estimates of extending town water and sewer services to Denniston St. in the industrial site and gravelling the road there. Said Mayor Holton: "The Industrial Commission is very anxious that engineering work be done and estimates made for supplying services on Denniston St. in case industry would want to locate there. The first step would be that the engineer prepare a report of the costs; then the next step would be the preparation of a bylaw in connection and the necessary approvals.

Council agreed.

Katanga President Moise Tshombe on his return to Elisabethville from the mining town of Kolwezi, has indicated he is willing to carry out UN Secretary-General U Thant's plans for reunification of The Congo.

Must Halt

investigation has shown there is no sewer on Bond. St. but only a long shallow connection from the Dyer's plant. This connection would be unsuitable as an outlet for the Wellington St. sewage.

Summing up the engineer's letter stated the likely solution to this problem would be some type of sump pump constructed on the Wellington St. sewer from which the sewage would be pumped by a new force-main back to Lindsay St.

"I see no reason why the cost of such a solution should be charged to the property owners affected since they have already paid for a connection to a town sewer.

"I would suggest if action is desired in this matter a request be made from the Board of Health to the Board of Works to include the cost of same in the 1963 budget", the letter concluded.

Mayor Holton's suggestion that the engineer bring in costs of the correction necessary before budget setting was endorsed by council.

KNOCKS THEM OUT IN A BIG WAY

Canadian heavyweight champion Bob Cleroux knocks his opponents out in a big way. He knocks them right out of the ring. Cleroux combined thundering punches with a bull-like rush last night to knock Billy Tisdale of Bridgeport, Connecticut clear out of the ring for a wild seventh-round knockout in a bout at Lewiston, Maine. The 202-pound Cleroux half-punched and half-pushed the 185-pound Tisdale through the ropes and onto the auditorium floor at two minutes and seven seconds of the seventh round. Tisdale–knocked down twice for the mandatory eight counts in the sixth round–was counted out before he could reenter the ring to continue the scheduled 10-round bout. Many of the 14-thousand fans booed and howled in disapproval of the verdict. Handlers of both fighters had to restrain them from continuing the brawl after the fight had ended.

LONE CONTEST

Providence plays at Quebec in the lone American Hockey League contest tonight. The two teams share second place in the Eastern division, one game behind leader Hershey. In an exhibition game last night, Pittsburgh downed Detroit of the National Hockey League, 7-4.

SOLID CHOICE

European lightweight champion Dave Charnley of England is a solid choice to beat Philadelphia's Jethro Cason in a 10-rounder at London tonight. Veteran campaigner Ralph Dupas scored a sixth round technical knockout over Rocky Randell of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, at New Orleans.

SMALL BUT SELECT

HOPES TO MAKE ANNOUNCEMENT

President Arthur Modell of the Cleveland Browns hopes to make an announcement "within a few days" on a new coach for his National Football League club. Modell would not confirm or deny a report that he had offered the job to Browns' backfield coach Blanton Collier. Paul Brown was fired as coach and general manager last week.

NEGOTIATING TO BUY

United Press International has learned that businessman Sonnny Werblin is negotiating to buy the American Football League New York Titans. The possible stumbling block in the talks is the one-million-100-thousand dollars asked by owner Harry Wismer. Werblin is an executive with Music Corporation of America.

MOVES TO WITIN $1700.00

Golfer Gary Palmer has moved to within 17-hundred dollars of leader Arnold Palmer after two tourneys on the 1963 pro tour. Player earned 35-hundred dollars for his victory in the San Diego Open, a tourney that Palmer passed up. Palmer leads the money winning parade with nine-thousand dollars.

Janetville WI makes plans for social evening, bazaar

Janetville (PNS) — The January meting of the Janetville W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Malcolm. The Vice-President Mrs. H. Johnston was in the chair, and opened the meeting with the ode.

The minutes were read by the secretary Mrs. Elmo Archer. Reports were given by the convener of the flower committee Mrs. Norman Bowen. The roll call was answered by each member telling the various ways to use aluminum foil. It was moved to send a treat to Mrs. W. Heaslip one of the eldest ladies, who is over 90 years old, she fell and broke her arm. Plans were discussed for a social evening and bazaar to be held in the hall. Everyone was asked to bring articles for the bazaar and to invite everyone.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Norman Bowen. Mrs. Norman Argue read the scripture and Mrs. Norman Bowen gave a very interesting paper. The subject was on Agriculture. She told of a new dwarf apple tree that could be sprayed and pruned from the ground, also of an experiment tried to protect the cherries from the birds. Mrs. Cora Johnston read a poem. A reading by Mrs. Bert McMullen. A contest was lead by Mrs. Bert McMullen, Mrs. H. Moxon and Mrs. Bob Wright being tied for the most correct answers.

The meeting closed in the usual way.

A tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Bert McMulen and Mrs. H. Moxon.

LINDSAY REEVE'S VOTE DECIDES 1963 WARDEN

Impressive ceremony marks swearing-in of new judge

His Honor, Judge H. E. Richardson, Q. C.

Harry Elmore Richardson, 46-year-old member of the law firm of Frost, Frost & Richardson, a native son of Campbellford, World War Two Flying Officer and distinguished member of the Lindsay Bar Association, was duly installed as Judge of the County Court of Victoria and Haliburton and Judge of the Surrogate Court Tuesday.

The impressive Victoria County Court House ceremonies were presided over by Judge A. R. Willmott, Chief County Court Judge of the Province of Ontario. He was assisted by Judge W. Lane, Senior District Judge.

Twelve judges and magistrates and 40 lawyers, all attired in robes of office, were in attendance. These court officials came not only from the Counties of Victoria and Haliburton but from Peterboro, Northumberland, Durham and Ontario. Other dignitaries present included representatives of the federal, provincial

Vote tied 12-12, Dalton gets nod

First time in county's history tie vote has to be broken

Lindsay's Reeve Lloyd Found cast the deciding vote at Tuesday's inaugural meeting of county council to elect Reeve John Childs of Dalton as 1963 Warden of Victoria County. This procedure was necessitated when, for the first time in the history of Victoria County, a tie vote resulted in the choosing of the Warden. With Reeve Childs and his opponent, Verulam's Reeve Max Kennedy, each accorded 12 votes from the 24 members of council present, Clerk F. L. Weldon advised that by statute the tie could be broken by the vote of the Reeve or Deputy-reeve of the municipality represented which had the largest assessment. Reeve Lloyd Found, as such a representative quickly cast his vote in favor of Reeve Childs and so the matter was decided.

With Lindsay's Reeve and Deputy-reeve being allowed two votes each, the election of the Warden, as is the custom, was held by open vote conducted by the Clerk with the following result:

C of C approves $7,900 budget

Members of the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce gave full approval to Manager Harry MacDonald at the general annual meeting Tuesday night when he requested a budget of $7,900 for the coming year.

"I have pared expenses to the bone", he said, "but have still allowed for any emergency."

"Based on last year's expenses, this budget (short of anything drastic) should take care of our needs."

Correction

In a report of the St. Mary's Separate School Board inaugural meeting carried in this paper on Tuesday, it was incorrectly stated that Mr. George Hodgson was reappointed to serve on the Ross Memorial Hospital Board for 1963. This should have read "reappointed to serve on the Lindsay Public Library Board for 1963". The error is regretted.

Took over an hour to get aid for heart attack victim, Lindsay hotelman tells story

A former employee of the Ross Memorial hospital, Miss Francis Bergone, is reported to have lain unconscious in her room, suffering from a heart attack for over one hour while other residents tried in vain to get help.

The almost incredible story was told to "The Post" by Stanley Koproski, hotel proprietor.

"Miss Bergone took a heart attack while trying to open her door and when I arrived after being called by one of our guests, she was unconscious on the floor and seemed to be having difficulty breathing."

"What followed", continued Mr. Koproski, "was to my knowledge the most ridiculous thing that has ever happened. "First I called the fire department and was told, they could do nothing, that I would have to call the police department".

"During all this time", declared Mr. Koproski, "the woman was lying there gasping for breath."

"I then called the police de-

Day of good news

Learns son received degree; chosen chairman of commission

Tuesday was a day of good news for Lindsay Hydro Commissioner H. Hilton Brown.

In the morning, he received news of his son's graduation as a Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Toronto, and in the evening was chosen chairman of the Lindsay Hydro Commission at its inaugural meeting.

Commissioner Charles Lamb remarked "This is indeed a pleasant surprise, and heartiest congratulations are in order."

EDITORIAL....

CAN EXPECT TO MEET WITH OPPOSITION ....

A resolution drafted by the Grasshill Women's Institute urging that only year-round residents in a given area be permitted to hold office on municipal councils is almost certainly bound to meet with opposition . . . In fact, it already has.

When the resolution was tabled at the annual meeting of the Victoria County Federation of Agriculture in Lindsay on Tuesday afternoon, several members spoke in opposition to it. The opposing voices were raised when a motion was tabled to have the executive study the resolution and report its findings. Before the motion was put to a vote, some members stated flatly that while the resolution made reference to the fact that we live under a democracy, the text of the resolution was a denial of democratic rights.

In essence, opponents of the resolution held that it would be undemocratic to deny anyone owning property and paying taxes in a municipality the right to have a voice in managing that municipality's affairs. This reaction was not the voice of so-called outside residents but was that of farmers and permanent residents in some of the municipalities which have already witnessed cottager-association candidates successfully contest elections in this county.

The opposing vews were well taken and served to bring home to the assembly that in protecting democratic rights, care must be exercised not to deny them . . . . Democracy is not a one-way street.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 16, 1913

The Advancement Club met last night in Sutcliffe's rest room to look into the matter of holding a winter street carnival this year. Messrs. G. H. Wilson and A. Gillis were appointed a committee to go to Toronto to interview the railways in regard to getting cheap fares for the days of the carnival. If possible the cheap rate tickets will be arranged to include the end of the week. If proper arrangements can be made, the carnival will be held February 12, 13 and 14.

Hockkey League Disbands

The Trent Valley Hockey League has disbanded. The trouble seems to have been due to the failure of the clubs in the district identifying themselves with the organization.

CPR Surgeon

Dr. Blanchard has been appointed local surgeon for the CPR in Lindsay.

JANUARY 16, 1938

The unusual taste in Lindsay water during the past few days is explained by John O'Leary, chairman of the Board of Water Commissioners, who informed "The Post" that A. V. De Laporte, an official of the Ontario Department of Health is in Lindsay experimenting with activated carbon and alum in an effort to improve the taste and colour of the water. While the water may have a peculiar taste while these experiments are continuing, it is hoped that when the official and his assistants achieve the results they hope to there will be a distinct improvement. The water is still grading "A" in bacteriological tests, despite the taste.

Reports and Remarks..

RIGHT FORMULA

At a time when passenger transportation services all over the world are either losing money or cutting down on service, it is of some interest to note the formula employed by one such local service which is having no difficulty at all in bucking the trend.

A businessman lately returned from Santa Monica, California, notes that the buses are modern and efficient, with cheerful exteriors and comfortable, inviting interiors. They are also minus any of the usual forbidding signs which instruct passengers not to speak to the driver, warn them to have the exact fare ready and direct them to leave by the rear door. ("Our lives are over-regimented as it is," says the boss.)

Baby-strollers, banned by most bus lines, are welcomed by this one, which actually instructs its drivers to help mothers carry them into the bus. And they have their own unique way of dealing with the problem passenger who finds himself on the bus with nothing less than a $10 or $20 bill. He isn't abused, scorned or told to get off; instead, on the theory that most people are basically honest, he is asked to pay double fare next time.

A telephone request for a bus schedule will more than likely result in its being delivered within a couple of hours by a uniformed employee. The passenger who phones in to report that he has left something on the bus will, in all probability, have it returned to him within the same space of time, a radio car having been despatched to intercept the bus and recover the article with a minimum of delay.

With this kind of service it's easy to see why, again in the words of the boss, "it's not considered a social error to be seen on one of our buses."

And as if all this wasn't enough, the fare structure is way below average and fares haven't been upped in more than ten years.

It all sounds like the nearest thing to a commuter's heaven we've ever heard of and, significantly, it is productive of both rising passenger volume and healthy profits. (Government subsidies are neither needed nor wanted.)

All of which seems to prove that there is money to be made even in passenger transportation, providing those in the business succeed in convincing the customer that he comes first with them.

"Solar Foot Warmers"

Toronto, 6.
January 12th., 1963.

The Thursday Post,
Lindsay, Ont.
The Editor:—

As a deer hunter, I have encountered many outstanding experiences even to the point of spending a night in the woods when I was overtaken by darkness far from the camp and, unable to read my compass, was forced to bed down.

Every hunting season brings something new. Last fall I learned how to overcome cold feet, provided that you have your car, close by. Early one morning, I went to a spot where as a boy, I had often played hookey, driven cattle, picked wild flowers and fruit, or just plain, idled away an hour or two.

Getting there early, I did not expect to find any hunters ahead of me, but to my surprise, early as it was, and cold too I found a truck parked in a secluded spot, facing the chill November breeze. On investigating, I found the wife of a hunter who had gone along too, to get first hand, the news of the kill.

Her teeth were chattering, and she admitted that her feet were ice cold. Little wonder, sitting as she was, exposed to that frigid draught. But she had thoughts of something better. I went on my way to the bush, expecting to locate at least a track that a deer had made perhaps, a month before but no luck. So discouraged, I started back to where I had left my car.

On reaching the top of a hill, I observed the same truck that I had passed earlier. The good lady had learned, that the heater had failed, and that her tootsie wootsies, were fast becoming ice-clad so she moved the truck into a more favourable position. The sun was now an hour or two above the eastern horizon and its rays were warming so she faced the truck where the sunny glow would penetrate the glass of the icy windshield.

Removing all but the last two layers of footware, she place her chilly feet, both of them mind you, right where the Sun's rays, would be most effective: flat against the polished glass; and soon the soothing rays of the morning sun , took over and lulled her off to the Land of Nod, and there she sat, or leaned, snug as a "bug in a rug" enjoying warmers". How true it is that "Necessity is the Mother of invention."

Secretary tells of carnival plans

Minden, Ont.
January 13, 1963.

Lindsay Daily Post,
Lindsay, Ontario.
Dear Sirs:

Our Winter Carnival this year will commence on Friday, Feb. 1st, with an exhibition of Midgets and Juvenile Hockey, followed by a Carnival Dance. There will be a moccasin dance on the ice, which will be decorated for the festive occasion, and also dancing in the dance hall overlooking the ice. Highlight of the evening will be the parade of Carnival Queen Contestants and Crowning of the 1963 Queen. Intermission will also be taken up with a Moustache Contest (the most fascinating), and an Old Time Fiddlers' Contest.

The Hon. Leslie Frost and the Hon. Bryan Cathcart, Minister of Travel and Publicity, will officially open the Carnival at noon Saturday.

Bookings are now coming in for rinks wishing to enter the Carnival Curling Bonspiel, and Jam Can Curling for Juniors. Broomball, Ice Fishing Derby and Figure Skating will be in full swing Saturday afternoon will feature old-fashioned sleigh rides, cutter rides, dog sled rides, and scoot rides.

A treat is in store Saturday night when the N.H.L. Old Timers will meet the Minden Monarchs Hockey Team, which promises to be interesting.

Events of interest at our Rod and Gun Clubs will be a Shooting March at noon Sunday and also a display of furs.

Ski events will take place at Carnarvon Hills (2 tows operating), commencing at 10 a.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Carnival togues are already being sported, and this year will be supplemented by Carnival Crests.

Ice Sculpture and snowmen will line Highway 35 through Minden and up as far as Carnarvon, nine miles north. Many Christmas lights are being left up for the gala occasion and this village in the Heart of the Haliburton Highlands will be alive with fun and enjoyment for all.

The publicity you have given our Carnival in the past has been of great issistance, and any coverage you can give again this year will be very much appreciated Final programme set-up will be mapped out shortly and as soon as it is available, we shall send a copy to you.

Yours very truly,
MINDEN WINTER CARNIVAL
Mrs. Wynn Lahay,
Secretary.

ALL "DATED UP"

Dates have history extending back thousands of years. They grow in heavy bunches on palm trees, which often reach a height of one hundred feet. Date palms are native to North Africa and Asia Minor, although they are now being cultivated in the southwestern section of the United States.

Many Africans and Asians do not limit themselves to eating dates as a fruit. They make date honey, resembling a rich syrup, from the juice of the fresh fruit; they eat date sugar and distil sap to make intoxicating drinks. Even the pith of the tree is used in order to make date palm flour. In this country dates are a favorite baking ingredient of many women. Since they are as nutritious as they are flavorful, it's not hard to see why.

Date-Palm Biscuits, served piping hot from the oven, are a tempting addition to any meal. They can be prepared in very little time, and baked in less than fifteen minutes. If these sweet drop-biscuits are served for breakfast–when time is of the essence–mix the dry ingredients and chop the dates the night before, then store each in a covered jar. In the morning, just add the liquid ingredients and mix as directed. The biscuits can also be teamed with fruit salad for a casual dessert. And as a special treat, bake an extra batch for between-meal or after-dark snacking. Serve them along with a pot of steaming coffee for the grown-ups and mugs of hot chocolate for the youngsters.

Date-Bran Biscuits

Yield–About 1 dozen biscuits

1¾ cups once-sifted all-purpose flour or 2 cups once-sifted pastry flour; 4 teaspoons baking powder; ½ teaspoons baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; ¼ cup fine granulated sugar; 1/3 cup chilled shortening; ½ cup bran flakes; ½ cup chopped pitted dates (may be part nutmeats); 1 well-beaten egg; ½ teaspoon vanilla; ⅔ cup (about) milk.

Grease a cookie sheet. Preheat oven to 450°F. (very hot).

Sift together into a bowl, the all-purpose or pastry flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add shortening and cut it in finely. Mix in bran flakes, chopped dates and the nuts if being used; separate the pieces of date with finger tips to coat surfaces. Combine well-beaten egg, vanilla and milk. Make a well in flour mixture; add liquids and mix lightly with a fork, adding a little more milk if necessary, to make a drop dough. Drop the dough, by spoonfuls, well apart, on prepared cookie sheet. Bake in preheated oven 10 to 12 minutes. Serve piping hot with plenty of butter or margarine

Mid-winter Dish

Here's a quick filling and economical mid-winter dish that adds cheer to the lunch or supper table, with minimum effort on the cook's part. For three to four, servings, cook half a pound of ready-cut macaroni according to the package directions. Drain well, then blend in one cup of tomato juice or canned tomatoes, three-fourths to one cup of process cheese spread and seasonings to taste . . . a pinch of powdered clove is nice. Place in a greased baking dish and sprinkle with a mixture of melted butter or margarine and buttered dry bread crumbs. Heat in a moderately hot oven (about 375°F.) about twenty-five minutes or until crumb topping is crisp and golden and the macaroni is heated through.

SPENCE — In loving memory of our dear sister Mary Jane who passed away Jan. 20th, 1960

One by one our loved ones leave us,
And the bitter pain and loss,
Teaches us the heart best shelter,
To the shore of the Cross.
We shall meet them some bright morning,
Resting by the waters fair,
They are waiting for our coming,
In the Masters garden there.

Ever remembered by sister Elizabeth, brothers John and Will Thornbury. (H9816)

In Memoriam

SPENCE — In loving memory of my dear wife Mary Jane Spence who passed away January 20, 1960.

Three years since that sad day
The one I loved was called away.
God took her home, it was His will,
But in my heart she liveth still.

Ever remembered by Husband Robert Spence. (3333)

In Memoriam

SPENCE — In loving memory of our dear mother, Mary Jane Spence who passed away January 20, 1960.

Peaceful be thy rest, dear Mother,
It is sweet to breathe thy name,
As in life we loved you dearly
So in death we do the same.

Lovingly remembered by Agnes, Catherine and George. (3334)

In Memoriam

MCFADYEN — In loving memory of a dear father, George McFadyen who passed away Jan. 17, 1961.

Ex-warden lauds Verulam cottagers, backs their right to have a vote

"Cottagers of Verulam are very valuable taxpayers and should be entitled to vote". This declaration was made by ex-warden Thomas Martin one of several speakers touching on a contentious issue at the inaugural meeting of county council Tuesday. The entry of cottagers into township and County council administration has been described by retiring 1962 Warden John Alton as a Hitleristic invasion by non-permanent residents.

Continuing, Mr. Martin said he had found cottage owners of Verulam "a wonderful group of people who had built lovely buildings on land reclaimed from bog. These people should be considered very, very valuable taxpayers with taxpayers' rights. These people have changed the township status and raised the assessment value", he summed up.

Ex-warden Charles O. Hodgson of Somerville also stated cottagers in Somerville were no trouble and in his opinion were entitled to vote.

Newly-elected Warden John Childs of Dalton, after installations into office by Clerk F. L. Weldon, declared his devotion to serving the best interests of the County of Victoria as well as his township in the coming year. The only other great honor (outside of the wardenship) which had marked his lifetime was that he was born an Irishman, he added.

Other speakers offering the new Warden and 1963 council words of congratulation included: Ex-wardens, Raymond Gostlin, Ada (Greaves) Gregory, Roy Bottum, Robert Bradt Sam Endicott, Edward Murphy Retiring Warden John Alton acted as chairman.

The inagural meeting and election of the warden for the 1963 county council was held following the installation of Judge H. E. Richardson in the county court room. Later at a reception in Cambridge Hall, local and district county and court officials, members of the Bar and other dignitaries enjoyed a social hour with the honored guests. Among those present were Hon. L. M. Frost, P.C., M.P.P., and Clayton Hodgson, M.P.

partment," he continued, "and was told they could not go out without the authority of a doctor, after they had asked the woman's age, religion, and if I had tried the hospital.

"By then I was getting very desperate, and called the hospital and was told 'there is no doctor on call' and they were unable to send one out.

"By then I was so confused I did not know what to do so called the MacArthur Funeral Home to be told they would come out immediately but were afraid they would be refused admittance at the hospital owing to the trouble last year. Finally, the town ambulance arrived, exactly one hour and twenty minutes after the woman fell, and she was removed to the hospital."

"I understand," he added, "that she is not in very good condition".

Mr. W. Nugent, an employee of the hotel who was present at the time, corroborated Mr. Koproski's story.

"There certainly seems to be very poorr co-operation in town," he said.

Mr. Koproski said that exentually they reached Dr. H. G. Metcalfe who came at once and called the hospital.

"Must pull together"

Fred C. Pugh C of C choice for president in 1963

Fred C. Pugh, newly-elected president of the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce for 1963, told members at the general annual meeting last night that "we must all pull together to make this a better year" and asked the support of all members.

He thanked all present for giving him the privilege of serving as their president and congratulated Secretary Harry MacDonald for the fine work that had been done over the past year.

Retiring president W. J. Bundscho told the group it had been a tremendous experience and during his term of office had enjoyed working with all the directors.

He congratulated the members on their increase in interest in the work of the C of C but added it would not do for the present members or newcomers to rest on their laurels".

"We must all remember, our work does not end with joining the association, as we must be active", he said.

"I strongly recommend all members visit the office, and see the work that is being done, and take an active part in all the various projects for what you do for the association, you do for yourself", he concluded.

Federation members opposed to Grasshill W.I. resolution on cottager-vote issue

A resolution from the Grass Hill W.I. asking that full time residents only be allowed seats on municipal councils, drew similar reaction from members of the Victoria Federation of Agriculture at their annual meeting Tuesday afternoon. Those speaking to the matter agreed that summer property owners should have a vote.

The resolution stated that the Grass Hill W. I. at its January meeting had passed a motion to forward to Ontario Premier Robarts, Leslie M. Frost, Provincial Member for Victoria County, Harold Wilford Clerk of County County Council, and Don Grant Clerk of Eldon township, copies of the following resolution:

"Whereas, the non-resident cottagers have obtained seats on the municipal council of two municipalities in Victoria County, and whereas the ruling of the Supreme Justice of Ontario is that they.....the non-resident cottagers—have a right to sit on the council.

"Be it resolved, that the Government of the Province of Ontario define the word "resident";

"Be it also resolved, that the word "resident" be changed to read "permanent resident" with the municipality concerned, as the very essence of democracy starts from the local level" . . .

Re-elected Mariposa township director Jack Parliament, moved that the resolution be handed over to the newly-appointed directors at large, to give them time to study it more fully, and pass their findings on to the proper authorities of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture.

Re-elected Fenelon Township director Robert Wessell, suggested that representation not be limited to permanent residents. Many summer people" he said, "as property owners in the community, are entitled to representation, as I feel they are residents and taxpayers".

Fred Taylor, of Bobcaygeon, feeling the members were possibly putting the resolution aside remarked: "I don't feel we have any right to stop them (the cottagers) from voting." He was dissapointed in his council, he said, and "didn't see how we could do anything to stop them."

Guest speaker Mr. H. F. Crown, was asked his opinion on the definition "resident" but laughingly remarked it was not his position to speak for the government.

Kinmount

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Burns, of Peterboro and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burns, of Bobcaygeon, visited relatives in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Powell, of Toronto, visited at their summer home.

Mrs. E. Mason, Mrs. Ross Phillips and Miss Bernice Gardiner were business visitors to Toronto.

Mrs. Cecil Schultz has returned to her home after visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Schultz, of Madoc.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lyle has returned to their home after spending the past two weeks at the home of their son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyle, of Port Loring.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Young visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young, of Lakefield.

The sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved family and relatives of Mrs. John Spencer who passed away at the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay after a lengthy illness. She was in her 72nd year.

New Lindsay industry locates in Ross Golden building

Industrial Commissioner S.R. Pitts reports today that Lindsay's industrial picture has been further strengthened through the establishment here of Marlyn Superior Products Limited, formerly of Sarnia and now located in a portion of the Ross Golden buildings on Durham Street West.

Two families in connection with the new manufacturing enterprise have taken up residence in Lindsay, Company President, Murray Waghorne, P.Eng., and family and Superintendent Louis G. Curnotte and his family.

The Lindsay plant which is associated with an operation in Wilberforce, will manufacture moulded plywood into furniture parts, church pews, bowling alley gutters and allied products for an already established market.

Labor requirements will be small at the beginning with prospects for expansion as the plant gets into production, Mr. Pitts states.

Yelverton

Glad to report that Mrs. Bert Gibson and Stanley McCabe are both home from hospital.

A speedy convalescence also to Mrs. Jerry Bristow in Oshawa General Hospital with a broken ankle suffered as a result of a fall.

Yelverton U.C.W. met in the church Hall with Mrs. James Schecklelton as hostess.

Congratulations from the Yelverton friends of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Goslin of Janetville, who celebrated their 49th Wedding Anniversary.

One call only Chief

Fire Chief Arnold Watson says he has checked into the hotel heart attack victim incident carefully and both the Fire Department and the Police Department report receiving only one call for an ambulance from the hotel . . . The time was 12.55 p.m. Tuesday. Chief Watson says the Police Department monitors all calls on the Fire Department's Ambulance Service number — 324-2191.

Widespread interest in hunter safety

Evidence of widespread interest in the Hunter Safety Training Course being conducted at Lindsay was apparent to anyone entering the classroom on its opening night. An enrolment of 55 people, 1 of one was a girl, was made on registration night. The top picture shows a section of the group taking the course. In the lower photo, Chief Instructor Wm. Crowley (centre) is seen with two assistants — Ken Reeves and Wm. Young — who are training to become full-fledged instructors. The bottom picture is of the only girl enrolling — Judy Baker of Valentia. Instructor Crowley says that isn't the first time the fair sex has enrolled and more than that, they usually get higher marks than the boys. Sponsored by private individuals, the course is endorsed by the Dept. of Lands and Forests, Lindsay, which cooperates by explaining game laws and showing hunter safety movies to the class. A 55-question examination rounds out the course, the questions being prepared by the instructor and based on actual hunting experience.

Noticed

along the way

It's carnival time again and right now the people of Oakwood and district are looking forward to that gay annual event — the Costume Skating Carnival to be held in the arena next Saturday night.

From now until the big night those who take part in the carnival are busy making plans to put them in the way of winning some of the many prizes being offered in the wide variety of classes.

Of course costume carnivals are no innovation to the people there. They have been sponsoring and taking part in them ever since the skating rink was built many years ago and they have had some dandies.

But if carnivals are no novelty to the community, the novelty has never worn off and the enthusiasm of those taking part seems to increase over the years. The same goes for the spectators. They keep coming back, and back again because they know that for pure home-spun entertainment you can't beat a costume skating carnival. And for real creativeness you can't beat the costumes "carnival kids" come up with.

Oakwood produced some 'carnival greats' in days gone by and of these years the sponsors may take a notion to have some of them stage a command performance. . . you know, like they do on some of these TV programs when they dust off some of the stars of an earlier day and give the present generation a chance to see how they shone when they had top billing.

It might be surprising to discover how many of those former gay carnival blades could still turn a mean skate, and would. To mention a few who are still kicking around there's "Dinty" Goard, "Jiggs" McIntyre, Jack Dames, Cecil Barry, Eddie Howell, Teck Falls, Lloyd and Harvey Graham, Gifford Webster, Jim and Jarvis Lake, Stuart and Jack Hicks, Bill Weldon, "Toot" Cameron, Sam Gorrill, Joe Jenkins and Joe Ryall and that's only a handful in the men's section.

To get back to the coming carnival, Lloyd Graham who's taking a hand in lining things up, says the carnival committee has planned a real warm reception for any old timers who show up but have grown allergic to fresh air with passage of the years. . .They've provided a heated spectators' gallery for these characters up over the dressing rooms. There's plenty of seats and they can sit back and watch the show to their hearts' content while their arteries relax and their "tired blood" basks in the warmth of its surroundings.

If all this reads like a plug for someone's home town carnival, it is.

No decision on petition for lower power rate, Lindsay delegates report

No definite decision was arrived at during the recent meeting between Ontario Hydro officials and members of the Lindsay Hydro Commission, George Baldwin told members last night.

A delegation of three members: George Baldwin, Hilton Brown, and Manager J. Lightbody met with Ontario Hydro Commission officials to discuss a possible lowering in the rate for low voltage distribution in the Lindsay area on the grounds they were too high in comparison with other municipalities.

They were told, said Mr. Baldwin, that other places were paying even higher rates at the present time than Lindsay and until further investigation could be carried out by them (the Ontario Board) there was very little that could be done at the present time.

He said that a resolution forewarded from last Spring would be studied by the Ontario Board, and details brought out at the next convention.

"However, I feel that the discussion was very beneficial", he added.

Hydro Manager Lightbody further remarked that the Ontario officials had said, there had been good cause for complaint, but they could not make province-wide changes, or any individual municipal changes at the present time but would include all this in their studies.

After considerable discussion, Mr. Lightbody suggested the local commission continue to pursue the matter, and at the same time make studies of other municipalities.

Community Chest electing officers, planning campaign

Election of officers for the Community Chest for 1963 will be held in the Council Chambers this evening.

Chairman Harry MacDonald told "The Post" that campaign planning for the coming year, election of officers, and other general business will be discussed. "And a welcome goes out to everyone to attend", he added.

All requests were met in 1962, said Mr. MacDonald, with the following organizations participating: Red Cross, C.N.I.B., V.O.N., Retarded Children, Salvation Army and Girl Guides.

The 1962 target of $17,300 which was similar to 1961 was slightly exceeded, and operating costs were below the anticipated figure, he noted.

Retiring doctor honoured at testimonial dinner

On Wednesday last a very delightful testimonial dinner for Dr. M. E. Gorman was held at the Benson House Dining Room.

On this occasion the doctors of the Victoria County Medical Society and their wives gathered to pay tribute to Dr. Gorman who, after many years of faithful service to this community, retired at the end of December last. Mrs. Gorman was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses after which Dr. L. Shier spoke in honour of Dr. Gorman. In recognition of his invaluable services to the society and to the community, Dr. Gorman was presented with an Aquaprobe Depth-finder, a device which he says, will ensure smooth sailing during his years of retirement.

Tribute was paid by many of those present to his ability as a surgeon and teacher and to his sincerity as a friend.

Discuss Auto Camp purchase

Percy Hill elected chairman of Board Parks Management

Percy Hill, proprietor of Hill's Academy Florist was elected chairman of the Board of Parks Management at the board's inaugural meeting held Tuesday night. Mr. Hill succeeds Carl Brown Sr. who resigned that office after many years service to qualify for election to Lindsay council.

Chairman Hill has served on the Parks Board for four years and other members include Mayor Jos. Holtom, Mr. H. D. Logan, Gordon Mayes and newly appointed Wilfred M. Hogan, Milford Sleep and Gordon Mackey. The latter three fill vacancies due to the retiring of members, T. R. Price, Carl Brown and E. Shuttleworth.

Mr. Price presided for the election of the chairman with Mr. Hill taking over some discussion followed as to definite action being taken on the acquisition of the deed of the five-acre auto camp site and 10 adjoining acres of arsenal property when the property is actually for sale.

Where and how to start on this important matter is still a puzzle, Chairman Hill stated. The five-acre tract, which has been developed by the Parks Board into one of great beauty and popularity, is currently leased from the federal government. Loss of this attractive wooded area would be keenly regretted by the board members and the town at large, he said.

Newly-elected Eldon deputy from Toronto misses inaugural

Eldon's newly-elected Deputy-reeve Russell Doyle was absent from the inaugural meeting of county council Tuesday. Absence of this township cottager, whose permanent residence is Toronto, gave rise to speculation among members present. "Was he aware at the time of election to office what his duties would actually entail?" a county councillor asked.

The opinion was expressed that Mr. Doyle was under the impression he would only be obliged to attend the monthly township council meeting when actually as deputy-reeve and member of county council, his office calls for attendance at four regular sessions of county council during the year and at meetings of committees to which he might be appointed. This might entail with about 20 days of county council sessions, 12 meetings of one committee and 12 meetings of township council, a perplexing situation for Deputy-reeve Doyle. There was a matter of time off from his employment and a 150 mile trip for each meeting, it was pointed out.

Deputy-reeve Doyle was in attendance at the inaugural meeting of Eldon Township council held Monday in Kirkfield Hall. He was aware of the Tuesday meeting of County council, Clerk D. A. Grant disclosed.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

WOMAN CALLS HUSBAND 'A HEARTLESS CLAM'

Many people think that tranquilizers are a cure-all. But sometimes taking these sedatives are as ineffectual as throwing a cupful of water on blazing gasoline. In treating the nervous patient it's important that we take sufficient time to determine what's really worrying the patient. Here, for example, is a short case history which will give you an idea of what I mean:

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Help! Let me talk this out! I'm ashamed to tell it our family physician who is a mutual friend.

My husband and I married young, too young. Have been married nine years. He absolutely refuses to grow up and mature and act like a daddy to his children. He is the silent type and never has a topic of conversation morning, noon or night. He lives within his own shell. Now, you say, was he like that when I married him? No. He enjoyed having fun to some degree, anyway.

He expects me to be myself always, and when I give him the silent treatment he comes out with, "What's the matter with you lately?" That really goes over big when he hasn't spoken a word to me for days!

What is left but divorce? But that would give my mother a heart attack. How do I go about living in harmony with him? He doesn't give a darn about anyone but himself and is insanely jealous of me.

His only interest is ball games. His father is his exact opposite and would give me anything in the world, but I don't know how to get along with his son. How do you live with a heartless clam?–Mrs. X.

Comment: Next to being a doctor I wonder if the most difficult job isn't that of a judge. How difficult it must be to make a decision: who's right, the husband or wife? I can't possibly take sides in your case, Mrs. X., and sleep with a clear conscience.

From way back here, it seems that your prime mistake is not having confided in your own doctor. That's where the problem has the best chance of solution. If he can't find the remedy he will enlist the necessary help: a family counselor, priest, rabbi or minister. If you have been taking tranquilizers I assure you that they won't offer the help you hope for. Good advice and a willingness to take it, will help you more than pills.

WHAT'S TREATMENT FOR GOUT?

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: About three months ago I developed a swelling and soreness in the large toe joint of my right foot. I went to a doctor and he said, "It is gout". He gave me some orange pills. They don't seem to help. He does not know what else to do. Would you please advise me?–Mrs. B.

Comment: Gout can be stubborn for one type of medicine, yet meekly give in to another. In my experience, if other methods fail, the patient's attacks is usually relieved by giving a drug called colchicine. Has your doctor prescribed it? There are other medicines, too. Ask your doctor if he is willing to try various acceptable means of treating gout. If he still insists on using only the one treatment, I think he will agree to call in consultation for another opinion–if you ask for it.

For Mr. J.: I consider a pack a day more than "moderate" smoking. And two packs a day certainly makes you a "heavy".

Rotarian explains county government to Rotary Club

Rotarians were addressed by a Rotarian at Monday's luncheon meeting. Victoria County Clerk F.L. Weldon delivered an informative talk on the history, development and functions of county councils.

Rotarians were especially interested in view of the fact that there is a movement on the part of some politicians to abolish the county council system of government.

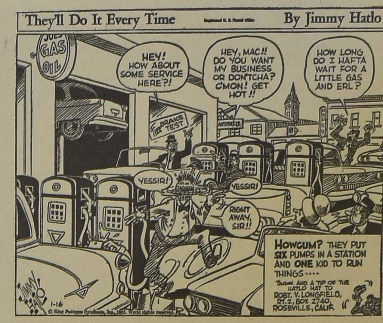
They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo



Vacant lot's fate explored, park, tennis court mentioned

Lindsay Property Chairman George Finney has been requested to have his committee ask the Parks Board to further investigate the former Superior Fuels property at the corner of Sussex and Durham Sts to see if further consideration should be given to converting it into a playground for children.

It was pointed out by Mr. Finney that the Recreation Commission had disclaimed interest in this property as they felt all wards were suitably served at present for recreation purposes.

The matter of cleaning up this property could be taken up with the owner, Mayor Holtom suggested to chairman Finney. It was recalled a petition signed by 71 residents in the area had been presented to council asking the property be cleaned up and perhaps converted into a playground for children.

Councillor Carl Brown: "The Parks Board thought this lot was too small. . .maybe they will check further in it. . .the tennis club is looking for a location."

Reeve Found said there was no park in the area and no knowledge if the town could get possession of the property.

"I think the town should contact the owner. It was further pointed out the propery in question was not a health hazard but just unsightly and the owner could not be compelled to clean it up.

WI wants only permanent residents eligible as municipal councillors

Mrs. Leslie Rea was hostess to the Grasshill W. I. for their January meeting.

The meeting opened in the usual manner with the president, Mrs. C. Hopkins, presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, with Mrs. H. Hughes, assistant secretary, acting in the absence of Mrs. Beifry. A treasurer's report was given. Mrs. E. Jewell, reporting for the Gift Committee read a letter of thanks from Miss Marian McEachern, a former resident on being remembered at Christmas time. Correspondence consisted of a letter announcing the school for leaders for the Girls' Club. As the Grasshill W. I. doesn't sponsor a Girls' Club this was not dealt with. Mrs. W. Myers reported on current events. The roll call was answered by a contribution towards a birthday gift for an adopted child. A paper on "Public Relations" was given by Mrs. B. Blatchford. The collection was taken.

It was moved by Mrs. P. McArthur, reconded by Mrs. D. McEachern, that $10. be given to buy serving trays for the Hartley church. It was moved by Mrs. L. Rea, seconded by Mrs. J. Alton that Mrs. McEachern and Mrs. McArthur, purchase eight doz. rubber feet for the folding chairs. After some discussion, it was moved and seconded by Mrs. Kinghorn and Mrs. McArthur, that a committee consisting of Resolutions convener, Mrs. Black and Mrs. Blatchford and Mrs. Alton, compile a letter to be sent to twp. and county clerks and Government officials to have only full time residents allowed a seat on municipal councils.

Mrs. C. Myers gave a reading, "From a Roadside Window" by Mrs. E. Chapman. Mrs. E. Jewell gave a good contest and there were several lucky prizes.

A delicious salad plate was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

Little Britain

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Irwin visited in Florida where they intend spending a months vacation.

The members of the Little Britain Fellowship Baptist Church W.M.S. gathered and met at the home of Mrs. Alvin Found, west of the village where they held their regular monthly meeting.

Pastor and Mrs. Lorne Norton and family have returned to their home in the village after spending a few holidays with friends and relatives at London and Brantford.

Mrs. Pearl Archer has returned to Sunderland to visit some of her relatives again after visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Archer and family.

Friends of Mr. M. S. Omerod are glad to hear that he is now able to be at his home and that his condition is considerably improved after spending some time at the Ross Memorial Hospital, in Lindsay.

Mr. Stewart Chidley of the Hogg and Lytle Co., made a business trip to Toronto.

Mrs. J. B. McGibbon has returned to the village after visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Stevenson and family in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. George Varcoe are guests with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hickson at Mount Horeb and they also visited their other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hill, Peterboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Irwin motored to Toronto.

Miss Emily J. Cornish has resumed her duties again on the teaching staff at Toronto after spending a very enjoyable vacation at the home of her pastor, Mr. and Mrs. William Cornish.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Slemmon of Oshawa, visited Mr. and Mrs. Clare Stacey and his mother, Mrs. John Connor.

Ladies Aid plans Rummage Sale

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Mrs. Carmen Thurston opened her home for the first meeting of the New Year of the Ladies Aid of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Fenelon Falls.

The president, Mrs. Wm. Murchison, conducted the worship service, opening the meeting with a poem entitled "The New Year's Wish" The hymn "Standing at the Portal of Another Year" was sung and a psalm was read in unison. A meditation with "Thoughts for the New Year" as the theme was given followed by prayer.

The annual reports of all the committees were read and accepted. These reports presented a very satisfying and profitable picture of the year's work.

Mrs. L. Menzies expressed the feelings of all the members when she extended a special thanks and words of appreciation to Mrs. Murchison for all that has been accomplished under her leadership for the past three years.

The 1963 executive was installed by the Rev. E. G. MacDonald who congratulated the new members and wished them well in the coming year.

Mrs. E. G. MacDonald then took the chair as the new president and the regular business meeting followed.

One term of new business was the decision to again hold Rummage Sale in the lower Hall of the church.

A pleasant social time closed the meeting when refreshments were served by Mrs. Thurston and Mrs. Murchison.

Mrs. John Connor has returned to her apartments in the village after spending the Yuletide season with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slemmon at Ottawa. She also visited her other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Slemmon at Oshawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Gorrill visited in Oshawa where they made a business trip.

Mrs. Arthur Tremner (nee Florence Dix) of Toronto and formerly of Little Britain called on her sister, Mrs. G.P. Prouse and also visited two more of her sisters, Misses Ethelwyn and Hazel Dix at Peterboro.

Several of the young people from the village and this district attended and participated in the bonspiel at Oakwood curling rink.

Friends of Mrs. Archie Reid regret to hear that she had the misfortune to fall recently and in consequence is laid up for a few days with a badly fractured left wrist.

Mr and Mrs. Morley A. Goard visited their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Goard and other friends in Toronto.

Several from this community were in attendance at the annual and General meeting of Lindsay Central Exhibition which was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall at Lindsay.

Legion Midgets overpower Uxbridge Midgets 9-1

Lindsay Legion Midgets hung another game on the win peg last night when they overpowered the Uxbridge Bidgets by a 9-1 score, at the Kiwanis Arena. After leading 2-0 at the end of the first period, the Legion lads added four in the second and three in the third period to complete the route. Uxbridge scored their only goal midway in the second period for a 2-1 score at the time but this only spurred our boys to greater efforts.

George Babcock and Jim Golden led the Legion team with three points each, George scoring twice and assisting on one while Jim scored once and helped twice. Roger Welland also scored twice while the remaining goals went to Ron Baldwin, Dave Horslen, Sal Polito, and Bob Wylie. Doug Barton scored for Uxbridge.

The game was hard played and clean, with better positional play and a stronger defence paying off for Lindsay. Lindsay outshot the visitors about four to one and Bill Sanderson in the Uxbridge net had little chance on the goals that eluded him. Stops in play were infrequent and the three stop-time periods only used up an hour and a half.

SCORING SUMMARY

1st Period: 1. Lindsay — Baldwin from McClory 2:21; 2. Lindsay—Welland unassisted 9:30; Penalties: Walker (kneeing) 14:55; Baldwin (tripping) 15:54.

2nd Period: Uxbridge — Barton from St. John and Munro 10:39; 4. Lindsay — Golden from Baldwin 11:46; 5. Lindsay — Welland from Polito 15:18; 6. Lindsay — Horslen from Purdy 15:42; 7. Lindsay — Babcock from Golden 19:40; Penalties: Brandon (tripping) 2:48.

3rd Period: 8. Lindsay — Babcock from Golden 3:55; 9. Lindsay — Polito from Brown 12:12; 10. Lindsay — Wylie from Babcock 19:42; Penalties: Horton (kneeing) 0:56; McClory (crosschecking) 4:45; Stonehouse (tripping) 12:27; Williamson (Holding Puck) 14:00; Horton (holding) 19:42.

Referees: Pat Burns of Lindsay, and Bill Sadowski of Oshawa.

THERE'S MORE

This evening about seven p.m. something new in hockey locally is scheduled to take place at the Kiwanis Arena. Lo and behold, the girls will be doing it. A girls' hockey league has been organized and the Lindsay girls will be prying the lid off tonight. The premier attraction will be Lindsay Girls vs. Little Britain Girls. It is understood that a four or five team league has been formed and Cannington, and Uxbridge are also in.

AND STILL MORE

Turning from the new to the old, at nine p.m. this same evening the old timers will turn it on again. Whether it is the N.H.L. Oldtimers or the Toronto Maple Leafs the locals are training to meet is unknown but anyhow they do have some fun. Last week Herb Simpson's Red Shirts edged Red Wakelin's Bluebirds 17 to 15 so the Blues will be out to get the Reds tonight. Oh yes, this is at the Kiwanis Arena too.

Girls' team wins consolation prize

Cannington (PNS) — The Cannington Girls' Hockey team are organized for another season. This year the girls will be known as The Legionettes and are entered in the Tri-County Girls League.

In the first league game the locals defeated Uxbridge 1 to 0. Carol Wilson was the goal getter.

They played in the Newmarket Tournament winning the consolation prize. The girls lost their only game against Don Mills 1 to 0. Janice Workman scored one goal to defeat Parry Sound. Cannington defeated Humberside 5 to 3, with Sharon McNabb getting 3 and Janice Workman 2. Linda Lowell won the trophy for the best goalie.

Four-All Tie

One game that was of note, the game betwen the Cannington Midgets and a team from Humbersida. The visitors were a Juvenile A Minor team and were considerably bigger and heavier. However it seems that the old adage, the bigger they are, the harder they fall holds true at least for Cannington. This team which hadn't lost a game in one and one-half years. The score was held to a four all tie.

Four Goals—Four Assists

The people in Little Britain held a Dale MacLeish night, when the game was all over, Dale had got 4 goals and 4 assists to defeat Little Britain 8 to 4. Others scorers were R. Josephson with 2, G. Laird and M. Parliament one each.

Defeat Zion

Cannington Bantams defeated the Zion team of Bowmanville 13 to 8.

Fenwick Finch!

For some time now I have neglected "Fed-up-to-the-ears" simply because I had no space. The Editor is a tough man–he gives me so much area to work in and–no more!

Dear Fen:—

I enjoy your column very much. I have a beef and would like to tell you about it. Why can't I get a job in this town? We pay high taxes, suffer the bumps on the roads, take our life in our hands to walk down the broken sidewalks after dark, donate to Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Hockey Teams, Red Feather, Salvation Army. Oh, there must be countless other charities they think up in this town, but to go out and ask for a job now there is another thing.

I am a mother, strong, healthy, a good steady worker but to an employer that's not enough. I'd work part-time, full-time or week-ends or nights, but if you go looking for work they greet you with a blank stare. I guess maybe I'm not blank enough. What bugs the devil out of me is the amount of women who live out-of-town holding down jobs in the stores and offices. What's wrong with us town women? You tell me in your column and maybe by Spring I'll have a job.

Fed up to the ears.

So, there is the problem. What do you readers think? Let me know and I'll pass it on through the column.

If "Fed-up-to-the-ears" will drop me another letter outlining the type of work she is interested in and her qualifications, etc. I'll pass it on and possibly a job may materialize for her. Who knows?

To Walter Crowley–Walt. that argument you were having the other night. You're the winner! It's nice to know you remember the "old man".

Last week-end in Peterboro I learned two or three things I'll tell you about them. They go under the heading of useless information but they make good party stoppers if you want to interject something into a conversation. For Instance;

"Biography is one of the new terrors of death."

The man who gets credit for that is John Arbuthnot, 1667-1735, Scottish Physician.

"Every Crowd has a Silver Lining."

P.T. Barnum, 1810-1891, World's Greatest Showman.

"Nothing is Impossible–We Merely don't know yet how to do it."

Thomas A. Edison.

"Are you helping with the Solution Or–are you part of the problem.?"

"Every new baby is proof that God has not yet given up on man."

The above little gems came to me this way.

Getting some work done on "The Comet" at Williamson Bros. in Peterboro left me with a little time on my hands so I wandered around the corner, past the Memorial Centre, and found myself in Bob Cunningham's Centre Snack Bar. Bob serves an Al-OK cup of coffee. It could be said to be "The Thinking Man's Coffee". As well as being just about the best Coffee I've drank in Peterborough he has these little "pearls of wisdom" in the tops of his cream jugs. So, you fortify yourself intellectually as well as physically. Thanks for helping me put in quite a few enjoyable minutes.

Sitting next to me at Bob's snack bar was an elderly gentleman drinking his coffee and munching a muffin. I spoke to him.

"Not a bad day?" Gad, I thought, what a lousy way to start a conversation. But it's the same every time. No imagination. We are always firing the opening shot with the weather.

He looked at me as if I had two heads, grunted and went back to his coffee. I'm not beaten that easily, so I tried again.

"That's quite a cane you're carrying", I observed, "hand-carved, isn't it." The old gentleman thawed out right away, he turned, held out the cane and said: —

"Yep, son. I've had her for years, carved her myself outta black cherry." The conversation was now open, which only proves you can talk to anyone, anywhere as long as you find the key.

My next few minutes were very interesting; my new found friend was in the neighborhood of 80 years young, with a keen sense of humour and quite a home-spun philosopher. He particularly asked me not to use his name so as in higher military circles, this information becomes classified.

Wandering around in our conversation the subject of friends came up, who you could trust and who you couldn't. Swallowing another mouthful of coffee I said:

"It must be nice to have friends that you can trust."

"Nope", he snapped right back. "I didn't say that!"

"I'm sorry", I replied, "I thought that's what you meant."

"No Sir", he came right back; reaching into his coat pocket he brought out an old briar pipe, lit it, and through the cloud of smoke said.

"No Sir, I never said nothing about trusting any of your friends. Give me a good, solid enemy. Now, there's a man you can depend upon.

He's your enemy through thick and thin. No matter how much hard luck you got when the smoke all clears away he's still your enemy. Yessir that's the kind of a (censored) you can trust."

"How many friends?" he concluded, "can you say that about?"

You know something, I think he may be right. However, I have a sneaking feeling that he doesn't really believe that.

As he turned to go out of Bob's he gave me a little salute with the hand carved cherry cane and he had quite a twinkle in his eye. No, he wasn't the type that suited that philosophy.

Another thing, I learned at Williamson Motors . . . They have overcome the "frustrated fuse blocks" on the Comets. Had I bought another model, this problem I have had about changing fuses would have been overcome. Now, instead of reaching through a maze of wires back of the light switch, and putting the fuse in the top of the block, they have done this. They have reversed the fuse block and you now reach through a maze of wires back of the light switch and place the fuse on the BOTTOM of the block. THIS is engineering know-how at the acme of perfection. "Hank" tells me it's now quite simple, providing you're supple and not over 5'6" tall and can lie somewhere between the seat and steering column.

I think I've found out where this "Fuse-block" designer is now carrying out his machinations. By the look of the smaller post-office lobbies that are being foisted on the public he is now employed by the provincial government, in the Department of Works. Only an evil genius of this ilk could come up with such plans. More of this later.

With so much snow around I suppose it's only natural that this week is finished off telling you about the "Carnarvon Ski Club",

The Carnarvon Ski Club fills a long-needed want in the Highlands of Haliburton. Sponsored by the Gregory's of Carnarvon it is the brainchild of Fred Gregory who has been responsible for the planning, setting up and managing of this venture. In it's second year, the Club is well on its way to success. A new Club house is being built with plans for a newer and larger clubhouse when the growth of the Club warrants it. Completely electrified, the Club-house now offers comfort and pleasant surroundings.

Located just off Scenic Highways 35, at Carnarvon, the area around the Ski Club offers accomodation for over 200 members. Their car park will accomodate 200 cars.

Ski-tows are available, different type slopes from amateur to seasoned skiers. They have special tow rates for club members and organized groups. There is also ideal family skiing. Lessons are available, Ski rentals, boots, skiis and poles are available separately or in sets.

Drive up and make use of this Ski Club. It's well worth the trip and as time goes by the region will become bigger and better.

This is a step in the right direction. For too long now, the Highlands of Haliburton have sat back and thought only in terms of summer visitors. Too, they have been thinking of what they get, not what they give.

I have a letter here from someone who signs themselves "Worried".

I'm afraid, you've got the wrong column–what you want is a "True Confessions" magazine. You're not in my field. To quote the "Kingfish" of Amos and Andy fame:

"Holy Mackerel, you is in a mess!"

Sorry, with those few words –that's all–see you next week.

Fenwick.

BLACK HAWKS IN FIRST

Boston visits Chicago in the lone National Hockey League contest tonight. The Black Hawks are in first place—two points ahead of Toronto and three points in front of Montreal. The league was idle last night.

THREE GAMES

The American Hockey League has three games on the schedule tonight. Rochester visits western division leader Buffalo . . . Pittsburgh is at Cleveland . . . and Springfield at Hershey. Last night, Quebec moved back into the eastern division lead with a 2-1 overtime victory over Providence.

TUNE-UP

The world's top bowlers tune up for tomorrow's big tourney in an all-star preview at Kansas City today. The actual competition in the 22nd annual Bowling Proprietors Association of American all-star tourney begins Thursday.

CALLS NEWS CONFERENNE

Cleveland Browns owner Arthur Modell has called a news conference for today and it's expected he will name a new coach. Backfield coach Blanton Collier is expected to succeed fired Paul Brown as head coach. Modell said yesterday that he fired Brown because of a brewing player rebellion and because he felt the team did not achieve its maximum potential last season. He said that possibly seven players would have retired if he didn't make the change.

NAMED AFTER

New York's new sports stadium at Flushing Meadow will be named after Attorney William Shea—the man who did the most to make it a reality. Shea forced expansion in the major leagues after he formed his ill-fated Continental League.

10-ROUND DECISION

England's southpaw swinging Dave Charnley pounded out a 10-round decision over Philadelphia's Jethro Cason at London last night—Charnley— the European lightweight champion—has won 46 of 56 pro fights.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION

Belarmino Fragoso is the lightweight champion of Portugal. Last month, someone impersonated him and was knocked out by England's Vic Andreetti in the third round at London. Fragoso heard about the fight . . . an investigation followed . . . and it turned out to be Fragoso's half-brother. Fragoso was then matched against Andreetti. The moral to the story—Fragoso should never have protested. He was knocked out in the second round by Andreetti last night.

With Lady Curlers

Active curlers of the Lindsay Ladies Curling Club are ready and willing to enter the annual bonspiel for Leads and Seconds, as well as the annual competition for vice skips and skips which will be held on the 25th, 28th and 29th.

Three Tied

Three rinks ended the first schedule in the Ladies Club with the same number of points. Consequently a play-down will take place for top position when Mrs. Gladys Laidley meets Mrs. Pearl Ford and the winner will play Mrs. Elva Brown for top honors in the schedule.

Scheduled Play

Games played Monday and Tuesday resulted as follows: Gassien 10, Hickson 7; Mackey 10, Rowlandson 8; Kay 12, Woodrow 9; James 9, Gregory 3; Walker 10, Cook 7; Ford 9, Laidley 9; Brown 10, Wright 8.

Third Place Winners

President Lou Walker represented the Lindsay Club at the annual 32-rink bonspiel held at London last weekend and managed to land victoriously in third place in the fourth competition. The Lindsay rink carried home beautiful crystal bowls and members thoroughly enjoyed the big event. Entries were so numerous that London rinks had to play down to a cut quota before entering. The local rink comprised: L. Walker (Skip), Jack Beal, Gerard Connolly and Ross Arnold.

Men's Scores

Monday scores, men's section: Edmonds 14, King 4; Richmond 10, Alger 8; Wright 10, Thurston 7; Simpson 10, Landgon 10; James 8, Thompkins 8; Walker 10, Ferguson 4; Kennedy 10, L. Mackey 5; Heels 8, Terrill 6.

High Singles: Betty Dorgan 259-223, Rose Hutton 210-205, Ruby Miller 218, Ed Gerhard 250-240, Paul Rodd 308, Nate Houghton, 245-213, Walt Harris 242, Jim Colvin 246-205, Frank Richards 226, Walt Kearsley 218, Joe Leith 226.

Team Standing 3rd Series: Jim Colvin 9, Nate Houghton 8, Frank Miller 7, Walter Kearsley 6, Grant Grozelle 6, Al Heuss 5, Walt Harris 4, Ed Gerhard 3.

SENSATIONAL SAVINGS IN ALL DEPTS. AT COURT'S

Died - December 31st., 1961

Reaboro (PNS) — Reaboro Ops, township's only village died in 1962.

With the closing of the general store in December 31, 1961, which had operated over one hundred and twenty-five years, Reaboro in 1962 began to loose its status as a thriving little village. The residents, being forced to shop elsewhere caused the community spirit which had always been so strong in Reaboro to wane and their interests were focussed elsewhere. Reaboro becoming a sleepy little hamlet. Twenty-one homes and approximately 80 persons, the majority of whom work elsewhere, shop elsewhere and attend church and social functions elsewhere.

Through the efforts of a little band of settlers in the early 1820's Reaboro was founded and later boasted a general store, post office and cheese factory which was the first industry and was situated near Tom Reed's house. Farmers of the surrounding district brought their milk daily in 30 gallon cans and took home whey for their pigs. Loads of cheese were hauled to Peterborough and Lindsay markets. This industry ended in 1928 when the farmers decided to ship their milk to Toronto the year round. Other industries included an elevator and chopping mill which were burned. There was also a blacksmith shop which was operated by Jim Holbert and later years by the late Fred Morden. This burned in 1945. However, the general store and post office and garage operated throughout the years and there was very good train service and bus service.

The present school replaced one which had burned, which was situated west and across the road from the Orange Hall.

The Orange Hall was built in 1896 and for many years was known as the Union church were Methodists, Anglicans and Presbyterians united for services. This had provided spiritual needs of the community developing strong ties of friendship and fellowship, all working together for their community.

The community hall which now stands, was originally the Ops Methodist church situated on Highway 7 where Mr. James Strachan lives, about a mile from the village. It was moved, through the efforts of the Women's Institute to its present location where it filled the social needs of the community. Very few community functions are now held in the hall during the year.

The Baptist church was built in Reaboro in 1882 and at that time had a good membership and an active young people's group. Services are still held under the direction of the Rev. J. G. Duncan who is also minister of the Gilmour Baptist church near Peterborough. As Mr. Duncan resides at Gilmour and is not in the village daily meetings are usually just held in the church on Fridays when he attends prayer meeting. There is a small church attendance and few of the villagers are church members.

Two other groups that have survived are the Loyal Orange Lodge No. 820 which was instituted in 1870 and the Reaboro branch of the Women's Institute which was organized in June 1913. These two organizations have added much to the social life of the community and continue to be strong organizations. The Orange Lodge is well known throughout the district for its Degree team. They exemplified their work in 1962 at Springbrook when they were invited to confer degrees on 10 candidates. They were also outstanding in 1962 when they received special mention in the "Sentinel" for having three generations of the Reeds family members in 1962 and the picture of Tom Reeds, oldest member, his Stanley and grandson John were prominent in the September issue. The Lodge is also well known for its booth at the Lindsay Central Exhibition where almost $500.00 was raised in 1962. When the new hospital in Lindsay was built, the Lodge furnished a room with money raised in this way. Of the membership there are only 6 members from the village. The immediate past master, Leigh Reeds is from one of the older Reaboro families and the Worthy Master who will guide the Lodge through in 1963, Carl Hickson is a descendant of one of the pioneer families.

The Women's Institute has been a stimulus to the community for nearly 50 years, broadening the rural life, the women enjoying the variety and sociability provided by this organization while they acquire knowledge along both practical and cultural lines, rendering a valuable and worthwhile service. Just 4 members are from the village. It is the hope in 1963 of the Reaboro branch of the Women's Institute that the community will join with them in celebrating their 50th anniversary and pay tribute to three charter members who with a little group had the forsight and vision to organize this branch and who are still active members - Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Ellen Calvert and Mrs. Harry Hickson the work which has meant so much in the progress of the community.

During 1962, Reaboro lost one of its esteemed former citizens in the late Fred Morden who died in Lindsay. Mr. Morden had sold his home in the fall of 1961 to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holmes and was residing at the home of his son Keith in Lindsay. Mrs. Morden died several years ago. The Morden home had been a friendly haven for both young and old in both church work and community work. In 1962, the Rev. Malcolm Morden conducted an Evangelical Mission in the Reaboro Baptist Church.

The Thurston home changed hands in 1962, Mr. and Mrs. A. Winn reside there now. It was with regret that Mrs. Thurston moved to Toronto to make her home at her daughter's, Mrs. Norman White. The late Herb Thurston and Mrs. Thurston were always active in community and church work and are greatly missed.

Reaboro's third new home in the last few years was moved to the lot east of Mr. W. C. Veals by Mr. J. Whitney. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wright bought one of Mr. Baldwin's ranch style homes and are in residence. Mr. and Mrs. M.Vogelsberg moved to Guelph and Mr. and Mrs. R. Sutton are living in their home. Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Blair moved to their farm south of the village and the Neals moved from the community and Mr. and Mrs. McConnell are living there.

The residents were trying to accustom themselves to the loss of the store when the last passenger train was discontinued on January 31, 1962. Ten years ago Reaboro was a flag station and service was good - four passenger trains a day. The railway had been built in the 1850's running from Port Hope to Midland and later called the Grand Trunk Railway. The original station was dismantled a few years ago and the present small building which merely serves as a storeroom was erected.

Later in 1962, the bus service was changed, isolating the Villagers who haven't cars from Lindsay unless they wish to spend ten hours in the town - bus leaves Reaboro at 8.15 a.m. returning at 6 p.m.

Little enthusiasm was shown in the December Municipal election, about 60 per cent of those eligible to vote cast their ballots and many of these were the senior citizens - the pillars of the community, who showed much more interest in the municipal affairs than the younger generation. This was evident when the first voter was 86 year old Isaac McNevan and shortly afterwards, Mrs. J. Houghton, 86, formerly of Hillhead and now living in Lindsay arrived bright and early to cast her vote. Tom Reeds, 88, Reaboro's oldest citizen was on hand and remarked that he had been candidate in four campaigns for Reeve and never lost one and he thought he could still give anyone a good run. Judging from his past records of leadership in community and municipal affairs, and the apathy of younger candidates, Mr. Reeds could easily prove to be the victor again. His son Stanley is Deputy-Reeve of Ops.

This same lack of interest in community affairs was again evident at the Ratepayers' meeting held in December when three families other than those holding an office on the school board were represented at the meeting - one family was represented from the village. This isn't showing much concern for our future citizens.

Interest and concern was aroused through 1962 for the young people in the village when their pet dogs barked at night. This concern was immediately taken to the council. In due course the offenders who were so reckless to allow their pets to bark during certain hours of the night were contacted and the suburban silence of Reaboro was restored, though it was a problem because even a rooster likes to crow early in the morning in Reaboro.

Towards the end of 1962, the young people turned their love of animals to horses and ponies and the village now has 10 of the equine species. The youth are thoroughly enjoying themselves and the horses aren't as noisy as cars or other animals.

With these animals which inspired and were so helpful to the pioneers and now with this extra horse sense in the village in 1963, one may look for a revitalized Reaboro with a united interest in making it one of the best villages in county. One might even visualize the Community Hall which is a fine structure, humming with activity, housing the Administration offices of Ops township, what better place to have them than in the township's only village? Also, a recreation centre for the young and old alike, the senior citizens guiding the young people in becoming useful and worthwhile citizens by having facilities to build strong bodies and mold good characters. The community hall would again become a valuable asset to the community. A store patronized by the village people and community instead of Lindsay stores would again be able to take its proper place and the Orange Hall could revert to its former use as well as its present use - a community church - undenominational - a beacon, providing the spiritual needs - everyone working together in fellowship - union built on Christ.

With united efort and these changes taking place, the late Thomas Rea, whose sword hangs in the Victoria County Museum could be proud of the community he founded in the 1820's and Reaboro would again be a stream of life, and the people part of a community - a living community.

COOLING OFF PERIOD

Soviet Premier Khrushchev has called for a cooling-off period in Russia's dispute with Communist China over the course of Communist evolution. Speaking at the East German Communist Congress in Berlin today, Khrushchev said any disagreement should be kept out of the limelight to allow col heads to prevail. All except the Chinese delegates applauded the suggestion. Khrushchev also indirectly denounced the warlike policies of China adn said Russia's policy of "peaceful coexistence" works better.

SEEMS TO BE WINNING BATTLE

Khrushchev told more than five-thousand Communist delegates and visitors that Communism seems to be winning the battle of time with the west. He said the Communist-built wall made East Germany stronger . . . reducing the need for a German peace treaty. But he said settlement of the German issue is necessary before world disarmament can be achieved. He called again for the west to get out of Berlin but didn't set a deadline. Turning to the Cuban crisis, Khrushchev said there were mutual Soviet-American concessions which produced a "great victory" for peaceful coexistence. He claimed Russia sent rockets to Cuba only to prevent what he termed "armed American agression" and withdrew them to prevent a nuclear war. He warned that the missiles can be used elsewhere in the future.

TO CONTINUE HIS POLICIES

French President De Gaulle says he intends to continue his Nato and European Common Market policies despite criticism of his lone stand on both issues. On the other side of the Common Market issue —informed sources in Brussels say Britain's chief negotiator, Lord Privy Seal Edward Heath, has offered to exchange concessions at today's meeting. The concessions involve tariffs on Commonwealth products. Yesterday, Heath was reported to have offered concession on Bitish agricultural policies.

FIRST OF TWO

(Washington) — Italian Premier Fanfani meets with President Kennedy in Washington this morning for the first of two conferences. They are expected to discuss French obstinacy toward Britain's entry into the Common Market.

WILL RETURN TO ELISABETHVILLE

President Tshombe reportedly will return to Elisabethville tomorrow for talks with U-S officials on ending Katanga's secession from the Congo. U-N troops are on the alert near Tshombe's Kolwezi stronghold in case he does not surrender.

"POLISHING UP" EVIDENCE

Quebec Provincial Police in Montreal are "polishing up" their evidence in connection with the December 14th slaying of two St. Laurent police constables, and are prepared to take the case to a coroner's inquest. Three "important witnesses" are being held pending the inquest. Q-P-P Chief Inspector Gerald Hould says as many as 18 witnesses may appear. Three Montreal men, Jean-Paul Fournel, Georges Marcotte and Jules Reeves are being held. Reeves is in hospital recovering from blood poisoning.

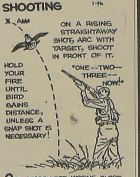
COUNTING BEFORE SHOOTING



ONE REASON FOR MISSING CLOSE TARGETS IS THE SHOT PATTERN DOESN'T TRAVEL FAR ENOUGH TO SPREAD, AND WHEN A BIRD TAKES WING NEARBY, IT MAY "RATTLE" THE GUNNER, COUNTING TO YOURSELF LETS BIRD GET FARTHER WHERE IT'S EASIER TO HIT AND WON'T BE SO FULL OF HOLES THAT IT'S MORTALLEGS!

Lindsay Hydro men seek 36-cent hourly increase

New Judge, Warden Installed Same Day

Victoria County history was made this week when its new judge and warden were installed in office on the same day. In the picture above, Senior District Judge W. S. Lane of Picton, takes the hand of newly-sworn-in Judge H. E. Richardson of Lindsay in a gesture of congratulation. On the extreme left is Victoria County Sheriff Everett Scott and Chief County Court Judge A. R. Willmott, of Cobourg is seen on the far right. The photo below shows newly-elected Warden John Childs of of Dalton Township (centre) being congratulated by his opponent, Reeve Max Kennedy of Verulam (left) and John Alton of Eldon (right) retiring 1962 warden. Warden Childs was elected when Reeve Found of Lindsay cast the deciding vote to break a tie between Mr. Childs and Mr. Kennedy.It was the first time in recallable county history such a situation had arisen. Kenlin Studio Photos

Spread over two-year period

Lindsay Hydro employees are seeking hourly increases totalling 36 cents an hour over a two-year period in new contract proposals submitted to the commission.

The commission this week heard a letter from the National Union of Public Service Employees. Local 31, in which it was disclosed that an increase of 30c an hour for the first year of the new contract was being sought and six cents hourly in the second.

Membership in the union excludes the manager, office staff and foreman of the Lindsay Hydro System.

Other things sought by the union in its bid for a new contract (each contract is for a two-year period) include:

(1) Provision that if a holiday falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the previous Friday or the following Monday be granted.

(2) Smocks, overalls, and gloves for the workmen, and a uniform for the meter reader.

(3) Four weeks holiday after 20 years service.

(4) Changes in sick pay.

Noticed

along the way

This is a hard month on those who hold the purse strings of Victoria County. . . It's the month when all the associations, societies and organizations submit their briefs petitioning council for grants. Attentive ears, sympathetic thought and tight fists are a hard combination to maintain when eloquent pleas are being voiced.

Lindsay trade unionists choose arsenal shutdown inquiry delegates

Why is it Lindsay arensal is to be shut down? Why is it 130 fully efficient and qualified workers are to be thrown out of work March 31st.? These are questions being asked by a group of Lindsay trade unionists comprised of Local 5808, United Steel Workers of America and members of the Lindsay and District Labor Council.

"In view of the fact that work being done here is necessary for munitions and the intention is that this same work will be transferred to small arms plants of Canadian Arsenals Ltd. in Quebec, and Nova Scotia and a private firm in Toronto, we are con- (Please turn to page 4)

Found old mill heavily mortgaged

Museum asks for $1,000, councillors ask questions

A request for a $1000 grant from Victoria County Council by the Victoria County Historical Society was greeted with questions from members of the council.

Making the request were President Dan McQuarrie, Dr. R. M. Parker and Mrs. W. R. Allely.

Heavily Mortgaged

Reeve J. Campbell of Woodville: "The society had a chance to move into the old stone grist mill on Kent Street East, what happened?"

Dr. Parker replied that it was not a case of moving the the museum into the old mill but rather of preserving the mill as a landmark. However, it was discovered that the mill was heavily mortgaged and the society dropped the idea as being much too costly. Dr. Parker also stated that present old mill is not the original Purdy's mill.

EDITORIAL....

A SIMPLE, CLEAR-CUT ARRANGEMENT

Too many people seem to have too much trouble getting medical attention in cases of emergency at Lindsay, a situation which doesn't make sense. Here we have a modern hospital, a municipal and privately-owned ambulance service and, presumably, an adequate supply of doctors, but when emergencies arise, there doesn't seem to be any set pattern the public may follow in order to obtain help and be reasonably certain of getting it promptly.

Right now the public is confused, even some members of the Ross Memorial Hospital's Board of Governors do not know what steps to take in the event of an emergency, and a listing in the telephone directory proclaiming emergency medical service doesn't seem to be working out as was probably intended.

What is needed is a simple, clear-cut arrangement for providing emergency medical services so that within the bounds of reason, prompt assistance may be obtained. This would appear to be a matter for the medical profession, hospital and emergency service agencies—police, fire and so forth—to work out. The sooner it is arrived at the better for all concerned. Pointing the finger of blame doesn't help a victim of sudden illness or accident.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 17, 1913

It can be concluded that the mild spell is no other than the annual January thaw, in which case, it may reasonably be expected to remain for a day or two, at least. So far this winter there has only been one occasion when the thermometer "ducked" below the zero line. That was about one week ago, when the nominally-low record of 14 degrees below the cipher was reached. One year ago, almost to a day, the thermometer nearly went out of business, and did not pull up until 20 degrees below zero had been reached. More than half the month of January was featured by zero weather. This is a marked contrast to the present winter, with one reading of zero weather to record. There is one redeeming feature about the present winter, and that is that it has been accompanied by a period of fairly good sleighing.

....

Flavelle's Rink For Winnipeg

Mr. J. D. Flavelle, the veteran curler, will visit Winnipeg again this year to participate in the annual bonspiel.

JANUARY 17, 1938

The fate of the 20-odd slot machines, pin games, punchboards, etc.—that sit in the Provincial Police Office here under seizure will not be decided until after January 28th when the 15 charges of keeping common gaming houses, laid against Victoria County men, will be heard. "The Post" asked J. E. Anderson, K.C., Crown Attorney, what action he was going to take with regard to the machines. Mr. Anderson stated that if convictions were registered he would order the machines wrecked. "The Post" pointed out that some of the machines were extremely expensvie, running perhaps to five and six hundred dollars and the Crown Attorney stated that this would hurt the distributors probably more than the fines hurt the storekeepers, hotel owners, etc., who operated the machines.

Reports and Remarks..

SO, YOU THINK YOU CAN SPELL

Probably not one person in a hundred can spell these five words correctly: sacr-l-gious; rar-fied; synon-mous; res-taura-teur; and lia-son.

Are you the one in a hundred? The correct spellings are sacrilegious; rarefied; synonymous; restaurateur (no n); and liaison.

Now that you may be feeling a little depressed, you're probably wondering: "Well, how important is good spelling, anyway?"

One answer is given by Newman B. and Genevieve B. Birk of Tufts College, in their book Understanding and Using English.

"Spelling is important," they say, "because it is often the first basis on which a writer is judged . . . . (Many) readers respond unfavourably, with irritation, disrespect, and mistrust to the writer who cannot spell."

They go on: "Conspicuously poor spelling is serious . . . because it suggests that the writer is unfamiliar with printed material, or unable to learn what most educated people learn without difficulty, or both . . . To many people, spelling is an index of the writer's education and intelligence."

You yourself can remember how miffed you were the last time someone spelled your name wrong. Imagine the embarrassment of the Reader's Digest recently when, on the cover of the magazine, it spelled Charles Lindbergh's name as Lindberg! Socony Mobil Oil Company has even begun an advertising campaign to acquaint the public with the fact that "Socony-Mobil" with a hyphen, is incorrect, as are "Soconey Mobil" and "Socony Mobile." Any newspaper or magazine that mispells the company name may receive a polite note pointing out the error.

Now, it's all well and good to praise the benefits of proper spelling. The hitch is that spelling is a complicated and tricky business.

Yesterday's Cryptoquip: YOUNG MESSENGER MISSES OUT ON GIANT GRATUITY

American spellings differ in England and sometimes in Canada. Honor is honour, anemia is spelled anaemia, fiber is fibre, plow is plough, connection is connexion, judgment is judgement, jail is gaol, and so on.

And in America, dictionaries disagree. Some people have written Mafia, largesse, and dog-eared all their lives, and would be surprised to learn that the Merriam-Webster dictionaries prefer Maffia, largess, and—of all things—dog's eared. The word pre-eminent is spelled in three different ways by three American dictionaries: pre-eminent; preeminent (without the hyphen); and preéminent (with a diaeresis over the second e).

No wonder that even a writer as well known as C. P. Snow author of The Affair, can write a book (The Concience of the Rich) in which he misspells two words in two consecutive sentences! ("Charles took the chance to smoothe the party down. He acted as impressario for Mr. March and led his on to his best stories." Smoothe should be smooth, impressario should be impresario.)

—The Blue Bell.

"Quite a difference"

77 Eastwood Rd.,
Toronto 8, Ont.

The Editor,
Lindsay Post.
Sir:

First, I wish to thank you for the two copies of your paper which I received January 14, but I am afraid the contents of my letter were not printed as written.

In your paper I am quoted as saying in my letter that the assessment was raised over $400 per lot and that the mill rate came down but I still pay slightly over $200.00 per lot more than previous years.

In my letter a copy of which I have before me I stated my assessment was raised by over 400 per cent. True the mill rate came down but I still pay slightly over 200 per cent more in taxes than in previous years.

You will admit there is quite a difference trusting this can be rectified I remain,

Yours,
Leonard Burford.

Ed Note: The difference is admitted and the error regretted.

Requests publication of report

63 Kent St. E.,
Lindsay16-1-61.

To The Editor,
"The People Write"
Dear Sir:

In your issue of Dec. 22/62 you published my letter wherein I advised your readers quote: "I would examine digest and check on the authenticity of the insurance company engineer's report on the arena", unquote.

I have progressed to point where I have read the report. In view of wide unfavourable publicity given me by your publication of the Recreation Commission report via the architect, which took up four columns of your issue of November 26/62, I now request that you publish the independent engineer's report word for word. In that way the citizen's can judge for themselves the truth of this serious matter.

With the publication of this report the matter will rest as far as I am personally concerned. I might add that the reinforcements of the Arena which have taken place since I brought this matter into the open, has done much to lessen the hazard, but does not eliminate it.

In Interest of Fair Play,
Yours Sincerely,
Reginald A. Cox.

HOUSE PLANT HINTS

House plants in plastic pots do not need to be watered as often as those in the standard clay pot, advise horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. The plastic type container is smooth and non - porous consequently water does not evaporate through its walls; the condition of the surface soil usually indicates when water is required.

Dry atmosphere is often one of the chief factors responsible for failure in growing house plants. Insect pests such as red spider, thrips and fern scale thrive in a hot dry atmosphere. To improve the moisture content in the air, Ontario Department of Agriculture horticulturists suggest placing water in a vaporizing pan in the furnace, on radiators or in hot air registers.

Pick off the brown, fading leaves and badly diseased house plant leaves say horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and the incidence of the grey mold fungi (Botrytis) will be reduved. Destroy seriously infected plants, and od not reuse pots and soil unless they have been sterilized.

SAD, BUT TRUE

It's a sad fact, but true, that breakfast in many homes is a hit-and-miss affair. Yet, this meal should provide one-quarter to one-third of our daliy food needs. Special surprises at the morning meal can bring smiles from even the most confirmed member of the "Im-miserable-until-after-ten club" & if the breakfast offerings are enticing enough you may even find the sta-abeds rising sooner to partake of the treats. Certainly the aroma of fresh muffins baking will help to dissipate early-morning blues and quicken appetites. To save time, the cook can assemble the dry ingredients the night before, storing them in a covered container. In the morning, just add the liquid ingredients, pop the batter in the oven and the muffins are table-ready, fragrant and hot, by the time the able is set, juice poured and coffee perked.

Mary Ann Logan

After a lingering illness, Mary Ann Logan passed quietly away on December 29, 1962 at the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay.

The former Mary Nichols, she was born in Verulam Township and was educated at Red Rock School, but her latter years were spent in Bobcaygeon. She attended the Baptist Church and was an active member of the Women's Institute. She was the wife of the late Chas. D. Logan, and the deceased is survived by three sisters, Beatrice, of Toronto, Gertie (Mrs. Geo. Martin) of Verulam, Helen (Mrs. Kenn Kelso) of Lindsay and two brothers Frank, of Verulam and Kenneth, of Fenelon Falls.

The funeral service was held from the Nisbett Funeral Parlors and was conducted by her minister Rev. M. Millar. By request the beautiful hymn "Rock of Ages" was sung. Interment was in Verulam Cemetery.

The pallbearers were her nephews Ernie Nichols, Carl Wray, Laurie Nicholls, Garth Nicholls and Gary Martin also Bruce Abercrombie.

Beautiful floral tributes bore testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Donations were also made to the Cancer Socoiety.

Friends from Toronto, Cobourg, Oshawa, Belleville, Lindsay, Fenelon Falls and Bobcaygeon attended.

Announcements

At Rest

McCABE — James Patrick McCabe entered into rest at the Peterborough Civic Hospital on Tuesday, January 15, 1963. Jim McCabe was the beloved husband of the late Irene Hickson, dear father of Ann (Mrs. John Aldred), Marie (Mrs. Harold Foster), Garnet and Roy of Peterborough and loving brother of Agness, Elizabeth, Nellie (Mrs. Joe Magher) and John all of Lindsay and Joseph of Peterborough. Mr. McCabe is resting at the Stoddart Funeral Home, 24 Mill Street in Lindsay. Requiem mass will be sung for the happy repose of his soul in St. Mary's Church on Friday, January 18 at 9 a.m. Interment St. Mary's Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend. (19841)

In Memoriam

WALDEN — In loving memory of a dear husband and father L. A. (Bert) Walden who passed away January 17, 1962.

The Golden Gates stood open.
One Year ago today;
With farewells left unspoken,
You quickly slipped away.
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
But they little know the heartache.
Our smiles hide all the while,
What we would give if we could say,
Hello Dad in the same old way
To hear your voice and see your smile
To sit with you and chat awhile
Though your smile has gone forever,
And your hand we cannot touch
Still we have so many memories,
Of a Dad we loved so much.

Lovingly remembered by wife and family. (3393)

Hartly UCW members discuss church meet

The opening meeting for 1963 of the U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. B. Blatchford with the second vice president Mrs. Kinghorn presiding. The meeting opened with the famous quotation of the late King George VI. A hymn "Lead Kindly Light" was sung followed by the Lords Prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The roll call was answered by the paying of fees, with 14 members present and two other fees paid. All pleased to have the president, Mrs. McInnis, able to be present, and she expressed thanks to all who had remembered her, while she was ill. Mrs. A. Thornbury gave a full treasurer's report, stating that the M. and M. allocation thad been met. Mrs. L. Rea, reported for the Flower Committee saying four people had been remembered in the hospital. The correspondence was read, consisting of a letter concerning the World's Day of Prayer, and a letter from the Chairman of Stewardship and Recruiting Comm. Discussion followed on the annual church meeting and it was decided to have a lunch instead of a potluck supper, and also to help the church financially.

Mrs. Adam took the chair and led in the devotional period. A hymn was sung. Mrs. Adam read a paper, written by Padre Young, of O.A.C. based on the New Year. Mrs. Nathan Morrison, gave the study on Korea taken from the Study book.

Mrs. Adam closed with prayer.

Lunch was served by the hostess and Mrs. Simpson.

LOBA plans bazaar, rummage sale, bake table

The regular monthly meeting of Victoria L.O.B.A. 366 was held in I.O.O.F. hall with Worthy Mistress Sister Peggy Hutchinson in the chair, with a fair attendance. Plans were made to hold a rummage sale also a bazaar and bake table in the upstairs room of the Legion.

Three new candidates were balloted on, namely: Shirley Allen, Betty Ann Black and Thelma Welsh. They will be initiated at the March meeting at which time a number of district Lodges have been invited to attend.

Sister Francis Hore was then installed into her Office of Deputy Mistress by the Right Worshipful Sis. Vera Capstick. Draw was then made on a gift won by Sis. Ada Lywood, proceeds go into flower and fruit fund.

The meeting closed with the Queen and lunch served by Sister Ada Lywood and Sister Vera Capstick.

KLTA asks for $2,000 for tourist promotion

A request for a $2,000 grant from the Kawartha Lakes Tourist Association is being entertained by Victoria County Council. After hearing a brief presented by Mrs. Grace Smith and Mr. Bruce Chisholm this morning, council referred the matter to its finance and assessment committee for study and recommendation.

In presenting the brief, the spokesman noted that in order to carry out our 1963 projects, the K.L.T.A. is seeking municipal aid this year from 4 sources. Here they are, with the amounts we request: County of Victoria $2,000.00, County of Peterborough $2,000.00, City of Peterborough $1,000.00, Town of Lindsay $500.00.

"The Tourist Industry is, bar none," they declared, "the largest business in the Kawarthas, and every one of us benefits from it regardless of our occupation. A gross of over $21,000,000.00 was brought into and left in the Kawarthas by tourists in the past year according to government estimates. That is BIG BUSINESS. In this age in which we live, it is a dog-eat-dog, highly competitive industry, and requires constant, unceasing promotion to ensure that we continue to get our share of this bonanza. To give you an insight into this fierce competition, I will cite one example. The Muskokas, one of our major competitors, last year spent in excess of $28,000 to lure the travelling public to their region. Bear in mind that those $28,000 were raised in an area that has only half the permanent population of the Kawarthas, and a far smaller business community to draw their support from than we have. They knew and recognize just how vital the Tourist Industry is to their very existence. During this same period the Kawarthas spent less than $5,000 on their tourist promotion. This will, however, with your help be more than doubled in 1963.

"Let's clear up another point. When we refer to the Tourist Dollar, the resort operator who houses that tourist does NOT get the lion's share of that dollar. He gets just 20c of it. The merchants and businessmen and the service industries get 80c of it. So we ALL have a stake in the welfare of this industry. Not by any means just the Tourist operator.'

Idea of road board "stupid", Woodville's reeve declares

"The idea of having a road board is "stupid"! This declaration was made by Woodville's Reeve John Campbell during the Wednesday session of county council. "We have two good engineers and a good foreman. Why do we spend so much money by electing six members to this board?" he argued.

Appointment of the board proceeded despite the protest with the following result: Verulam's Reeve Max Kennedy was returned as chairman. Other members are Warden John Childs, of Dalton, Reeve Lloyd Ashmore of Emily, Reeve Shersby Currins of Ops, Reeve Roy Morrison of Mariposa and Deputy-reeve George Finney of Lindsay.

Six members were required for 1963 due to Warden Childs being a representative of a municipality (Dalton) which is not included in the County Road System. Otherwise if the Warden belonged to a municipality of the Road System which extends to Eldon on the north, the road board would only require five members.

Reeves Ashmore and Currins also received re-appointments and Reeve Morrison and Deputy-reeve Finney are new appointees to the board.

fused," Labor Council President Malcolm Stevens declared in an interview with "The Post" this morning.

President Stevens reported that his council is at a complete loss to understand why the Lindsay arsenal is to be shut down. "The work has to be done regardless of where it goes. Is it that local employees are considered second class to others in Quebec and Nova Scotia? We intend to find the answers and to that end the nucleus of a delegation was formed at a meeting last Sunday", he stated.

"This delegation intends to go to Ottawa for a personal interview with Labor Minister Michael Starr. Program of action will also include letters to C. W. Hodgson, M.P., Mayor Jos. Holtom and town council.

"The delegation will be comprised of members of the United Steel Workers of America, of the Lindsay Labor Council and any other interested organizations. This arsenal shut down will affect the economy of the town as a whole — merchants and residents alike. The town will lose a weekly payroll of $12,000; about $9,000 per year in lieu of taxes from the government-owned plant and over $1,000 revenue from the sale of hydro and water to the plant.

"USWA area representative William Powell has stated that his group which has a contract with the Lindsay crown-owned corporation does not agree with Defence Minister Raymond O'Hurley's statement that the sale or lease of the arsenal plant here would provide considerably greater employment in the Lindsay area. Work will be transferred and it is understood machines from the local plant may be shipped to an arms plant in Trenton, N.S." he added.

The labor group said the standard of shell casing production at the arsenal here was higher than that of similar plants in the United States and in the United Kingdom; that rejects at the local plant ran about three percent compared with up to 15 percent in the United Kingdom and 20 percent in the United States. Claims that the machinery here was obsolete was not true and some machines were being dismantled for shipment to other centres.

"Arrangements for the Lindsay delegation to meet with Labor Minister Starr have already been undertaken by Mr. Powell", Mr. Stevens, summed up.

45 years wed, Oakwood couple reflect on happiness, good health

"It was a time of great happiness and good health," stated Mrs. James Irwin of Oakwood, looking back over the years on the occasion of her 45th wedding anniversary on January 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin are now living retired in the village after spending 33 of their married years there. It was two years ago that Mr. Irwin, completed 40 years employment with Hogg & Lytle and Toronto Elevators Ltd., Mariposa Station. The couple had formerly resided at Cambray and Little Britain.

The anniversary date was marked quietly by the couple with a visit being enjoyed with Mr. and Mrs. Alex McGinness at Norland and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wakelin at Coboconk.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin were married at the Cambridge Street Methodist Church by Rev. A. H. Goings. Mrs. Irwin was the former Myrtle Wakelin of Norland. They have two sons, Ross, teacher at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph and Lorne of the General Electric plant, Peterboro.

It is expected both sons will be home this coming weekend but due to the uncertainty of the weather a family celebration is not planned for this time, Mrs. Irwin said.

Victoria County Federation learns how A.R.D.A. designed to aid agriculture

Among those present for the annual meeting of the Victoria County Federation of Agriculture at Lindsay were those seen above with the guest speaker for the occasion H. F. Crown of the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture, Toronto. From left to right they are: M. H. Winter, former Victoria County agricultural representative; Mrs. M. Tompkins, secretary Victoria County Federation; Mr. Crown; Victoria County Federation President J. D. MacMillan; LeRoy Brown, Victoria County agricultural representative.

Fifty million dollars will be set aside by the governments of Canada and Ontario for agricultural rehabilitation and development purposes. Members of the Victoria County Federation of Agriculture learned that at its annual meeting on Tuesday.

Chief Director H. F. Crown, of the Agricultural Rehabilitation and Development Association, (A.R.D.A.) of the Department of Agriculture, said that the application of the A.R.A.D. to Victoria County, means federal and provincial legislation to help agriculture.

"There have been many changes over the past 20 years in the rural Ontario areas", he said, "and during that time over 200,000 less people are living on farms, and statistics say that by 1980 there is a possibility two thirds of the county's population will be urban.

"Going back 20 years ago", he continued, "this means a drop of nearly 3,000,000 acres since 1942 and yet in spite of this, our productivity, efficiency and quality has been higher. There are now 50 less farming units in Ontario than there were 20 years ago This is where the A.R.D.A. comes in with the program of assistance.

"Together with many other projects, they will assist in finding further use for present unproductive land which might lend itself to agriculture; there would be soil and conservation measures, and the study of imported frozen foods on the economy of the farmers."

"We are not overproducing as some people might think, because with the ever-increasing population, other countries will be looking to Canada for food, and it is a very powerful political weapon."

Mr. Crown said he was pleased to see the federations showing so much interest in A.R.D.A., he said.

The speaker was thanked by President J. M. MacMillan who apologized for the small turnout, stating the meeting had co-incided with the County Council inaugural meeting, and the swearing in of Judge H. E. Richardson.

"In fact", he said, "we were expecting a number of the county councillors, and also the warden to be here but unfortunately they could not be in two places at the same time".

Scout Doings

At the monthly meeting of the Victoria County District Council, it was noted, with emphasis, that the group registrations were due January 31st. It was therefore requested that the groups make every effort to mail their registration forms to Carroll Sergeant, 44 Angeline St., South, before the deadline. Cheques should be made payable to the 'Boy Scouts of Canada'.

It was also noted that the theme for Boy Scout Week, (this year from February 17th to 24th) was "A Salute to Scouting 'Round the World". Groups were reminded that special projects should be planned for this week. In this connection, it was reported that Scouter Bill Mitchell was continuing with arrangements for a two day camp in Victoria Park the weekend of the 23rd of February. It was also reported that the Legion Group would stage a variety show on the 22nd of February, in the Legion Auditorium, commencing at 8.00 p.m. The entire evening will be directed by the Ladies Auxiliary.

Acting District Commissioner John Joyce would like the charter numbers of each group. Take a moment, jot it down and mail it to John Carroll Sergeant.

During reports of groups, 1st Lindsay reported a very successful hike last Saturday. Since the weather was anything but compatable, by the end of the day the boys felt they were ready for winter camping. —Contributed by Carroll Joyce.

This Day

Today is Thursday, January 17th, the 17th day of 1963 with 348 to follow.

The moon is in its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus and Mars.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Capricorn. The American inventor, statesman and author, Benjamin Franklin, was born on this day in 1706.

On this day in history:

In 1917, the U-S bought the Virgin Islands from Denmark for 25-million dollars.

In 1946, delegates to the Security Council of the U-N held their first session in London.

Nomination report given at meeting

The January meeting of Blythe Chapter I.O.D.E., held at the 910 Motel, was opened by the Regent, Mrs. A. G. Grozelle with the prayer of the Order.

A letter was received from Mr. Breese requesting that a representative of the Chapter be present to present the bursary at the Commencement Exercises. They will be held in the new assembly hall.

Mrs. D. Macgillivray reported that the Christmas food hamper and clothing had been delivered to a needy family a few days before Christmas and were greatly appreciated.

Nomination report by Mrs. G. Pepper was as follows: Regent - Mrs. G. Pepper; First Vice Regent - Mrs. B. Hussey; Second Vice Regent - Mrs. J. McNabb; Secretary - Mrs. D. Macgillivray; Treasurer - Mrs. C. Sergeant; Echoes' Secretary - Mrs. A. Douglas - Hecker; Standard Bearer - Mrs. I. Langdon; Education Secretary - Mrs. G. McFadden; Services - Mrs. D. Barr; Hospitality - Mrs. D. Lytle; Publicity - Mrs. W. Gregory.

Mrs. R. Brien, Mrs. B. Dorscht, Mrs. D. Lytle and Mrs. B. Hussey were elected to the planning committee.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Cards and a social time were enjoyed by the members.

Reports on Assembly

J. MacPherson

Mr. Charles Peacock, presiding minister of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced the successful conclusion of a three-day assembly held in the Ajax Community Centre this past weekend. More than 527, including residents of Ajax, listened to the key discourse "The Bible's Answer to our Problem of Survival." In dealing with this topic, Mr. J. MacPherson, district supervisor, said, "The threat of nuclear war, along with chemical, bacteriological, and radiological warfare has permeated the world with fear. Where man was at one time concerned only with survival of his own family group today the problem has become earth-wide, one of survival for the whole human family."

Minor mishap

An accident of minor nature with only $30 property damage was reported by Lindsay police today.

Allan Houghton, of Adelaide St. Lindsay, was driving his truck south on Angeline, and entering Kent St. when the front of his vehicle was in collision with a westbound car on Kent St. driven by Edna McKinnon of Oakwood.

There was no damage done to the truck, and there were no in juries. Const. G. Dawson investigated.

STOP! . . . killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

IDLENESS AN ANTIDOTE AGAINST STRESS

Chekhov has said, "I am of the opinion that inner happiness is impossible without idleness." If he were alive in this 20th century — filled as it is with anxiety and stress — he would underline that statement and perhaps end it with an exclamation point.

Stress is the common heritage of modern man who is in a constant struggle to survive. But the trouble is that if we are not careful we live our lives on a treadmill of continous exertions — unrelieved by periods of relaxation and lessened strain.

Somehow we become conscious-stricken when we are caught relaxing. Come upon a many lying in a hammock or sitting in a rocking chair and you are likely to hear the un asked for excuse: "I've only been here a few minutes. Just taking a rest because I've been working pretty hard."

Why the excuse? Why is it necessary to give a reason for idleness? As Chekhov said, you've got to take time off to rest and contemplate before you can really be happy. One of the reasons for so much unnecessary stress in jobs today is the belief that to get ahead you must keep at work incessantly.

The owners and bosses and job managers I have talked to, tell me that the best work is done by those who know how to take short intervals of time out for relaxation. (I am sure that employers would long ago have eliminated the coffee break if they did not realize that it increased work efficiency.)

Even machines have periods of overhaul and rest from constant work. Make it a habit to take time off occasionally; to take idleness in stride without feeling conscience-stricken. There is an art in relaxation. The basis of it is to realize that just as the heart muscle rests between beats, the mind to man must idle along between periods of stress.

Chekhov makes good sense in saying that inner happiness is impossible without idleness. He must have made that observation in the front lines of medical practice, where he not only learned about human nature (a basic necessity for his writing) but about the needs of the physical and emotional machine of the human being.

HYPERVENTILATION

Dear Dr. Seincrohn: My doctor tells me my erratic breathing and nervous symptoms are caused by "hyperventilating". How does one go about learning to breath correctly? Mrs. B.

Comment: I suppose he has told you that when you overbreathe (either by breathing rapidly, by unconsciously sighing often) you disturb the normal relationship between oxygen and carbon dioxide in the blood. This causes your nervousness.

Your battle is more than half won due to the fact that you realize you are hyperventilating. You will soon get out of the habit of sighing and breathing erratically. Then your symptoms will disappear.

Where hyperventilation is such a problem is in those who, unlike yourself, do not realize they have been breathing abnormally. You see, if many hyperventilation cases we can't use the expression, "It's just as easy as breathing."

WONDERS of NATURE

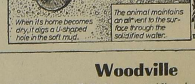
By Bess

Called a lung fish it uses lungs to breathe. Eel-shaped, the lung fish has two long sensitive tentacles instead of fins.

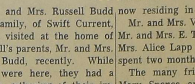
There is a fish which belongs neither to the aquatic family nor to land animals.

Living in full-did marsh lakes and digging itself into the mud, it has become almost blind to concentrate for this, it has numerous sensitive organs, which can be seen all over its body, as thin white lines.

Then it folds itself up in this cavity and fluid secreted by its body closes the water in the hole to become slimy and eventually solid.



When its home becomes dry, it digs a U-shaped hole in the soft mud.



The animal maintains an air-vent to the surface through the solidified matter.

It sleeps through the dry season and as soon as the rains come, the lung fish emerges noisily and crawls to the nearest pool of water.

Woodville

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Budd and family, of Swift Current, Sask., visited at the home of Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Budd, recently. While they were here, they had a family gathering of their immediate family in the Woodville Legion Hall when 41 sat down to a turkey dinner. Of this number 26 were grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Budd.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon English recently were Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Woods, Pamela and Patricia, Cameron, Mrs. Crawford English, Miss Donna English, Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. George Wood of Fenelon Falls, Mrs. Daw, Miss Verna Leach, Mrs. Taylor, all of Ashburn. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Short, Mr Wilfred Short, Oakwood.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Milton McKague who were married recently and are now residing in Woodville.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson and Mrs. Alice Lapp have gone to spent two months in Florida.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Spence are pleased to see her in town and to know that she intends spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Duncan Spence.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon English visited in Hamilton and Toronto.

Sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Simpson and Johnny in the passing of Mrs. Simpson's grandmother, Mrs. Bailey, in the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay.

Mr. D. N. Sinclair and Mrs. Annie Jamieson Lindsay, visited their sister, Mrs. D. Ferguson.

Sorry to report Mr. Russel MacLeod has been on the sick list. A speedy recovery is hoped for.

Coboconk

Sincere sympathy goes out to Mrs. Fred McKague in the passing of her husband. Mr. McKague was a barber until poor health forced him to give up his work. He was a familiar figure to many who would stop for a chat and he will be sadly missed in the community.

Mr. Peter Bowins, employed at Bracebridge visited his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Armstrong and family, of Fenelon Falls, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Davey of Head Lake, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Les Caister.

Many from here attended the funeral of Mr. Tom Nesbitt at Norland. Mr. Nesbitt was known to many and his loss will be felt for some time. Sympathy of all his friends goes out to Mrs. Nesbitt.

Mrs. David Caister visited friends in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lake and family of Don Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lake and family, of Peterboro, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nesbitt and family, of Oshawa, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lyman, of Toronto were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hall and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill White and Kim of Oakville, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fisher and son of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Marles and family of Holt, were visitors of Mrs. Annie Marles.

20 ladies attend Baptist WMS

The William Street Baptist W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Charlie Woodley with 20 ladies present.

The President, Mrs. D. Taylor opened the meeting with the use of a hymn. Missionary letters were read by Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Smith. Season of prayer followed with Mrs. Keown and Mrs. O. Wells leading.

Minutes of the the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Vern Wilson.

A hymn was sung before Mrs. Eaton brought the message, the scripture was read.

Mrs. Taylor closed the meeting with the use of a hymn and prayer, after which a cup of tea and cookies were served.

Screaming, screeching welcome

Little Britain wins fair sex opener 3-1

Feminine type hockey received a screaming, screeching welcome at the Kiwanis Arena last night as the little Britain girls battled tooth and nail to claim a 3-1 decision over the Lindsay girls. Pardon me there was no scratching or biting, but was an exciting hockey game that kept the hundred or so spectators on the edge of their seats throughout.

Play ranged from end to end through the first two periods, with first one team pressing the battle, then the defenders would clear the puck down the ice and go on the attack. By the latter half of the third period however the Mariposa gals took over and play rarely moved outside the Lindsay blue-line in the final ten minutes.

Three of the four goals were scored in a three minute splurge midway in the first period. The second period was without penalty or goal while the visitors sewed up the win with their third period score.

Lindsay opened the scoring when Maureen Williams batted in Heather Madill's rebound at 10:22. Pat Magill tied the score for Little Britain with Joan Barry assisting at 11:27, and Joan Barry came right back to set up Joan Magill for a screened shot at 13:18 that turned out to be the winning goal. Joan Barry picked up her third scoring point and her first goal at 11:53 of the third period assisted by Marie Jordan. Little Britain were short-handed at the time and coach Lew McTaggart hung out the attack sign and they did just that. That brings us to the star of the game, Lindsay's goalie. Heather Webster. Although claiming nervousness after the game, Heather turned in a terrific performance, turning aside close-in-shots on breakaways and scrambles with deft precision. Several fans were heard to remark after the game, that on scoring chances the score could have been 10-1 for the visitors.

Joan Magill and Joan Barry led the Little Britain attack with their nifty stick-handling and skating while Barbara Healey, Linda Cameron and Marilyn Jornson were the best puck carriers for Lindsay. Oh yes, the Arena roof is safe. The screaming and hollering last night proved that. The referee whistles could not at times be heard, and even veteran Coach Grant Baldwin had trouble making himself heard.

SCORING SUMMARY

1st Period: — 1. Lindsay Maureen Williams from Heather Madill 10:22; 2. Little Britain - Pat Magill from Joan Barry 11:27; 3. Little Britain - Joan Magill from Joan Barry 13:18; Penalty: Lindsay (too many players on the ice) served by Dianne Phillips, 18:38.

2nd Period: — No goals, no penalties.

3rd Period: — 4. Little Britain - Joan Barry from Marie Jordan 11:55; Penalties Marilyn Johnson (elbowing) 2:35; Joan Magill (slashing) 10:01; Joan Magill (tripping) 19:40.

ALL-STAR CAST

First-round play opens today at Pebble Beach, California, in the annual Bing Crosby Pro-Amateur golf championships. The tournament brings together an all-star cast of athletes and actors. The pre-amateur division was won last year by young golfer Bob McCallister and Los Angeles Angels' outfielder Albie Pearson. Doug Ford won the pro division, but Arnold Palmer and Gary Player are rated co-favorites to grab this year's crown.

HAD BET ON GAMES

A National Football League player — star tackle Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions—disclosed last night he had bet on games in which he played. The admission in a television interview brought a warning from N-F-L Commissioner Pete Rozelle. Rozelle said Karras could have committed—In the commissioner's words—"A serious breach of league rules." A Detroit newspaper said Tuesday that Karras is scheduled to visit Rozelle today.

NEW HEAD COACH

The Cleveland Browns of the National Football League named Blanton Collier new head coach yesterday, succeeding Paul Brown. Collier—defensive backfield coach last season—signed a three-year contract for a reported 35-thousand-dollars a year. Collier thus becomes only the second head coach in the Browns' 17-year history, Brown—until his firing last week—having served as head coach and general manager since the club's organization in 1946. Cleveland also announced the appointment of Harold Sauerbrei—the team's business manager—as the new general manager.

ONE OF TWO

A meeting tomorrow is one of two expected to line up the Sonny Liston — Floyd Patterson heavyweight championship rematch for Miami Beach on April 4th. That was the word yesterday from President Tom Bolan of Championship Sports Incorporated, promotors of the first Liston-Patterson bout. Bolan said he will meet tomorrow with Liston's adviser and then with the Miami Beach Boxing Commission on Monday. Bolan said he expects the two meetings will satisfy Liston.

SECOND VISITS THIRD

Second-place Toronto visits third-place Montreal and last-place Boston is at fourth-place Detroit in National Hockey League action tonight. Toronto can move into a first-place tie with a win over Montreal. The Canadiens can take second place with a victory over the Maple Leafs. In last night's only contest, Boston upset first-place Chicago, 5-4.

Oakwood rink wins 12-rink bonspiel

Oakwood Ladies Curling Club held a very successful bonspiel with 12 rinks participating from Bobcaygeon, Cannington, Lindsay, Woodville and Oakwood. The ice was fast, competition was keen and prizes were presented to the winners in the evening following a tasty buffet luncheon.

First prize went to Jean Jenkins and her rink, including May Clarkson, Dorothea Cowan and Merrilyn Farr. Second prize was won by Pearl Parliament, Mabel Stroud, Susie Raine and Audrey Lawton. Both were Oakwood rinks. In third place was Dorothy James of Lindsay, With E. Hickson, R. Langdon and M. Rodman. Helen Free of Oakwood placed fourth with Allie Brown, Elsie Greenaway and Lois Goard. A rink from Woodville skipped by Mrs. Smithers won the consolation prize for the hardest working rink entered in the 'spiel.

Thomas W. Nesbitt

The sudden passing of Thomas Nesbitt at his home in Norland on January 7th, 1963 shortly after he returned home from his days employment came as a great shock and sadness not only friends and relatives but to the greatly extended area of which he was widely known. He passed away from a heart seizure.

In the year 1932 the late Mr. Nesbitt began his career of operating a road grader for the Northern Development of Highways when later it was changed to the Department of Highways where he became a greatly valued employee, his keen interest and faithfulness of his work was known throughout a wide territory. The late Mr. Nesbitt was a member of the Masonic order and along with his ever cheerful and fine personality and great sense of honour, won him a wide-circle of friends. The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Nesbitt of Minden was born at Minden and was 67 years of age. On April 24th in the year 1924 he married Mary Gillespie of Miner's Bay. In 1940 they moved to the village of Norland where they purchased their home.

Left to mourn his loss are his bereaved wife, the former Mary Gillespie, one son, Donald of Matagami in Northern Quebec, one daughter, Lois (Mrs. Dale Lowell) of Oshawa, a sister Bertha (Mrs. Arthur Porter) of Kirkland Lake, one brother, George of Carnarvon, five grandchildren, Debbra Catherine and Jane Lowell, of Oshawa; Tommie and Cheryl Nesbitt of Matagami, Quebec. Predeceased are two sisters, Ella, Mrs. William O'Brien, Myrtle, Mrs. Cramer.

Prior to the funeral service the deceased rested at his late residence in Norland where many friend and relatives came to pay their respects. On January 10th, at 2 p.m. funeral service was held from the Norland United Church. A very large gathering of neighbours, friends, relatives and Brethren of the Masonic Order were present.

Rev. Staples of Minden, the service delivered a most comforting message to the bereaved family, a chosen hymn "Abide With Me" was sung by the congregation.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Roy Bryant, Athol Rumney, Stan Stewart, William Bell, Lloyd Gilmore, and Grenville O'Brien.

Interment was made at Pine Grove Cemetery, where a graveside service was conducted by the Masonic Order.

Floral tributes were many and beautiful in silent esteem of which the deceased was held.

Many attended from outside points including fellow employees of the Department of Highways.

Thought for Today

U.S General Dwight Eisenhower, speaking in London in 1945, said: "Humility must always be the portion of any man who receives acclaim earned in the blood of his followers and the sacrifices of his friends."

Somerville farmers represented for first time in federation

Following a change in association bylaws, Somerville Township farmers will be represented for the first time in the Victoria Federation of Agriculture. Charles Arkwright has been elected as their director at large.

Mr. Arkwright was elected to the board of directors at the annual meeting of the federation Tuesday, and Dan Cayley, Jack Parliament and Robert Wessell were returned as directors at large to townships Ops, Mariposa and Fenelon, respectively.

Newcomers to directorship for the townships of Emily, Eldon, and Verulam, were Elmer Mahood, Stirling McNabb, and Clinton Parker.

Referring to the bylaws of the association, a question was raised by M. H. Winter as to the legality of choosing a seventh township director, when the bylaw called for only six.

He stated that the election was out of order until a new amendment had been made to the existing bylaw.

All present agreed to let the election stand, and amend the by-law to include an additional township director bringing the number to seven.

Sees no advantage in using radio spots for advertising

"I see no advantage to using local radio spots for advertising", Commissioner C. Lamb remarked at the inaugural Lindsay Hydro Commission meeting. His observation came following the reading of a letter from the Ontario Board suggesting the local commission use radio advertising to keep them before the public.

"It would be institutional advertising", remarked Hydro Manager Lightbody," and would keep our name before the public".

A morning newscast had been suggested, but Chas. Lamb said that "$770 seemed like a lot of money."

"I fele we should set up our budget first", suggested Mayor Holtom.

"If we get the same budget as last year, I feel we could handle it," said Mr. Lightbody.

It was decided to leave it in abeyance until the setting of the budget at the next meeting.

"What about granth, can't the society secure a grant from the Province?" asked another councillor. The reply was in the negative. "The Government would give a grant if the museum was owned by the county or controlled by some elected body, said Mr. McQuarrie but this would cost more to operate and finance than it now costs the society- if an elected body such as council assumed control then the people would demand many extras".

Mrs. Allely said the county grant and other donations are carefully expended and also that the museum is patronized a great deal by school children.

Fingerboard

Mr. A. A. Nicholls made a business trip to Lindsay.

The Board of Trustees of School Area No. 1 met in the Little Britain school. Among other business a new Chairman for 1963 was elected in the person of Mr. Lorne Walden. The members welcomed the new members, Mr. Henry Mark who was elected to the seat vacated by the death of Mr. Ralph Culbert.

Mrs. Garnet J. Medd

Mrs. Garnet John Medd, the former Carrie Glover passed away suddenly at the residence of her niece, Mrs. Stanley Crackel, Lot 18, Concession 2, Harwick Township, on December 30, 1962.

She was the beloved wife of the late Garnet J. Medd of Chatham, dear mother of the late Ferris Medd of Chatham. Surviving are two grandchildren, Richard and Brian, several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Medd was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Chatham.

Funeral services were conducted in the Chapel of John G. Stephen Funeral Home, 265 Wellington Street, West, on January 2nd at 3:30 p.m. with the Rev. Donald MacKay of First Presbyterian Church and Rev. F. G. Risdon of Charing Cross United Church conducting the service. Interment in the family plot Maple Leaf Cemetery, Chatham.

Murco Farms being sold, Toronto buyer

The sale of "Murco Farms" is in process of being negotiated . This information was confirmed by owner Mrs. W. J. Murphy this morning. Finalization of details will be completed in the near future, it is expected, Mrs Murphy stated.

Buyer is a member of a Toronto construction company and the property is that portion of the W. J Murphy estate, comprised of 200 acres on the Verulam Road on Lindsay's eastern outskirts.

The purchaser has a expressed the wish to retain the name of "Murco Farms" for his future operation there. The name became widely-known due to the extensive connections which were made by the late W.J. (Bill) Murphy. These transactions took him to such distant parts as the southern states, Mexico, South America and England on Holstein sales and promotion.

The Kaymur portion of the estate comprising 300 acres lies across the river in Endicott's Corner vicinity, Mrs. Murphy pointed out.

Library starts New Year with several improvements

The Lindsay Public Library is beginning the New Year with several improvements.

A tile floor, gray and green accents, has been laid, and in both Reading and Reference Rooms there are new chairs with a gray metallic frame and green upholstery.

The Reading Room is a bright, airy room, furnished with the daily papers and magazines—an ideal place to read, rest or wait.

Another addition is a telephone (dial 324-5632). This should prove of great assistance to the public and the librarians.

For midwinter enjoyment the staff suggests these books:

Around The World Submerged—Beach; Promises To Keep—Dooley; Visitors To The Crescent—Hocking; The Scandalous Mr. Bennett — O'Connor; The Silence of The Shore — Garner; The Crown For A Lie —Lane.

The Library Board suggests that "since the Library is financed by municipal and provincial grants, you resolve

Young People Hold Skating Party

The Calvary Temple Young People's group held a skating party at Cambray arena, on Wednesday evening. Twenty-seven young people attended and were accompanied by Pastor Ronald and Mrs. Ellis. On return to Lindsay the skaters enjoyed a lunch, prepared by women of the Missionary Council.

Car fire

Lindsay firemen were called to the home of Mrs. Birchard on Albert St. S. at 7.45 a.m. today, to put out a fire in the front seat of a car.

It is not know how the fire started, which caused $75 damage.

14 RESOLUTIONS ON AGENDA

At least 14 major resolutions are on the agenda as the three-day annual meeting of the Progressive Conservative Party opens in Ottawa. Topping the list is a resolution calling for the acquisition of nuclear warheads for Canada if an International Disarmament agreement is not forthcoming this year. The resolution is put forward by association's executive committee, but that does not mean the government necessarily will act on it. It will be passed or rejected by the 15-hundred delegates attending the meeting and then placed before the government as a recommendation. Tomorrow's highlights include a speech by the Prime Minister.

JOVIAL KHRUSHCHEV

A jovial Nikita Khrushchev paid a surprise visit to the Berlin wall today. Laughing and joking, the Soviet Premier stepped right up to the line marking the border at the American sector. He waved to a crowd of West Berliners gathered on the other side, but did not cross the line. American military policemen at checkpoint "Charlie" watched him, but did not wave back. Witnesses say he appeared to be in high good humor. West Berlin police formed a line across the street to prevent any incidents . . . or as one police officer said, "to prevent Western photographers from going crazy." The police said if Khrushchev wanted to cross the line, they would not have stopped him.

LATEST DEVELOPMENT

The British cabinet is meeting to discuss the latest developments in Britain's application to join the European Common Market. And in Brussels, the French delegation has called a meeting of the six to "decide if there is any future in the negotiations." Many observers in Brussels feel that any adjournment in the talks at this stage would be equal to a complete breakdown.

COMMISSIONER TO BE NAMED

Commissioner of the Crown Corporation to administer the 1967 World's Fair in Montreal will be named tomorrow. This was announced in Ottawa yesterday by Associate Defense Minister Pierre Sevigny who said also that the 12 directors of the corporation will be announced in the next few days. Current speculation has it that the commissioner will be Montreal businessman Paul Bienvenu.

13 RECEIVED DEATH SENTENCES

Thirteen persons received death sentences today for plotting to kill Tunisian President Bourguiba and overthrow his government. The Permanent Tribunal of Tunis sentenced 13 other defendants to prison terms varying from one year to life. Seven of those condemned for the unsuccessful Christmas Eve plot were army officers.

"Bells" theme of Home League

The first meeting of 1963 had as its theme "Bells", with Mrs. Capt. C. Bowes in charge. After the singing of hymn "Gospel Bells", Mrs. A. Rhodes read the New Year message from Mrs. General Ketching, stressing the need to have time for others, following which she read the Scripture. Mrs. M. Davis led in prayer and then Mrs. A. Rhodes read the New Year greeting from Mrs. Com. Booth.

Several ladies read of different bells in everyone's lives, with singing of choruses interspersed. "The School Bell" Miss D. Sine, being the first bell of importance in our lives, "The Door Bell" Mrs. L. Kennell summoning us to many things in our lives, "The Alarm Bell", Mrs. Kay Davis, likening it to a conscience wakening to danger of wrong-thinking or doing. "Work Bell", Miss F. Mitchell calling nurses, secretaries, etc., to various work to be done. "Church Bells", Mrs. P. Wilcox cautioning us to obey their call and attend worship. "Dinner Bell" Mrs. Wes Carew need spiritual as well as physical food. "Joy Bells", Mrs. T. Langley, ringing in our hearts for all our Saviour has done for us.

After the roll call by Mrs. H. Rahm lunch was served by Mrs. A. Rhodes and Mrs. G. Cunningham and a period of visiting was enjoyed by the 20 ladies present.

Beehive hairdos and slacks worn by teenage school girls have been ordered discontinued by Philadelphia school officials to bring more dignity to the classroom.

Mrs. Charles Wakelin

The death of Hannah Lena Wakelin occurred at Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, Wednesday, December 12, 1962, after a short illness. She was 85 years of age, the youngest of the family of seven of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glover Lloyd of Wilfrid.

On March 26th, 1908, she was married to Charles Alfred Wakelin at Lindsay. They farmed in the township of Brock until they retired to Cannington in 1945. During her younger years and while living at Wilfrid she took a keen interest in church activities.

Besides her husband left to mourn her passing are three sons, Oscar of Pefferlaw, Oliver of Cannington and Lloyd of Wilfred.

She was predeceased by four sisters: Margaret, Mrs. Robert Hart, Jane, Mrs. Albert Cornner; Annie, Mrs. Thomas Hart; Ida, Mrs. John Tocher, and two brothers, Wesley and Thomas Lloyd.

The funeral service was held at Summerfeldt Funeral Chapel on December 15th with Rev. C. R. Wragg officiating. Interment was at Cedarvale Cemetery. Acting as pallbearers were Messrs. Wilfred Lloyd, Gordon Lloyd, Edgar Lloyd, Gordon Lloyd, Edson Thompson, Russell Corner, Gordon McNabb and James Wakelin.

Rleatives from Oshawa, Lindsay and Orillia attended the funeral.

Clarence C. McNabb

The death occurred in Cornwall General Hospital on December 11th of Clarence C. McNabb, a well known Cornwall druggist.

Mr. McNabb was born in Cannington, the elder son of the late Neil McNabb and the late Elizabeth Jude. He was educated at McIndoos Public, Cannington Continuation and Lindsay Collegiate before going to the College of Pharmacy. He served his apprenticeship in W. Pollock's Drug Store, Uxbridge. He graduated from the College of Pharmacy, University of Toronto before going to Cornwall in 1929.

In June, 1940, he married Mona Easterbrook of Cornwall. Thirteen years ago he moved from 358 Pitt St. to his present location at 272 Pitt St., Cornwall.

Mr. McNabb was an elder in St. Presbyterian Church, Cornwall.

He is survived by his wife, Mona, two sisters, Miss Nora McNabb of Toronto and Mrs. Ethel Taylor of Collingwood, and one brother, Mr. Harry McNabb of Kirkland Lake.

The funeral service was held in St. John's Presbyterian Church on Monday, December 17th with interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Cornwall.

Victoria County Council Notes

In selecting various committees an effort was made to spread the work around by having all members of the 1963 Council on one or more committees. Deputy - Reeve Doyle of Eldon, who resides in Metro Toronto, was absent at sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday but he was named a member of the Game, Fish and Tourist Committee.

Question Resources Of Salvation Army

Brigadier Hill, of Toronto made an appeal on behalf of the Salvation Army, especially regarding the maintenance of training schools for wayward girls in Toronto. Reeve Campbell of Woodville, wanted to know if it is true the Salvation Army is actually a very wealthy organization and Reeve Found of Lindsay asked if it was right that it has been bequested large sums of money by wealthy people and he mentioned the late Senator Fraser of Trenton. Brigadier Hill stated he read in the papers that the Army had been left a million dollars by some wealthy person but no official word had been recieved and in any case it would take five years before the Army received the money. He added that the Army is in great need of new training schools.

Omemee Reeve Named

Reeve Max Kennedy of Verulam declined to serve as a member of the Ross Memorial Hospital Board stating that "after what happened Tuesday (election of warden) I do not think they want me on the board. I move the name of Reeve Found of Lindsay". The latter declined. Reeve Kennedy then nominated Deputy-Reeve Finney of Lindsay who also declined the office. Reeve Kennedy stated: "It took considerable time attending the Board meetings but I was there as often as possible and members of the board do not get mileage."

Reeve Campbell, Woodville: "I think this is unfair. Members of the hospital and high school area board should receive something for time and mileage".

Reeve George Stephenson of Omemee accepted the appointment.

Congratulates Warden

Dan McQuarrie, President of the Victoria County Historical Society in addressing the council, congratulated wardenelect John Childs of Dalton. "When I was a lad teaching school and receiving $300 a year, I well remember the names of Childs–a great family."

Fenelon Falls

Mr. Barry Townsend, of Oshawa, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Townsend.

Recent visitors with Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Harrison included their son - in - law daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sidorchuck and grandson James Edward and Miss Margaret Whitehead all of Toronto.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Grant MacDonald, Heather and Ian have returned home after a short holiday in Forte Conlonge Quebec when they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Haddon Habb and their family.

Miss Hazel Kennedy has left for Buffalo N.Y., where she will spend some time with her sisters Misses Mary and Rosella Kennedy. Their sister, Mrs. Arthur Parker who is a patient in Toronto General Hospital is wished a plete recovery by her many friends in Lindsay, Fenelon Falls and district.

Mrs. M. C. Mills of Kinsville, renewed acquaintances in town recently when she was the guest of Miss Allie Carley.

Mr. Stanley Flett, of Norwood, visited his mother, Mrs. W. J. Flett and his aunt Mrs. Annie Devitt at Bobcaygeon.

Mr. Ralph Watson has returned after visiting his brother Mr. and Mrs. D. Watson and family at Fort William.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Flett are holidaying at Daytone Beach, Florida.

Mrs. F. W. Webster visited in Alliston to attend the funeral service of her friend Mrs. W. E. Anderson.

Mr. Chris. Hodgson, of Burnt River, is convalescing at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Irene Rettie following surgery at Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay. Best wishes for a good recovery are extended to Mr. Hodgson.

Health Board questions Lindsay hotel incident

Some people cut a mean figure on skates while others really learn to figure skate. Included in the latter category is the group of Lindsay Figure Skating Club members seen above during an instruction period break at the Lindsay Arena. They are, left to right, back row, John Wild (club professional) Pat Parrish, Pat Lahay and Marlene Sharpe; front row, left to right, Sandra Brown, Gloria Cox, Marlene Rogers and Mary Oke. Club officials report membership is down somewhat this year, especially in the higher teenage bracket. They attribute this in part to the heavier demands made on their time as they advance to higher school grades. One went so far as to suggest that figure skating ought to be considered part of the school curriculum just as music and time allotted the student to practise the art.

Weather outlook

Eastern Lake Ontario, Haliburton Regions, Lindsay area: cloudy with a period of snow today. Clearing and turning much colder overnight. Sunny and very cold Saturday. Winds light becoming northerly 20 by Saturday. Low tonight and high Saturday at Trenton zero, Muskoka and Killaloe 15 below and zero. Summary for Saturday: very cold.

What's going on in deal? O'Neill asks

MOH says situation should be cleared up, praises ambulance men

Deep concern was expressed by Lindsay Health Board members Thursday night over reports that a heart attack victim had lain unconscious for over an hour in the Central Hotel while the management tried in vain to get help. The victim was Miss Francis Bergone, guest of the hotel.

"What's going on in this deal?" asked member Albert O'Neill. "News reports say the fire and police departments, the hospital and McArthur's Ambulance service were called but no doctor or ambulance could be procured for the victim. Finally, after one hour and 20 minutes, Dr. H. G. Metcalfe was contacted, arrived at the scene promptly and ordered the woman taken to hospital. It is stated the reason for the delay was that doctor's orders are needed to order the ambulance out. Why has the ambulance got to have a doctor order it out?"

Chairman Marshall Stephens: "I don't know what rules and regulations governing the town ambulance are laid down by council but I guess we had better find out."

Mr. O'Neill: "In an emergency I would want to call an ambulance to send a victim to the hospital where some care would be given. This ambulance was bought by the taxpayers to take care of the taxpayers of the town."

Board member Laverne Gamble: "Do you think perhaps it is a matter of who pays? If they don't pay . . . However, getting the woman to the hospital was the first thing to do."

"Someone needs to clear the situation up . . . the boys at the Fire Hall are doing an excellent job", stated M.O.H. Dr. W. R. Crowe.

Both Health Nurse Miss Ethel Lowe and Chairman Stephens agreed, "yesterday firemen manning the ambulance were on the road without a call. These boys are happy with the ambulance service and keep it in immaculate condition", Mr. Stephens stated.

Chairman Stephens called the fire department and was told only one ambulance call was received re the incident in question and this was answered at 12.00 a.m. Fire Chief Watson was not contacted.

Dr. Crowe: "I can't understand this. As far as not admitting an ambulance patient to hospital without doctor's orders, I know this is not true. The patient would be taken in

Grade 12 student fined for obtaining under age

A grade 12 L.C.I. student--18-year-old--Ronald David Fallis, of Pontypool--was found guilty on a charge of obtaining liquor under age and fined $50 and costs or 30 days in Magistrate R. I. Moore's court at Lindsay today.

Investigating OPP Const. L. Lowry told the court that during a routine check at a dance hall on the evening of December 15th, he had observed the accused, and on questioning, found a partly consumed bottle of liquor.

Asked by the magistrate where he had obtained the liquor, the accused said at the liquor store.

"What name did you use?" questioned his worship. "Ken Moore", replied Fallis.

"My word, how did you ever come to use that name?" the magistrate asked.

"It was the first one that came into my head".

"You're just fortunate you did not use the name Ivan Moore", remarked Crown Attorney Jordan, causing considerable laughter among those present.

"I would like to remind the court" Mr. Jordan added "that to use a false name under the Act calls for a minimum fine of $100.

"Well, I will leave the fine as stated", said the magistrate "but the next L.C.I. student that comes before me on the same charge will receive the minimum fine".

"Do I get a receipt?" asked the boy after he had paid his fine.

"Not unless you want one", replied his worship.

"Well, if you can trust me, I guess I can trust you" said Fallis.

Charges neighbor pumping dishwater onto his property

Pumping dishwaer onto a neighbor's propety will not be allowed and this fact will be pointed out to an Angeline St. south resident in a letter from the Lindsay Health Board.

Chairman Marshall Stephens told the Health Board he had complaints from a resident on Angeline St. S. that his neighbor was pumping dishwater by a sump pump onto his property. "There is a sewer available there and I think we should forward a letter giving 90 days notice to these two residents to hook onto the sewer, said Mr. Stephens.

On sugestion of M.O.H. Dr. W. B. Crow, Mr. Stephens agred the board did not want to put any hardship on these people at this time of year but that they should be notified to connect to the sewer as soon as the weather permits. The board agreed such notice be sent to both residents and a copy of the letter to council.

A MATTER FOR PARENTS TO DECIDE

There has been considerable controversy of late over the matter of Sunday morning Minor Hockey practices. Throughout it all, nearly everyone has gotten into the picture except those whose concern for those taking part should be greatest and therefore entitled to first consideration—the parents.

Any child, hockey player or otherwise, is the direct responsibility of his parents. It is to them that he must look first for guidance and leadership. In view of this, it seems to us they are the ones who should be consulted in the matter at hand or in other away-from-home activities in which they may be taking part.

How do the parents of these young hockey enthusiasts honestly feel about the matter of Sunday morning hockey practices? Why not let Minor Hockey League officials know so they may be guided by the wishes of those whose pleasure they undoubtedly wish to incur? By doing this the issue could be resolved amicably and without needless public controversy. Do you agree?

Remember way back when

JANUARY 18, 1913

Mr. Sam Suddaby, of Burnt River, who leaves for England shortly as a Canadian Immigration delegate, was paid a well-deserved tribute by the Somerville township council at its last meeting, Mr. Suddaby's many friends here will join with the council in its expressions of good will and good wishes.

Ice Cuttin Delay

The prevailing mild spell is going to have its effect on the year's ice harvest. Those who are in a position to know state that the ice on the river is remarkably thin for the season of the year. Unless Jack Frost gets real busy from now on, the ice crop will not be as good as former years.

Exciting Runaway

A runaway horse ran full tilt into the rear end of a cab on Kent St. but fortunately did no damage although the vehicle was slewed around sideways ot the road by the force of the impact.

JANUARY 18, 1938

The total cost of relief to the town of Lindsay during 1937 was $6,692.52, it was reported at the meeting of the council. This figure represents a reduction over the cost of relief in 1936 amounting to $329.91. The cost of relief in 1936 was $7,022.43. The Relief Committee stayed within its estimate of $7,000.00 during 1937. A complete check on the year's activities was outlined in a report presented to the council, it showed that the total cost of relief during the year had been $20,787.81, of which the town paid $6,692.52. At the present time there was 468 on relief of whom 159 are heads of families.

Out of Date

Motorists are taking chances with the law if they continue to drive with 1937 license plates on their cars. The deadline is by for the purchase of 1938 license plates and action is being taken by police all ovre Ontario.

Reports and Remarks..

THE BRITISH DOG IS TOPS

Five thousand and four British pedigree dogs went out into the great big export world last year, earning more than £500,000 ($1,400,000) for their breeders. This was announced in London recently by the Kennel Club of Great Britain, which also pointed out that 1962 was the third successive year that canine exports exceeded 5,000 animals.

But shipments to the United States and Canada were slightly down, to 2,193 and 467 respectively. The Europeans bought more British dogs than in 1961, however, with Switzerland's increase of 70 topping the lot. And Japan took three times as many as the year before.

An export plateau was apparently expected in the overseas dog market. Said the Kennel Club's assistant secretary, Mr. C. A. Binney: "Exports have beeing going up regularly since 1947, when they were only 577. We have been expecting a check for some time. We have exported so many top dogs that we have provided other countries with the machinery for breeding their own stocks. But sooner or later they will come back here for fresh stock."

Toy poodles and many of the miniature breeds are becoming less popular, according to the export figures. Certainly, in the home market there seem to be less evidence of the more popular poodle, and yet, if he does drop from first place in the hearts of dog-lovers, other small breeds are sure to take his place. Londoners, at least, are showing a preference for pugs and dachshunds (the German long dog).

MERINGUES

Meringue shells with almost any fillings are a delicious dessert, tender inside and crisp outside. You can make them white or a pastel color with a few drops of food coloring and they can be baked a day ahead of serving time.

Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, say that low baking temperatures and proper beating will make these a success.

Meringue Shells: Combine 6 egg whites and ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar in a large mixing bowl. Beat at high speed until soft peaks form. Gradually add 1½ cups of fine white sugar and 1½ teaspoons vanilla while beating. Beat until stiff peaks bend only slightly. For pastel shells, add food coloring now, beating to blend evenly. For each meringue pile a large spoonful of the mixture onto a cookie sheet covered with very lightly greased aluminum foil or heavy brown paper. Shape into shells with the back of the spoon and bake at 250°F. for 1 hour and 15 minutes. Cool and remove from pans. Fill with ice cream and top with frozen Ontario strawberries for an elegant dish.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?
By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I wash out a chamois properly?

A. A chamois shoud be washed in mild soap and lukewarm water, and rinsed in soapy water so that the soap residue will prevent its getting stiff. After washing, wrap the chamois in a towel until it's almost dry, and then soften it by rubbing between your hands.

Q. Is there a way I can easily darken some light tan leather articles, such as belts, shoes, etc.?

A. Rub these articles with a cloth dipped in ammonia. This will give the leather a deep brown finish. Take care to apply ammonia uniformly so that the finished job will not be a spotty one.

HOUSEHOLD SCRAPBOOK
By Roberta Lee
Floral Tip

The stem ends of cut flowers should never be allowed to rest against the bottom of their container or against the sides. Leave the stem ends free so that the water can get to them and through the stems to the flowers. If you use the proper holder, you can avoid not only this danger, but the necessity of recutting the stems every day.

Washing Draperies

Make generous allowances for shrinkage if you are planning to wash your draperies. A fabric labeled "Not to exceed two per cent residual shrinkage" should not shrink more than ¾-inch per yard.

MARK — James A. suddenly at Clearwater, Florida, on Thursday, Jan. 17, 1963. James A. Mark of Lindsay. Beloved son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Mark of Port Perry and dear brother of Annie (Mrs. William McPherson) of Lindsay, Nellie (Mrs. Charles Rattenbury) of DeKalb Illinois in his 79th year. Resting at the chapel of McDermott - Panabaker, Port Perry for service on Monday at 2 p.m. Interment Pine Grove Cemetery. (H9859)

Nestleton

Miss Joan Dean, of Blackstock, is assisting at the 2A Grill and staying with Mrs. Carl Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gist were visitors in Port Hope.

Mrs. Herman Samells was with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson and is now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lyons, Uxbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley Long, of Walsingham, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rohrer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers visited Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Thick, Lindsay.

Nestleton Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Grant Thompson. Miss Ruth Proutt conducted the Devotional Exercises. A good balance was reported by the secretary after bills for the washroom addition were paid. A generous $20.00 donation was received from a former member David Davidson of Vancouver vicinity, and his most interesting letter was read. Mrs. H. McLaughlin has a large crib quilt ready for quilting. The congregational Pot Luck Supper and Annual Meeting was discussed. Rev. Mr. Swann was in attendance and conducted the election of officers: President-Mrs. Cecil Wilson; 1st Vice President-Mrs. Vernon Hudson; 2nd Vice-President-Mrs. Grant Thompson and Secretary Treasurer-Miss Ruth Proutt. Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Charles Gist read short poems on New Year Resolutions and Mrs Wilson read extracts from The Record. Lunch was served by Mrs. Hudson and hostess.

A delegation of Orangemen called on Elmer Nesbitt one evening.

Joean Cowan

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. McNeil, of the Gospel Lighthouse, Haliburton on January 10th, 1963, for the late Joean Cowan, third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cowan, who met with an accidental death on the morning of January 8th near the Lakeview Public school where she was a pupil.

Her death was a shock to the whole community and the pupils of the public schools were deeply disturbed over the accident.

The funeral was large and flowers sent in abundance and general contributions were soon collected and sent to the bereaved parents.

Rev. McNeil spoke very fittingly of the little girl, who attended Sunday school at the gospel lighthouse.

Several relatives from out of town attended the funeral as well as public school children.

Six boys were pallbearers.

Besides the parents Joean leaves seven sisters and two brothers.

Interment was made in the Evergreen cemetery vault, Haliburton.

Derrick Taylor, guest speaker, at King Albert H&S meet

Mr. Derrick Taylor, a former resident of South Africa, was guest speaker at the January meeting of King Albert Home and School Association, held in the school auditorium. He was introduced by the principal, Mr. S. Brown.

Mr. Taylor, in a very interesting and informative talk, gave the audience a thorough picture of life and conditions in South Africa with its many problems, created mainly through racial differences, its political and economic status, as well as an insight into the benefits of life in a moderate climate with accompanying pleasures. The slides and movies shown were much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Neil Wilson extended a vote of thanks to Mr. Taylor for a very worthwhile evening.

The president, Mrs. M. Rowell welcomed the parents and teachers. A short business period was conducted during which the members were reminded of the annual "Fun Fair" to be held in February, for which Mrs. G. Watson and Mrs. C. M. Breault are convenors. Mrs. Rowell announced that the next meeting will be addressed by Dr. I. W. Nance-Kieville of Cannington who will speak on "Flouridation".

The meeting closed with the National Anthem, followed by refreshments and a social period.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem, followed by refreshments and a social period.

Cannington

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Josephson, of Pontiac, Mich., and Miss Norma Josephson, of Albany, N.Y., were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Josephson.

Friends of Mrs. B. Dunnett will regret to learn she is in the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay with a broken hip.

The lucky winners of the Ladies Legion draw were Mr. Jas Warvill, Miss M. Wilson, Brechin and Mr. Bert Risson.

Mrs. Arthur Raney has returned home after spnding the past six weeks in Detroit with he son Mr. Harve Raney and Mrs. Raney.

Mrs. J. E. McDonald has returned home after spending a couple of weeks with her daughter Mrs. Harry Lidstone and Mr. Lidstone and family.

and cared for. But I am not saying this applied to the case in question."

Mr. O'Neill: "Reports that McArthur's ambulance service would be refused admittance were wrong. I think the ambulance could take patients to hospital any hour of the day or night and I am sure admittance wouldn't be refused".

The board expressed hope a special meeting being held at at the hospital to clear up all this confusion and misunderstanding would give everyone more assurance that such an incident would not be repeated again.

"I suggest this board go on record that the town purchase another ambulance. This one goes to Toronto and points outside town. It was on this board's recommendation the town purchased the present ambulance and according to reports it is paying for itself" Chairman Stephens summed up.

Manure pile causing trouble, order removal

The owner of a large manure pile on Kent. St. E., will be notified by letter to remove same, as soon as possible. This was the decision of the Health Board, Thursday when Chairman Marshall Stephens stated two neighbors were complaining about the proximity of the manuure to their homes.

It was pointed out that there must not be more than two loads retained in town at one time and this must be covered. The chairman explained he did not know how many loads there were but he did know it was not covered.

Member A. A. O'Neill: "That's been going on for years". Whose complaining . . .Rat?"

"One neighbor says the pile is within 60 feet of his house. The owner is against the law in not having it covered. I think a letter sent might do", answered Mr. Stephens.

"Make it explicit then" stated Mr. O'Neill as the board agreed.

Fred McKague

Fred McKague, Coboconk entered into rest at the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay on January 8, 1962, after a short illness.

He was the son of the late George and Ellen McKague of Bexley, where the early years of his life were spent. For four years he drove the mail route from Head Lake to Kirkfield through all kinds of weather. For several years he operated a general store at Greenbank. Later he moved to Oshawa where he worked for ten years at General Motors. The last 30 years of his life was in Coboconk where he operated a local barber shop. He was loved and respected by all that knew him. For years he was a member of the United Church Choir. He was talented muscially and especially loved the old Gospel Hymns.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife Vera, son Franklin and daughter Catharine granddaughter Mildred and great grandchildren Brenda and Cynthia. His sister Minnie (Mrs. Frank Moore) Bexley. He was predeceased by his brother, Joseph, of Bexley, Charles of Toronto, Ethel (Mrs. Peter Sinclair), and Eva Mc-Farland of Hamilton.

The many beautiful floral tributes showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

BREATHTAKING REALITY...

URGES PUBLIC ENQUIRY INTO HOTEL AFFAIR

A public meeting to enquire into the Central Hotel incident and related matters has been urged by a Lindsay citizen. He called at "The Post" during the lunch hour to say that he would like to have a public opportunity to tell of some of the incon venience he has suffered and seen others suffer when seeking medical attention.

He referred specifically to the occasion his own daughter fell, sustained a fractured pelvis and he couldn't obtain medical attention without recourse to a threat "I called my own doctor", he declared, 'and was told he was operating and couldn't come. His wife told me to call the hospital and get the doctor "on call'. It referred me to a doctor who said he wouldn't come and told me to get my own doctor. I told him my daughter was lying hurt and he had better come or I would get the police to fetch him in pieces, if necessary. He finally did come but didn't even examine my daughter - just ordered her taken to the hospital by ambulance."

Continuing, he said, "I know of another case where a woman in trouble couldn't get a doctor. . .(he then recalled the details) and I can produce lots of witnesses."

The citizen then reiterated his belief that this whole situation should be threshed out at a public meeting. "I'll come and personally relate my experience", he stated.

Victoria County disbands civil defense committee; didn't function — reeve

Members of Victoria County Council expressed themselves as sympathetic concerning civil defence and the Emergency Measures Organization but at the same time questioned the idea of what is best for the county as a whole. The matter of co-ordinating and financing also came under discussion.

Reeve Lloyd Found of Lindsay, chairman of the 1962 committee, stated that in his opinion the committee could do little whout the advise and supervision of a co-ordinator. One or two meetings were held and nothing accomplished, he said.

Reeve Campbell of Woodville said he was a member of the committee and had not received a call to attend any meeting during the year, a statement Reeve Found disputed.

Clerk Frank Weldon pointed out that $10,000 was set aside in the budget for Committee expenses in organizing and carrying on in case of an emergency, but should an emergency arise the amount would have to be greatly increased.

The opinion was expressed that the government first advised the building of shelters but this idea was now obsolete. In case of a raid of any kind or nuclear warfare the question of taking care of the people would be paramount.

Reeve Stephenson of Ormemee thought the name Civil Defence was not the proper title and Clerk Weldon pointed out that the proper name for the committee is Emergency Measures Organization and Civil Defence.

It was finally decided to scrap the old civil defence committee and leave the entire matter in the hands of the advisory committee, which meets regularly.

The advisory committee comprises Reeves Found, Ashmore, Kennedy, Cammack.

Reeve Cunningham of Bobcaygeon, a member of last year's defence committee, said he saw no reason for retaining the committee as it did not function.

Added to the advisory committee will be the general committee which includes Fire Chief Watson and Police Chief Hunter of Lindsay, members of the Mutual Fire Organization, Dr. W. D. Thomas of Bobcaygeon, County, Assesor Hall.

Coin-operated dry cleaning comes to town

Coin-operated dry cleaning service has come to Lindsay.

Gus Yaki, manager of the Wash and Dry Laundromat on Kent St. says the equipment now being installed there is the first of its kind in Lindsay.

Holding two loads at a time, the machine called the "Kwik Klean" will complete the cleaning and drying process in about half hour, he explained.

"This means a big saving in time and cost to the average housewife", said Mr. Yaki, "and very convenient, especially with childrens wear where sometimes, time is essential."

"I don't feel we are in too great a competition with the regular cleaners except that as I mentioned before, it will be very convenient" he added.

Offensive ditch hidden by snow

The problem of the pollution of the river by the Mary Street ditch has faded into the background for the present.

With the offending ditch hiding under a blanket of deep snow, there is nothing that can be done until spring, Chairman Marshall Stephens advised the inaugural meeting of the Board of Health, Thursday.

18 ladies attend Talent Workers meet

The regular meeting of St. Andrew's Talent Workers was held in the church hall with 18 ladies attending.

Mrs. P. Preston, the president, opened the meeting. The secretary, Mrs. M. Endicott read the minutes of the previous meeting and Mrs. C. McNevin gave the financial report. Mrs. M. Stephens gave the Welfare report in the absence of Mrs. H. Taylor who is ill. Collection was taken, fees collected and programs given out for the coming months. The annual Bobbie Burns dinner is to be held later in the month. Mrs. G. C. Lawrence offered her home for a quilting bee.

The singing of another hymn and repeating the Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close.

A light lunch and cup of tea was enjoyed and served by Mrs. M. Stephens, Mrs. McKerracker and Min Montgomery.

Hard to find, wants street given name

An unnamed street came under review by the Lindsay Planning Board last night.

Mayor Jos. Holtom told those present, that a request had been made by Mr. William R. Elliott whose home sits on the north west corner of Kent and Angeline streets, a short street, formerly part of the Oakwood Rd.) asking the board to give the street a name as people found it difficult to locate him, and there were mailing difficulties.

"What is the address at present?" asked one of the members.

"Well, it goes under number two Oakwood Rd. but since the changing of the highway at that corner, and the continuation of Kent St. to the boundary, there has been a lot of confusion", said the Mayor "It was suggested by Mr. Elliott, we call it Oakwood Drive", he added.

Some of the members felt that any reference to Oakwood would only further confuse the issue.

"Why not call it Elliott Drive", asked one.

"That would be alright as long as he did not move", replied another.

It was suggested to contact Mr. Elliott for an opinion.

Marshall Stephens is re-appointed board chairman

Marshall Stephens has been re-appointed for his sixth term as chairman of the Lindsay Board of Health. A barber, Mr. Stephens has served the town in the same Kent St. location for over 55 years. Other members of the 1963 board appointed by council are Mayor Jos. Holtom, M.O.H. Dr. W. R. Crowe, Laverne Gamble, A.A. O'Neill. Working in conjunction and making monthly reports are: Milk Inspector, Dr. A. F. Codlin, Public Health Nurse Miss Ethel Lowe and Chief Inspector C. D. Newbigging.

DROWNED OUT BY BOOS

Reports from East Berlin say the Red Chinese delegate to the East German Communist Party Congress—Wu Hsiu Chuan—attacked the Soviet Union in the forum this morning—but was drowned out by boos, hisses and catcalls. Wu reportedly termed Yugoslavia "revisionists" — the Chinese term for a Communist heretic. Although he named Yugoslavia, Wu meant the Soviet Union, since Chinese attacks on Russia are masked as attacks on Yugoslavia—just as Soviet attacks on Red China name Albania.

RENEW DETERMINATION

The French have renewed their determination to keep Britain out of the European Common Market. President De Gaull has given orders to his representatives at Brussels to maintain their tough stand against Britain's bid for entry during negotiations today. The Macmillan government is watching the Brussels talks carefully, since their collapse could have far reaching interior political and economic consequences. And the government apparently is determined to do nothing to break off negotiations.

GATHER AT CITY HALL

Representatives of three levels of government gather at City Hall in Montreal today to sign the official agreement for the 1967 World's Fair. At the same time, Associate Defense Minister Pierre Sevigny, Federal Representative, will announce the names of the Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner for the fair.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Prime Minister Diefenbaker delivers the keynote address to the Conservative Party Convention in Ottawa this morning and observers are looking for some indication of the government's stand on the nuclear issue. This will probably come when a working committee begins discussion of 14 major policy resolutions . . . including one advocating nuclear arms for Canada unless a disarmament agreement is reached by December.

HOPES FADE

Hopes are fading for the safety of seven persons, missing in a Norseman aircraft in Northern Quebec since Sunday. Aircraft were scheduled to resume the search at first light for the plan which disappeared on a flight from Payne Bay to Fort Chimo. Meanwhile, officials are trying to determine if the tail section of a plane found in a Newfoundland lake is that of a Cessna aircraft which disappeared yesterday on a flight from Sydney, Nova Scotia, to Gander Newfoundland.

NEW SEAGRAVE HOUSE BURNS BEFORE FAMILY MOVES IN

Misfortune dealt a Seagrave district family a severe blow just after midnight last Saturday. . Their new house, just completed, was gutted by fire, leaving only the foundation standing and all the furniture stored in the basement was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $12,000. There was some insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ashmore planned on moving into their new home on the following Saturday. Mr. Ashmore had just returned to their present residence after waxing floors of the new house when informed of the fire.

The red brick, ranch-style bungalow was situated about four miles north of Port Perry on the Seagrave Road. A passerby noticed the fire and neighbor Charlie Harper summoned the Port Perry Fire Department. It was found impossible to save the structure.

Mr. Ashmore is an employee of Generaal Motors, Oshawa and the couple have two children, Teresa, 6, and John 8.

The family had been staying with a neighbor, Bill Sitz, who lives about a quarter of a mile from the new house, preparatory related.

The furnace was oil-fired but cause of the fire hasn't been determined. It is expected the house will be rebuilt on the same site when inspections are completed, Mr. Bryce Ashmore, brother of the owner,

UNDIAGNOSED FEVER CALLS FOR CLINICAL STUDY

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I am turning to you in desperation. My husband has been ill off and on for the past number of years. We have gone to doctor after doctor, specialists, general medical men, just name it.

He has had various diagnosis, none of which make him very comfortable. His symptoms for the past few years have been an intermittent fever of low grade (one or two degrees), occasionally followed by perspiring and chills. This is always preceded by an unbearable backache.

We have had varied diagnoses from emphysema to "we can't find anything wrong."

Surely, there must be some one who can find what is wrong. Would you recommend a diagnostic clinic, or would we be wasting our money? Mrs. H.

Comment: Unexplained fever is often a frustrating challenge to both patient and physician. In some cases we just have to throw up our hands in surrender and call it "fever of unexplained origin," hoping that some time in the near future a real clue will give us the diagnosis. But such surrender doesn't help the patient much does it, Mrs. H.?

I wouldn't think twice about the need for giving a large, well-known diagnostic clinic a try at your husband's problem. At such places they run into the bizarre diseases which a practicing physician rarely sees in his own practice. For instance collagen disease, unsuspected tuberculosis, undulant fever, low grade kidney infection, Hodgkin's disease, unsuspected chronic malarial infection — and many others.

I'd say, in view of the big question mark still remaining in your husband's case that you start from diagnostic scratch and give a clinic the opportunity to make the diagnosis. Sometimes a special examination of the stool, or of the blood, will come up with the diagnosis. Whatever it is — or isn't — I am sure that you should not give up at this time because the diagnosis hasn't yet been made.

It may be made tomorrow or next week; and the proper remedy may be at hand to your husband the health and comfort he has been looking for. "While there's life there's hope" may sound like a stale bromide; nevertheless, it's still true.

GLAUCOMA NOT CONTAGIOUS

For Mrs. W.: No, glaucoma isn't contagious. It is caused by interference with the drainage and formation of fluid in the eye. Early diagnosis is important to prevent blindness. Treatment is usually by special drops prescribed by a competent eye specialist; sometimes operation is necessary. You won't "catch" glaucoma from your brother; but a routine eye check-up at least every two years should keep you out of trouble.

* * *

For Mrs. L.: Regarding that numb feeling your husband has been having for months in his thumb and forefinger, I'd suggest some investigation for pressure on the nerves in the neck region. An X ray and other investigations (by orthopedist or neurologist — or both) will reveal if the trouble is due to arthritis of the cervical spine (back region) scalenus anticus syndrome in which a muscle binds down a nerve too hard); or due to something else. The main thing is to do something about it, rather than "wait for it to go away."

Shower at Bolsover

The ladies of St. Andrew's Church, Bolsover, held a shower at the home of Mrs. Roy Steele in honor of her granddaughter, Mrs. Peter Niskanen (nee Sharon Erskine) recently.

Relatives attended from Kirkfield, Hartley, Lorneville and Beaverton.

She received many beautiful gifts and her two cousins Mary Ellen Steele and Gayle Huddleston assisted her in opening them.

Sharon graciously thanked everyone for the lovely gifts and a lunch was served by the ladies.

Cambridge St. Baptist Church annual supper meeting

Punctuality, excellent chairmanship and a fine sense of Christian fellowship characterized the annual supper meeting of Cambridge Street Baptist Church.

Following the delicious meal the business meeting opened with a brief devotional period led by the interim pastor, Rev. G. M. Holmes, assisted by Budd Bates, Ted Andrews, pastor-emeritus, Rev. P. C. Reed and Keith Morden at the piano.

Mr. Budd Bates, as chairman of the Deacons' Board, accepted the responsibility of conducting the meeting. The clerk, Mrs. R. A. McGahay, read a letter of appreciation from Mr. and Mrs. Bob Puffer, of Meaford, for the gift of a Bible ere their departure from Lindsay. The first and probably the most important item of business was the report of the Pulpit Committee (read by their secretary Miss Joan Ann Hilton) and the unanimous decision of the meeting t extend a call to Rev. W. T. J. Boadway of Berlin, Wisconsin, where he is currently taking a post-graduate course and ministering to a congregation as well. The various reports from every sector of the church's life were in most instances, satisfactory and indicated a steady growth. These were all heard with interest and enthusiasm. The financial report by Mr. Bill Puffer showed a healthy condition—the receipts for Missions exceeding the allotment. Mr. E. Wright, chairman of the House Committee presented a comprehensive report on all repairs and improvements on the church property and the exterior of the parsonage. Mrs. Cascaden, treasurer of the Women's Association reported on the installation of a gas furnace in the parsonage and a redecorating project. Mr. R. A. McGahay moved a vote of appreciation for the ministry of Rev. Mr. Holmes who after an absence of 25 years has come back and is giving fine Christian leadership accompanied by his gracious wife who is active in all phases of the church work. This motion, concurred by the chairman of the Deacons' Board to go on record. Mr. Holmes expressed his sincere appreciation of the various leaders of every department, —the members of committees and board; the Sunday School staff; the Music Director and choirs; the Flower Committee and Ushers; the Janitor and lest he had been overlooked anyone, he said, "just everybody". Rev. Reed seconded Mr. Holmes' words of appreciation for the co-operation and interest and jolly good work of everyone.

Mr. A. Jefferies expressed appreciation for the congregational meeting on the promptness and the manner in which it was conducted and the excellent supper which preceded the meeting.

The nominating committe's report disclosed the following new members of the Deacon's Board for 1963: Messrs. S. R. Pitts, Keith Morden, Dan Berry, and Murdie Pogue and among the other important officers—clerk, Mrs. R. A. Magahay, treasurer, Mr. Bill Puffer, Superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. Wm. Young, Assistant Supt. Mr. Harvey Wright, Trent Valley Representative—Mr. K. A. Bertie, Canadian Baptist Representative, Mrs. Margaret Irvine.

Haliburton

Mr. George McDonald is quite ill in the Red Cross Outpost hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brohm were in Toronto to visit their aunt, Mrs. Laura Revelle, who was ill and has since passed away. Mrs. Revelle was a sister of Mrs. Margaret Dart and Mr. Wesley Baker both of Haliburton.

Mrs. Harvey Minaker is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Clarke Miller in Oakville.

Mr. Allen Cowan and Wayne Cowan, of Oakville, were in Haliburton attending the funeral of the late Ronda Joean Cowan.

Mr. Sid Wessell visited his brother, Mr. Harold Wessell one day.

Garry Holland, of Toronto, was a recent visitor at his home here.

TWO-STROKE LEAD

North Carolina's Julius Boros holds a two-stroke lead as the Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament at Pebble Beach, California, moves into the second round today. Boros grabbed the pro division lead in yesterday's opening round with a six-under-par 66. Tied for second place at 68 are George Bayer, Paul Harney and Dave Hill. In the pro-amateur division of the 50-thousand-dollar tourney, teams headed by Mike Souchak, Bruce Crampton, Ernie Vossler and Hill are in front with best-ball scores of 63.

PROBE ASSOCIATION

Two Detroit Lion players met with National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle yesterday as the league continued probing player association with "undesirables." Details of the meeting in New York City were not disclosed, but one player—tackle Alex Karras —was on the carpet for his admission he had bet on games in which he played. It is assumed Karras and teammate Wayne Walker also were questioned about associations with "undesirables." Rozelle said only that an announcement concerning the N-F-L's investigation of player association with known gamblers will be made—in his words—"when the entire investigation of rumors has been completed."

LEAGUE IDLE

The National Hockey League is idle tonight, but has a full slate of games tomorrow. Detroit is at Montreal, New York at Boston and Chicago at Toronto. In action last night, Detroit downed Boston, 5-3, and Montreal defeated Toronto 6-4, to move into second place.

THREE GAMES

American Hockey League action tonight finds Springfield at Baltimore, Buffalo at Providence and Pittsburgh at Rochester. There were no games last night.

40-DAY MEETING

The Hialeah, Florida, race course opened a 40-day meeting yesterday before 19-thousand fans. The opening day feature—the 25-thousand-dollar-added Royal Poinciana handicap—was won by "Kilmoray." The four-year-old son of "War Admiral" nipped "Mighty Fennec" by one-half length.

MOVES INTO SECOND

The 2nd annual all-star bowling tournament at Kansas City, Missouri moves into the second round today with Don Ellis of Houston, Texas, in the lead. Ellis shattered the tournament's record for four games with a 909 series in yesterday's opening round. Fred Lening of Philadelphia is in second place, 52 pins behind Ellis. In the women's division, Bobbie Shaler of Chicago has a six-pin edge on Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Gooderham

Rev. Van Der Veen, pastor of the United Church is recuperating after an operation at R.M.H., Lindsay. In his absence services were conducted here by Mr. Sterling Mather and Mr. Ken Sanderson, of Willberforce and Mr. Charles Hughes, of Harcourt.

Prior to the packing of cheer-boxes, white gift services were held at the United Church and Pentecostal Church. The ladies of the U.C.W. and M.M.C. respectively were in charge of the boxes.

Recent visitors in the village — from Hamilton, Mr. Arthur Pace, Mr. and Mrs. L. McGaughey and Cindy Joan; from Toronto, Mr. John McDermot, Mr. George Maxwell and Judy; Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Maxwell and family; from Oshawa Mr. and Mrs. Ray McColl, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ingle and Steven; from Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Judson and family; from Port Arthur, Mrs. Venita Pickens; from St. Catharines, Mr. and Mrs. Mackey; from Maple, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Pickens, Miss Grace Maxwell and from Rexdale, Mr. and Mrs Charles Hadley, Peter and Kenneth.

The Young People of the surrounding district motored to West Guilford to enjoy Bible Study in the form of contests and quiz.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barr and family attended the funeral of the late Mr. Fred McKague of Bexley.

Mrs. Barr is visiting relatives and friends at Bexley.

The W.M.C. met at the home of Rev. Thompson. A short devotional period was held. Boxes were packed. Lunch was served.

The U.C.W. met in the New Year at the home of Mrs. J. E. Pickens. Mrs. G. W. Barr was in charge of the meeting and also of the topic on "Religion". Favorite hymns were sung and minutes were read by Mrs. Fatheringham. Only a few were present. The meeting closed with prayer. Mrs. Pickens served cake and tea.

The hockey team motored to Lindsay and were defeated 7-3.

John Bruce Smithson

John Bruce Smithson, of Glenarm Rd., Fenelon Township, passed away suddenly at his home on Friday, January 11, 1962 in his 79th year.

Born on the family homestead in Fenelon Township, the deceased was the son of the late William and Susannah Smithson. He had resided in this district all his life and was a farmer. He was educated at S.S. 9 on the third concession of Fenelon Township.

The late Mr. Smithson was pre deceased by one brother Leslie who passed away two years ago and one sister Ethel, who passed away on Christmas Day 1962. He is survived by cousins Wilbert, Cecil and Herbert Worsley, all of R. R. 1 Cameron and Lisle Waterman, another cousin, living in Monaghan. Other cousins reside in Peterboro.

The funeral was held on January 15th. from the Platten Funeral Home at 2 p.m. and Rev. Jas. McCartney conducted the service. Interment was in Zion Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Mac Murchison, Gordon Jamieson, Dr. William Schroeder, Morley Byrnell, Carl Brentnell and Harold Worsley.

Legion officers installed, two presentations made

Officers of the Sir Sam Hughes Branch 67 of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion at Lindsay were installed at a special joint ceremony Thursday night.

Regional Vice - President Frank (Dude) Hills of Port Hope was the installing officer and he was assisted by District Sgt-at-Arms Cedric Smith, ray McLeish; Executive: John Bill King and Bud McIntyre of Cobourg as the installing team.

There were two presentations during the ceremony. LADIES' AUXILIARY

Past President-Doris Brasier 1st vice-Rita Gendron, 2nd vice-Jean Dayman; Exevuptic Minnie Neale, Helen Dames, Alice Williams, Mercie Hobbs, Bertha English, Elma Mason, Mary O'Neil; Sgt-at-Arms-Joan Harding. Treasurer - Norma Sproule, Secretary-Phylis Monteiglio.

Lindsay area Scots prepare to commemorate Robt. Burns

All true Scotsmen will "don their Sunday "troosers" sport a twig of heather or a touch of tartan, and it will be "Scots wha-hae" come Thursday night, January 24th, for the big "Burns Supper" being held in the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Hall, Lindsay.

The traditional supper of haggis, taties and neeps, will be served, and the program, under the auspices of the Board of Management and Session will feature traditional music by the Henderson-McIntyre group of Fenelon Falls.

Also assisting with the program will be Rev. O. G. Locke, Hugh Mooney, D. McQuarrie, G. Laurenson, Archie McIntyre Charles Stoddard, Alex Kingsborough, Patricia Gordon and William Perry.

Guest speaker will be Rev. K. Rooney, minister of the Knox Presbyterian Church, Woodville.

And as Burns himself would have said:
"Some hae meat and canna eat
some would eat but want it.
but we hae meat, and we can eat and so the Lord be thankit."

Good attendance at Nestleton WI

Nestleton (PNS) — Mrs. Arthur Hyland was hostess and Mrs. Eli Mars co-hostess for the splendid representation of members and visitors for the January meeting of Nestleton W.I. Mrs. Herbert Vice-President, welcomed all.

The secretary, Mrs. A. M. Beacock read the December minutes. Much correspondence was heard including thank-yous from members and friends remembered at Christmas time. Cards were received from Hampton W.I.; Honeydale W.I.; Mrs. Zackes who conducted a recent Departmental Course and from several mothers of new babies for remembrance. The Nestleton W.I. writing prizes to Grades seven and eight at Cartwright Central Public School were won by Gail Malcolm and Kenneth Gibson and a letter of thanks was read from Gail for her book "She Shall Have Music". A $1.00 donation was received from Mrs. Willett and another $5.00 toward hospital work from Mrs. Grant Thompson from commissions on subscriptions to local papers. A most appreciative letter was received from Catherine L. Morrison of the Unitarian Service of Canada for the parcels of new baby's layettes, sweaters, bandages and blankets sent by Nestleton ladies. These should be at the clothing distribution centre in Greece, or elsewhere in the Middle East, early in Feburary. Interested ladies were invited to attend the 4-H Homemaking Club display in Orono Hall. The Port Perry Fair list was tabled for the present. Mrs Richard Davison introduced a fund raising idea and reminded the meeting which she and Mrs. Vernon Hudson are arranging. Ladies and their husbands welcome and asked to bring sandwiches. The Butterfly quilt is to be completed as soon as possible. A reply was sent via Mrs. George Johns to a Toronto lady requesting prices for various types of homemade quilts. Miss Ruth Proutt read an interesting letter from Miss Doreen Van Camp, missionary teacher in Indore, India, acknowledging Christmas greetings sent by the Institute. Two Roll Calls "Where I Get My Vitamin C" and "What I Like To Do In My Leisure Time" were answered by all present. After discussion a notation was made on the books that the Motto for the day will be prepared by the Standing Committee Convener or one of her group.

Mrs. R. W. Jackson, Convener of Home Economics and Health, had prepared a fine program. Mrs. Malcolm Emerson dealt with the motto, "Minds are like parachutes, they only function when [illegible]". Mrs. Jackson advised the laides to organize their work to save time and have leisure. Mrs. Lawrence Malcolm read "Home Beautiful". Mrs. Vernon Hudson, "A Friend in Need" and Mrs. T. Graham, "Pity's Plenty", all dealing with the subject of more organized homemaking. Mrs. H Vine reported on the Cooper Tooling Course which all enjoyed. Samples of finished products will be exhibited later.

Mrs. Arthur Hyland's group served a dainty lunch and Mrs.

Kinsmen Band holds party at arena

The annual Kinsmen Band New Year Party was held at the revamped Kiwanis Arena, Russell Street.

This occasion was very well attended, not only by members of the band but also by guests of the members.

The programme consisted of skating, and such games as broom ball etc.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. S. Peel the social convenor, members of the Mothers Auxiliary served the party a lunch, then they retired to the lounge were they had dancing and competitive games. Mr. Douglas Thompson officiated as a capable M.C. Thanks are due to the few members of the band who cooperated with the Mothers auxiliary to make this party a success. They were Gordon Evans, Marilyn McLeish, Jim Peel, and Susan Jefferies.

Band members thanked members of the executive for a very enjoyable evening and the band organization thanked Mr. Johnson and members of the recreation committee for their cooperation in this event.

Allen Beacock thanked all who contributed to the worthwhile afternoon.

Fingerboard

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nicholls, Oakwood, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Radzevicus.

Mr. Gordon Gillson was a business trip to Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hill visited their son, Gerald, in Oshawa.

Hospital states position in local hotel incident

There's barely room left for a weekend chuckle:

A man on a vacation hunting trip was told there was good shooting across the creek. Gun in hand, he wandered for hours without seeing anything to shoot. On his way back in the afternoon he met a small boy.

"Is there anything to shoot around here?" he asked.

The boy thoughtfully shook his head. Then his face brightened and he exclaimed: "Here comes the principal of my school."

Reiterates:" If you need a doctor, call a doctor", in spite of phone listing

In an attempt to clarify the Ross Memorial Hospital's position regarding the unfortunate incident reported in The Lindsay Daily Post concerning Miss Francisca Bergoine, who collapsed Wednesday in the Central Hotel, the hospital has issued the following statement:

"The Management Committee of the Board of Governors met Thursday with the principals involved in order to get a "first hand" account of what happened from the various parties involved. As a result of this discussion we feel the following briefly, are the facts:

(1) Miss Bergoine collapsed in the hotel at approximately 1.55 p.m. on Tuesday the 16th of January.

(2) When told of this, Mr. Koproski (the proprietor) said he was attending the bar and sent someone else upstairs to check.

(3) When again told this was so, Mr. Koproski said he asked another "guest" to call the fire hall ambulance. (The fire and police department's monitoring system, which registers all calls, indicates this call never reached them.)

(4) Mr. Koproski then called the hospital himself about 12.10 a.m. The emergency orderly answered and asked the caller if he knew the lady's personal physician. When told he did not, the orderly offered to try to get the doctor-on-call to go to the hotel. (THE ORDERLY DID NOT SAY" "There is no doctor-on-call,– as reported.)

(5) The police and fire hall monitoring register also shows that the first call the police received from the hotel, saying a woman was sick and should be taken to the hospital was at 12.15 a.m.

(6) After speaking with the hotel proprietor on the telephone, the police despatched a constable to the hotel at 12.24 a.m.

(7) At 12.31 a.m. the constable telephoned the situation to the police station. (The police understood that an ambulance could not be sent until a doctor saw the patient.)

(8) In the meantime, the hospital orderly contacted a doctor who went to the hotel about 12.45 a.m. examined the patient, and ordered an ambulance. (The doctor-on-call happened to be looking after another patient in the hospital and was unable to go to the hotel.)

(9) The fire hall then received their first and only call in this regard at 12.55 a.m. They immediately dispatched an ambulance to the hotel, arriving at about 1.00 a.m.

10) The patient was then admitted to hospital within 20 minutes, at 1.20 a.m.

We are satisfied that the hospital offered all the assistance it could under the circumstances.

We must make it clear that the doctor-on-call for the hospital does not stay within the hospital during the period of being on-call.

Finally, we can only reiterate to the general public. "IF YOU NEED A DOCTOR, CALL A DOCTOR, DO NOT CALL THE HOSPITAL!" . . . (In spite of what it says in the telephone directory.)"

Only three Ontario jails pay turnkeys less than Victoria, lawyer tells county councilmen

First steps in the settlement of wage grievances of Victoria County jail guards were taken this week in that county council referred the matter to the Finance and Assessment Committee for study and report back to council.

Lindsay Lawyer R. W. Calverley appeared before county council on behalf of the turnkeys and reviewed matters relative to their wage grievances to date. The Public Service Grievance Board had found, he said, that 96% of the county turnkeys in other parts of the province, received higher salaries than in Victoria County and provincial turnkeys on maximum salaries were paid about $1,000 per year more. Turnkeys in only three of the 45 jails in the province of Ontario were paid less than in Victoria County. These were the L' Original, Picton and Orangeville jails.

Lawyer Calverley pointed out that until 1962 the turnkeys were represented by the Jail Service Association of Ontario. That association presented a brief to Victoria County Finance Committee in 1960 making certain recommendations re wages, etc. but no action was taken by the county.

Then in 1961 the jail employees submitted a grievance to the Public Grievance

SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO FURNISH PROOF OF AGE

A district youth was tried and convicted of an offense at Lindsay this week which, on the basis of the evidence reported, he should never have been permitted to commit in the first place. According to his own testimony, he obtained the liquor at an Ontario Government liquor store by using a false name and conveying the impression he was of legal age.

The fact that anyone, especially a person of youthful appearance, can walk into a liquor store and obtain spirits without being called upon to provide proof of identity and age, would seem to indicate a laxity in dispensing procedure. While the youth, by his own admission, committed an offense against the law, this does not excuse the law for making it possible to commit the offense with apparent ease.

Incidents of this nature should be reported to the Ontario Liquor Control Board which, in turn, should rightfully be expected to take the necessary action to prevent their recurrence. To obtain liquor illegally through a legal outlet is another.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 19, 1913

Mr. Felix Northey, of Fenelon Falls, met with a serious accident. He was working with a derrick at Mickle and Dyment's mill, when a guy broke and Mr. Northey was struck in the back and knocked off the foundation to the ground, some ten or eleven feet. The blow from the derrick paralyzed his legs, and he was somewhat badly shaken up by the fall. Under the care of Dr. Johnstone he is, however progressing favorably and his complete recovery is looked for in the course of a short time. Mr. Albert English who was also on the job at the time, jumped to the ground and escaped without serious injury.

Erecting Telephone Line

Woodville Advocate — A gang of telephone employees are erecting another line through Woodville direct from Lindsay to Beaverton. This has been a long felt want which the people of this section are pleased to see supplied.

JANUARY 19, 1938

At 11 a.m. today the second fire to strike the Lindsay district wiped out the fine barn on the farm occupied by William Endicott on the Old Oakwood Road on the western outskirts of the town. About 11 a.m. the barn appeared to burst into flames, thought to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. Spread of the fire was so rapid that despite every effort on the part of volunteers to fight the flames only the livestock was removed from the barn to safety. A flock of hens perished in the flames while Mr. Endicott's car, together with hay, grain, straw and a number of implements were also burned. It could not be ascertained at press time whether any insurance was carried on the building or contents.

Reports and Remarks..

VOTERS' GUIDE

The late Mitchell Hepburn in the early days of road-building in Ontario was always careful to have the mile or so of road leading to his farm the most neglected of any in the county.

Likewise a certain alderman makes it a point never to have the sidewalks in good repair on the street where he lives.

The moral of this seems to be never to vote for an alderman if he lives on your street.

GOING STEADILY

Young people probably do little to purify the language of the tribe, but they make it more interesting in their need to find phrases which will suit their special affairs. An example is the current saying among juniors, "to go steadily." This denotes a less permanent social arrangement than the old, well-known "going steady." To go steadily means one date at a time, with no commitment after next Saturday night's dance.

A PUZZLER

A newcomer to Canada reports that he was making some progress in pronouncing English words and phrases until he was set aback by the following newspaper headline:

INVESTORS ENTERPRISE
PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

In learning a language, pronunciations are often the hardest to get right. —The Printed Word.

FOUND CRIMINALLY RESPONSIBLE

Three Montreal men have been found criminally responsible for the December 14th slaying of two suburban Montreal policemen during a bank holdup. A coronor's Jury Friday ordered Jean Paul Fournel, Georges Marcotte and Jules Reeves turned over to police to be charged with capital murder. The dramatic development—capping the most intensive manhunt in Quebec history—came after Fournel identified the 34-year-old Marcotte as the "Santa" slayer. He said the trio rode in a car to stage a holdup at the St. Laurent Branch of the Imperial Bank of Commerce with Marcotte in the back seat practicing Santa Claus-like "Ho-Hos". However, Fournel said he did not see Marcotte fire the actual shots that killed constables Denis Brabant and Claude Marineau as they lay wounded in front of the bank. The robbery netted the bandits 126-thousand, 200 dollars in cash and securities of which police recovered 64-thousand dollars worth of negotiable bonds.

REJECTS SUGGESTION

Prime Minister Diefenbaker has flatly rejected suggestions Quebec might break away from Canada unless immediate action is taken to meet French Canada grievances. He told party supporters in Ottawa today "the idea Canada is about to disintegrate has no place in my thinking or of my associates in the Cabinet." At the same time, Diefenbaker pledged an all-out effort by the government to strengthen what he called the nation's "heart strings" through Federal-Provincial cooperation.

TOLL FREE

In-transit cargo carried aboard ships in the course of both upbound and downbound transit on the St. Lawrence Seaway will be toll free in the 1963 navigation season. The seaway authority announced in Ottawa today that the new regulation may be cancelled at any time if it does not contribute to traffic improvement.

URGES PARTY FOLLOWERS

Ottawa—Prime Minister Diefenbaker has urged his Conservative Party followers to avoid binding commitments on policy field strewn with future uncertainty. He told some two-thousand supporters at the party's annual convention in Ottawa it would be "unwise" to deine too clearly policies which could be invalidated by events in the near future. He said policies should be taken that are sound not reckless. The Prime Minister's remarks are seen as a claer reference to the current nuclear weapons controversy.

WILL VISIT WEST GERMANY

President Kennedy will visit West Germany this year. The White House says the President has accepted an invitation of Chancellor Adenauer to vist West German Capital of Bonn for what the White House described as "an informal working visit." The President will go to Germany following his visit to Italy, which was announced earlier this week.

Janet Ritchie speaks at Victoria H&S

The first meeting of the new year of Victoria Home and School was held recently.

The president, Mrs. Lyle Miner, welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with "O'Canada" and "The Lord's Prayer". The business was conducted.

Mrs. C. Mackay introduced the guest speaker Miss Janet Ritchie. Miss Ritchie, who is a teacher at one of the district schools, has also worked with retarded children and for the past three summers in Provincial camps. A film was shown on Retarded Children's schools and how they are conducted and the way the children learn to look after themselves. After the film Miss Ritchie spoke on the number of retarded children born every year and the great work being done for them. She also spoke on her experiences with them at summer camp.

Mrs. Miner thanked Miss Ritchie for her wonderful talk and film.

The meeting closed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bert Douglas and her committee.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Macdonald Institute, Guelph, suggests that you use leftover carrots, beans, and peas in jellied salad, or put them in a mushroom soup sauce and top with grated cheese for a hot side dish.

* * *

Home economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, say that we should make better use of our oven. On nights when roast beef is on the menu, why not complete the meal with baked potatoes, scalloped tomatoes and an apple crisp?

* * *

Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, recommend that all cheese dishes should be cooked at a low temperature, 325 degrees F. because the protein is made tough by extreme heat. When cheese is toasted, we sacrifice some nutritive value in favor of flavor.

* * *

A sensible idea for a buffet supper is to serve the casseroles or molded salads in two or more dishes instead of one large one. A fresh dish replacing the first service keeps the buffet attractive, say the home economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph.

NOW CAN I ? ? ?
By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I perform a good cleaning job on some of my rings?

A. You can do this very nicely with an old toothbrush and soap and water — unless the rings are badly tarnished, in which case try using some bicarbonate of soda. Just dip the damp brush into the bicarb, scrub the ring with this, and rinse.

Q. How can I remove the odor from my hands after peeling and handling onions?

A. Rub them immediately with some dry salt. Or, wipe them thoroughly with newspaper before putting them into water. Or, try rubbing them with mustard (the kind you use on hot dogs).

Q. How can I clean bronze ornaments?

A. These items should not be washed. Dust carefully, and follow by wiping with a cloth moistened in paraffin oil. Polish with a chamois.

Queen St. UCW executive installed

The January meeting of Queen St. United Church Women was held in the church auditorium with a good attendance.

The theme of the meeting was Stewardship and Mrs. S. Brandsma chairman of the committee was in charge of the Devotional period. A hymn was sung and Mrs. L. Thurston read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Brandsma gave a reading on Stewardship, and following prayer, a hymn was sung to close the service.

Mrs. Ben Garrett who is the Presbyterial chairman of Stewardship and Recruiting spoke on the topic "The World in Which We Live, and gave us some interesting facts about the world refugee children and told us of some of the ways in which we could help. She also explained the Foster Parents Plan for Refugee children. Mrs. S. Brandsma thanked Mrs. Garrett for a very interesting talk which was most informative. Mrs. Lloyd Thurston took the chair and as there were several new ladies present she had everyone introduce herself.

The business of the December meeting was read by Mrs. Al. Wilson, secretary. All the yearly reports were given and it was moved by Mrs. G. Logan and seconded by Miss Elsie Stubbings that all reports be approved. Mrs. E. Truax and Mrs. Parkin conducted a short memorial prayer for Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Colleran and Mrs. Spencer, three ladies of the church who have passed on. The Unit groups were then formed and the executive for each unit picked. Rev. Ben Garrett was called upon to install the executive of the U.C.W. for 1963. Mrs. L. Thurston thanked everyone for their help this past year and hoped it would continue. The annual meeting of the U.C.W. Presbyterial is to be held at Fenelon Falls and the special speaker will be Mrs. Walton Tonge. The budget for this year was presented by Mrs. H. Harris and was accepted. Several other items of business were dealt with. It was moved by Mrs. C. Sayville and seconded by Mrs. J. Davie that the possibility of adopting a refugee child through the Foster Parents Plan be looked into.

Mrs. L. Thurston closed the meeting and all present enjoyed a cup of tea and lunch.

Peter J. Burchell

Peter John Burchell, of 99 Russell St. W. Lindsay, passed away at the Ross Memorial Hospital on January 11, 1963 after an illness of three years. He was in his 74th year.

The deceased was born in Brighton, England and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Burchell and is survived by his wife the former Corinne Stone. He had resided in Lindsay for 44 years and before moving here had resided in Omemee. The deceased was retired and had been an employee of the Sylvester Steel Co. Ltd and was educated in Brighton, England and Omemee. He enlisted in the armed service in Lindsay on December 15, 1915 with the 109th Battalion and was discharged on February 19, 1919 from the 38th Battalion. During his time of service he received a shrapnel wound in the left leg. He was also a member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 67.

He was predeceased by one sister and three brothers Mary (Mrs. S. White) of England, George and Jack, of England and Frederick, of Fenelon Falls.

The funeral was held on January 14th from the Mackey Funeral Home at 2 p.m. with Rev. D. E. Lemon, of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay conducting the service. Interment was in Riverside Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Alf. Lawson, of Downeyville, Hiram Neale, Harry Dunn, Eric Sharpe, Norm McIntosh, and Carl Schroter, all of Lindsay.

Trio of horned owls trapped in Cameron area during survey

Three horned owls were caught within three miles of each other, within a period of an half hour, about eight miles north of town last week, during a survey project.

The project being carried out by a group of students connected with the University of Minnesota, is to study the life of wild birds of prey, and their migratory habits.

Gus Yaki, of Lindsay, who accompanied the students on the tour of the country, said the birds were trapped around Cameron where there seems to be a heavy concentration of owls.

An unusual way of trapping the birds is used, said Mr. Yaki, in the form of a cage of wire in which is placed the bait, a mouse, meat, etc., and running from the cage are a number of nylon leaders with loops at the end, which snare the birds without injuring them, as they come to inspect the bait.

A strange thing was noticed by the group, added Mr. Yaki, the fact that during the survey which took them in an area bounding Toronto, Parry Sound, and Belleville, the heaviest concentration of birds was almost a straight line from Parry Sound to Belleville.

Very few were caught or even seen in any of the other areas, only one being caught in the Toronto area.

"Do It Now" poster contest Winter Work Campaign feature

Somthing different has been injected into the "Do It Now" winter employment campaign at Lindsay . . . It is a poster contest limited at first to the students of the school — Central Senior.

Outlaying the idea to members of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs this week, Campaign Chairman Harry MacDonald said that "as this is a new venture, it was decided to hold it in one school only on a trial basis. Should it prove successful the other schools will be requested to participate next year and particulars would be given to each school in September to allow time to be allotted in the school term for this particular project. Posters will be judged in February and prize winning posters will be displayed in store windows."

The speaker stated that the winter works program had brought definite results across the country, and had interested the general public in giving employment to craftsmen, and merchants in general during the winter months rather than putting off necessary types of work until spring and summer.

He praised the Lindsay businessmen for the manner in which they were supporting the campaign.

Letters of appeal have been sent out to householders, he added, requesting any repairs or renovations be done during the next three months. Special advertising through local radio and newspapers, and advertising distributed to firms will also be done.

"It's nuts", says reeve but appointment approved

County Engineer Harold Wilford has been appointed by Victoria County Council to act as a Safety Construction Engineer Clerk F. L. Weldon and Reeve Lloyd Found (Lindsay) pointed out that several municipalities of the county had already made their own appointments for this office which the government demanded must be filled. In the event some municipalities did not make separate appointments, Engineer Wilford would be called on to do the necessary inspection in defaulting townships which would have to pay a proportionate cost of his salary and expenses, it was explained.

Clerk Weldon cited cases where men at work had suffered injuries and loss of life because of insufficient safety protection.

Councillors spent a couple hours disapproving the idea of hiring a qualified official to inspect all manner of buildings under construction, electrical equipment, sanitary arrangements, safety walks, proper guards for machinery, shoring of trenches, etc.

"It's nuts"', said Reeve Ashmore of Emily and other councillors stated that it would be hard to secure a qualified man to handle the job and that the townships should not have to bear the expense of hiring professional men.

Finally Reeve Found's suggestion that Engineer Wilford be appointed was approved.

Board, which sustained it and directed the Department of Reform Institutions to take the necessary steps to have salaries in Victoria County jail, brought up to the level of provincial jails. "That was not done," he stated.

Then with the amendment to the Municipal Act in 1962, the sole authority for the appointment of turnkeys and the fixing of their salaries was vested in county council.

It then became possible for jail employees to join a union, so they joined the National Union of Public Employees. This union applied for certification as a bargaining agent for the employees. But County council passed a bylaw invoking section 89 of the Labor Relations Act. This bylaw took the employees from under the protection of the Act and their right to join a union.

The NUPE on behalf of the jail employees entered an appeal against the bylaw and at a hearing before the Labor Relations Board the appeal was not granted. One day before the appeal was heard the Minister of Reform Institutions approved the Victoria County bylaw.

The Public Service Grievance Board was told that when the authority to fix jail salaries was invested in the lieutenant governor and the council, the Department of Reform Institutions did not exercise that power. It was the department's policy to allow as much local autonomy as possible. What the department did was approve wage schedules as submitted by the county. That was the explanation of the present wage rates, he summed up.

Council agreed the matter should be referred to the Finance and Assessment Committee for study.

Warden's pay stays same, council rules

A motion to increase the warden's honorarium from $2,500 to $3,000 was voted down by Victoria County Council on Friday. Also a motion by ex-warden Edward Murphy to make a grant of $200 towards the warden's banquet was lost.

It was agreed on suggestion of Reeve Everett Cameron of Bexley that the warden's expenses and mileage should be printed in the minute book "The public should know and as his honorarium.

we have nothing to hide", he said. The warden is allowed expenses, plus mileage as well

Cameo Tea Room sold, new owners Waterloo couple

A popular rendezvous of many Lindsay residents the Cameo Tea Room at Fenelon Falls will be in the hands of its new owners in a few weeks.

Jack Marshall, present owner and manager, told "The Post" that arrangements had been completed for the transfer of the property to Victor and Audrey Gingrich of Waterloo who will officially "take over" on the 11th of February.

The tea room was built in 1949 by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and has been operated by them ever since.

In 1957, a large dining room sufficient to hold 100 people was built to accommodate the ever-increasing number of clients.

Many local and out of town functions are held there and it is a favourite meeting place for many service clubs.

Mr. Marshall said he expected to go into the garage business in the near future.

One time Peterboro orchestra leader, Mr. Marshall already an accomplished pianist in later years concentrated on the Wurlitzer, and was soon in demand at many functions. He is especially fond of this type of music, he said, and hopes he will be able to devote more time to it.

Gwen Ballingal 1963 ONO president

Blackstock (PNS) — The January meeting of the O.N.O. Club was held at the home of Jean Kyte.

Retiring President Ruby Van Camp conducted the old business then turned the meeting over to the new president.

Officers for 1963 are: President-Gwen Ballingal; Vice President Edith McLaughlin; Secretary - Shirley Wheeler; Treasurer-Gwenyth Thompson Fruit and Flowers-Elaine Bailey; Press and Scrapbook-Eileen McLaughlin.

Donations of $25.00 each were given to T.B. Christmas Seals; Children's Aid; Retarded Children of Oshawa Branch and March of Dimes.

The members decided to work toward a special project this year.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her group. Twenty-four members were present.

Community Chest meeting to elect its '63 officers

Election of officers for the Community Chest for 1963 will be held in the Council Chambers next Wednesday night.

Campaign Chairman Harry MacDonald told "The Post" that campaign planning for the coming year, election of officers, and other general business will be discussed, "And a welcome goes out to everyone to attend", he added.

All requests were met in 1962 said Mr. MacDonald with the following organizations participating; Red Cross, C.N.I.B., Retarded Children, V. O. N. Salvation Army, and Girl Guides.

The target for 1963, $17,300 which was similar to 1961 was slightly exceeded, and operation costs were below the anticipated figure, he noted.

Walter Pitman among speakers at institute

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

SHOULD WOMAN SEEK A SECOND DOCTOR

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I am getting quite depressed and pretty frustrated. I had a hysterectomy about a year ago. I am still not well and bleed a little. They swear there is no malignancy, just a little place that hasn't entirely healed.

I was back in the hospital about six weeks for a repair job, but am still no better than before. I have tried several medications, some very expensive, but none helped.

I suppose I could consult another doctor, but I don't like the idea of going to new doctors. I would be greateful for any advice that would relieve my mind.—Mrs. R.

Comment: There is such a thing as leaning too far backwards where consultation is concerned. On the one hand are those patients who ride the medical merry-go-round in a perpetual search for the ideal doctor. Such impatient patients do themselves a disservice: they don't stay long enough with one doctor to give him a sporting chance to help.

However, there are patients like yourself who are too trusting. They stay with one doctor in spite of no evident improvement in their condition. They prefer to suffer rather than undergo the experience of having a new doctor look them over.

You can overdo this to your own detriment. There's no reason why you can't be a faithful patient—stick to your doctor—yet ask for another opinion.

Every patient who doesn't find the improvement he expects has the right to ask for a consultation. And if your doctor is the type who deserves all this confidence you place in him ,then he surely will not disagree in a request for consultation.

Ask him today. It will bring you peace of mind if nothing else.

WHIPLASH INJURY

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My husband sustained a whiplash injury six weeks ago while sitting in a parked car which was struck behind. He was hospitalized for a month, three weeks of which was spent in traction—15 pounds on the feet and four pounds on the neck. He has been receiving daily therapy in the outpatient department for the past two weeks: neck stretching and heat treatments.

He returned to work but is nearly crazy with the pain in his shoulders and neck. The muscles go into spasm when he reaches home and when I try to massage them they feel as hard as rock.

He was given every conceivable test and his doctor says there is nothing wrong except that X rays show arthritis of the spine (my husband is 53). There is no insurance involved, so you can be sure that this is in no way contributing to his trouble. Where do we go from here?—Mrs. J.

Comment: Whiplash injury is an indefinite term. It applies only to the cause: a sudden, jerky, whiplike motion of the head on the upper spine caused by a sudden crash. What is important is to determine the underlying injury.

Sometimes there is pain although no demonstratable injury can be found. At other times, as in your husband's case, the injury lights a fire under an old arthritis. In some cases other injuries have been more severe, with evidence of strains, torn ligaments and actual fractures of the vertebrae.

Six weeks is a long time for your husband, but in many cases too short a time for complete healing to take place. It is important that he be under the care of an experienced orthopedist and a good physical therapist. They will say "chin up" and provide measures to give him relief.

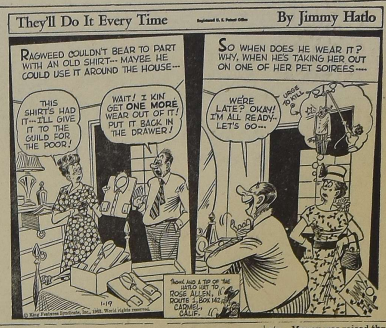
They'll Do It Every Time By Jimmy Hatlo



Mrs. Alex Taylor gives introduction to study book

Bethany (PNS) — At the meeting of the United Church Women held in the Sunday School Hall, Mrs. Alex Taylor gave the introduction to the new study book for the year's program. "The Rim of East Asia" and dealt with problems of the Church in Communist China and the surrounding area. She said "there are 38,000,000 people in this area seeking for a free way of life and a measure of security. They are in a state of political crisis and many complex problems. The church and the christianity it represents should stand ready to help. All men, regardless of race, color or creed are equally in need of Christ's redemption. We must learn about these people and from them. This book is an honest attempt to cover existing conditions and the problems confronting the Church and Missions."

Mrs. Herb Coppins had charge of the worship service with the theme "Teach Us To Number Our Days" and prayers for success in the New Year. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Walter Neals.

Mrs. Thomas Jennings presided for the business session. The Roll call was answered by payment of fees and the offering received by Mrs. Ralph Preston. Mrs. Addison Scott read the minutes of previous meeting and correspondence which included greetings from members holidaying in Florida and thanks from Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Speller for floral tribute for their daughter Gladys and from Mr. and Mrs. George Waddell for the gift received on the occasion of the Golden Wedding Anniversary and the assistance of the ladies in catering for their "At Home" reception. Mrs. Sam. Brown gave the financial report for the past year with total receipts of $972.51 and exenses of $662.35, with a bank balance of $310.16. Chief among the spendings were donation of $100.00 towards repairs of the church windows; $225.00 to Presbytery for the Missionary and Maintenance allocation; $45.00 to the Foster Parents Plan for support of the adopted child Sophia Pariksou in Greece; a new electric stove for the church kitchen, new railing and repairs in the Sunday School room and additional silverware for the church kitchen, gifts to sick and shut-ins, flowers for the Church and to the bereaved, donation to The House Of Four Seasons, program literature, etc. Money was raised through a Spring Tea and Bazaar, Garden Party, catering to Banquets and personal donations in lieu of the usual Fowl Supper. It was agreed to purchase some new chairs for the Sunday School and some new items for the church kitchen and to donate $100.00 to the Church Board to be used in payment of the debt on the heating system. An appeal for clothing and knitted goods for Indian school children in Alberta was read and members volunteered to assist with this. An announcement was made of the annual Congregational meeting and members of the U.C.W. will provide the lunch.

Following the benediction, lunch was served by Mrs. Carl Porteous ,Mrs. Ralph Preston, Mrs. Alex Taylor and Mrs. Ross Carr.

The Northeast Corner

by "the observer"

No man can place a higher, deeper, tender place in the hearts of all people, rich and poor, learned and simple, young and old, high and lowly, than that of the people's poet, Robert Burns, the immortal bard of Scotland.

Robert Burns was the eldest son of William and Agnes Burns. William Burns was a farmer of the north of Scotland, but reduced circumstances of the family compelled him to go to the south of Scotland where he worked as a gardener to support his parents in the north. In 1757 he married Agnes Brown and settled as a gardener on seven acres of land near Ayr.

In this humble and saintly little home a short distance from Alloway Kirk which Burn's poem "Tam O'Shanter" has rendered immortal, Robert the eldest of their five children was born Jan. 25th, 1759.

The family were always exceeding poor in the goods of this world, but they possessed a wealth of spiritual and intellectual blessings, commonly found in home circles in those early days. Burns himself has given us a beautiful account of this saintly home in his most beautiful poem, "The Cotter's Saturday Night". While the children were quite small the family lived by themselves, with no other companion than the saintly, devoted mother and their father, who was a true son of Scotland, shrewd and appreciative of the ways and motives of men, with a stubborn integrity and strength of will.

For the first six or seven years of Robert's life the father continued as a gardener to Mr. Ferguson, but foreseeing that his remaining there would necessitate his children leaving home early, he rented a small farm in order to keep them all at home as long as he could. Robert and Gilbert, his brother, at that time were sent to school. As children Gilbert was the more genial and popular. Robert was strong willed, but he was bright, had a retentive memory, was a splendid English student and soon master of the English grammar. The boys did not have the opportunity to attend school, very long or regularly. At the age of 13 they again attended a grammar session of the parish school for the improvement of their penmanship. The following summer Robert returned to review his Grammar and during the three weeks he was there he reviewed his English and accomplished much in the study of French. Later he took a short course in arithmetic and that was the extent of his school education. Their opportunities may seem limited to us but the boys were eager and ambitious and they received valuable instruction from their father, who was a splendid read and could write and knew a little in the science of arithmetic.

From his earliest childhood Robert took a deep delight in reading, and read all his father's books and all he could borrow from the schoolmaster and his many friends from the richer class with whom he had become quite familiar. He was very impressionable, and those books left a deep impression on his fancy. From the reading of the History of William Wallace a strong feeling of patriotism was inculcated on his mind.

Perhaps no circumstance of the poet's life had more influence in cultivating his tastes and imagination than the fact that in his early childhood a certain old woman named Jenny Wilson lived near his father's farm. This companionable, entertaining old lady, was remarkable for her ignorance, credulity and superstition and had the largest collection of songs, and tales concerning witches, ghosts, fairies, brownies, apparations, giants and dragons and every other aquit of darkness to be found in all Scotland, and took a delight in pouring these weird and blood curdling tales into the minds of all her listeners.

When Robert was 16 his father's kind benefactor died; trouble encompassed the family; the father was in feeble health so the burden of support fell upon Robert and his brother, but they arose to the occasion. They were good ploughmen and toiled on for two years until the freedom of the lease. Then they moved to another farm, where they lived happily for four years until trouble again assailed them.

In his 17th year Robert attended dancing school. This was a sore vexation to his father, but finally he yielded to allowing the other children to attend also. His 19th summer was passed on a smuggling coast and here began his dissipation. The next four years until he was 23 were spent at home reading his favorite books, working when he felt inclined and engaged in his favorite pursuit of poetry. He generally had three or four poems on hand at once and wrote on one or other as the mood suited him. His one lamentable failing was a lack of aim.

When he was 23 he joined a flax dealer to learn the trade, but through his carelessness his shop was burnt. He was left penniless, his family was in distress, his father was very weak and ill and soon death released him from his troubles. He died in 1784 leaving his family in very straightened circumstances.

Robert and Gilbert again rented a farm and Robert entered it with a zeal, reading farm journals and attending market, but the work was very distasteful to him, he went back to his poetry and finally decided to go to Jamaica, but waited to finish his poems. He sold them and arranged for a sturage passage and was preparing to go when he received a letter from Dr. Blackstock congratulating him and urging him to come to Edinburgh, where he would be strongly supported. As he was never very enthusiastic over the trip to Jamaica, he was very glad to follow this advice, and at once, in accordance with the usual impulsiveness set off for Edinburgh.

Robert was now a strong, robust man, 5 ft. 10 ins. in height. His height, general bearing and dark fiery eyes gave him a dignified commanding appearance. His manners were simple, manly and independent, rustic, yet not clownish. He dressed plainly, suitably and unpretendingly. He was free, dignified, fond of company, lively and good company himself, with a fluent, precise and original manner of speech, so he was treated with much flattery and hospitality everywhere he went. Indeed this adaptability proved his ruin for he mingled with some very questionable characters and joined in their excesses, morally and spiritually he was corrupted by these friendships but his understanding was not impaired. He estimated all his friends at their true value and saw his own danger and at times resolved to reform but dissipation had impaired his will.

In May 1787 after six or seven months spent in Edinburgh he left the city for a tour through the country on horseback. In June he visited his home and was warmly received by his mother and brothers and sisters. From thence he went on to the Highlands. In the autumn he returned to Edinburgh and again plunged into dissipation. In February 1778 he settled with his publishers and realized 500 pounds clear. He sent 200 pounds to his brother Gilbert to help support his mother and the family. With the remaining 300 pounds he bought a farm and also undertook the duties of exciseman. He then married Jean Armour. However his interest in farming was small as ever and after three years struggle with poverty and ill luck he gave up the farm and moved to Dunfries in 1791.

In Dunfries his celebrity was his ruin. He continued to write poetry, but his excesses in drink caused his death. He had great sensibility of nerves yet with a regular quiet life might have lived for years, but he drank so heavily his strength was quickly failing. He understood his weak condition and regretted his evils deeply, for his was ever a true, noble generous sour, but regret came too late. His strength rapidly gave way and he was so weak he was susceptible to disease and took a severe cold and rheumatism. His doctor's said if he could be saved for a time he might recover, and he did so desire to live, but it was all in vain. He suffered greatly in mind and body. His chief concern was for his kind and patient wife who always met him with a smile of encouragement and cheer. It is pitiable that the last moments of such a noble generous heart which was capable of such noble sentiments as came from his poetic pen, should be spent in distress and trouble.

In July 1796 the spirit of this great and gifted poet who will ever continue to be Scotland's pride, passed to its eternal peace.

If any who read this synopsis of the life of Burns would like some further interesting reading on his life I would suggest you try and get five books written by James Barke. They may now be out of print and difficult to purchase but these are the titles: The Wind That Shakes the Barley, The Song in the Green Thorn Tree; The Wonders of All the Gay World and The Well of the Silent

UCW sets date for picnic

Little Britain (PNS) — The January meeting of the Little Britain U.C.W. Group B, was held in the Church Basement.

The meetings opened by a hymn, followed by prayer and poem titled "New Year's Greeting".

Members joined as the roll was called and groups picked for 1963. Minutes of the Decem her meeting were read. A thank you card was read from Starr Nursing Home for Christmas gifts. The date for the Baby Band Picnic was set and delegates were picked to go to Fenelon Falls to the General Meeting. The business section closed.

Leona Mark and group took over the worship period. Mrs. Mark read the chapter on Okinawaw from Study Book "On Asias Rim", A hymn was sung followed by prayer by Miss Elva Gorrill. Mrs. Harvey Webster read the scripture and another hymn was sung. Miss Elva Gorrill read a poem "He Took Me In" and also an article entitled "What To Pray?" Offering was taken followed by a hymn. The meeting was closed by prayer.

Lunch was served by the group in charge and a sociable time spent.

MIGHT MEET SNELL

Jim Beatty—the fastest two mile runner in the world says there is a good possibility he might meet Peter Snell of New Zealand, the fastest in the mile, at Los Angeles in late May or early June. Beatty, whose two mile time is 8:29.8, said nothing has been confirmed but there will be negotiations to set up an invitational meet involving himself and Snell in the mile event.

MAY WEAR A NEW LOOK

The National Hockey League has a full slate of six games coming up this weekend. By the time Monday morning rolls around, the standings may be wearing a new look. Going into the weekend, the Chicago Black Hawks are bearing on to first place by a slim one point. The Canadiens moved into second place last night with a clutch, 6-4, win over the Maple Leafs at the forum. That gave the Canadiens a total of 49 points—one less than Chicago and one more than Toronto. The Detroit Red Wings—who keep hanging on—are in fourth place, just two points back of Toronto. New York is fifth with 31 points and Boston last with 26. Tonight the Canadiens entertain the Red Wings . . . Chicago is at Toronto in a big game . . . and the Rangers are in Boston to meet the Bruins. Sunday, the Canadiens travel to Boston . . . the Maple Leafs are in Detroit . . . and the Rangers visit Chicago.

IN BASEBALL

Prize bonus rookie Bob Bailey has signed a 1963 contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bailey is being counted on to take over the Pirate third base spot left vacant when Don Hoak was traded to Philadelphia.

Pitcher N. Bass became the fourth player to sign with the Kansas City Athletics.

In a speech in Boston former star T. Williams predicted first baseman Dick Stuart will hit between 35 and 40 home runs for the Red Sox this year.

Boston obtained Stuart in an off-season trade with Pittsburgh.

TO PLAY IN JAPAN

Bob Nieman—A 35-year-old veteran outielder of 11 major league seasons who recently obtained his outright release from the San Fracisco Giants—said Friday he is going to play baseball this year in Japan. Nieman has signed a contract to play with the Chunichi Dragons who play out of the City of Nagoya, a southern Japanese seaport.

Minor Hockey plays major role in arena activities

Minor Hockey plays a major role in arena activities as anyone will observe if they visit the recently revamped ice sports centre. With "Minor Hockey Week" just one week away, the multiple minor hockey leagues are in full swing. Some of the men behind the Minor Hockey movement are seen in the upper left hand picture. From left to right they are: Recreation Directory Harry Johnson and league officials Gordon Abercrombie, Thos. McLean and Ernest Crossley. In the picture immediately below them some of the young hockey players refresh themselves at the S & M Vending machines operated by Sam and Milton Bland of the Grand Hotel, Lindsay. The two pictures in the centre show a fast-moving minor game in progress. No sooner has the puck been dropped at centre ice (top) than play moves is on the south end goal (bottom). The two pictures on the right show some of the trophies the teams are competing for, many of which have been donated by locals of trade unions represented in Lindsay industries.

John Eakins planners' choice to head the 1963 board

Lindsay businessman John Eakins was named chairman for 1963 at the inaugural meeting of the Lindsay Planning Board Thursday night.

Reluctance on the part of some of the members to take over the duties of the chairman for the year restricted the choice of nominees.

Chairman James McQuarrie declined, owing to business pressure and Guy Mills felt the position called for a more experienced man, so when Mr. Eakins was nominated by the Mayor, all members immediately agreed to the appointment.

Present in addition to the new chairman were two other new members, L. Blakely and Alex McLaren.

Fred Young, making up the balance of the Board, was absent through illness.

No new business was transacted during the evening, only a review of the duties of the Planning Board for the benefit of the new members.

Secretary D. Tofflemire stated that last year there had been 12 regular meetings, four special, two public, and 12 committee meetings.

"Week of Prayer" services held in Fenelon Falls

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — The "Week of Prayer" with the theme "One Increasing Purpose" was observed in Fenelon Falls starting where the ministers in the village churches exchanged pulpits. In the evening a mass service was held in the Salvation Army Citadel when the message was given by Mr. Edward Polter of the Immanuel Baptist Church with special music by the Band and Songsters of the Salvation Army.

The service was held in the Baptist Church one evening with Rev. E.G. MacDonald giving the message. The next night Rev. M.C. Fisher brought a message "One Lord" in St. James Anglican Church. The services continued throughout the week in Immanuel Baptist Church when the speaker was the Rev. Geo. Bell, whose subject was "One Mission", and a service was held in the United Church when the message was given by the Rev. James Harrison who spoke on "One Kingdom". The concluding service was held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The speaker was Captain Townsend who spoke on "One Hope". Special music was contributed by the choir, with Miss Vivian Baker presiding at the organ.

The services were well attended with the minister of the church where the service was held presiding and special musical messages also given by the hostess church.

Unaware fish were spoiled, retrieves them

Spoiled fish, sold to two stores one, in Lindsay and one in Omemee - - was retrieved by the fish salesman before being eaten by any customer.

Police say that as soon as it became known the fish were bad, the salesman returned to the stores to pick them up. The Lindsay store had not sold any of the fish but reportedly five Omemee customers had purchased some. One of these had noticed the frozen fish was not good as it thawed out.

Purchasers were contacted, the fish collected and possible trouble averted. The salesman for this area is reported to have been in the business five years and stated he was unaware the frozen fish were spoiled.

Bexley reeve charges:

Led up the garden path on winter works project

Something wrong somewhere, he tells county councillors; cites misinformation received

Reeve Cameron of Bexley Township says he is disappointed and annoyed at officials in charge of the federal government's Winter Works program which is designed to give employment to men in the winter months rather than have them idle until the spring approaches. He has intimated he feels he has been "led up the garden path" by government officials.

"Months ago I applied for work for men in the township ship and was told that as a provincial road is to be built on what is known as the base line road, several men would be needed along this route this winter to do the fencing and help line up the road. This has not been done and now I am told that I should have made proper application. This is ridiculous, said Reeve Cameron "I did apply but no work has started on the base line as yet".

Reeve Cameron also said there are men in the township willing and ready to work. "Somethings is wrong somewhere", he said.

The popular aggressive Bexley reeve said he approached Mr. Hodgson, M.P., regarding the work, but apparently all work in the vicinity is going over to the Monk Road. "It's not right and I would like to know what is behind the idea and why the promise to me is not being carried out."

NOTICED . . along the way

This is the kind of weather when a good square meal is hard to come by for much of the local bird population but more and more people are taking an interest in their welfare. A feeding station set up close to the house provides a few interesting moments diversion watching the birds flock in for the daily feed. First settling in a nearby tree or on a telephone line, they survey the feeder and, having assured themselves it's a safe spot to have lunch, swoop down for the feast. The custom of feeding the birds is giving birth to a thriving bird seed industry. About a week's supply for the average visiting flock runs just over half a dollar at the local grocery.

Several pileups

Two Lindsay men hurt in separate accidents

Two Lindsay men were hospitalized over the weekend following two separate car accidents, one a passenger, and the other a driver.

Charles Thornton, 17, of Lindsay was admitted to the Ross Memorial Hospital Saturday evening suffering from a fractured right arm when the car in which he was riding went out of control, striking three parked cars.

Investigating OPP Const. G. Lee said that the vehicle driven by Albert Thurston, of Dunsford, went out of control in the village of Downeyville.

The Thurston car was a write-off, said the officer, and total damage was estimated at about $1,000.

The other hospitalized man, Frank Hutton, 53, of Lindsay, was the driver of a car that came in contact with a vehicle driven by James W. Shosenberg of Fenelon Falls.

Investigating OPP Const. R. B. McGregor said the accident happened around 10 a.m. Sunday about 3 miles north of the lights on highway No. 35.

Hutton was treated for scalp cuts, and fractured ribs.

EDITORIAL....

ONE STRAYING SHEEP . . .

One straying sheep doesn't provide reason for labelling the whole flock black and yet something like this has been taking place and should be nipped in the bud. We refer, to the fact that whenever a young person enrolled at the LCI runs afowl of the law while not at school or on school business, their name is almost invariably linked with the school when they appear in court. It used to be the custom a few years ago to make great capital of the fact that a priest or minister tangled with the law; when a veteran of the armed forces got into trouble, their association with the service was generally dragged in, and so forth. The association of these people with a school, profession, or service, lends nothing to the story, but only tends to smear the whole group. Viewed in this light, it is really unfair to the others to link them with one straying sheep and imply that because of the association, they are all black.

WOULDN'T WE BE IN A MESS IN THE EVENT OF A REAL, FULL-BLOWN EMERGENCY?

In the light of all the confusion which arose as a result of an incident in a local hotel last week, wouldn't we be in a mess in the event of a real, full-blown emergency? Consider it for a moment . . . The Victoria County Medical Society lists an emergency medical service in the telephone directory in which those in trouble (in Lindsay only) are advised to call the hospital when their own doctor isn't available. The Ross Memorial Hospital, disclaiming any such arrangement, turns around and tells the public "If you need a doctor, call a doctor: Do Not Call The Hospital! The situation is bound to lead to confusion, especially among strangers or those who have not been following this situation and take the phone directory instructions as gospel.

Last week Victoria County Council considered taking further steps toward setting up an effective Emergency Measures Organization unit. Such an organization could play a valuable role in co-ordinating medical-hospital services in this area, need of which is paparent in the light of recent developments. Contrary to a popular misconception, EMO isn't restricted in its scope to preparing the people to meet the emergency of war. It has an effective civil service to offer too.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 21, 1913

Today is the opening of the Lindsay Poultry Show at the Market and it looks like a record breaker. Since early this morning teams and sleighs have been bringing in loads of poultry, and already most of the coops are filled. Only birds of high quality have been exhibited, and their fine appearances will make a lasting impression on these interested in the best stock. The directors have had a busy time, but their careful arrangements for this large show have simplified distributions, of the poultry to the proper coops, and made things run smoothly. At the present moment there have been more than one hundred entries in excess of last year. Tomorrow night at the town hall, Mr. Marvellus, of Guelph, will give a practical address on poultry that will be of great value to those connected or interested in that branch of agriculture.

JANUARY 21, 1938

The county road rate for the year 1938 will be 3.4 mills, it was decided at a meeting of the Roads and Bridges Committee of the county council. While this rate of 3.4 mills is an increase of .4 mills over 1937 the amount of money collected will be approximately the same because of the decrease in the assessment of the county.

Road Subsidy

The Department of Highways will be requested to increase the provincial subsidy for county roads from 50 to 60 percent by the county council. Reeve George Parkin of Fenelon Township stated that he had sponsored a motion last year that the subsidy for township roads be increased and the resolution bore fruit. He suggested they try again this year. The council voted in favor of the resolution.

"Speech is silver, silence is golden", says the old saw.

If ever man put this little proverb to a test it is Real Caouette, the Little Corporal from Quebec who only recently talked his way into the leadership of Quebec's Social Credit party, and now is talking his way out again.

A few months ago Real revealed his true political leanings when he told about his admiration of Hitler and Mussolini. This week he revealed himself more fully when he intimated that Canada should really have a Master Race.

The talkative Caouette complained in an interview that French Canadians are not too well treated . . . "They are treated in the same manner as Ukrainians, Poles, Germans and Jews . . . while actually the confederate past was concluded by French Canadians and English Canadians. There was a pact between the Anglo-Saxo and the Latin cultures. The Ukrainians, the Poles, the Jews and the others were not there."

"It's really terrible when French-Canadians are being treated like Ukrainians!

There seems to be something very sick about a man who would openly advcocate "better" treatment (whatever he means by that of one group or class of people in country where class distinction and discrimination are generally unknown.

The Ukrainians, the Poles, the Germans and the Jews should remember Caouette's statements when the next election comes around. —Carillon News.

Edward H. Burgess

Edward Houghton Burgess, of 52 Queen St., Lindsay, passed away at the Ross Memorial Hospital on January 7, 1963 after an illness of three months. The deceased was in his 84th year.

Born in Verulam Township, the deceased was the son of the late Susannah and John Burgess and was the husband of Katie May Stewart, who survives him. He had resided in Lindsay for the past eight years and before moving here had resided in Dunsford and was a member of Queen Street United Church.

Besides his wife the deceased is survived by one daughter Velma (Mrs. E.F. Staples) of Lindsay; one son, Orville, of Dunsford and one sister Charlotte (Mrs. J.C. Chapman) of Victoria, B.C. He was predeceased by the following brothers and sisters, Annie (Mrs. J. Kennedy) of Kinmount, Francis (Mrs. Wm. Brown) of Bobcaygeon, Lizzie (Mrs. J. J. Robertson) of Dunsford, Edith (Mrs. C.P. Campbell) of Toronto, William, of Omemee, George, of Lindsay, Jack, of Carman, Saskatchewan and Earnest, of Dunsford.

The funeral was held on January 9th from the Mackey Funeral Home, Lindsay at 1 p.m. Rev. B. Garrett, of Queen Street United Church, Lindsay, conducted the service and interment was in Dunsford Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Delmar Robertson, Earnest Burgess, Ivan Stewart, George Brown, Karl Weyrich and James Bryant.

CACTI INTERESTING HOUSE PLANTS

Succulents store moisture in their tissues and thus can withstand long periods of drought. Cacti are succulents and are widely known for their oddity of form. Because they withstand, well, the warm, dry air of modern homes, horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture recommend watering only wen the soil appears bone dry. Shriveled or unhealthy looking plants are usually the result of too much water rather than too little. While growing and flowering they require more water than at other times.

Cacti are a slow growing, long living, and need repotting only every two or three years. A good soil mixture is equal parts of potting soil and sharp sand. To help the plants bloom place in a bright location where they will receive plenty of light during the winter months. Most cacti in full growth benefit from an application of weak fertilizer unless recently repotted.

If you want to grow cacti from seed; fill a 5 inch flower pot to one half inch from the top with the potting mixture, drop in the seeds, and cover lightly with fine soil. Place in a warm room 70 - 80 degrees F. covering the pot with glass to help keep the surface moist. As the seedlings grow, gradually remove the glass, when they are large enough transplant into small pots.

Far From Moist Creation

Occasionally, despite the best intentions, Christmas Fruit Cake is not carefully wrapped for future long term storage. The result, once the festivities are but a pleasant memory, is dry, and far from the rich, moist confection it is meant to be. The happy solution to what otherwise might be a sad waste is to convert it into a delectable pudding. Place the "dried" fruit cake in the top part of a steamer or double boiler, cover it tightly, and heat over boiling water one or two hours. , the time will depend on the size of the cake. bout half way through the cooking period, slowly pour over the cake one-half to one cup of heated liquid — apple or grape juice or sweet wine. Serve the pudding steaming hot with softly whipped cream, chilled custard sauce or hot lemon sauce.

In Memoriam

BLAIR — In loving memory of a dear son, Bernard Paul who passed away Jan. 21, 1953.
Sheltered by the rock of ages,
Anchored on the golden shore.
In the loving arms of Jesus
He is safe forevermore.
To all the world he was only one,
But all the world to me, my son.
Sadly missed by mommy. (H9869)

In Memoriam

BLAIR — In loving memory of a dear nephew Bernard Paul who passed away Jan. 21, 1953.

Chickenpox tops child diseases here in '62

The duties of Public Health Nurse Ethel Lowe in 1962 included 1018 home visits. Other activities as subjected in her annual report to the Lindsay Board of Health were: Well baby clinics - 43 with an attendance of 207; school visits - 260; dental appointments, 545; vision examinations, grades 2, 4, 6, 8, all schools, 72 (all correctible); minor first aid - 241.

The report also listed two cases of whooping cough, 1,397 TB re-tests and 176 new tests.

Those taking oral vaccine included 1,355 adults and 2,225 pupils with 643 consent forms. There were 148 cases of chickenpox, 72 of measles, 87 of mumps, two whooping cough, nine impetigo, two conjunctivitis, one ringworm, one infectious hepatitis.

The number of pre-school examinations (at time of registration) 224.

Sweep!

Three Lindsay rinks were eliminated in the annual competition for the district in connection with the Governor-General's trophy, which is open to the Province. Skip Murray Davis was defeated in the preliminary playdowns, leaving skips Ken. Bailey and John McCrae to meet rinks from Cobourg and Bancroft. In the first game Lindsay defeated Cobourg but Lindsay then lost to two rinks from Bancroft. The latter rinks will move on to the next round.

Higher Library Co-op grant referred for further study

A request that the Victoria County Co-Operative Library grant be increased from $5,500 to $7,000 has been referred for further study by county council.

Reeve Lawrence Cunningham (Bobcaygeon) favored the increase which he said was necessitated by more work involved in distribution, travelling by the librarian, the recommendation for another permanent staff member and the need of larger accommodation.

Deputy-reeve Gardie Grasden (Somerville) thought it was time to call a halt to some grants. Reeve Robert Cammack (Laxton, Digby, Longford) agreed and favored a grant of $6,000.

The request for the $7,000 figure was referred back to the finance committee for further study with an interim grant of $6,000.

The request for the $7,000 figure was referred back to the finance committee for further study with an interim grant of $3,000 being made.

DISPUTES DEMANDS

The Soviet News Agency Tass has disputed American demands for more on-site nuclear test ban inspections in Russia beyond those suggested by Premier Khrushchev. Tass claims they are "altogether unnecessary". The claim came in a report from New York describing American reaction to a just-published exchange of letters on the subject between President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev. Khrushchev had offered to permit up to three on-site inspections in Russia, saying he would also let two or three monitoring devices be set up on Soviet soil. His offer raised Amercian hopes for a nuclear test ban accord. President Kennedy said he was "encouraged," but he said more inspections would be needed.

REELECTS ULBRICHT

The East German Communist pary has reelected Walter Ulbricht as its leader. Delegates to the party congress in Berlin re-named him first secretary of the party's central committee in the last session of their six-day meeting this morning. The position is the nation's highest post.

CONFERS PRIVATELY

Chancellor Adenauer conferred privately with President De Gaulle in Paris this morning-the first of a series of talks over the next three days. The conference is expected to end with the signing of a formal Franco-German pact. As for De Gaulle's veto on Britain's entry into the Common Market-a German spokesman says a compromise is possible.

RESUMES TODAY

Canada's 25th parliament resumes today with nuclear policies the major issue of the moment. However, both the Conservatives and the Liberals appear to be confused by their respective policies. The Conservative administration of Prime Minister Diefenbaker over-rode opposition by the young Progressive-Conservative wing in backing a go-slow policy.

THERE IS HOPE

External Affairs Minister Howard Green says the contents of notes exchanged by President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev indicate there is hope for an end to nuclear testing. Green declined to reveal the contents of either note but added: "There is some hope in this field."

NO SIGNS

British Columbia's radical Freedom Doukhobor sect shows no signs of leaving Vancouver. Some 800 of them moved into the city from a summer church camp at Hope, B.C. last week and they have kept their future plans secret. One report said they plan to enroll their children in Vancouver schools but this was denied by another Freedomite spokesman.

Juveniles defeat Midgets 7-1 in one-sided warm-up game

Lindsay Juveniles tuned up for their big game tomorrow night when they defeated Peterborough All-Star Midgets 7-1 at the Kiwanis Arena Friday evening. To-morrow evening they are slated to meet Uxbridge Juniors in an all-out test for the local lads.

Lindsay goalie Wayne Jackett had a shut-out cooking for fifty-nine minutes and eight seconds Friday night, only to see the goose-egg break in the last minute of play. Lindsay led 3-0 at the end of the first period, added three in the second then tapered off with a single goal in the third. The seven Lindsay goals were shared by six of Lew Jr.'s sharpshooters with Ray McCabe being the two-goal man. The other five marksmen included Don Bewery, Wayne McLeish, Paul McCabe, Gord Frocking, and Ron Pillsworth. Jim Spencely from Gary Foster were the only names on the Peterborough side of the goal sheet.

After each team was tagged with four penalties a side in the first period, the home team settled down getting one penalty at the end of the second period, and one late in the third. Peterborough however picked up four more penalties in the second period and three in the third for a total of eleven. Colin Ingham was tagged with five of the minors. Gord Frocking collected three minors for Lindsay.

Double Header

To-morrow evening the Lindsay Midgets and the Lindsay Juveniles are going all out in an attempt to get a crowd out to see their heads-up hockey. This attempt takes the shape of a double-header at the Kiwanis Arena starting at seven p.m.

Lindsay Legion Midgets start the action when they take on Lakefield Midgets and may be putting their six win, two loss and one tie record on the line. Lindsay Juveniles who now have won five of their six starts will be really sticking their necks out when they tackle Uxbridge Juniors. This game is slated for nine p.m. local and district hockey fans will be in for two exciting games Tuesday evening.

Crown Attorney L. Jordan informed "The Post" today, that an inquest into the death of 10-year-old Joean Cowen of Haliburton, will be held in Haliburton, Thursday, January 31st.

An inquest will also be held in Minden, February 7th., into the death of a 62-year-old Port Perry man Herkiless Barry.

The 10-year-old girl was killed January 8th while playing in the yard of the Lakeview Public School in Haliburton.

She slid down an embankment into the path of a bus entering the school to discharge school children.

Mr. Barry was killed December 10 near Minden in a two car head-on collision.

Motion to equalize historical grants is turned down

A motion to have grants to the Victoria County and Fenelon Falls historical societies equalized was turned down by Victoria County Council.

Reeve M. Elliott of Fenelon Falls introduced a motion to have the grants equalized at $500 apiece. Three motions in all were introduced before one carried setting the grants at $500 for the Victoria County Historical Society and $300 for Fenelon Falls.

Reeve's aim

Best organized, best dressed, best paid

"The Board of Works employees would become not only the best organized but best paid and best dressed organizations in Lindsay, was one of my first aims", Works Chairman Reeve Lloyd Found told a dinner meeting of the Lindsay and District Labor Council Saturday.

"Our minimum wage rate is now $70 per week with fringe benefits, etc., and we are now doing uniform laundry — we think we are using these people very good."

"The council is very sympathetic to the union for Board of Works men and I think negotiations should be carried on in this way between council and these employees", he said.

Fire leaves elderly man homeless at Fen. Falls

A fire, believed to have been caused by overheated stove-pipes, left one of Fenelon Falls oldest residents--Norman Kelly --homeless Sunday.

A witness to the fire--Gordon Vallant--told 'The Post' he was walking down the highway on his way to Lindsay around 11:00 a.m. when he saw smoke coming from the Kelly home.

On investigating, he found Mr. Kelly, clad only in a shirt and pants trying to put out the fire by throwing snow on it.

Mr. Vallant immediately called two neighbours--E. Miller and Jack Lambert--who took Mr. Kelly to Mr. Lambert's home.

Mr. Kelly, who lost everything in the fire, is staying at the Lambert home and receiving assistance from the Salvation Army until such time other accomodation can be found.

Acting Fire Chief Fred Brandon, said the home, a one-room cottage, was completely destroyed.

Weed spray tank overflows, fluid fatal to goslings

A county road accident which resulted in the death of seven goslings and cost the county in compensation of $2.50 per bird was included in the annual report of the County Road System given county council Engineer Harold D. Wilford.

Waters of the county road creek, north of Fox's corners had become poisoned when a weed spray tank had overflowed in filling with water there. As a result the goslings, belonging to Mrs. William Burley and swimming there met their death. Satisfactory total compensation of $17.50 was made between a county official and the owner it was learned.

Says purpose to educate men to hold office

Purpose of the Lindsay and District Labor Council School held Saturday and Sunday was to educate members of labor unions to hold office and to encourage them to do so.

In making the above explanation, Vice - President Frank Brett said "only when a large percentage of members in turn hold office, is their union on a truly democratic basis. Any other way it would be malfunctioning and revert into a sort of clique".

Course leaders included: Larry Wagg, representative Education Department, and Thomas H. Ward, Director of Federations and Councils, both of the Canadian Labor Congress; Jas. P. Dowell, National Union of Public Service Employees; Mrs. Marjorie Pinney, originator of the New Democratic Party.

Mr. Brett acted as chairman for the school. Labor Council President Pete Stevens was banquet chairman.

Skids into bridge

Herbert Miller, 46, of Brougham, was the driver of a car that went out of control near Kirkfield just south of highways 46 and 505 Saturday around noon.

Investigating OPP Const. J. Plumtree said the vehicle skidded into a bridge abutment causing total damages of about $500.

There were no injuries.

Board's action is but $5,000 fair

"Lindsay Central Fair is a good institution and I favor a grant for 1962 but not this special grant of $5,000 and the reason is that I am not satisfied with the way patrons were treated on Saturday, the last day of the fair" said Reeve Campbell of Woodville. "The fair board upped the admission price at the gate and charged more for parking cars" said the Woodville Reeve.

Other councillors agreed but Reeve R. Cammack of Laxton set wheels in motion for the continuance of the special grant when he said the fair board went in the hole last year over $9,000 because of bad weather. The board needs the money to pay off another $5,000 on the new grandstand. The outstanding debt on the grandstand is now $11,000."

Reeves Campbell of Woodville and Cameron of Bexley moved that the grant be reduced to $2500.

Clerk Weldon stated that a gentleman's agreement was entered into five years ago by the council to contribute $30,000 by making a grant of $5,000 each year.

Chairman Reeve Found of the finance committee gave figures showing that the fair board has had a deficit for the past five years.

Councillors agreed with Deputy-Reeve Finney of Lindsay that the fair was actually a county institution, a real agricultural fair and deserved support.

Reeve Morrison of Mariposa heartily supported the motion.

Grant is protested grant passes

Reeve Cammack added that the directors of the fair serve without any renumerations.

Replying to Reeve Cameron, the Reeve Shersby Currins of Ops said he had heard that the hospital governors wanted to secure land from the fair board in order to expand the hospital. "The governors are a little late. They should have built the hospital to the west of Angeline Street when they could have purchased the land.

Reeve Kennedy: "Hospital Administrator Freeborn says new land is required to build an addition to the north of the present building and that the land occupied by the nurses residence would not be desirable for a new building."

The motion for a grant of $2,500 was lost and the motion for $5,000 was carried.

Musical Ride may feature 1963 fair

There is a possibility that the colourful Royal Canadian Mounted Police will be the main attraction at the 1963 Lindsay Exhibition it was learned today.

Manager N. Wilson told "The Post" that following correspondence with the various government departments regarding the ride, word had been received from Commissioner Director M.F.A. Lindsay asking exact dates, accommodation, etc., in order that an itinerary can be drawn up.

Your Government is ever on guard against the resurgence of any factors that might cause Tuberculosis to become rampant once again.

Dymond Discusses Health in Ontario

On Guard Against Tuberculosis

Matthew B. Dymond, MD, CM.
Ontario Minister of Health

One of the important methods we have of obtaining information about the presence of tuberculosis is the tuberculin skin test. This simple, safe test is now widely used to determine whether a person might have been infected with the tuberculosis germ at some time in the past. A positive reaction does not mean that actual disease is necessarily present. Actually only a small percentage of infected people do develop actual tuberculosis. The value of the test is twofold; it enables us to get an idea as to the extent of the tuberculosis problem in the community, and of more importance, where to look for the actual disease.

In the early years of the present century almost everyone, by the time they reached middle life, had been infected with tuberculosis germs. As late as 1923 approximately 50% of high school students in one representative community showed the presence of previous tuberculosis infection, as a result of tuberculin skin testing. This illustrates the well-nigh universal extent of the problem at that time.

As a result of improved methods of treatment due to the anti-tuberculosis drugs and the extensive search for unsuspected infectious cases carried on by means of a wide variety of special case finding programmes, there has been a dramatic drop in the prevalence of tuberculous infection in our population. Many organizations, co-operating with the Department of Health, are participating in this drive to eliminate tuberculosis. At the present time less than 20% of our population has been infected. Nevertheless, this represents over 1,000,000 people, or approximately 1 in every 5 persons in Ontario.

According to the World Health Organization, tuberculosis may be considered to be reasonably controlled when young people at the age of 14 or 15 years show only 1% who have been infected. At the present time it would appear that approximately 4% of our youth at this age show the presence of tuberculous infection acquired at some time previously. While in certain areas the percentage is considerably lower than this, in others it is higher.

Success is sometimes accompanied by danger, and this is true of our present situation. The fact that such a large percentage of our population is free of tuberculosis infection means that they have never developed acquired resistance as a result of exposure to tuberculosis. Consequently they are susceptible to infection. This is especially so in the case of children and adolescents. The introduction of an unsuspected case of infectious tuberculosis into such a group might well have serious consequences, with an outbreak of tuberculosis of epidemic nature. We have seen isolated incidences of this, not only in Ontario, but elsewhere in Canada. It is extremely important, therefore, to maintain our control procedures at a high level. A complacent attitude only creates a false sense of security. As your Minister of Health I urge all of our citizens to co-operate whole-heartedly in maintaining our defences against tuberculosis by taking an active part in the various preventive programmes being carried out in the Province.

County councillors defend right of taxpayers outside municipality to hold seats and express opinions

Members of Victoria County Council have agreed that taxpayers in any municipality are entitled to express their opinions, take part in municipal matters and fill seats in municipal council if elected by the people, no matter where their place of abode happens to be.

Reeve Leslie Rea (Eldon) and Reeve Edward Murphy (Carden) stated that no one objected to cottage owners holding seats on their councils but those outside property owners should realize their responsibility to the general taxpayers.

It was thought these summer residents should not dominate control of councils by their numbers. It was suggested as the number of summer cottagers from outside the townships has increased by hundreds, these municipalities should receive a per capita allowance from some source.

In answer to a query, Clerk F. L. Weldon stated that an elected reeve or deputy-reeve, in his opinion, could not be disqualified from council due to absence from meetings.

If, however, a member of other municipal councils missed three meetings in a row, he would be liable to the penalty of disqualification.

Reference was made to the absence of Deputy-reeve Russell Doyle, a cottager, is a permanent resident of Toronto.

Noticed

while skating in her back yard, fractured her right leg above the ankle and has been off school ever since. She expects to be able to return in a few days time. Some people complain about not getting the breaks, other get breaks they just as soon didn't come their way.

• • •

Those who haven't already done so, might consider including a trip to the summer cottage in this snow belt area any day now . . . The snow is piling up these days and so is the pressure on roofs which haven't been cleared.

• • •

The Victoria County weed inspector's major worry may soon be over. Reporting on his problems at the January session of county council, he told members the worst offenders regarding noxious weeds are the two railway companies. At the rate services are being curtained and lines dismantled in this area, his troubles may soon be at an end. Too bad to lose a good scapegoat like that, too, their getting hard to come by these days. But it's really a wonder the railways were able to stand the gaff as long as they did . . . They've been blamed for just about everything under the sun: setting fires, fouling up television reception, fogging up the laundry, encouraging bad weeds and making too much noise, to mention but a few of their alleged shortcomings.

Sculptress will address Guild, exhibit work

The Lindsay Art Guild has arranged a meeting of double interest for Wednesday evening next at the Lindsay Collegiate library when the sculptress Dora de Pederey Hunt will address the audience, and an exhibition of paintings will be on view.

Mrs. Hunt, R.C.A., was born in Budapest, Hungary, and came to Canada in 1948. She has exhibited widely in Canada and abroad, and is represented in the National Gallery of Canada, the Art Gallery of Toronto and in private collections. She has been admitted as a member of the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts, as a sculptor. The artist will bring a few pieces of work with her for exhibition.

The exhibition of eight or nine paintings, are by the late William St. Thomas Smith, A. R. C. A. and his friend Curtis Williamson. Dr. Smith was awarded an L.L.D. by University of Western Ontario for his painting, and is renowned for his marine subjects. These fine paintings were secured through the courtesy of Don McGillivray of the Collegiate staff who is a grandson of Dr. Smith.

Faced with crisis at Lindsay, government should recognize its responsibility — Pitman

"You are faced with a crisis here in which the government should recognize its responsibility." So declared Walter Pitman in reference to the arsenal closure and unemployment which has to be faced by 130 employees as of March 31st. Mr. Pitman, former New Democratic Party member (Peterboro) was adressing the annual dinner meeting of the Lindsay and District Labor Council at the Legion Hall, Saturday evening.

Continuing, Mr. Pitman told the 44-member attendance, "surely the government will look at the situation and recognize the human values at stake. Unemployment is not economic justice - people have a right for a job day by day. Recent suggested changes to the unemployment insurance system are not to get rid of unemployment but to make more people pay into the system. This means people working are keeping people not working, and this is not right justice.

"Surely it is not justice that three-quarters of the world's population go to bed hungry every night when $135 million per day is spent on arms of war. Surely people of the future will be shocked with this record and today's problems of unemployment and others such as cancer", he emphasized.

"We are not doing as much for the people as the Poor Law of 400 years ago. We are doing very little to re-train people for other jobs when they are forced into unemployment due to the inroads of automation and through no fault of their own. In 1563, in England, serious unemployment resulted when farmers enclosed their fields, filled them with sheep and reduced each farm's workers by 40 to 50. Pillage resulted - those out of work stole what they thought they should have. The Poor Law was passed forcing the people who had to contribute to the maintenance of those who had not. There was no recognition that the people were put out of work, not as their own fault but as a result of change. Perhaps a member of parliament said then, the people didn't want to work anyway.

The Poor Law was merely to stop stealing and give the poor a pittance to keep them alive, and attempt to maintain a "status quo".

"How much farther have we gone in this age? We talk of our transportation going to the moon, missiles, automation, etc., in comparison to travelling on foot, fighting with swords and methods of 400 years ago. But how far have we progressed into a more just and happy state? We are not doing as much as the Poor Law of 400 years ago.

"I have received more spiritual value in attending the meetings of the Labor Council than in religious services. You in the labor movement have tried to put forward the ideals of society. Labor is concerned in remedying unemployment, proper medical care for everyone and care for the need. That is where labor has had to become interested in politics.

"The interests of the labor movement are not selfish but in such forgoing high ideals of economic justice for all. This makes the labor movement strong, virile and effective.

"Don't lose sight of these ideals in trying to look after the affairs of your daily work.

It is hoped that in the next few years, the ideals and efforts of the labor movement will help overcome the grave economic injustices of the present", he summed up.

Fenelon Falls-Bobcaygeon road revamping starts this year

Victoria County Council has been advised that work will probably start on revamping the Fenelon-Falls-Bobcaygeon road this year. In passing along the information to council, Engineer F. R. Wilford said the work would entail hill-cutting, straightening and widening. The road allowance is to be increased from 60 to 100 feet with the county acquiring the additional right-of-way.

Motion Carries

Reeve Boyd Austin's motion that a grant of $500 be made to Somerville Township in lieu of expenditures made yearly on the road leading to the county forest was approved.

Authorize Expenses

Council decided to authorize the expenses of the warden for attendance at the Good Roads Convention. An allowance of $25 each was approved for councillors attending.

Turned Down

Council turned down a request from Hastings County that the provincial and federal governments increase the amount for Winter Work programs.

Reject Resolution

A resolution from Grey County asking support of the idea of compulsory insurance on all motorists with a minimum of $100,000 liability was voted down.

Request Grant

Carl Hepburn and C. J. Begley of Fenelon Falls requested a grant for the Fenelon Falls Historical Society. Mr Hepburn stating that the organization purchased property and a building a year ago and although it was not advertised some 1000 persons showed their interest by inquiring or joining the association, the fee being very low. The museum is woned, operated and controlled by the municipality.

Treated for cuts

Michael O'Laughlin, 21, of R. R. 2, Lindsay, was admitted to the Ross Memorial Hospital early Sunday morning and treated for minor lacerations and released.

The cause of his injuries have not yet been dtermined.

A one-car accident at the corners of Durham and Lorne Streets is still under investigation by Const. J. Henley of the Lindsay Police Department.

Cannington UCW executive installed

Cannington (PNS) — The work of the United Church Women got off to a good beginning for 1963 as 36 ladies met in the church school room to enjoy a full program.

The president, Mrs. Scott Brandon, opened the meeting by reading 'What is time' and prayer. After singing of a hymn Mrs. Leabody gave a reading. Mrs. Al Lovering chose Romans as the Scripture lesson and Mrs. James Patton gave a fine commentary. Mrs. Clarence Wright sang very sweetly 'Will your anchor fold', followed by prayer by Mrs. Chas. McPhaden.

The offering was received and dedicated.

After singing "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life" a fine address was given by Miss Frances Nancekievill. Miss Nancekievill spoke of the necessity of recruitment of many young people in training of the ministry, of which Mr. Ross Drew was one. She spoke of the help given in decision by caravaning and camps. Miss Nancekievill also spoke of the work being done in the local congregation by the four units widening the fellowship and opportunity to work. Rev. C. R. Wragg led in prayer.

Mrs. Fred Kay read a prayer prepared by a missionary.

Reports of Secretaries were given showing $1323.41 sent to Presbytery and $1323.41 raised for the Cannington United Church.

Rev. Mr. Wragg installed the 1963 executive as follows: President-Mrs. Scott Brandon; Vice Presidents-Mrs. Frank Farewell, Mrs. Jack Pipher; Recording Secretaries - Mrs. Charles McPhadden, Mrs. A. Grills; Cor. Secretary-Mrs. J. E. Roberts; Treasurer-Mrs. Mack Johnson; Christian Citizenship and Social Service-Mrs. Nelson Purvis; Community Friendship and Visiting-Mrs. G. Woodward; Co-operation in Christian and Missionary Education-Mrs. Ross Found; Finance-Mrs. Hazel Huxtable; Flower-Mrs. Clarence Wright; Literature and Communication-Mrs. S. Eastman; Manses-Mrs. Nathan Grills; Membership-Mrs. Lloyd Beatty; Nominations-Miss Florence Nancekievill; Periodicals-Mrs. Fred Kay; Press and Publicity-Mrs. Frank Myers; Program-Mrs. Viola Carter; Socials Function-Mrs. Myrtle Purvis; Stewardship and Recruiting-Miss Frances Nancekievill; Supply and Social Assistance-Mrs. Norman Deverall; Pianist-Mrs. Neil McPhadden Auditors-Mrs. Neil McPhadden; Auditors-Mrs. S. Eastman and Mrs. E. Roberts; Units leaders-Mrs. Wm. Wakelin, Mrs. Walter Leabody; Mrs. Ralph Holder and Mrs. Frank Myers.

The meeting closed with the Benediction pronounced by the Rev. Wragg followed by two verses of 'A Charge to keep I have'. A social half hour was enjoyed over a cup of tea and delicious refreshments.

Melville L. Junkin

Melville L. Junkin, of Verulam Township, passed away at the Hillcroft Private Hospital, Bobcaygeon in his 54th year.

Born in Verulam Township the only son of Mrs. Lucinda Junkin and the late Wm. Jos. Junkin, he was the beloved husband of Verna Jones and dear father of Elaine (Mrs. W. Coulter) of Toronto, Joseph at home and Joan (predeceased) and dear brother of Sadie (Mrs. Charles Hopkins) of Reaboro and Bernetta (Mrs. Earl Hopkins) of Cooksville.

The deceased had continued farming operations on the family homestead in Verulam Township following his fathers death, for the past ten years. He took an active interest in baseball and hockey all his life.

The funeral service was held from the Platten Funeral Home conducted by the Rev. R. C. White, of Newtonville United Church. Interment was in Fenelon Falls Cemetery and the pallbearers were members of different baseball teams: namely Mr. Keith Parkin, Cameron; Mr. Elwood Thompson, Fenelon Falls; Mr. George Martin, Verulam; Mr. Perce Nichols, Bobcaygeon, Mr. Clifford McGill, Sunderland and Mr. Lyle Walsh, Straffordville.

The large attendance at the funeral and the many floral tributes expressed sympathy and the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Cannington

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins and family of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Dure Brandon and family of Kitchener, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Apps and Lorri, of Peterboro, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Brandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Snooks and Randy, Mr. and Mrs. Merv Bolton and Barry of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. George Avery, of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. Leo. Avery.

Mr. Floyd Gibson, of Kelowna, B.C., visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gibson.

Mrs. J. E. Roberts spent a few days in Perth.

Mr. Edward Waines visited her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Sherwood, of Oshawa.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bethune, of Indianapolis, Ind. visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beattie, Peace St.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmont Francis have returned home after holidaying with W. O. I. Howard Halward and Mrs. Halward and family at Trenton.

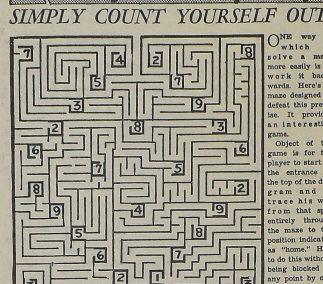
Mr. Ross Drew and Mr. Roy Switzer were in Jamaica visiting at Kingston, Ocho Rios and Montego Bay.

Miss Perne Edwards, Jim and Brian Skyvington, of Toronto, and Pat Moore of Beaverton visited Mrs. Charles Halward.

Puzzles and Pastimes ... for Everybody

FAIR ENOUGH?

SIMPLY COUNT YOURSELF OUT



ONE way in which to solve a maze more easily is to work it backwards. Here's a maze designed to defeat this premise. It provides an interesting game.

Object of the game is for the player to start at the entrance at the top of the diagram and to trace his way from that spot entirely through the maze to the position indicated as "home." He's to do this without being blocked at any point by one of the scattered numbers. If his path is blocked by a number, he loses the number of points equal to the interfering number. He then backs out and proceeds toward "home" again. Person with least points scored against him wins.

Who Goes There?

THREE boys went to a party together. En route they walked down the street abreast, Dodson on the right of Wilson, separating Wilson from Morrison. Frank was on Ted's right, and Walter was at the end. The sister of Morrison is Walter's girl friend. From these clues can you give the full names of all three?

Answer: Walter Wilson, Ted Dodson, Mel Frank Morrison.

Turn a Penny Into a Dime?

IT ISN'T every day you have an opportunity to turn a penny into a dime by any means. But you can turn CENT into DIME by the stepword method, i.e., changing one letter each step to leave a complete word, in just three steps, if you know how. Try it.

Solution: Cent, dent, dint, dime. Dime.

Tongue Twisters

REPEAT aloud as fast as you can:

Pickpocket Peter Packet picked a peck of pickets' pockets. If Peter Packet picked a peck of pickets' pockets, precisely how many pickets' pockets did Peter Packet pick?

Dewey drew three thistle trees through the thicket.

SOMEONE with a scientific turn of mind thought this one up. Read on, and you'll see what we mean.

To do this trick you need a single wineglass of the shape illustrated above. Also a quarter and a dime.

Place the dime in the glass first, as shown in the glass at left; the quarter is inserted next, above the dime. Object of the trick is to reverse positions of the coins without touching the glass or its contents.

Achievement of this reversal is very simple. The performer merely blows briskly along the inner edge of the glass and the coins flip by themselves.

Throw Light on Subject?

FIRST in cab, but not in hack. Second in bag, but as well as in sack. Third in green, but not in blue. Fourth in color, but not in hue. Fifth in dream, as well as in sleep. Sixth in look, but not in peep. Seventh in pot, but not in pan. Eighth in woman, and also in man. Ninth in day, but not in night. The letters all selected right, a Spanish town will bring to light.

Can you identify the subject?

Answer: Taos (as in Rubaiyat).

Perfect Crime?

JACKSON went to a policeman and said he had just killed a man named Barnes in a nearby street. This was true. Detectives, investigating, also found that Jackson and the murdered man had known each other for 20 years before the crime, but had not seen each other except on one occasion during that period. The detectives were unable to disprove anything about Barnes' life during that period, but they established that the motive for the crime was revenge.

However, the prosecuting authorities were unable to press any charge against the self-confessed murderer (except carrying a deadly weapon), and Jackson gained his freedom. Study this and see if you can guess why this was possible?

Answer: Jackson was the murderer's victim.

WHITE checkers, moving up the board, to move and win in six moves is the challenge here. Question 1: Can you move to king? Question 2: Since he's outnumbered, can White afford to give any men away?

HOP TIPS: When beginning a checker game, move toward the center of the board. Try to occupy the four center squares. Holding four men in the king row is not necessary. Hold Nos. 30, 32, 31-26, 23-19, 26-23, 19-15, 23-19, 15-10, 19-15, 10-6, 15-10, 6-2, 10-6, 2-7, 6-10, 7-11, 10-15, 11-18, 15-22, 18-25, 22-29, 25-30, 29-25, 30-26, 25-21, 26-23, 21-17, 23-19, 17-13, 19-15, 13-9, 15-10, 9-5, 10-6, 5-1, 6-10, 1-6, 10-15, 6-10, 15-18, 10-15, 18-22, 15-18, 22-25, 18-22, 25-29, 22-25, 29-30, 25-29, 30-25, 29-30, 25-29, 30-25, 29-30, 25-29, 30

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

SLOW UP ON SOCIAL DRINKING BEFORE IT BECOMES TOO LATE

So many people who consider themselves social drinkers–who can handle alcohol–are closer to the brink of alcoholism than they realize. It doesn't take much to give such a one the shove that will send him into the depths. It's easier to slip down than to crawl back up. Therefore I keep telling high pressure businessmen, for example, who say they can handle three or four martinis, two or three beers, a half dozen shots of scotch or bourban at night, and a few more before bedtime–that they'd better slow up before it's too late. It's easier to cut down from four martinis to two, than cut down from one to none. And sometimes the habit takes hold after only a bottle or two of beer. For example, consider this letter:

Dear Dr Steincrohn: I recall a friend's life with her husband. He broke doors, threw dishes and broke any new item that came into the house. Later he drank much more.

He was allowed to drink beer in his parents' home when he was just a small child–by the time he was 39 he was in his grave. Is it possible that this type of person is allergic to beer? That it drives him crazy? The thing that makes it so pitiful is, that sober, this man was one of the nicest, kindest men I ever knew.

For Mr. L.: Kidneys are made up of glomeruli and tubules. Their chief purpose is to filter out the unessential materials which are later excreted in the urine, and reabsorb into the circulation the important elements that are needed by the body. Glomerulonephritis is an inflammation of these glomeruli–it can be acute or chronic.

CORONARY POINTERS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: It's easy to get all mixed up if you try to listen to what your friends say. They can make you lose faith in your doctor–especially if you've had an attack of coronary thrombosis.

For example, my doctor is not giving me blood thinners. So they say he's giving me old-fashioned treatment. One neighbor told me that I shouldn't have gone back to work until at least six months after my attack. Who does a fellow believe?–Mr. W.

Comment: The answer is evident: believe your doctor and tell your well-meaning neighbors to go tend to their knittin'.

As for blood thinners, it is true they have their indications. In many patients they prevent complications and are life-saving. Nevertheless, it is not true that they should be used in every case of coronary thrombosis. The final judgement should be the doctor's (and a consultant's, if necessary) and not the decision of a friend or neighbor.

When to return to work is also a personal problem that can be answered only after a careful consideration of the individual patient, his physical and emotional condition, the type of job he has–and many other factors. In general, I believe that the patient is better off getting back to work as early as he can with safety.

CKLY's new program director makes many program changes

HOWARD HILYER

Howard Hilyer, CKLY Radio's new program director who came to Lindsay from Woodstock, has already made many changes in CKLY Programing. A new "Women's World" programme, the first hour of which is called "Party Line" presents for the first time in the Lindsay area a telephone program that enables the listener's voice to appear on the air together with Gloria Barrett's. The second hour of Woman's World presents a revamped version of the popular Trading Post.

Howard Hilyer started in radio with CFGB in Goose Bay, Labrador and worked with the Canadian Forces Broadcast Service of the CBC. While serving in France with the RCAF in 1957, he worked with CFMY in Marville in his spare time. In 1959, after 8½ years with the RCAF, he started in private radio with CKTB in St. Catharines then after employment at two other stations joined CKOX Woodstock as program director in 1960.

Mr. Hilyer's outside interests include theatre - he is a director of the Woodstock Little Theatre Incorporated and has acted in many plays for the group including the lead in the "Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker". He is a member of the Ontario Auxiliary Police. While in the RCAF, he was an instructor at the Police School at Aylmer, where he taught unarmed combat as well as other police subjects. Also a member of the Woodstock Kinsmen Club, he intends to transfer to the Kinsmen Club of Lindsay.

Born in Toronto, Mr. Hilyer has travelled extensively in Canada and overseas with the RCAF and lived also for a number of years in Calgary. He says he feels Lindsay is a good place to live.

"School for Scandal"

On Wednesday, a chartered bus left L.C.I. at 10:30 a.m. In it were all members of the Honour Club who had obtained an average of 80% or more on last June's examinations. As a reward for their good scholarship, they were treated to a performance of "School for Scandal", showing at Toronto's O'Keefe Centre. The play started at 2:00 p.m., lasting for a fleeting two-and-a-half hours. The students were allowed free time from then until 6:00 p.m., when they left the big city to return home. Among those who had the opportunity to see the play not one disparaging comment was heard about it.

New Contest

The Camera Club has announced its new photo contest. Deadline is Feb. 22nd; all photos must be recent and must deal with snow and (or) ice. Prizes will be awarded for the best photos.

Joe Blick Stomp

The Joe Blick, sponsored by the L.C.I. Key Club, was held Friday night. This was a triple celebration. Melvin Mursplat's birthday, the two millionth anniversary of the invention of the wheel, and the tenth anniversary of the invention of the lead life-saver were commemoratde. Records provided the music, and entertainment was by the Nifty Fifties. (Or was it the Sporty Forties?). This gala event was L.C.I.'s first dance of 1963. —Contributed by Allison J. A. Tobin.

The officer estimated damages at about $400 to the Hutton vehicle and $600 to the Shosenberg car.

Four Others

Four other accidents were reported and provincial police were kept on the alert, as high winds, and drifting snow cut visability on the roads.

On Friday evening around 7.40 p.m. Const. D. Elliott investigated a two-car accident involving drivers Donna J. Piper of Toronto, and Malcolm MacLachlan of Omemee.

The accident happened near the Pleasant Pt. turn on highway 36 and caused damage of about $150.

During the same period Const. G. Lee was called to check a car in the ditch on highway 36 near Kennedy's Bay curve and found a vehicle driven by Russell Hughes of Bobcaygeon.

Damage was about $150.

On Saturday, about 7.50 p.m. a car driven by Joseph E. Saunders went out of control near Sonya doing about $60 damage Const. I. Milner investigated.

A two-car accident on County road No. 4 involving Paul R. Culbert of Little Britain and Donald H. Lang of Fraserville was investigated by Const. R. B. McGregor, Sunday, around 3:15 p.m. and damages totaled $450.

BEATS OUT FIVE

Thirty-one-year-old Billy Casper beat out five other golfers by one stroke yesterday to win the Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Tournament at Pebble Beach, California. Casper shot a two-over-par 74 in the final round to finish with a three-under-par 285 total. Casper picked up 53-hundred-dollars first place money. Jack Nicklaus, Bob Rosburg, Art Wall and Gary Player tied for second with 286 totals. The famed Arnold Palmer came out of the 50-thousand-dollar tourney empty-handed . . . after finishing in the money in 47 straight tournaments. Palmer–who finished eight strokes behind Casper–was disqualified for a rules infraction in the third round.

"SUDDEN DEATH PLAYOFF"

The National P-G-A Club Pro Golf Tournament at Port St. Lucie, Florida, went into a three-way "sudden death" playoff yesterday before John Barnum came out on top. Barnum–of Belmont, Michigan–had ended regulation play in a deadlock with Ansel Snow of Keswick, Virginia, and Chick Harbert of Port St. Lucie. All had 281 totals. However, Barnum won the National Club Pro title by parring the first extra hole as Snow and Harbert carded bogies sixes.

SHOULD CONCLUDE AGREEMENT

Efforts to finally settle a heavyweight championship rematch between champion Sonny Liston and ex-champ Floyd Patterson move today to Miami Beach, Florida. President Tom Bolan of Championship Sports say two meetings between representatives of both fighters, the Miami Beach Boxing Commission and his organization should conclude arrangements. Bolan has indicated Liston will be paid the 85-thousand-dollars he is demanding from the 207-thousand-dollars due him from the first bout. Bolan hopes to stage the Liston-Patterson rematch in Miami Beach on April 4th.

FULL SLATE

The National Hockey League is not scheduled tonight, but had a full slate of games last night. As a result of the action, first-place Chicago increased its lead from one to two points. The Black Hawks whipped New York, while second-place Montreal was settling for a 3-3 tie with Boston. In the third game on the card, Detroit and Toronto also deadlocked, 2-2.

WINS RACE

Auto racer Dan Gurney–averaging 84-point-nine miles-per-hour–won the 66-thousand-dollar Riverside, California, stock car race yesterday. A-J Foyt of Houston, Texas, finished second.

DIES AT 81

One-time middleweight wrestling chapion Gus Pappas died yesterday in Los Angeles at the age of 81. Pappas won the middleweight championship in 1916 from Lonney Ajax in a match at Chicago and lost the wrestling title in 1922 to Ira Durn at Salt Lake City, Utah. Funeral services are scheduled for Wednesday.

Cresswell family of five flees sub-zero night fire

Dad hears crackling, finds fire

Everything lost, appeal launched

A Cresswell family of five, were forced to flee from their home in sub-zero weather late Monday night when a fire of unknown origin swept through their six-room frame home completely destroying it.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lake, of R. R. 1 Cresswell, and their three children, Laura 8, Linda 5 and Leslie 3, sought refuge in the nearby Royal Oak school of which Mr. Lake is caretaker, as strong winds quickly reduced their home to ashes.

The Sunderland fire brigade under the direction of Chief Carl Humphries, was unable to save the home Mr. Humphries told "The Post".

"It was pretty well gone when we arrived" he said, "and all we could do was dampen down the ashes.

Mr. Lake, who operates a repair business, told firemen that he had just retired for the night around 11 p.m. when he heard crackling coming from the rear of the house. On investigation, he found the back shed completely in flames, and immediately rushed his wife and the three children outside, not even stopping to get shoes, and took them over to the school.

Later, they were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williamson, a nearby neighbor, where the whole family is now staying until other accommodation can be found.

Mr. Williamson is appealing for donations of clothing for the family who lost everything in the fire, and anyone caring to contribute to this cause can contact Mrs. G. W. Whitney, of 87 Melbourne St. W., phone 324-5686 and arrangements will be made for their distribution.

Take part in Education Institute

Among those who took part in the Lindsay and District Labour Council Education Institute held at the Legion Hall over the weekend were those seen in the group above. From the left, Vice-president Frank Brett of the Lindsay and District Labour Council; Mrs. Marjorie Pinney, New Democratic Party organizer; Thomas B. Ward, director of Federations and Councils, Canadian Labour Congress; and Council President Malcolm Stevens. A highlight of the event was a banquet addressed by Walter Pitman on Saturday evening.

Reeve denies suggestion he and commissioner spurred arsenal closure

"Have you and Mr. Pitts been to Ottawa and instrumental in closing the arsenal here for other purposes? This question was directed by Councillor Joseph Hutton to Reeve Lloyd Found prior to the adjournment of Lindsay's Council meeting Monday.

"Many people have asked me this question and I thought now is the time to clear the air. Were you thinking of a trip when you made reference tonight to keeping the arsenal in attractive condition for possible prospective incoming industry there"? pursued Mr. Hutton.

Reeve Lloyd Found stated his business was real estate but denied he had ever been to Ottawa on such an arsenal matter. "I like to see industry there and do not want to see it stopped", he said.

Councillor John Eakins: "I think whether it is stopped or not, where the welfare of Lindsay and everyone in Lindsay is concerned, it is our business to look into such matters as soon as possible."

"I have a letter from the top man that nothing will be done to make the arsenal less wanted by other industry", said Mayor Holtom.

"We shouldn t 'take these matters sitting down", Councillor Eakins replied when asked his opinion by Councillor Hutton.

Mayor Holtom repeated that the federal department had indicated to the Industrial Commission and himself that they were aware the town was definitely interested in keeping the arsenal in condition for re-occupation or resale up to the date of closure (March 31).

Car write-off after fire

Described as a "complete "write-off" by Fire Chief A. Watson, a car, owned by Michael Murphy, of "Murco" farms Verulam Rd. was destroyed by fire, Monday a. round 10.40 p.m.

The car, a late model, had been parked near the house when the fire occurred, said the chief.

The fire in the vehicle was so intense it caused all the car windows to explode and left the burnt-out body and framework a twisted tangle of wreckage.

Armstrong trial slated to open February 18

The trial of George Armstrong, 40-year-old Richmond Hill man charged with capital murder in the slaying of a Haliburton bank manager late last August, will be held before Mr. Justice Richardson of the Supreme Court at the Spring Assizes here February 18th.

Mr. Armstrong was charged after the shooting death of Eric J. McConnell, 44 manager of the Bank of Montreal in Haliburton August 31st.

"Who started this?"

Hutton stirs up a furore, charges Mayor sarcastic; takes issue with report

Councillor Joseph Hutton of Lindsay caused considerable furore in council Monday when he charged Mayor Holtom with giving him sarcastic answers to questions asked. Mayor Holtom countered he was not sarcastic and was only pointing out the same questions had been answered in discussion for the past two or three years.

Councillor Hutton said he was not satisfied with the advisory and finance committee recommendation that a further grant of $2,500 in addition to an earlier grant of $1,000, be made to the Parks Board for tree trimming. He also questioned the wisdom of a further recommendation that an expenditure of $7,500 be made to acquire a new machine to assist in the town office accounting operations.

"I am not satisfied that $2,500 more be recommended for tree trimming. . I see very little tree trimming being done," stated Mr. Hutton.

Finance Chairman Russell Taylor and former Parks Board chairman Councillor Carl Brown, explained that this money was expended on a

LONG OVERDUE ACTION ON FLAG ISSUE URGED

Strongly recommending the adoption of the Canadian Red Ensign as the flag of Canada, the Royal Canadian Legion has urged quick action on the part of the prime minister and his cabinet to resolve the question of a Canadian flag. In a letter to the prime minister, Legion President Judge C. C. Sparling, of Winnipeg, said: "The time is long overdue and the people are waiting for the action which will resolve this matter." With this sentiment there will no doubt be widespread agreement.

The matter of a "distinctive flag for Canada" has been going the rounds for too long, while all the time it has its own flag, one which has been in use for generations — the Canadian Red Ensign. Canada's armed forces have fought and died under it in two major wars and it has become as much a part of Canada as Canada itself.

An article published sometime ago under the caption "Does Canada Need A New Flag?" summed it up very nicely in these words:

"The CANADIAN RED ENSIGN has gradually grown up with the Dominion, until today it is the symbol of Canada's place of importance, not only among the great Dominions of the Commonwealth, but also of Leadership and Prestige among the Nations of the World. Our men and women of the Services have proudly served under it in foreign lands, just as their fathers did before them during World War I. To them it represented all for which they were ready and willing to lay down their lives if necessary; and for it many shed their blood. During the World War the Red Ensign (the old Red Duster) was a symbol of hope and unswerving devotion to duty on all the seven seas.

"By common custom the CANADIAN RED ENSIGN has been recognized as a distinctive Canadian flag, and this position was tacitly acknowledged and confirmed publicly by Prime Minister Mackenzie King. Only an Act of Parliament is now required to make it the National Flag of Canada.

"It is not generally known that in 1921 the Canadian Government especially requested His Majesty King George V to order a new Coat of Arms for Canada, and in response to that request, His Majesty commanded the Royal College of Heralds to design a suitable Coat of Arms.

"That Coat of Arms is in use today, and in accordance with custom, the design of the Shield has been displayed on Canada's flag. The CANADIAN RED ENSIGN is the distinctive Flag of Canada. It properly shows upon it the UNION JACK, which is the Flag of the Empire and Commonwealth of Nations, and thus proclaims to all the world that Canada is one of the great Nations in that group. In like manner, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa also display the Union Jack in the upper corner of their own National Flags. Surely Canada is not ashamed to be in that company?"

Surely not — Let's get on with the job of giving it the necessary official status and end this nonsense of a new flag for Canada once and for all time.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 22, 1913

According to a local weather expert, the vagaries of the weather this season are controlled by the planets. His explanation is that the reason roses have been blooming all winter in Great Britain and unusual floral activity throughout Ontario is owing to the unusual proximity of the planet Mars to the earth. He also stated that Mars has for some time been approaching the earth at a marvellous speed, so that it was now 11,000,000 miles nearer than in December, would on account of the course it is taking be another 12,000,000 miles nearer the earth before the end of February. The effect, he said would harmonize with the early advent of Easter this year, as it would synchronize with the arrival of an early spring. His other deduction was that the proximity of Mars would keep the price of coal and overcoats down, break the corner in fresh eggs, and stimulate an early opening of the spring real estate activities.

JANUARY 22, 1938

James Healy addressed the Victoria County Council on the matter of a market in Lindsay. Mr. Healy stated that Lindsay had lost a great deal in population and in finance since the market died out some years ago and he asked the County Council to support and urge the organization of another market in the town. "It is important to you farmers that you have some place where you can sell your goods at a decent profit, they sold direct to the consumer and realized a fair profit themselves. That's why they left unattached farms and bank accounts behind them", Mr. Healy said.

Reports and Remarks..

OLD-FASHIONED WALK

Even good things taken in excess can be harmful. Proving this point is the automobile in Canada where there is one passenger vehicle for every three or four persons. We have become a nation of riders and the term "two-car family" is no longer an uncommon title.

In cities, people have become accustomed to driving short distances just to purchase the evening newspaper or a magazine. In suburbs, mothers have developed into chauffeurs for their husbands and children; and even the small town populace, which once considered long walks a part of its daily routine, now travels largely by automobile.

But, while the automobile is a necessary part of our society and lends itself strongly to the pace of present-day living, there is much to be said for old-fashioned walking. Its benefits can be grouped under two general headings — physical and mental.

Physically speaking, a walk not only invigorates the entire body, but particularly exercises the muscles of the legs, the contractions of which compress the veins, improving the return of blood from these extremities to the heart, mainly against the pull of gravity. Improving the muscles of the legs improves the pumping action provided by the muscles.

Mentally, a peaceful long walk taken alone can be a perfect medium for meditating, thinking over a problem or organizing a plan. It's extremely difficult if not dangerous, to become too deeply ingrossed in thought while driving the family auto.

Then, too, walking gives you a closer look at your surroundings whether they be the man-made wonders of a large city or the wonders of nature along a country road. Even familiar places offer new discoveries when explored on foot.

Therefore, in a sense, walking is the best bargain in transportation, for when you step outside the door and start moving your feet forward you are exercising your leg muscles, pepping up your circulation, gaining uncomplicated privacy and time for thought and sightseeing and all this while getting to your destination.

Even while the strongest advocate of physical fitness wouldn't advise throwing away the keys to the family car, its is recommended that you keep them in your pocket more often and walk to the store for that newspaper or just take a stroll to see the wonders that nature has provided. —Transportation Assoc. Bulletin.

A WAY WITH SOUFFLE

It's hard to believe that this airy Baked Orange Souffle Pudding can be assembled so easily. The typical souffle is highly vulnerable, deflating for almost no reason at all. But in this recipe, the use of fine bread crumbs and evaporated milk gives a light body and firmer consistency to the pudding. The souffle-like character is achieved by making a meringue from the egg whites and folding it into the rest of the pudding after it has been prepared. Sugar, lemon, orange rind and juice contribute to the light, refreshing taste of this dessert. This type of pudding is at its best served warm from the oven with pouring cream, but leftovers can be served cold.

Baked Orange Souffle Pudding
Yield — 5 or 6 servings

2 eggs separated, 1/3 cup fine granulated sugar, 3 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs, few grains salt, 2 teaspoons grated orange rind, 1/3 cup orange juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 3/4 cup evaporated milk, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 2 tablespoons fine granulated sugar, preheat oven to 350 deg. F. (moderate).

Beat egg yolks slightly; stir in the 1/3 cup granulated sugar, fine dry bread crumbs, salt, orange rind and juice, lemon juice, undiluted evaporated milk and vanilla. Beat egg whites until foamy; gradually beat in the 2 tablespoons fine granulated sugar and continue to beat until meringue will stand in soft peaks; fold into bread crumb mixture. Turn into an ungreased 6-cup casserole. Stand dish in a pan and surround with hot water. Oven-poach the pudding in pre-heated oven until it feels set when touched lightly with a finger-tip — about 45 minutes. Serve at once with pouring cream. —Ratter Chatter

Pancakes

Be they savory or sweet — breakfast, lunch or supper features — pancakes are always popular. And here's a helpful hint to make them even more popular with the cook who has to keep up with the demand of a hungry horde at one session. If you follow this idea, you can enjoy them with the family instead of watching over the griddle or frying pan. Once cooked, pancakes should be served as soon as possible, but they can be kept at peak of texture and taste for a brief period if you place the cooked pancakes in a slow oven (about 250 degrees F.) in a single layer on a cookie sheet, lightly covered with a tea towel.

Haliburton

Mr. O. P. Yarnold has opened a repair shop in the Bakery operated in the summer months. He is busily engaged in T.V. and radio repairs.

Mr. Harry Brohm plans on building a new home on Mountain Street, the foundation is completed, and work will start early this spring. It will be electrically heated.

Several new homes have been built and are occupied. The new Pentecostal church built in late 1962 is getting the finishing touches inside.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Roberts are operating the booth at the Haliburton arena.

Mr. Frank McIntyre has been engaged as caretaker for the Dysart municipal offices for January and February.

At Rest

DILLON — John Patrick Dillon entered into rest suddenly at Ross Memorial Hospital on Saturday, January 19, 1963. John Dillon was the beloved husband of Helen Allen and dear father of Jacqueline (Mrs. Pat Le Clair) of Midland and Dianne (Mrs. Robert Campbell) of Hanover, and brother of Gertrude (Mrs. Kenneth Vosper) of Scarboro, he is also survived by 4 grandchildren. Mr. Dillon is resting at the Stoddart Funeral Home, 24 Mill Street in Lindsay. Funeral service in the chapel on Wednesday, January 23 at 2 p.m. Interment at St. Mary's Cemetery. (H9876)

Cards of Thanks

McCABE — We wish to thank friends and neighbours of St. Lawrence St. for floral tribute and acts of kindness shown us during the loss of a dear father and brother James McCabe. The family. (3482)

In Memoriam

WORSLEY — In loving memory of our father who passed away on January 23, 1960.

What we would give if we could say.
Hello, Dad, in the same old way
To hear your voice, to see your smile,
To sit and chat a while.
So you who have a father,
Cherish him with care,
For you'll never know the heartache,
Till you see his vacant chair.

Ever remembered by Lloyd and Ray Worsley. (H9658)

Points out parts and service still available

Any Lindsay area resident wishing to purchase new machines, parts, or obtain service from the Singer Sewing Machine Company, formerly located on Kent St., may still do so, representative Tim Notten told "The Post".

"I think many of our customers are still under the impression we are 'out of business'" but this is not so", said Mr. Notten.

"It is exactly as it was before we closed except that we do not have a display store, but I am still able to give any old, or new customers, the same service, as always".

"In fact, it is easier now because all they have to do is call me and I will do the rest."

AN ATTEMPT

Germany's Konrad Adenauer today asked France to agree to suspend negotiations on Britain's bid to enter the Common Market. The move is an attempt to prevent the collapse of Britain's hopes to join the economic community. The Adenauer plan would give the group's executive commission time to draw up a list of points against British membership–and solutions to them. President De Gaulle's reaction to the plan is not yet known–but he has been firm in opposing Britain's admission. Prime Minister Macmillan says that, given the will, Britain can surmount the remaining difficulties facing its entry into the European Common Market. Speaking to a Conservative meeting in London last night, Macmillan also said that even though France is against Britain, the rest of Europe and the free world supports her in her bid for market membership.

MEET OUR CONFERENCE TABLE

The world's nuclear powers meet over a conference table in Washington this afternoon for more discussions on a nuclear test ban. The U-S. Britain and Russia meet in the wake of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's concession to allow International inspection of Soviet territory. He agreed to the inspection on principle–saying he would allow three inspections a year. But while the West welcomed what it considered a breakthrough, it insisted more than three inspections would be necessary to police a treaty. The West–for some time–has been willing to sign an accord ending nuclear tests in the atmosphere, outer space and under water. But Russia wants all testing banned–or none–making on-site inspection the key issue. Now that the Soviets have given an inch, some observers feel chances are much better they will go the full mile.

DAMAGED BY BLIZZARDS

More than 15-hundred houses have been damaged by 80 mile an hour blizzards that swept the mountainous country north of Tokyo today. And along the Japanese Sea coast–25 to 30 foot tidal waves flooded coastal areas, paralyzing train service in many areas.

SHOULD BE FORMED

Deputy Social Credit Leader Real Coauette says the National Economic Board should be formed immediately to counteract efforts to provide nuclear weapons for Canada. In the first debate of the new session yesterday, Caouette reiterated his stand that Canada should produce more bread and butter for underdeveloped nations instead of gearing its resources toward war.

CONTINUES TODAY

The 2nd session of the 25th parliament continues today with the prospect of major debates on defense policies and foreign affairs getting under way this week. Prime Minister Diefenbaker promised yesterday that the government–as he put it–"will make available every opportunity for discussion of this most important matter, which has received considerable attention outside the house."

J. A. McQuarrie tells Rotarians of his findings

Lindsay's Rotary Club heard an interesting account of a trip to Britain and European countries at its weekly luncheon this week. The speaker was J. A. McQuarrie, Q.C., who was introduced by past president S. R. Pitts and thanked by President Dr. D.C. Pitt.

The speaker dealt particularly with the advancement made by town and city planning boards in England, their problems and successful solutions. Among other items he mentioned the manner in which councils and other organizations, including parks and city planners, appoint learned men to official positions men who have a well-trained executive mind.

Named Saturday, resigns Monday, back temporarily

The appointment of County Engineer H. D. Wilford as the new Safety Construction Engineer by Victoria County Council was declared Saturday he resigned the office Monday but was persuaded to carry on in the capacity later that day.

Engineer Wilford advised Clerk Weldon that he will carry on until every municipality in the county appoints its own engineers or until the middle of February whichever comes first.

Engineer Wilford was named to the position to inspect all construction work in municipalities not having appointed engineers and in such cases the townships are to bear the cost.

Clerk Weldon warned these municipalities that they must comply with the new enactment before the middle of February "or else".

Mr. Wilford gave as his reason for rejecting the appointment that he couldn't possibly give the job the time required.

NO MORE MEETINGS ON SATURDAYS

Overflowing of Victoria County Council sessions from one week to another has prompted a suggestion that sessions begin a day earlier. Reeve Lloyd Pound of Lindsay advanced the suggestion at the just concluded session. He wondered if meetings couldn't begin on Monday instead of Tuesday as is now the custom. Upshot of a discussion on the matter was a decision not to meet on Saturdays in the future and to have all meetings start promptly at 10 a.m.

Advise present Post Office surplus next May or June, Lindsay promised first bid

The present Kent St. Post Office will become surplus in May or June and be disposed of by the Crown Assets Corporation. This information was contained in a letter from the Deputy Minister of Public Works in announcing the new building at the corner of Russell and Cambridge Sts. would be completed at that time. Commenting on the announcement, Mayor Jos. Holtom reminded that Lindsay had been promised the first chance on the building and that the county council had also written to the department re interest in its purchase.

"As the letter indicates, it will be some time before the present building comes on the market. In the meantime councillors should ascertain if we have any need of the old building. We are not short of office space now with the town hall renovation. However, we are allowed to bid on it. Personally, I would like to see it torn down and a good new building in its place from which we would get some extra taxes", the Mayor summed up.

Housing for senior citizens under study by council

First steps to provide adequate housing for senior citizens in Lindsay at reasonable rates were launched by Lindsay's Council Monday. A committee was appointed to make a survey to ascertain the number of person who are eligible for such housing. Committee members are: Councillors-Russell Taylor (chairman) Leslie Neil, Jos. Hutton and Deputy-reeve George Finney.

The project of a co-operative senior citizens' housing project had been given preliminary study by a committee in 1962, Finance Chairman Rus. Taylor told council. He said he felt the matter should be pursued this year and suggested the cost of the project could be promoted with the co-operation of service clubs with the only cost to the town being for administration.

The purpose of this project is to provide adequate housing for senior citizens at reasonable rental rates and for those who are capable of looking after themselves in self-contained units. There is a provision for a federal subsidy and the balance of the cost could be made up from donations by local service clubs, private citizens and by the town.

To qualify occupants would have earnings not less than $100 and not more than $200 per month. Old age pensioners could have the $100 figure made up by members of their families.

It was suggested the administration of such a project could be handled through the town's Welfare Department or possibly by the Housing Authority.

These organizations along with those of the church, would be consulted in the committee survey, Mr. Taylor said.

Council approved the recommendation of Mr Taylor and Mayor Holtom appointed the committee which he termed the first necessity.

Town to ask county to make report on proposed bridge spanning river at Colborne

Lindsay Council has decided to ask Victoria County Council to make a pre-engineering report on the proposed new Colborne St. bridge and also hire consultants in connection therewith at the county's expense. Reeve Lloyd Pound, Deputy-reeve George Finney and Town Engineer Eric Booth were appointed to meet with the county Bridge Committee to make these requests.

Mayor Joseph Holtom stated Engineer Booth had made some preliminary engineering on the project, but there were many complications such as pumping stations in the way, railway sidings and the matter of approaches having to stretch back as far as St. Paul Street. Then again, a proper survey of the project would cost between four and five thousand dollars.

The bridge discussion was brought up by Reeve Found saying the town should take leadership in the project and discuss the matter with the county engineer. The Mayor reviewed for new members that the federal government was prepared to pay a portion of the costs of the Colborne St. bridge if the Wellington St. one was closed. "We could go back to the government and say we would take over the Wellington St. bridge," he said.

Reeve Found: "If we take over the Wellington Street bridge, we could return it to the county and they would pay 80% of its maintenance. There is a possibility it needs some reconstruction."

Finance Chairman Taylor suggested cost of the new bridge should be first estimated by a consulting engineer hired by the town but withdrew a motion to this effect when council agreed in favor of requesting the county to assume the cost of such an estimate.

Councillor Carl Brown stated it would be wise to see what obligations the town would have with the Wellington St. bridge before going ahead with a costly survey re the Colborne St. project.

LOBA holds euchre

Victoria LOBA No. 366 held a very successful progressive euchre party at the home of Mrs. Lywood with seven tables playing.

Ladies High went to Mrs. H. Hughes and Men's High went to Clare Woolacott. The consolation prize was won by Linda Maunder.

yearly basis and had to do also with tree removal on boulevards to protect other utilities such as water, sewer and other services.

Mayor Holtom told Mr. Hutton the term tree trimming was misleading and agreed with Councillor Taylor that it should be changed to tree trimming and removal. He added that Mr. Hutton had the answers to his questions in this matter.

"How many trees are trimmed per day? I think I have every right to ask questions as the Parks Board operations are costing with this $3,500 tree business, about $17,000 per year. I would like a sort of nice answer from you, not a sarcastic answer" said Mr. Hutton addressing the Mayor.

Reeve Lloyd Found enquired if the tree program was successful under Winter Works wage subsidy. Councillor Taylor replied it was not, explaining there was more cost involved in the required instruction of new workers by Superintendent Miner than the benefit received.

Mayor Holtom: "This same discussion has been going on for two or three years and I want you to know I am not sarcastic."

Councillor Hutton: "I think this report (advisory and finance committee) should be sent back to the committee. I am not satisfied about this $7,500 (for the accounting machine) being spent at this time."

Mayor Holtom: "Let's discuss one item at a time."

Mr. Hutton (raising his voice) "I am discussing one item at a time."

Finance Chairman Taylor explained if the machine was not purchased it would be necessary to increase the town office staff. "There was a long discussion about this," he said.

Town Clerk Bates explained the need of the machine was caused by increased work due to increased requests from council and various departments of the government.

Councillor Hutton (addressing the Mayor): "Am I an enemy of yours because I ask questions?"

"NO, certainly not," answered Mayor Holtom, I like you to ask questions."

Mr. Hutton: "Don't criticize me because I ask questions. I don't want to be unpopular - I am just dissatisfied with this report."

"Don't get personal". Councillor Hutton advised Reeve Found in answer to a low spoken comment.

Mayor Holtom: You must not get into personalities."

Mr. Hutton: "Who started this?"

"That's what I would like to know", countered the Mayor.

Councillor Taylor explained the old aaccounting machine in the town office was due for repairs estimated at a $2,000 cost. The machine then would only do a partial operation of the new one. It was essential to procure the new one if approved, before tax billings.

Councillor Leslie Neil said that as a member of the committee he had heartily endorsed the acquisition of the new machine when he learned the need. The old one will have a trade in value of $1,300 included in the $7,500 figure, he explained.

"If this machine will be here in time for putting out the tax bills I would say order it at once, if not, include it in budget expense," summed up the Mayor.

Clerk Bates assured the new machine would arrive in time and the company supplying same had also offered to leave the old one to assist in tax billing.

With the exception of Councillor Hutton all members approved the full adoption of the advisory and finance report read by Chairman Taylor and containing the above two contentious items.

Henry—Moore Nuptials

St. Margaret's in the Pines Anglican Church, Scarboro, was decorated with large white 'mums, and ribbon bows on December 8, 1962 at 2 p.m. for the marriage of Marilyn Pamela Moore, of 4 Hoshelega Drive, Scarboro and Ivan James Henry, of R. R. 1, Cameron. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Moore, of 4 Hoshelega Drive, Scarboro and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Henry, of R. R. 1, Cameron.

Rev. A. Clarke officiated and the soloist was Mrs. Jean Cummins, of West Hill. She sang "Come Unto Me" accompanied by Mrs. Greenstreet, of Toronto.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was charming in a floor-length gown of white brocade. The gown was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and had bow trimming for back interest. A crystal coronet headdress held a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of ivory hued roses and white stephanotis. The "Something Old - Something Borrowed" was pearls.

Miss Joan Richmond, of Port Credit, was maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Betty Kirkness, of Toronto and Frances Myers, of Scarboro. The flower girl was little Janice Henry, of Cameron.

The maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were identically gowned in peacock blue velvet dresses and their headdresses were bows of peacock blue veiling and they carried bouquets of roses, mums and carnations. The flower girl was gowned in white velvet and she carried a basket of 'mums and carnations.

The best man was William Case, of Toronto, and the ushers were Allan Henry, of Cameron and Gerald Jenkinson, of Fenelon Falls.

The reception was held at the Tam-o-Shanter Golf and Country Club where the bride's mother received wearing a gown of light turquoise lame which was styled with a side drape effect and a low back bodice. She also wore a mink stole and had a hat of white flowers and veil. Her corsage was of Tea roses. The groom's mother assisted in a mink shade brocaded silk jacket dress with bittersweet velvet accessories and a yellow orchid corsage.

For a honeymoon to the United States including South Carolina, the bride wore a brown suit and marabou hat to match.

The happy couple will reside at 980 Lawrence Ave. E., Don Mills.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

REQUESTS REASSURANCE FOR HEART OPERATION

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Please help me. I need all the courage and reassurance I can get. I have a heart condition. The trouble seems to be in a valve. My doctors tell me I need an operation. But I am 51 and am afraid I'm too old for surgery.—Mrs. L.

Comment: Last year I visited a friend in another city who had an operation on her mitral valve. For years she had rheumatic heart disease and mitral stenosis (a closing of the valves in the left side of the heart between the upper and lower chambers). Her heart had become enlarged and it was beating irregularly.

Her doctors, in consultation with a heart surgeon, decided that she needed an operation to save her life. They performed it and she came through without any complications. The irregularity has disappeared, her heart has become smaller and stronger and she has been able to return to business during the past year, working full days.

Age? Fifty-seven at the time of operation. I hope this answers your question and gives you courage.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I recently underwent a G1 series of X rays. The report showed d diverticulosis in lower bowel. I have no intestinal symptoms Will you explain if it is serious or life-shortening? Thank-you.—Constant reader, Mrs. S.

Comment: Diverticulosis is the name given to a condition in which there are many small "outpouchings" from the intestinal wall. Only rarely do they become inflamed to produce diverticulitis—which produces fever and pain in the abdomen. Your condition is not serious or life-shortening. Thousands of people go through life with diverticulosis without any symptoms and completely unaware they have it. If they have symptoms of indigestion we usually advise them to go on a bland diet and cut out roughage. As you have no symptoms, I suggest you forget all about it and each your accustomed foods.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I am 61 years old. Have never had any serious illness. But now this cancer scare is making me nervous. I have heard that if the breast nipples do not stand out it is an early sign of cancer. I figure there must be trouble in my left breast. I do not feel any lump. What would you do?–Mrs. F.

Comment: If concerned and in doubt, better go to your doctor for an examination. If he says everything is all right, take his word for it rather than become a cancerphobe unnecessarily. If he is in doubt, he may order special X rays of the breasts. There is a new method (not yet widely used) that will determine the presence of a lump in the breast quite early.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Last year I had a chest X ray during a physical examination. Six months later I had another. Now I am trying to get a new job and they insist that I have another chest X ray before they hire me. Is there danger in being exposed to X rays so often?–Miss R.

Comment: No danger. I wouldn't call this overexposure.

For Mrs. D.: Although not likely, I think that carbon monoxide poisoning should be examined in your husband's case. The fact that he drives a large truck, that the fumes come into the cab on long trips, and that he has been having severe headaches are reason enough for investigation.

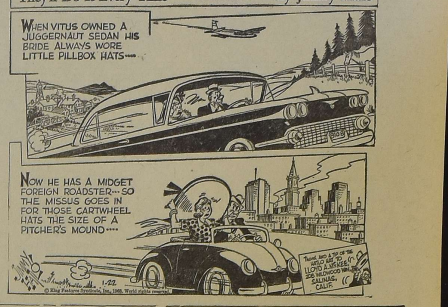
They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo



Mrs. Russell Neal

Funeral service was held on November 11th from the Ball and Mutch Funeral Home for the late Mrs. Russell Neal, 147 Maple Street, Clinton, who passed away from a brief illness in Clinton Public Hospital on January 9, 1963.

Daughter of the late Albert Hardy and Annie Arksey of Lindsay, she moved to the Base Line as a bride in 1914 and continued to live there until moving to Clinton with her husband 15 years ago. She was in her 76th year. The deceased was of a quiet, home-loving disposition which endeared her to all who were fortunate to know her. For some years, owing to failing health, she was unable to take part in activities outside her home, but she continued to care for her home until her final illness. She was a member of Ontario Street United Church.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Graydon, 14 Erie Street, Clinton and Allan, R.R. 1, Clinton; one grandson, Murray, R.R. 5, Clinton; a granddaughter, Nancy Neal and a great granddaughter, Kathy Neal. Mr. Fred Hardy, an uncle of the deceased, who resides with his son Norman Hardy, north of Lindsay, also survives her.

Rev. Grant Mills officiated at the funeral and burial took place in Clinton Cemetery.

Pallbearers included Albert Densmore, Clarence Ball, Clayton Ellis, Charles Merrill, Earl Blake and Douglas Thorndike.

Flower bearers were William Jenkins, Elmer Potter Ross Lovett and Charles Johnson.

Attending the funeral from a distance were: W. E. Neal and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cline, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Densmore and Mrs. Mabel Lashbrook, Mitchell.

Born and raised near Mt. Pleasant he had been a conductor on the railway for many years. Predeceased by his wife the former Leah Nelson Hayes he is survived by two sons John, of Port Arthur, Harry, of Port Claire, Quebec, two daughters, Anne (Mrs. J. L Reid), of St. Catharines and Marjorie (Mrs. W. R. Bell) of Montreal one brother Austin, Omemee, and one sister Mrs. Herom Best, Mt. Pleasant.

Sunderland

The Sunderland Volunteer Fire Brigade were called to a chimney fire at the farm of Floyd Pegg on the Ridge Rd. They were successful in extinguishing the fire and saving the house.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Len Oldfield and Roy in the passing of her father Mr. Banks of Toronto. The deceased was well known in the village.

Sunderland (PNS) — Brock Branch 141 of the Royal Canadian Legion was represented at the annual all across Canada Legion Curling Bonspiel held in Uxbridge for Zone P1.

The team consisted of Comrades Bruce Power, Stanley Vestby, John Brandon and Lloyd Morrow.

They made a fine showing but were unsuccessful in qualifying for the District playdowns.

Meet at Rink

The Blackwater Hunt Club and the Bagshaw Hunt Club met at the Sunderland Curling Rink.

After a few games of cards they all turned out on the ice and curled eight ends.

After curling they all went upstairs and enjoyed a fine lunch of sandwiches and coffee.

A LOVELIER YOU

By MARY SUE MILLER

BOSS LADIES. Do you manage a home, a committee, an office, a department, a schoolroom? If so, you doubtless have acquired the knack of authority.

You have learned that, other than knowledge of the work involved, success in your job requires strategy in handling those you direct. When you give orders or suggestions, you know a pleasant voice and manner bring the quickest and most willing response. When you must criticize anyone in your command, child or adult, you do it in private and in the most tactful words possible.

Would that all "boss ladies" were like you! Many humans labor under less harmonious conditions. The boss, man or woman, fails to talk in terms that show understanding of the other fellow's problems or feelings. Sometimes instructions are not clear and criticism is not concrete. Sometimes the voice of authority is overbearing or, worse, condescending.

Laboring under such stress, a person loses confidence, enthusiasm and heart. The boss wonders why good people are so hard to find, and nobody but his boss can tell him. We'll hope it will be soon!

In a country where democracy holds sway, the voice of continuing authority is soft, considerate and specific. Well, most of the time!

Simplicity...

Simplicity, distinction, beauty and good taste are all present in a Stoddart conducted funeral service. They have always been noted for the simple beauty of their services. These features, plus moderate rates, have made Stoddart the choice of leading families for over 80 years.

KEON, DOUGLAS, PILOTE, SAWCHUCK IN LEAD

Mid-season voting has given Dave Keon, Kent Douglas, Pierre Pilote and Terry Sawchuck the lead in the National Hockey League's four trophy races. Keon heads the list for the Lady Byng Trophy for sportsmanship and ability . . . Douglas is in the lead for the rookie of the year award . . . Sawchuk leads the league for the most valuable player honors . . . and Pilote was named the best defenseman in the first half of the schedule.

EXPECTS CONTRACTS SIGNED TODAY

The chairman of the Miami Beach Boxing Commission says he expects contracts to be signed today to hold the return Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title bout in Miami's Convention Hall April fourth. Fred Arronson has emphasized that all stumbling blocks were removed at two Miami Beach meetings yesterday. Promoters Tom and Al Bolan of Championship Sports, Incorporated, and representatives of both fighters met with the Boxing Commission and with the Miami Beach City Council.

PUBLIC HEARING

A joint legislative committee on professional boxing is slated to hold public hearings next month on a proposed bill that would ban the sport in New York State. Committee head Hayward Plumadore says the hearings will be held in Albany starting February fourth. He said his group has been concerned with fact finding and has not voted to recommend abolishing boxing. Plumadore said the hearing would give the public an opportunity to express opinions on the subject.

LEAGUE IDLE

The National Hockey League is idle for the second night in a row tonight. The American slate has Rochester at Baltimore and Springfield at Quebec. There were no games last night.

COMEBACK OF YEAR

The Twin Cities Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in Minneapolis honored Stan Musial as Comeback Of The Year last night. Mickey Mantle was named Player Of The Year.

TO MAKE COMEBACK

Former lightweight champion Joe Brown will be making a comeback attempt tonight in Houston when he tangles with Tony Noreiga in a 10-round over-the weight match. The 37-year-old Brown looked little like a champion when he lost his world crown last April to Carlos Ortiz in as Vegas. And he looked on better when he lost a decision to Molina last fall. The 22-year-old Noriega was good draw on the west coast last year while posting a 6 won, lost one and tied record.

"Young Canada Night" features Midgets event

It will be "Young Canada" night with junior hockey at its best, Thursday night, at Lindsay's arena.

This annual event, now in its third year, has drawn enthusiastic crowds to date, and promises to be another exciting night of hockey, sponsors say.

Under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, with all proceeds going to the Minor Hockey Association, "Young Canada" will feature this year as it did last, the amazing Belleville Midgets of the Belleville School for the Deaf.

These skilful youngsters will play the Lindsay Midgets.

Thought for Today

The late U-S President Woodrow Wilson once said: "There is such a thing as a man being too proud to fight."

Woodville wins by 11-0 score at Sunderland

Sunderland (PNS) — The Sunderland Midget Hockey Team were hosts to Woodville Midget Team at the Sunderland Memorial Arena.

The Sunderland boys were outweighed and outclassed by the big Woodville team who finished up on top by a score of 11-0.

Sunderland goalie Tom Coughlin was injured and had to be replaced.

The game was clean with only a few minor penalties being handed out by referees Cochrane and Campbell.

Sunderland downs L'Britain 7-5

Sunderland (PNS) — The Sunderland Harvesters downed the Little Britain Seniors by a two goal margin in a league hockey game played at Sunderland arena. The final score was 7-5.

Terrific efforts of fast play and fancy stick handling were displayed by both teams. The game was clean with few penalties being handed out to either team. Some of the better efforts were put forth by R. Taylor who is still of Midget age, scoring two of Little Britains goals, and D. Reid scoring three and M. McGee scoring two for Sunderland.

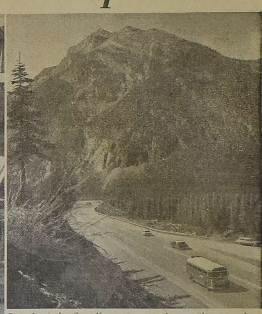
New Landmarks In Canadian Transportation

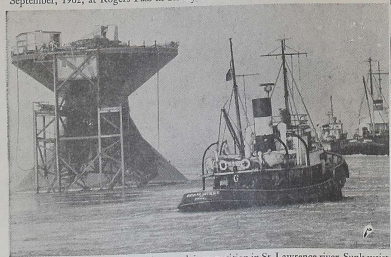
Surging ahead towards the supersonic world, Canada's transportation network has marked many a modern milestone in the past few months. On land, the 4,800 - mile Trans-Canada Highway from Newfoundland to British Columbia has sparked the first cross-Canada bus line. New city subways, bridges, expressways, autoroutes, pipelines are appearing; railways are streamlined —new ones snake north to mineral areas. At sea, the coast guard ship John A. Macdonald sliced to within 500 miles of the north pole, Seaway cargo tonnages boomed 10%, to 26,000,000 tons, and new - look lighthouses have come to the St. Lawrence. In the skies, Air Canada celebrated its 25th anniversary, new international air terminals are to open at Toronto, Edmonton and Winnipeg. Canadian-designed air freighters are meeting commercial success. Canada's transportation system, expanding with the modern-day world, is keeping pace with a growing population and its rising place in global affairs.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker tamps down symbolic square of road surface at opening of Trans-Canada Highway, September, 1962, at Rogers Pass in Rocky Mountains.

In 25 years Trans-Canada Air Lines has become a $316 million national asset. Above, some of the 5,000,000 passengers carried annually by Canadian air lines.

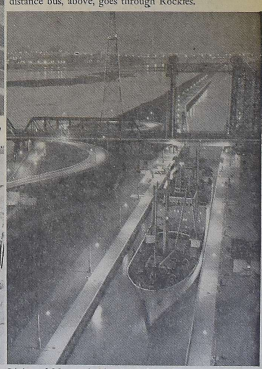


Last June the first direct east-west bus service went into daily operation. Service will soon be twice daily. Long-distance bus, above, goes through Rockies.



New, wasp-waisted lighthouse is towed into position in St. Lawrence river. Sunk waist deep, lighthouse superstructure and helicopter deck is added later.

Exact model of 54 miles of St. Lawrence river was built for hydraulic research. Concrete model, seen above, under construction, is 500 feet long, covers 16,000 square feet.



Lights of Montreal shine brightly as inbound ship passes up Seaway.

March 16th has been set as a tentative date for the annual Lindsay Figure Skating Carnival, it was learned today.

President B. Rogers told "The Post" that owing to the considerable cost for costumes the club would feature a "Pop Concert" carnival in miniature instead of the regular carnival.

As St. Patrick's Day falls on the 17th, the program will feature appropriate Irish music and dress.

All members of the club will participate in the carnival and as an added attraction, there will be an adult number by members of the group, Mr. Rogers said.

Mr. Rogers also mentioned that Sunday afternoon, February 3rd., will be test day for preliminary figure, and up to and including Junior Bronze dancing.

Concerned about lack of fish, Carden asks investigation

Reeve E. J. Murphy and residents of Carden Township are concerned regarding the lack of game fish in Dalrymple Lake.

Dalrymple Lake, one of the smaller of the beautiful lakes in Victoria County, is surrounded with cottages and as Reeve Murphy remarked: 'We want to keep them happy.'

At the closing of the January session of the county council Reeve Murphy introduced a motion which had been passed by the Carden Council, calling for investigation by the Game and Fisheries branch of the Dept. of Lands and Forests.

County council endorsed the motion which calls for information regarding the last time fingerlings were deposited in the lake, how many, and urging the department to restock it.

Carden Council also requested that a game warden be assigned to the area, not that any fault can be found with the present wardens, "but because they are too busy to give attention to the entire area".

The resolution also called for the elimination of unnecessary weeds in the lake.

NOTICED . . along the way

Everyone had a wonderful time at Oakwood's Skating Carnival Saturday night. An estimated 400 people flocked to the village rink including Mariposa's Reeve Roy Morrison who did the honours by setting the program in motion. In the top picture Chairman Lloyd Graham presents prizes to Marilyn Glassford (left) and Judy Squires who placed first and second in the best costume for girls under 10 class. (Centre picture shows Katherine Hill (Lindsay) on the left and Yvonne Wylie (Oakwood) who topped the best costume for girls under 14 class. The best dressed couple, third down, made a striking pair on the ice and it wasn't until the 'lady' thanked the judges for her prize that her feminine qualities became suspect. "My what, a deep voice you have," remarked one of the judges, "can it be that you aren't really a lady?" Blushing becomingly under liberal application of rouge, she gave the judge a knowing look and skated gracefully away with her partner. 'She' turned out to be Bryan Suggitt of Peterboro and 'her' well dressed escort was Ronald Suggitt. They start pretty young at these carnivals and they travel quite a distance to take part. The handsome lad in the bunny costume is Cameron Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jenkins of Willowdale and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Cameron, Oakwood. He copped first prize in his class. The awesome Indian brave was a close second in this competition for boys and girls under school age. He is George Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson, Lindsay.

Forced off road, Lindsay driver tells police

Damages of $500 were caused when a car, driven by Roy Polito, of Lindsay, went out of control, travelled over 100 feet along the ditch and landed on its side.

Investigating OPP Const. J. R. Deslaurier said the driver told him he had been forced off the road by an approaching car.

The accident happened about two miles south of Fenelon Falls on Highway 121.

There were no injuries.

BROWN TROUT LORE

BROWN TROUT
(SALMO TRUTTA LINNAEUS)

THIS TROUT IS AN IMPORT OF GERMANY (GERMAN BROWN) AND SCOTLAND (LOCH LEVEN). IN MOST AREAS, THE MINOR DIFFERENCES HAVE BEEN LOST THROUGH INTERBREEDING, SO BIOLOGISTS NOW REFER TO IT ONLY AS BROWN TROUT. IT IS USUALLY FOUND IN LARGER STREAMS AND LAKES TOO WARM FOR BROOK TROUT—AND BEING WARIEST OF ALL TROUT, SURVIVES IN HEAVILY-FISHED WATERS.

A FAVORITE HAUNT OF BROWN TROUT IS IN FRONT OF ROCKS AT THE TAIL OF A POOL. 90% OF THEIR DIET IS UNDERWATER LIFE.

Alleges false propaganda undermined local control

NOTICED . . along the way

They still have fun "down on the farm" . . . If you don't think they do, take a run out past George Oliver's farm on the Bobcaygeon highway (beyond Dunsford a piece) when the skating rink is in full swing. A natural, it was originally a swampy section of the farm which, after bulldozing, made a good pond in summer and a dandy rink in the wintertime. In the top picture, Mr. Oliver mans the snowplowing tractor and gives Don and Jeff Thompson a hand clearing the rink after a heavy snowfall. In the next picture down, it's all hands in front of the net as the youthful hockey players get set for a practice. From left to right in the picture are, Don and Jeff Thompson, Paul Grills (Bobcaygeon), George Oliver, his son Gary and Allan Rogers. All except Paul come from the RR 1 Dunsford area. Some idea of the area covered by ice surface may be gained from the bottom picture.

Offers assistance to displaced arsenal employees

Lindsay Industrial Commission, in regular meeting Tuesday evening, discussed at length the closing of the Canadian Arsenals Limited Plant which is scheduled to cease operations here on March 31.

The Commission went on record as being prepared to offer every assistance to employees who will be displaced and is presently seeking undertakings that the plant will be left in good order for prospective industry.

A meeting with production and administration representatives of the Arsenal is planned for next week.

Ex-warden says press misquoted him, issues a clarifying statement

Ex-Warden John Alton of Eldon Township alleges that false propaganda was circulated to influence voting in his area, and gain control of local politics. He makes the charge in a statement issued to clear up a misunderstanding which he attributes to a misquotation of his remarks carried in this paper.

Mr. Alton states:

"I would like to clear up a misquote in your paper where it is stated that I am opposed to the summer residence voting.

"Where it reads: "Formerly the law held that a voter must reside within a five-mile limit of the Municipality where he is eligible to vote", should read: "Formerly the law held that a voter must reside within a five mile limit of a municipality where he is eligible to vote in order to qualify for office." This last phrase was left out.

"I feel that if you own property in municipalities you should be able to exercise your franchise and to see that summer residents had that privilege we gave them an advance pole in Eldon Township.

"In my association with the different people of the various councils during my 15 years public life, I have found the majority of councillors trying to do what is right without fear of favour. They wanted to be fair to the people in the county and also fair to the residents outside the county. As the people outside the country, an example of our fairness to our local council passed subdivision bylaws approved by the planning board of the Province of Ontario protecting the investments of the summer residents and we have had to do this against the strong opposition of the local subdivider.

"We read of unfounded charges in the press, introduced by the Hoad forces: that the councils are taxing the summer residents unfairly; that they are assessing them

Retirement held no charms for former school principal

Retirement held no lasting charms for former school principal Murdoch (Murdie) Murchison. No sooner had he retired after 18 years as principal of a Metro Toronto school, had a trip across the country and back, than he decided to get himself into a new set of harness. This time in the real estate and business brokerage field.

After successfully passing the examinations required by the Real Estate and business Brokers Act, Mr. Murchison became associated with the National Trust Co. Ltd. at the Cloverdale Mall, fully qualified to enter a new field of endeavour.

Born at Glenarm in Fenelon Township, during his younger days he was deeply involved in baseball and hockey circles. Later going to Oakwood, in Mariposa Township, where he became principal of the public school, he also took an active part in municipal matters as Mariposa Township treasurer. He likes to reminisce about the days he sat in with Mariposa Council in their efforts to solve the problems of the "twenties".

Mr. Murchison or "Murdie" as he is commonly called, takes a keen interest in returning to this district to renew old-established friendships and hear all about the students who came under his direction and guidance as well as visit with the parents he knew in what he likes to refer to as the "good old days."

His many friends in his native Victoria County where he has been well and favorably known over the years wish him every success in his new venture.

EDITORIAL....

THERE OUGHT TO BE . . .

There ought to be some kind of a central organization to cope with disaster situations in this district. At least that's the way several people feel about it after having seen some of the problems which arise when things are handled on a well-intentioned by unco-ordinated basis at such times.

In the wake of a serious fire in the Cresswell district this week, an appeal was made for assistance to help re-establish the victims who lost practically all of their belongings. Naturally, being a warm-hearted community and for the most part fairly well endowed with this world's goods, people respond generously. Unfortunately, the response is sometimes too generous in some directions. For example, a distressed family may wind up with enough electric lamps to furnish a boarding house but not have an iron in the place. An established central agency should be able to cope with the situation more effectively by listing needs and accepting only those things which were essential.

Would a service of this kind come within the scope of an Emergency Measures Organization if it were set up in this county? Or should it be taken on by one of the established disaster relief agencies now functioning? Whichever the case, it is something which would no doubt lessen the confusion which invariably attends such developments. Do you agree?

Remember way back when

JANUARY 23, 1913

Hockey fans who have been anxiously awaiting the intermediate O.H.A. Fixture between Lindsay and Markham will be given a chance tonight to see a battle royal between these two teams. The locals are determined to wipe out the defeat administered to them in Markham on January 10th. The Markhamites will bump up against a stronger aggregation tonight and a hair raising struggle may be expected. The ice is in good condition and all that is needed to encourage the boys to victory is a big crowd of rooters. Referee Burgoyne will handle the tinkler, and the teams will line up as follows: Lindsay– Connors, goal; Hurd, point, Callaghan cover, A. McPhee, centre, F. McPhee, rover, Cote, r. wing, and C. Carew, L. wing. Markham–Rolph, goal, Reesor, point, Stewart, cover, Farley rover, Speck, centre, Robb, r wing, Beaton, l. wing.

Col. R. I. Moore, K.C., addressed the county council on behalf of the inmates of the county jail who by reason of existing regulations governed by the lack of fire prevention equipment at the jail, are not allowed to smoke Col. Moore requested the council to seriously consider the matter of installing an alarm system in the jail so the inmates may smoke without breaking regulations. The council left the matter in the hands of the County Property Committee with power to act . The system would cost in the neighbourhood of $50,000.

Reports and Remarks..

CARBON TETRACHLORIDE — "DANGER"

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration recently seized a quantity of carbon tetrachloride on charges that the containers failed to bear required warnings under the Federal Hazardous Substances Labelling Act. The bottles were labelled "Carbon Tethrachloride" and included the name and address of the packer, but not the word "Danger" and other required warnings and first aid instructions. The containers also did not bear a label containing the word "Poison" and the skull and crossbones.

—NATIONAL SAFETY NEWS.

Carbon Tetrachloride is one of those products sold widely in Canada without sufficient warning notices on many of the labels. This product is very dangerous is used in a room without good ventilation so that it is inhaled in a reasonably concentrated form, or if it is introduced into the body through the pores of the skin, usually on the hands. We feel there is much to be said for the U.S. F.D.A. Regulations on this material, and on certain other toxic substances currently available without adequate warning in Canada to both industrial and home users.

"Imagine it's about time . . ."

January 19, 1963.

The Editor,
The Lindsay Post.
Dear Sir:

I imagine that it is about time some person challenged the smearing propaganda being circulated in recent editions of the press, concerning Somerville Township, by Mr. Norman Taylor of Coboconk.

He is or was a very sick man after the election and he had every reason to be sick, when you consider that he only obtained 154 votes out a possible 1,000 for the office of reeve. To add fuel to the fire, he was thoroughly defeated in all six polls in the municipality and only received five votes in the ward where he was born and raised.

The residents of Somerville Township view this episode as a kind of joke but his accusations have reached many citizens outside our circle and without a doubt, a great many people would actually believe his demoralizing picture of Somerville Township business transactions.

He complains about the processing of the recent township election, and his accusations are completely unfounded. The clerk was advised by our solicitor to use the 1961 Voters' List due to the fact that the return of the assessment roll to the clerk had been extended from Sept. 30th. to November 30th. This did not allow the clerk sufficient time to prepare a 1962 Voters' List, have it printed, allow it be posted 30 days and an additional 10 days for complaints to the judge. Added all together this meant a total of 40 days. The statutes read that no election can be held later than the first Monday in January, therefore the spread of time between December 1st. and January 7th. would not allow the use of 1962 Voters' List. But they do provide that 1961 list which was certified in 1961 could be used and in addition, any person whose name appeared on 1962 assessment role could obtain a vote by applying to the clerk for a certificate. This method was complied with, to the letter.

The citizens of Somerville Township would have extended a good deal more sympathy to Mr. Taylor had he acted more like a grownup, conceded the election and shook the hand of the successful candidate, which is more or less the custom in our democratic way of life. His display of poor sportsmanship may have cost him any future opportunity of becoming a member of the council.

I would be remiss not to mention that Somerville Twp. has been very fortunate in electing the cream of the crop, all highly respected citizens, intelligent, and ready and willing at all times to listen to taxpayers problems. Our township is one of very few, that stands in a very sound financial position. We have operated for years without having to borrow money from the bank; We possess the very best in a bookkeeping system, and our auditors are reputable chartered accountants.

Concluding this deplorable subject, I wish to explore in another field, that is the subject of the controversial definition of the phrase or word "resident" in the Assessment Act.

In the Act it states that any person, to be eligible to sit on a municipal council must be a resident or live within five miles of the municipality.

Recently, a judge ruled that any person who owns property in a municipality and resides in it overnight, could be defined as a resident.

The writer had the privilege and honor ot being invited to attend a meeting of the Select Committee in the Parliament Building for the purpose of revising or repealing certain sections of the Municipal Act, and this subject was seriously discussed.

There were several members of parliament together with many officials of the Municipal Board present, and I am proud to mention that all expressed their whole-hearted appreciation and concern in regards this particular problem. There is no denying the fact that all cottage owners and non-residents are entitled to a vote and some say in the operation of the township.

I was asked how I would go about defining the word "resident" and I replied that my answer should be considered as personal, and that a resident should be a property owner who eats and sleeps on the property for at least ten months in the year. The remaining two months might be for vacation.

I was asked if our citizens or council would object to having one non-resident cottage owner on our council, and again from a personal point of view, I replied that I thought our council and citizens would very much appreciate a non-resident, where his views and problems could be aired in a co-operative spirit.

Then some one of the members suggested the passing of legislation whereby in all rural municipalities with a five member council, a majority must be permanent residents and a permanent resident must be one who continuously resides in the township for at least 10 months.

Hoping this suggestion may help to solve a very controversial subject and that some legislation be enacted that would allow the municipal councils to give the cottage owners a better break for their tax dollar, I am,

A. A. Williamson,
Ex-Clerk.

Tired Winter Appetites

January is the month of tired winter appetites, when heavy meals often become uninteresting. Here's a menu to delight family and special company alike.

Celery Soup Rajah

Begin with celery soup rajah. In a saucepan, blend one can condensed cream of celery soup, one soup can milk and one-half teaspoon curry powder. Heat, stirring often, but do not boil. Pour into mugs and garnish with apple. Serves four.

Rolled Lamb Slices

Rolled lamb slices begin by combining the following: one-half cup sour cream, one can condensed tomato soup, one-fourth teaspoon pepper and three-fourths teaspoon whole thyme. Spread some sauce on 12 thin lamb shoulder slices and roll up jellyroll fashion, arranging meat cut side down in a greased dish. Pour remaining sauce over meat and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Serves four to six.

Creamed French Fries

Creamed French Fried Potatoes for four. Spread one package frozen French Fries over the bottom of a casserole. Sprinkle with salt and bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Melt butter in a skillet and stir in one tablespoon flour, one-fourth teaspoon dry mustard and one-half teaspoon salt. Add 1 cup milk and cook until thick. Add one-half teaspoon caraway seeds and one-half cup sour cream. Heat and pour over fries. Sprinkle with paprika and Rosemary and bake 15 minutes.

Almond Topping

Serve this almond topping over green beans or broccoli. Blend the following: one-fourth cup each crumbled blue cheese and sour cream. Also, one-eighth pound soft butter and one-half cup finely chopped almonds. Spoon over cooked vegetables to serve.

Endive Salad

Endive salad to serve four. Wash and dry 4 stalks sliced Belgian endive and add to one sliced cucumber and two cups cut Romaine lettuce. Blend two cups large curd cottage cheese with one-fourth cup sour cream. Toss vegetables gently with mixture and three tablespoons french dressing.

For Dessert

For dessert, serve chocolate pudding into which finely cut white mint patties have been added.

Birth Notice

ROBERTSON — Percy and Barbara are happy to announce the safe arrival of a son, David Charles Percy, 9 lbs, on Monday, January 14, 1963 at Lindsay. A brother for Christopher. (H9938)

Cards of Thanks

DAVIES — I wish to extend my sincere thanks to all my friends for the letters, cards and gifts I received while a patient in the hospital in Lindsay. A special thank you to Dr. Anderson and Dr. Watson and the nurses for their kindly care and attention. Thank you very much. Edward Davies.

NESBITT — We wish to extend to our relatives, friends and neighbours our heartfelt thanks, and appreciation for their many acts of kindness and sympathy in the loss of a loving husband and father, Thomas Nesbitt of Norland, for the beautiful floral tributes and cards received, also a sincere thank you to Rev. Staples of Minden for his words of comfort. Mrs. Thomas Nesbitt, Don, Lois and families. (H9911)

BURCHELL — Sincere thanks to relatives, friends, neighbours, attending nurses and staff at Ross Memorial Hospital, Dr. W. R. Crowe, Rev. D. E. Lemon, Royal Canadian Legion Branch 67, and the Mackey Funeral Home, for their kindness, cards, flowers, messages of sympathy received during the lengthy illness of a loving husband. Mrs. Peter Burchell. (3453)

MARK — I would like to sincerely thank all my friends and relatives for remembering me with cards, gifts and flowers, also to the many who visited me while in hospital. Special thanks to the nurses, and staff, Drs. Watson, Wood and Service. My opinion is, its a good place to be in the Ross Memorial Hospital, when one needs medical attention. Percy Mark. (3523)

In Memoriam

TEER — In loving memory of a dear father James Leslie Teer who passed away January the 24th, 1962.
This month comes with deep regret,
It brings back a day, I shall never forget,
You went to sleep with out good bye,
But my love for you will never die.
Sadly missed by son Garv. (3547)

TEER — In loving memory of a dear father, Mr. James Leslie Teer, who passed away Jan. 24, 1962.
In sorrow I waited, day by day,
And watched him suffering there,
Slowly but surely passing away
From the pain he scarce could bear,
And then God called from his throne above,
His suffering and pain is passed,
I know he has gone to realms of love,
And in heaven has peace at last.
Sadly missed by daughter Marjorie. (H9897)

TEER — In loving memory of a dear father, James Leslie Teer who passed away January 24, 1962.
We had a father we were proud to own,
How much we miss Him will never be known.
The heartaches in this world are many,
But to lose our Father was the greatest of any
So for our father's love is mingled with tears,
And a fervent wish to turn back the years.
To have you dear father and your loving ways,
To live once again Those past happy days.
Lovingly remembered by daughter Doreen, Son-in-law Bob and granddaughter Linda. (3546)

In Memoriam

TEER — In loving memory of my dear husband James Leslie Teer who passed away January 24, 1962.
We walked together you and I,
In sorrow and in joy,
We shared our pains and happiness,
With love without alloy,
And death shall never end our love,
For through the mist I see,
Our glad reunion in the skies for all Eternity.
So many things have happened,
Since you were called away.
So many things to share with you
Had you been left to stay
Its sad to walk the road alone
Instead of side by side,
But to all there comes a moment,
When the ways of life divide,
You gave me years of happiness,
Then comes sorrow and tears,
But you left me beautiful memories,
I will treasure throughout the years.
Sadly missed and dearly remembered by loving wife Minnie. (3545)

TEER — In loving memory of a dear father James L. Teer who passed away Jan. 24, 1962.
Though Dad's smile has gone forever,
And his hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much
His memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part,
God has him in His keeping,
We have him in our hearts.
Sadly missed by son Leslie, daughter-in-law Marina and grandson Jimmy. (3561)

WRIGHT — In loving memory of my dear son and brother, who passed away January 22, 1961
Always a smile, instead of a frown,
Always a hand when one was down,
Always true, thoughtful and kind
Wonderful memories he left behind.
Ever remebered by mother, brother Melvin and sister-in-law Ella and sister Verna and brother-in-law Gordon. (3505)

HAYWOOD — In memory of Sarah Jane who passed away Jan 23, 1956.
Deep in the heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest.
In memory's frame I shall keep it
Because she was one of the best.
Ever remembered by husband Ambrose. (3563)

HANEY — In memory of our mother Alma Haney who passed away Jan. 27, 1961.
As angels keep their watch up there,
Please God, let her know,
That we down here, do not forget
We loved and miss her so.
Lovingly remembered by Marian and Ron, Freida and Wib. (H9915)

HANEY — In memory of Grandma, Alma Haney, who left us two years ago Jan. 27, 1961.
We lost a grandma with a heart of gold,
She was more to us than wealth untold,
Without farewell she fell asleep
With only memories for use to keep.
Sadly missed by Cindy, Terry and Bob. (H9916)
our brother Clifford who passed away Jan. 23, 1960, and our sister-in-law Edith who passed away Dec. 23, 1960.
Beautiful memories woven in gold,
This is the picture we tenderly hold,
Deep in our hearts their memory is kept,
To love, to cherish and never forget.
Sadly missed by Elva, Pearl, Ruby, Blanche and Viola. (3473)

In Memoriam

TEER — In loving memory of a dear father James Leslie Teer, who passed away January the 24th, 1962.
Please God forgive a silent tear,
A fervent wish our Dad was here,
There are others, yes, we know,
But he was our's, we loved him so,
Dear Lord take a message,
To our Father in Heaven above,
Tell him how much we miss him
And give him all our love.
Always remembered by daughter Beverly, son-in-law Jack. (3544)

HALL — In memory of Clifton Hall who passed away Jan. 23rd, 1962.
Happy memories, fond and true
From us who thought the world of you.
From Dad, sister Doreen, brothers Harry, Keith, Lionel, Floyd. 3565)

Health forces his retirement year before time

The resignation of Welfare Administrator F. W. Williamson was received by Lindsay's Council Monday. Mr. Williamson stated his resignation was necessary due to ill health. He offered two or three months' assistance to a replacement for the position. Mayor Jos. Holton pointed out Mr. Williamson had one year to go before retirement. On motion of councillor Jos. Hutton, the clerk was authorized to advertise for a replacement for the position. Other details of the retirement were referred to the Welfare Committee.

Thought for Today

Lindsay endorses proposal to end detergent pollution of waterways

Lindsay Council has taken action to help stop the pollution of fresh waterways by detergents. It was decided to concur with a resolution of Wentworth County, endorsed by Victoria County Council, that the government make immediate legislation to prohibit a mineral base in detergents.

Mayor Joseph Holtom explained that reserch has found phosphorous is such a mineral base, which is blamed for clogging sewers, interfering with sewage disposal and causing algae.

"In Germany fresh water pollution was solved by prohibiting the use of phosphorous in detergents," he said.

Alleges

higher than the local residents. These baseless charges are building up hatred to gain power the same as happened in Germany during the 30's. These people are filling the press with erroneous statements like one Mr. John Dunford had in the Peterboro press where he stated that the summer cottagers are paying the heaviest share of the taxes in my township and in several surrounding counties. I would like to say that Eldon Township is assessed according to the Provincial Assessment Manual of the Province of Ontario. Also a large number of summer residents appealed their assessments at the Court of Revision and where mistakes had been made, they were corrected and those who were still dissatisfied took their appeals to the County Judge and the assessment was unheld. One appeal was taken to the Municipal Board and it was dismissed. The hearing was Jan., 9, 1963.

"The summer residents in the Township of Eldon pay 29.6 per cent of the taxes in Eldon Township and they only pay 22.4 per cent of the taxes in the county of Victoria, a long way from the largest share.

"I would advise Mr. Dunford and Mr. Hoad to read the eighth verse of the Twenty-first Chapter of Revelation before they make any more statements as erroneous as those attributed to them in the press.

False propaganda and false statements are being used to gain power the same as Hitler in the 30's and also the same tactics that the Chief Priests used almost two thousand years ago to crucify our Lord.

"I have no quarrel with who the summer cottagers elect as long as their representatives reside in the township the year round because these people have a democratic right to have a representative on the township council, but let their representative live in the municipality the year round."

Mothers, children fearful

Dysart acts to control dogs running at large

Haliburton is faced with a dog problem. Children on their way to school, and the mothers of these children, have become concerned with the number of dogs roaming at large in and around the village.

Clerk-Treasurer G. H. Windsor, of Dysart, told "The Post" that the dog problem is beginning to get out of hand.

"We have a lot of dogs here in our village", he said, "some of them are huskies, and there are quite a few big police dogs too, and the children are getting so afraid of them, that some of them don't want to go to school."

"Also, the incident last year, where the dog bit a child hasn't helped the situation any".

He said the situation was kept fairly well under control last year by the late Alfred Burke, who was the bylaw officer until the time of his death.

"However," he added, "we have just appointed Mr. Frank McIntyre as temporary bylaw officer, and I think there has been a reduction in the number of dogs running at large during the past few weeks."

"The new bylaw, passed by the municipality of Dysart in March 1962, makes it unlawful for any dog to run at large at anytime and anywhere if not under the control of any person", continued Mr. Windsor.

"But the folks around here have always been pretty cooperative in the past, so I see no reason why this problem should not be cleared up very soon" he said.

Terms theft "despicable", remands pair in custody

Described as one of the most despicable of thefts, Magistrate Moore, of Lindsay, remanded two 18-year-old Toronto youths in custody for two weeks after finding them guilty on charges of cattle rustling, and breaking and entering.

"This is one of the most despicable of thefts", he remarked to Hank Arends, and Frank Voscamp, "especially from two former employers, who had taken you in their confidence by hiring you."

The two youths, who, in the same court only a few weeks ago, had appeared on charges of breaking and entering and been placed on suspended sentence, were remanded in custody for two weeks.

Pleading guilty to the charges of stealing and selling cattle, the two youths heard testimonies from the different arresting officers stating that in December of 1962 they (Arends and Voskamp) had stolen three calves from Roy Robertson, of Britton, two of them registered, and had sold them at the Lindsay cattle auction for $50 apiece.

Other evidence showed they had also stolen a calf from a former employer of Arends, Mr. Lloyd Lee and had entered a creamery in Bobcaygeon also owned by Mr. Lee, and had stolen a sum of money.

They had later taken another calf from the farm of Norman Germyn of Dunsford, disposing of it in the same manner, at a cattle auction.

"Did they have a truck to transport the animals?" asked Crown Attorney Jordan.

"No sir", replied an officer, "only a car."

Special $5,000 grant made to Lindsay Central Exhibition

A special grant of $5,000 was made by the Victoria County Council to the Lindsay Central Exhibition Board to assist in the payment of the cost of the new grandstand. This was in excess of the yearly grant of $1,000 also made to the LCE Board.

Other grants approved at the county council session opening Tuesday January 15th and closing Monday were: Canadian National Institute for the Blind $1,000; Victoria County Plowmen's Association $400; Lindsay Public Library $50; Other libraries in Victoria County $25 each; Salvation Army $500; East and West Victoria District WI's $50 each; for general purposes, Township of Bexley $400, Carden $400, Dalton $300, Laxton, Digby and Longford $350, Somerville $400; St. John's Ambulance Society $25, County of Victoria Historical Society $500; Fenelon Falls Historical Society $300; Jr. Farmer's Work in County $400; Marposa, Somerville and Verulam Agricultural Societies $400 each; Fenelon Agricultural Societies $200; Various horticultural societies in the county $25 each; Canadian Mental Health Association - $50; Local office Department of Agriculture $500.

The application for a grant to the county of Victoria Children's Aid Society was referred to the Finance Committee to make a grant and pay the deficit of the society as of December 31st, 1962.

The application for a grant to the County of Victoria Children's Aid Society was referred to the Finance Committee for recommendation to the March session.

Action was deferred on making grants to the Kawartha Lakes Tourist Association and the various Chambers of Commerce in the county until reports were received from the Game Fish and Tourist Industry Committee.

"Back-on" collision

Some drivers believe in doing things the hard way. At least that's the way it looked Tuesday morning when two Lindsay drivers backed their vehicles into each other.

It was no ordinary head-on stuff for them as Gord Cunningham, while backing a bus he was driving into a laneway, came in contact with Theo Kuypers who happened to be backing his vehicle out of the same laneway.

Result, a "back-on" collision with no injuries and only minor damages.

David Logan joining law firm

It became known a few days ago that David Logan, son of Mrs. and the late Dr. H.D. Logan, Albert Street, North, will enter the well established law firm of Thomson and Thomson, Kent Street, Lindsay Collegiate Institute and is widely known among former Collegiate Institute students and law associates in Toronto. It is understood he will start his professional career in Lindsay early in March.

Tried to avoid dogs, oil truck ditched

A Fenelon Falls man escaped unhurt at 11:30 this morning although the 1,500 gallon Cities Service truck he was driving took to the ditch and landed on its side on the Highway 35 curve south of Cameron this morning.

Claude Rogers said he tried to miss two dogs playing on the road and the truck, owned by Mac Armstrong, Fenelon Falls went into a swerve and landed in the ditch. He was unhurt and was able to get out of the cab easily. One dog was hit and the other escaped injury. The truck was damaged to an extent of about $50. The driver said he was on his way again in about an hour. Fee Motors service of Lindsay pulled the tanker to the road and driver Rogers drove the truck to Fenelon Falls.

An undetermined amount of gas was spilled in the accident. The truck had been on gas delivery in the area, Mr. Rogers said.

Benefit Dance

Many respond to appeal for burned out family

When it comes to "helping a fella when he's down", Lindsay area folks don't need to "take a back seat to anyone".

A stranger to many of them Mr. William Lake, of Cressell, who, with his family a few days ago, was forced to flee from his home because of fire, is getting a sample of what they do for people in need as he sees gifts of clothing, food, and furniture being brought in.

Tommy Teatro of Lindsay, told "The Post" that he had already delivered a load of furniture to the family, and another is waiting to go.

It's fantastic how so many people, who do not even know the family, have responded to the appeal", he said.

"There are still donations coming in, and there are boxes of every description from various merchants including beds, an electric stove, and other articles."

"I also understand there is a businessman in town who has outfitted the whole family", he noted.

A community benefit dance in aid of the family will be held at the Manilla Community Hall on Saturday night.

Music will be supplied by Tommy Teatro and his Country Gentlemen.

There will be no admission charge as it will be a "Come as you please, and pay as you please" affair.

All proceeds will be turned over to the family during the evening.

Norman Skitch CGA'S editor, executive sec'y

N.L. (Norman) Skitch of Lindsay is back in the news business again. A former employee of The Lindsay Post, Mr. Skitch is now executive secretary of The Certified General Accountants Association of Ontario at Toronto. In addition he is also editor of the CGA Ontario News Bulletin, a quarterly publication devoted to affairs within the organization. At the moment, Mr. Skitch and his editor-in-chief — J. S. Dow, C.G.A. — have just finished compiling their special convention issue which is being held at the King Edward Sheraton Hotel, Toronto for three days starting February 7th.

Company officials plan conference at Alpine Inn

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — High ranking officers of Union Carbide Canada Ltd., will meet here Feb. 4, 5, and 6 to review company policies and problems.

Site of the conference will be the 110-year-old Alpine Inn, overlooking Fenelon Falls' famed waterway.

Delegates are expected from Vancouver to Halifax. Many will be from Union Carbide's Visking Division in Lindsay.

Selection of the Alpine Inn was based on the fact that some 30 executives could be housed under one roof for the duration of the conference.

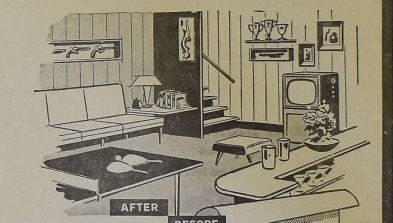
FINNEY LUMBER LIMITED
"One Responsibility" Plan
TAKES THE GAMBLE OUT OF HOME IMPROVEMENT!



Let's be honest—our annual winter work slump is on. That's why this is the best time of the year to transform that dingy basement into a handsome rec. room. Adding a room, installing new kitchen cabinets, or any home remodeling job can be done now for less, and without waiting for workers. And there's no gamble in the results. We take care of everything for you, including easy financing that won't upset your budget!

HERE'S HOW OUR PLAN WORKS:

COSTS:
You tell us what improvement you want and we will give you a firm price for the entire job before the work starts. You know your final cost—no "extras"—no "hidden" costs.

MATERIALS:
We supply all materials to your specifications and put skilled workmen on the job for each trade employed.

FINANCING:
We'll take care of the financing on our LDA Budget Plan that lets you make improvements of up to $3,000 and take 5 years to pay for them.

See how life picks up when you fix up! Call us now, and find out how little it costs to remodel your home.

Pot Shots By Fenwick Finch!

The picture below was given to be about three weeks ago when Al Perrin and I had such and interesting evening. Couldn't use it in the story for, by the time the cut got back, the article had been printed. The story behind the picture is this.

"During 1925 and 1926 the town of Fort Meyers had such a large growth and the people were so enthused they held a big celebration. We were playing the town at the time and they used our "show band" to lead the parade. The amount of the growth was signified by difference in size of the young fellow carrying the 1925 sign and the tall gentleman carrying the sign for 1926."

"That's very interesting Al", I commented, "what's the local connection?"

"The young man carrying the 1925 sign is the present Postmaster in Haliburton–my son Jimmie."

Al has left me a great deal of material concerning the show days in Lindsay–this material goes back to the time before the "Lindsay Post" was located at the foot of Kent Street in what was the Wonderland Theatre and is now a Super Market.

There'll be more of these memoirs later. I'm sure you'll find them interesting.

Speaking of new post offices –they aren't all popular.

A resident of a nearby community was quite disgusted with their new post office and he didn't make any bones about it.

"They built a new Post Office in our town", he grumbled, "and it's a waste of the taxpayer's money. Now they're delivering mail to the doors."

"Going down street for the mail was the only excuse I had to get away from the little woman".

There is a loaded and dangerous situation in existence in practically every small community throughout Victoria and Haliburton Counties–this could explode at any time and the results might well be disastrous.

There isn't any one community you could single out–they all have the same problem–dogs running at large–singly and in groups of two to three even five and six.

There is a strong agitation afoot to have bylaws passed forbidding this type of thing. The weakness lies in the enforcement.

Something should be done before it is too late. It only takes one dog in a group to set off the chain reaction. One dog pounces on a child either in fun or with a purpose. The others soon follow him and the small child is lucky that he or she is not seriously scarred for life or possibly torn to pieces.

It's too late after it happens –shooting the dog doesn't bring the child back.

This little story comes to mind and happened quite some time ago in Fannings Barn on York St. South. Bert Weese the owner and his friend B. L. McLean were talking together. Both these gentlemen, when living, were well-known throughout the community for their astuteness at horse-dealing and trading.

During the conversation an erstwhile customer came into the barn and roared.

"You guys lied to me–you didn't tell me the truth. That bay mare I bought is almost blind–she can't see worth a d–".

"Yes, I know," came the reply from B.L. "but I certainly didn't lie to you about it. I told you she was a fine horse but didn't look good!"

The age of chivalry is not dead–sometimes I wish it was. During a short visit in Toronto on business I parked my car uptown and thought I'd try the subway.

Sitting there I was enjoying the trip down-town. Sitting across from me was an elderly courtly, gentleman. (Elderly, anything older than I am).

The car was fairly crowded. Standing between us was a beautiful brunette, as she hung on the strap, swaying back and forth, I couldn't help but think how nice it would be to have someone like that hanging around.

Before I could think of it, the old gentleman started to rise from his seat. The young lady smiled and pushed him back down.

"No thank you–I don't mind standing".

The old gentleman, not to be denied, tried twice more to get up, but, with a smile ,she pushed him back.

"Now you've done it," he growled, "you made me miss my stop!"

I had quite a visit with Haliburton County's only Q.C.– J. Earl Palmer, of Minden. Within the next week or two I'll have a few of his experiences for you. They are amusing and go to prove that a lawyer's life is not always dry and stuffy.

This column is going to be shorter this week–she's been a poor week. Little or nothing has happened. Oh well, you can't win them all. Practically everyone I know is down South enjoying the cold weather. Other sources of information have dried up. It's nice and warm in the house–why bother going out?

In closing this week. To L.W.J. The day following our conversation in the "Bonfire Restaurant" I had a look out your way and I'm sorry, the road's are still snow-blocked so I was unable to check on the "Second Oldest Log-House" in Haliburton County.

So, until next week, remember this–

"It's all too true! By the time a man has money to burn the fire has gone out!"

Fenwick.

Yelverton

Glad to report that Mrs. Bert Gibson, Mr. Stanley McCabe and Mrs. Jerry Birstow are all home from the hospital. The good wishes of this community for an improvement in health to Mr. Robert Atkinson who is in St. Margaret's Hospital in Toronto. Likewise to Mr. Ray Wright of Islington who has been released from St. Michael's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Balfour Moore anw Mr. and Mrs. Murray Malcolm on behalf of Yelverton community called on and presented Mr. and Mrs. Jake Van Dam Sr., of Bowmanville, with a floor-lamp, andirons, and a hassock, a small token in farewell gift on their departure from this neighbourhood.

Sympathy is extended to the Robt. Stintsons', the James Mackies and the Harold Stinsons's in the passing of their aunt, Miss Ethel Fowler. Funeral services were conducted from Port Perry with interment in Yelverton United Church Cemetery.

Bethany

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Jackson visited in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McGill.

Ernest Lamb is home again from Civic Hospital, Peterborough.

Andy Watson has returned from visiting his nephew Ian Munroe in Elliott Lake.

Mrs. Clara Armstrong, who is in Civic Hospital is reported as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McIlmoyl, Peterboro, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Palmer.

Mrs. Rhonda Johnston moved recently into her newly built home in Peterboro.

Mr and Mrs. Ed McGlynn and family, Peterboro, visited Mrs. Ina Palmer.

Friends will be interested in a clipping received here from The Sarnia Observer containing a picture of the newly elected officers in Sarnia Senior Citizens Club. The picture showed Alex H. Monk formerly of Bethany as the vice-president. At 81, Mr. Monk is hale and hearty and still active in Church work.

Yelverton United Church held its annual church meeting with a potluck supper preceding the business session.

WHY DIAGNOSIS IS IMPORTANT

"What's more important, diagnosis or treatment?"

Many patients have asked this question. I tell them it is as difficult to answer as: "Is it as cold in the winter as it is in the country". There's just no way of giving one priority over the other.

For example, here is a boy who complains of pain in his abdomen. He has been eating green apples the day before. His parents wonder if he's putting on just because he doesn't want to go to school. But thinking it may be the green apples anyway, they call the doctor. Fortunately he doesn't give them advice over the phone. He comes to the house examines Johnny, and comes up with the diagnosis of acute appendicitis.

Johnny can't believe it. His parents are surprised–but cooperative. They send Johnny into the hospital. Within two hours a severely inflamed appendix has been removed, and the emergency has become a matter of simple convalescence.

Suppose the family doctor had missed the diagnosis? Suppose he'd said "green apples"? Johnny would not have come to surgery in time and peritonitis following a ruptured appendix would have been fatal.

Suppose, the diagnosis having been made early, that the surgeon who operated was not sufficiently skilled. Same result because of unfortunate complications.

I guess it's quite evident that both diagnosis and treatment are important. But I've always had the feeling that early and accurate diagnosis is perhaps more important, at times, than the best treatment. The best surgeon in the world could not have helped Johnny if the original diagnosis had been "indigestion" due to green apples.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I would like to know if it is true that when a womn has had one Caesarion section that she will have to have all of her children by Caesarean. I have had two normal deliveries, but the last one was a Caesarian. Each of my first two weighed over seven pounds, and the Caesarian baby weighed 9 pounds 13 ounces.–Mrs. B.

Comment: In your case it seems evident that the larger size of the baby was an important factor in the choice of Caesarian. With smaller babies (unless there are other considerations) it seems likely that Caesarian birth will not be necessary. "Once a Caesarian always a Caesarian" is not necessarily true.

"Tweedsmuir Histories" topic of meeting

"Tweedsmuir Histories", was the topic of the January meeting of the Kawartha Valley WI which met at the home of Mrs. Leslie Knox, of Dunsford with 21 members and one visitor present.

Mrs. Torrance Robertson, curator of the "Tweedsmuir History" read a clipping on antique furniture and showed pictures of some period pieces made by the settlers. Mrs. Ted Bell read excerpts from the "History of Victoria County", relating to the purchasing of land. Mrs. Frank Augusta gave the outline and report submitted by Mrs. Walker, Provincial Convener of Tweedsmuir Histories. The members were to answer the roll call with antiques and many interesting pieces and some of their history were presented. Mrs. Cunningham won the prize for the oldest antique and Mrs. Johns' the lucky cup prize. The "Tweedsmuir History Book" was also on display.

During the business period it was decided to sponsor the Girl's Club again in conjunction with South Verulam and Mrs. Delmar Robertson, kindly consented to be the leader again. The project for the term is "The Cereal Shelf". A report on the Rug-Hooking Course was given by Mrs. Henderson and a finished rug was on display. A letter from the child the group sponsors and his teacher and the Hand Book study was continued and several pages were read and discussed by the members. Mrs. Robertson reported on the sending of gifts and cards to the sick and shut-ins over the Christmas season and to the more recent patients in the hospital. Mrs. Cunningham moved a vote of thanks to the hostess, the program convener and the lunch committee.

The meeting closed and a social time was spent over a cup of tea.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Russell and son Brian, of Toronto, viisted relatives Mr. and Mrs. Grant Chirpaugh and Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McPhail of Toronto, visited at the home of Mrs. Jean Thompson. Mrs. Thompson is in the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, where she recently underwent surgery. Friends in the community all wish her a speedy recovery.

Sympathy of the community is also extended to the relatives of Mr. Robert Parks a one-time resident of the village who recently passed away. He had been up until his passing, a resident in the County Home, Lindsay. Mr. Parks was interred at Lakeview Cemetery, Kirkfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart of Toronto visited at the former's parents' home. They also visited their realtives, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Barker.

Congratulations are in order to Mrs. H. Farrow of the village who recently was lucky enough to win $50.00 in the Lindsay Tennis Club bingo.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brix recently visited Mr. and Mrs. John Cadeau and family of Port Credit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crarey also spent a vacation with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George Crarey, of Richmond Hill, Ont.

Mr. Otto Koberstadt who resides near the village with his family is at present recovering from injuries received in an auto accident. It is understood he is coming along satisfactorily.

Victoria County Council Briefs

Eyebrows raised over balance

Eyebrows went up when Victoria County Council heard a report read from the East Victoria Women's Institute showing a credit balance in the bank of over $1,600. "We should have received this statement before we made the annual grant" said Finance Chairman Found.

Urges Sinking Fund

Warden John Childs advocated establishing a sinking fund of $20,000 or more a year for five years in order to partially meet large expenditures. He stated that in the near future the county would be asked to give substantial grants to an extension of the Ross Memorial Hospital, to the High School and to enlarging the Court House.

Protest Legislation

Reeve M. Kennedy of Verulam's motion to send a letter of protest to the government against the new Safety Protection Engineer mandate in connection with all types of works received the endorsation of the council. Reeve Ashmore of Emily said that Emily Council has protested the proposed enactment.

Approve Resolution

Council concurred in a resolution from Markham Council urging that all voluntary firemen be covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Loans Authorized

County Treasurer Weldon was authorized to arrange a bank loan for $400,000 to carry on work in connection with the road system and $200,000 to carry on the work of the county until such time as taxes are received.

Chairman Commended

Reeve Found of Lindsay, chairman of the finance-committee, was commended for able manner in which he presided when in committee.

Regret Absence

Members regretted the inability of Deputy Reeve Stanley Reeds of Ops to attend the January session because of illness.

Represent County

Reeves Stephenson of Omemee and Smitheram of Fenelon were named county representatives on the Library Co-operative Board.

Hold The Line

Having cut down on a number of grants, members of the council decided to leave the per day rate for attending sessions of the council at $12.

Approve Resolution

Council concurred in a resolution from Welland County which calls for government action is barring the use of metal basis detergents in water which is dumped into various bodies of water, thus causing pollution and possibly algae to flourish.

Assures county town ambulance would respond

Reeve Found of Lindsay has assured Victoria County Council that in event of a calamity and the need of the Lindsay ambulance in outside municipalities, the ambulance would be sent to the scene. On the other hand, Lindsay would expect the same co-operation from outside municipalities if extra ambulances were needed in event of an emergency here. Each municipality would pay for the service rendered in their aid, Reeve Found explained.

"If we pick some one up on the road in an outside municipality, payment for the ambulance should not be the responsibility of the Lindsay taxpayers but of the responsibility of those in the area where the pickup is made, he said.

Sweep!

Keen Interest

Keen interest is being displayed in the competition for the Percy Skitch buttons. Stan Edmonds eliminated Ted Shea of Bobcaygeon, Lawrence McArthur defeated Bill Thurston and a rink of business girls won from the Toronto-Dominion Bank quartet. Rinks entering challenges for the buttons include Visking, Business Girls and Ted Shea. In the meantime the McArthur and Thurston rinks will meet this week in play downs.

British Consuls Event

In the British Consuls event Ken Bailey's rink was eliminated leaving rinks skipped by John McCrae and Murray Davis to determine a winner to pass out in the preliminary round to the second round to be played in Peterboro.

Consider Idea

It is understood that members of the Lindsay executive contemplate sending rinks to district clubs including Omemee, Little Britain, Oakwood, Fenelon Falls and Haliburton. The idea should be workable and have good results.

Enters Rink

Skip J. McCrae has entered a rink in the Mixed Bonspiel to be held at Orillia in connection with the annual Winter Carnival in the Lake Simcoe town.

Report Good Time

Skips Tom Tozios and Mac Algar report a real good time at the annual Haliburton open bonspiel. They were unsuccessful in their bid to bring "back the bacon" but both rinks won two games and lost one. The 'spiel was patronized by many outside rinks, including representation from Oshawa and Toronto.

Lindsay Rink Among Winners

The big Canada Packers Bonspiel at Peterboro, which concluded last Sunday afternoon, attracted rinks from a large number of Clubs, but the entry was down four rinks from the number expected. Lindsay was represented by Skip John McCrae with support from Jim Curtis, Paul Ashmore and A. Widdis. The foursome was successful in winning 5 games on the opening day but fell by the wayside last Sunday in the finals. However, the Lindsay quartet picked up third prize in the consolation, which was well well worthwhile. The top winner was Ted Saunders of Peterboro and the runner-up Rhodes of Toronto.

Decline take over of Long Pt. road despite petition

Victoria County Council has decided to take over township road No. 19 adjacent to the old fur farm and running into Long Point summer resort. After listening to a deputation made up of Jasper Forman, J. R. Ritchie, A. C. Culhan and S. L. Rodway, petitioned council at its January session to take over the road. It declined on the grounds that it wasn't prepared to take over any more roads at this time.

Members of the deputation said taxes at the resort are reasonable but road conditions are not good. It was stated that the summer colony numbers over 500, a larger population than Woodville, Kirkfield or Coboconk, also that they pay a large percentage of the taxes.

ESTABLISHES RELATIONS

Britain says it has established diplomatic relations with Communist Mongolia. In an official announcement this morning, the foreign office in London said "diplomatic representatives would be exchanged at the ambassadorial level." Britain is the first western European nation to establish diplomatic relations with the Mongolian Republic.

SAY ADENAUER SUCCESSFUL

West German Chancellor Adenauer left Paris this morning after appealing to President De Gaulle not to torpedo Common Market negotiations with Britain. French sources report Adenauer was successful. They Britain's membership point by point. The study re-while Common Market officials go over the question of say De Gaulle agreed to a temporary stay of action portedly would take several weeks.

WORK FOR SEVEN HOURS

Scores of Quebec City firemen worked for seven hours in sub-zero temperatures this morning to control a blaze in which an elderly couple lost their lives. An-other man, a deaf-mute, was feared lost but was later accounted for. The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrigan, aged about 68, were recovered by police and fire officials this morning. The fire caused an esti-mated one-million dollars damage and burned eight buildings. A series of explosions in a ground floor cigar store is believed to have caused the fire.

WILL BE CONSIDERED

The government's freight rates accounts and the Canadian National Railway's capital expenditures will be considered today in the House of Commons. The second reading of the economic development Board bill was given yesterday and Liberal front-bencher Paul Martin served notice his party will try to amend the bill during a clause-by-clause study before it receives its third reading. Tomorrow, the four major parties will begin a two-day debate on the government's Defense and Foreign Policies.

LOSES BOTH HANDS

A Hamilton, Ontario, teenager lost both his hands last night when a home-made bomb exploded while he was carrying it. The boy, 17-year-old William Coulter, is in critical condition after the blast blew off both his hands and punctured his stomach. The youth had yesterday received news of a promotion at the optical company where he works. He would have learned to grind lenses—a chance he had long waited for.

IN GRIP OF DEEP-FREEZE

Most of Canada is in the grip of a deep-freeze. Blizzard conditions prevail in the Prairies where tem-peratures are in the 20 to 30 below zero range and winds gust from 50 to 70 miles an hour. Northern and Cen-tral Ontario are receiving lighter winds with tempera-tures showing a "high" of 20 to 25 below zero. Snow spreading northward into Southern Ontario is expected to drop up to four inches of snow along the St. Law-rence River Valley in Quebec.

64 prizes being offered in Minden ski events

A total of 64 prizes will be up for competition in the Min-den Winter Carnival ski events at the Carnarvon Ski Club. The meet will be a two-day feature of the carnival (Feb. 2-3) and there will be competi-tions for seniors and juniors and children.

Announcing plans for the meet, club manager Fred Gregory says registrations are being handled by Mrs. G. Hey-wood, Valley Hi Resort, R. R. 2 Minden and should be in not later than January 30th. How-ever, he said on-the-spot regis-trations would be accepted on the days of the meet al-though anyone requiring ac-comodation should definitely arrange this in advance. (An application for registration form appears elsewhere in this issue of "The Post").

The first day's events (Sat-urday) will include junior and s enior cross country races; children's novelty races; three-legged and flat for ages seven and under, eight to ten and 11 to 13; junior novelty races 17 and under; three-legged, flat, obstacle and uphill; junior and senior downhill races and after dark, a torchlight parade. On Sunday there will be senior novelty races (18 and over) in-cluding obstacle, uphill and flat competitions; junior and senior slaloms. All events open to both sexes.

This section of the carnival is being sponsored by the Scenic Highway 35 Associa-tion.

Some people are always looking ahead — way ahead. The Dept. of Lands and For-ests at Lindsay received proof of this in the mail one blus-tery January day and made the following comment on it in its weekly bulletin:

ON THINKING WARM THOUGHTS

"How does the cold winter weather affect you?

Do you long for warmer climes? Does the prospect of an after life in the devil's domain, where at least it is warm, appeal to you?

When the fuel bills mounts, the pipes are frozen, the car won't start, and you're blue with the cold, do your expostu-lations colour the air to match your complexion?

Well my friend you're not thinking warm thoughts, think ahead to next June and the fun you'll have on the com-pany picnic.

This week our Parks Board received a reservation in the mail for a picnic to be held on June 22nd, 1963.

Such is the "power of posi-tive thinking."

In the meantime don't for-get to wear long handled un-derwear, check your anti-freeze and order another sup-ply of fuel.

After all you don't want to beat the ants to the best pic-nic sites."

Most people like to be re-membered on their birthday . . . Some get ties they wouldn't wear on a darkened subway, socks that make their feet feel like running away from home of their Dutch friends on the occasion of Frank's birthday. Among the gifts Frank was the recipient of a "trapplelyak" To those like myself, non-con-versant with the Dutch lan-guage, this resembles a "bunny-bag" — a sort of nightie built on the principle of a sleeping bag, closed in at the bottom to keep his toot-sies warm. Also with a cute little bonnet to match. We can hardly wait to see Frank in his new ensemble. Guests includ-ed the family, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Glasbergen and Frankie Jr. the third, Mrs. Nyhuis of Newtonville and Mr. and Mrs. Auke Van der Meer and Rox-anne. Mrs. Rudy Schaffler was also a guest of the Glasber-gens this week."

and so forth, but they don't worry about that — it's the sentiment that counts . . . Just the mere ract that some-one remembered brightens their whole day and gives them courage to face another year. Something different in the way of birthday presents (in this country) is reported by our Yelverton correspondent — it's called (as near as can be figured out) a "trapplelyak" but let him tell you about it:

"Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glas-bergen entertained some 20 Read

Win Hogg & Lytle Bonspiel

Lakefield wins play-the-man game 8-3

The twin bill that was slated for the Kiwanis Arena last night was reduced to a single game event when it was found that the Uxbridge Juniors would be unable to attend. The one game that did take place between Lakefield and Lindsay Midgets started out as a thriller but turned sour when the players started playing the man instead of the puck. Twelve of the 22 penalties handed out by referees Burns and Burns came in the last ten minutes of the game and were well earned.

Lakefield won the game 8-3 and were full value for the win. Taking the Legion-sponsored lads by surprise, Lakefield ran in four goals in the first six minutes by accurate passing and superb positional play. The local lads rallied and had two goals back early in the second period. The visitors then added three before Lindsay scored their third goal late in the second period. Lakefield added one goal amidst the parade of penalties in the final session.

Stabler who scored three goals for Lakefield, and their goalie little Jack Little who stood off a barrage of shots in second period were outstanding. C. Brown, M. Brown, Bullock, Chittick, and Nichols also scored for the winners. Ron Baldwin opened the scoring for Lindsay on an end to end rush. George Babcock scored from Jim Golden to start the second period, and David Horslen closed the period with a goal.

The scoring in the game shows hte following. 1st. period—Lakefield: C. Brown from Crawford at 1:15; M. Brown from Crawford at 2:26; Stabler unassisted at 4:37; Bullock from Crawford at 5:40; and Lindsay — Ron Baldwin unassisted at 17:18. Penalties—McClory for elbowing at 12:42; Lemoire and M. Brown for high-sticking at 18:57, and Horton for elbowing at 19:19.

2nd period. Lindsay—Babcock from Golden at 2:17; Lakefield — Chittick from Stabler and Blewett at 8:30; Stabler from C. Brown at 14:45; Stabler from Chittick at 17:51, and Linday—Horslen unassisted at 18:58. Penalties: Carson for holding the puck at 4:50; Nichols for tripping at 12:36; Carson and Baldwin for roughing at 16:59; and Babcock for interference at 19:33.

3rd period: Lakefield — Nichols unassisted at 15:54. Penalties: Kingdon for tripping at 4:16; Crawford for slashing at 10:12; Purdy ten minute misconduct at 12:40; Carson and Horton for roughing at 14:01; Crawford for kneeing at 14:30, delayed to 15:12; Babcock for charging 15:12; Horton for holding at 17:12; Baldwin for slashing at 18:03; Crawford and Horslen for slashing at 18:30.

Due to inability to get competition outside of the League teams, The Lindsay Girls hockey team regrets that there will be no girls game tonight. The Oldtimers will stage a practise game as usual to-night.

Thursday evening will be "Young Canada Night" at the Kiwanis Arena with a fast moving interesting program getting under way at 7:30. Feature attraction will be a Midget Hockey game between Belleville 'School for the Deaf' and Lindsay. Costume skating and races will also feature the program.

Inspector Wants County clean up after itself

Victoria County's weed inspector wants to see the county clean up after itself when it cuts down or sprays noxious weeds along its roads.

He told county councillors he made the criticism only after failing to get action in lieu of protests registered with the engineering department.

This Day

Today is Wednesday, January 23rd, the 23rd day of 1963 with 342 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning stars are Venus and Mars.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Aquarius.

On this day in history:

In 1937, seventeen Russian Communists confessed they conspired with Leon Trotsky to undermine the regime of Joseph Stalin.

In 1948, U-S General Dwight Eisenhower said he would not accept any nomination for the presidency.

BACK INTO ACTION

The National Hockey League gets back into action tonight after a two-day layoff. Two games are on tap with Montreal playing at Toronto, and Chicago playing at New York. The American Hockey League slate has Providence at Buffalo and Pittsburgh at Hershey. In two games last night, Baltimore edged Rochester 3-2 and Quebec blanked Springfield 1-0.

APPEARS MIAMI WILL BE SITE

It appears that Miami Beach will be the site for a return heavyweight champion fight between Sonny Liston and Floyd Patterson. Officials of Championship Sports, Incorporated, say all the roadblocks have been cleared for such a match at Miami Beach's Convention Hall April fourth. Interested parties in the bout met in Miami yesterday to work out the details. Afterwards, one spokesman said, "all the parties have agreed on all points regarding the April fourth match". He added, "all that remains is to reduce the agreements to writing. He will submit the contracts to the Miami Beach Boxing Commission the first of next week" Neither Liston nor Patterson were on hand for the meeting. Liston is at Chicago and Patterson at Highland Mills, New York.

INTO FOLD

The National Football League Minnesota Vikings brought Wisconsin quarterback, and Rose Bowl standout, Ron Vanderkelen into the fold yesterday. Vanderkelen bypassed the Green Bay Packers and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to sign a one year contract with the Vikings. He indicated he chose the Vikings over the Packers in hopes of getting more of a chance to play, and termed the Vikings, in his words, as a "new team' on their way up." Vanderkelen said he signed for what he called a "substantial" salary, but "not way out of line."

BILL WILL BE BROUGHT IN

An Illinois State Legislator, Paul Simon, says that a bill be introduced next month in the Illinois Legislature to ban professional boxing in the state. The announcement came on the heels of reports that New York State is planning a similar bill.

SEEKS REVERSAL

The American Football League is seeking reversal of a court ruling rejecting its 10-million 800-thousand dollar suit against the National Football League. Yesterday the league asked a U-S Circuit Court of Appeals to reverse the lower court ruling, and had its arguments taken under advisement. The A-F-L suit was turned down last summer by a Baltimore Federal Judge. The American League has contended that the National League is monopolizing professional football in the U-S.

Auction sale
JUDICIAL SALE of part of lot 20, Cameron Street, Canning-ton, Ontario. Supreme Court of Ontario, Monico vs. Monico.

Pursuant to the judgement herein there will be offered for sale by public auction in one parcel with the approbation of the undersigned Master by Orval McLean, Auctioneer, at the Town Hall, on Laidlaw Street in the village of Cannington, at the hour of 2.00 o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday, the 13th day of February, 1963, the following lands and premises consisting of about 12½ acres, known as part of lot 20, Cameron Street, Cannington, Ontario, more particularly described in deeds registered in the Registry Office for the Township of Brock at Whitby, Ontario, as Nos. 3461 and 3385, excepting thereout the lands described in a deed registered in the said Registry Office as No. 76006.

The property will be offered for sale, subject to a reserve bid fixed by the said Master. The purchaser shall pay down to the vendor's solicitor on the day of sale 10% of the purchase price and shall pay the balance of the purchase money into Court without interest within thirty days after the date of sale. Adjustments to be made as of the date of closing. The purchaser shall search the title at his own expense. The parties shall have the right to bid at the sale. In all other respects the conditions of the sale are the standing conditions of the sale of the Court as modified by the conditions of sale settled by the undersigned.

Ontario Auxiliary Police unit inspection parade coming up

Victoria County's 32-man unit of the Ontario Auxiliary Police, (Emergency Measures Organization, (EMO) . . . under the command of OPP Const. James Hall, will parade for annual inspection February 5th in the Ontario Government Building at Lindsay.

Emergency Measures Liaison Officer Inspector C. E. Parmenter, of Toronto, will inspect the unit following a drill and march past.

Now in its third year, and consisting of volunteers, the unit was taken over by Constable Hall about two years ago following the death of former commander, OPP Corp Ken Dennis.

Fully trained in all phases of police work, which includes First Aid, Traffic Control and Court Procedure, these men, uniformed similiar to the Provincial Police except for a shoulder flash reading Auxiliary Police, have proven invaluable in their assistance to the regular police force, accompanying the officers in the cruisers weekends, and helping in other required emergencies.

Constable Hall told "The Post" that a preliminary inspection will be held January 31st in lieu of the forthcoming ceremony, in order to have the men "on their toes" so to speak.

The ceremony, originally scheduled for last November, was called off owing to the Cuban crisis, he noted.

Pretty honest here, Mayor observes, renew bond anyway

Lindsay Council has approved the renewal of an insurance policy bonding all town employees in amount of $10,000. This would apply to members of council also and an additional amount of $10,000 would make the Town Clerk's bond, $20,000 it was explained.

"We are pretty honest here" remarked Mayor Joseph Holtom as the clerk was authorized to make the yearly renewal.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Gordon celebrate 50 years of marriage

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Mr. and Mrs. David H. Gordon, of 8 Howard St., Toronto, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on January 12th, 1963, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Verna Sheehey. All members of the family were present for the occasion except their youngest son, John, who is in Edmonton, Alberta and was unable to attend but extended congratulations and best wishes to his parents during the day.

The wedding party driven to Fenelon Falls by Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon and family, of Toronto, arrived in Fenelon Falls in time to enjoy a family dinner party at the Cameo Tea Room. Attending the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woollard (Jean) of Bobcaygeon; Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gordon, of Bobcaygeon; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nicholls (Ruth) of Bobcaygeon; Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sheehey (Margaret) of Fenelon Falls, and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Strang (Linda Woollard) of Bobcaygeon; Joyce, Judy and Joan Nicholls; Clinton, Robert and Maureen Gordon of Toronto; John and Glen Sheehey and one great-grandchild, Jean Teresa Strang.

Following dinner the family went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheehey, where Mrs. Sheehey welcomed the guests and ushered them to meet Mr. and Mrs. Gordon who were seated among a beautiful array of gifts, cards, flowers and congratulatory messages, before the fireplace. In their usual pleasant and sincere manner they happily renewed acquaintances and received the best wishes from the many friends who called.

The house was tastefully decorated with touches of gold and baskets of yellow 'mums. Gold was the colour theme of the tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. Desmond Kelly and Mrs. Melvin Sheehey. A beautifully decorated wedding cake centred the attractive table.

During the evening many friends called, among them members of a former council with whom Mr. Gordon was associated while serving as police officer in the village. The council members at that time were: A.W. Robson (reeve); George Palmer, F.W. Webster, Dr. G.C. Johnstone, Arthur Lee and Alex Northey (treasurer). They presented Mr. and Mrs. Gordon with a gold tea pot and cream and sugar.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon (nee Jean Nichol) were married in Dundee Scotland in 1913 and came to Canada the following year. Mr. Gordon served with the Toronto police force for some time before coming to Fenelon Falls to serve in the same capacity. Having studied law for some years, his knowledge of legal matters proved to be a decided asset in the dispensation of his duties. In 1955 the family moved to Toronto, where Mr. Gordon was employed by the Ontario Department of Transport. Upon retirement from that position he went immediately to the Automotive Transportation Association where he is still employed in the legal department.

Takes issue with Reaboro story

Reaboro, Ont., January 21, 1963.

The Editor,
The Lindsay Post,
Dear Sir:

A lengthy article appeared in a recent issue of your paper which might be called "The Rise and Fall of Reaboro." Concerning the reference made to the local church I wish to take definite objection.

Any reader not knowing the facts would naturally think that the little church was on the skids. The Reaboro Baptist church has a membership of around 50, services are held 52 Sundays in the year and "All Are Welcome." The gospel of Jesus Christ is preached without offence or bias towards people of other faiths or denominations. The overall yearly budget of the church is around $2,500. A mid-week prayer meeting is held summer and winter 52 times a year; a young people's union meets most Friday nights; the Young Married Couples' Club meets once a month during fall and winter; The Sunday School has an average attendance of between 45 and 50, and there are classes for all ages with a staff of faithful and officers.

The little church is not on the skids and as Chairman of the Board of Deacons, I plead with you to retract and withdraw your uncalled for, unkind, and misleading remarks concerning its activities.

W. C. Veals,
Reaboro.

Ed. Note: We are pleased to learn these facts concerning Reaboro Baptist Church and hasten to assure Mr. Veals, and others of the congregation, there was no intent to misrepresent the situation. The article on Reaboro was accepted in good faith from the author on whose behalf we apologize for any deviation from the facts.

Mrs. W. Burgis

Mrs. Mary Florence Burgis (nee Belfry), 75, of Ailsa Craig, Ont., died on her birthday in the I.O.D.E. Memorial Hospital Windsor, following a lengthy illness. Mrs. Burgis was born in Bradford, Ont., and moved to Ailsa Craig from Canning-ton in 1944. She was a member of the United Church in Ailsa Craig.

Surviving are her husband William L. Burgis, two sons, Will. the pharmacist at I.O.D.E. Memorial Hospital, and Keith of New Westminster, B.C., one daughter (Wilma) of Toronto, six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral service was held from the J. Stephenson Funeral Home, Ailsa Craig. Interment was made in Nairn Cemetery.

Durham's '63 warden never was elected to any office

He always received acclamation

Durham and Northumberland Counties broke tradition with 30 years of electing wardens when they gave their 1963 warden an acclamation to office. The new warden is Earl H. Walkey of Newtonville who has an unusual record in municipal politics.

Being acclaimed warden was a distinction in itself and to be acclaimed warden without ever having to run for municipal office was something of a record setting achievement. Couple this with acclamations to four other high municipal posts and it all adds up to a most unusual political career. Such is the record of Mr. Walkey.

In an interview with "The Post", Mr. Walkey said he had not realized the uniqueness of the situation until examining the records recently.

No newcomer to the field of politics, Mr. Walkey was acclaimed to the school board in 1948, where he served for four years until the time he was acclaimed to the council in 1952, serving there for two years.

Later he was acclaimed deputy-reeve and then reeve, where he served until his recent acclamation as warden.

Plant supervisor with an Independent telephone company, Mr. Walkey said he had enjoyed the past 14 years he has held office, finding them very educational, and giving him an opportunity to see "how things work".

The position of Warden will only be held for one year, he added, as each county elects a Warden every other year, and next year it will be Northumberland.

NOTICED... along the way

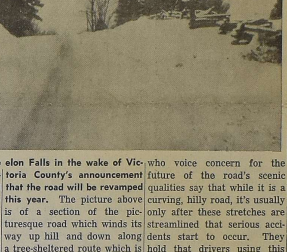
A number of people have expressed concern for the future scenic beauty of the road linking Bobcaygeon with Fenelon Falls in the wake of Victoria County's announcement that the road will be revamped this year. The picture above is of a section of the picturesque road which winds its way up hill and down along a tree-sheltered route which is enjoyed by thousands of motorists each year. Those who voice concern for the future of the road's scenic qualities say that while it is a curving, hilly road, it's usually only after these stretches are streamlined that serious accidents start to occur. They hold that drivers using this road know they have to exercise care and generally do.



Bobcaygeon village is showing leadership in this district where pedestrian safety is concerned. This crosswalk sign on its main street gives pedestrians a break crossing the street. The main street at this point has a particularly long stretch between blocks, something like that between William and Cam-

Estimated $1,000 damage in two accidents here

Two car accidents with property damage totalling over $1,000 were reported by Lindsay police for Wednesday.

At 11:15 a.m. a car driven by Bernal Herbert of Peel St., Lindsay, going west on Colbourne St. came in contact with the rear of a vehicle parked on the north side near Sussex St., owned by James Snow of Toronto.

Damage to the Snow vehicle was estimated at about $150 and to the Herbert car, $300.

While driving north on William St. South, Velrea Dowson of Lindsay had just entered Kent St. when her car came in contact with a vehicle which was westbound on Kent St. driven by Irvin Ledgerwood of Glenarm.

Both drivers told the police that they had the green light. Total damage to both vehicles was estimated at about $600.

Cpl. R. Bailey, investigating both accidents, said there were no injuries.

Biting wind makes cold seem even colder

A biting northwesterly wind made prevailing sub-zero temperature in the district seem even lower than they were. The official low overnight reading at Lindsay was 12 below. Coldest spot reported in the region was Coboconk which recorded 12 below at about the same time with Fenelon Falls showing 16 below, and Haliburton minus 12 at approximately 7.30 a.m.

The last check made at Haliburton at noon today showed a rise of 12 degrees holding steady at zero.

Lindsay youth hurt crossing Lindsay St. S.

Twenty-year-old Ronald Burrows of 22 Georgina St., Lindsay, was taken to the Ross Memorial Hospital at 1 p.m. today after being struck by a car as he crossed Lindsay St. S.

X-rays were taken and hospital authorities report his condition as fair.

Driver of the car, 20-year-old Douglas Amey of Oshawa, was going north on Lindsay St. when the accident happened.

EDITORIAL . . . .

PUT IT UP FOR TENDER

There's a lot of talk going the rounds these days concerning the disposal of the property now occupied by Canadian Arsenals Ltd. at Lindsay. The nature of it is to the effect that a private investment company is endeavoring to acquire it at a good profit. There's really nothing wrong with that — It's just good business to buy something and sell it at a profit. However, since this is public property, purchased with taxpayers' money and so forth, its sale shouldn't be carried out with any degree of secrecy. When the time comes, it should be put up for tender and sold to the highest bidder, all other factors being equal, i.e. ability to pay, etc.

About the only justification for granting special consideration in its final disposition might be if the town itself were to show an interest in taking an option on it for industrial development purposes. If this were to be done, it would give the town a chance to see what it could do without involving it in heavy capital outlay, a development which would no doubt met with the objection that the town shouldn't be in the real estate business.

The disposition of any public property should be an open and aboveboard . . . no shenanigans. Any suggestion that it wasn't being handled that way would make for a very sensitive case of political dynamite.

JANUARY 24, 1913

At a well established meeting of the Advancement Club held last evening, the Transportation Committee brought in a report stating that the railways had virtually granted a single fare rate for the Winter Carnival extending from the afternoon of February 11th to the morning of February 17th. The several committees were appointed to look after the celebration and a meeting will be held soon to complete arrangements. Messrs. Fisher and E. Robson were elected members of the club by a special vote.

Prize Bird Photographed

The prize for the best bird at the Lindsay Poultry Show was awarded to a partridge Wyandotte cock, exhibited by Mr. A. S. Cameron, of Oshawa. This fowl was in extra fine condition and of magnificent feathering, besides conforming to the standard in size and weight etc. The perfection of show manners was remarkable. An enlarged photograph of this bird has been donated to Mr. Cameron by Mr. F. D. Lee, of the Lee art photograph rooms.

JANUARY 24, 1938

Rumors that are circulating in Lindsay to the effect that an epidemic of scarlet fever has struck the town were effectively spiked by the Secretary of the Board of Health W. R. Allely, who informed "The Post" that there were only three quarantine cards up at the present time. The Sanitary Inspector reported to me this morning that there were three cards up, stated Mr. Allely. Two of these cases will be off quarantine in a very few days. In all there have been five cases this season.

Speaks Here

Alton J. Little, secretary of the White Cross Safe Driving Movement, was the speaker at the Rotary Club of Lindsay at the regular weekly luncheon held in the Hotel Benson. Mr. Little, in a brief address outlined the objectives of the movement to the members and also distributed literature and emblems.

Reports and Remarks..

TEN COMMANDMENTS

Here are Ten Commandments that are said to have been sent forth by one Cyrus Simmons, an old wagon builder:

1. Don't lie. It wastes my time and yours. I am sure to catch you in the end, and that is the wrong end.

2. Watch your work, not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short, and a short day's work makes my face long.

3. Give me more than I expect and I will give you more then you expect. I can afford to increase your pay if you increase my profits.

4. You owe so much to yourself that you cannot afford to owe anybody else. Keep out of debt or keep out of my shops.

5. Dishonesty is never an accident. Good men, like good women, never see temptation when they can meet it.

6. Mind your own business and in time you'll have a business of your own to mind.

7. It is none of my business what you do at night. But if dissipation affects what you do the next day, and you do half as much as I demand you'll last half as long as you hoped.

8. Don't do anything here that hurts your self-respect. An employee who is willing to steal for me is willing to steal from me.

9. Don't tell me what I'd like to hear, but what I ought to hear. I didn't want a valet to my vanity, but one for my money.

10. Don't kick if I kick. If you're worth while correcting your worth while keeping. I don't waste time cutting specks out of rotten apples. —The Sentinel

"One wonders . . ."

Lindsay, Ont.
Jan. 23, 1963.

The Editor,
The People Write,
The Lindsay Post.

Dear Sir:

At a recent labor event, the Reeve made a stirring address and with much self satisfaction, advised the public that the Board of Works "Would become the best organized, best paid and best dressed organization in Lindsay".

Surely these are not words of a public servant because they sound so much like a Union organizer, promising "More".

One wonders how far the Reeve will spend public funds to fulfil his dreams.

One wonders also, to what extent, this gentleman has already gone to fulfill his mission to win the labor vote at public expense.

Does the public know, that the Reeve will discharge a Board of Works employee if he discontinues paying union dues, for any reason? Is this the Freedom of Choice, for which this veteran gallantly fought? Has his drive for popularity clouded his courage and wisdom?

Does the public know that the Reeve will grant three days leave of absence with pay, as frequently as there is illness of any kind, and to any degree, among his employees relatives, i.e. parents, wife, husband, brother, sister, child, mother-in-law, father-in-law, or any second degree relative who "has been" residing in the same household. It is a wonder that any employees are at work. Our Board of Works could fail due to a rash of common colds. Is this fair to the public?

Does the public know that in the event, of labor difficulties at other locations in town, the Board of Works employees are authorized not to cross picket lines, even to make emergency repairs to town facilities on the tax payer's property. Is this truly safeguarding the public interest and the jobs of others?

The Reeve has to do his job and make unmistakably clear that he has the ability to manage people and money.

The pay of Union committeemen during working hours on Union business, seems ridiculous to me. To refuse to pay someone to increase the tax burden may be old fashioned, but like motherhood, it still has some virtue.

"The best organized, the best paid, the best dressed in Lindsay", is a costly aim, and leads to the highest tax rate, to which the Reeve is committed.

It is suggested that the Reeve before making further public utterances check over the "honeymoon" contract which his overly-generous spirit has let the town in for.

A taxpayer who looked.

GIVES APPROVAL

The Italian Government has given its approval to a new nuclear strategy plan for NATO—a plan believed to call for removing U-S Jupiter millilles from Italy. Under the plan the withdrawal Jupiter missiles would be replaced by American Polaris missiles fired from submarines.

TAKES PART IN SESSION

A French delegation took part in a Common Market session in Brussels today for the first time since President Charles De Gaulle made his move to block British membership in the Common Market for former French territories in Africa unless De Gaulle changes his stand on Britain.

ATTACK CAMPUS

Some two-thousand pro-government rioters attacked the Tehran University campus in Iran today. They beat up students and tore down campus banners attacking the Shah's referendum as "unconstitutional". Student groups claimed the government was responsible for the attack, but a government spokesman denied it.

TOP-PRIORITY PLAN

President Kennedy has sent the U-S Congress his top-priority tax reduction plan aimed at revitalizing the U-S economy by giving its citziens more money to spend. But most U-S tax rates still would be above Canadian rates. Kennedy says tax reductions are the most urgent tasks facing the U-S Congress in 1963 and his arguments for reducing taxes parallel the arguments made by Canadian proponents of tax cuts.

QUICK APPROVAL

Government House Leader Gordon Churchill has called on the opposition parties to give quick approval of the 1962-63 spending estimates. In a bid to break the apparent impasse over handling of the present fiscal year's spending program, Churchill said last night that the sensible and responsible course to follow, to pass the estimates in two or three weeks at the most.

NUMBER OF IMPROVEMENTS

Finance Minister George Nowlan has announced a number of improvements in the medical insurance plan for federal civil servants and pensioners. He said today, that effective immediately, the amount which a plan member must pay himself to be eligible for benefits will be reduced from 20 to 10 per cent. The deductible amount payable by members with dependents has been dropped from 50 dollars to 40 dollars a year.

FOOLISH NONSENCE

Associate Defense Minister Pierre Sevigny says that criticism of Paul Bienvenu as Commissioner-General of Montreal's 1967 World's Fair is foolish nonsense and might hurt the fair's chance for success. The criticism centers mainly in the French press and concerns Bienvenu's age and health. Critics suggest that Bienvenu's deputy—C. F. Carsley would be the real boss, thus permitting an Anglo-Saxon takeover.

EAT A GOOD BREAKFAST START THE DAY RIGHT

No one can afford to start the day off without breakfast. Nutritionists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, feel that breakfast is the most important meal of the day. Children will be more alert and attentive in school, workers will attack their jobs with more vigor, and weight watchers will find it much easier to stick to their diet if they start the day with a good breakfast.

A good breakfast should be high in protein and an easy way to get a good quality protein is to eat an egg. But there are other good sources that can be served for breakfast. Bacon, ham, sausage or hamburg patties served with whole wheat pancakes make a substantial start for the day's activities. A whole grain cereal served with milk makes an excellent combination, giving protein and important B vitamins.

Tomato juice or vitaminized apple juice should be served sometime during the day and because of their tangy good taste, most people enjoy them for breakfast.

So set a good example for your children; eat a good breakfast!

HOW CAN I ? ?
By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I drill some small holes in a pane of glass?

A. You can use an ordinary three-cornered file, sharpened on a grindstone for this job. Clamp the file into your hand brace, and place the point of the file on the glass where you want the hole to be. Then, holding the top of your brace with one hand, spin the brace rapidly by oscillating the top with your hand. The weight of your brace alone produces enough pressure for cutting the hole.

Q. How can I keep boiled potatoes from breaking?

A. When potatoes are boiled too rapidly, they become soft and broken on the outside, while their centres remain hard and uncooked.

Perspiration Stains

Yellow perspiration stains on white washables should be bleached out in the sun after proper laundering. Should the stain remain, sponge with hydrogen peroxide or hydrogen peroxide plus sodium perborate (one teaspoon to one pint of peroxide). Or dip the stain into a solution made by adding two teaspoons of sodium hydrosulfite to one pint of water. Rinse promptly and thoroughly.

Oriental Rugs

The colors of an oriental rug can be revived by wiping over it with a cloth dampened in vinegar and water solution. This will usually bring out the colors again.

Announcements

Birth Notice

GOARD — Mr. and Mrs. Allan Goard are happy to announce the birth of their daughter Linda Anne on Thurs., Jan. 17, 1963. A sister for Steven. (3597)

Card of Thanks

HURLBURT — I would like to thank the nurses and staff at the Ross Memorial Hospital, Dr. Broadfoot, the Rev. Garrett, Captain Len Townsend of the Salvation Army, Fenelon Falls, friends and neighbours who sent flowers, gifts, cards, letters and all who visited with me during my four weeks in hospital. Mrs. J. N. Hurlburt. (3606)

Personal

Mrs. R. Hartwick, 85 Adelaide St. N., has returned after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Smith and family in Youngwood, Pennsylvania and on her way home visited her sons Earl and Phillip, of Toronto.

Robert J. Filyer

Following a lengthy illness caused by heart trouble, Mr. Robert James Filyer, passed away at the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay on January 4, 1963. He was 71 years of age.

The late Mr. Filyer was born in Newfoundland in 1891, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eli Francis Filyer and was educated in that province. In 1814 he was married in Toronto to Miss Mildred Serrick. Following many years of store keeping they moved to the 13th Concession of Brock. He was a member of Ringwood Christian Church.

Left to mourn his passing besides his widow is one son the Rev. R. D. Filyer, of Aurora, four daughters, Frances, Mrs. Vague, of Stouffville, Evelyn, Mrs. Lloyd Wideman, of Stouffville, Joyce, Mrs. Bruce Stouffer, of Cannington, and Eleanor, Mrs. Clifford Morgason of Argyle. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. J. Dawe of Willowdale.

The funeral service was held at the Stoddart Funeral Home, Woodville, with Rev. B. Jones conducting the service. Acting as pallbearers were Messrs. Fred Steckley, Don. Geer, Max Vague, Harold Morgason, Lloyd Beatty and Dean Beatty. Interment was made in Cedar Vale Cemetery.

Relatives and friends from Toronto, Stouffville, Uxbridge Aurora, Lindsay, Markham and Barrie attended the funeral.

Ethel M. Martin

Private funeral services were held on Jan. 12, 1963, at the M. R. Summerfeldt and Son Funeral Chapel for Mrs. Ethel Matilda Martin who passed away at the Barabara Mary Nursing Home, Bobcaygeon on Friday, January 11th.

Mrs. Martin was the widow of the late Donald MacLean Martin and daughter of the late Richard Edwards and Amelia Gibbs, pioneers of this district. Mr. Edwards was a private Banker in Cannington for many years. Born and educated in Cannington Mrs. Martin lived in Toronto after her marriage. She was a graduate of Brantford Ladies College, Brantford, Ont. Westbourne Ladies' College Toronto, and the Toronto Conservatory of Music. For the past year, because of ill health Mrs. Martin has resided in Bobcaygeon at the home of her son-in-law W. Eric Baggs. Mrs. Martin was member of Rosedale Presbyterian Church, Toronto. She is survived by her daughter Amelia.

BOOK-IN FOR BONSPIELS

President Lou Walker has booked an entry to attend the annual mixed bonspiel at Kitchener on Feb. 7th.

A Lindsay rink has entered the annual Quebec City Bonspiel and another entry has been sent to Kingston to take part in the annual Fisherman's bonspiel.

WIN ONE, LOSE TWO

Lindsay ladies were represented at the annual Malcolmson Bonspiel in Toronto, a two-day event which attracted curlers from many clubs in the province. The locals won one game and lost two in what is claimed to be stiff competition. The rink: Mrs. Lou Walker (Skip), Mrs. Cliff Laidley, Mrs. Bill Whyte and Mrs. Geo. Fuester.

MEN'S SCHEDULE RESULTS

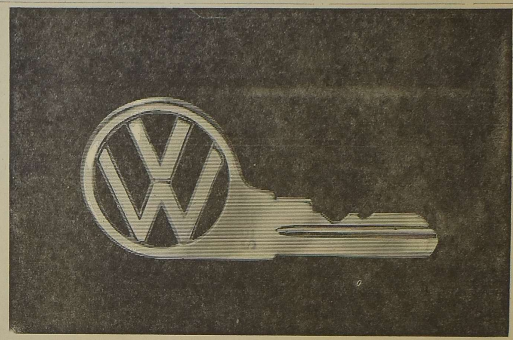
Gassien 10 and Smith 5; Wright 9, Rodman 8; Hardy 8, Langdon 6; Pitts 9, Thurston 8; Woollard 9, Simpson 8; Tompkins 9, Beal 8; Davis 9, King 3; Heels 12, Walker 6; Woollard 8, Endicott 6; James 8, Lyons 5; Rowlandson 9, Ferguson 8; Ranson 8, Kennedy 8; Ferguson 8, L. Mackey 7; Cook 8, Alger 5.

GOOD SEASON

Lindsay Business Girls are experiencing a good season thus far in the schedule with 48 players. The club happens to be low on Rovers but all players are pitching in to make the season a success. The members are proud of the showing one rink made against a male rink in the Skitch button events and this rink is waiting for the next game.

Skip E. Wood of the Business Girls piloted a rink at the Lakefield Bonspiel and following a real fine outing returned with a set of buttons.

On Feb. 3 the girls will send rinks to the big bonspiel at the Peterboro Golf and Country Club. The event is for business girls. Opinions expressed by several curlers is that Lindsay should have two rinks in the annual competition for the Ontario Silver Tankards the premier amateur event in the province. It is a long time since the local club won a tankard banner. Who knows this might be the year.



This amazing instrument will start a Volkswagen at 30 below zero.

It's not much of a trick, really. Just common sense.

We discovered, a long time ago, that water and winter don't mix.

A conventional car has about four gallons of water to heat before the engine runs properly.

Instead of water, a Volkswagen is cooled with air. No matter how cold the weather, the air is warmed almost instantly. Heat that is usually absorbed by water warms the carburetor and oil for faster starts. (The automatic choke prevents stalling.)

There are other reasons why the Volkswagen is a winter wonder.

The bottom of the VW is flat so it doesn't get involved with deep snow. (You can shovel the walk, but the driveway is optional.) There's also better traction because the engine is in the rear with its weight over the drive wheels.

And we have one more amazing gimmick. It keeps our car from rusting. It's called paint. (We didn't invent it. We just use more of it. Four coats, inside and out.)

If cold mornings give you motoring problems, see your Volkswagen dealer. He's got the best key to winter driving.

Explains unit not sponsored by Victoria

There is absolutely no connection between Victoria County as a municipality and the Ontario Auxiliary Police Force unit which will come under inspection here on February 5th. OPP Constable Jim Hall, of Lindsay, who is in command of the unit, says there has been some confusion in this respect which he would like to see cleared up. Asked to explain, Constable Hall said the auxiliary force is attached to District 8 of the Ontario Provincial Police and under the command of Emergency Measures Organization, Toronto. The confusion arose, he explained, because most of the men in this unit are from Victoria County but there the association ends - Victoria County doesn't have an Emergency Measures Organization unit.

Community Chest annual

Donald C. Anderson succeeds W. J. Bundscho as president

Donald. C. Anderson was appointed 1963 President of the Lindsay Community Chest at the organization's annual meeting held in the town hall Wednesday evening. Mr. Anderson succeeds W. J. Bundscho, holder of that office in 1962.

Other officers are: 1st Vice-president, R. A. Patterson; 2nd Vice-president, Alex. Mc Kessock; Secretary, Mrs. J. A. (Pete) McNabb and treasurer, William Moore. Labour Council President Malcolm Stevens was appointed to the directorate. Other directors will be chosen from participating organizations.

The treasurer's report read by Morgan Smith showed $15,788.60 had been collected in 1962 and pledges given to make possible grants as follows: Red Cross Society $5,500; Canadian Institute for the Blind, $3,300; Salvation Army $3,300; Victorian Order of Nurses $2,500; Retarded Children's Association, $1,000; Girl Guides Association $200; Canadian Welfare Council $150.

Campaign Manager Harry H. MacDonald in his report, read due to his absence by W. J. Bundscho, suggested in future a campaign headquarters should be open during total business hours and that canvass for funds should extend outside the town limits. It was noted by Mr. Bundscho that Mr and Mrs. MacDonald had raised about $300 for the campaign outside of the town limits last year.

L. L. Porter reporting for the industrial group, recommended in future that a member of the Labor Council be added to the Community Chest Directorate. This would help in canvassing employees which some companies refuse to do. Newspaper publicity should point out that no workers for Community Chest are paid for their services, he suggested.

Robert Fitch and James Nolan, designated by Mr. Bundscho as "champion chairman of the house-to-house canvass", reported the 1962 house canvass netted $3,900 with 11 zone chairmen and 240 canvassers in charge.

Robert Martin on behalf of the Red Cross Society stated he was very interested in the Community Chest campaign being extended outside of the town. "We carry on a campaign outside of Lindsay and find it difficult to get canvassers. We do not get the blood required at donors' clinics here for local needs," he also disclosed.

Capt. Carl Bowes of the Salvation Army here stated his organization would be thankful to receive the same community chest donation as last year. "We plan renovations to our facilities and are thinking with the town's industrial aspect not too brilliant, canvass collections may be affected and more services required from grants received", he stated.

A. M. Wheldon speaking on behalf of the Retarded Children's Association, stated it was planned to extend services for a full day instead of the present half day school. "We are hoping for an increased grant and hope eventually to receive federal government help in building a school here," he said.

Mrs. Arthur Lloyd spoke on behalf of the local Girl Guides who now number around 250. The money from the chest was necessary to maintain the Guide quarters, with the girls buying their own uniforms and not being sponsored by any church or other organization, she pointed out.

Mr. Bundscho asked that requests for specific grants be brought into the next executive meeting with audited reports in connection. These will be considered for acceptance, he said.

As outgoing president, Mr. Bundscho in thanking all segments of the chest for their co-operation, said he had enjoyed the project and felt satisfaction in the work accomplished.

Newly elected President Mr. Anderson announced an executive meeting would be held in March.

Lindsay Presbyterial of WMS returns president to office

Mrs. H. Westcott of Gamebridge was re-elected for her second term as president of the Lindsay Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society at the annual meeting held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church here on Wednesday. The attendance numbered 120.

Other officers are: Honorary Presidents, Miss Agnes Dickson, Carnarvon and Mrs. Walter W. Finney, Lindsay; 1st Vice-president, Mrs. C. Veale, Woodville; 2nd Vice-president, Mrs. J. A. McKerracher, Lindsay; 3rd Vice-president, Mrs. O. Imrie, Woodville; Recording Secretary, Mrs. W. Hoyle, Glenarm; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. Wallace, Beaverton; Treasurer, Mrs. E. G. MacDonald, Fenelon Falls.

The attendance included representatives of the 20 different auxiliaries and also elders and ministers of the presbyterial. The all day sessions were highlighted by a noon-day banquet served by the WMS Auxiliary of the church in St. Andrew's Hall.

The Presbyterial representated reaches from Gamebridge on the north to Uxbridge on the south and from Beaverton to Bobcaygeon. Reports were given by the various secretaries and discussions led by Miss Olive Grant and Miss Luzetta McClelland from the Executive Council.

Sunderland wins 3-1 at L'Britain

In a regular schedule Pee Wee game played on Monday night at Little Britain, Sunderland defeated Little Britain 3-1. Sunderland scored their first goal at the 6-minute mark with Leonard Woodward scoring. Wayne Morrow scored at the 7-minute mark to put the visitors up by two goals. Phil Archer scored Little Britain's first goal on a breakaway at the 14-minute mark. Ronnie Young scored at the 10-minute mark in the second period to put them ahead 3-1. In the third period Little had all the play but could not score any goals. They had two or three breakaways, and only the fine goal tending of Robert Fair kept the visitors ahead.

Little Britain Pee Wees' next home game is against Beaverton on Monday, January 28th, so fans come out and support the kids, as this is Minor Hockey Week.

THE LINEUPS:

Little Britain: Stephen McTaggart goal, Brian Jenkins, Allan Cornell Phillip Archer, Larry Jenkin, Bruce Webster, Robert Bellamy, Henry Jenkins, Bill Edwards, Michael Rocke.

Sunderland: Robert Fair, Sidney Hogg, Ronnie Bagshaw, Peter Doble, Leonard Woodward, Wayne Morrow, John Baker, Tom Durward, Harold Fair, Ted Prentice, Brian St. John.

This the day Scots from Lindsay and district rally 'round the Haggis to commemorate the birth of Scotland's poet laureate — Robert Burns. Burns wrote on many things and there's one in his collection of songs which is appropriate for the weather conditions under which the Scots will feast on Haggis this night it's called: "Up in the morning early" and reads:

Cauld blaws the wind frae east to west,
The drift is driving sairly;
Sae loud and shill's I hear the blast–
I'm sure it's winter fairly.
Chorus —
Up in the morning's no for me,
Up in the morning early;
When a' the hills are cover'd wi' snaw,
I'm sure it's winter fairly.
The birds sit chittering in the thron,
A' day they fare but sparely;
And lang's the night frae e'en to morn–
I'm sure it's winter fairly.

Concern was felt by Mrs. W. T. Robson when she failed to get any response to her daily telephone call to Mrs. Elizabeth Levia, 74, who lives nearby. It deepened when evening fell and no lights showed in the Levia home. Contacting a nearby neighbor - - Mrs. Wm. Cunningham who had a key to the house - - Mrs. Robson told her of her concern. Mrs. Cunningham in turn got in touch with Hugh Dickson who, with OPP Constable Jas. Plumtree, entered the home and found Mrs. Levia dead. She is believed to have died the night previous as conditions indicated she had been preparing to retire for the night.

Police say Mrs. Levia, widow of the former CNR station agent at Fenelon Falls, had been attended by Dr. Graham on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Levia is the former Elizabeth Ewing of Kirkfield and she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. O. T. Meyers of Richmond Hill.

A. Jordan Sutherland

A well-remembered figure in the village, Mr. A. Jordan Sutherland passed away at the Ideal Hospital, Endicott, New York, at 3.30 a.m. on January 9, 1963. He was 66 years of age. Survivinr are hise wife, formerly Dorothy Leach, of Endicott, N.Y., and one brother Donald W. Sutherland of Toronto, also several cousins.

The late Mr. Sutherland was born at Fenelon Falls, and was in his youth employed by the C.N.R. where he worked with his father Mr. A. Sutherland at the local station for many years. Later he moved to New York, living at Endicott until the time of his death.

He was a member of the Methodist Church at Endicott.

The funeral service was held on Saturday, January 12th, 1963, at the Allen Memorial Home, Endicott, conducted by his pastor the Rev. Edgar F. Singer. Burial was made in Mount Hope Cemetery, Norwick, N.Y.

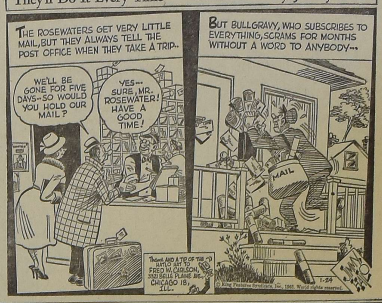
Plaster Patch

Small nail holes and cracks in white plastered walls can be filled in by patting in ordinary baking soda. It is a good idea to fill up all these holes and cracks in this manner before painting your walls.

They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo



This Day

Today is Thursday, January 24th, the 24th day of 1963 with 341 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1848, gold was first discovered in the Sacramento river near Coloma, California.

In 1908, the first Boy Scout Troop was organized in England by a general in the British army, Robert Baden-Powell.

In 1945, Russian troops crossed the Oder river and landed on German soil for the first time.

In 1946, the General Assembly voted to create a U-N Atomic Energy Commission.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

WOMAN SUGGESTS DEEP BREATH AS WAY TO OVERCOME ANXIETY

Dear Dr. Steincrohn May I offer a suggestion to the lady who wrote you about her anxiety neurosis. Through personal experience I am well acquainted with the terrifying mental, emotional and physical symptoms which accompany this distressing condition. I had a severe nervous breakdown two years ago. I'm sure the method I used to find relief could not hurt her or anyone else for that matter–and it has really helped me.

Take a comfortably deep breath in through the nostrils and expel it forceably and completely through the mouth saying to yourself, "I release all my problems and tensions." Do this three times a day and then gave thanks to the God of your faith. More times, if necessary. This comparatively simple form of autosuggestion has brought me exceptionally good results. I suppose you will laugh at me, Dr. Steincrohn.–Mrs. W.

Comment: No I won't, Mrs. W. If I thought it so silly I wouldn't have your letter reprinted here. I realize there's no scientific or medical justification for your "remedy" in the management of chronic anxiety. But I present it, as one of dozens of methods patients have told me they have used.

You will note that the basis of it all is a good measure of faith in recovery (without which patients continue to go downhill)–and autosuggestion similar to the old Coue method "Day by day, in every way, I'm getting better and better."

Chronic anxiety in patients so often stumps us doctors, why should we laugh at any method patients find that help them overcome this stubborn condition? I advise each patient to try to determine any harmless procedure which will help–and not be afraid of being labeled as "silly".

CAN'T OVERCOME OBESITY

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My problem is overweight. I know this sounds stupid, but it's just about to drive me crazy. I feel so ugly and unattractive. I never want to go anywhere because of the way I look. I am 20 years old and stand 5 feet 1 inch and weigh 165. I have two children and I've tried every kind of diet possible. My big problem is sticking to my diets. I just got off one in which I lost 5 pounds in three weeks. But the pills were making me so nervous I couldn't do my work. I'm the nervous type and eat constantly, even though I'm not hungry. I honestly want to lose, and I've prayed and prayed. Can you help?–Mrs. P.

Comment: I think I can, but it takes two to tango. For the umpteith time I'll repeat the magic words (without which all dieting is a failure): you must develop the WILL TO LOST. It must be real. Going from one doctor to another, and trying diet after diet are only superficial manifestations of the desire to lose. It must lie deep in yourself.

You must get up in the morning with this desire topmost in your mind and go to sleep with it, too. If you develop it, nothing can stop you from shedding those "ugly" pounds.

And here is another tip: I'd stop taking (if your doctor agrees) those pills to cut your appetite. As you say, they make you nervous–and you admit to being a nervous person already. Therefore, it might help you, as it has many of my patients, to take tranquilizers for a while. Calming your nerves may remove the urge to nibble and overeat. I have given you what I consider a definite "cure" for your condition. The rest is up to you. Now let's see you go to it,Mrs. P.

* * *

For Mr. U.: I wouldn't spend another dime on "surecure" hair growers. I know of no scientific cure for baldness.

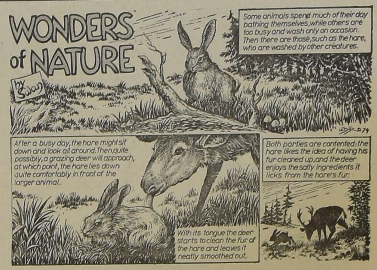
WONDERS of NATURE



Mrs. George Burley

Mrs. George Burley, of Market Street, Fenelon Falls passed away suddenly, following surgery at Toronto East General Hospital on January 4th, 1963. She was 83 years of age.

Mabel Amelia Alberta Eason was born in Luttleworth Township. She was married in Lindsay on March 8, 1899 to George Burley, who predeceased her in March of 1962. Two sons, William and Herbert are also predeceased. Left to mourn the loss of their mother are two daughter, Mrs. J. Perryman (Deborah Alberta) and Mrs. A. Goodhand (Rachel Evangeline), both of Fenelon Falls and one son George Joseph Cephas, of Toronto. Also surviving is one sister, Mrs. Wm. Symonds of Lincoln Park, Michigan.

The late Mrs. Burley received her public school education at S. S No. 4., Somerville and proceeded at an early age to do domestic work as a means of livelihood. This led to her further occupation as a practical nurse, a course which she followed for many years. She was a womon of kindly disposition, and was keenly interested in the missionary work of the United Church to which she gave a great deal of time and work. Of late years only her summers were spent in the village in which she was a familiar, always ready with a smile and cheery word for the passer by.

The funeral service was held from the Platten Funeral Home on January 7th at 2 p.m. conducted by the Rev. M. C. Fisher. Interment was in Fenelon Falls Cemetery with Messrs. Thos. Jenkinson, John Jenkinson, Walter Gamble, George Palmer, Wm. Cunningham and Gardie Gransden acting as pallbearers.

Many lovely floral tributes and Gideon Bibles paid tribute to a long and busy life and showed the esteem in which Mrs. Burley was held in the community.

Friends attending the funeral were from Windsor, Brantford Hamilton, Toronto, Lindsay, Peterboro, Norland, Coboconk, West Guilford, Bobcaygeon, Burnt River and Kinmount.

Little Britain

Mr. Harvey Patterson of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce staff, Palmerston, and also his wife and family, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patterson and also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Avery.

Several of the young people from here attended and also participated in the costume skating carnival which was held at the Oakwood Arena.

Mr. Alan Prouse of Georgetown teaching staff visited his mother, Mrs. G. P. Prouse and also called on other friends.

The deepest sympathy of the community is extended at this time to Mr. Reginald Mark in the recent passing of Sophy Mark Stover, widow of Captain Walter E. Stover at Boyton Beach, Florida and who was his only remaining sister.

At a recent meeting of School Area No. 1 Mr. Henry Mark was elected to the Board of Trustees and replaces the vacancy of the late Mr. Ralph Culbert for the ensuing year.

Reeve Roy Morrison visited in Lindsay where he was in attendance at the January sessions of the Victoria County Council.

Friends of Mrs. Alvin Found regret to hear that she has been quite ill and confined to her home for some time, but hope that her condition will soon show signs of improvement.

Friends of Mr. David Linton are glad to hear that he is now able to be at his home again. He was released from the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay, after being confined there far a few days as the result of a motor accident which occurred north of the village.

Mr. W. B. Bellamy and family, of Forest, are now living in the village where he replaces Mr. Robert O. Winters, teaching staff, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mark.

Mr. Cecil Glenney is assisting with the transportation of the mail on R.R. 2, for the winter months.

Quite a number of the members and adherents of the Little Britain Fellowship Baptist Church gathered and met on the farm property of Mr. Hugh Rogers, north of the village, where a very successful wood bee was held and a good supply of firewood cut for the church.

Friends of Mrs. Adelaide Griggs regret to hear of her illness and that she has been confined to her home for a few days but hope that she soon will be restred and enjoying normal health again.

Word was received here with much regret of the sudden passing of Mr. Lorne Snoddon which occurred at his home in the Valentia community.

Preparations are now being made by the Little Britain Telephone co-directors, namely Harry Gorrill, Noble Swain, Ken Mason, George Stokes and Harold Hall to hold their annual meetings as usual at the I.O.O.F. Hall.

Friends of Mrs. Mary McDonald, of Cresswell, and who is a sister of Mrs. Joe Sparks, of Little Britain, regret to hear that she has been in ill health for some time and confined to the nursing home in the village but hope that she soon will be restored to her normal health again.

TORONTO DEFEATS MONTREAL 5-1

The Toronto Maple Leafs defeated the Montreal Canadiens, 5-1, last night while the Chicago Black Hawks and New York Rangers played to a 3-3 draw. The Toronto win moved the Leafs within one point of second place Montreal. Chicago's tie gives them a three-point lead over the Canadiens. In tonight's action, Montreal is at Detroit and Toronto visits Boston.

LEAGUE IDLE

The American Hockey League is idle tonight, but had a pair of games last night, with the two division leaders clashing in one contest. Eastern leader Providence whipped Buffalo–Western division leader–5-1. In the other game, Hershey downed Pittsburgh, 6-3.

NEAR SELLOUT CROWD EXPECTED

A near sellout crowd of 12-thousand persons is expected at Pittsburgh Civic Arena tonight for a 10-round heavyweight bout between Cassius Clay and Charlie Powell. Clay–of Louisville, Kentucky–will be putting his rating as number three heavyweight contender on the line along with his ability as a prognosticator. Clay–who's been right in the past when predicting which round will mark the knockout of his opponent–says Powell will fall within three rounds. Powell–of San Diego, California–a former professional football player. He figures to have a 5 to 10-pound weight advantage but–in Clay–meets a fighter unbeaten in 16 professional bouts.

152 GAME SCHEDULE

Officials of the recently expanded International Baseball League met yesterday at Indianapolis, Indiana. A 152-game schedule was established and the 10-team circuit was divided into two divisions. The northern division will consist of Toronto, Syracuse, Buffalo, Rochester and Richmond. Indianapolis, Columbus, Little Rock, Atlanta and Jacksonville will make uup the southern division. In another development, a three-man committee was named to negotiate with the Pacific Coast League for a possible Junior World Series of baseball.

PITTSBURGH NUMBER ONE CHOICE

A National Hockey League executive says that if the league expands Pittsburgh would be the number one choice. Toronto Maple Leafs President Stafford Smythe says expansion would hinge on signing a television contract in the United States. Smythe said the league could expand in two stages . . . first to Pittsburgh, Baltimore, St. Louis and Cleveland . . . then to Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Lindsay Tennis Club elects Cyril Ainsworth '63 president

Lindsay Tennis Club met at the Bonfire Restaurant Wednesday night to choose the 1963 executive.

Elected were: President - Cyril Ainsworth, 1st Vice-President - John Jung, 2nd Vice-President - Ches Richmond, Secretary - Marjorie Owen, Treasurer - Rhys Williams, Assistant Treasurer - Karl Lohmayer.

It was decided to hold regular monthly executive meetings on the fourth Wednesday of each month.

Rhys Williams reported that Mr. Harry Nicholls, proprietor of Thurstonia Lodge, had extended an invitation to renew last year's agreement for the use of his tennis courts.

The club has been unable to conclude anything definite for a location in town. However, every effort will be made to keep the club in town if at all possible.

Deaf Midgets to display hockey-playing skill

Tonight is "Young Canada Night" at the Lindsay Kiwanis Arena. Sponsored by the Lindsay Council of the Knights of Columbus, it is a prelude to Minor Hockey Week which opens Saturday.

Mr. Dan Cayley, who together with George Campbell is organizing the event told "The Post" that a good program has been planned and designed to focus attention on the activities of the Lindsay Minor Hockey Association.

Starting at 7.30, he said, there will be two games featuring the "Pee-Wees" and the "Atoms" after which races will be held for all the schools in different age groups.

Guests of honor will be the midget team from the Ontario School for the Deaf, Bellville, who will play an exhibition game with the Lindsay Midgets.

The director of the school says he is anxious to demonstrate to the public how these boys can compete on an equal basis with unhandicapped boys.

Teams organized at Janetville

Janetville (PNS) — An athletic meeting was held in the south Janetville School.

Six junior hockey teams were organized for boys from ages six to 16. They will play in the Janetville arena on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights and Thursday and Saturday afternoons. It was also planned to let the school children in the surrounding area have free skating three afternoons a week.

ARSENAL UNION SENDING DELEGATION TO OTTAWA

NOTICED . . along the way

Even George Bernard Shaw himself might have grudgingly approved had he lived to see the day when Christine Bennett played the part of Catherine in the playwright's "Arms and the Man" now on tour in the Canadian Players 1962-63 season and scheduled to be presented at Lindsay next Wednesday night. She might even have influenced his legendary Keep-your-distance attitude toward most women and the world in general. The play is being sponsored by the Lindsay Rotary Club and Miss Bennett has spent her life in the theatre. Born in England, she is a graduate of the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, London, and studied at the Guild Hall, School of Elocution. She is an exceedingly talented versatile actress with long experience in leading roles in Ontario's Stratford Festival, the Crest Theatre, Toronto, and in London's West End. Several years of extensive English repertory and stock at theatres throughout England and Scotland add to her credit, during which she played everything from leads to character, including pantomine and farce. During the war she entertained the troops in England and Germany with ENSA. She toured with Shaw's Pygmalion during the Canaidan Players 1958-59 season. She has also played many leads in Canadian television and radio dramas.

Bid to arouse gov't concern for employees

An attempt will be made to arouse the government's concern for the future welfare of 130 arsenal employees to be thrown out of work on the plant's closure here March 31st. With this in mind a Lindsay delegation will go to Ottawa on Wednesday, January 30th.

At an executive meeting of the Lindsay and District Labor Council, Thursday, it was decided President Malcolm (Pat) Stevens would accompany a six-man delegation to Ottawa. Delegates will include Canadian Arsenals Ltd. employees who are members of the United Steel Workers of America and a union representative from Toronto headquarters.

A meeting of the delegation has reportedly been arranged with Labor Minister Michael Starr and Minister of Defence Production Raymond O'Hurley by USWA President William Powell of Peterboro.

Labor Council Vice-President Frank Brett states his organization is hoping government concern will be aroused to solve the unemployment crisis here to be faced with the arsenal closure.

Warden says Victoria's debt for schools and hospitals highest in the province

Victoria County has one of the highest debenture debts of any county in Ontario for schools and hospitals, and future plans for their decrease are very poor.

Newly-elected Warden John Childs, told governors of the hospital board Thursday night, that he was worried that plans had not been made to lower the debentures and commended the board for its proposal, to establish an emergency fund for the future.

His remarks referred to a suggestion made earlier by the chairman to put the $10,000 from the E. A. Flavelle estate into endowment funds which, together with other endowments, would return a perpetual sum from the interest.

Some of the members felt this would be tying up the Public has a right to look to a central place for obtaining a doctor when needed, board told

"The public has a right to a central place to look for assistance in getting a doctor when they need one" . . . I feel it is definitely the responsibility of the hospital board". This opinion was passed along to Ross Memorial Hospital governors at their meeting Thursday night. The "Doctor-on-call" system, and its effect on public relations, came under close scrutiny at the meeting.

A report from a meeting of the Public Relations Committee of the Board of Governors was introduced to those present in which the guest speaker-Stuart Roberts, Director of the Ontario Hospital Association's Public Relations Department-was quoted as having said he felt the "On-Call" system was definitely the responsibility of the hospital board.

The public relations committee meeting held on Jan. 10th followed reports of an occasion on which one of the board members had experienced difficulty when trying to get medical help at the hospital.

(Approximately a week after the meeting, a Lindsay resident was reported to have lain ill in a hotel for over an hour before assistance arrived.)

Offering further suggestions to the committee, Mr. Roberts said that . . . "Although good public relations with the press is for the most part the responsibility of the administrator, the committee should satisfy themselves that there is one person always available in the hospital to whom the press is

WONDERFULLY AGREEABLE . .

Judging by early press reports on a suggested doubling of salaries for members of parliament at the federal, level we can expect complete harmony among all parties. Isn't it remarkable that there should be complete agreement on this matter when every single one of them profess grave concern for the taxpayers' pocketbook. Wouldn't it be wonderful now if the taxpayers could get together and vote themselves a 100 per cent increase in income or a 100 per cent cut in income tax so they could really feel they were sharing in this bonanza?

What has become of all the government austerity talk? Has it now been agreed to scrap the Glassco Report with its recommendations for reducing waste at the federal level? (By the way, many feel the report was remiss when it didn't point the finger at the extravagance of the special income tax exemption now allowed MPs . . . They get a special, discriminatory $2,000 tax-free expense allowance.)

Of course, the members will proclaim loud and clear that they cannot afford to live on what they are now receiving but the vast majority of their constituents are living on a whole lot less than $8,000 a year, plus $2,000 a year on which they pay no income tax. Nearer to the truth might be the assertion that they cannot afford to live the way they want to live on the money they receive. Parliamentarians have a habit of cutting the cloth to fit the suit rather than cutting the suit to fit the cloth. Most taxpayers have to operate the other way around.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 25, 1913

Mr. Wesley Switzer, North Verulam met with an unfortunate accident recently. Michael Kelly had a sawing bee cutting fire wood, and they were using a gasoline engine outfit. They were cutting poles, and somehow Wesley was handling the wood around the saw, and not thinking of the saw left his hand swinging somewhat behind him. He thought he had hit something and looking to his hand found his four fingers hanging in the cut mit, the little one and next one entirely off, and the other two hanging by a bit of skin. His father had the misfortune some years ago to lose some fingers from each of his hands, so Wesley is far ahead of his father.

Attending Convention

Mr. John Campbell, of Fairview Farm, Woodville, is attending the New York State Annual Breeders' Convention in Utica, giving an address on the subject, "Can Mutton be Produced Profitably in N.Y. State." He will afterwards attend the executive meeting of the Board of American Shropshire Association at Detroit.

JANUARY 25, 1938

The difficult walking on the side streets of Lindsay following the recent thaw has caused a number of citizens to suggest that something be done immediately to alleviate this condition. Slush and water, in some places inches deep, has resulted in many wet feet. One citizen suggests that the sidewalks be ploughed out with the town snowplows before the weather turns colder and the present unpleasant condition is allowed to become an extended nuisance. Mr. McLennan, chairman of the Board of Works was out of town today when the "Post" telephoned to inquire if any action of the above nature was contemplated.

Reports and Remarks..

AVERAGE DRUG PRESCRIPTION COST IN CANADA IS ONLY $3.14

How much do Canadians spend on prescription drugs? Here are the answers from various authoritive sources of information.

Average cost of a prescription in Canada is $3.14. Almost nine out of ten prescriptions cost less than $5.00; only one in 100 costs more than $10.00.

Average expenditure per person on prescription drugs brought in retail pharmacies is $7.36 per year. Including those dispensed in hospitals, the total comes to about $10.00.

The daily cost of the average prescription worked out over the time it is normally taken comes to 21.7c.

Canadians spend seven times as much on tobacco, nine times as much on alcoholic beverages as they do on prescribed medicines in retail pharmacies.

Some pointed questions about the arsenal

Lindsay, Ont.,
Jan. 24, 1963.

The Editor,
The Lindsay Post.
Dear Sir:

May I, through your columns, congratulate Mr. Hutton for his outspoken questions at a recent council meeting. His remarks and questions cannot be classed as the most tactful approach but he deserves credit for trying on behalf of many Lindsay citizens and taxpayers.

I am very concerned about some of the answers given to council and Mr. Hutton therefore I would like to ask the Mayor a few questions. It is reported, I quote, the Mayor: "I have been assured NOTHING will be sold or done with the plant until the Town has been consulted. I think we are crossing our bridges before we reach them" end of quote.

May I ask Has the Town or the Mayor been consulted about the machines already skidded for shipment? Have you, Mr. Mayor, been consulted about the removal of motors from machines in preparation for shipment? If so by whom? Have you been consulted about contracts placed at Lindsay and now placed elsewhere? It has been reliably reported: That Mr. Pitts was sitting in the Deputy Minister's Office when the announcement of closing the plant mas made to the General Manager. True or False? As a member of the Industrial Commission, were you aware of this trip by members of this committee? If not why not? How much has been spent by this committee in expenses over and above the $60.00 per week part time allowance made to Mr. Pitts.

There have been far too many silly, foolish statements made about the arsenals by the federal representatives and it it is time for some straightforward, factual answers. If such are not forthcoming we can only conclude you have been consulted and concurred.

An Arsenal Employee and Taxpayer.

NEW NEGOTIATIONS

Official sources in Madrid say Spain has officially told the U-S it intends to seek new negotiations over the U-S military bases in Spain. The sources say the Spanish Ambassador has written to U-S Ambassador to Spain Robert Woodward telling him of the planned move. The U-S Embassy has confirmed the reports. The move has been expected for some time and did not surprise observers.

DOCKS WITH HUMAN CARGO

The U-S cargo ship "Shirley Lykes" docked at Port Everglades, Florida, this morning with a human cargo of nearly 12-hundred Cuban refugees. The ship left Havana last night after taking a load of ransom supplies demanded by the Castro government for release of the Bay of Pigs invasion prisoners. When the Shirley Lykes docked at Port Everglades, ambulances drove to her side to remove 17 sick persons aboard. The 11-hundred-70 men, women and children make up the largest single group Premier Casero has allowed to leave his Communist Island.

SIX MONTHS FOR CONTEMPT

The British Lord Chief Justice has sentenced a British newsman to six months in prison for contempt. Chief Justice Parker levied the sentence on Desmond Clough because he refused to identify the source of a news story involving Soviet espionage. Clough has refused to tell a special tribunal the identity of the government source who told him convicted spy William Vassall gave information enabling Russian trawlers to turn up at NATO naval maneuvers. Justice Parker ruled if Clough will reveal his source within 10 days the sentence will be suspended.

REMOVE AMBUANCE

The Western allies have removed the ambulance stationed at "Checkpoint Charlie" along the Berlin Wall. The three issued a joint statement saying the ambulance would be kept in their regular stations. The allies said the decision was taken because the East Germans now are giving aid to refugees wounded at the wall.

HOT SANDWICHES

For that something hot, but special, try a hot sandwich! Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, suggest that different types of bread be used for variety: whole wheat, rye, cracked wheat, french, cheese or fruit bread. Buns, muffins and tea biscuits also make good hot sandwiches.

If the sandwich is to be broiled, toast one side of the bread first and butter the other side. Heap liberal amounts of the filling on the buttered side and broil until hot and bubbly.

Ham - Cheese Buns

Combine one cup of minced ham, ¼ cup finely chopped celery, 2 tablespoons of mayonaise and 2 tablespoons crumbled blue cheese. Place a heaping spoonful of this mixture on each bun half, top with a slice of processed cheese and broil until the cheese melts. Serve hot with cucumber slices and celery sticks.

Tots' Stepper-Upper

Need a lavatory step-up for the small fry, something handy on which they can stand while washing their hands or brushing their teeth? Just replace the empty beverage cans (cleaned, of course) into their six-pack carton, cover this with some oilcloth or plastic — and presto, a neat and attractive step-up for your young ones.

Painting Window Sash

When painting a window sash on the outside, carry your paint line at least ¼-inch over the putty onto the glass itself. This will anchor the putty to the glass and keep moisture from getting behind it, lifting it off, and in time rotting your sash.

Cleaning Pans

It is easier to clean pans in which food has hardened or has burned if the pan is turned upside down and cold water run on the bottom while it is still hot. If necessary, reheat the pan first.

Newlyweds feted at Bethany

Bethany (PNS) —A community party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Palmer, in honor of their recent marriage, in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Anglican church.

The community's gift of a chrome kitchen suite was presented by the committee in charge of arrangements—Gordon Smith, Levi McGill, Bob. Ryley, Jack Neals, Charles McGill and Harry Jakeman; with Allan Bigelow reading an address of congratulations and good wishes and welcoming Mrs. Palmer, the former Brenda Hully of Peterborough to the village.

Dancing was enjoyed to music supplied by Wally Reid, Donald Hamm, Robert Sisson, Pat Mantle, with Creighton Carr and Ernest Youngman "calling" the square dances.

Lunch was served and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

Mount Horeb

The sincere sympathy of the friends of Mrs. Pete Burchat goes to her in the death of her husband.

The deepest sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Magahay in the loss of her uncle, Mr. Robert Parks.

BEXLEY TOWNSHIP TAX DISCOUNT

The 1963 Tax Bills will allow a 3% discount from time of issue until the 15th day of October. Taxes will be at par from the 16th day of October until 31st December 1963.

Penalties of the 1963 Tax arrears will be ½ of 1% per month as from the 1st. day of January 1964. This penalty being within the Act.

There has been a very welcome increase in receipts of both current and arrears of Taxes during the past year. There are still some very serious defaulters in this regard, resulting in the Townships Treasurer being compelled to borrow large sums of money to pay the current expenses and accounts.

Ethel Flavelle proficiency prize annual award

An annual prize will be awarded the nurse with the highest proficiency marks in the Canadian Nursing Association class it was announced last night at the hospital board meeting.

To be called the "Miss Ethel Flavelle General Proficiency Prize" the money - - will be given to the most rewarding nurse at the end of the training course to be used as desired.

Members were unanimous in their acceptance of the plan and called it a "fitting tribute to the memory of one who had done so much for the hospital."

The Ladies Auxiliary were also in receipt of $500 from the Flavelle estate to be used "as they wish", stated governor Mr. John Wilford.

Oakwood fair votes cut in admission rates for '63

It will cost less to attend Oakwood Fair next fall. The Mariposa Agricultural Society voted at its annual meeting to reduce gate admittance from 75 to 50 cents per person.

Forty-two members and guests attended the meeting which was chaired by President Robert Parkin who expressed appreciation for the co-operation received during his two-year term.

The lady directros met prior to the general meeting to revise the ladies section to which new sections were added.

The Financial report was read and accepted, showing a deficit of $171.84 on the year's work which included the erection of a new Junior Dept. Building at a cost of $2227.25.

The chairman of each department reported that in spite of the bad weather there was a very attractive and educational display.

It was unanimously carried that the 1963 gate admission be reduced from 75c to 50c.

Mr. LeRoy Brown, A.G., and N.G. Wilson were invited to attend but were unable to be present.

The board will again sponsor the 4-H Calf Club, but the sponsoring of the field crop competition was left in abeyance until further information is received.

Reeve Roy Morrison, spoke on his interest in the fair and advised that Victoria County Council is again making their usual generous grant of $400 to the board.

There was considerable informative discussion in connection with various matters for the betterment of the 1963 fair.

The following officers were elected:

President, Arthur Trent; 1st Vice-President, Wilfred Short; 2nd Vice-President, Sandy Ferguson; Directors, Harry Coad, Noble Swain, Henry Mark, George Greenway, Miss Candace Rich, Lorne Jewell, John Monaghan, Allan Anderson, and James Winterbottom.

Scots turn out 170 strong to celebrate Burns' birthday

The 204th Anniversary of the poet Robert Burns was celebrated last night in St. Andrew's Church Hall.

Despite the bitter cold weather local Scots turned out 170 strong to pay homage to Scotland's most illustrious son.

As is the custom, the guests were piped to their places at the table, then the pipers left the hall again to pipe in the Great Chieftain (chieftain of the puddin' race) that is, "The Haggis".

Rev. O. G. Loche, having said "The Selkirk Grace", The Haggis was then addressed with full honours by Hugh Mooney, who cut, stabbed and waved the knife about narrowly missing the speaker at times.

Dinner followed, and those who hadn't tasted the cottish dish before were able to satisfy their curiosity and make up their minds one way or the other. Of course there was a choice of roast beef for the more timid guests.

Patricia Gordon was next on the programme and she sang "The Road to the Isles" and "Annie Laurie" very beautifully.

Chairman Dan McQuarrie was in excellent form and had the hall rocking with laughter at times as he recalled some of his experiences as a longtime member of St. Andrew's Kirk.

First toast of the evening was ably proposed by Dr. Lawrenson, to the lassies, especially those lassies in the back kitchen who cooked the "Braw Dinner".

William Perry did a magnificent job at singing "My Love is Like a Red Red Rose" followed by "The Bonny, Bonny Banks of Loch Lomond".

Next toast was the one to the immortal memory of the poet Burns, and Archie MacIntyre, before proposing the toast, attributed the undying flame of Burn's greatness to his love of his fellow man, which he illustrated with that famous verse which ends "That man to man the World Owre, shall brothers be for a' that.

The guest speaker was then introduced by Charles Stoddart and in his speech the Rev. Kenneth Rooney of Woodville, highlighted the various stages of the poet's life with quotations from many of his poems. The speech was very informative indeed and served to remind all present that, as Mr. Rooney expressed it. He was born in poverty, lived the greater part of his short life in poverty and died in poverty, hence the grim reality of so many of his works.

The McIntyre Pipe Band from Fenelon Falls entertained the guests with a fine rendition of pipe tunes which at times had the Scots highland blood fairly leapin' in their veins.

A braw night's entertainment drew to a close with a vote of thanks proposed by Alec Kingsborough who gave worthy mention to Carl Scott for his efforts in organizing the event.

Dan McQuarrie then asked the guests to join hands in the traditional fashion to sing "Auld Lang Syne" which Mrs. Bob Fitch accompanied on the piano

So Burn's night was over for another year and the guests faced the wintry blast once again only this time well fortified with good old Scottish Haggis.

Course reveals boys taking it more careful with firearms than many seasoned hunters

"Boys of the Hunter Safety Training Course are proving more careful in the use of firearms than many of the old seasoned hunters of the district". This was the opinion expressed by Chief Instructor William Crowley as Thursday examinations concluded the two-week course for 58 boys and one girl enrolled.

Forty-two of the class passed the verbal examinations conducted at the Legion Hall by instructor Crowley and his assistants, Ken Reeves and Rose Marie Marshall of Lindsay. The other 17, snowbound on side roads, will be examined later at the Crowley home. "I am confident every member of the course will pass", said Mr. Crowley, adding that boys from 12 to 25 participated but none were more keenly interested than girl graduate, Judy Baker of Valentia.

Ninety graduates per year have passed the Hunter Safety Training Course instituted in Lindsay in 1960, an official of the Department of Lands and Forests disclosed, nothing that Mr. Crowley, an ardent hunter and fisherman, is entering his third year as instructor of the local group. Other training centres are held throughout the province and sponsored by the Department of Lands and Forests which appoints the instructors. The three Lindsay instructors include besides Mr. Crowley and Mr. Reeves, William Young who has been unable to attend recent classes held two nights per week.

Instructor Crowley states course instruction stresses: the treating of every gun as if it were loaded; always pointing the muzzle in a safe direction; making sure of the target (many lives have been taken when a person was mistaken for an animal or bird). Actual target practice and instruction is held at the Lindsay Armouries rifle range.

Mr. Crowley says he tries to make the course more interesting by relating actual experiences of his hunting career. "I warn these would be sportsmen about all aspects of hunter safety on water and land, which I have learned over the years. This includes cautioning against overloading boats and shooting wildly without identifying a target on either land or water."

Enrolled in the Hunter Safety Courses just completed and coming from Lindsay and other parts of Victoria County were: C. Reeds, Bill James, Rickey Sleep,, Doug Robinson, Kenneth Sleep, R. Snook, Judy Baker, Murray Grills, Norman Staples, John Holtom, David Sage, Bob Sleep, John Brown, Ronald Trowbridge, Howard Hillier, Garry Scott, Ivan McLean, Ronald Sage, Peter Newhouser, Doug Smith, Ben Berhtor, Lorne Montemiglio, Bill Byam, Rickey Oliver, Stan Hutchinson, Steve Emerson, Stan Scribbens, Brian Grozelle, P. Johnston, Murray Fleming, Ron Pillsworth, Jim Butterworth, David Tyer, John Claydon, Bill Dermedy, Paul Sterling, Terry Menaul, Jim Dean, Ian Arnup, Bill Syege, Terry Brandon, B. Caron, Ron Corley John Mark, William Reid Bruce Northey, John Hunter, Ted Junkin, Scott Neilly, W. Sanders, Bruce Hicks, R. Chataway, Brian Denning David Bishop, Dick Peel, Ron Hood, Frank O'Reilly, B. Grills, Larry Kennedy.

"Hunter safety means safety in handling all firearms and the prevention of hunting accidents", instructor William Crowley summed up adding outdoors sportsmen are the greatest group in the world and dedicated to help one another. Students of the course are only asked to pay 75c to help defray the cost of ammunition and treats, he explained, disclosing that training the boys was his most-delightful privilege.

Seven driver's snowbound on short stretch of road

Joe E. Nesbitt of R.R. 3, Woodville was one of seven motorists snowbound on County Road 18 between Dewdrop Inn dorner and the Little Britain Road Thursday night Another was Frank Power's son of Lindsay. The fury of the windstorm piled up drifts which left motorists stranded from early evening until nearly midnight.

Refuge from the severe cold was taken in farmhouses of Joseph Cayley and others on the drifted two mile stretch.

A breakdown in county road snow removal equipment caused the delay in opening the road. As soon as the repairs were made, the machines were rushed to the scene, it was leagned.

Mr. Nesbitt spent the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Webster, Glandine Corner after being released from the unpleasant experience.

Minor collision

Sgt. Gordon Eberts, of the Lindsay Police Department investigated a two-car collision on Albert St. south at 8.50 this morning.

Milton Oughtred, of Mary St. West, Lindsay, was driving south on Albert St. South, when the front of his car was in collision with a north-bound vehicle driven by Allan Ingram of R.R.3, Bobcaygeon.

Lindsay doctor at Liberal rally

Dr. D. S. Wood left today for the first Ontario Liberal Rally being held in the Royal York Hotel Toronto, today and Saturday. From this rally will emerge the basis of the platform for the Liberal Party in the forthcoming provincial election campaign.

It is expected other local delegates will include President John M. Nesbitt, M. J. Cunningham, and possibly J. L. Staples. Vice-President Michael J. Hogan will be unable to attend as planned due to illness.

Duplicate Bridge Results

Lindsay's Duplicate Bridge Club used the Mitchell Movement at its most recent meet with the following results:

North-South: Dr. C. Laidley and N. G. Bradburn, first with 63 points. In second and third place respectively, were J. Staples and M. Smith, 61; Dr. D. C. Pitt and B. R. Howard 47½.

East-West: Mrs. S. Gleeson and Mrs. D. Davies, 52; Mr. and Mrs. E. Hannon, 51; Mr. and Mrs. T. Szego, 49.

Next games February 5th, same spot.

Lindsay P.S.T.A. workshop holds second session

The second session of the Teachers' Workshop sponsored by the Lindsay Public Schools Teachers' Association was held in the Central School Auditorium.

The meeting was called to order by Miss Ruth White, President of the Lindsay Public Schools Teacher's Association, after which the assembly sang the National Anthem with Mrs. Hilda Robinson presiding at the piano.

Mr. David Simser introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. John Watson, M. A., of Peterborough Teachers' College. During the evening Mr. Watson proved himself to be a highly proficient Educational Psychologist as well as an interesting and adept speaker.

Mr. Watson's address covered three aras of Educational psychology and was based upon questions asked of him by the teachers. During the first part of his lecture, Mr. Watson explained why children were registered in school at no earlier age than school regulations now enforce. "Motivation" was then discussed and Mr. Watson proved that pupils achieve greater heights when motivated in a positive manner than by negative threats etc. The concluding stage dealt with the "consolidation" of learned material. It was pointed out by the speaker that there is great need for frequent drills and reviews if the learned material is to become "permanent learning".

Mr. Robert Allan, principal of the Leslie Frost Public School thanked the speaker for his informative address stating that the teachers must have benefitted greatly by it.

The teachers of the Leslie Frost Public School then served coffee and tarts to conclude another enjoyable and profitable evening.

Glenarm

Mrs. Angus McKay has returned home after spending some time with her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hore of Rosedale.

Mr. Morley Nicholson, employed on the Police Force in Whitby on time off visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nicholson and brother Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hartle were guests and attended the 40th wedding anniversary dinner in Cameron Community Hall for Mrs. Hartles aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henry and later in the evening a number from the vicinity also attended a social time in Cameron Hall to add their congratulations and continued good health to Mr. and Mrs. Henry on this happy occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Henry were residents of Glenarm area before moving to Cameron.

Messrs Donald and Archie MacMillan were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling McNabb and family.

All are glad to hear that Mr. Charlie Elford is now much improved and able to be out a short time each day and also that sister Mary is somewhat improved and hope for a continuance in her condition, also Mr. Elfords.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nesbitt, John, Janice and Bobby motored to Brooklin to the home of Mrs. Nesbitts brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Clark Whitfield and son Kevin when Kevin was getting baptised in their home church.

Mrs. George Thornbury, son Robert and Mrs. Thornbury and daughter Miss Valerie of Lindsay were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Thornbury.

Report on dinner meeting given by Mrs. W. Hilton

The January meeting of North Ops Institute was held at the 910 motel, the president Mrs. R. Archer opened the meeting in the usual manner, followed by the December minutes and communications read by secretary Mrs. Peel.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. E. Archer and thank you cards read from members. A report on the historical society dinner meeting was given by Mrs. W. Hilton. Gloom and sunshine pennies were collected.

An auction sale of home baking and white elephants was conducted by Mrs. R. Archer as auctioneer. Mrs. G. Clarke gave a review of current events for 1962. The motto "Living is more than making a living" was presented by Mrs. S. Currins. Readings were given by Mrs. Peel and Mrs. S. Currins. Poems were read by Mrs. D. Hilton and Mrs. Buckley. Meeting closed with singing "The Queen and Institute grace.

A delicious lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. R. Archer and Mrs. Allen Archer and helpers.

True Blue Club elects officers

Oakwood (PNS) — The True Blue Club met for their monthly meeting in the schoolroom of the church, taking the form of a potluck supper. Due to the extreme cold and wind, the attendance was not as large as usual, but about 25 were present. After an abundant and very delicious supper, Mrs. A. E. Webster led in a brief worship Service, taking as her theme "Standing at the Potral".

Election of officers resulted in: President Miss Lizzie Harcus; Vice-President - Mrs. A. E. Webster; Secretary - Mrs. Herald Jenkins; Treasurer - Mrs. Frank Rich.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

AFTERMATH OF A CORONARY ATTACK

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Believe it or not, I am much happier in my marriage since my husband's attack of coronary thrombosis. It has made a new man of him. Before the attack two years ago business came first and his family second. Now all that has changed. We are all together as we never have been before. Do you find this unusual — Mrs. H.

Comment: There's nothing like serious illness to set a man's thinking straight. I have observed similar reactions so many times in my practice that I have come to the conclusion that your husband's behaviour is the rule rather than the exception.

A hard-driving businessman intent only in his work and oblivious of the needs of his wife and children, suddenly is incapacitated by coronary thrombosis. After the discomforts and actual pain disappear, he has time philosophize while he lies invalided in bed. He has time to think and run down and tired all the weigh the importance of business success and money and securities and position as against the really important things in life.

Without any prompting he concluded that love of family is more blessed than so-called success in life. If he was in the habit of losing his temper, he trains himself to be calm. Instead of giving himself completely to the needs of community and business projects, he puts aside at least two or three evenings a week to be with his family.

For the first time in years, he goes on a picnic; to the theater or concert; or an extended vacation with the family. Invariably he says, "What a fool I have been to forget my family." Thoughtfulness for his wife and children displaces the drive, stress and hard work which seemed so important before his attack.

FATIGUE

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I feel time. I even wake up tired after seven hours sleep. My friends say it must be something psychological—that I look too well to be sick. This may seem stupid, but do you think an examination is necessary? I am 21, have one child and have been losing weight, but feel that at my age I should have more pep. My husband and I are quite happy. We talk to each other about everything freely. He seems worried and suggests I see a doctor. Frankly, I'm scared. What do you suggest? —Mrs. C.

Comment: Better follow your husband's advice, and be thankful that he does not pooh-pooh your complaints. Fatigue can be psychological, yes. But there are many more important causes. It's essential that your doctor rules out organic disease, before you settle for the diagnosis of "functional fatigue".

I think you ought to have a complete blood work up, an X ray of the chest and through physical. If there is no apparent organic reason for your tiredness then there's time enough to eliminate tension, stress and anxiety which are such important causes of modern-day fatigue. Like pain, excessive tiredness is a symptom that deserves careful consideration.

For Mrs. K.: Yes, it is possible to have a normal pregnancy after having had a D & C (dilitation and curettage) for diagnostic purposes.

* * *

For Mr. J.: It is possible to give up smoking "gradually", but the easier way is to stop suddenly. It's less painful in the end, to throw the pack into the wastebasket, rather than to keep nursing package after package with the hope you can stop.

James Mark

Veteran railroader, 50-year Mason

James Mark, whose burial took place in Pine Grove cemetery, near Port Perry on Monday January 21, had a host of friends and acquaintances, especially among railwaymen, members of the Masonic Order and of the Oddfellows Lodge. A short service was held by brethren of the I.O.O.F.

The late Jas. Mark was born on a farm north of the village of Port Perry and at an early age identified himself with the old Grant Trunk railway company. By dint of hard work and application to duty he advanced from brakeman to conduction and in his later years as a railroader he saw service on the main line. He was known among railwaymen and among citizens generally as an amiable gentleman, loyally interested in his work and dedicated to the fraternal organizations he was a member of for over half a century. Recently he was one of seven members of Faithful Brethren Lodge No. 77 A.F. and A.M. to be honored by receiving a fifty-year jewel.

For a number of years the late Mr. Mark and his great friend and companion, Mr. Andrew Robertson, resided at their summer home at Pleasant Point and in recent years spent the winter months at Clearwater, Fla. It was at the latter resort that the deceased suffered a heart attack from which he never recovered.

His passing will be regretted by many friends and acquaintances.

1963 officers installed in impressive ceremony

The Canadian Woodmen of the World held their monthly meeting in the Moose Hall.

Sou J. Clouston of Head office in London, Ontario, in a very impressive ceremony installed the new officers for 1963. He impressed on each one their duties. Each officer was escorted to their stations by Sou Morley Beckstead of Oshawa. Sou Ralph Stokes supplied the piano music.

The officers are as follows: Past Consul Commander Sou Fred Palmer; Consul Commander Sou Ray Stokes; Adv. Ltd. Sou Francis Stokes; Banker Sou Isobel Allen; Clerk Sou Velma Stevens; Escort Sou Ira Palmer; Watchman Sou Eddie Nichols; Sentry Sou Leigh Tamlin; Delegates Sou Del Allan and Fred Palmer; Rec.-Sec. Sou Ruby Stokes; Degree Captain Sou Ben Stevens; Pianists Sou Betty Avery and Ralph Stokes; Managers one year, Sou Allan Stokes, two years Sou Ben Stevens, three years Sou Del Allan, Press Reporter Sou. Martha I. Coulson.

Past Con. Com. Sou. Fred Palmer thanked all for standing by him and he also thanked the Degree Captain Sou Ben Stevens and his drill team for their untiring work through the year, especially at the convention which was held in Lindsay. The team has had the pleasure of putting on the degree at Pontypool and Bellerville and have accepted an invitation to Oshawa and Toronto. Mr Clouton again expressed appreciation to Banker Isobel Allan and Clerk Velma Stevens for the splendid way in which they work together. Everyone was pleased to see Morley Beckstead out again after his sick spell. The Lindsay camp has had a good year with the addition of new members and hope for a bigger and better 1963.

The ladies served a lovely lunch, which brought a very interesting program to a close.

Finds finger in fan

Turin, Italy-(UPI)-If the gas station attendant finds a human finger stuck on your car's cooling fan, you cannot blame him if he calls the police.

Amilcare Bertini, a Turin motorist, found himself the unwilling hero of some Alfred Hitchcock-type horror movie scenes when police started grilling him, "where did you put the body?"

But police finally learned the finger found in Bertini's car engine had been severed from the hand of a young worker in a garage where Bertini had taken his car for minor repairs the day before.

The youth, was so scared he did not report the loss of his finger to the garage owner "because he could reprimand me".

Minden

Reeve L. A. Pritchard of Minden has been appointed Warden of Haliburton County.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Ward spent a social evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stone of Ormond Beach, Florida, where the Wards are holidaying.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Harrison visited his parents.

Mrs. Garnet Lytle has been ill at her home and all her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Wm. Cox underwent surgery at Ross Memorial Hospital, hope she will soon be home again.

Mr. Mike O'Neill has returned to his home and is improving rapidly.

Messrs Mike McInerney and Bob Dawson visited their parents in the village.

Cameron

Miss Norma Shea has returned to Kempville Agricultural College, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Shea.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sproule and family of Manilla, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Goodhand, of Whitby.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Goodhand, of Whitby, visited his mother, Mrs. George Goodhand.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Coppins and family and Miss Diane Coppins, all of Toronto, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Coppins. They visited their mother in the Peterboro Hospital, where she had an eye operation this past week. All wish her a speedy recovery.

Belleville wins 4-3

Cold Young Canada Night warmly received here

A large crowd was on hand despite the stormy weather for the "Young Canada Night" program sponsored by the Knights of Columbus for the Lindsay Minor Hockey Association. The program was well planned and fast-moving, leaving the spectators very few minutes in which to discuss the weather. The program as originally planned was slightly altered to accomodate the late arrival of the Belleville hockey team, but this permitted the completion of the races without interruption, and kept the contestants warmed up for each event.

Following the playing of "The Queen" a grand march of all participants who were on skates, led by the referees for the evening, Ted Campbell and Pat Burns. Two hockey games were then run off simultaneously resulting in the Black Knight Atoms defeating the Blue Blazer Atoms 1-0 while the Blue Blazer Squirts defeated the Black Knight Squirts 1-0 at the other end of the ice surface.

The school races followed the pint sized hockey games consisting of girls under ten years once around the rink, boys under ten, girls 10 to 12 years, then girls 12 to 14, twice around, boys 12 to 14, girls 14 to 16, and boys 14 to 16.

The relay races proved very exciting with three members to each team, each going once around in the younger groups. The final race was twice around. The teams were not necessarily picked representatives of each shool, but each team made up its own roster.

The feature event of the program, and the final event, was the hockey game between a Minor Hockey League Midget team and the team from the School for the Deaf from Belleville. These lads received a standing ovation when they skated on the ice, and were roundly cheered with each goal they scored. The Belleville boys unmistakably showed the results of good coaching by their sound positional play and their lack of hearing proved no handicap as far as scoring goals was concerned.

The Belleville line-up: Goal Douglas Rowe of Scarboro and William Gregory of Thesalon. Defence - Ivan Beer of St. Thomas. Myles McDonald of Cumberland, Leslie Young of Oakville, Harold Geigel of Peterborough. Forwards - Terry Stewart of Windsor, Carl Masters of Fort William, Michael Mooney of Arnprior, Bruce Ulett of Ottawa, Ivan Cassidy of Scarboro, Kenneth Warren of Galt, Herbert Cripps of Sault St. Marie, Clyde Jourdin of Walkerton, and Rusty Clarke of Lindsay.

For Lindsay, Richard Clarke played goal. Doug Kent and Howard Hillier started on defence. Red Crawford at centre. John Crawford and Earl McLean on the wings, and alternates Bruce Cameron, David Willis, Larry Loche, Stan Hoare, Dale Tracey, Don Wilson, Bob Wylie, Harry Sharp, Reg. Gassien, and Ron Denning.

Herb Cripps scored three goals to lead his team-mates to a 4-3 win over Lindsay. Terry Stewart scored Belleville's fourth goal. Lindsay goals were scored by Red Crawford, Bob Wylie, and Harry Sharp.

Don't Send — Take Your Boy to the Arena
MINOR HOCKEY WEEK STARTS JANUARY 26

This Day

Today is Friday, January 25th the 25th day of 1963 with 340 to follow.

The moon is new.

The morning stars are Venus and Mars.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Aquarius. The Scottish poet, Robert Burns, was born on this day in 1759.

On this day in history:

In 1940, the Canadian Government appealed to the country ta unite in the war effort. The appeal was made during the throne speech at the opening of parliament.

In 1915, Alexander Graham Bell opened the first cross-country telephone service.

Burnt River

Another game of Progressive Euchre was held in the Parish Hall by the Young People's Guild of St. Luke's Anglican Church with a good attendance. Ladies high was won by Mrs. Marjorie Bradimore and Gentleman's high went to Mr. Henry Armstrong, while the low scores were held by Mrs. June Handley and Mr. Tom Handley. Lunch and tea was served by members of the Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Godwin are vacationing in the Barbados.

Mrs. Robt. Handley entertained members of St. Luke's W.A. to a quilting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cameron and Betty visited their daughter, Mrs. Norman Germyn, of Dunsford.

Mr. Lee Rettie made a professional call to his doctor in Lindsay and was admitted to the Ross Memorial Hospital for further treatments on his hand.

Fingerboard

Pleasant Point Dramatic Club held another successful euchre at the school with ten tables. High prizes were won by Mrs. Arthur Hill and Mr. Bob Michie; Low prizes to Mrs. Doug Fish and Mrs. C. W. Clarke.

The trustees of School Area No. 1 made their January trip around the Area schools. Conditions at each school were noted and the necessary repairs to be budgetted for were checked.

nights. They're talking about television entertainment, Channel 7 in particular. This paper received a call on Thursday from a victim of the "blackout" on this channel and he said he has tracked down the source of the trouble. He says his investigation of the matter has led him to conclude that a booster unit on a receiving set in downtown Lindsay is blacking out Channel 7 reception over most, if not all, of the town. He is going to report the matter to the Dept. of Transport but speculates that this agency may not be too swift on the draw since the affected station is an American one and it "probably couldn't matter less to the department whether its programs get through or not when they are in competition with CBC-TV." However, he added that the channel affords some of the best programs on the air. Special agent T (for television) will be assigned to investigate this matter further, possibly at considerable personal risk.

He said that he felt the local situation was similar to that of other hospitals across the province.

Dr. H. R. Davies told hospital governors that the Medical Staff "was satisfied with the present system, and felt that everything was in hand."

On further questioning regarding the "on-call-system" the doctor said that the staff had appointed a spokesman to look into the matter, and the findings, if any would be reported at the next board meeting.

Pee Wees compete in tournament

Cannington (PNS) — Cannington Pee Wees competed in a tournament at Millbrook. After winning the first game 2 to 1 against Milbrook with goals by David Laird and Ronnie Duclos. They dropped their second game against Keene 5 to 3 with R. Duclos getting Canningtons goals.

Cannington squirts went to Port Perry recently. Jimmy Hedge scored one and Donnie Nicholson twice as Cannington defeated Port Perry 3 to 1.

Sunderland was supplying the opposition as the local Bantam and Pee Wee teams came up with victories. The Pee Wees won 5 to 0. This was goalie Bruce Butterworth's fourth shut-out of the season. Scoring for Cannington were D. Laird with two, B. Ross, D. Jewell and R. Duclos one each. In the Bantam game Cannington won 7 to 2. Scorers were R. MacLeish, B. Groves, B. Wakelin and A. Marshall.

Recently, two games were played. In the first game the Bantams to a three all tie with Northern Oshawa. In the first period Rick MacLeish and Charles McIntyre scored for the home club. Oshawa scored all their three goals in the first period. No goals were scored in the second period. Grant Johnston scored the tieing goal for Cannington in the third period. In the second game, the Midget team defeated Woodville 6 to 3 in a game that was marred at times by outburst of temper. Of course, the game was in tradition of true Woodville - Cannington rivalry and rivalry was high. In the first period, Cannington jumped to a 4 to 1 lead on goals by R. Josenhson, D. MacLeish, G. Laird and R. Josephson for his second of the night.

McKaque scored for the Woodville club. In the second period the goals were even, on apiece. Ross Cotton scored for Cannington and Dukelow for Woodville. In the third frame M. Parliament scored for the home club. Jewell scored Woodville's final goal. This was a fairly rough game with 18 penalties handed out by the referee. Cannington received 11 penalties in the game.

SECOND PLACE TIE

The Toronto Maple Leafs defeated Boston, 6-3, last night to move into a second place tie with Montreal, who fought to a 1-1 draw with Detroit. Frank Mahovlich sparked the Leafs' second win in two nights with a pair of goals, his 24th and 25th of the season. Toronto and Montreal are now three points behind league-leading Chicago, idle last night. There are no games scheduled tonight.

SHARE LEAD

Art Wall and Jacky Cupid share the lead after one round of the 50-thousand-dollar Lucky International Golf Tournament in San Francisco. Each shot a four-under par 67. The best of the five Canadians entered is Toronto's George Knudson, two strokes back with a 69. Al Balding of Toronto fired a 71 and Vancouver's Stan Leonard carded a 72 to remain in contention. Al Johnston of Monstreal had a 75 and Toronto's Alvie Thompson shot a 76.

CORRECT FORECAST

Chalk up another correct boxing forecast to third-ranked heavyweight contender Cassius Clay of Louisville, Kentucky. Clay kayoed former professional football player Charley Powell in the third round of a bout last night in Pittsburgh . . . the exact round which Clay had predicted would make the knockout. Clay–unbeaten now in 17 rights–has won 14 bouts by kayoes and correctly called the round 13 times. His next match will be March 13th with Doug Jones and Clay–already looking ahead–says Jones will be disposed of within six rounds.

TITLES VACATED

Two boxing titles have been vacated with the retirement of Duilio Loi of Italy. Loi–world junior welterweight, and European welterweight champion–announced his retirement yesterday because–as he put it–"the old spark is gone". The 33-year-old Loi–a professional boxer since 1948–had never been knocked out or even floored in his entire career.

THREE GAMES

Three games make up tonight's American Hockey League schedule. Quebec is at Baltimore, Rochester at Providence and Pittsburgh at Springfield. There were no games last night.

1963 SCHEDULE

The National Baseball League announced its 1963 schedule yesterday . . . a schedule including something new.- For the first time in Major League history, seven Sunday night games will be played. All the Sunday arc-lighters will be played at the Houston Colts' Park. There will be a total of 419 night games played by the 10 National League Clubs, two less than last year.

Sweep

Put on good show at Buffalo event

A Lindsay rink took part in an international bonspiel at Buffalo a few days go and with splendid results. Buffalo was the mecca for a number of Ontario rinks, especially from districts close to the border. Lindsay was represented by Don and Jean Ferguson and Al and Muriel Wetmore and this young foursome, after three fine games, tied for first place with an American rink. Instead of having the eight players involved return to the ice and deliver one stone each (a custom which is popular) the two skips were called on to deliver one stone each, the nearest to the bitton to win the championship. The Lindsay skip missed the target by a few inches and consequently the rink landed in second place. It was a good show and the locals were delighted with their trophy.

Play at Bobcaygeon

Bobcaygeon Curling Club is one of the pioneer organizations in the province. In fact, half a century ago the club did well in the Ontario Tankard event when the veteran and popular Geo. Moore was a member.

Bonspiels have been many and varied in "Little Bob" and one of the best of the season took place Wednesday when Shea Brothers of the I.G.A. store staged a 12-rink match. By splendid curling, first and second prizes went to Ted Shea and the first mentioned enthusiast accumoned off large bags of groceries and as a result, turned over $10 to the Ladies Club.

The event once again attracted two widely known Lindsay foursomes, namely: Lindsay Mackey (Skip), Madeline Woollard, Georgei Williamson and Bernice McCulloch; Tib Szego (Skip) Elizabeth and Gordon Graham and Willis Szego.

Good Place To Go

Woodville is a good place to go for a game of curling and fine hospitality. So say eight ladies of the Lindsay Club who participated in a bonspiel in the Eldon metropolis a few days ago. The rink, skipped by Evelyn Hickson won three games in a row and on the points system annexed lovely packages of linen for placing second. The rinks: Evelyn Hickson (Skip), Madeline Williamson, Margaret Walker and Jean Ferguson; Gladys Heels (Skip), Jean Eberts, Muriel Wetmore and Ethel Rodman.

BOWLING SCORES

Rotarians bring home prizes from Midland

Rotarians went afield looking for laurels last Wednesday. Along with many other members of the wheeled crest, they gathered for a showdown of ability at Midland. It was a Rotary annual and a number of clubs were represented in the two-game event. Two local rinks won a game and lost a game. The rink skipped by Rex Thomas returned with 200 feet of lawn hose and the rink skipped by Merle Lyons brought back lovely chinaware to please their wives. The rinks: Rex Thomas (Skip), Hilton Brown, F. Emmerson, Geo. Fuester; M. Lyons, W. Parker, S. Money and R. Ridpath.

Rinks split wins, losses

It was a tie - two games each for Dunsford and Omemee curlers an Omemee home ice Wednesday night.

A friendly four-rink mixed ten-end 'spiel with four teams from each are, kept spectators on their toes, as with frantic sweeping and yells of encouragement, the curlers matched stone for stone.

Two of the teams, running neck and neck on a 6-6 score, broke the tie when, on the last end, Omemee brought in another counter making the final tally 7-6.

One of the Omemee teams, unable to "put 'em down the line" faced a 12-2 defeat at the end of the game.

But it was all in fun, and players, and spectators all joined in sandwiches and coffee after the games.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST By Hal Sharp
LEAVE NO ODOR AT TRAP SITES
WORK IN WATER

IF A TRAP SITE IS ALONG THE BANK OR IN WATER, LEAVE UNNECESSARY GEAR FOR MAKING A SET BEYOND IMMEDIATE AREA AND WADE TO TRAP SITE, STAYING IN WATER TO MAKE THE SET.

WEAR RUBBER BOOTS WHENEVER POSSIBLE—DOORS ON RUBBER RINSES OFF EASILY AND RUBBER LEAVES NO SCENT WHERE LEATHER WILL.

IF TRAP SITE IS ON DRY OR SNOWY GROUND, APPROACH AND LEAVE ON THE SAME SIDE, MOVING AS LITTLE AS POSSIBLE WHILE MAKING THE SET. DON'T SMOKE OR SPIT, OR BREATHE ON NEARBY OBJECTS. LEAVE THE SITE NATURAL LOOKING, BRUSHING OUT YOUR TRACKS IN LEAVING.

SAY ARSENAL "STRIPPING" IS FORGING RIGHT AHEAD

Lindsay Man listens for Tom-Tom message

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo. Signalman Bob McCausland, Royal Canadian Signals, of Lindsay, listens to find out if a modern portable Army radio set will pick up the ancient message of the jungle tom-tom near his quarters in Leopoldville, The Congo. Sig. McCausland is a teletype operator with 57 Canadian Signal Unit in the United Nations Congo Force. Before comingg out to the Congo in July 1962 he was stationed with the signal squadron in Camp Borden, Ont. Sig. McCaulsand is the son of Mr. Roy McCausland of 24 Victoria Ave., Lindsay. (National Defence Photo)

Report Lindsay's first "March of Dimes" campaign is meeting with good response

The first phase of the first "March of Dimes" campaign in Lindsay is reported to be meeting with good response from the public. Campaign Chairman Dr. R. M. Parker. A total of 78 "March of Dimes" cards have been distributed throughout the town and are reported to be filling up well. Some replacement cards have already been requested from business places where the first issue was filled up with dimes, Dr. Parker discloses.

Mrs. Gordon Graham of 81 Wellington St. is captain of the "mothers march" which is to be carried out on January 28th.

With a warm welcome to the citizens of Lindsay who will conduct their first March of Dimes Campaign this month, President W. R. Livingstone of the Rehabilitation Foundation for the Disabled announced that the emphasis this year will be employment. Thanks to the success of the Foundation program of medical rehabilitation, an increasing number of physically rehabilitated patients are being discharged, no longer disabled enough to need medical care, but not able to return to competitive employment. Only a few of the 8,000 patients receiving treatment through the Rehabilitation Foundation have been able to get jobs on their own. Yet, all have abilities to offer.

"Substantial progress has already been made, said Livingstone, "in helping some of these people obtain gainful employment. Six Workshops supported by March of Dimes are now in operation in Ontario, at Lakehead, Timmins, Sudbury, Ottawa, Trenton and Toronto. But more are required. The Foundation last month established a Workshop Management Council whose function will be to expand the Foundation's net work of shops to all Ontario communities where the need exists.

"Experience in the first six shops has shown that they are the answer for ser-

Only Lindsay boy on the team

Only Lindsay boy on the hockey team from the Ontario School for the Deaf, at Belleville, was Rusty Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Clarke, Logie St., Lindsay. Rusty has been at the school for six years, three of which he has been on one of its teams. The team visited Lindsay and won on Young Canada Night.

Label term obsolescence "eyewash"

Usually well informed sources say reports that the Canadian Arsenals Ltd. plant at Lindsay is being stripped in preparation for the scheduled March 31st closure are well founded.

These sources say the stripdown is proceeding despite assurances that it would be kept in presentable condition for inspection by industrialists who might be interested in locating there.

They also say that talk of obsolescence in the plant's equipment is just so much "eyewash". . . the equipment, they declare, is much sought after and the products which were being made at Lindsay are undoubtedly going to be produced in arsenals elsewhere in Canada.

Those close to the situation say, too, there is great unrest among the remaining staff because they feel they have been "maneuvered" into their present position. They are also reported to be concerned because of the persistent reports alleging that strings are being pulled to permit capital gain by private investors out of public property.

Blame "snow mist" for accident

Reduced visibility caused by "snow mist" from a highway snowplow was the reason given by two drivers following a two-car accident Thursday.

Police say that Lawrence R. Brown of R. R. 9 Peterboro, and Harry Coulter of Kirkfield were the two drivers in the accident which happened on Highway 7, near Reaboro, early Thursday morning.

They told the investigating officer, that their visibility had been cut down temporarily by the operation of the plow.

There were no injuries, and damages were estimated at about $350.

OPP Const. Dale Coe investigated.

Nurses' residence future use to be studied

A committee, set up to enquire into the possibility of the present nurses' residence being used for other than a residence, has been authorized by the Ross Memorial Hospital Board.

Governors A. Carew, Roy Shields, L. Walker, and S. R. Pitts were suggested as members of the committee to look into the matter of utilizing the building for further expansion.

The government will usually assist in equipping a building for hospital use, it was noted.

HOME ON THE RANGE?

Looking to the future, cattle exhibitors at Lindsay Central Exhibition this year may be in for a taste of "home on the range" unless something develops to alter the picture. Here is what has happened:

Last fall, in the face of complaints from the Ross Memorial, Hospital, the Lindsay Board of Health decided to advise the Lindsay Central Exhibition Board that its livestock barns adjacent to the hospital were proving offensive. It was suggested that the exhibition board be cautioned that they would either have to be cleaned up or closed down. Sometime during the next while, Lindsay's medical officer of health apparently decided to have notices tacked up banning use of the buildings.

In the meantime the exhibition board has been doing its best to promote a new coliseum-type of livestock building but these things take time and there is always a possibility it may come up to exhibition time 1963 without any place (except the open range generally used for exhibits, showing and parking) to put its livestock.

This could develop into quite an interesting situation because the exhibition board is hardly likely to put much of an investment in buildings ordered closed by the MOH for sanitation reasons for one fair's use and the MOH can hardly authorize their re-opening, even on a temporary basis, without the necessary sanitary improvements.

"Home on the range?" Or a new home by September 1963 for livestock being shown at Lindsay Central Exhibition?

Reports and Remarks..

VOICE OF FREEDOM

The BBC recently received the following letter from a man who, having lived under both Nazi and Communist, regimes, had been able at last to come from Eastern Europe to the West, and wished, he wrote, "to express in the simplest words my debt of gratitude to the BBC, which is, since tens of years, one of the most encouraging supports for millions of people who suffer under tyranny . . . It is, I think, an elementary duty of every true man who listens to your broadcasts to pay his debt of gratitude towards you.

"It is a story which began many years ago. Your encouraging broadcasts helped me to withstand all the sorrows, pains and difficulties through which, as Jews, 'bourgeois', and democrat I passed, as have my relatives and friends."

As they had lived, he went on, "since 1939 until now under Nazi servitude 'followed almost without discontinuation by the Communist one) and under the constant threat of arrest, torture and concentration camps, thrown from our homes, deprived of our jobs", they had "always turned our attention, our faith and our hopes towards your broadcasts . . . the unique source of hope, the sole moral support. . . .

"I and millions of others, from the intellectuals to the peasants, were, without interruption, the most constant and faithful listeners of your General Overseas Service broadcasts or of the European Service, notwithstanding the fact that under both dictorial rules it was a major offence to listen to your broadcasts, and many citizens have been arrested and severely punished for this sole 'crime'. I must add that no threat has ever prevented any of your fervent listeners to follow with fervour your broadcasts.

"My most important debt of gratitude is that your broadcasts, by the truth they expressed, by the fortitude they inspired, under those many hours of perils, by the faith they showed, entertained our certitude that the democracies will win the war, as well as in the present [illegible] they will win the battle against the Communist camp.

[illegible]s after days, years after years, I have waited to escape from under the Communist rule and on expressing my feelings and my gratitude, to tell you what a magnificent work you have done and continue to do by spreading the truth, by sustaining the hearts of millions of listeners who live under the darkest conditions and many of them without reasonable hope of being able to escape from that hell.

"For these services which your Company renders to the true democracy, and more profoundly and simply to the truth, we are millions who must thank you."

Remember way back when

JANUARY 26, 1913

This afternoon the fourth annual sale of pure bred stock under the auspices of the Victoria Pure Bred Stock Association was held in Maunder's hotel yard. There was a good attendance of farmers, and the stock was quickly bought. There were 24 males and one female offered for sale.

Renovating Council Chamber

Deputy-Reeve Dobson reported recently that the work of renovating the council chamber was proceeding satisfactorily. It had been suggested that new desks be purchased for the aldermen, but he felt that the old ones could be painted and made to look as good as new. The question of putting down a new hardwood floor on top of the present one was discussed and it seemed to be the unanimous opinion of the members that this would greatly improve the appearance of the building.

JANUARY 26, 1938

At a meeting of the Lindsay Ministerial Association held recently, the matter of brewery company advertising appearing in the local telephone book was discussed at some length. Considerable opposition on the part of many has been expressed since the ads of a brewing company appeared in the Lindsay and Peterboro sections of the new directory. The local branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have forwarded a strong protest to the Ontario Government and brought the matter to the attention of the Ontario Temperance Federation at Toronto. In conversation with Rev. J. C. Grier following the meeting, the "Post" was informed that the Lindsay Ministerial Association will confer with Crown Attorney J. E. Anderson, K.C., regarding the legality of the advertising following which they will bring the matter to the attention of the Ontario Temperance Federation.

TURNS GUNS ON DIEFENBAKER

Liberal Leader Lester Pearson Friday turned his guns on Prime Minister Diefenbaker as the Commons debate on Canadian defense and foreign policy moved into its second day. Pearson charged the Prime Minister with a complete lack of national responsibility in refusing to make a firm commitment on nuclear weapons for Canada. He said Diefenbaker"s stand as outlined to last week's Conservative Party meeting is "only an argument for not doing anything."

PART OF MISSION

Canadian representatives will be part of an American-British-Commonwealth Mission which will begin work next week surveying India's Air Defense needs in case of renewed fighting with Communist China. Reports from New Delhi says India has requested that the U-S and Britain throw a defensive aerial umbrella over India if it is threatened by a Communist air attack.

FURTHER STEPS

The Federal Government announced further steps Friday for aid to infants afflicted in the recent thalidomide tragedy. Health Minister Waldo Montieth announced the government will provide a further 200-thousand dollars a year for medical rehabilitation of infants deformed by the drug.

"RECONSIDERED AND REMADE"

One of the Liberal Party's leading French Canadians wants Canada's Constitution "reconsidered and remade" by the 1967 anniversary of Confederation. Lionel Chevrier told the House of Commonc Prime Minister Diefenbaker is not in contact with that element of the people in Quebec who are of a separationist nature. He said it is essential the basis of Confederation be rethought.

VOLUNTARILY ADMITS NEGROES

Tulane University has voluntarily admitted three negroes to the previously all-white school. Officials in New Orleans say there was no jeering or booing, and the registration went smoothly. Tulane announced last month it would admit qualified students of all races.

Haliburton

Mrs. Herron Sr., one of Haliburton's oldest residents is ill in the Red Cross Outpost Hospital.

Mrs. Vic Gauthier is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterboro, where she underwent surgery.

Friends of Mr. J. Rae are sorry he is not responding to treatment.

Mrs. Mae Brannigan is ill at her home suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Harry Brohm visited her husband who is in the Civic Hospital, Peterboro.

Mrs. Vic Gauthier motored to Peterboro where his wife is in the hospital.

Mrs. Harry Bishop of Lindsay was a recent vsiitor at the hom eof her daughter, Mrs. T. Irwin.

Friends of Mrs. Mae Wilson are sorry to hear she is in poor health at present.

CHRISTMAS CHERRY FROM SEED

The berries which drop off your Christmas Cherry plant may be saved, dried, and the seed sown in January or February, say horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. When the first true leaves appear pinch out the seedlings about 1½ to 2 inches apart in flats. Later when the plants are big enough, transplant them into two and one half inch pots. The plants should be kept cool (55 to 60°F.) during the early stages of development.

In late spring, after the danger of frost is over, set the plants at least 6 inches apart in the garden. Supply sufficient water and fertilizer to ensure steady growth. The fertilizer should be low in nitrogen, excessive nitrogen promotes too much foliage and slows down flowering and setting of berries.

After adequate fruit is set dig the plants and bring them indoors before heavy fall frosts. Retain as much soil as possible on the roots. Place in 5 or 5 inch pots in a cool location, out of direct sunlight for several weeks. From here on keep the plants well watered to encourage them to become well established.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I make an easier job of taking up the sleeves of coats worn by "growing boys?"

A. Instead of taking the hem out and moving it up and resewing, try taking a tuck in the lining of the sleeve. This will draw up the sleeve and a good pressing will keep it at correct length. Then you can take the tuck out later when the sleeve must be lengthened.

Q. How can I make my own copper polish?

A. A jar of paste made by blending flour, salt, and vinegar can be kept near your soap and cleanser. Rub this on your copper pans after washing, then rinse. Dry with a soft towel or paper towelling.

YWA plans potluck supper

The Younger Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Anglican Church, met in the Parish Hall recently. Twenty five members were present.

The meeting opened with the singing of hymn "Jesus Shall Reign Wher'er the Sun". The Bible reading was given by Mrs. Don Jardine. A chapter from the study book. "Understanding other philosophies of life" was ably presented by Mrs. Harold Kennedy.

Mrs. Art Wabroth was welcomed as a new member. A letter of thanks from Mrs. Lemon was conveyed to the group for their assistance at the annual "At Home" held in the Rectory. Volunteers were asked to canvas for the March of Dimes. The members are planning a potluck supper to be held in February.

The meeting closed with prayer by president Mrs. Norman Rothwell and refreshments were served by the lunch committee.

17 attend meeting

Little Britain (PNS) — The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Alvin Found with 17 in attendance.

The meeting was opened with a poem entitled "For the New Year" by Edythe Found. A new Day Dawning" was then sung, and Mrs. Bloye led in prayer. The Scripture lesson was then read by Mrs. Downing. A hymn was sung and Mrs. Archer welcomed the visitors and then took charge of the business.

The minutes were read and adopted and also the Treasurer's report. Mrs Archer read a thank you letter from Mrs. Tengesdal, and Mrs. Teel read a letter from a missionary in China. Several other items of business were transacted and the offering was taken and dedicated by Mrs. Teel.

Mrs. Found introduced Mrs. Free of Sunderland, the guest speaker who gave a inspiring talk on Faith and Prayer. Mrs. Norton closed in prayer. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Found and a time of fellowship spent together.

"Welfare" chosen as topic by group leader

The regular meeting of the Daughters of St. Andrew's was held recently.

The meeting opened by repeating the motto and fellowship prayer. A hymn was sung. Ethel Endicott read the Scripture Lesson. Isobel Short led in prayer. The roll call was taken, followed by the minutes of the last meeting.

After the business was completed the meeting was turned over to Group Leader Phyllis Brown who chose as her topic for the evening "Welfare". A discussion among the members proved how very necessary co-operation in this line of work is needed in the community.

The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and repeating the mizpah benediction.

The delicious lunch was served by Helen Lawrence and her group and a social half hour enjoyed by all.

Block heater plug-in request set over

A request from the hospital staff for emergency block heater plug-in facilities for some of the night shift employees, was set aside for further consideration by the Ross Memorial Hospital Board.

Property Chairman G. Hodgson told the members that some of the staff had experienced difficulty during the cold spell with starting their cars parked on the lot, and in some cases tow trucks to be called.

Some of the members thought there might be a hazard created when it was suggested by the staff to use extension wires running from various rooms, until such time outside plugs could be installed.

Senior Girls Win

Thursday, the girl's basketball teams played Adam Scott in Peterboro. The seniors played a fabulous game; they began the game with only two substitutes, and at the end of the game, because of fouls, there were no substitutes at all. In the face of all these difficulties, they came up with a marvellous victory; the score was 19-11. The juniors played a hard game, but failed to pull through.

Student Panel

On Friday, a broadcast over C.K.L.Y. was heard at 7.30, a panel of students from grade XIII answering questions asked by Gloria Barrett. Arms and the Man, the Shaw play being studied this year in grade XIII, was discussed. Students taking part were: M. Cornish, J. Humphries, R. Lonie, B. Tyrer, D. Trowbridge, and R. Stevens. The broadcast was taped and will be heard again over C.K.L.Y at 11.30 a.m. on Monday, the 28th of January.

Commencement

Friday evening, Commencement Exercises held the spotlight. Chairman of the proceedings was Mr. Wm. Shields, and the commentators were Miss Yarde and Mr. H. Hillier. Last year's graduating class and grade twelve classes received their diplomas and Special Awards were presented to the students of various grades who had won them. The choir, under the able direction of Mrs. Sims, L.C.I.'s music director, sang six selections, including "Gaudeamus Igitar", and the L.C.I. school song. The "Objet d'Art", a sculpture chosen by a committee of the graduating class, was presented by Thomas Becke, president of that class. It is at such a ceremony that one realizes the high standard of scholarship which is found in Lindsay Collegiate Institute.

Report 766 registered unemployed

Latest reports from the Unemployment Insurance Commission office here indicate that there are 766 registered unemployed in the district. This figure is down about 75 from last year at this time.

Construction work such as that of the new factory to be built on the industrial site by the M. Sule Construction Co. of Peterboro never materialized. Although this project, to be built on speculation for prospective industry was ot constitute "an 11,000 square-foot factory under cover by the year's end (1962)," it was discontinued with the first snowfall. The only start was the bringing in of a heavy machine which reportedly bogged down.

On the other hand the work on the new post office has proceeded with all outside walls now erected and inside finishing being done with about 30 employed. A temporary heating system and plastic coverings for apertures made the work possible.

About 60 from this district are employed at the Trent Canal project at Fenelon Falls now encased in a covering of polyethelene which makes it possible for work to continue in the severe weather.

Major Lindsay industries at last report show an all year round employment picture as follows: Union Carbide, Visking Divisio, 472; Schultz Die casting, 190; Dominion Brake Shoe Ltd. 85; Lindsay Woollen Mills Ltd., 59; Canadian Arsenals Plant, 110; Canadian Pyjama & Shirt Co. 71; Rosedale Plastics, 96; Turner Seymour, 10; Kent Buffing, 22; Brinton-Peterboro Crapet Co. Ltd. 71; Sylvester Steel, 17.

Added to this there are 262 employees at the Ross Memorial Hospital and 50 teachers and seven to eight janitors at the Lindsay Collegiate Institute, all contributing to the economic picture of the town.

And Lindsay's many fine stores, business offices and small industries are a great asset in providing an undetermined number with steady employment.

Major work on Lindsay's lagoon type sewage disposal system is expected to go full speed ahead with the approach of Spring when the boggy conditions of the lagoon sites dry up enough to allow operation of the excavating machines.

Auxiliary holds euchre

Sunderland (PNS) — The Sunderland Ladies Legion Auxiliary held their January euchre in the Legion Rooms.

Eight tables played, ten games after which lunch was served.

Ladies high prize went to Mrs. John Allin with a score of 80 and the mens high to Mr. Stan Marquis with a score of 66. Second prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Don Murray of Cresswell. Winner of the door prize was Mr. Clarence Miller of Cannington.

Miscellaneous Shower

A very happy evening was spent at the Banquet Hall when friends of Mrs. Ted DeGueere of Beaverton gathered to honour her with a miscelleneous shower of gifts on the occasion of her recent marriage. Mrs. DeGuerre was formerly Miss Lucy Coughlin of Sunderland. Assisting in opening and arranging the many useful gifts were Miss Joan Woodward and Mrs. June Reid. Lunch was served and a social hour spent.

Double winner

Mrs. W. W. Hick fo Lindsay, mother of Ex-Mayor A. E. Hick was a double winner in this week's Lindsay Tennis Club bingo. She won the $100 prize and held a five-dollar bonus card to boot. Now nearing 86, Mrs. Hicks says she always takes part in the game . . . I like to help out in these things, she said, because I feel we should support the young people in their undertakings. The club is currently raising funds to buy its own tennis courts. Vice-president Ches. Richmond makes the presentation of prize money in crisp ten-dollar bills.

WIN GIRLS' RACE

Ontario County has reached 54% of FAME quota - president

Ontario County has purchased 54 per cent of its quota of shares in Farmers Allied Meat Enterprise, Lloyd Wilson of Ashburn, has revealed as president of the county FAME committee.

Mr. Wilson reported this to the directors of Ontario County Federation of Agriculture at their regular meeting held at Half-Way House, Myrtle. He urged the directors to promote the sale of FAME shares to the neighbours on their concessions. "Ontario County can easily meet it's objective if we all work," he said. Option has been taken on land near Oakwood. It will be in this area that a second FAME plant will be built, it is expected.

The directors also heard a talk on A.R.D.A. Grant Wallace, O.F.A. fieldman for this area, outlined the A.R.D.A. programme, telling how it might affect rural economy. The Agricultural Rehabilitation and Development Act is federal and provincial legislation concerned with recognizing and tackling the problems of rural readjustment of lands. The A.R.D.A. Programme might be broken down into three main parts— 1. the alternate uses of land, 2. soil and water conservation, and 3. rural redevelopment.

Mr. Wallace pointed out some affects that urbanization is having on the rural churches.

Les. Meyers, Goodwood, Gordon Corner, Oshawa R. R. No. 1, and Tom Harrison, Beaverton R. R. No. 2, were named a committee to study Rural Redevelopment.

The directors and members met in committees at the beginning of the meeting to appoint chairmen and to study the terms of references for each of the eight committees.

There were 35 present.

lously handicapped persons who are not fully competitive but not completely home bound. These workshops need relative moderate financing to get started and relative small subsidised support to keep going. In a very short time, usually about six months, they become nearly self supporting. Apart from their humanitarian value in giving purpose to the lives of the disabled workers, they are also economically sound because they provide wages for work in place of pensions for public support.

Look back

They recall great games and names in local hockey

Hockey at its best was exemplified in the days when the Peterboro Legion team won the Senior B. championship of Ontario. So say two former enthusiasts Harold Gilson and Albert Ashmore of Lindsay, a pair who seldom missed a game when Lindsay boasted of good teams in junior and intermediate ranks.

Mr. Gilson, who never played a game of hockey in his life, could always be noticed at the Lindsay rink and another steady and loyal fan was Duncan Sinclair, beaver coat and mittens to match who had a favorite standing spot behind the screen at the south end of the rink.

The Legionaires of the "Electric City" won the championship in the last of the home and home games played at Sarnia. Harold Gilson was on the special train which ran through Lindsay and some 20 other fans boarded the special at the Lindsay depot. Three Lindsay and area players formed a part of the Peterboro team and they turned in a great performance. They were "Sixty" Coombs, Al Burns and Ross Nichols, the latter hailing from Bobcaygeon. Nichols tended goal. Burns was the stalwart defenceman and Coombs the whiz-bang forward. The Petes were behind three goals going into the last period in the final game, but they at all times turned on the heat in the final period. When the Petes won the game, bedlam followed as the fans went wild over the big victory.

Hockey Playing Family

The name Coombs brings to mind that three generations of the family have been associated with the game of hockey in Lindsay. Elwood Coombs, now a retired Assistant Postmaster, was dubbed with the nom-de-plume of "Sixty" several years ago. The name stuck throughout his fine career as a hockeyist as he, from season to season took his place on the forward line. His son "Sixty" Coombs followed in his father's footsteps as a forward and, besides playing for several fine Lindsay teams he was also one of the hardest workers and best score goal getters on the Peterboro Senior team which went through to the Senior B. championship. For a number of years past he has been active as a referee in the surrounding district. Along comes three more young players with Jimmy the youngest, a lad of six years, playing a Coombs' style of hockey as one of the All Star Atoms teams'

Incidentally, the late George Coombs was for many years ice custodian and manager of the Lindsay hockey rink when it was located on Lindsay street south.

Revise telephone rate in wing

Changes in telephone charges for Victoria Wing patients were brought in at the reading of the financial report of the Ross Memorial Hospital Board's January meeting.

A straight charge of two dollars a week had been made in the past but had been challenged by former patients whose stay at the hospital had been less than a week.

To elliminate any further complaints, it was decided to set a rate of 30c a day instead of the former weekly rate.

"It is only a matter of ten cents difference on a weekly basis" remarked one of the members, "but I think the overall effect will be better received."

Mrs. V. Sloan hostess for Reaboro WI meet

Reaboro (PNS) — Have you a skeleton rattling in the ancestral closet If so, call Rev. Joseph Gravelle, of Otter Lake, was the advice given in the article, "Parish Priest at Otter Lake, Expert at Tracing Family Trees", read by Mrs. O. Stokes at the January meeting of the Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. Victor Sloan. "Request for Rev. Gravell's services arrive at the rate of six-a day and according to him, after delving into the study of family trees, that "family skeleton" may prove perfectly harmless. He has pursued this hobby, genealogy all his life. His father, during the latter part of the 19th century, founded the historical society in Renfrey and devoted much of his time to the collection and tabulation of genealogical records. This acquisition of data on families, their 'hatching, matching and despatching," has led Father Gravelle to become one of the foremost authorities of the ancestry of families throughout a large section of Ontario and Quebec. More than 500,000 records individual family references, trace some families back to the early 16th century over as many as 15 generations, extending across the Atlantic to the countries of origin of many early settlers. Searching his own family tree, Father Gravelle has already been taken back more than 12 generations and the chain isn't complete" stated Mrs. Stokes.

After this enlightening article on Father Gravelle, Mrs. Stokes read an article, "The Once-Over Harvest" which gave an account of the history of the combine from about 1800's to the early 1900's explaining that little or no progress had been made before the 1800's to speed the harvest. Mrs. Stokes concluded her part of the program with a poem, "Heads Bent Low" after also giving some very interesting current events.

The President, Mrs. Aubrey Hickson opened the meeting with welcoming the members in the New Year after which the Opening Ode was sung and the Mary Stewart Collect and Lord's Prayer repeated. The secretary, Mrs. Ward Holmes read the minutes of the December meeting and gave the treasurer's report. The flower report given by Mrs. Harold Fleming showed there was a balance in that fund of $11.96. The Red Cross report was given by Mrs. Kenneth Thorn. A Thank-you note was read from Mrs. R. Mahood thanking the members for the Christmas basket she had received. Thanks was also expressed by Mrs. V. Sloan for Mrs. J. Hough ton's Christmas basket, Mrs. H. Fleming for Mrs. A. D. Flemming, Mrs. G. McNevin for Mrs. Cockell's and Mrs. Thorn for Mrs. G. Smith's basket. A letter was read from the Department of Agriculture regarding the new 4H Homemaking Club Training School when the topic this time will be 'Dressing up home grown vegetables". Mrs. Victor Sloan was appointed to be the leader of the Girl's Club if enough girls were interested in this topic. Mrs. John Boyce will act as assistant leader. Ways and means of raising money were discussed and it was dacided to hold euchre parties at the different homes once a month. Mrs. Jay Harper offered her home for the first party. It was further decided to purchase new playing cards. Several members offered to supply the prizes and lunch for the first party.

Following the program, Mrs. Hickson thanked Mrs. Sloan for the use of her home for the first meeting of the year.

After singing "The Queen" and the Women's Institute Grace a dainty lunch was served, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Harry Hickson and Mrs. Howard Norton and a social time enjoyed.

Blackstock

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Larmer attended a meeting in Oshawa when some of Five Oaks staff were conducting a evening on "How to Communicate The Gospel" and reported it a very worthwhile. They went in time for a supper meeting. Several others intended going to the evening meeting but due to the severe storm stayed home.

Parent Teacher night was held in Cartwright High School when the parents of Grades nine and ten had the opportunity of interviewing the teachers and school board. The good attendance proves the interest taken by parents. Some of the girls of these grades supervised by Mrs. D. Dorrell served lunch.

Grades 11, 12 and 13 of the High School went by bus to Toronto and saw the play "Arms and The Man" by George Bernard Shaw in the Crest Theatre.

Canon Ashmore conducted the inaugural meeting of the High School Board. Mr. Don Frew replaces Mrs. Carnaghan on the board.

The High School Hockey team played a game with Clarke High School at New castle. Results were 11-4 in favor of Clarke.

A bus load of High School students enjoyed the Tri School skating party at Millbrook. Those from Blackstock who won prizes were: Doug Metcalf door prize; Sheila Tomchilshin and Lloyd Trewin an elimination skate.

Glad to report Mrs. Wilbert Archer, Mr. Melville Griffin and Mr. Edgar Gibson returned from hospitals to their homes. All wish them a speedy convalescence.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Franklin, Oshawa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leith Byers.

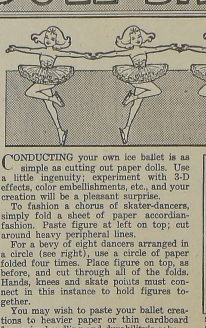
PAPER DOLL BALLET

CONDUCTING your own ice ballet is as simple as cutting out paper dolls. Use a little ingenuity; experiment with 3-D effects, color embellishments, etc., and your creation will be a pleasant surprise.

To fashion a chorus of skater-dancers, simply fold a sheet of paper accordian-fashion. Paste figure at left on top; cut around heavy peripheral lines.

For a bevy of eight dancers arranged in a circle (see right), use a circle of paper folded four times. Place figure on top, as before, and cut through all of the folds. Hands, knees and skate points must connect in this instance to hold figures together.

You may wish to paste your ballet creations to heavier paper or thin cardboard for easier handling and durability's sake.



Silhouette figures, shown above, may be cut from black construction paper.

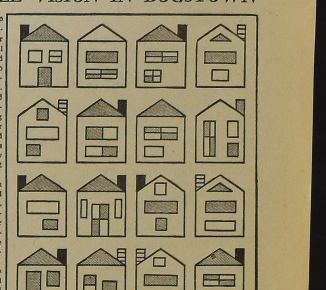
DOUBLE VISION IN BOGSTOWN



TO like you to design 16 celiarless homes for Bogstown — all different," said the developer to his brother-in-law, an architect. "Ah, so," said the brother-in-law, adjusting the patch over his eye and straightening his glasses. "How soon do you want the plans?"

"Let's have 'em pronto," replied the developer. "Our next project's a whopper —3,000 split-levels on the side of an extinct volcano!"

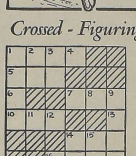
"Wow! Let me at 'em!" cried the architect, "I'll knock these out today."

He did, too, and the developer was pleased... until he discovered a mistake. In his haste to finish the job, the architect designed two houses exactly alike.

Is your eye as sharp as the building contractor's? That is to say, how quickly can you point out the duplicate designs among the houses shown above?

Answer: There are eight duplicates in the top row. Those in the second row are mirror images of the ones in the top row.

Crossed - Figuring to Test Wits



CROSS-NUMBERS are solved by the same method as cross-words, with definitions or clues referring to numbers instead of words. One digit is to be placed in each square of the diagram.

Spoon Madness?

THIS actually happened. A patron of a self-service restaurant purchased a cup of coffee, took it to a table and then set about looking for a spoon. Indeed, when he found the spoon tray, he helped himself to not one, but five, returned to his table, and used all five spoons at once. Although he seemed a bit daft, he was actually a rather clever fellow. To what purpose did he put the five spoons?

Answer: He used them to cool his coffee.

It's Murder After Lunch

A LAWYER and a physician lunched together, usually spending a couple of hours together, nearly every day. The physician always paid the bill. The other day, the doorman of the restaurant they frequented, ran in, calling for a doctor. The physician responded to the call, followed by the lawyer. The physician found a woman, seriously injured, lying face down on the sidewalk. He turned her over, then said in shocked surprise, "Sally!" He added the explanation, "It's my wife!" Whereupon the lawyer took out a gun and shot the doctor. Why?

Think this over for a minute or two before you give your answer.

Answer: The lawyer was a woman disguised by the doctor into thinking he was committing suicide.

Prospect for Diamonds

LET'S go on a diamond hunt. This is a test of observation and patience. The problem is to count all of the diamonds of all sizes to be found in the geometrical figure at left. More than thirty diamonds can be found if you hunt with diligence.

Remember, "gems" of all sizes count if they are diamond-shaped.

No fair peeking at answer below.

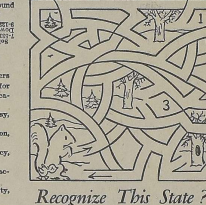
Answer: There are more than thirty-five diamonds in the design.

Reading Asignment

ROBERT'S homework consists of reading pages two through eleven in his history book. Quickly and without counting on your fingers, see if you can state how many pages Robert has to read.

Answer: He has to read ten pages.

FIND WAY TO THE NUTHOUSE?



ON this mid-winter day, black and cold, Sylvester Squirrel is mighty glad he stored up a substantial supply of food. Ah, but life still has its problems. Setting out to visit the tree in which his larder is stored, Sylvester has discovered that all trees in the vicinity look very much alike.

Fortunately, for our squirrel friend, the path he is about to take leads to the nut cache tree —that is, if he does not give up too easily. For prior to reaching this tree, several others are encountered.

How quickly can you trace Sylvester's footsteps, visiting the trees in 1, 2, 3, 4 order, and then find his way back to the starting point? Arrows indicate where to begin and end.

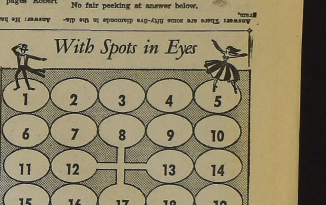
Dancing With Spots in Eyes



THE two dancers and twenty-four numbered spotlight circles at right form an interesting maze problem. Let us assume that the two dancers start from their respective positions at the top of the diagram and travel to the positions diagonally opposite — number 20 and 24, respectively. In the process every circle in the diagram is traversed by one or other of the team, and the other person's path is crossed just once—at the center.

How quickly can you trace the path each takes, naming the circles in numerical order? Remember, all circles are to be traversed just once. Dancers' paths cross at center.

Answer: 1, 6, 11, 16, 17, 12, 7, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 15, 20, 19, 18, 13, 8, 9, 14, 19, 24

Recognize This State?

THE three words distinguished by italics in the last line of the accompanying verse can be rearranged by anagram to spell one long single word which will give the correct answer to the question: "What IS the State?"

While many greet the friends they meet,
I and alone, I press no band,
Though busy feet may throng the street,
I sit alone, sire, feeling grand.

Answer: The word is "Dictatorship."

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

A SUGGESTION FOR EXPECTANT MOTHERS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: What's the matter with young mothers nowadays? Must they take drugs as soon as they feel a bit of discomfort during pregnancy? Aren't you doctors to blame for giving in to them, prescribing 'lollipop' medicine to tranquilize them? You're only helping them to lose their courage, not to give nature a chance to take its course.

Pregnancy is as natural as sex itself. Without drugs (except, of course, where there is organic or other trouble) the uncomfortable first period of pregnancy will pass. And then comes the thrill of that first flutter of life under the heart, all the way through the agony of birth, which most mothers forget almost as soon as it's over.

Dr. Steincrohn, I wish doctors would teach their patients how to relax, not to worry when sleep won't easily, and the right thing to occupy the mind or hands until sleep comes. To face up to pregnancy with common sense so the backbone won't turn into a jelly-bone.

Nursing a baby? Oh no, that's nasty! So what is sex? Both can be a wonderful blending of heaven and earth, which I believe God intended. Mrs. J. (Mother of six, without drugs. Present age 81)

Comment: There you have it from one who has been on the firing line, and can look back with the perspective of one who has reached 81.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I am 27, married, no children. A year ago I had a complete hysterectomy. Since then I have been having flashes, very severe at times. Is ther something I can take to prevent these flashes? My doctor hasn't prescribed any medicine. Mrs. M.

Comment: Some doctors do not believe in prescribing hormones after a hysterectomy; but I think that most do. I have never been able to understand why there should be any question about using such treatment. Why let a woman go along in discomfort for many years when a hormone pill or two a day often help so much? If your doctor still insists he will not use hormones in your case, perhaps consultation with some other recognized gynecologist or obstetrician will influence him to give hormones a try.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: How does one handle a neurotic parent who will never give in because the parent believe he is always right? He won't ever go half-way in any difference of opinion. Miss X.

Comment: The world is full of unhappy neurotics (both parents and children). Sometimes the labels get pasted in the wrong places. A child calls a parent neurotic; a parent calls the child neurotic. It's all a personal point of view. I guess the only way to settle the problem of who is right and who is wrong is to let the family doctor act as judge. If you want a higher court, you will probably have to take it to a psychiatrist.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My husband had an ulcer operation a year ago. Six months ago he began smoking a pipe after having given up smoking for some time. If you were his doctor, would you tell him to quit? Mrs. W.

Comment: That would depend. How much does he smoke? Does he feel worse or better? There are many factors. In general, however, I think the answer would be "no smoking" for most ulcer patients.

Lindsay WI plans to visit County Home

The January meeting of the Lindsay W. I. was held in the Town Hall with Mrs. Neale, vice-president, in the chair in the absence of Mrs. H. Taylor.

After the usual opening exercises, the roll call was responded to by a "Health Hint." It was agreed upon to visit the County Home and to invite the Janetville and Kawartha Valley Institutes to be guests at the next regular meeting. Each of the Lindsay members is to bring three small articles for the Penny Sale.

Mrs. Hennessy, Home Economics and health convenor, gave an interesting paper. She told of the good work the Women's Institutes are doing for the Indians and Eskimo children and taking care of health nursing in Fort Providence. Mrs. Randall, Current Events Convenor, gave a very interesting talk mentioning two prominent Lindsay men who passed away recently Mr. C. W. Lees, also Mr. I. E. Weldon, who left a large sum of money to be used for scholarships.

The members were very sorry to lose a valued and esteemed member in the death of Mrs. Spencer.

The meeting closed and Mrs. Nichols and her helpers served refreshments. Mrs. Heels and Mrs. Pagdett

UNCLE JOE'S TROUBLE

Dad, I don't think you should keep offering Uncle Joe a drink when he comes here.

Why not, Phil? He can refuse if he likes.

I know, but maybe he doesn't want to—and you know what a lot of trouble he got into when he was drinking.

I certainly do—I just offer him a drink to be hospitable. He can have ginger ale if he wants.

He was practically an alcoholic wasn't he? It's no wonder that Aunt Jane left him.

Joe has had a lot of disappointments in his life. That's why he drank.

Maybe his drinking helped cause his disappointments.

That's true. It probably worked both ways. Now, since he's been off it for nearly a year, he does seem to be getting along better in every way. I really admire him for it.

Do you think it will last?

Yes, I think it will—because I noticed when I offered him that drink before dinner, he refused it without a second thought. I think he has his liquor problem licked.

DO YOU KNOW:

—what an alcoholic is?

—what are the danger signs on the road to alcohol addiction?

—what can be done to help a man or woman with an alcohol problem regain control over their lives?

—that you can get this kind of information from a dependable, government sponsored source by writing to:—

22 UCW members present for meet

Mount Horeb (PNS) — The Mount Horeb United Church Women held their first meeting of 1963 at the home of Mrs. Ingram, 22 members being present. The new president, Mrs. McAlpine opened the meeting with the theme song and prayer. Mrs. Wm. Jackson as program leader for January then took over the meeting. Mrs. York read the scripture followed by prayer by Mrs. Jackson. The collection was taken and dedicated and the roll call given. The reports of 1962 were given and great satisfaction expressed by all to learn all objectives had been reached. It was announced the Presbyterial would meet in Fenelon Falls. The ladies were asked to attend if possible.

Mrs. Wm. Jackson read a poem, "The Songs we Sing" and was followed by a reading by Mrs. Howard Jackson "Isn't It The Truth?" Telling all about the trials and frustrations of being a "President" in a society whose members would sooner criticize than help. Mrs. Jackson then conducted a couple of contests which were greatly enjoyed. The auditors attended to the books while the other ladies discussed other items of business.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Maurice Bell and Mrs. Fred Porter and a social hour enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Moore.

Blackstock

Mr. Carl Dorrell has left for Hespeler, where he would join Mr. and Mrs. Everard Sanderson on a trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tennant and family and Mrs. Jas. Ginn Orono, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnston.

Mrs. Geo. Fowler returned home after spending a month with her daughter in Oshawa.

Mrs. Mac Douglad, Midland visited Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Larmer and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Strong joined some Sinclair relatives at the home of Mrs. Phyllis Sinclair, Bowmanville in honour of Beverley Sinclair's third birthday.

Omemee

Many friends of Mrs. Wilson Ellis will regret to learn that she is quite ill and hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Pamela Roberts of the local bank staff has been transferred to Peterboro and Mrs. Ruth Earle has filled the vacancy.

L.O.L. card party resulted in Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dick Lindsay being awarded both first prizes. Consolation to Mrs. T. J. Pogue and Mrs. N. Cornwall.

Coronation L.O.B.A. 1030 initiated a new member at their regular meeting in January.

All Saints' Hockey Team defeated Omemee juveniles here 8-1 recently.

Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. James Brooks with Mrs. D.B. Hicks in the chair. Lunch was served at conclusion to some 20 ladies.

Misses Susan Blair, Wilma Hill, Maxine Free and David Finney and John MacLachlan all L.C.I. honor students attended the O'Keefe Centre etc. with other students recently.

INTO FULL SWING

The indoor track season gets into full swing this weekend. At Boston tonight. Pole vaulter John Uelses returns to competition in the Boston Athletic Association track meet. Last year, Uelses set an indoor world vault record of 16 feet, three-quarters inch, but since then his record has been shattered twice. Don Meyers of the University of Colorado, who leaped 16 feet, one and one-half inches earlier this year, competes tonight in Winnipeg's International Meet of Champions. The new champion vaulter is Pentti Nikula of Finland who leaped 16 feet, two and one-half inches a week ago.

RELUCTANT MOVES INTO NEWS

A reluctant light-heavyweight has moved into boxing news to gain prominence with the prophet from Louisville—Cassius Clay. The reluctant light-heavyweight is the South American champion—Mauro Mina who appears to be backing off from a fight with World Champion, Harold Johnson, although it's virtually set for March 30th at New York's Madison Square Garden. Mina says from his home in Peru that he wants to fight Johnson later in the year. Clay—the heavyweight oracle—has gone back to prognosticating after making good a prediction he would knock out Charley Powell in the third round. Powell's downfall came after two minutes, four seconds of the third round Thursday night at Pittsburgh. Clay's next scheduled opponent is Doug Jones—Probably in New York in March—And he says Jones will be disposed of in six rounds. Looking still farther ahead, Clay says heavyweight champion Sonny Liston can be disposed of in eight.

OTHER BOXING NEWS

In other boxing news, an elimination series to determine a new junior welterweight champion is being set up by the World Boxing Association. The crown was left vacant when Italy's Duillo Loe announced his retirement. Mentioned for the elimination series are Eddie Perkins of Chicago, battling Torres of Mexico, Joe Stable of Cuba and Ben Medina of Fresno, California.

SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE

World record holder Murray Halberg of New Zealand is scheduled to arrive in Toronto Sunday as one of 26 personalities attending a January 30th sports celebrity dinner. Halberg was invited to Canada by the Ontario sports-writers and sportscasters who footed his travel bill and arranged for him to have a holiday in California en route to this country.

Brock students appear on TV

Cannington (PNS) — The students of Brock recently accepted an invitation to appear on "Teen Time", a T.V. program seen each Saturday after the very popular CKVR T.V. Barrie. This show is fashioned after the very popular TV show "American Bandstand" seen over many of the American networks. On a program such as this the students have a chance to dance and listen to the top hit records of the week. On some occasions, personalities who had produced famous records appear on the programme as special guests and the students have a chance to talk with the stars they have made. Each of Brock's 30 students who went came back with the excitement of being on TV and having a chance to meet their favorite TV personalities.

PERSONALS

Many happy returns to Steven Keenan who is celebrating his seventh birthday today (Saturday).

Kinmount man loses home, all its contents in fire

NOTICED . . along the way

Eric Goodsir is quite a travelling man — He has been all over the map behind him and then some.

* * *

Now living in Winnipeg, Eric is a former employee of "The Post" and his sister, Mrs. D. Williamson lives at Valentia. His father is a former manager of Adams' Lindsay store.

* * *

A few months ago, Eric and his friend Dave Craig decided they should take a trip — an extended trip. Coming east to Toronto, they hopped aboard a trans-Atlantic plane and set down in Scotland and that's where their travels really began.

* * *

During their 8½-month junket, part of which was made by plane, part by boat and part by a car they bought during a second visit to Frankfurt, Germany, they covered most of Europe. They visited Ireland, England, Holland, Germany, Denmark, Norway, and Sweden. Luxembourg, Belgium, Switzerland, Austria, Yugoslavia, Greece, Italy, France, Spain, Gibraltar, Morocco and Portugal.

* * *

The highlight of the trip came during a visit to Sweden — They landed in jail but it was mostly on a voluntary basis. They had been warned not to go into Norway or Sweden without having hotel registrations made ahead but they did anyway. Arriving in Fredericksted in the course of seeking accomodation at coastal towns enroute, they found the same situation; none available. A local resident took them to several hotels without avail and finally suggested they hole up at the local police station. The police obliged, gave them a cell, turned the key and then aroused them before the shift changed next morning so they wouldn't get Summary for Tuesday. . .light snow.

Feared owner asleep, passerby almost trapped

A loss estimated at $10,000 was sustained by Thomas Bacon of Kinmount Saturday afternoon when his village home and all contents were completely destroyed by a fire of undetermined origin.

Mr. Bacon had returned home for the weekend from camp at Crystal Lake around 1.30 Saturday afternoon. He had put a fire in the kitchen stove, swept up the house taken a bath, checked the stoves carefully and went down to the Legion hall to play darts. "He is at a completely loss as to what happened", said his mother Mrs. Laura Bacon, who resides at 97 Kent St. W., Lindsay, in giving the above details after visiting Kinmount Sunday. He was a very careful man", she said. A neighbor, Mrs. Roy Horsley, had as was her custom, lighted the front room heater in the morning prior to Mr. Bacon's homecoming, she added.

Continuing she said Mr Bacon had only been in the Legion about half an hour, when at 3.30 Clarence Hartin came running to say the house was on fire.

Mr. Hartin had noticed smoke coming from the home as he passed on way from the rink with his boys. Immediately thinking Mr. Bacon might be asleep and burned to death, he opened the door and could neither find the owner or get back out due to the intensity of the flames and smoke. He smashed the front window finally and made his exit but suffered cuts.

The village fire department under Fire Chief Leon Wright rushed to the scene but the fire was completely out of control. The house was built within the last ten years and the furnishings included many valuable articles including a TV. Mrs. Bacon said she did not know whether the loss was covered by insurance. "But I know Tom lost everything except the clothing he was wearing and is feeling terribly upset". His car, sitting in the driveway was also damaged."

"The strange part is that the fire was not noticed by anyone before getting out of control", she said.

The Bacon home, about three houses south of the fair grounds on the east side was a pretty little bungalow, Mrs. Bacon described saying her son will likely re-build. He is at present living with his uncle Percy Sherman.

Mrs. Bacon came to reside in Lindsay in 1951 following a Kinmount fire which also destroyed her home. Her son remained in the village close to his work.

Eight people hospitalized in Sunderland area crash

Irene Woodward, 10, of R. R. 3, Sunderland, is reported only in fair condition in Ross Memorial Hospital this morning following a two-car crash at the junction of Highways 7 and 12, north of Sunderland. The accident happened Friday eventng and hospitalized eight people. She is suffering head injuries.

Also hospitalized are the little girl's mother and father Mr. and Mrs. James Woodward and two other daughters, all described as in satisfactory condition. Mr. Woodward, 37, is suffering head and chest injuries; his wife, facial lacerations; daughter Lynda, 15, head injuries; Shirley, 11, jaw injuries.

Robert Hobbs, 16, R. R. 3 Sunderland, also a passenger in the Woodward car and suffering facial lacerations and head injuries is listed as in satisfactory condition.

Brechin OPP are still investigating the accident which occurred around 8 p.m.

Occupants of the other car were Edward Pilling, 17, of 173 Adeline St. Peterboro, hospitalized with head injuries and Robert Field, 18, of 779 Donegal St., Peterboro, face and head injuries. Both are in satisfactory condition. Police said both Field and Pilling were travelling home from Camp Borden when the accident occurred.

Quebec arsenals truck takes equipment from Lindsay plant

The first consignment of equipment from the Canadian Arsenals Ltd. Lindsay plant to a Canadian Arsenals Ltd. plant in Quebec left Lindsay today.

According to those who saw the shipment, it included two pieces of equipment — automatic machines in top condition. The Canadian Arsenals Ltd. truck from Quebec came into Lindsay over the weekend loaded the equipment and left.

"That's some of that 'obsolete' equipment they're always talking about", an observer the move remarked.

Four cars banged up in Kent St. accident

Six hundred and fifty dollars was the estimated damage in a four-car accident in the vicinity of the Grand Hotel, Kent St., at 6.00 p.m. Saturday.

Police say Raymond Riel of Tory Hill was proceeding west on Kent St. when the front of his car came in collision with the rear of a vehicle driven by Eric Patterson of 49 George St., Lindsay. The Patterson car, also proceeding west and negotiating a left turn in the vicinity of the hotel, spun around and came in contact with a vehicle parked on the south side of Kent St. The latter in turn slid into a second parked

EDITORIAL . . . .

OFF THE BEAM

Social Credit opposition to the proposed 100 per cent increase in the salaries of members of parliament is off the beam. It would oppose the increase unless there is an increase in family allowances to compensate for the increased cost of living. This basis for objecting is very short-sighted in that it is playing politics to only one segment of the population—those people with young families. Deserving as they may be of a greater allowance, they could hardly be given preference over the rest of the country's people. It might as well be argued that MPs should be denied a pay hike until, or unless, old age pensioners got an increase; veterans' allowances were upped; etc. An even better opposition would be that MPs be denied an increase in pay until people on fixed incomes find some way to adjust their incomes to meet a steadily increasing living cost index. Perhaps still better would be opposition on the grounds that MPs are now making far more than the average employed person and enjoy many privileges the man on the street is denied.

Being a member of parliament is by no means a full time job. Most members have another business with which they are able to keep in touch and manage. But all this is really beside the point. The proposition in itself is ridiculous. How long do you think a business would survive if everyone was to be granted a 100 per cent salary increase? What would happen to any employee who put in for a raise of 100 per cent in pay? He would get the gate if he insisted and maybe that's what should happen to a lot of our MPs. No doubt the majority of them could be replaced by quite capable men at a lot less than $20,0000 per year each.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 28, 1913

Deputy Reeve Dobson has a scheme for improving the fire alarm service of the town and he laid it before the Aldermen the other night. In the north ward there are five alarm boxes, two in the east ward and one in the south ward. There are a number of alarm boxes at the fire hall needing slight repairs and Mr. Dobson as Chairman of Town Property intends putting two in the east ward and three in the south ward making the service more efficient.

Hauls Ice

Mr. L. McGregor, tobacconist, in conversation with a "Post" reporter stated that 23 years ago this winter the Silver Lake Ice Co., of Buffalo, hauled ice per GTR through Lindsay from Haliburton and Penelon Falls. Mr. McGregor was railroading at that time and states that the winter was a mild one. The ice formed before Christmas and the railway did nothing else that winter but haul it from the north.

JANUARY 28, 1936

The annual report of municipal satistics for the year 1936, the latest year for which figures are available, issued by the Ontario Department of Municipal Affairs, has reached "The Post". In 1935 the statistics listed the population Lindsay at 6,949 and according to these figures the population increased to 7,116 in 1936. Lindsay is placed in group "A" with eleven other towns and their population are given in 1936 as follows: Cornwall, 12,681; Pembroke, 10,326; Orillia 8,806; Waterloo, 8,266; Barrie 8,126; Lindsay 7,116; Mimico, 6,876; Eastview 6,852; New Toronto, 6,848; Midland, 6,690; Preston, 6,294 and Port Colborne 6,196.

Reports and Remarks..

THE "WET" YEAR

The year ending March 31, 1962, may go down in history as the "wet "year in Ontario. That was the year that the sluicegates were opened wider, and the province flooded with 193,980,947 gallons of alcoholic beverages. Twenty-four additional liquor stores were opened, and eight older stores were replaced by new ones during the year, Chief Commissioner Allan Grossman of the Liquor Control Board of Ontario reported to the legislature in December.

According to newspaper reports, Mr. Grossman emphasized that the increase in the number of stores in no way indicates any attempt on the Board's part to promote the sale of liquor. Apparently the Commissioner realized that when a chain store organization or a gasoline distributor opens twenty-four new outlets in a year the procedure is described as a policy of expansion and promotion.

Mr. Grossman is quoted as explaining that "New stores are invariably a result of strong requests by municipal officials and citizens' groups." It seems that the Commissioner didn't point out that the Board's and Government's so-called "code" provides for large-scale, clever and persistent advertising designed to create a demand. Then, with the other hand, the Board opens more outlets to satisfy the demand. There is some excuse for the average citizen viewing this procedure as promotion.

The Commissioner's report also indicated that the Board made a profit of $82,500,000, and that in addition the Government collected an extra $3,173,886 from the 3 per cent sales tax introduced in September, 1961.

In another editorial in this issue reference is made to two alcohol-involved motor car crashes in recent months that took the lives of twelve Ontario residents. Perhaps one of the Board's statisticians could calculate the amount of revenue the Government derived from the sale of the alcohol that caused those fatal crashes. It may be that our dictionaries should rewrite the meaning of the term "blood-money".

TIMELY TIPS

Macdonald Institute, Guelph tells us that 1½ cups bread crumbs can substitute for 1 cup of flour in a muffin recipe. Also, we use bread crumbs for thickening gravy or soup.

* * *

Do you ever have trouble slicing a very fresh loaf of bread? Try dipping the knife into boiling water and dry before each slice is cut.

* * *

Why not try rolling scoops of ice cream in cookie crumbs, or crushed cornflakes, and then adding a dash of maple syrup. This is a real party treat.

When a large lamb roast is an economical buy, a small family may have the butcher cut some chops from it for another meal. Or cut the whole roast into steaks for broiling or pan frying, says the Food and Nutrition Department at Macdonald Institute, Guelph.

HOUSEHOLD SCRAPBOOK

By Roberta Lee

Lid Holder-Upper

When you want to leave the lid on a cooking vessel partially open to emit steam, a spring-type clothespin and a nail come in handy. Drive the nail partially into the side of the clothespin, clip the clothespin to the edge of the vessel and the protruding nail will serve as a resting place for the upraised lid.

Household Glue

To make a handy household glue, try the following: To one cup of granulated laundry starch, add enough water to produce a liquid of whipping-cream consistency. Then bring this mixture to a boil, and allow it to cool.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I go about resizing a limp and lifeless rug?

A. You can resize a small rug without too much difficulty. Dissolve four ounces of flake glue COMPLETELY in two quarts of boiling water. Lay the rug, which has been cleaned thoroughly, face down on the floor and tack it at intervals to hold it straight. Brush the glue solution lightly and sparingly over the back, being careful not to let it soak through. The let your rug dry in this position at least 24 hours before relaying it.

Q. How can I break a coconut easily?

A. First drain out the milk through the eyes, then place the coconut in a hot oven (350 degrees) for about 20 minutes after which remove the coconut and allow to cool before breaking it.

Q. How can I give my cat a dry bath?

A. By rubbing some cornmeal into kitty's fur, and then brushing or combing the coat.

LCI valedictorian says most people have an aim in life but many are too lazy to pull the trigger

Most people have an aim in life but many are too lazy to pull the trigger. In making this observation at the LCI graduation exercises here Friday night, valedictorian Carl Moore challenged graduates to aim carefully then pull the trigger hard, with determination.

Elected valedictorian by last year's class, he proved to be a very worthy representative. He said that perhaps the late date of the commencement exercises was a good thing. "Science tells us", he said, "that we tend to forget the bad things in our past; I certainly hope the teachers remember only the good achievements of my five years at L.C.I. I can hardly believe that my high-school days are already in the past . . . A child entered grade nine five years ago, and on this evening an adult says good-bye to his Alma Mater.

Carl mentioned that it was the last chance for the class as a group to say farewell to L.C.I. He thanked the teaching staff for their untiring efforts in putting the students through their examinations until each one holds a diploma the only tangible evidences that they have traversed that road. Appreciation was expressed,especially to Mrs. Edwards, who came out of retirement to make that mathematics course a little easier for yet another class. Looking back, Carl remembered Mr. Martin's Latin classes, when the workmen's hammers vied for its attention, and all too frequently won.

L.C.I. the valedictorian said, was fortunate in having two great pilots at the helm during the past five years: Mr. Eberlee, who was principal during the first three years, was a man of great knowledge in the organization of a high school; Mr. Breese, who took over the reins of office, was very understanding and never too busy to discuss any student's personal problems. A new, exclusive club was formed last year, he recalled–Mr. Staples' Breakfast Club. This was an early morning gathering of errant students presided over by Mr. Staples. These memories were all part of high school life, but, said Carl, "we must realize that high school is only the very beginning of our educational carrers."

The exercises began with a processional march of the staff and graduates of the class of '62. Rev. O. G. Locke offered a prayer for the success and well being of the graduates.

William Shields, who was chairman of the high school Board of 1961-62, chaired the proceedings. In his introductory speech, he extended a warm welcome to all. He mentioned that the board was very pleased with the progress being made in the new addition. This, scheduled for completion by March 31st, will make L.C.I. the largest district school in Ontario. Mr. Shield said there will be technical training for all those with mechanical aptitudes; Commercial facilities will be second to none, and its graduates will be thoroughly familiar with every operation of a modern office. "Of course", said Mr. Shields, "the academic climate of L.C.I. has never been healthier; 1962's graduates passed more departmental examinations than has any class for the past 15 years. Thanks was voted to all the "people behind the scenes" — the custodians, the cafeteria staff, office staff and secretaries. Mr. Shields also told the audience that the board was very proud of the high standards at L.C.I., and concluded with a wish for success in whatever vocation the graduates should choose.

Principal W. S. Breese, welcomed the audience, saying that he was surprised to see so many at the ceremony despite the cold weather. Normally, he explained, commencement takes place in November, but, because of the construction, had to be postponed. The stage, now situated at the west end of the gymnasium, greatly improves the visual capacity and acoustics of the auditorium. Mr. Breese invited everyone to have a cup of coffee and some refreshments in the old cafeteria after the ceremonies.

The choir led the graduating classes in a rousing rendition of the school song, and after the presentation of special awards for public speaking, verse speaking, and Tatler contributions, the choir sang a salute to the graduating classes, "Gaudeamus Igitur".

Mr. Breese added that the I. E Weldon bequest will make L.C.I. the most richly endowed secondary school in, probably the whole country. He hopes though, this would not discourage the local donors of scholarships, or spoil the kind of evening which we spent on Friday.

Those not present for the presentation of awards included: William Szego, Nancy Carty, Hon. L. M. Frost, Wendell Laidley, Dr. D.C. Pitt, William Morrissey, Bruce Glass, Mr. H. A. Watson, Marilyn Dent and J. Thomas.

The choir, under the able direction of Mrs. Sims, provided some very enjoyable songs during the program.

Tom Becke, who was elected president of the graduating class, presented a sculpture named "Miss Penelope" to the schools. This was chosen by a committee of students with the advice of Mr. Ridpath, architecture addition. Mr. [illegible] tion of the gift and "hinted" that there was much more wall space in the school, and plenty of room for future gifts of art from future graduating classes.

Sculpture not all for the eyes, sculptress tells Art Guild

"Sculpture is not all for the eyes; it is for the touch," said Dore daPedery Hunt, distinguished Canadian sculptor, speaking to the Lindsay Art Guild at their first meeting of 1963.

Mrs. Hunt described the life of a sculptor, the hard physical work handling massive materials, the endless schooling and courses of study, and the negative learning of how not to do it, the never-finished search to express truth. It demands 100% of the person, who must be obsessed with the subject. There has to be a proper studio, and isolation, for a sculptor "who is always throwing around stone chips" should work alone.

The audience felt the intimacy of this lecture, which the speaker stated was to amuse, and not to teach. Her description of her class of 28, working in clay from a model, was hilarious. There was a student of 91 who carried his own clay and never used cars; the mother of 8 trying to get away from it all: the woman whose doctor thought the course would be good for her and the other whose doctor warned that it would not. As their teacher she must lead them all to see for themselves what is true art.

In introducing the guest speaker, President Nellie King told of her achievements. She was born in Budapest, Hungary, where she received her Master's Degree. She produces a wide variety of work including large architectural sculptures; the designing of ecclesiastical textiles; the making of coins and medals. Yet when working in clay herself she concentrates on small portrait heads, particularly of children. Examples of these were passed from person to person during a lively question period.

A further attraction was an exhibition of water colour paintings by the late William St. Thomas Smith, A.R.C.A. He was prominent in the organization of art circles early in the century, and is renowned for his marine subjects. These fine paintings were enjoyed through the courtesy of Mr. Don McGillivray of the Colonial Store.

At the close of the meeting, coffee and refreshments were served by the social committee.

Many minor traffic mishaps in district over weekend

Weekend traffic accidents with some damages but no injuries were reported by local and district OPP detachments.

Constable Tom Fitzpatrick of Lindsay OPP investigated the following four minor accidents.

Friday night at 9.00 an accident took place at Chandler's Service Station, Highway 7. Cars involved were owned by Charles Sydney R.R. 2, Oakwood and Macklin McKinnon, Oakwood. The Sydney vehicle was parked.

Saturday morning at 12.30 cars owned by Joseph Briggs, 46 Crescent Road, Orillia and David McHattie, of Beaverton, were involved in an accident at Lorneville.

Saturday morning at 4.00 a car driven by John Douglas Leishman, R.R. 6, Lindsay, was involved in a one-car accident on Highway 35.

Saturday night at 11.40 an accident on County Road 19 east of Cambray occurred. Details were not available.

An estimated $750 property damage resulted from a two-car collision Saturday night about a mile north of Minden on Highway 35.

According to the report of the incident, Mrs. D. Eastman was backing from her driveway onto the highway at the same time as L. Nesbitt of Carnarvon came along. There were no injuries. OPP Constable Johnny Parsonage investigated.

Hutton town's representative on Ottawa arsenal mission

Welfare Chairman Joseph A. Hutton has been appointed as Lindsay's council representative to accompany the arsenal union delegation which will meet with government heads in Ottawa, Wednesday.

Mayor Joseph Holtom says he appointed Mr. Hutton in answer to a request from members of the delegation that a member of Lindsay council accompany them. Mr. Hutton concurred with the suggestion in that he was free from other duties that day.

The delegation will attempt to arouse the government's concern for the future welfare of 130 arsenal employees to be thrown out of work on the plan's closure here March 31.

A meeting has reportedly been arranged between the Lindsay delegation and Labor Minister Michael Starr and Minister of Defence Production Raymond O'Hurley by United Steel Workers of America President William Powell of Peterboro.

The delegation will include six Canadian Arsenals Ltd employees who are members of the USW, A union representative from Toronto as well as Councillor Hutton and President Malcolm Stevens of the Lindsay and District Labor Council.

In an effort to explore the facts re the arsenal in order to try to provide some solution to the distressing situation which is bound to result, Mayor Holtom has called a meeting of the Industrial Commission with the production and administrative representatives of the arsenal. This meeting will take place in the town hall, Wednesday night.

Many students entering Legion speaking contest

Scores of grades six, seven and eight students from elementary schools in Lindsay and district, plus many from grades nine and 13 of the LCI, are expected to take part in a public speaking contest here Thursday.

Sponsored by the Sir Sam Hughes Branch, Royal Canadian Legion, prizes valued at $200 will be distributed among the winners. The contest is under the chairmanship of Grant MacArthur, Lindsay Senior Public School teacher.

The contest opens at 1.30 p.m. and will occupy both the Legion auditorium and upsairs conference room.

Report December occupancy 97% of capacity

The Ross Memorial Hospital Board learned occupancy for December was rated at 97% of capacity except in the maternity wing which ran at 42 percent.

Property Chairman George Hodgson told the inaugural meeting of Lindsay council that it was apparent a new addition would soon be required to take care of patient accommodation which reports show now almost at capacity. "And citizens will come through as before with work and effort to make this possible I am sure," he said.

There were 370 admissions to the hospital in December including 49 newborn. The average daily occupancy was 127; major operations numbered 58; minor, 307; laboratory test 6,658. Physiotherapy treatments, numbering 459 were described by Dr. H. R. Davies as doing an excellent job. Total treatments for 1962 numbered 5,949. he said.

One hundred and forty-eight employees were required for direct patient care; other employees numbered 93 and members of the CNA School were 20 during December.

Quirk

Montreal, Jan. 28, UPI — It took an interview with the Lord Mayor of Cologne, Germany for Hans Pohl to finally get his 350 dollar reparations check for the destruction of his apartment during a second World War air raid.

Pohl, now living in Montreal cashed his check, went out to shovel snow, sat down to watch T-V and then had to run for his life once more as his house and money went up in flames.

RMH operation cost $94,135 in December

December operation of the Ross Memorial Hospital cost $94,135, which included salaries and wages $63,915 and supplies and services $30,220. A net deficit of $1,757 was recorded.

Revenue totalled $97,630, and included charges to patients and Ontario Hospital Services Commission of $94,170, cafeteria revenue of $2,725 and other revenue, $735. Net deficit was $1,757 after consideration of depreciation on buildings of $3,311.

LCI Key Club members see track stars

A contingent of enthusiastic students from the Lindsay Collegiate Institute attended the international track meet at Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto on Friday night. The collegians are members of the Kiwanis Key Club and Past President Bill White and President Herb Hardy of the Kiwanis Club went along with the bus load.

The event, which to the Lindsay students was sparked by the appearance and performance of Bruce Kidd the Toronto fleet-footed speed king, attracted many of the stellar track and field runners from various parts of United States and Canada.

Mount Horeb

The community were shocked to learn one of their neighbours (Mrs. Gilbert Jones) was rushed by ambulance to Ross Memorial Hospital following a heart attack she took at home. The hospital reports Mrs. Jones is well as can be expected and it is hoped she will soon be out of the oxygen tent and will be able to be home soon.

Mrs. Norman Lywood has left by plane for her parents home in England. She received word her mother had passed on to her higher reward and Gwen left at once. Her friends and neighbours extend their deepest sympathy not only to Gwen but her family in their great loss.

Another one of the community young folk has gone to the city and procured a position in the Federal Life Insurance Company. Miss Mary McAlpine joined the Insurance Company and her friends wish her the best of luck in her chosen profession.

The friends of Mr. Norman Deyell, of Lindsay, are sorry to learn he is a patient in hospital in Peterborough. All wish him a speedy return home in good health again.

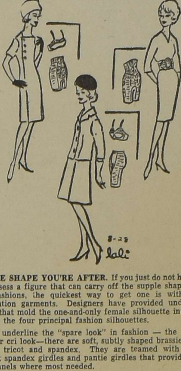
Corporal Ross Bailey of the Lindsay Police Department investigated. Total estimated damages were $650. There were no injuries.

Charges are being laid. Police Chief John Hunter said.

A LOVELIER YOU

By MARY SUE MILLER



THE SHAPE YOU'RE AFTER. If you just do not happen to possess a figure that can carry off the supple shaping of fall fashions, the quickest way to get one is with new foundation garments. Designers have provided undergirdings that mold the one-and-only female silhouette into any one of the four principal fashion silhouettes.

To underline the "spare look" in fashion — the pared, dernier cri look—there are soft, subtly shaped brassieres of Nylon tricot and spandex. They are teamed with lightweight spandex girdles and pantie girdles that provide control panels where most needed.

For lean, casual silhouettes and natural, shifty shapings, too, undergarming takes the form of longleg pantie girdles, banded through the thigh; of formfitting bras that lift but never exaggerate. Lithe, high waist girdles solve the problem of fitting the feminine middle into doll-waist, little-middle fashions. All are made in combinations of elastic and rigid materials.

Obviously, if you plan to wear more than one of those silhouettes, you may need a variety of foundations. In any case, do vary the colors of your foundations. Color is the spice of all lingerie fashions and often it is worked out in co-ordinates—a slip, bra, and girdle in sprckling champagne, for example, misted with a delicate beige paisley print.

Of course champagne may not be your "drink" of color. You may prefer creme or frosty mint. But breathes there a lovely who would not feel more feminine and better-dressed for wearing delicious, blending shades of lingerie?

RUSHING PLNS

Britain is reported rushing plans to reinforce its far eastern defenses against possible moves by Red China or Indonesia. The Defense Ministry disclosed a force of two-thousand men is on 72-hour alert for movement to the far east. In Singapore, a military spokesman has denied reports British paratroops dropped into Borneo to counter so-called Indonesian "volunteers" said to be infiltrating British positions.

MOVES INTO LABRADOR

Sunday's blizzard, which dumped up to 15 inches of snow on parts of Quebec and the Maritimes, moved into Labrador today, leaving a trail of blocked roads, stranded motorists and disgusted commuters. Yesterday's storm, the result of a U-S weather disturbance over the Atlantic coast, left almost seven inches of snow in the Montreal area, a foot in Quebec City and Quebec's eastern townships—up to 15 inches in Northern New Brunswick.

FOUND SAFE

Eight persons, including three children, have been found safe after being missing for tow weeks in sub-zero temperatures in Northern Quebec. The eight were on a routine 140-mile flight when the light plane disappeared. The pilot and a 16-year-old Eskimo boy walked 60 miles from the plane to the nearest town to lead rescuers back to the remaining six. They include three Eskimo women and a Department of Northern Affairs official.

PRIVATELY AGREE

Observers in Ottawa say the Liberals and New Democrats have privately agreed to stall the new McCutcheon-Nowlan Budget, precipitating a spring election. Even Prime Minister Diefenbaker has publicly stated a spring election may now be inevitable. Diefenbaker told a Conservative student's meeting in Ottawa over the weekend that an opposition blockade of departmental estimates is preventing his government from bringing down the long-awaited budget. He has till March 31st.

TRAVELS TO MONTREAL

Trade Minister George Hees visits Montreal today to sign up two companies for his department's trade samples show in April. Hees will also stop in briefly at the McGill University Student's Federation and the Montreal Press Club. The samples show, scheduled for April 2nd to 4th, in Ottawa, will given Canadian manufacturers a chance to display their wares to about 600 foreign buyers.

FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES

The Executive Director of the Saskatchewan Medical Care Insurance Commission—Doctor J. G. Clarkson —says doctors shouldn't be in financial difficulties because of the medicare plan. Clarkson noted that the commission has advanced 700-thousand dollars to approved medical agencies, an amount he says is still outstanding. Clarkson was answering charges by doctors in Prince Albert medical clinics, that payments of their bills are so far behind they face economic difficulties.

Kinsmen let $2,340 contract in 'third floor' project

The third floor of the Lindsay Arena will never be the same again . . . It's being completely renovated.

The Lindsay Kinsmen Club has undertaken to give the third floor a complete face-lifting, plus some additional features to improve its usefulness. Walls and floors are to be done over, a kitchen installed and so forth.

Kinsmen President Jim Pilkington announced that work has already commenced on a $2,340 contract awarded to Finney Lumber Ltd. The work is expected to take about three weeks.

Mrs. W. C. Kimble

Mrs. W. C. Kimble, the former Myrtle May Bick, passed away on December 14, 1962, at the age of 76.

The late Mrs. Kimble was the daughter of the late George Bick and Martha Stinson and had enjoyed a happy married life for 47 years. She was a great lover of flowers and her cheery disposition endeared her to all who knew her. She was an active and faithful member of St. John's United Church, holding many important offices in the women's association and was treasurer of the Board of Stewards.

The deceased was the beloved wife of Walter Clayton Kimble, who survives her and she is also survived by one daughter Ila (Mrs. Ross Kennedy), of Peterboro; one son Claude, of Peterboro; five grandchildren, Jo-Anne, Donna and Brenda Kennedy and Sherry and Cindy Kimble; two sisters, Sarah (Mrs. Anderson) of Bowmanville and Thursa (Mrs. Williamson) of Peterboro and one brother, Samuel, of Bobcaygeon. One son Cavell and two brothers Herbert and Rev. Roland of Bobcaygeon predeceased her.

Rev. J. K. Braham and Rev. J. F. Lane officiated at the service in the Trinity United Church on December 17th. Interment in Verulam Cemetery, Bobcaygeon.

The pallbearers were Ted Peters, Geo. White, Fred White, Clare Falls, Ken Kilaby and Harold Kerr.

May her soul find peace in the presence of her Lord and Master, whom she loved and served faithfully.

Minister and wife, host and hostess for WA meeting

Cameron (PNS) The regular monthly meeting of St George's Anglican W.A. met at the rectory in Fenelon Falls with Rev. and Mrs. Harrison as host and hostess.

The president, Mrs. George McNabb, opened the meeting with prayers for the newly formed Girls Auxiliary, in Fenelon Falls in which three girls from Cameron are members, namely Elizabeth Francis, Donna Naylor and Cathy Van Allen, Mrs. Royce Naylor read the scripture lesson. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Alvin Copins also several items of correspondence was read. Three members are receiving the Living Message this year. The nomination list for the annual meeting in Toronto was discussed. The treasurers report was given with $219.19 on hand to start the new year. A motion by Mrs. Elmer Beggs and Mrs. Roy Banbury, that Mrs. Royce Naylor buy roses for the W.A. Bale. Plans were made for the Skneider supper and the executive to make the supper list for each member. The friendship wheels given to each member at the beginning of 1962 were opened, which netted $12.62.

Readings were given by Mrs. Elmer Beggs "The Purple Hat" Mrs. Jack McNabb "The Faithful Few" and Mrs. George McNabb "The Beautiful Recipe". The meeting adjourned and the hostess served a dainty lunch.

King of Jackpots

Chester Kellett of Haliburton hit the king of jackpots in his home town last week when his bingo playing tapped one of long standing. It had built up to $975.

STOP! . . . killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

ONE SCARE IS WORTH A THOUSAND SLOGANS

Fear probably saves more lives than any organized propaganda ever devised.

Mr. Smith, for example, reads the many warnings against careless driving: "Drive Slow", "The life you save may be your own," and shrugs them off. Silly sayings, he muses. They are meant for somebody else, not for him.

He continues to drive with a heavy foot on the accelerator. One day he goes into a fearsome skid, with his wife and little children in the car. Miraculously, they all come out of it unhurt.

Although he makes the conscious resolution that he will drive slowly from now on, there is a noticeable difference in his driving. Fear — intermixed with thankfulness for survival — has transformed Mr. Smith into a careful driver.

Consider Mr. Jones. For years he and his partner have been inseparable. They have a thriving business and their families are closely tied together in friendship. For months his wife has been telling him he ought to go in for a physical checkup because he has been working so hard. But he laughs it off as a silly waste of time and money.

One day his partner is laid low by a coronary attack. Suddenly Mr. Jones decides that he had better make the trip to the doctor's office. "One of us has to stay well to carry on," he says. Fear was the prime motivation.

I suppose we should continue to write health slogans. No doubt they help make us aware of the need to take better care of ourselves. But one big personal scare will do more to keep us healthy than reading a hundred slogans that warn us against heart disease, cancer and accidents.

SOMETIMES TRACTION CAN BE HARMFUL

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I believe in conservative treatment. I don't like to rush into operation like so many people I know. For example, lately I have been having severe pains in my lower back going right down one leg. My friends tell me it must be a disk and to have it operated. I tell them I'd rather lie in bed a few weeks and have traction. Don't you agree Mr. K.

Comment: I agree in conservation, but I add a big IF. For example, you can't be conservative about acute appendicitis. Life or death often depends upon early operation. Conservatism here might often kill.

On the other hand, if the patient has a gall bladder colic, conservative treatment for a few days, weeks or months may not be life-endangering. Each condition deserves a special evaluation.

For Instance, consider your back problem. I agree there are many patients who would be better off with conservative treatment in a disk case. Local injections, massage, special exercises, ultrasonic treatments can aggravate a back condition which can be cured only by surgery.

Before you consider traction, be sure that you don't have a ruptured disc. If you have, traction will only increase the pain and probably lead to complications. If your orthopedist suspects the possibility of ruptured disc he will perform "myelography" to give him a good picture what is going on. Better forget about conservative treatment of operation is definitely indicated.

Mrs. Donald Murray hostess to WA, WMS, joint meeting

Cresswell (PNS) — The meeting of Cresswell W. A. and W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Murray with nine members present. The president, Mrs. R. Wood, was in the chair and opened the meeting with a few timely thoughts on the New Year. All members repeated verses one and three of a Psalm in unison. This was followed by a hymn. The scripture was given by Mrs. Boultwood. Mrs. Wood then gave thoughts from Isaiah. Each member gave a resolution for the New Year. The prayer from "Glad Tidings" for January was repeated in unison by all members. W. M. S. collection was received followed by two verses of a hymn. The Mission Study consisted of an overall picture of the W. M. S. estimates for 1963 as listed in Glad Tidings. Items from ministers of different denominations as to the New English Bible as compared with the St. James version were read by Mrs. Brown, Mrs. McPhaden and Mrs. Davey

Business followed with the reading of the minutes of the December meetings. These were approved and membership for the New Year received from 13 members. W. A. offerings were received, and reports for the year 1962 were given by both treasurers, Mrs. B. Currie and Mrs. D. Murray, which were very satisfying to all members present. Mrs. McPhaden gave verbal thanks for remembrances during her recent illness. Correspondence was read by the Secretary, Mrs. Brown, consisting of cards of thanks from several friends, and a letter from the Rev. Gamble family in B.C. The cash allocation was set to be paid by the end of May. The bale of new and used clothing is to be sent to the Indian Residential School in Kenora in October. Mrs. Wood asked for volunteers for leadership of Mission Band, but this is still in abeyance.

It was suggested that a plant be sent to Mrs. Mary MacDonald in Starr Haven Rest Home in Little Britain, and that a gift be taken to Mrs. John Sornberger in Ross Memorial Hospital.

A contest "Personalities" was led by Mrs. Wood, after which she closed the meeting with a benediction. Mrs. Brown was asked to audit the books for 1962 of the W. A. Treasurer.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. P. Brown, with Mrs. M. McPhaden in charge of the worship period.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Murray assisted by her daughters, Bertha and Isabel.

WA, WMS joint meeting

The January meeting of the W.M.S. and W.A. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian , church South Eldon was held at the home of Mrs. D. G. McEachern.

The W.M.S. President Mrs. D. H. McEachern presided and opened the meeting by reading a poem "Another Year is Drawing" followed by singing of a hymn. The president spoke of the past year and gave encouragement to all. Mrs. Rooney had charge of the program and introduced the Study Book, "On Asia's Rim", in a very interesting and informative manner, by first telling about the different places to be studied, namely, Korea, Hong Kong, Okinawa, and Formosa or Taiwan and showing their location on the map. A questionnaire was then used with Mrs. Rooney asking questions and the answers supplied by Mrs. Clarence Wallace speaking for Okinawa, Mrs. Elroy Jewell for Hong Kong, Mrs. Donald McEachern for Korea and Mrs. Douglas McEachern for Formosa. The Scripture Reading was read together, followed by the Meditation by the President Mrs. D. G. McEachern offered prayer.

A business period followed. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The treasurer gave the annual report. Roll was called and answered with the "paying of fees". Offering was received and dedicated by singing the doxology. The meeting closed by singing a hymn.

W.A.

Mrs. Donald McEachern president of the W.A. presided for a meeting of that organization and opened the meeting with, thought for The New Year by reading a poem "Time for Thinking" followed by prayer one verse of a hymn was sung. Roll call was answered by the "paying of fees". Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and correspondence read, several ladies expressed thanks for gifts received at Christmas. The annual treasurer's report was given by Mrs. D. G. McEachern. The offering was received and dedicated by repeating "We give Thee But Thine Own." The meeting closed with "A Prayer for the New Year" by the President.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and a social time spent. Thanks was tendered Mrs. McEachern for her hospitality.

Lions Club meets

Cannington (PNS) — An interesting meeting of the Lions Club was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall in the form of rededication of Lionism and observing the 15 years of Lions activities in Cannington. It was in January 1948 that the local Club was first organized and since that time has done much in community enterprises and charitable work.

The guest speaker of the evening was Lion Howard Hoffman, Lions International Counsellor of Orillia, one of the organizers of the local Club. Mr. Hoffman spoke on 'A, B, C's of Lionism'. His address was timely and well received by the members. Lion Clair Hardy, past Zone Chairman, introduced the speaker, a vote of thanks and a gift was given by Lion Angus Jewell. During the evening Lion Hoffman presented 15-year Charter Chevrons to Gavin Brandon, Scott Brandon, Clair Hardy, Angus Jewell, Dr. Mack Johnson, A. O. Mix, Frank Moore, Ernie Roberts, Brock Sproule and Clausen White. 15 year Monarch Chevrons to Lions Wilf. Edwards, Frank Farewell, Fred Graper, Elwood Huyck, Laurence Jewell, Oscar Josephson, Max McIntyre, Francis McNabb and Jack Pipher.

Club President Claire Morgan presided at the meeting.

Scugog Special — What is it?

There is an atmosphere of mystery pervading the Peel Street rink lately. Even President Lou Walker is somewhat stoic in his attitude. What is the Scugog Special? It certainly is not a chilli con carney, an Irish stew or a pink lady concoction. Curlers are asked to watch for this special.

Mercury dips to 6 below

The weather forecasters missed the boat when they predicted that Sunday night's temperature wouldn't go below the zero line in this region. Official local reading was six below with Minden reporting 15 below and Omemee minus 10.

Cobourg Legion entry wins Woodville District Bonspiel

Some 32 Legionaires participated in the District Bonspiel held at the Woodville Curling Rink on Saturday, with the Cobourg entry finishing in first place.

Activities started with the first-rinks going on the ice at 9.00 a.m. Keen competition was shown throughout the whole day with some fine curling being displayed. Rinks participating in this great event were Cobourg, Trenton, Norwood, Whitby, Uxbridge, Peterborough, Woodville and Lindsay.

Gord Tully's Lindsay team, consisting of himself as Skip, Bill Cosh Vice, Clarke Endicott second and Charlie Torrance lead, were unsuccessful in their bid to go on and represent Branch 67 at the Provincial Bonspiel being held at North Bay Feb. 21, 22, 23 and 24.

The Cobourg team consisting of the following players-Skip Fred Brown, Vice George Mitchell, Second Bob Hills and Lead Bob Byam took the trophy away from Woodville who were last year's winners.

Runners-up were a team from Trenton made up of the following: Skip Mel Sjoctrom, Vice Charlie Horne, Second Jack Curtis and Lead Cam Valley.

The day's activities closed with a Banquet in the Legion Hall. Seventy Legionaires and guests sat down to a well prepared turkey supper ably handled by the Ladies Auxiliary of Woodville. President Harold Balfrey of the branch acted as Chairman for the occasion and extended a hearty welcome-to all present. Zone Commander Ian Scott of Branch 67 in Lindsay said the grace after which the Chairman proposed a toast to "The Queen".

After all had thoroughly enjoyed the delightful meal, the chairman called on District Commander Al Burgess who made a few brief remarks and expressed his pleasure at being able to be present and enjoy such a day of fellowship together with the Legionaires in this area. He also mentioneded the fact that Bill Bates from Bowmanville who is the District Sports Officer has decided to call it a day after seven years in this capacity and asked the gathering to give him a standing ovation for his efforts. This was carried out in a big way and Bill replied in his usual manner and thanked the boys for the wonderful co-operation he had received from them. He also thanked the boys for displaying such wonderful sportsmanship throughout the day and commended Woodville branch for the splendid way they handled the Bonspiel.

Zone Commander Scott thanked the boys for the part they are taking in the zone to create a greater fellowship among the branches in this district. He expressed his thanks to Woodville for being such great hosts in another great event in Legion sports. Lorne McPherson from Woodville thanked the ladies for a very delightful meal and the boys responded with a standing ovation showing how much they had appreciated the meal after such a strenuous day of curling. Mrs. Mike Brown, President of the Ladies Auxiliary, assured those present that it had been a pleasure and congratulated the Cobourg Rink for winning the bonspiel. Reeve Campbell of Woodville told the gathering that as far as he was concerned there wasn't a better group of men to the Royal Canadian Legion to welcome into the village of Woodville than those who belong to the Royal Canadian Legion. He mentioned, as he called them "two old boys" who had given so much of their time in the interests of the Woodville branch–Comrades Bill Brewer who is 95-years old and still going strong and Bill Baker who is 75 years old. These men were given a standing ovation by the gathering.

District Sports Officer Bill Bates presented the prizes for the day. He congratulated Cobourg for winning the bonspiel and they received the trophy won by Woodville last year and were also presented with Silver Serving Trays as individual prizes. Trenton team being runners-up, received Silver plates and they congratulated the winning team on their great effort. All players who took part in the bonspiel received Legion Ash Trays compliments of the Woodville branch.

Woodville Branch was commended as wonderful hosts.

Art Williamson's Omemee rink wins annual Warsaw bonspiel

Art Williamson's rink from Omemee took three games on Saturday to win the annual bonspiel at Warsaw.

After defeating Warsaw 12-2, Hastings 9-7 and Norwood 8-7, they were tied at 34 points with Carman Payne's Lakefield entry.

The tie breaker, with each man throwing one rock for two ends, gave Williamson the nod over Payne by 2 to 1.

The Omemee rink was made up of Claire Parks, lead; Dinny McQuade, second; Roy Elliott, vice; Art Williamson, skip.

There were 20 rinks in the bonspiel and they came from Warsaw, Norwood, Hastings, Peterboro, Lakefield and Omemee.

Jack Smith's rink from Omemee won two games and lost one. Morgan McConnell, lead; Charlie Bent, second; Dick Haviland, vice and Jack Smith, skip.

Sports Parade

ELECTED TO HALL OF FAME

Four "Oldtimers" were elected to the baseball Hall of Fame yesterday. The vote was unanimous in each case . . . and in one, comes postumously. The special veterans committee of the Hall of Fame chose outfielder Same Rice and Elmer Flick and pitchers John Clarkson and Eppa Rixey. Clarkson–who pitched for Chicago of the National League, Boston and Cleveland–died in 1909 at the age of 47. Rice had been on the verge of selection for the past few years. He played 19 seasons in the American League and compiled a .322 lifetime batting average. The 71-year-old Rixey pitched 21 years in the National League–with the Philadelphia Phillies and Cincinnati Reds– and won 266 games. Flick compiled a career batting average of .315–he had a .378 one year–in stints with the Phillies and Cleveland. He is 87 years old now.

BIRTHDAY CHECK

Golfer Jackie Burke–who will be 40-years-old tomorrow–picked up a nine-thousand dollar birthday check yesterday. Burke carded a four-under-par 67 in the final round of the 50-thousand-dollar Lucky International Golf Tournament at San Francisco to win first-place money. Burke–who lives in Houston, Texas–finished with a 276 total to edge fellow Texan Don January by three strokes. Defending champion Gene Littler finished far back, at 288.

NOT SCHEDULED

The National Hockey League not scheduled tonight. In action last night, Detroit beat Boston, 5-3; Toronto downed New York, 4-2, and Montreal toppled Chicago, 3-1. Toronto and Montreal each gained two points on first-place Chicago and now trail the Hawks by two points.

LEAGUE IDLE

The American Hockey League is idle tonight following a day game and three night contests yesterday. In the afternoon game, Cleveland defeated Springfield, 4-2. And at night, Buffalo nipped Pittsburgh, 3-1; Hershey defeated Providence, 5-3, and Rochester and Baltimore played to a 3-3 tie, in overtime.

FIRST WOMAN

Miss Jeanne Ashworth of Wilmington, Massachusetts, became the first woman to skate the mile in less than three minutes yesterday at St. Paul, Minnesota. She threw two-minutes, 53 and two-100ths-seconds. Miss Ashworth won the senior women's division in the National Outdoor Speed Skating Championships and Tom Gray of Minneapolis repeated as men's champion. Gray is the first man to win every National outdoor speed skating title from the midget division through the senior men's.

LION'S SHARE

An American swimmers came away with the lion's share of the honors yesterday in the finale of an invitation indoors meet at Bremen, Germany. World record holder Chet Jastremski won the men's 200-meter breaststroke . . . Ted Stickles won the men's 200-meter individual Medley race . . . and Larry Schulof won the men's 100-meter butterfly. Also victorious, the 400-meter Medley relay team of Tom Strock, Jastremski, Schulof and Stickles.

Snug Harbor house burns, family of five homeless

NOTICED . . along the way

Hugh Mooney stabs a mean haggis. The loyal son of "Burns' land" is seen above as he raised the dagger at the close of his address to the haggis in preparation for delivering the mortal blow. The occasion was the annual Burns' Night dinner at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Among those looking on with due solemnity (or was it anxiety lest he drive the blade clear through the platter) are Dan McQuarrie, left and the guest speaker of the evening, Rev. Kenneth Rooney of Woodville. When Mr. Mooney isn't stabbing haggis, he's selling advertising for "The Post".

The long, hard winter apparently isn't without some blessings. . .hardly a soul is complaining about the lack of exercise what with shovelling out the family igloo or car and walking to work when the horseless chariot refuses to respond. It did produce some setbacks though. Officials in Chippewa Falls, Wis., had to cancel their "Winter Wonderland" carnival. . .It was too cold. It also produced grounds for a successful divorce action. Ivy Sage of London, England, won a divorce on grounds of cruelty. She told the judge her husband left home and took the stove. Then, again, it proved that people really are creatures of habit. A porter, Fred Jackson, hosed down the side walk in front of the St. Louis police headquarters just as he always does. Then he got out his ice chopper and hacked away at the 30-foot patch of ice.

Still in wintry vein, Barber Marshall Stephens has a window display at his Kent St. shop which is of particular interest to people who remember Lindsay when it was a hockey championship town back around the turn of the century. One picture in particular tells a story with which few of the present generation are familiar. . . The barbers of Lindsay once had a championship hockey team of their own and Mr. Stephens was in the lineup. He recalled, as he looked over the picture, that those where the days when hockey players had to fight for a position on the team. . . sometimes 35 or 40 prospective players would try out and they had to have what it takes to make the team and talk about workouts! They started before the ice was on the Scugog and long before natural ice could be made. These took the form of track work which was gradually extended from Lindsay to the White Bridge, back to Cunninghams's Corners and back. . .By the time the ice was ready they were conditioned and ready to go.

Take a look, you'll find them interesting and recognize many

Hodgson predicts better times ahead

In a brief five-minute talk over the air to constituents in Victoria, Haliburton and Ontario North Clayton Hodgson, M.P., predicts better times ahead for Canadians in 1963. The federal member stated that unemployment in Canada compares favourably with the same period in 1962.

Whereas the Conservative party was on the defensive in the last election, Mr. Hodgson stated that in the next election the Liberals will be on the defensive.

Supplied minors, assessed $106 here

Two charges of supplying liquor to minors cost Wayne Haight of Consecon a total of $53 each or $106 in Magistrate's Court Monday.

Haight was arrested on a warrant issued by the Lindsay Police Department. He was returned here Friday.

Three Lindsay youths will be appearing in court Friday morning charged with obtaining liquor under the age of 21 years it was learned.

Fire gets underway while they're away

A young Lindsay district couple and their three young children were left destitute early this morning when fire completely destroyed their home and everything in it. Total estimated loss was $13,000.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gorrill are the unfortunate victims whose home on the Snug Harbor Road was completely gutted by fire of undetermined origin about 3.00 a.m. They now are at a complete loss to know what to do . . . with no home, no furniture, and no clothes either for themselves or the three tiny tots except what they are wearing. Added to this the father of the family was without work until a month ago.

A baby sitter–Mrs. James Foster, 73 Ridout St., Lindsay–is keeping the three tots, Lynda, 3; Stephen, 2; and Denise, four months, until the confused parents can make some arrangements for re-establishing a home. For the past few weeks the young mother has been employed in the advertising department of The Lindsay Post.

Mrs. Gorrill relates she and her husband and children had taken up residence about one month ago in the farmhouse of the William Ayers farm on the Snug Harbor road about five miles, north-east of Lindsay. Previously they had lived for three years across from Connolly's School on County Road 18 in a house owned by Joseph Cayley.

The couple and their children had left Lindsay about 10.15 p.m. Monday to go to the farm of James Winterbottom, R. R. 1 Woodville, to get eggs. They had spent the early evening at the Lindsay home of Allan Gorrill after picking up the children at the baby sitter's. But they never reached the Winterbottom farm, where Mr. Gorrill's mother, Mrs. Lorne Gorrill is housekeeper. On the road running north from the White Rock garage their car was stalled by snow. It was 3.00 o'clock in the morning before Mr. Gorrill was successful in getting the help of a farmer and his tractor to pull the car to the highway. The children

Directors, committee men chosen

Hog producers most important of farm groups, Curtin states

"The Hog Producers Association of Ontario is one of the largest, if not the largest, agricultural organization in the province and possibly handling the most money. It is one of the most important farm groups," so said Clare V. Curtin, of Lindsay, at the annual meeting of the Victoria County Hog Producers, on Monday afternoon. As a director of the Ontario Association for several years representing Victoria, Ontario and Durham and Northumberland Counties, Mr. Curtin also sounded a warning to farmers: "Let us not become complacent but let us continue to take an active interest in the Association, improve our stock and thus secure the best prices."

The annual meeting was held in the Ontario Government Building at Lindsay with a fair representation of farmers present. Victoria County is one of the largest units in the province in an organization which boasts of a large membership.

Reeve Roy Morrison of Manvers occupied the chair while M. H. Winter carried out his duties as secretary, a position he has held since the inception of the Victoria County unit over 20 years ago. Mr. Winter submitted an interesting account of finances showing the local association with a substantial bank balance.

Directors elected for 1963, who will choose officers at a future meeting include: Roy Morrison and Casement Davidson of Mariposa Township; Earl Bullock and Paul Maguire of Emily; C. V. Curtin and Stan Wallace of Ops; Fred Taylor, and Doug Patterson of Verulam; Adrian Smith and Calvin Benson, Eldon.

Keen interest was taken in the election of five committeemen to represent Victoria on the Hog Marketing Board. The result was as follows: Roy Morrison, Clare Curtin, Calvin Benson, Doug Jones and Ivan Dewell.

Reports submitted by Secretary Winters showed support had been given young 4-H hog producers at average of $6 per head when shown at the Lindsay Central Exhibition. J. Simms was commended for the satisfactory way he has been looking after breeding boars and the disposition of litters. President Morrison had words of praise for Secretary Winter

EDITORIAL . . . .

A PUBLIC REPORT CALLED FOR

The closure of the Canadian Arsenals Ltd. plant at Lindsay is fraught with inconsistencies. On the one hand we have had assurance in the past (not too distant) from our member of federal parliament that the arsenal would be kept running and orders obtained for it; later we were informed rather peremptorily that it would be closed on March 31st, that much of its equipment was obsolescent, production costs were incompatible with those in private industry and so forth; still later we learn that the equipment from Lindsay is going to other branches of Canadian Arsenals Ltd., presumably to be put to work there. There is something about the whole situation which doesn't add up in the minds of the public, especially those employed there. They frankly don't believe that this plant's equipment is obsolete; they state positively that there are orders on hand when the closure order came; they claim some of these orders are now going to be filled at Quebec or Nova Scotia plants; they feel Lindsay got the short end of the political stick when the plant's doom was sealed.

What is the real truth? A public report from the Dept. of Defense Production, obtained by our local member of parliament, is called for. He can demand the answer from the floor of the House of Commons. Fogging of the issue isn't good enough to satisfy the people. Mr. Hodgson said in one of his speeches at Lindsay in which he was not misquoted: "That d—d arsenal has been a headache to me for years". Maybe so, but its impending closure is a bigger headache to those affected and unless a substantial replacement industry is found, it will be an even bigger headache for the local economy.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 29, 1913

Yesterday afternoon the chairmen of the various committees were elected by the county council. They are: Finance and assessment-Isaac Fee, Emily; Education-R. J. Mulligan, Omemee; Roads and Bridges-J. J. Devitt, Verulam; Printing-Hugill Dobson, Lindsay; County Property-R. Kylie, Lindsay.

Services Appreciated

A proposal to pay M. J. Lewis an additional amount for his services, this year as chairman of county property after he was not in the council, was not carried at the county council yesterday, but the work was appreciated. The past donation was considered sufficient to cover his further assistance. The term of office of a chairman is looked upon to expire when the new official was appointed and not necessarily the end of the year.

JANUARY 29, 1938

A runaway horse caused considerable damage on William Street South, near Kent Street, at noon today when it swerved the heavy sleigh it was drawing into two parked cars. The horse owned by the Canadian National Express apparently became frightened at something on the road and bolted. Tearing down William Street at a high rate of speed with the sleigh swerving behind it the horse approached a car owned by E. G. Whitaker, Lindsay, which was parked outside the office of H. B. Black. The sleigh struck one of the fenders of the Whitaker car. The sleigh swerved again and crashed heavily into the side of a car owned by R. I. Moore K.C., damaging the car extensively. The side is pushed in and will require extensive repair work. The horse was quieted down shortly after being frightened but the event caused some excitement at the noon hour.

Reports and Remarks..

WALL STREET LOOKS AT ADVERTISING:

"ADVERTISING MORE ESSENTIAL NOW THAN EVEN BEFORE TO ECONOMIC GROWTH"

said A. Rhett duPont, Senior Partner, Francis I. du-Pont & Co., one of America's largest investment firms in Investornews, a monthly financial news magazine follows:

distributed to the firm's customers in 1961. Text "Advertising is being attacked. Advertising is being defended.

"There are those in government and in academic life who would like to make it a highly controversial issue. If it is controversial, then it is so only in the sense that the free enterprise system of free choice in the market place is controversial.

"Its attackers are articulate, well-educated, influential and as we all know, no defense ever has the appeal of an attack. Moreover, too often the defense of advertising has overlooked basic facts in an attempt to meet polemic with polemic. Abuses of advertising there are. But as those who are guilty of them commit their sins in public, for all to see, sooner or later they'll be caught.

"It is just plain poor economics and a lack of a basic knowledge of what makes our business system work to treat advertising as some monster created by slick hucksters for a fast buck. If there were no advertising, it would have to be invented . . . to serve a major need in our consumer economy."

Mrs. H. Osborne hostess to UCW

Zion-Mariposa—The January meeting of eth U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Herman Osborne.

The meeting opened with a hymn followed with prayer by Rev. McNeil. The Bible reading repeated in unison, the 23rd Psalm. Mrs. Maxwell, president, read a paper on the crucial question. The devotional closed with a hymn.

Ten members answered the Roll Call and the minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Mrs. Stuart Hall reported on cards sent during the month and it was moved and seconded that the bills be paid. Mrs. Maxwell announced the U.C.W. annual meeting of Lindsay Presbyterial would be held at Fenelon Falls. It was moved by Mrs. Stuart Hall, seconded by Mrs. Osborne, the UCW have a bring and buy sale at the February meeting.

The programme consisted of a reading by Mrs. Maxwell and some singing.

The benediction closed the meeting and a lovely lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Herman Osborne.

Mrs. Wess Stokes spent a few days at Toronto and attended the funeral of a dear friend, burial took place at Sunderland.

Austerity move or political maneuver

The Editor,
The People Write,
Mr. Editor:

Judging from the statements in your columns re the arsenal situation, it seems there has been some fogging of the issue. Now, as to the arsenal being left in good condition until the end of March this year, let's clear one thing up.

The statement made in council as reported in your columns made no reference to the machinery of the arsenal. The quote is as follows: "I have had word from the man at the top and he assures me nothing will be done to the arsenal to make it any more undesirable to industry coming in there?" In other words if the statement made by the mayor is correct he has been assured that the federal authorities will not hire any building wreckers to knock the place down before March 31. This is quite a consolation as there may be some of the arsenal boys still working in the buildings up to that date. These type of statements only serve to confuse an already confused situation. May I add a story about a noted politician who also tried to confuse his listeners with fantastic figures. He was asked about the state of the country's economy. Without hesitation he speeled off a mass of figures up into the millions and billions. After the meeting, one of his campaign men said: "How did you get all figures when it takes experts six months to figure these things out?"

Answer: "I just made them up, you see it would take the smartest of experts six months to find out I'm wrong, and by that time, I'll be elected". This is certainly reminicent of past performances in this country. This situation at the arsenal is not an austerity move, but a political maneuver to transfer machines and jobs out of a sure riding to a few doubtful ridings to bring up the stocks of politicians in Quebec and the Maritimes. Time alone will tell if they are right politically.

Thanking you again,
Cyril Gerster.

UNHEALTHY LEAVES A HOUSE PLANT PROBLEM

The leaves of your house plant indicate its general condition. when the leaves appear unhealthy, lose their colour, and curl up or drop off it is time to find the reason. Horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture say that these conditions may be caused by a host of different situations. However, the main causes are watering, chilling, and inadequate light.

Lack of water results in a check in growth, shedding of leaves and unsightly plants with dull, unattractive foliage. Too much water results in a shortage of oxygen in the soil, consequently the roots and plant parts at soil level will rot. To overcome these conditions ensures that the plant soil has good aeration and drainage.

A sudden drop in temenprature will cause many house plants to shed their leaves. Tropical plants are particularly susceptible to chilling and should never be exposed to cold draught.

Many plants are susceptible to gas, even the slightest amount of gas in the atmosphere will curl up the leaves. Christmas Cherry and Helxine (Baby's Tears) are highly susceptible.

Inadequate light rarely causes leaves to drop off, but will produce thin straggly growth and pale coloured leaves. Make sure that plants which thrive best in good light are placed in the sunniest location during the winter months.

HOUSEHOLD SCRAPBOOK
By Roberta Lee
Onion Slicing

Onions are one of the most "dangerous" of vegetables to slice thin. because they have a way of slipping out of the knife's way and having your fingers there to take the rap. Avoid this by setting the onion on a flat metal grater while you slice it. The grater grips the onion and prevents its slipping out from under at the crucial moment.

Scorched Cottons

To remedy scorched spots on cottons, wet the stains with the water and cover with a thick paste of laundry starch. After this has dried, sponge it off with peroxide. iron the article and put into the sun for a few hours.

Fern Tonic

Even house ferns like their "spot of tea" now and then! Cold tea, poured over the ferns acts as a tonic and will often revive ailing plants.

In Memoriam

RICH — In loving memory of our dear father, Harold Rich, who passed away Jan. 27, 1962. God saw you getting weary,
So he did what He thought best
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered come and rest.
You wished no one a last farewell,
Nor even said goodby.
You had gone before we knew it,
And only God knew why.
Ever remembered by daughters Arta, Luella, Mila and Almena. (3668)

HILL — Treasured memories of dearly loved son and brother Flying Officer Murray Donald Hill R.C.A.F. Killed in Mitchell bomber crash over Vancouver B.C., January 29, 1953.
Beautiful memories are treasured ever,
Of happy days when we were all together.
Ever remembered by Mom and family. (3674)

This Day

Today is Tuesday, January 29th, the 29th day of 1963 with 336 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Aquarius William McKinley, the 25th President of the United States, was born on this date in 1843.

In this day in history:

In 1845, Edgar Allen Poe's poem "The Raven" was published for the first time in the New York Evening Mirror.

In 1856, the Victoria Cross was established by the Royal Warrant of Queen Victoria.

In 1900, baseball's American League was organized at Philadelphia.

In 1962, the American violinist and composer of some 200 works, Fritz Kreisler, died in New York City at the age of 86.

Mrs. J. J. Spencer

Mrs. John J. Spencer, of 16 St. David St., Lindsay, passed away at the Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, on January 13, 1963 in her 72nd year. The deceased had been ill for a few months prior to her death.

Born at Bury's Green in Somerville Township, the deceased was the daughter of Henry and Annie Mintz. She had resided in this district for 20 years and before moving here had lived in Kinmount. Mrs. Spencer was educated at Bury's Green and Glamorgan Schools, was a member of Queen St. United Church, Lindsay and was also a member of the Women's Progressive Conservative Association. Women's Institute and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion. The late Mrs. Spencer had always been interested in agriculture and was a director of the Galway and Somerville Agricultural Society and the Glamorgan Agricultural Society for several years. She helped to organize the Kinmount Horticultural Society and was its president for several years. The society presented her with an award for "Meritorius Service in the interest of Horjculture" in that district. Of later years she concentrated on her own flowers and vegetable garden, the beauty of which was well known in Lindsay. Her hands were never idle and when forced by weather conditions to stay indoors she was always busy knitting, quilting or making rugs. Many a child was the recipient of a warm pair of mitts. She will be greatly missed.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Grace (Mrs. Willard Billings), of Gooderham and Reta (Mrs. Lorne Bailey) of Penelon Falls; three sons, Amos, of Timmins, Allan, of Belleville and Roy, of North Bay; two brothers Jack Mintz, Gamebridge and Sam at Kingston Military Hospital; two sisters, Ida (Mrs. O. Switzer of Lindsay and Celia (Mrs. Jas. Wallace), of Kinmount; ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Three grandchildren, four brothers and one sister predeceased her.

The funeral was held on January 16th at 2 p.m. from the Mackey Funeral Home, Rev. M. C. Fisher, of Penelon Falls United Church assisted by Rev. B. Garret of Queen St. United Church, Lindsay, conducted the service. Interment was in Riverside Cemetery, Lindsay.

The pallbearers were all nephews of the deceased and were Clarence Hartin, Clinton Switzer, George Ingle, George, Roy and Clive Mintz.

TheEditor,
The Lindsay Daily Post,
Lindsay, Ontario.
Sir:

May we through the columns of your newspaper, request as a public service that the owner of a local business who is operating an antenna distribution system for TV sets in his establishment in such a way as to create interference with viewers in Lindsay who wish to see Channel 7 (Buffalo N.Y.) to consider having his equipment repaired or dismantled without delay?

It has been several months since complaints started coming to us as regards Channel 7 reception and interference and we have asked the parties concerned to write to the Department of Transport, Toronto, stating their complaint in detail. One interested person did so and he was informed that a petition was desirable so that appropriate action could be taken. So, as a public service, we will prepare a petition for as many signatures as there are interested persons, and it can be signed any time during business hours.

Incidentally, the offending party was approached in regard to eliminating the interference but he offered vitriol and violence. Now is the time for legal action — with its promise of very bad publicity to the offending person and business.

Yours truly,
J. G. Gauvreau

To ladies who curl

Unionville, Ont.
January 28, 1962.

The Editor,
The People Write,
The Lindsay Post.
Dear Sir: Our association, now known as the Southern Ontario Ladies' Curling Association, will be holding its fiftieth Annual Meeting this Spring. We are planning to celebrate this event with a reception and tea for all of our members. Friday, April 26th in the curling lounge of the Tam O'Shanter Country Club, Agincourt.

Receiving at the reception will be the President, Mrs. R. J. Allain of Kingston; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. C. M. Laidley of Lindsay and Mrs. G. Taylor of Toronto and Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. H. Armstrong of Weston. There will be curling on twelve sheets of ice by ladies who have been members of the association for ten years or more. A fashion show of curling clothes as worn during the past fifty years will be presented.

Starting at a meeting in Belleville, February 11th, 1914, we are the oldest ladies' association and with the exception of the Canadian Association, the largest. In 1953 we had 43 clubs with 2512 members affiliated with the L.O.C.A., today we have 159 clubs from Detroit to Ottawa and North Bay to Buffalo. Ontario has four associations - Northern 2181 members, North-western 1197 members, Eastern 2430 members, Southern 17587 members. Combined there are 23395 registered lady curlers in our province.

Each association is now in the process of playing down to determine a single rink to play each other in North Bay in February to get one rink to represent Ontario in the Dominion Diamond "D" being played in St. John, New Brunswick, the week of February 25th.

Our association has an inter-club competition for the ladies' Tankard presented to us at the inaugural meeting by the mens' Ontario Curling Association and it has been competed for annually since that time. Last year saw the start of a business Girls Trophy competition and this year we started a Junior Tankard for girls between the ages of 14 and 20.

We hope that this will be of interest to you and if you should wish any more information regarding our association or reception, please contact me at Box 153, Unionville, Ontario, or telephone Area 416 297-1345.

Sincerely yours,
Elsie Hood.,
Convenor.

Mrs. Lawrence Beatty and son, Jim, of Blackwater, visited Mr. and Mrs Percy Brown.

A few Cresswell ladies attended the W.M.S. Presbyterial in St. Andrew's Church Lindsay. Miss E.L. McLelland and Miss Olive Grant were present from Council to lead in discussions.

The many friends of Mr. Lorne Snoddon of Valentia, were shocked to hear of his sudden passing, and much sympathy goes out to his bereaved and sorrowing family.

New Haliburton Warden has 30 years council service

Reeve Lawrence A. Pritchard of Anson, Hindon and Minden was elected Warden of Haliburton County at last week's session of county council.

With a total of 30 years council service, Warden Pritchard is now entering his third year as reeve. He succeeds 1962 Warden Myrtle Bamforth.

A native of the Minden area, he has resided for the past 37 years in the village where he and son Douglas operate an electrical business.

What is the "Scugog River Special"

Sweep!

A rink skipped by John McCrae will represent Lindsay in the preliminary round of the British Consols games to be played in Peterboro on Wednesday of this week. The McCrae rink will meet winners from Cobourg, Bancroft and the two Peterborough clubs in the march to the finals. The provincial finalists in the B.C. event will then move on to the MacDonald Brier Dominion championships. Good luck to the Lindsay foursome.

In the game last Sunday the McCrae rink defeated a quartet of formidable curlers skipped by Murray Davis by the score of 12 to 5. The rinks:

Chum Gillespie, Bob Widdis, P. Ashmore, J. McCrae Sk.

J. Boyd, J. Bellamy, M. Algar, M. Davis Sk.

It Is Hinted

It is hinted that a large number of females will take part in the mysterious Scugog River Special which is to function on March 2nd.

Active Sunday

Peel Sreet rock garden was a busy place Sunday afternoon. Besides one ice being used for the British Consols 12-end match, the additional five sheets of ice were used for mixed curling. This is the largest number of the season in the Sunday mixed.

"Moods in Music" February project for Kinsmen Band

The annual Kinsmen Band Concert "Moods in Music" to be presented in the Academy Theatre on Saturday evening, February 16th, promises an evening of fine entertainment for music lovers of Lindsay and district.

France successfully bars Britain from Common Market

Brussels-(UPI)--President De Gaulle has successfully blocked Britain's proposed entry into the European Common Market

Five members of the trade group failed to convince De Gaulle that Europe would benefit from Britain's membership. The French delegation maintained its veto in spite of pressure from West Germany, Holland, Belgium, Italy, Luxembourgh and the United States.

The French listened quietly while Britain's Lord Privy Seal Edward Heath made a last minute attempt to change the course of the conference.

But French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve De Murville, on instructions from De Gaulle, maintained that Britain was not ready to enter a political and economic Europe.

Heath told the conference the 15-month talks should not have failed. He listed the achievements of the negotiatins and said "maybe the talks were too near to success for some people."

There was no final communique. Delegations simply explained their viewpoints at separate news conferences.

PERISH IN FIRE

A mother and 10 of her 12 children perished this morning in a fire which destroyed their home in Ste. Aledaide De Pabos in the Gaspe region of Quebec. The father and two other children survived. The mother, 33-year-old Mrs. Gilberte Dupius died when she rushed back into the one-storey frame home to save her children who ranged in age from two months to 13 years. While inside the blazing roof collapsed on top of her and the children. The father rescued one of his sons. The other son rushed outside when he awoke to find the building on fire. Cause of the blaze is believed to be an exploding oil heater.

HOTBED OF TENSION

Rival claims to part of Borneo are turning the Island into a hotbed of tension. Tens of thousands of Indonesians reportedly have volunteered to help out the British from the oil-rich territory of Brunei. Britain has sent extra paratroops to the Island to help protect her interests . . . and has two-thousand more on alert at home for possible airlift to Southeast Asia.

POET DIES

In 1916 Robert Frost wrote these lines: "Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference." This morning, Robert Frost died in a Boston hospital. He was 88. People all over the world agree--his poetry has made "all the difference"--to American literature--to the English language. Frost's death apparently was caused by blood clots which reached his lungs. Since early last month, he had been fighting against death following an operation and a heart attack. Frost is dead. But the New England countryside he loved is still here . . . and so are the poems he used to describe it.

ATTACK GOVERNMENT

The Liberals and New Democratics are attacking the Diefenbaker Government with new vigor now that the spending estimates issue is indicating a possible spring election. Liberal front-bencher Paul Martin said in Toronto last night that his party won't approve this year's spending without questioning them. Without approval the budget for the next fiscal year cannot be brought down . . . which will force an election. Another Liberal . . . Paul Hellyer . . . lashed out at Prime Minister Diefenbaker's defense policy . . . while New Democrat Arnold Peters charged that the government lacks the guts to develop its own industries.

FIVE-YEAR TERM

An 18-year-old youth begins a five-year prison term today for his part in the beating of a 65-year-old man during an eight-dollar robbery November 18th. Magistrate F. R. Barnum of St. Thomas, Ontario, agreed with the prosecution that a stringent penalty was necessary to serve as a deterrent. The court was told the victim is still in the hospital and paralyzed.

FACES CHARGE

A 32-year-old woman--Barbara Wildblood--faces a charge of non-capital murder in Toronto. She was taken last night from an apartment she occupied with 48-year-old Henry Warden for the past few weeks. Warden had been stabbed with a bread-knife and died en route to hospital.

Snug Harbor

were getting pretty cold but Bill and I were kept warm pushing and tugging the car", said the young mother.

The family had reached the Snug Harbor turn on Highway 36 on the return home when the reflection of a fire made them aware of the further trouble which awaited them.

Arousing the Marvin Hamilton family the babies were taken into the shelter of that home and an attempted call to the Lindsay Fire Department found the telephone dead. James Hamilton ran down to the lake resort of Bruce Chisholm, who telephoned the Lindsay fire department. Mr. and Mrs. Gorrill proceeded to remove some machinery from the shed adjoining the house now a mass of flames. A lawnmower, a garden tiller, a chain saw, a table saw and a skill saw were moved to safety.

When the Lindsay pumper truck arrived the house roof was falling in and the blaze out of control. Five hundred gallons of water carried were used and one well pumped dry. Water from the other well was used to save the barn and other outbuildings. The long implement shed attached to the house was razed to the ground.

Neighbours, including Mr. Chisholm and Mr. Hamilton, gave much help in saving the implements and also a panel truck. Fire Chief A. Watson said.

Great difficulty was experienced by the firemen with hoses freezing in the eight degree below zero temperature. One fireman with a portable pumper was still guarding the smouldering remains late this morning.

Owner of the farm and farmhouse destroyed, William Ayres of 68 Elgin St. Lindsay, was unaware of his loss until 9.30 this morning, when advised by the Lindsay Police Department.

Fire Chief Watson estimated the loss of the house at $10,000. Mr. Ayres had made several costly repairs to the house recently. Mrs. Gorrill estimated loss of furniture and clothing at around $3,000.

Mrs. Gorrill stated a living room space heater was left burning slowly and everything was carefully checked before the family left in the morning. The cause of the fire is unknown, Chief Watson said.

Coming off laneway collision occurs

Damages estimated at $300 was the result of a two-car collision on Victoria Ave. S., at noon hour Monday.

Police said W. E. Moore of 36 Mill St., Lindsay, was entering Victoria Ave. S. from a laneway at 12.15 p.m. when his car came in collision with a northbound vehicle driven by M. H. Henderson of 273 Kent St. W., Lindsay.

There were no injuries, investigating officer William Bowes of the Lindsay Police Department estimated damage to the cars involved at $300.

The revised-Constitution of the local association was presented by C. V. Curtin who stated that all Hog Producer Associations in Ontario are being urged to conform to the demand of the Ont. Association to have uniformity in constitutions. Perth County is the only one failing to fall into line so far.

Director Curtin of the O.H.P.A. commended the members of Victoria Association for loyalty and solidarity in connection with the association during the past year.

STOP! . . . killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

SKIN DIVING IS NOT FOR SOME MEN

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My husband has been bit by the skin diving bug. Although he is a good swimmer, it makes me nervous to think of his engaging in this sport.

He is the sort of person who panics easily; besides he has had sinus trouble for many years. I've heard that people with sinusitis should not take up skin diving. He is buying a lot of diving equipment, but before he actually takes part in diving, I'd appreciate a few words from you on the dangers Mrs. B.

Comment: From what I have heard, people with sinus infections should not become skin divers. This is also true for those who have ear infections. This, in itself, seems to be a negative answer as far a your husband is concerned. In addition, his tendency to go to pieces during emergencies is another reason why he should consider carefully before going ahead.

Panic under water can be a serious hazard to life. In World-Wide Abstracts I have been reading some good tips on the sport by G. D. Davis of Canberra and Bill Rowe of Sydnew which first apeared in the Medical Journal of Australia.

For example, a diver who is having sinusitis might be able to descend even though he is having pain due to the air which is forced into the sinuses under pressure, but as he comes up later he will likely suffer excruciating pain.

Consider the apparently simple procedure of using ear plugs. They should not be used in free descent; and definately not when using a compressed air unit, for the ear drum may rupture and the plug forced deep into the ear canal by pressure as the diver goes deeper.

OTHER HAZARDS

No doubt you have heard of other possible complications such as pneumonia, and air embolism due to such gases as carbon dioxide, nitrogen or oxygen. And this should interest your husband, who I hope is not headstrong individual who will still insist on diving: panic often causes drowning and is one of the commonest causes of diving fatalities.

In a general way, here are some important tips to people who are physically and emotionally suited to taking up the interesting sport of skin-diving:

Don't take alcohol or cigarettes in the hour before the dive. Don't dive directly after a meal. Check the diving apparatus carefully for leaks and proper gas mixture. Never dive alone. Don't stay down if you are excessively cold and shivering. On coming to the surface, especially from great depths, don't hold your breath but keep exhaling.

As for myself, I enjoy watching skin divers on television and in the movies. I know of no physical contraindication why I couldn't become a diver. But there's one big reason why I'd never take the chance: I'd panic. I like to be one the water and gaze at the sea; but even the thought of being way down in it gives me goose pimples.

I hope you can talk some sense into your husband, Mrs. B.

CHRONIC DERMATITIS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have a chronic inflammation of the skin which doctors call a dermatitis. Not only have I applied about a half dozen other kinds of ointments recommended by friends. With all this treatment, my skin is worse. Any recommendations? Mr. L.

Comment: Give your skin a rest. I have seen many cases in which the irritation caused by overtreatment was worse than the original condition. Then put your confidence in one doctor — and give him time.

Janetville ladies attend meeting

Janetville (PNS) — The annual meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterian United Church Women was held in the Grace United Church in Peterborough. A number of Janetville ladies attended the afternoon session, namely Mrs. John Burn, Mrs. Earl Jackett, Mrs. E. Toole, Mrs. Ross Winacott, Mrs. Georgie Burn. They were in charge of the worship service.

The address was given by Mrs. W. Tonge, her subject was the challenge of Asia. A discussion followed the address.

Rev. Walter Tonge gives interesting address at Presbyterial UCW meeting

Over 300 women attended the first annual meeting of Lindsay Presbyterial United Church Women held recently in Fenelon Falls United Church.

The Chairman of Lindsay Presbytery, Rev. R. K. McLean was present and conducted the election and installation of officers, the only changes being as follows: Miss Vina Neal now being 1st Vice-president and Mrs. Donald Alsop, 2nd Vice-president; Community Friendnship and Visiting Sec. Mrs. Cecil Irwin, Carnarvon; Stewardship and Recruiting Sec. Mrs. A. Lovering, Cannington.

The highlight of the day's sessions was the address given by Rev. Walton Tonge of Hong Kong. In making the introduction, Mrs. C. W. M. Service said she had been asked to introduce Mrs. Tonge whom she knew intimately but since she was unable to be present because of illness, Mr. Tonge was taking her place and would be introduced by Rev. B. Garrett. Mr. Garrett said he had known Mr. Tonge at College and that he and Mrs. Garrett had shared an apartment with the Tonges 17 years ago when both couples were newly wed. After ordination, the Tonges had gone to China. However, when the communists took over, they were shut out of there, and their paths crossed again. Mr. Tonge in his opening remarks said, "There are two things of which we need to be reminded as Christians today. We are inclined to think it does not matter what we are or what we do. It is not just the decisions made in Washington, Ottawa or London that matter. We are just not enthusiastic enough. Often we fail to rise to the occasion that nothing positive is being done. Every tourist comes back with the thought "The Church Still Stands. What it is Doing is Counting." In Hong Kong, the work of the church is not being done denominationally. They do things together. The church and the welfare agencies love them enough to see that the underprivileged are being cared for as far as possible. One of the biggest problems is overcrowding because of the influx of refugees. Every day there are between two and three hundred refugees. Today there are close to 4,000,000 people. Housing accommodation is not thought of in terms of a house. If a family has a double-decker bunk they think themselves fortunate. They live in shacks. There are over 250,000 people living in sampans. All their fishing beds are being cut off. The Hong Kong government is building schools and equiping their boats with deisel motors so they can go out and make a living." Mr. Tonge showed pictures of roof-top dwellers with modern government buildings in the background. Many people are settled in government buildings in the background. Many people are settled in government blocks with each 10 x 12-foot room housing a family of five adults (each child is counted as ½ an adult). There are ½ million people living in accommodation such as this."

In spite of this overcrowding in Hong Kong he pointed out, "There is no country where there are more immigration barriers than in Canada. We have a lot to answer for. We are known as a big country. I hope we will be known as a big people as well. The United Church of Canada is petitioning the Department of Immigration to make it possible to immigrate 10,000 people. We are asking the government to do nothing it has not done before. There is no sense of our merely making petitions to Ottawa. This country must share their responsibility in this way. Immigration laws have not been changed. They all say it would be political suicide. The fact we have to explain is that we now have the doors open just a little crack. We must train up within our country a leadership. The second thing that is our responsibility is to admit 100 families. I plead with you to help to bring these things about. We might very well be relieved of 100,000 families. Before the Communist Revolution the children were going into China to get their higher education. In 1915 Chung Chi College was organized. We are indeed grateful for a chapel in the midst of our campus made possible by a gift from the United Church of Canada. Being a Christian in Hong Kong really means something. 50% come out of China knowing they DO NOT want communism. It is my privilege to serve as chaplain to these students. These young people come out total wrecks mentally and physically. As chaplain I meet with them and let them talk. Most of these students have to be trilingual. We do not have to urge them to study. They try to make the most of their privilege. The church in Hong Kong has about 15% of the total population. It is making a 15% increase each year. It is the business of standing with these people and lifting them up when they cannot help themselves. Maybe it is Mrs. Tonge accepting a tiny baby abandoned because the parents realize they cannot do what others could do for it." He made a plea that the laws be changed to allow people who wish to adopt abandoned babies, to do so. Woollen afghans would be appreciated in which to wrap these children. Pyjamas made on the square pattern are appreciated. However, he said, money can be used to buy these articles much more cheaply over there. It could be sent to 322 Tecumseh Ave., London."

In closing he said, "The church has undergone great persecution but we have never been overcome. Theological schools are still functioning. Men are still being ordained. The communists have said, 'You will never be hungry again' but these promises have not been kept. It is also true that unemployment is rampant all over the country. I believe that whatever the next future years hold it will depend totally on whether they are more Chinese than Communist or more Communist than Chinese We must stand with these people in every measure of support they are prepared to give. The new spirit is already evident in the rest of Asia. I hope it will be evident in China."

The President Mrs. Murray conducted morning and afternoon sessions and gave a verbal account of her year's work opening with these words: "Look back and give thanks, Look forward and give courage". She concluded with a Hymn Sing in which all enjoyed participating. The reports of the other members of the executive were all mimeographed. The morning session consisted mainly of business. The treasurer, Miss O. Geach, showed that there was much for which to give thanks in that the allocation from Conference U.C.W. of $17,800 had been reached. Mrs. M. Fisher, Chairman of Finance Comm. presented the allocation for 1963 which is a little higher $18,690. This was voted on and accepted unanimously as was also the 1% raise in Presbyterial and Conference expenses.

The Bay of Quinte Conference President of U.C.W., Mrs. W. Weatherhead of Sharbot Lake, was also present and brought greetings. The Conference Annual Meeting will be held at Brighton in March. She said there will be plenty of billets for any who care to attend. Contact Mrs. Clayton Hare, R. R. 1, Brighton. The six Regional Chairmen were appointed as delegates, with power to appoint an alternate if unable to attend.

A very impressive Memorial Service was conducted by Mrs. Irwin of Carnarvon for members who had passed to their reward during last year.

Another feature of the afternoon session was an inspirational worship service conducted by Mrs. Murray with Mrs. Fisher reading the scripture. Prayers were offered by various women throughtout the Presbytery, for The Nations of the World, The Church Universal, World Peace and Brotherhood. The World-Wide Mission of the Church, and The United Church and The United Church School.

At the close a film was shown re Citizenship entitled "Night Children".

An invitation was extended for the 1964 Annual Meeting to be held at Beaverton.

Rev. M. F. Fisher pronounced the benediction.

SQUARE OFF

Rugged heavyweights Tom McNeeley of Boston and England's Brian London square off in a 10-rounder at London tonight. Both fighters have been knocked out in title fights by former heavyweight king Floyd Patterson. London rates the solid choice. Last night, Canadian heavyweight champion Bob Cleroux knocked out Gene Jackson of Cleveland in 31 seconds of the third round at Lewiston, Maine. In Baltimore, underdog Gaspar Ortega–a veteran welterweight campaigner–scored a unanimous decision over seventh-ranked Charley Scott in their return fight.

OFFER $5,000,000.00

Onetime Major League Baseball owners Bill Veeck and Nate Dolin reportedly have offered five-million for the Washington Senators. Sources say that the bid by Veeck and Dolin forced a counter-move by three current stockholders to buy out President Pete Quesada's interests.

RESIGNS

The man who coached the Yale football team longer than anyone else has resigned to devote more time to an insurance business in Los Angeles. Jordan Olivar has been coach at Yale for the past 11 seasons. His teams won 61 games, lost 32 and tied six.

CHECK ON REPORT

U-S Senate investigators are checking on reports of sports gambling in the San Francisco area. Senator John McClellan says a staff member of his sub-committee is in San Francisco, but he will not confirm a report that a member of the Forty-Niners' pro football team was questioned.

MOVES INTO THIRD

Jackie Burke has moved into third place in golf's money winning derby after copping first place prize money of nine-thousand dollars in last weekend's Lucky International tourney at San Francisco. Gary Player and Arnold Palmer are ahead of Burke in earnings.

TIED FOR FIRST

Toronto's Frank Mahovlich and Boston's Johnny Bucyk are tied for first with 50 points each for individual scoring honors in the National Hockey League. Official statistics show that Mahovlich leads the league in the number of goals scored with 26, and Bucyk has a 21-29 tally. In third place is New York Captain Andy Bathgate with 48 points, 23 of them goals.

Delay Arsenal shutdown, Steelworkers ask Ottawa

Urge government take sufficient time to permit job transfer of employees

NOTICED... along the way

Cite loss in revenue to Lindsay

Ottawa, Jan. 30-(UPI)-The United Steel Workers of America Union has urged the Federal Goivernment to delay the shutdown of the Gun Ammunition Division of Canadian Arsenals Limited at Lindsay, Ontario.

The request was made today in a brief prepared by Harry J. Waisglass of Toronto, Canadian Research Director of the United Steelworkers.

The Lindsay plant employs 180 people, the brief said and is scheduled to be closed by the end of March.

The brief said the shutdown would mean a loss to the community of 12 thousand dollars purchasing power weekly, a nine-thousand dollar annual revenue paid in lieu of taxes and fire protection, 2,400 dollar per year loss in water revenue and a 12-thousand dollar loss to the local hydro commission per annum.

It urged the government to take sufficient time to plan the shutdown in a manner which should permit the transfer of its employes to alternate employment opportunities.

The union said if the plant should be shut down, the government should provide all employes, the hourly-rated as well as the salaried employes, with adequate severance pay allowances.

The full availability of the services of the National Employment Service and the Vocational Training Branch of the Department of Labor was also urged to assist employes in planning their future.

The brief was presented to Raymond J. M. O'Hurley, Minister of Defence Production and Michael Starr, Minister of Labor.

March of Dimes blitz raises $843 in Lindsay

Eight hundred and forty-three dollars realized in the "March of Dimes" blitz covering Lindsay Monday evening, R. M. Parker, Chairman of the Lindsay branch of the Rehabiltation Foundation project here.

Much credit is due to Mrs. Gordon Graham who organized the blitz so successfully and for the pleasing approach of the mothers carrying out this town-wide canvass", Dr. Parker stated.

"We expect proceeds for the project will be given a considerable boost when "March of Dimes" cards on store counters are collected within the next two weeks. There are 78 of these cards out.

"The proceeds of the annual "March of Dimes" in Ontario are used entirely for the training of victims of polio, accidents or disease, who are 19 years of age or over. These are sent to training schools in Ontario, maintained by the Rehabilitation Foundation. Anyone wishing to add to the "March of Dimes" proceeds may yet do so by inserting their contribution in a store card", the chairman added.

"Example of the worthy rehabilitation made possible by "March of Dimes" is the exhibit of Canadian gems in the window of Johnson's Jewellery Store, Kent St. These were cut and polished by disabled persons trained as the result of the "March of Dimes" project", Dr. Parker further disclosed.

Jeweller Ken Johnson explained these stones come from amethyst and agate found in the Lake Superior district; sodalite in the Bancroft area and various feldspars in the townships just north of here.

One fine example of these crippled people's work on display in the store is a set of jade mounted jewellery, in which both the stones and the mountings have been finished and made by a wheel chair victim, Mr. Johnson said.

Like some people, some machines really dig in when they go to work. This excavating machine owned by Wm. J. McDougall of Sunderland took such a deep bite into the frost bitten ground on the east side of St. David St. the other day, that it lifted its front end wheels well clear of the ground The excavator was preparing the ground for a new factory site almost opposite Schultz Die Casting Co. of Canada Ltd. The 6,500 square-foot factory is to be occupied by a New England manufacturing concern, the Lindsay Industrial Commission announced earlier this year.

Drops dead outside home returning from shopping

Two Lindsay women witnessed their father drop dead yesterday afternoon as he was about to enter the side door of his King Street residence.

Wilfred P. Mulligan had just returned from shopping on Queen St., around 3.00 o'clock when Mrs. Aylmer Barnsley and Mrs. Percy Russell, looking out the kitchen window, saw their father fall at the doorstep. Dr. H. G. Metcalfe was called and pronounced Mr. Mulligan dead. He had suffered a heart seizure, Mrs. Barnsley said.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan have resided in Lindsay for the past 15 or 16 years, coming here from the Bethany district of Manvers Township. Mr. Mulligan was employed for some time with the Kawartha Lumber Co., here. The couple later retired and for the past six years have made their home with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Aylmer W. Barnsley.

Besides his widow, three daughters and one son surviving are: Lena (Mrs. A. W. Barnsley) and Audrey (Mrs. Percy Russell), both of Lindsay; Moe (Mrs. Ernest Welsh) of Toronto and Thomas of Janetville. Several grand-

"Music Camp" under study, bandsmen call meeting here

A "Music Camp" for young people in this area — the first of its kind in Ontario — might become a reality in the near future if plans materialize, according to word received from the Ontario-Quebec Chapter of the Canadian Band Masters Association.

Lindsay Band Master Frank Banks, told "The Post" that the association has been working on plans for a summer camp of this nature for some time now and a special Music Camp Committee will be meeting Saturday in Lindsay to "start the ball rolling". After a brief meeting, members plan to visit a number of sites in the area that might be suitable for the project.

Mr. Banks who is president of the association, said that the camp, when organized, will be

EDITORIAL . . . .

NOW IS THE TIME . . .

Now is the time for all good sons of Britain to deal France a telling blow. The country's determination to keep Britain out of the European Common Market could be effectively counteracted by keeping France out of Britain and the Commonwealth countries. In a word—Don't buy French-made products. This would put quite a dent in France's export market. The Commonwealth could probably get along very nicely without a lot of French products—small cars, for example, of which Britain makes an abundance and which are, apparently of superior quality.

DeGaulle, by his attitude over the European Common Market issue and other recent actions, has given most people the impression that he thinks he is a big Napoleon. The true allies of Britain should now apply the economic head-shrinker until his hat fits him again and he is either removed from office or takes a more conciliatory attitude toward his former allies, but for whom he wouldn't have had any say at all in the affairs of Europe.

Remember way back when

JANUARY 30, 1913

The request for an electric heater for the registry office, to be used in the early spring and fall, was considered at the county council yesterday. The solid construction of the registry office made the interior very damp and cool, when other buildings were dry and warm. Mr. Robertson said nothing could be put in that would be much cheaper than 5c an hour and initial cost of $20.00. Mr. Varcoe thought it should be a good scheme. Would it be better to leave it over until June? A motion was put that the stove be purchased, to be used during seasons when steam is not used in the central plant—Carried.

Improvements to Court Room

The County Property Committee met at 3:10 o'clock with Mr. Kylie in the chair. The first subject brought up was the account for putting a door in the wall between the court room and the hall to facilitate the access of judges and barristers to the bench, when the court room was crowded.

JANUARY 30, 1938

A fire of serious proportions was narrowly averted when the Lindsay Fire Department extinguished a dangerous chimney fire in the third floor apartment over O'Loughlin's store, on the north side of Kent Street. Had the fire been overlooked a few more minutes it is believed that the entire building might have been endangered. The fire truck, summoned by Mrs. Saunderson who occupies an apartment on the second floor, made two calls to the scene of the fire during the night. On the last call they had to remain until two a.m. Chief Herb McCullum told the "Post" that it was a very stubborn fire to fight. "We had to get the chimney sweep to assist us in the job and we had to break in the chimney to get at the fire and clean it out," he said, "if we hadn't got there in time it might have been the fight of our lives to save the whole block."

Reports and Remarks..

SOUR DEAL ON HUNGARY

If you are angry over the secret deal cooked up by U.N. between the U.S. and Hungary at the end of the year, you are not alone.

Hungary has agreed to release several hundred political prisoners held in jail since the 1956 uprising, though this has not been officially announced in Hungary. The U.S.'s open counter-agreement was to propose that the general assembly dismiss its Special Representative on Hungary, New Zealand's Sir Leslie Munro, and turn "the Hungarian question" over to Secretary-General U Thant. This has been done, with Canada's helping vote. Having refused Sir Leslie admission ever since his appointment, the Hungarians now welcome U Thant.

Undercover, the U.S. also agreed to try to persuade its friends to drop the regular resolutions through which the U. N. seeks free elections and the withdrawal of the Soviet military in Hungary.

The U.S. seems to have done this on a very businesslike and "realistic" basis. The release of the prisoners is a valuable concession from Hungary—and it is a fact, something real in a world of propaganda. The resolutions about free elections and the Soviet army in Hungary have never achieved their aim. Therefore, the U. S. argued, let's get something real in exchange for something useless.

But there is nothing useless about drawing the world's attention to Communist oppression. That too is real, and a fact. Short of force, there may be no way to relieve Eastern Europe of its Communist straitjacket; it is still no subject to be dropped. What will the rest of the world deduce from the U.S.'s apparent new indifference?

Canada should follow its valuable attack on Soviet colonialism by taking up where the U.S. has left off, and itself propose the motion that the Communists permit free elections in Hungary and withdraw their troops. —Canada Monthly.

Roy Black elected District Master at annual meeting

The annual meeting of the Orange Lodge of Mariposa District No. 2 was held in Hartley. There was a good attendance.

There were a number of visitors present from Victoria County and Ontario County. Two of the visitors were Wor. Bro. Cliff Moffat, Master of Victoria County L.O.L. and Wor. Bro. Stanley Taylor Master of North Ontario County L.O.L.

Wor. Bro. Roy Miller, 1962 District Master, presided over the meeting. The Orange Parade which will be held in Woodville in July was discussed and a number of the Committee chairmen's were picked.

After short addresses were given by a number of the visitors, the slate of officers for 1963 were elected and installed.

1963 Officers

Neighbors, friends honor anniversary celebrants

Fingerboard (PNS) — A successful Dramatic Club Euchre was held in the school at Fingerboard with eight tables playing. On the same evening Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Nicholls celebrated their 40th Wedding Anniversary by entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gillson to a fowl supper. After supper the Gillson's suggested that they all go to the school for the euchre party which, owing to inclement weather had been postponed from the night before.

The euchre prizes were won by Mrs. Watson and Orval Watson, high; Mrs. Radzevicius and Betty Hill (a gentleman for the evening) low; the special prize going to Harold Hall.

At this point in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Nicholls were called to the front by the committee for the evening, when a beautiful corsage was pinned on Mrs. Nicholls by Mrs. Gordon Gillson in honour of the occasion. Mrs. Ellen Foster read a humourous poem on marriage. Mrs. Owen Sweetman read an address on behalf of their neighbors and friends. At the appropriate moment, during the address, Mrs. Marvin Hill presented them with a beautiful wool blanket.

Taken completely by surprise Andrew and Eunice thanked all for their thoughtfullness. All those present then joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows".

A tasty lunch was served by the ladies and a very enjoyable evening came to a close.

Self-Cleaning System

Be it a self-cleaning swimming pool or exercising equipment — manufacturers are out to make your life much easier. A Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, firm rule pool company offers a self-cleaning system that will eliminate the vacuming chore for home pool owners. The cleaning process is made part of the water circulation system by installing small jet-flow inlets which constantly sweep out dirt and sediment from the pool. Engineering is handled by the company office, for installations throughout the United States.

Exercise System

Quick and easy to use — that's an exercise system reportedly based on "the short-cut isometric principle of physical force exerted against an immovable resistance." The two-pound chrome-plated unit has an adjustable bar and on-stretch cable to match strength requirements of each person in the family. Ten two-second exercises performed daily, without movement or repetition, are said to improve body proportions and develop the muscles at a maximum rate.

New System, Optional

There'll be music throughout the house — without the fuss and expense of custom wiring. A new system is optional on stereo console phonographs. The system consists of a transmitter and receiver, with the transmitter installed in the cabinet. The receiver can be placed anywhere in the home and plugs into an electrical outlet. It takes either Stereo or Monaural signals, converting them to monaural F-M.

Quick Cup

A quick cup of coffee can be yours at home or in the office, with a new compact device that heats and dispenses a cup of water at a time. Mechanisms are concealed inside a decorative plastic housing. A glass reservoir holds six cups of water. When plugged into any electric outlet, the unit heats water and dissolves powdered beverages within a minute after starting it.

Now In Past

Blackouts during home movies now are in the past, thanks to a new eight milli-meter movie projector lamp. The lamp indicates when it's approaching the end of its life by way of a dual-filament that starts to dim.

Same Time

An 18-ounce power hand tool now combines rotary and reciprocating movement at the same time. It's designed to perform a full range of precision finishing operations normally done by hand — drilling, routing, shaping nibbling and other workshop techniques.

Newest Thing

A Chicago firm offers the newest thing in cleaning your car engine. The five-minute flash for engine and crankcase reportedly frees sticky valves and rings, washes out gums, sludge and varnish, and permits oil to circulation freely. Another cleaner made by the company is said to clear carburator throat, fuel jets and air passages and boost gasoline mileage.

In Memoriam

DETTMAN — In loving memory of Archibald Dettman who passed away Jan. 29, 1960.
Gone dear husband, gone forever.
How we miss your smiling face.
But you left us to remember
Non on earth can take your place
A happy home we once enioved
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.

Ever remembered by wife Margaret and family. (3609)

COWIE — John Alexander, M. M. 745345, 116 Batt, W. W. 1.
He is not dead, who gave his life,
To make this world a better place.
The memory of his noble deeds
The passing years cannot efface.
On earth he nobly gave his best,
Grant him Jesus, Heavenly rest.

Wife and family. (H9918)

STOKES — In loving memory of a dear mother and father Mabel and William Stokes, who passed away January 30, 1956 and November 3, 1948.
Your presence is ever near us,
Your love remains with us yet
You were the kind of parents
Your loved ones will never forget.

Ever remembered by their family. (3566)

WORSLEY — In memory of our brother Clifford who passed away Jan. 23, 1960, and our sister-in-law Edith who passed away Dec. 23, 1960.
Beautiful memories woven in gold,
This is the picture we tenderly hold,
Deep in our hearts their memory is kept,
To love, to cherish and never forget.

Sadly missed by Elva, Pearl, Ruby, Blanche and Viola. (3473)

JORDAN — In loving memory of our dear son and brother Harry Ivan, who passed away Jan. 30, 1961.
We little knew when we woke that morn,
The sorrow the day would bring,
For the call was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.

Lovingly remembered by Mother, Dad, brothers and sisters. (3713)

COWIE — In memory of Jack Cowie who passed away Feb. 1st, 1962.
One year has passed,
Since that sad day,
When one we loved,
Was called away.

Sadly missed by brother and sisters. (H9969)

In Memoriam

RICH — In loving memory of our dear father, Harry Rich, who passed away Jan. 27, 1962.
God saw you getting weary,
So He did what He thought best,
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered come and rest,
You wished no one a last farewell,
Nor even said goodby.
You had gone before we knew it,
And only God knew why.

Ever remembered by daughters Arta, Luella, Mila and Almena. (3668)

Marriage Announcement

BLACKBOURN — HILL

Mrs. Wilmot Hill, Woodville, announces the marriage of her daughter Dianne to Mr. Edward Blackbourn, son of Mrs. Clarence Blackbourn, Lindsay, and the late Mr. Blackbourn. The marriage was solemnized in United Church parsonage, Omemee, by Rev K. Crawford on Saturday January 19th. 1963 (3700)

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Klock and family, of Deep River and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greenhill and family, of Niagara Falls, Ontario, spent the weekend with Mrs. Klock's parents and Mrs. Greenhill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jordan's Albert St. N.

Fingerboard Couple Celebrate

Fingerboard (PNS) — Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nicholls were honoured by their boys and their wives at a special anniversary dinner held in an exclusive restaurant in Toronto by way of celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary. A corsage was pinned on the bride by Mrs. Donald Nicholls and a boutonniere on the groom by Mrs. Everett Nicholls. A delicious dinner, complete with a wedding cake was enjoyed by all. The "Anniversary Waltz" was played for the guests of honour while their picture was being taken as a momento of the occasion. At the conclusion of the dinner, Donald, Everett and Lawrence presented their parents with two beautiful electric blankets together with the affectionate best wishes from them and their wives. Dinner reservations were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nicholls, Barrie; gifts and corsages by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Nicholls, Seagrave and transportation by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nicholls, Oakwood. Even the weather co-operated in making a wonderful evening a success.

They are: Lake Trout now open - closes October 5th, 1963, three per day, possession limit - one day's catch; Yellow Pickerel, now open - closes March 31st, 1963, six per day, possession limit - one day's catch.

Two (2) lines are permitted provided they are personally attended by the fisherman.

Recovers glasses 40 minutes after inserting ad

Kenneth A. Bertie is a very pleased man. His lost glasses were returned within 40 minutes of inserting an ad in the Front Page Classifieds of "The Post" on Tuesday.

Said the Lindsay Unemployment Insurance officer: "I lost my glasses while making calls on Lindsay St. S., during the morning. A visitor at the home of Fergus McCabe, 130 Lindsay St. S., picked up the glasses near the curb in the vicinity of the Crest Beauty Salon.

"Learning of my loss, the glasses were returned by the finder safe and sound. I was delighted and cancelled the "lost" ad at once". Mr. Bertie is now sold on the value of advertising.

Lindsay Chamber of Commerce sends telegram of support of Arsenal Ottawa delegates

Lindsay Chamber of Commerce Council was without representation on the delegation meeting in Ottawa today but it sent a telegram of regret stating circumstances which precluded member representation.

It was sent on behalf of the local arsenal staff to the Honorable Michael Starr by the Council today, which also conveyed its full support of the delegation's cause. An appeal for a sympathetic hearing of any requests for any possible assistance, was also included in the telegram.

The move followed the reading of a letter at the Council meeting last night, from the secretary of Local 5805 U.S.W.A., in which the support from the Chamber of Commerce was requested, in obtaining assistance in the placement of arsenal employees.

A motion was carried, that a letter be sent to the Honorable Michael Starr indicating the Chamber's support, and that an appropriate reply be made to the U.S.W.A. secretary.

Must be more optimistic, hog producers told here

"We must be more optimistic and less pessimistic regarding the future of the hog industry and we must think beyond our own endeavors and work for the good of the whole industry." This was the advice given by Secretary Manager C. J. Boynton of the Ontario Hog Producers Association at the annual meeting of Victoria County Hog Producers held in the Ontario Provincial building here Monday.

Continuing Mr. Boynton told the meeting that on the whole hog prices in Canada are better than in the United States. Hogs may at times bring a better price to farmers in the Chatham area, he said, because transportation costs are saved due to having the Toronto market close by. But when the hogs are selling at $28 and $30 farmers are benefitting by very favorable prices for their stock made possible by the efforts of the Hog Producers Association in maintaining high quality.

The speaker said there is a need for close study in connection with future agriculture programs to keep produce at a high quality and to watch market conditions carefully.

Reference was made to the strides made in agriculture in Great Britain and to the advanced idea that farmers should be concerned more with the idea of freedom of living when developing agricultural interests.

"There must be an effort to receive higher payments for quality hogs. Producers should strive for a higher range of prices up to forty cents for top quality and thus render a good service to agriculture", he stressed.

Dan Cayley was the winner of a choice ham in a lucky draw for those who attended the meeting on time.

Ivan Dewell suggested that the association donate prizes as an incentive for young farmers to improve quality of their production.

A local resident who is always interested in anniversaries and such things says he has been giving quite a lot of thought to plans for celebrating Canada's 100th birthday in 1967. "It has occurred to me," he declared, "that the government is going at this thing the wrong way. They're planning on following the usual pattern - unload a pile of people's money and give them nothing in return except a lot of ballyhoo. Why wouldn't it be a grand idea - just for a change - to celebrate the occasion by letting the people hang onto some of their hard-earned money and get the feel of it? What would be wrong, say, with declaring it an "income tax-less year"? I believe that would really make a hit with the people ...Then if they really wanted to "do it up brown", they might dispense with all government forms for one year. This would give the people a chance to take a well-earned rest, free from the strangling tentacles of red tape." What do you think of that now? Don't you think you would remember Canada's 100th birthday longer if that was the year in which you didn't have to pay income tax or fill out government forms than you would if all you get is fireworks and hot air

Will study emergency procedure

Study of the existing medical emergency procedure is to be undertaken by the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce. The council of the C of C last night named a special committee to investigate the situation. It will comprise C of C manager Harry MacDonald and James Nolan. The investigation will pay particular attention to ambulance services and to determining ways and means of best making emergency procedure known to the public.

Membership Change

It was moved by Jim Nolan and seconded by Don Scott that the resignation of Mr. A.J. Leonard be accepted with regret and that he be requested to consider making his services available as a Committee Member.

In accordance with Article V, Section 20 of the Chamber By-laws, Mr. J. Fisher was requested to accept nomination to the Council to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Leonard's resignation..

Recommendation

It was moved by Don Scott, seconded by Ted Hill that the 1963 Council recommend to the Nominating Committee that the Chairman of the Merchants' Committee be asked to accept membership in the Council for the succeeding year.

Seek Chairmanship

It was moved by Ted Hill and seconded by Gord Mackey that Mr. N. Wilson and Mrs. B. Newton be approached with a view to their accepting chairmanship of the Civic Affairs and Membership and Finance Committees respectively.

Mrs. H. C. Neate speaks at Baptist WMS meet

Fenelon Falls (PNS)—The January meeting of the W. M. S. of Fenelon Falls Baptist Church was held at the home of Mrs. Martin Devitt with the president, Mrs. Geo. Bell presiding and Mrs. Geo. Webster at the piano. Following the singing of the opening hymn, Mrs. Bell led in prayer and a psalm was read in unison.

Minutes of the December meeting were read by Mrs. S. Kennedy, Mrs. Neate reported that the Good Cheer committee had distributed 12 Christmas boxes and sent three plants to sick and shutins. Letters of thanks for Christmas boxes and plants were read by the secretary.

Mrs. Bell told of prayer requests received in letters from Missionaries at home and overseas and in response to the requests a season of prayer was held was a number of ladies participating.

Mrs. H. C. Neate gave a splendid talk on Great Hymns she spoke principally of the hymns written by Isaac Watts, and in keeping with her talk all the hymns chosen for the meeting were written by him and included "Joy to The World", and "O God Our Help in Ages Past". Watts wrote over 800 hymns among them "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" and "Jesus Shall Reign". She also spoke briefly of the wonderful hymns written by Fanny Crosby, the dedicated blind hymn writer. A further season of prayer was held before the offering was taken. It was decided to send the offering to Central Baptist Seminary.

A hymn was sung after which Mrs. Bell closed the meeting with prayer. A social time followed when lunch was served by Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Devitt.

Christian Youth Week observed at church

Christian Youth Week sponsored by the Department of Christian Education of the Canadian Council of Churches was fittingly observed in Cambridge Street Baptist Church recently.

The members of the B.Y.P.U. of that church participated in various capacities. The message by their President, Laurie Taylor was outstanding in its delivery and in its content. The subject "Bound — to be free" was based on the parable of The Prodigal Son and its application to the Christian life. The beautiful hymn "Make me a Captive, Lord, and then I shall be Free" symbolizes the perfect Christian liberty when the heart is right with God.

Bryan Bertie, Joan Ann Hilton, Karen Lightbody and Donna Trowbridge officiated in the service and the young people occupied the choir loft and rendered two fine chorus in which Marilyn Irvine sang a solo part and Brian Parrish, Graham Lean and Garry Lean were heard in a trio. John Bond and Karl Dickinson assisted the ushers in their duties. Rev. G. M. Holmes conducted the meeting and was happy to announce the acceptance by Rev. W. T. Boadway of the call to the ministry of the church. Mr. Holmes then said that the church has three ministers, an interim pastor; a minister emeritus and minister - elect. He then called upon Rev. F. C. Reed the minister emeritus to offer a prayer of rededication to the great task of the church.

Sale extended 'til Saturday

Due to the repeating of Percy Houzer's ad yesterday which read "Final week of January Caper Sale", and which actually ended last week, Houzer's will continue to give sale prices 'til the end of this week to any customers who may have been confused.

No injures

Damages of approximately $85 was caused when cars driven by Gordon C. Everson of Oakwood and Robert F. Nicholls of Sunderland, came in contact with each other as they were passing on Highway No. 7, near Oakwood Tuesday afternoon.

Police say one of the cars slid into the nearby guard rails and there were no injuries.

OPP Const. Dean Elliott investigated.

run on a non-profit basis and will take young people from 14 to 18 years of age who have completed two years tuition.

"We don't see why it shouldn't prove a big success", he said, "as there is a great need at the present time for serious students to continue thier instruction througout the summer and we, the association feel this type of camp would be well suited for the purpose".

"Of course", he added, "we are still in what you might call the "experimental stage" and there will probably have to be more meetings, plans and changes made before we can get underway".

Friendly Club holds anniversary party

A delightful 25th anniversary party was enjoyed by the members of the Friendly Club of Lindsay.

With the husbands as special guests, the celebration began at the Bonfire Bar-B-Que where a delicious dinner was partaken of.

Thence to the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ferguson, Albert Street N. where Mr. Jasper Forman entertained the group with beautiful Kodachrome slides taken recently on a four week trip to England and the continent. These pictures included many of their daughter's wedding and many familiar and historic views of England including Coventry, where the new and modern Cathedral stands near the remaining shell of the former great edifice, destroyed by fire in World War two. Of interest were views taken in the tragic city of Berlin with the "Wall" topped by barbed wire and with sentries on guard.

Pictures taken from the plane on which Mr. and Mrs. Forman travelled at an altitude of about six miles were of interest and quite unique.

The lunch served by the hostess included a beautiful large birthday cake which the two charter members present had the honour of cutting. They were Mrs. J. Forman and Mrs. F. A. Reeds.

President, Mrs. H. Freeman expressed the feelings of all present as she moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Forman and to the host and hostess.

D. Bruce MacMillan

The Norland people learned with regret of the death in Edmonton of Duncan Bruce MacMillan.

Many of the older residents of Norland and vicinity will recall the family of Dan MacMillan, who had married Annie McKay, daughter of John McKay, hotel keeper of Argyle, in the late 1860's. They resided in Victoria County for some years, raising a family of eight, five sons and 3 daughters, when they moved to the Red Deer District, Alberta, taking up homestead land at Tees. The middle son, Bruce, farmed for a few years, and in 1914 joined the C.E.F. and served four years overseas accompanied by his brother Wallace.

Returning from World War I, he became interested in listening to parliamentary speeches, and finally, fired with an earnest interest in the speeches of Bennett and Alberhart, he was soon making speaches on his own, and taking active interest in government affairs especially the Social Credit, in which he became Minister of Agriculture and after eight years became Minister of Public Works. In the interval he suffered a bad coronary thrombosis which had weakened him, physically. Still, while affected by this, he both assisted in public work and from '55 to '58 became active on The Liquor Control Board. After 58, he suffered from ulcers and was unable to be very active, and he passed away on December 22, in the Edmonton hospital following an operation. With Honorable Ernest C. Manning and Rev. Robt. Morris, officiating the funeral took place to Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Edmonton. Several cabinet ministers were pallbearers.

Two daughters, both married, remain to mourn his loss; also his wife, formerly Margaret Steele of Teeswater, Ont; Brothers, Johnny, Douglas and Wallace and sisters Katie, Blanche and Lavina. One brother, Malcolm, the eldest predeceased him.

Open new consolidated school, former premier officiates

Gooderham (PNS) — With Hon. Leslie Frost M.P.P. officiating the ceremonies marking the opening of the Glamorgan Consolidated School took place on Friday evening. There was a large attendance of interested district citizens and school and government officials.

Mr. Frost cut the ribbon to declare the new school open and Trustee J. Pickens unveiled the plaque.

Presentation of the keys was made to trustee Wilbert Switzer, Fred MacDuff, custodian and Donald Brown, principal.

Mr. Allan Madill acted as chairman for the occasion and other speakers included Inspector Nelson Ward, Reeve W. Billings (Glanmorgan), Inspector Stouffer, MOH Dr. Harry Good, and W. R. Curry.

Several pictures of Queen Elizabeth II, Prince Philip, etc. were presented to the school by Mrs. Victoria Agnew and others. Mrs. J. E. Pickens, a secretary for several years was the recipient of a beautiful bouquet. Rev. T. Thompson gave the dedication and Rev. Van DerVeen led in prayer. The school choir were heard in several numbers under the direction of Music Supervisor J. Martin. Mrs. Lorne Hunter was given honourable mention for her services and interest in school affairs.

The teaching staff of Principal D. Brown, Mrs. Marjorie Madill, Miss Dianne Leavitt, were introduced and also trustees J. E. Pickens, W. Switzer, G. Graham, Mrs. Victoria Agnew, Mr. Ray Langston, Mrs. May Pickens.

Mrs. Allan Madill and Mrs. J. E. Pickens were in charge of pouring tea and coffee at the buffet luncheon which brought the evening to an enjoyable close.

Lindsay and area hardware people planning to attend Toronto show

Within two or three weeks Lindsay district residents will be able to add shish-kebabers, three-cornered waste-baskets and cordless clocks to their households; local gardeners will greet spring with higher powered lawnmowers that start more easily, sport exotic gardening gloves and Cape Code fencing they buy by the box. Danish plastic shuttlecocks, two-tone baseball gloves and chrome leather soccer balls will be seen on sports fields threabouts.

These are predictions of local hardware retailers who will purchase these and other hardware, housewares, outdoor sporting goods items during their four days at the annual Canadian Hardware Show in Toronto, February 4 to 7. Local hardware people who will do much of their purchasing on the show floor next week include; R. H. Gatward, Gordon G. Graham, A. Arnott, Maurice Arnott, G. E. Oke, Mrs. Helen Oke, Merton Avery, John Balfour, S. G. Parkin, Jim Pilkington, Geo. Hodgson, Lloyd O'Keefe, Claire O'Keefe and Ann Hodgson.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

DOCTORS UNDERSTAND BUT CANNOT CURE ALCOHOLISM

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Do doctors really understand the alcohol problem? Are they aware of the misery it causes? Sometimes I think all they are interested in is pneumonia, arteriosclerosis and other such diseases. Frankly, how do you medical men feel about it?--Mrs. D.

Comment: We are right in the middle of the battle every day, Mrs. D. We see the human derelicts and the suffering. No doctor I ever met has become hardened against the misery the bottle causes in shattered families and "lost lifetimes."

For an example of our deep interest in the problem of chronic alcoholism, let me quote from a letter by Dr. S., of New Jersey, Chief of the alcoholic service in a hospital there:

"We know darn well that the alcoholic is sick, and that one of the cardinal symptoms of his sickness is the dilution of his will power in a stream of alcohol. Asking such a man to stop drinking and come to his senses as we would like to see him do, is like asking a paralytic to do the twist.

"In my humble opinion, what we need, is a more dynamic and a more sympathetic approach to chronic alcoholism, as we so very well manifest to the leukemia, to the cancerous or to the paralytic. Though we do not know exactly what makes a person alcoholic, we do know that frustration and all kinds of pressures - - emanating through economical, social familiar emotional misadventures - - have a great deal to do with it. For many a person with a low grade of tolerance towards suffering it is so easy to slumber under the wings of alcohol.

"Until a breakthrough comes and it will come, I am sure (a great deal of research is under) let us treat the alcoholic as a human being who is really sick and disabled in no less degree than one afflicted with polio or mitral stenosis. Let us have patience with these patients. We must continue to try to understand their problem and come up with sincere practical advice and help."

OPERATIONS AND GOUT

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have had gout for the past 10 years. I was doing nicely until last year when I had to have two operations. Both times, within a day or two after the operation, I came down with a severe attack of gout. Is there any connection?--Mr. C.

Comment: For a long time we have known that operation precipitates an attack in some persons. Therefore, this is a good point for all patients with the gout to jot down. If you are going to have surgery, and have time to prepare for it be sure to notify your surgeon that you are a gout sufferer. Often these attacks can be averted if you take a few tablets of colchicine for several days before operation, and for about a week after the surgery.

For Mrs. T.: It is true that in some obese persons we find that the blood pressure reading may be "false high". This is especially true when we have difficulty wrapping the blood pressure cuff around a large arm. There are other more complicated measures, to determine the correct blood pressure. For example, an "intraarterial measurement" which takes the pressure reading directly from an artery.

Queen St. United elects new secretary, elders

The annual congregational meeting of the Queen Street United Church, Lindsay, was held in the Church Hall, Tuesday evening with the minister, Rev. Ben. Garrett, presiding and the assistant minister, Rev. Fred Lane, taking the devotional part of the meeting.

The resignation of Mrs. Mildred Found as Secretary of the congregation was accented with regret as Mrs. Found had filled this position very acceptably for years and Jasper Forman was elected to succeed her.

Tribute was paid to all departed members of the congregation who had passed on in 1962 including Robert Soence the Recording Steward of the official Board. Reports were presented by the followins:

Clifford J. Hawley, clerk of the session, showing 695 resident members and 1988 persons under the pastoral care of the church.

Clare Wilson, chairman of the Board of Stewards, who reported on the acquisation of the annex during the year and of its conversion to the many needs of the congregation.

Miss Joyce Paulsom, church treasurer reported receipts of $24,573.96 with disbursments of $24,569.68 and a balance of $4.28. Clare Wilson reporting for the chairman of the property committee, Mr. Walter Kennedy, showed expenses of $1,520.90 on church building, $411.21 on the manse and $2,039.19 on the annex as well as special donations of building material and money to assist with the annex.

Mervin Cook the absence of Mr. R. J. Mark, chairman of the finance committee presented a budget for 1963 showing estimated receipts of $24,250. and estimated disbursements of $24,500.00 and a possible deficit of $250.00.

Jasper Forman read the financial report of the board of trustees regarding the purchase of the Bevell Building & the consolidating of all debts with a new mortgage showing receipts and disbursements of $50,228.18.

Miss Joyce Paulsom read the report of the M. & M. Committee showing receipts and disbursements to Head Office of $3,478.26.

Rev. Ben Garrett gave a report of the activities of his work and of the congregation and ended by saying "Surely the Lord is in this Place".

Mrs. June Thurston read the report of the United Church Women and repeated as follows: membership 140, units 5, General Meetings 10, Receipts $5,164.00. Disbursement $4,569.36. Balance on Hand 594.64. value of used clothing forwarded to Head Office $537.58.

Ernest Eakins read the report of the couples club and reported 50 members with 10 meetings.

Mrs. Kathleen Harris read the report of the music committee and presented the 1963 budget of $1,465.00.

Richard Pinch read the report of the United Church Men which held regular monthly meetings and asked for a greater attendance in 1963.

John Davie read the report of the Christian Education Committee and reported: Sunday School enrolment 283; teachers and officers 32 with 3 superintendents. Ernie Eakins, Earl Thurston and Sam Brandsma: The Baby Band led by Mrs. Hugh Moore: The Messengers led by Mrs. Irene Henry. Mrs. Moiria March and Mrs. Ruth Wilson: Explorerers led by Mrs. Earl Thurston and Mrs. Ron Nugent: Cubs led by Grant Hart and Laurence Buckley: C.G.I.T. led by Mrs. Marquerite Murphy. Scout Doings

"Registrations"

Very few registrations have been received to date! They are due at Provincial Headquarters January 31. If your Group has not already done so, complete the registration form as required, and forward it and your cheque (payable to the "Boy Scouts of Canada") to Carroll Sergeant, 44 Angeline St. S., Lindsay, Ontario; without delay!!! Unregistered Sections run the risk of being uninsured!

"Boy Scout Week"

We suggested last week that as a project for 'Boy Scout Week', Scouters might encourage their Scouts to earn the "World Friendship" proficiency badge. Requirements (II for this badge is as follows: "(a) Have corresponded with an overseas or foreign Scout for not less than a year, writing and receiving replies to three letters: Or: (b) Have corresponded for at least one year, writing and receiving replies to two letters, and have camped with an overseas or foreign Scout for at least three days . . . "Your District Council can arrange contacts for your Scouts, through your National Scout H.Q. in Ottawa. Don't delay; in fact, why not have your Pack, Troop or Crew exchange correspondence with Packs, Troops and Crews in other lands. This is Scout Brotherhood in action!

Another suggestion . . . Have your Group campaign to collect (on a congregational or community basis) used stamps to be sent to the Boy Scout World Bureau, 77 Metcalfe St., Ottawa; where they will be sold and the proceeds used to help finance Scouting with the Handicapped around the World Bureau, 77 Metcalfe St., Ottawa; where they will be sold and the proceeds used to help finance Scouting with the Handicapped around the World. Here's one activity in which everybody, including parents, can share.

"Rovers"

Registration has been received for 12 Rover Scouts with Garry Curtin acting as Rover Mate. These boys are in the process of 'revitalizing' the 'Crew' and would welcome any and all newcomers. To be a 'Rover' a boy must not be less than 16 nor older than 20.

"Equal benefits for all ratepayers"

Beaverton, Jan. 26, 1963.

The People Write,
The Lindsay Post.

An open letter to the Thorah Twp. Council and to the ratepayers Re Thorah Twp. School Area Board.

Referring to December 13 issue of the Beaverton Express Mr. George Hawtin and Mr. Archie Fox waited on Council to ask their opinion re school bus problems, which they claimed they were encountering. I presume the children discussed were my own six little grandchildren, and as far as I can see, Mr. Hawtin's biggest problem is trying to arrange the route, so as to miss six innocent little children.

I think I am safe in saying the ratepayers did not ask for a new school or school buses, that was the school board's idea. If the children had been left in their old schools, they would still be getting there, with no complaints. Did the Board just intend to pick up some of the children at their gates while some others were going to have to walk a mile, some less?

A petition to the Board to have all the children picked up at their residence or gateway was taken out among the ratepayers. The majority of the ratepayers signed the petition, and this is where the strenuous objections came in, on the part of the school board, and not the two ratepayers as put before the council. It seems to me there is prejudice on the part of the School Board over that petition and that is why they refuse to pick the children up. The school bus on the sideroad and 6th Concession back-tracks three miles, twice a day to pick up five children where, with the same mileage and no turning, they could pick up eleven.

Now, I am aware the Council pays the shot, with the ratepayers' money. Is it not of interest to the council and the ratepayers to see that all the children are picked up so they can collect the grants. This is five months here, no grant on these six children. These children have not been in school since Christmas, they cannot be let freeze standing on a corner. Are there no human rights in this community? Is this what they call democracy? If so I think we'd be wise to let the Russians take over. The ratepayers surely have a right to voice their opinion without being trampled under.

All that the parents of these children are asking for is equal benefits for all ratepayers. Give the people what they pay for.

Signed by a ratepayer of Thorah and Eldon Twps.

Mrs. Peter Smith.

About the Arsenal closure

R.R. 2 Cameron,
January 26, 1963

To the Editor,
Lindsay Daily Post.
Dear Sir:

I hope you will publish this letter, which I think will give the people some idea of the consequences of the arsenal closure.

We have heard and read so many statements as regards the arsenal closure and what the workers are doing, that I believe it is time the people of Lindsay and district were told about the plant and workers in general.

The Lindsay arsenal had contracts ahead of them for two years when the closure was ordered and the articles they were manufacturing will be used for a considerable number of years to come. Of course there would be certain modifications on these articles from time to time as there has been in the past.

These contracts I speak of are naturally being handed to D. A. Quebec and Small Arms, Toronto, to be manufactured, so you will see the articles being made were not obsolete as was stated so often and the machines they were being manufactured on were the finest that could be procured. I would say the plant equipment was second to none in the Dominion of Canada, the proof of the fact is this! The D. A. Quebec, Small Arms, Filling Explosives, and Electronics have the machines tagged to be shipped to their respective plants. In fact there are as many as three tags on some equipment so if these plants are actually scrambling for this equipment, it cannot be so obsolete. Some of the equipment is dismantled and ready for shipment as of now.

Does it not seem logical that before the plant is closed and so much more money in wages and payment for services is lost to the town of Lindsay, that it would have been far better to have industry lined up to take over the building or part of the building to suit their needs, instead of closing the plant and stripping it to the walls?

The workers feel that the pressure has been brought to bear on the Hon. Raymond O'Hurley, Minister of Defense Production by the Lindsay Investment group and our Industrial Commission through our incumbent M.P. which seems to be borne out in fact. So, if the Arsenal Buildings and grounds comprising some 90 acres are taken over by a private group, this group, do naturally stand to profit handsomely and do so at the arsenal workers misfortune.

When you look at the human side of the closure it is going to cause a lot of hardship to the majority of the arsenal workers as there are so many who have put 15 to 24 years in the plant and they are too young to die, and too old to get a job. There are also many of them that have their homes partly paid for.

When a person looks back a few years it makes one realize what short memories the people of Lindsay and district have. I refer to the amount of money that was and has been spent in Lindsay by the arsenal workers.

The Lindsay arsenal must always turn the profit they make back to the government and there has been some considerable profits turned back over the years. For instance, if the Lindsay arsenal had been able to deposit in the bank the profits made since 1948 to the present time this arsenal would have been able to operate for the next 20 years, yes! 25 years without having had to make any profit during that 25 years and it would have still stayed on the black side of the ledger.

The Lindsay arsenal was restricted considerably because they were only able to tender on certain items and the overhead that must be added to cost was dictated by the government, but they were still able to underbid private companies on some articles by a considerable margin and still show a profit.

The statement that the arsenal could underbid a private company and then be subsidized by the government for the loss incurred, is a downright falsehood.

Also the idea that the arsenal pays too high a wage for other firms to compete with is far from the truth. Where the wage structure for this district is checked it will be found that the wages paid to the arsenal workers are less in the majority of cases than that paid to workers in other industries.

Thanking you, I remain,
Sincerely,
An arsenal worker
and a taxpayer.

Burnt River (PNS) — One of the Tri-County Hockey League teams namely Burnt River is certainly making a name for itself.

When the team played Fenelon Falls, Goalie Ron Campbell held them to a tie of 5-5, then the team scored a walk-over by defeating Woodville 17-6.

Last Saturday night they tied for first place in the league by defeating Coboconk 7-4.

Comfortable viewing at Oakwood

People going to Oakwood's skating rink these cold winter nights as spectators don't need to suffer any discomfort. Chairman of the rink renovation committee, Lloyd Graham, (seen in the background of the upper picture) and his co-workers have seen to that by providing a warm spectators' gallery over the dressing rooms. The chairs, incidently, used to command a good price as reserve seats at Lindsay Central Exhibition before the new grandstand was built. Several thousand dollars have been raised by the rink committee to provide a central heating system and make other structural improvements. From this gallery, the parents of youngsters like the happy trio below can sit in comfort and watch the fun.

HEAD FIELD

Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and veteran Sam Snead head the field for the Marathon Palm Springs Golf classic in California. The 115-thousand dollar event tees off today for five-days and 90 holes. Each pro will play with three amateur partners the first 72-holes. The golfers will compete on a different course each day. Jack Nicklaus, who dropped out of the tourney at San Francisco last weekend because of bursitis, will compete at Palm Springs.

ONE CONTEST

Detroit visits New York in the lone National Hockery League contest tonight. Chicago holds a two-point advantage over Toronto and Montreal in the tight race. The loop was idle last night.

BATTLE FOR FIRST

Quebec plays at Hershey in a battle for first place in the American Hockey League's Eastern Division tonight. The winner will tie front runner Providence. In another contest, Springfield visits Pittsburgh. Last night, Baltimore shaded Springfield, 5-3.

COOPERATING WITH INVESTIGATORS

National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle says his league is cooperating with U-S Senate investigators in their sports gambling probe. Rozelle refused to discuss any "specific cases," but he admits his office is cooperating with the McLellan Committee, which currently is investigating in San Francisco. At the opening of the three-day meeting in Miami Beach, the league announced that last season it went over the four-million mark in attendance for the first time in its 42-year history.

CAN PICK UP SOME MONEY

Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston can pick up some of the money he earned in last September's title fight at Chicago. The government will release 160-thousand dollars—and Sonny can take 85-thousand of it. The other 75-thousand dollars will be placed in escrow to guarantee Liston's return fight with former champion Floyd Patterson at Miami Beach on April 4th.

ANOTHER VETERAN

Ageless Sugar Ray Robinson—now 42 years old—takes on another veteran campaigner—Ralph Dupas—in a 10-round middleweight bout at Miami Beach tonight. Dupas is the slight choice to whip Robinson, who has been champion six times and says he's headed for a seventh title.

FLOORS McNEELEY

England's Brian London floored Tom McNeeley for a seven-count in the fourth round and went on to outpoint the Arlington, Massachusetts, heavyweight at London last night. It was a rough bout with both fighters warned repeatedly for low blows, butting and elbowing. Both London and McNeeley were knocked victims of former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Lorne O. Snoddon

The life of a widely known citizen came to a sudden and unexpected close near midnight, January 20th, 1963, when in his 60th year, Lorne Oswald Snoddon suffered a severe heart attack at his home in Valentia, following a pleasant afternoon and evening among his friends.

The deceased was the son of William J. Snoddon and Eliza Snooks. He was born in Georgina township Shiloh and moved with his to Pinedale in 1918. He married Marion Elizabeth Johnson in that year and they farmed for a number of years, their three children Bob, Ross and Helen were born at Pinedale. In the year 1939 they moved to Epsom and lived there till 1948, moving to Valentia onto the farm of the late John A. Swain. The late Mr. Snoddon was a member of the Valentia United Church and a Sunday school class of young men. He was always a good neighbor ever ready to lend a helping hand where ever he could, he enjoyed entertaining in his home and visiting friends and neighbors, and always had a welcome word for the stranger and a cheery greeting for every one. He took a keen interest in sports and for five years he was manager of the Valentia ball club and was quite interested when the boys won the trophy during this term, which was presented to the team. He was quite active in the Oakwood curling club and was past president having to give up curling owing to his illness. The past few years he was the Ontario County Salesman for the Holstein Association during this time he exported cattle to the U.S.A. Mr. Snoddon was a charter member of the Blackwater Hunt Club and a member of Masonic Lodge at Uxbridge Jeredatha No. 220.

The funeral service from the Mackey Funeral Home, Lindsay, on Tuesday January 22nd, conducted by Rev. W. Brignall of Oakwood, owing to the illness of his minister Rev. Armitage who brought words of comfort to the bereaved.

Those who mourn the loss of a dearly loved husband and father are his wife Marion, two sons Robert and Ross, of Valentia, one daughter Helen (Mrs. Gerald Tamblyn) of Barrie, two brothers Erwin and Chester of Sunderland, three sisters Myrtle (Mrs. Stanley Will), Hazel (Mrs. Oscar Gorrell) of Sunderland, and Clare (Mrs. Gerald Hankinson) of Markham, one brother, John of Belleville, predeceased, and seven grandchildren, and one predeceased.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful and bore the esteem of which the deceased was held, and brought there own sweet messages of comfort, and there were several donotions to the Ontario Heart Foundation.

Interment was made at the family plot at the Lakeside cemetery, Valentia. The pallbearers were Bill Mark, Mairice Crowder, Clarence Fairmen, Elmer Fairman, Dr. Mac Johnson, Gordon Smith.

The late Mr. Snoddon's life was likened to the words in the poem of John Oxenham.

'Lord when Thou seest that my work is done, Let me not linger on with failing powers,
A' down the weary hours, a work-less worker in the world of work.
But with a word, just bid me home.
And I will come right gladly, Yes, I will come".

Pot Shots

By Fenwick Finch!

This is going to be a poor week. You may have thought the preceeding weeks were poor, but this is it!

Every year about this time I suffer from "Logus of the Bogus" or in layman's terms — no matter what I'm doing I say — "To heck with is" and take a few days off. This I have done.

When you read this I'll be down around the "Finger Lakes Area" watching them enjoy winter. We'll work in a little business too.

See you next week — I'll tell you more then.

Sincerely yours,
Fenwick.

"MISGUIDED MAN"

British Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys has denounced French President De Gaulle as a "misguided man" for blocking Britain's entry into the Common Market yesterday. After returning home from the Brussels talks, Sandys angrily told newsmen that De Gaulle seems to think, "France is Europe and he is France." Prime Minister Macmillan plans to appeal to his fellow countrymen for a United British front in a nationwide radio-television broadcast.

FULL APPROVAL

The French government announced its full approval of De Gaulle's action in breaking off the market talks. It did so during a three-hour cabinet meeting at which both De Gaulle and Foreign Minister Couve De Murville contained the reasons for vetoing Britain's bid. A government spokesman said as far as France is concerned, the negotiations with Britain are not broken off for good, but only "suspended."

COMES AS RESULT OF LOYALTY

Prime Minister Diefenbaker says that Britain's failure to obtain membership in the European Common Market came as a result of her loyalty to the commonwealth. Diefenbaker told newsmen this morning that Britain could have gained entry on the basis of the Treaty of Rome, but that she took a stand which would not sacrifice her Commonwealth ties.

GOVERNMENT CONTINUES

The minority government of Prime Minister Diefenbaker continues today to push department estimates through the House of Commons . . . backed by the precarious support of the Social Credit Party. House Leader Gordon Churchill says Labor Department estimates will be introduced today.

POLICY INFLUENCED

Liberal Leader Lester Pearson has scoffed at Prime Minister Diefenbaker's charges that his—Pearson's—nuclear policy is influenced by Washington. Speaking on a television program last night, Pearson added that Canada should either play her part in the Nato Alliance or get out.

WILL REPORT TO COUNCIL

Vancouver Mayor William Rathie says he will report to the City Council today on the situation of some 800 Freedomite Doukhobors who invaded the west coast city two weeks ago. He added that he will not accept the Doukhobors on City relief rolls.

Kinsmen contribute to Arena renovations

The Lindsay Kinsmen Club is investing $2,350 towards renovating the Lindsay Kiwanis Arena. President Jim Pilkington announced this week that the club had let a contract for this amount to Finney Lumber Ltd. for renovating the third floor of the building. The room will be named after the club and made available to many organizations including Teen Town and the Lindsay Kinsmen Band as well as other groups needing a meeting place. The upper picture shows a section of the revamped arena and its new entrance; below workmen commence stripping the main 29 x 42 room but two halls at either side of the building will also be remodelled, one, 5 x 20 and another 5x23. The program will include installation of a kitchen at the west end, in an area to be provided by removal of the damaged wall towards which Mr. Pilkington points in the bottom picture. It will be complete with a serving counter opening onto the main room. New doors, ceiling and floor coverings, window sash and cabinets will be included in the work.

14 attend IODE meeting

The regular monthly meeting of James Wallis Chapter, I.O.D.E. Fenelon Falls was held with 14 members present. The regent presided. The meeting opened with the Prayer of the Order and placing of the flag. Mrs. Jack Barrett assisted at the piano.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Correspondence from headquarters was read. Membership secretary, Mrs. Robt. Handley announced 1 member Mrs. Murray Webster had perfect attendance in 1962. Education secretary Mrs. J. Baker read thank-you letters for bursaries received from Peter Gillis, winner of Grade 10 Canadian History award and Sharon Mitchell, winner of Grade 12 English award.

The Nominating Committee took balance of meeting over.

Lunch was served by committee.

JUDICIAL SALE of part of lot 20, Cameron Street, Cannington, Ontario. Supreme Court of Ontario, Monico vs. Monico.

Pursuant to the judgement herein there will be offered for sale by public auction in one parcel with the approbation of the undersigned Master by Orval McLean, Auctioneer, at the Town Hall, on Laidlaw Street in the village of Cannington, at the hour of 2.00 o'clock in the afternoon on Wednesday, the 13th day of February, 1963, the following lands and premises consisting of about 12½ acres, known as part of lot 20, Cameron Street, Cannington, Ontario, more particularly described in deeds registered in the Registry Office for the Township of Brock at Whitby, Ontario, as Nos. 3461 and 3385, excepting thereout the lands described in a deed registered in the said Registry Office as No. 76006.

The property will be offered for sale, subject to a reserve bid fixed by the said Master. The purchaser shall pay down to the vendor's solicitor on the day of sale 10% of the purchase price and shall pay the balance of the purchase money into Court without interest within thirty days after the date of sale. Adjustments to be made as of the date of closing. The purchaser shall search the title at his own expense. The parties shall have the right to bid at the sale. In all other respects the conditions of the sale are the standing conditions of the sale of the Court as modified by the conditions of sale settled by the undersigned.

On the premises is said to be erected a ten roomed brick dwelling house and a small barn.

Further particulars and conditions of sale may be had from J. Arnold Shapiro, Q.C., 21 Dundas Square, Toronto.

Dated at Toronto this 17th day of January, 1963

"D. W. Rose"
Master.

Arsenal delegation told:

Will take definite steps to re-locate employees

NOTICED... along the way

For the first time since the Canadian National Railway Station was opened at Lindsay under former Grand Trunk management, its communication system is cut. Final step in severing direct connections between the station and the outside world came when the Bell Telephone disconnected its service. (See man on roof near ladder). The move is in preparation for the dismantling of the building which was scheduled to have got underway before now. Actually, telephone users will notice no difference — they can still get through on the line listed for the CNR Station but the line has been switched over to ring it at the small express office just west of the station.

Still in the vein of things disappearing from the Lindsay scene . . . Another machinery consignment from the Canadian Arsenals Ltd. plant here moved out by motor transport just as the day shift left for home. Looking anything but obsolete, the heavy unit was in spic and span condition as it took off for service in the Quebec branch of Canadian Arsenals Ltd. Someone had pinned a printed cardboard sign to the machine which was still there when it took to the open road. The sign read: "Vote for Clayt and get the gate". It was done in crayon on a sheet of cardboard.

"Arms and the Man" received with open arms

Lindsay theatre goers were treated last night to a once-in-a-life-time adventure in comedy.

"Arms And The Man" George Bernard Shaw's great comedy about war and marriage, played to a packed house at the Academy Theatre.

There wasn't even standing room by 8 p.m. as the show got underway, and the audience showed its appreciation of fine entertainment with prolonged applause at the end of each act.

Norman Ettlinger, a young Englishman, now in his first season with the Canadian Players, literally "brought down the house" in his portrayal of Bluntschli, timing his barbs to a fine degree.

The other players, all seasoned actors with experience in many fields of acting, gave Mr. Ettlinger full support and the play seemed to carry through without a hitch with its crispness.

The scenery, though slightly subdued, was ingenious, and the costumes were lavish.

Speaking to company manager Mark Furness, "The Post" was able to get a rundown on the remarkable experience of these fine players.

In their 11th week of the season - which runs for about 22 weeks - the play "Arms And The Man" has played to full houses wherever it has been.

The Canadian Players through assistance from the Canada Council, the public and sponsors from coast to coast, has been enjoyed throughout Canada and the United States as they performed consistently for longer than any other touring theatre company in Canada.

Mr. Furness, no newcomer

Plant's sale, new industry being sought

"It is definite that immediate steps will be taken to relocate over 100 Lindsay arsenal employees to be thrown out of work on the plant's scheduled closure March 31st". This was the good news which Labor Council President Malcolm Stevens brought home from Ottawa last night. Mr. Stevens had accompanied a Lindsay delegation which met with government heads to protest the plant's closure and pointed out its effect on the community. "The trip was successful", he said.

Labor Minister Starr told the delegation that within the next week or two a representative from his office will come to Lindsay and sit down in committee with United Steel Worker's Canadian Research Director Harry J. Waisglass and officials of the town, the Lindsay and District Labor Council, the Chamber of Commerce, etc., to look into the age groups of arsenal employees to be affected by the shutdown. Then a training program will be planned to help re-locate those laid off. The committee and government agencies will work together to encourage new industries to come to town in order to find new jobs for displaced workers.

Clayton W. Hodgson, M.P., and Defence Production Minister O'Hurley with Labor Minister Starr were the three government officials who met with the Lindsay delegation at 12.30 p.m. Wednesday.

The local delegation besides Mr. Stevens, comprised USWA Vice-President Frank Coulson, USWA Treasurer Jack Williams, USWA area representative William Powell, President Jesse Short of USWA

Reeve Found to tangle lines with McGillen on ice fishing issue

Reeve Lloyd Found of Lindsay is going to go to bat for ice fishing in Victoria County.

Although the reeve won't be acting in an official capacity for either Lindsay or Victoria County, he will take sides in favor of ice fishing in the county in a television debate next Tuesday night. He will be tangling lines with outdoors writer Peter McGillen on the program "Topic" over CHEX-TV at 10.30 p.m.

Mr. Found says he has had a lot of people approach him on the subject and so far no one has been able to show him any valid reason why ice fishing shouldn't be permitted in Victoria. "Tests", he said, "have shown there are lots of fish. Some of those who are opposed say it would harm the muskie population. I submit that if fishermen will throw muskie back in June (when

EDITORIAL....

THEY CAN'T SEE THE SENSE OF THE ARRANGEMENT . . .

An ice-fishing enthusiast can go up to the imaginary line which separates Victoria County from Haliburton, step over into Haliburton, chop a hole in the ice and fish to his heart's content. If he were to chop the hole in the Victoria side of the line, he would be breaking the law. Ice fishermen in these parts say they can't see the sense of the arrangement because some of these lakes are just a good stone's throw across the boundary from each other.

Ice fishing has become an important industry and sport in areas adjacent to Victoria County. Just a few miles to the west Lake Simcoe district people reap a big harvest every year from the followers of the sport and marketing the catches. Places which would ordinarily do little or nothing during the winter months are now doing a thriving business. Why shouldn't Victoria County participate in the ice fishing bonanza.

Those in this county who would like to do their ice fishing in county waters feel they are being discriminated against. Is there any evidence to the contrary? Why shouldn't they be allowed to fish their own waters, subject to the usual departmental regulations governing catches, etc.? So far, no satisfying answer to this question has yet reached their ears. Why not either come up with one or declare the ice-covered lakes in the area open for fishing?

Remember way back when

JANUARY 31, 1913

Minden–Mr. James Austen, of Hinton Township has again shown his prowess as a hunter by last week killing an exceedingly large wolf. In order to have an application made for the government bounty, he brought the pelt to the Echo office and although frozen it measured from nose to tip of tail, five feet two inches and if thawn would probably have measured more. It was certainly a dandy.

Poultry Men Seek Grant

A deputation from the Lindsay Poultry Association composed of Messrs. D. C. Trew, Thos. Trotter, and Geo. A. Jordan waited on the county council on Thursday. Mr. Trew said the association needed the grant. The government approved of the show which was of great benefit to all. The matter will be considered at the next meeting of the Finance Committee.

JANUARY 31, 1938

The Band Concert at the Academy was very well attended; with shiny instruments and neat uniforms the Boys' Band looked very smart. The concert was opened by his worship Mayor Claxton, in a few well chosen words eulogized on the good work being done by the Boys' Band Association for the youth of the town, at present giving instruction to about 40 boys at a very nominal fee; furnishing instruments, music and the instructor. After the above remarks the Mayor then introduced the Bandmaster, Mr. Percie C. Cox. This being the first concert of a series and the first appearance of Mr. Cox in a concert such as this, the Mayor wished both Mr. Cox and the Band every success.

Reports and Remarks..

LIGHTWEIGHT PARK CHAIRS

Chairs in Britain's Royal Parks are likely to have a new look this year. The slatted wooden chairs, familiar since Victorian days, may be replaced by easily-handled quarter-of-the-weight tubular chairs with glass fibre backs and seats.

The unique feature is that the chairs will be manufactured by handicapped people, while in the parks themselves the chair attendants will also be handicapped.

In order to employ handicapped people in the manufacture and handling of these chairs it has become necessary to have special designs prepared for economic production and with a view also to easier handling in the parks.

This problem is being vigorously tackled by a charity organization called Employment for the Handicapped. The brain behind the design of these chairs — and incidentally based on an advanced method of systems analysis which relates primary design to final production — is a former 25-year-service BOAC maintenance engineer. He is Mr. E. H. Robinson, who laid the foundation of the classification system of maintenance work now recognized throughout Britain's aircraft industry.

Thinks "Sincere Critic" erred

R.R. 1 Reaboro,
January 29, 1963.

The Editor,
Lindsay Daily Post.
Dear sir:

Approximately two years ago the following appeared in your paper:

Lindsay, March 20th
The People Write,
Lindsay Daily Post.
Dear Sir:

There has been much said regarding the recent public speaking contest, and the unsatisfactory judging.

I think the remedy is for us to be realistic and face the facts. Compare the town schools and rural schools on the basis of teaching standards and pupil ability and you will have to admit town schools are on top. Questions from educational leaders prove this point.

Therefore I don't think the judges, no matter how incompetent, could possibly make a mistake. Common sense would force them to select a town pupil over a rural one as a rural pupil couldn't possibly surpass his urban opponent.

Rural students have been lucky to get to the place where they are allowed to compete with urban students but they must know they haven't a chance. Even organizers of the music festival recognize this fact.

Instead of weeping wailing it might be wise to make the children aware of their limitations and place. Rural students might be better off if they compete within their own area.

"A Sincere Critic".

At the time this appeared in your paper I challenged this "Sincere Critic" re his snide remarks pointing out to him or her that the town of Lindsay boasts of more civic leaders that were one time "rural students" than town pupils.

Commencement in the Collegiate on Friday evening again attests to the fact the rural students can hold their own with any urban student. The students themselves, both urban and rural showed the "Critic" they are not in doubt to another's worth when they elected Carl Moone, a rural student, their valedictorian.

Carl not only was given this great honor but he also brought honor to the collegiate and to the teachers by winning the Athel Flavelle Scholarship and the Hon. Leslie M. Frost prize in biology. Incidently Carl was one of the contestants in the public speaking contest that fired a "Sincere Critic" to write what sounded like a segregationalist's bleatings.

Once again I say it takes the salt of the earth, not of the pavements, to head a town, city or country. All honor to all students regardless of birth or abode. May the "Sincere Critic" back down on his remarks like a true Canadian.

M. E. Ingram.

P.S. The pupils of this rural school has for years taken many prizes in the Musical Festivals so you see the organizers certainly do not hold the views of the "Sincere Critic".

M. E. I.

40 present for January meet

The chapter meeting of the Women of the Moose was held with 40 co-workers present. The meeting opened in due form with Senior Regent Joyce Townsend presiding.

The business period followed. The minutes from the previous meeting and the reports from standing committees were read and approved. The Women's Chapter made plans to help the Men's Lodge with their annual potluck supper. The bursary, provided by the academy of friendship will be presented at the commencement by co-workers Helen McFadyen. The college of Regents sent their annual donation to the House of God at Mooseheart.

The meeting closed in due form.

At this time the variety sale sponsored by the hospital committee took place. Collegian Mary Cragg was the able auctioneer for a variety of baking and other articles. The bidding was lively for the many and varied articles.

A social time was spent over a cup of tea and lunch concluding the evening.

UNUSUAL HOUSE PLANTS FROM FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Many of the fruit and vegetables that are used in the kitchen can be adapted to pot culture. Although they will produce no flowers, their foliage is extremely attractive. Here are a few tips from horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, on which types to use and how to cultivate them:

When you buy an avocado pear, save the large seed and plant pointed side up, two thirds covered, in a sandy potting mixture. The container should be an inch or more larger in diameter than the seed: a 4 inch pot will usually do. Keep the soil moist until the first leaves appear, which may take from three weeks to three months.

Pineapples make another attractive foliage plant. Cut the crown of leaves off at the junction of fruit and leaf bases. Root the top in an open coarse mixture of gritty sand and peat moss; ensure that there is good drainage. When rooted, pot up in a rich sandy mixture.

Other seeds which are easy to grow include dried bean seed, peach pits, and seeds of apples and pears. Not only do these grow into attractive foliage plants, they also provide educational value for children.

Sterilizing Jars

Most of us have been taught to sterilize jars and jelly glasses and bottles by boiling. An easier method is to wash, rinse and drain the containers, then put them into a cold oven and set at 250 degrees. Sterilize them at this temperature for 10 minutes, turn off the gas, and leave the containers in the oven until you need them. They will stay hot for a long time.

Meat Pie

Your gravy will not soak through the lower crust of your meat pie if the white of an egg is brushed over the crust.

HOW CAN I ? ? ?
By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I fix wood screws firmly into plastered walls?

A. Ordinary hexagonal lead pencils serve very well in a pinch as expansion plugs. Simply cut a pencil into ¾-inch sections and push the lead out of these sections. Drill holes into the plastered wall to make a snug fit for these pencil lengths. Then drive in your screws, which will split and expand the wood for firm settings.

Q. How can I make a temporary repair to a cracked windowglass?

A. One usually effective temporary repair can be effected with cellulose tape. Remember, though, this is just a temporary repair, and your glass should be replaced at your earliest convenience.

Because of road conditions Mr. Charles Walters rural mail carrier for Route No. 1, was unable to complete his route.

Hearty congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Giles who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Although present newcomers to Oakwood, both Mr. and Mrs. Giles were brought up in the Oakwood community.

CREAMY COFFEE AND PROTEIN FOODS START THE DAY OFF RIGHT

Begin cold winter days with a hearty breakfast including plenty of protein and a big pot of steaming, fragrant coffee. A supply of convenient, versatile evaporated milk will allow family members to enjoy their wake-up coffee, creamed to perfection with a minimum of expense and trouble. The home economists at Carnation Milk Company Limited suggest an invigorating breakfast featuring zesty Egg Scramble and cups of piping hot coffee with double-rich evaporated milk.

EGG SCRAMBLE
(Makes 4 servings)

1/3 cup butter or margarine
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 medium green pepper, diced
1 medium onion, chopped
1 small tomato, diced
8 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup small can undiluted evaporated milk
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Melt butter. Add garlic, green pepper, onion and tomato. Cook over low heat 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Combine remaining ingredients; mix well. Stir egg mixture into tomato mixture. Cook over low heat, stirring frequently, until eggs are set.

Magistrate questions delay in preferring charge

Remarking that it seemed strange the Unemployment Insurance Commission should wait three months to lay a charge after receiving full compensation for overpayment from the accused, Magistrate R. I. Moore this week reduced a fine against a Lindsay man from $25 (the minimum) to $10. The defendant told the magistrate that he was without work owing to a broken hip, and was not collecting any insurance.

The U.I.C. investigator told the court that Howard Billings had made false statements to the commission in the spring of 1961 and had collected $125 while employed.

Restitution for the full amount had been made October 18, 1962, three months before action was brought against the accused, said the officer.

"Why would the commission take the money and then wait three months before laying charges?" questioned the magistrate.

The officer explained that various procedures between Ottawa, Toronto, and the Lindsay office had to be followed before final charges could be established.

"Their procedure seems to be a trifle unusual" added his worship.

Tests and testing procedure outlined at Winter Workshop

In spite of extremely cold weather many teachers from Lindsay and area braved the elements to attend the third session of the Winter Workshop held in Central School Auditorium. After introductory remarks etcetera Miss Ruth White handed the meeting and introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Howard Moebus Co-ordinator of Guidance Services, Peterborough Board of Education.

During the first half of the session, Mr. Moebus, in a careful, thorough manner, spoke on "Tests and Testing in the Elementary Schools". He stated that the tests should be administered correctly after which the results should be used (1) to help the student improve his work and work habits; (2) to select a suitable course in Secondary School; (3) to improve the teacher's teaching. He explained that diagnostic tests were used to determine the weaknesses and strengths of a pupil in a particular subject while intelligence tests would help to determine the pupil's ability to solve written problems. Reading tests, as well as being diagnostic in type, will show at what level the student is reading, he declared.

During the second half of the session the teachers learned how to administer a Group Test by having one administered to them which they then wrote and marked themselves. (The results brought mixed reactions!) Those people connected with the Workshop are sincerely grateful to Miss Lorna Corneil of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute Guidance Staff who administered the test to one division of the teachers.

Mr. R. C. Barrett, inspector of public schools, thanked the guest speaker, Mr. Moebus. Mr. Barrett stated that it was indeed a pleasure to thank such a well-informed speaker. The staff of Victoria Public School served coffee, date squares and brownies in the refreshment period to bring another profitable workshop to a close.

to the theatre, was born in England and was for many years, before coming to Canada seven years ago, connected with various theatre groups, rep. companies - - The Windmill and others. This is his first season with the Players.

Two of the players in last night's performance are married, he said. Mrs. Bennett, who played the part of Catherine, a native of England, with over 20 years acting experience to her credit, came to Canada about nine years ago, is now living in Toronto with her husband and three children and is quite active with the C.B.C. The other married player, Howard Mawson, is Toronto-born and is also active with the C.B.C. He was for a number of years with the Canadian Opera Co., and a player in Gilbert and Sullivan, at Stradford.

This is his first year with the Canadian Players.

Miss Patricia Farmer, originally from Hamilton, is well known to Toronto theatre goers, working consistantly with the C.B.C., the Crest, and other theatre groups. She resides in Toronto and this is also her first year with the group. Mary Benning, who played the maid, is also a former English actress, has travelled throughout the Isles and beyond, even to Kenya to perform.

The only American in the group, Jon Adams - Nicola the servant is an old hand, having travelled the length and breadth of United States with summer stock, little theatres, etc.

Larry Cherniak, his first part and his first season with the Players is a Toronto boy. MORE

Jack Medley - Sergius - was formerly with the English theatre before coming to Toronto seven years ago, and is now very active with the C.B.C.

Director Tony van Bridge told "The Post" he was "very pleased with the turnout".

"It is a pleasure to see the audience applaud as they did tonight", he said, "it has been greatly appreciated by the whole group.

"The acoustics in this theatre are remarkable" he added.

Mr. Furness said the company had been well received at every place they had played and in Ottawa, had played to a full house for three nights, later being guests at a reception at the Governors House.

Exhibition stock barn closure surprise to Fair Board

Hopeful Health Bd. would re-consider if new coliseum not available

The posting of notices on our livestock barns in the late fall declaring them closed, was a surprise to us", stated Manager Newton G. Wilson of the Lindsay Central Exhibition. "Nobody ever talked to us about this and although the matter was mentioned at the board meeting, we didn't explore it. I suppose the Board of Health will come through in the fall if we are stuck in event of the proposed new coliseum not being available for show stock", he added.

With the sanction of the exhibition board meeting next Wednesday, specific details as to plans and price of the proposed new coliseum for the Lindsay Central Exhibition grounds will be sent to both federal and provincial governments, Mr. Wilson disclosed.

"We have to know where we stand in regard to special grants which both governments have indicated will be forthcoming to aid in the $200,000 project for needed livestock accomodation", Mr. Wilson stated, explaining the board can only assume a certain responsibility.

The board has been advised by both the Ross Memorial Hospital Board and the Lindsay Health Board that the present livestock barns are a fire hazard and health menace.

Their situation in the southern portion of the fair grounds, close to the new hospital extension was given as reason for the complaints.

The new building under one roof is proposed for the northwestern section of the ground. With stone-away stalls it could be used for many community activities is the thought in mind, Mr. Wilson pointed out.

Ten Lindsay men bolster Tri-County Independents

Ten Lindsay men are donning skates to bolster up different segments of the Tri-County Independent League, started on the 1963 schedule the first week in January.

The league entries and captains are: Oakwood (Murray Squires); Burnt River (Ron Campbell); Woodville (Jim Veale); Fenelon Falls (Claude Rodgers); Kinmount (Earl Hartin); Cambray (Gordon Ferguson); Coboconk (Bernie Rochio).

Orville McLean, the Midtown Skate and Furniture man is playing goalie for Oakwood. After a lapse of 15 years, he is finding the game rather strenuous but has decided to relinquish curling in its favor, he confided. The Jenkins' Construction Co. has contributed brothers Garnet and Jerry as Oakwood defencemen and Western's Auto Service, another promising defenceman, Keith Montgomery. Ronnie Jewell as forward and Johnny Horton, left winger are also making a contribution to the Oakwood team. Latest news is Austin Trent has decided to come back, to bolster the Oakwood forwards.

Vaughan Pogue and Paul Presley are Lindsay's contribution to the Fenelon Falls team. Jack Spratt and Ace Williams have cast their lot with the Cambray players.

All are relieved to hear Captain Jim Veale verify his team is remaining in the league. When they didn't show up for the Cambray game on the 21st he fear was held they had withdrawn. But the explanation was simply that the new schedule had not come to hand and "we were unaware of the game".

League President Garnet Graham of Fenelon Falls, is this year presenting a cup for League winners.

local 5805. Vice President Wm. Dodds of the Canadian Labor Congress and Harry Waisglass USWA research director who acted as spokesman for the group. Councillor Joseph Hutton representing the town, was unable to go.

A delegation brief urged that the close of the government-owned plant be delayed by utilizing the present staff in cleaning up operations, that three months severance pay be granted the hourly-rated employees in the same manner as that which is allowed the administrative staff. Discussion was held in which it was mentioned perhaps something could be done for arsenal employees nearing the pension age.

Mr. Hodgson, Mr. O'Hurley and Mr. Starr all stated they would do everything possible to help the employees in becoming re-located in other industry.

Defence Production Minister O'Hurley said efforts are being made to bring new industries to Lindsay as soon as possible. There were prospects the arsenal plant here would be sold to private industry, he said.

"We of the delegation are quite satisfied the trip was successful. It was very satisfying to be so well received and to take part in a most understanding discussion", Labor Council President Stevens summed up.

The delegation left Port Hope by train for Ottawa at 5 p.m. Tuesday. They arrived in Ottawa around 11.30. The return trip home was delayed about an hour Wednesday night due to a wreck on the other side of Brockville.

Oakwood trimmed Kinmount 13-2 in a fast Tri County Independent League game played on home ice Wednesday evening. Oakwood goalie Orville McLean earned title of game standout as he kicked out the puck left and right to the delight of the 100 fans.

Also starring in the game were Oakwood forward Ronnie Jewell, with eight goals to his credit and left winger Johnny Horton, who piled up 12 points.

Kinmount scored the first goal, with Oakwood banging in four in the opener. The second period saw Oakwood with two more. Oakwood piled up her total to 13 in the third, allowing Kinmount to knock in her second.

Oakwood will play the return game at Kinmount Saturday night.

Two below zero official low

The low temperature reading in Lindsay during the night was two below zero, maximum night reading between 6 p.m. Wednesday and 8 a.m. Thursday was 14 above.

Court House staff honors Jasper Forman

Ex-Sheriff Jasper Forman was presented with a memento of his long association with Victoria oCunty Court House by the staff today.

His successor — Sheriff Everett Scott — made the presentation address to Mr. Forman while County Clerk Frank L. Weldon presented him with a pen and clock desk set.

Mrs. Forman was presented with a bouquet and her husband made a moving reply to the gestures.

they are striking best but when they are out of season) they'll do it in January."

Reeve Found says he can't understand why Victoria County and the lower half of Peterborough County (the Kawartha Lakes chain) are singled out for discriminatory treatment. "I have heard", he said, "that politics enter this picture and that the Lands and Forests would open the area if the pressure wasn't brought to bear. Just a year ago, the minister himself indicated this when he was asked if an ice fishing season could be arranged in Victoria. His reply was in the form of a question: "Why not?"

Minden says "booked solid" for its '63 Winter Carnival

Accommodation is booked solid from Minden south to Miner's Bay and Carnarvon and Haliburton for the Winter Carnival opening at Minden on Friday night and continuing Saturday and Sunday.

This is the third year for the popular event, Friday highlight of which is the crowning of a beauty queen. On Saturday Hon. Bryan Cathcart, Minister of Travel and Publicity and Hon. L. M. Frost will officiate at the opening ceremonies, a carnival spokesman relates.

On Saturday evening the National Hockey League Old Timers play the Minden Monarchs at Minden Recreation Centre. A bonspiel of 24 rinks from different curling clubs of Ontario will also highlight Saturday's activities.

Thirty-two skiing events have been arranged at the Carnarvon Ski Hills Saturday and Sunday.

The whole weekend carnival is packed with contests, races and events of interest for both young and old.

The carnival is sponsored by the villagers of Minden and proved so popular last year many events had to be held until the following weekend due

People going south may be tempted to run contraband through the Canadian customs on their return, especially if they get wind of the high price sugar is commanding on their Canadian stomping ground. An ad from a Sarasota, Florida newspaper offers a five-pound bag of "Dixie Crystals" (extra fine granulated sugar) for 29 cents. That 30 cents cheaper than it can be bought for in Lindsay where five-pound bags bring around 59 cents. A fellow wouldn't have to bring such a big shipment to make enough to cover expenses. Why the difference? Does freight costs six cents a pound?

Dymond Discusses Health in Ontario

Mental Health Clinics

Matthew B. Dymond, MD, CM.
Ontario Minister of Health

For nearly thirty-five years in Ontario, mental health clinics have been operating where the emotionally or mentally ill may obtain the psychiatric help they need without having to go to a mental hospital or leave their everyday surroundings.

A clinic staff usually consists of a psychiatrist who is a physician trained in treating emotional illness, a psychologist trained in the study of behaviour, a psychiatric social worker trained in counselling the families of sick people, and sometimes a nurse or speech therapist. The atmosphere of a clinic is like a doctor's office. The staff is trained to recognize and treat most minor mental disorders, by intensive counselling of patients, by planning with parents, relatives, teachers and employers, and by using various medical treatments.

Compared to mental hospitals, mental health clinics are a new venture. In Ontario the oldest has been operating about 35 years. Many changes have occurred in this time. Initially they were designed to keep the mentally ill out of hospitals, which were already crowded, by early diagnosis and community treatment of various mental disorders, and also to help in the readjustment of a patient after he had left hospital. Gradually this has changed. Today the clinics not only still perform this service, but they also treat many patients who would not need hospitalization in any case. But the care provided at the clinics spares them and their families much disruption and distress.

One of these mental health clinics is the Adult Outpatients' Department of the Toronto Psychiatric Hospital where over 1000 new people are treated each year. Over half are referred by family doctors and the rest hear of the clinic through friends or relatives. In education, earnings, age and outward appearance they are remarkably typical of the city they live in. Their problems vary widely. Here are some examples.

An elderly pensioner living with an infirm wife, hardly able to leave her long enough to shop, became depressed. A young mother, overburdened with family cares, gave vent to her anger by attacking her children and her husband, yet was fearful that she might harm them. A young father, employed in an office, came to doubt his ability to the point where he could not make decisions, and was threatened with loss of his job.

The twenty-four community mental health clinics throughout Ontario are maintained by the Department of Health as an essential health service. No fees are charged to patients who come to the clinics. These clinics are part of your Department's attempt to achieve a high standard of community health and well-being.

Port Hope meeting discussed by members

The January meeting of the Lindsay B & PW Club was held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Hall at which time a delicious hot dinner was served by the Goforth Ladies Society of the Church. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Lorne Bell. The mystery draw donated by Miss Lotta Axford was won by Miss Marjorie Lake.

Mrs. Ruby Washington introduced the guest speaker, Mr. J. K. Fleming of Belleville, Ont., Passenger sales manager for C.N.R., who showed two films — (1) Jasper Park and This Is Canada — from coast to coast. These films were greatly enjoyed by the members and Miss Harriett Rate thanked the speaker for his coloured films of this great country Canada. A C.N.R. tour "Window of the West" was brought to the attention of the meeting by Bernice Newton of Lindsay, and Peggy Bryant of Belleville, and anyone interested in making a Western tour this coming summer, was requested to contact either of these ladies for full information. Discussion took place in regard to the Port Hope meeting at which time as many members as possible are expected to attend, as we will not be having a meeting in Lindsay in February. The guest speaker at the Port Hope meeting will be Mrs. Maude Bayley.

The two prizes donated by the B & PW Club were presented at the annual Commencement exercises of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute by the Vice President, Mrs. Adrian Houzer.

Books of draw tickets for the annual Easter trip were distributed to the team Captains during the meeting.

Three C.N.R. over-night bags donated by the Guest Speaker were won by Mrs. L. Sproule, Miss D. Bolyea and Miss M. Corley.

The meeting closed with the Club Collect.

FIRST REPAIRS

Prime Minister Macmillan has called his cabinet together to plan the first repairs of his shattered Common Market policy. Today's meeting follows Macmillan's brief but blunt speech last night denouncing French President De Gaulle for keeping Britain out of the six-nation economic group. He pledged his nation to seek closer economic ties with other free world nations outside the Common Market.

URGENT CONSULTATIONS

It was announced today that the American Ambassador to Bonn, Walter Dowling, will return to Washington next week for urgent consultations. President Kennedy ordered Dowling to make a personal report on Germany's position on the French refusal to negotiate Britain's entry into the Common Market.

UP FOR REVIEW

Canada's role in North American and European defense comes up for review today in a report promised by the U-S State Department repudiating Canada's nuclear weapons policy. The statement made it clear the U-S wants Canada to accept nuclear warheads for its air defense weapons.

TO INVESTIGATE

An Indonesian's complaints that he was refused accomodation because of his color has led to a board of inquiry to investigate apartment house discrimination in Windsor, Ontario. The Dean of Toronto University Law School, Cecil Wright has been appointed to head the inquiry. The investigation was spurned after B. Tie Khow filed two complaints against a Windsor apartment house.

TO TRY TO REGISTER

Twenty-two-year old U-S Navy veteran Dewey Greene of Greenwood, Mississippi, is expected to try to register at the University of Mississippi today. He would be the second negro to attend "Ole Miss". James Meredith announced yesterday he plans to return to the campus to register either today or tomorrow. School administration officials have warned that demonstrations will not be tolerated.

FRESH SESSIONS

Mayor Robert Wagner is expected to call fresh mediation sessions later today in New York City's 55-day old newspaper blackout. He wound up meeting with management negotiators before dawn this morning, then called in printers' representatives.

18 tables played at CWL euchre

A pleasant evening was spent recently at St. Mary's auditorium when euchre was played with 18 tables filled.

Winners were: Men's 1st prize-Mr. Gerard McMahon; Men's 2nd prize-Mr. Harry Baker; Ladies' 1st prize-Mrs. Gerard McMahon; Ladies' 2nd prize-Mrs. B. McGeough; Lucky door prize-Mrs. L. Bissette.

Lunch was served.

Mrs. Emmett Miller, convener, is making plans for another euchre party in the near future.

STOP! . . . killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

CHLOROQUINE POWER SHOULD BE USED WITH CARE

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I am taking a drug called chloroquine for the treatment of my rheumatoid arthritis. It seems to be helping me. But I have heard lately that it can be dangerous. Is this true?—Mrs. Z.

Comment: Chloroquine is a relatively new drug. It is being used effectively, and more, in the management of malaria. But lately, as in your case, it has been quite helpful in many patients who have rheumatoid arthritis. There have also been reports that it is good in treating lupus erythematosus and amoeba infection of the bowel and liver.

However, it is true, that this drug sometimes causes untoward reactions. For example, about one person in 10 can't take it at all. Such patients may get toxic symptoms like headache, loss of weight, stomach upsets, nervousness, skin outbreaks with itching, dryness, and sometimes loss of hair. I have been reading recently that, in one case at least, it seems to have caused serious trouble in vision.

But chloroquine isn't any different from any other potent drug. We should be thankful we have it to use; nevertheless watchfulness is the secret of good treatment.

For example, many heart patients are afraid to take digitalis because they have heard it is a poison. Yet it is true that under the correct dosage prescribed by a doctor who continues to check its action on the patient, it is not a poison but a potential life-saver.

What is true of chloroquine and digitalis also applies to many other medicines including tranquilizers, antibiotics. The important thing to remember is not to go off on a binge of self-treatment. Always rely on supervision by your doctor; otherwise you may get into trouble. This rule may even apply to apparently harmless aspirin. No medicine is innocent.

CORRECT THYROID DIAGNOSIS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have been nervous for years. Lately I have noticed a small enlargement in my throid gland. Since I have all the symptoms and signs I suppose I must have hyperthyroidism.—Mrs. Y.

Comment: If self-treatment is bad, so it is true that self-diagnosis is even worse. In view of the common knowledge of hyperthyroidism, better not get the idea that you can diagnose it in yourself or in others. To let you in on a secret; sometimes it's a difficult job for doctors, too.

For example, I recall a patient who came in years ago complaining of the cardinal symptoms of an overactive thyroid: she was irritable, nervous, couldn't sleep, lost weight, and had a slight enlargement of the thyroid. The temptation was to make a diagnosis of overactive gland, but future events proved that instead of being over-active what she really had was hypothyroidism (an underactive gland).

Instead of needing medicines to quiet down the thyroid-or even a thyroidectomy-she needed to take extra doses of thyroid extract every day to whip up a lazy thyroid.

What about her symptoms? Her nervousness, loss of weight, etc.??? Careful questioning elicited the fact that had lost weight many years ago. She admitted to being a "neurotic". As it turned out, her fatigue, nervousness improved after she had taken thyroid extract for a few months.

I tell you this, Mrs. Y, so you won't jump to conclusions. Although it's possible that in your case the trouble may be due to an over-active thyroid, don't bet on it until your doctor has had the chance to prove it or disprove it.

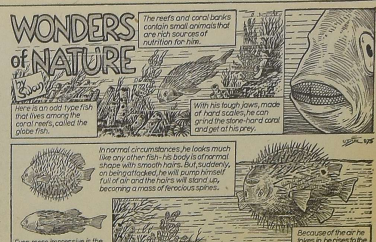
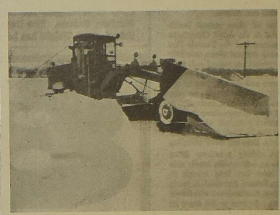
WONDERS of NATURE



20-hour days not unusual for county snowplow crews



Modern snow removal equipment such as that seen above facilitates road opening but long hours of work is still necessary.

Working 20 hours at a stretch has been the loyal contribution of many men of the Victoria County snow removal force in the almost incessant snow battle of the past weeks. And they have kept the 232 miles of the county road system open with perhaps a short lapse due to machine breakage. "Few persons realize the stupendous effort expanded by these men in this work", pointed out Assistant County Engineer and Road Superintendent Dave Valentine in disclosing the above facts.

County snow removal equipment includes three graders with plows; three snow plow trucks (all working full time) and one stand by snow plow truck.

The county Road system is divided into four districts. District 1 (the south west section) under the direction of Foreman Bert North of Glandine; District 2 (the northwest section) under forman Dougald MacArthur of Hartley; District 3 (the northeast section) under Irwin White, Fenelon Falls; District 4 (the southeast section) under Forman Hubert Elliott of Dunsford. Each forman operates his own machine and Ross Thornbury, Theodore Heatlie and Lloyd Fraser graders in the north-west, south-west and southeast sections respectively. A second man goes on each machine.

When the roads are clear, private lanes are opened on request and aid is given the townships if possible.

Heavy roads have caused several breakages in county machines lately but repairs have been rushed with men working around the clock to get the machine in operation as quickly as possible.

All county road operations are under the supervision of County Engineer and Road Superintendent Harold Willford and his office staff. Herman Buckley is general foreman.

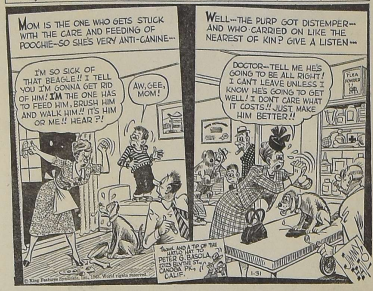
They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo



This Day

Today is Thursday, January 31st, the 31st day of 1963 with 334 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Venus and Mars.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born on this day are under the sign of Aquarius. Austrian composer Franz Schubert was born on this day in 1797.

On this day in history:

In 1865, Robert E. Lee was appointed commander-in-chief of all confederate armies by Jefferson Davis, President of the confederacy.

In 1950, President Truman announced he had ordered the development of the hydrogen bomb by the atomic energy commission.

In 1953, Holland experienced one of its worst floods in history as more than two-thousand people lost their lives when dikes crumpled, flooding 330 acre of land.

In 1958, the first U-S Satellite explorer-one was lanched into orbit.

Thought for Today

Francis Bacon,, English philosopher and author, once said: "Here therefore is the greatest distemper of learning, when men study words not matter".

William C. Kitson

The death of William Charles Kitson in his 88th year, occurred suddenly on November 15, 1962, at his home in Little Britain.

Born in Suffolk County, England, on June 10, 1875, he was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Kitson. Of this family, one sister to Mr. William Kitson, Mrs. Fannie Pallant of Ipswich, England, survives. On October 2nd, 1901, in the Baptist Chapel at Mendlesham Green, Suffolk County, England Mr. Kitson married Eva Hart. In this same community he farmed until 1914, when, with his wife and five eldest children, he came to Canada. In Canada, he settled in the Glenarm district. During his nine years in this locality, he made many life long friends. In March, 1923, he took up farming near Little Britain in Mariposa township where he continued farming until 1945 when, with his wife, he made his home in Bowmanville. It was there in 1961 that they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with all their family and many of their grandchildren and great grandchildren in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Kitson returning to the Little Britain area in 1962 purchased a home in the village of Little Britain and took up residence therein. The late Mr. Kitson was a devout Christian and always a very active church member. In 1938 he was baptised and joined the Sunderland Baptist Church. His dedicated life to God was a blessing to all who fellowshipped with him. He greatly enjoyed reading and was a student of Christian literature. His greatest enjoyment was found in the daily reading of his Bible which he read from cover to cover many times. Having a thorough knowledge of the Bible, coupled with ability to teach, he was a valued teacher in the churches with which he was affiliated in the various localities where he lived. Being fond of music, he loved to play the piano and sing. He was a chorister in the Church of England in his boyhood. While in Glenarm, sang in the choir of the church, and was a member of a quartet which sang at many social gatherings and concerts. At his home, young people often gathered where he helped them learn to sing. His musical talent was also a great asset to his church in Little Britain. The beauty of nature was always a source of inspiration to Mr. Kitson, which he often enjoyed while working in his garden, of which, especially in later years, he took great pride.

Surviving besides his sister and his wife are seven children, Mollie (Mrs. Owen Sweetman), Little Britain; Ben of Peterborough; Wilfred of Bowmanville; Margaret (Mrs. Thomas Dancey), Cannington; Ada (Mrs. Ross Goodhand), Beaverton; Cassie (Mrs. Frank Stacey), Cresswell; and Eva (Mrs. Clare Netherton), Lindsay. He was predeceased by an Infant son, Geoffrey, two grandchildren, Harold Kitson and John Stacey. Also surviving are twenty three grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.

The funeral service was conducted from the Mackey Funeral Home, Lindsay, on November 17th. Rev. Lorne Norton of the Fellowship Baptist Church, Little Britain, presented a message of assurance and comfort. Mrs. Norton sang a hymn entitled, "Face To Face." Interment was made in the Christian Cemetery, Little Britain.

Pallbearers were six grandsons, Glen and Ivan Goodhand, Harvey and Carl Sweetman, Douglas Netherton and Arthur Tibbits.

Sweep

The Patron-President Bonspiel which is now underway at the Peel Street ice palace is one of the oldest events in the life of the Lindsay Club. It is traditional to have a patron and they have generally been associated with the club as active or retired curlers. This season all members of the club including all rovers have been allowed to participate.

Winners in the Patron-President event Tuesday night were as follows: Cook over Jim Mackey, Edmonds over Woollard, L. Mackey over King, Woodrow over Davis, Bill Gregory over Rodman, Gassien over Lyons, Kennedy over Richmond, Smith over Terrill, Heels over Hardy, Ferguson over Thurston, Mac-Duffee over Tompkins, Algar over McGahey.

Oakwood Events

Curlers at Oakwood are planning for the annual George Williamson Mixed Bonspiel. The genial proprietor of the Bargain Barn has sponsored the event for several years.

The annual Lindsay Coal Bonspiel will be played at Oakwood early in March.

Next In Line

Next in line of bonspiels at the Peel Street rink will be the annual Massey-Harris one day event to be held next Saturday. Bill Roblin of the Roblin Farm Supply has deputized Newton Wilson to be generalissimo of the event. A complete entry of 24 rinks will be on hand.

CWL January meeting

Members of St. Mary's Parish Council C.W.L. met in St Mary's Parish Hall for the January meeting with Mrs. P. L. Kavanaugh presiding.

Reports were read by the conveners. Several "Thank-you" letters were read by Miss Teresa O'Connell Cor. Secretary for gifts sent at Christmas. Mrs. Alex Campbell convener of Press and Publicity reminded the members that February is Press month and subscriptions for the Canadian Register would be taken up during the month. Members of the executive who receive the Diocesan "League Letter" were asked to bring them to the monthly meetings so they could be passed on to the members in this way to better acquaint them of the work being carried on by the Peterborough Diocesan Council.

DETROIT DEFEATS NEW YORK 6-1

Toronto plays at Montreal and Chicago visits Boston in National Hockey League action tonight. Chicago is in first place–two points ahead of Montreal and Toronto. Last night, Gordie Howe and Parker MacDonald scored two goals apiece to spark Detroit to a 6-1 win over New York.

MOVE INTO FIRST

Quebec shaded Hershey 5-3 to move into a first place tie with Providence in the Eastern division of the American Hockey League last night. Pittsburgh blanked Springfield 3-0. The league is idle tonight.

SHARE FIRST ROUND

Gardener Dickinson and Harold Kneece share the first round lead as the Palm Springs, California, Golf Classic swings into the second round. Dickinson and Kneece shot five-under par 66's in yesterday's opening round to hold a one-stroke edge over top money winner Gary Player and Bob Shave. Arnold Palmer had a 71 . . . Sam Snead, a 72 . . . and Billy Casper, a 70.

THE FAVORITE

Two-time winner Paul Runyon is the favorite as the P-G-A Seniors Golf Championship gets underway at Port. St. Lucie, Florida, today. The 54-year-old golfer from La Jolla, California, heads a field of 400.

EARNS SPLIT DECISION

Old pro Sugar Ray Robinson earned a spit decision over middleweight Ralph Dupas at Miami Beach last night. The 42-year-old Robinson won the verdict on the vcards of the referee and one judge. There were no knockdowns. It was the 153rd pro victory for the former middleweight and welterweight champions.

SIGNS CONTRACT

Don Drysdale, the big righthander who won 25 games for the Los Angeles Dodgers last season, signed his contract yesterday for an estimated 45-thousand dollars. Drysdale becomes the highest paid pitcher in Dodger history. Other Dodgers to okay terms are hard-hitting outfielder Tommy Davis and infielder-outfielder Ron Fairly. Cincinnati signed outfielder Wally Post and the Chicago White Sox have first baseman Joe Cunningham and outfielder Mike Hershreberger in the fold.

IMPRESSIVE VICTORY

"Ridan" tuned up for the Seminole and Widener Handicaps with an impressive victory in the Palm Beach Handicap at Hialeah yesterday. Ridan finished three and three-quarter lenths ahead of "Jaipur". "Merry Ruler" was third and "Kelso" fourth in the seven-furlong race.
